"The Rest Of The Record"

BY JAMES V. ALLRED
Governor of Texas

The daily press has been full of accounts of the investigation carried on by a Senate committee beginning in Dallas and winding up in Austin. In Dallas for nearly three days they heard Tom Clark, a public official, who is now an Assistant Attorney General of the United States and was a partner of Attorney General William McCraw up to the day he became Attorney General.

Clark admitted that he had agreed to pay McCraw $10,000 for his interest in their partnership, which had not yet yielded either of them nearly this much the year before the time the partnership was dissolved. He admitted that he had paid the Attorney General over $9,000, some of it in cash, some in checks and some by the payment of accounts for the Attorney General, during the first year he was in office.

He also admitted that during that time he had received fees from marble machine operators and from insurance companies, who were affected by opinions of the Attorney General's department. The Attorney General claims, however, that Clark at no time discussed these matters with him, although he admits that during that time Clark paid him over $9,000, about $7,000 being in cash from time to time.

The evidence before the committee showed that during the first two years of McCraw's administration as Attorney General, Clark's income jumped to twenty and thirty times what it had been the year before. Clark refused to permit his bank to produce his bank account during and before that time. He wrote a letter to the bank telling them if they turned the record over to the committee he would sue the bank for damages.

The committee had asked for these records over a year ago when Clark was still practicing law in Texas, and he refused to produce them. He immediately went to Washington and got the place as Assistant Attorney General, where he is now and has been since that time a public official.

Clark's attitude in this matter brings to my mind the rule laid down by President Roosevelt when he was Governor of New York and had before him removal proceedings against Sheriff Thomas Farley and Mayor Jimmie Walker.

I have gone back and checked the newspaper accounts of those hearings and find that the President then laid down the rule that "public officials, when under investigation must explain their private incomes as well as their official acts." It might be well for us to read some of the things the President then said. I quote:

"As a matter of general sound public policy, I am certain that there is a requirement that where a public official is under inquiry or investigation, and it appears that his scale of living or the total of his bank deposits far exceeds the public salary which he is known to receive, he, the elected public official, owes a positive public duty to the community to give a reasonable or creditable explanation of the sources of the deposits, or the source which enables him to maintain a scale of living beyond the amount of his salary.

"While this rule may seem to be an enlargement of any previous ruling by a Governor of this State, it is, in my belief, that the standard of the conduct of public officers, be put on a plane of personal, as well as official honesty, and that, therefore, there is a positive duty on the part of the public official to explain matters which arise on an inquiry which involves the expenditure or the depositing of large sums of money.

"Passive acquiescence by unthinking people in the actions of those who shrewdly turn to personal advantage the opportunities offered by public office is out of step with modern ideals of government and with political morality. Such personal gain is not to be excused because it is accompanied by the respondent's

Missing Girl Found In Wichita Falls

Wichita Falls, March 6—Officers from Quitaque and Wichita Falls were puzzled Saturday afternoon when a 16-year old girl, confronted by a man claiming her as his daughter who ran away from home eight months ago, steadfastly denied she had ever seen him and her story made the man doubtful of her identity.

City police were called after the Quitaque party was run out of a small cafe by the woman proprietor who objected to their questioning the girl, employed there as a waitress.

While being taken to the woman's ward of county jail where she was to be searched by the matron for a body scar the man said would be found if the girl were his daughter, the young girl admitted she was the missing daughter.

She was released to her father and the two joined the Quitaque officers to return home.

Lots of Potatoes For Folks On Relief

Surplus potatoes from three states will be added to the diets of families receiving relief. According to R L Montgomery, director of commodity distribution, Texas Relief Commission, the federal surplus commodities corporation, under the direction of the agricultural adjustment administration, is now engaged in buying surplus potatoes in Idaho, Colorado and Utah, in order to bring about orderly marketing and to protect growers.

As a result of this buying program the Texas Relief Commission has received 2,988,000 pounds of this nourishing vegetable during February, and Mr Montgomery states that he expects 612,000 pounds more from the corporation as its program progresses.

District 6, comprised of 26 counties in the Panhandle, received 108,000 pounds of the above potatoes during February to be distributed through its local storerooms and truck service at the Amarillo warehouse.

During the month of February, 107,200 pounds of Irish potatoes were disbursed to families on relief in the above 26 counties in the Panhandle.

Harvey Case Has Full-Time Work

We haven't been able to figure out Harvey Case's business status—whether he operates an auto agency, tractor agency, mule and horse agency or a grocery store. (He doesn't try to keep all of his wares in the same building.) But Harvey went to Texarkana recently as chaperone for a load of mules and while there sold an automobile.

Returning home he was approached by a friend after leaving Estel and sold another automobile. Arriving here he immediately returned to Fort Worth with another shipment of work animals which he disposed of and is now (or was) back in Quitaque buying and selling—what have you? That's pretty good for a man on crutches—and Harvey has used three legs and carried one for several months. Incidentally, if you don't want to get traded with it's best to lay off of him.

Attend Service Last Week at Amarillo

Mrs E C Price, Mrs Paul Hamilton, Mrs H G Gardiner, Mrs Frank Gillespie and Mrs E H Stephens accompanied by A L Patterson and Rev. G L Keever attended the regional Aldersgate Commemoration service in Amarillo last Wednesday. They report a great inspiration service. Bishops H A Boaz, A Frank Smith of the Methodist Episcopal church, South and Bishop Ralph Cushman of the Denver area of the Methodist Episcopal church made addresses as well as Dr Clark of Nashville, Tenn.

Mr and Mrs A Vinyard attended church services in Quitaque Sunday evening.

Methodist Young Women Enjoy Social

The Young Women's Missionary society of the Methodist church met Tuesday night with Mrs O D Lowry for a miscellaneous program, with Mrs Bud Bailey as leader. Others having a part on the program were Mrs Paul Hamilton, Mrs Lowry, Mrs Frank Gillespie and Miss Lorene Oliphint.

Following the program Mrs Bud Bailey was honored with a kitchen shower, and received many nice gifts.

"Peanut" friends were drawn, no one except the friends drawing the name knowing who's who, and at intervals something nice is done for that friend.

Refreshments were served to the following: Mmes. Paul Hamilton, Frank Gillespie, Bud Bailey, Sam Bryant (a new member), Misses Minnie Mae Roberson, Mabel Atkinson, Lorene Oliphint and the hostess.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, March 22, with Miss Roberson as hostess.

Pioneer Drug Delivers Several Electroluxes

C R Badgett of the Pioneer Drug Store reports delivery of five new Servel Electrolux refrigerators within the past few days, four of which are the direct result of his advertising, he stated. But of course the refrigerator buying season is a few days off yet and the full benefit of his advertising campaign, which was begun Feb. 24, will not be realized until the season "hits its stride".

Those to whom deliveries have been made are: W W Douglas of Silverton, a 6-foot box; Mrs D M Miller, Quitaque, a 4.10 box; Grady Wimberly of Silverton, a 6-foot box; J R Ross of Quitaque, a 4.10 box and W W Boone of Turkey, a 6-foot box.

Baptist WMU Circles Have Business Meeting

Both circles of the Baptist WMU met Monday afternoon at the church in a business session. Twelve ladies were present, with Miss Jimmy Stroup in charge.

Plans were made for remembering the children at Buckner orphan home with several boxes, one to contain new garments for a boy and a girl about nine years old, another of articles such as sheets, towels, clothing, etc., and a box of eggs.

Decision was made to send this week, to each of the young people from the Baptist church who are away at school, a box of candy and a cake.

The personal assignment remained visiting in the interest of the church and Sunday school, particularly during the meeting now in progress.

Next Monday the circles will meet separately, No. 1 with Mrs Bogan and No. 2 with Mrs P P Rumph, for Bible study.

Quitaque Folks Attend Workers' Meet

The Baptist Association Workers' conference met at South Plains Tuesday, March 8. A nice program was carried out and at noon dinner was served buffet style in the church.

Those going from Quitaque were Otis Wilson, Mildred Wilson, Jessie Lee Metzker, Mr and Mrs Fred Buchanan, George Owens, Mrs R B Persons, Mrs H E Berry, Mrs W F Brittain, Mrs Buddy Morris, Mrs Jimmy Stroup, Rev. J T Smithee, Rev. C R Joiner of Spur who is conducting the Baptist revival here, Mrs O W Stroup, Mrs W W Jenkins and Mrs Roy Burgess.

Owing to the rain and slippery roads some of the folks experienced difficulty getting home.

P P Rumph is confined to his home by influenza.

'It Won't Be Long Now' Says Grady Starkey

Quitaque's street lights, for which the city council signed a contract about three weeks ago, will be installed just as soon as the fixtures arrive, according to J A Brewer, district manager.

In a letter this week to Grady Starkey, local manager, Mr Brewer states: "We are trying to get the street lighting fixtures in here, and just as soon as they arrive we will get right over and get the system installed.

"We ordered these, and have been tracing the shipment. They have to come from New York, not stocked in Dallas; hence it takes time to get them.

"Tell the boys that just as soon as they arrive we are all set to install them. We have the balance of the material here in the store room.

"I know they are anxious to get them, and we are anxious to get them installed, and have instructed the store-keeper to trace them and get them here with just as little delay as possible."

Mayor LaGuardia On WTCC Program

Wichita Falls—Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia of New York City, scheduled to be a principal speaker before the twentieth annual West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention, in Wichita Falls on April 25, 26 and 27, will address the general assembly on Tuesday afternoon, April 26, J S Bridwell, convention program chairman, announced today.

Mayor LaGuardia, chief executive of America's No. 1 city, is one of the most colorful figures in "public life in or country today, and his address before the WTCC convention the most popular drawing cards on the three-days programs, and should attract national attention" Mr Bridwell said.

Methodist WMS Has Social Meeting

The Methodist missionary society met Monday afternoon in the home of Mrs H G Gardiner in a social and business meeting. The lesson for the afternoon was the regular World Outlook program with Mrs Hughes as leader. Mesdames W P Hall, Reeves and Graham had parts on the program.

Following a short business session, the hostess served refreshments to eight members present and two guests, Mrs Webb Taylor and baby of Edgin.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs Jim Tunnell, Monday, March 14, at 3 o'clock.

Baptist Revival Still in Progress

The Baptist revival meeting is still in progress. We are having good gospel preaching and the attendance is increasing. If you have not attended, start now.

Rev. C R Joiner of Spur is holding the services and delivering powerful sermons. We invite everyone to join us in this meeting.

J. Taylor, Smithee, Pastor.

ARM BROKEN WHEN CAUGHT IN WINDMILL

L T Gilcrease suffered a broken arm Tuesday while working on a windmill at his home on the old Hafner farm. In some manner he got his arm caught in the windmill and the wrist was broken, a section of the bone about two inches in length being snapped out. He was taken to the Plainview Sanitarium where the wound could be properly taken care of and will have to remain there several days.

Mr and Mrs Grover Grundy were in Lubbock Sunday to visit Mrs Ed Grundy who underwent an operation last Thursday. Billie Grundy accompanied them to see his mother. They report Mrs Grundy doing as well as could be expected.

Farmers Urged To Vote in Referendum

College Station—"It is very important that all cotton producers take part in the March 12 referendum on the cotton marketing quota," Geo. Slaughter, Wharton, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Conservation committee, says.

The cotton quota plan will require a two-thirds favorable vote to be effective, or a one-third negative vote to be rejected, the state committee chairman pointed out. Therefore, the true will of the cotton farmers can be expressed only if practically all producers vote.

The referendum will be in charge of the county committees, who will provide convenient voting places and will appoint three local farmers to handle the referendum at each balloting place. Unofficial county results may be announced as soon as votes are tabulated.

The polls will open not later than 9 a. m. and will close at 7 p. m. Each producer who grew cotton in 1937 will be entitled to cast one vote.

Printed leaflets and other information on the details of the 1938 farm program have been sent to county agricultural agents for distribution among farmers, according to Slaughter.

Every farmer will have before March 12, an opportunity to attend a county or community meeting at which the program will be explained to him.

The material being distributed includes A New Farm Act, a leaflet which summarizes the provisions of the agricultural adjustment act of 1938, and Questions and Answers on the Agricultural Conservation Act of 1938. As it applies to cotton, which covers important points on marketing quotas, acreage allotments, penalties, payments and loans.

Nature Study Program For Culture Club

Nature study was the subject of the program of the Womens Culture club which met Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs Paul Hamilton. The theme was a quotation from Theodore Parker, "Nature is Man's religious book." Mrs E W Scheid was leader.

Talks were given by Mrs. P Rumph and Mrs Scheid, Mrs Rumi subject being "Shadowy Birds of the Night" and Mrs Scheid's, "Marjorie, Oldest Ally, the Dog."

A piano solo, "The Storm" by the hostess, completed the program for the afternoon.

Don't Forget The Party Friday Night

Do not forget the Food, Fun and Fellowship program that is to be at the Methodist church on Friday evening of this week. Wanted—every member of the church and church school to attend. All friends of the church as well as the brothers-in-law or sisters-in-law. Let's get better acquainted.

NEW MODERN HOME HAS ALL MODERN CONVENIENCES

The new home of Clete Miller, east of town, is drawing lots of favorable comment from residents hereabout. The house, constructed under direction of W P Hawkins, will be completed and ready for occupancy in about one more week. It is modern in every respect, with lots of cabinet space and other built-in conveniences, contains six rooms and bath, and when completed will be an ideal country home.

Mr and Mrs C E Wainscott and daughters of Rule were in Quitaque Monday and Tuesday looking after business here and at Silverton enroute to their home from Lorenzo and Shallowater. Mr Wainscott preached the morning service at Lorenzo Sunday and the evening service at Shallowater.

Mrs J R Ross suffered a ruptured blood vessel while visiting in Silverton the first of the week. She was returned to her home here Tuesday and was reported Wednesday to be getting along nicely.

AGRICULTURAL BRIEFS

BY THE BRISCOE COUNTY AGENT

March is here and we're all hoping up over the possibility of not having too many dust storms this year. The moisture we had late in February brought the wheat along so nicely that lots of these "blowing" places are covered with a nice green blanket. Here's hoping that more moisture comes along to keep that green blanket growing.

Pasture and range lands are beginning to put on a green coat of weeds and some grass. Of course we're glad to have that vegetation for the cattle and sheep, but still we appreciate it more because it keeps the land from blowing.

Applications For Payment
We have just about secured the necessary 75 percent sign up on our applications for payment. These papers will be sent to the "pay office" this week. Those fellows who haven't found time to come by and sign their papers can now have all the time they want for signing—they won't be holding up the rest of the papers. Many questions are coming in as to when we will get our checks. jokingly last week I guessed we'd get 'em by July 4th. Since talking to some other county agents I've decided that July 4 maybe wasn't such a bad guess. Of course it's all a guess with me.

March 12 Referendum
Clyde Hutsell, chairman of the Briscoe county agricultural association, calls our attention to the vote on cotton quotas March 12. According to Mr Hutsell's statement there will be three polls open in Briscoe county. In Silverton the box will be in the district court room, in Quitaque the box will be at the city hall, at Antelope Flat the box will be at the school house. The polls open at 9 a m and close at 7 p m. Mr Hutsell urges every farmer who produced cotton in 1937 to come to the polls and vote his sentiments.

Mr Hutsell points out a few high lights of the referendum as follows:

(1) Whether the referendum carries or not the soil conservation program for 1938 is still in effect and all farmers who took a government loan on cotton last fall are obligated to cooperate in the program. (2) If the referendum carries the government is obligated to make loans on the 1938 cotton crop.—If it doesn't carry there will be no loan regardless of the price of cotton next fall. (3) The marketing quota does not limit a co-operator to the selling of any amount of cotton. In other words, if a co-operator is allowed to plant 60 acres of cotton he can market all the cotton he produces on that 60 acres absolutely tax free regardless of what his 5 year average yield per acre might have been, according to Mr Hutsell's statement. (4) If the referendum carries and a fellow fails to co-operate he will be limited in selling his tax free cotton to the average per acre yield—even tho he made twice as much as his average shows. A tax of 2c per pound will have to be paid on all cotton sold in excess of his established average yield. The non-co-operators (if the referendum carries) will be allowed a loan on only his excess cotton and that loan will be only 60 per cent of what a co-operator receives, Mr Hutsell points out.

Meetings, Yes Meetings
A series of educational meetings are scheduled for the county this week. Wednesday at 3:30 p m in Quitaque and that same day at 7:30 at Antelope Flat there will be a similar meeting for the purpose of giving out all available information on the cotton referendum. On Friday at 3:30 p m in the district court room in Silverton another meeting will be held for the purpose of passing on information gathered on the coming referendum.

A Great Meeting
(By Mabel C. Boggs)

One, or if not, to me, of the world's greatest business meetings ever recorded is given to us in the 28th chapter of Chronicles. The Lord had been talking to a king. You see, in those days, the rulers of nations needed the Lord. It was such a responsibility to be a leader; they needed the best to help them. This king from his boyhood days had loved the Lord, but had too, like other men, sinned, and sinned so greatly that the Lord could not give him his heart's greatest desire. He wanted to do a great thing for the Lord and I believe talked often with the Lord about it. He wanted to build a house for the Ark of the Covenant to rest in.

To do things we have to call people together. This king called his men of every office in any way together. He stood up before them, told them his plans. Our president has the radio to give his message to his people.

Could David have the privilege of the microphone, many could have heard and realized what disobedience to the Lord's will will bring about, even to the rulers. Well, he stood before them, told them of his plans, then with an honest confe-sion, told them he could not do what he wanted because he had been a man of war and had shed blood. He told them God had told him that in the third verse of the chapter.

Does our president tell us in his messages what God says to him? Our hearts are hungry for it. We elected him to lead us and on our coins is "In God we trust." We want to know how God is leading him and if he feels God is still leading him, then we can know our nation's future.

I'm sure this was David's life's greatest disappointment. We know of one great sorrow before; the death of his child by Uriah's wife. He took another man's wife, you know. Stole the most sacred thing in life to any man or woman—true love. What David called scheming, placed Uriah on the front of the fighting line where he would be killed so he might have his wife. He got the wife alright, she bore him a son, I believe any true father's desire. But for his sin God called the child. But David did not rebel. He bore his Gethsemane submissively. God gave him many more sons, but chose Solomon to do what David was not permitted to do if he would do what God wanted him to. He told David of his plans and that Solomon would be his son and he would be a father. Our president's son is his secretary. If the president fails God in this great day of plans, will He tell him to give the son the "blueprint" for the great temple. The way out, economics, and so on. Will he say to the son "Know thou the God of thy father, and serve Him with a perfect heart and a willing mind; for the Lord searcheth all hearts and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts—if thou seek Him He will be found of thee, but if thou forsake Him He will cast thee off forever."

Oh! he warned his son in two places to be strong and do what the Lord said to do. There are no words more beautiful than the 20th verse especially "Until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the Lord."

SENIOR GOSSIP

Is Yours a Model Wife?

Can she accompany you on a motor trip without driving from the back seat?

Can she see you settled comfortably with the evening paper without automatically finding chores for you to do?

Does she refrain from telling you about the marvelous men she might have married?

Does she let you tell a story all by yourself without "helping you along"?

Does she welcome the unexpected guest you bring home for dinner without making him feel that there probably is arsenic in the chocolate pudding?

My Opinion of a Home

Our great great grandfathers' homes were crudely and hurriedly built of logs. There were few carpenters among the pioneers and tools for making the homes weatherproof, or even more comfortable, were often lacking.

Today practically all houses are comfortable; however, some are more comfortable than others, but the most comfortable ones are not always homes. For a house to be a home, there must be co-operation, kindness, consideration for others, respect for the rights of others, sharing responsibilities, and love. Without these our homes are not homes, but houses.

 Texas State College for Women

bath for the senior play. When Harold Bogan pulled off his shoes to go to bed. The day after Christmas and Santa Claus did not bring Anna Belle a doll.

The Days Set Aside

Charlie set aside Friday nights to court.

Anne Belle seems to choose Monday nights to court.

Orval sets aside every day to court.

Dalsie set aside every night except Sunday night to study.

J D set aside last Friday night to show his talent for music.

Inetha: What is it that is as big as a barn, has ice cream on it, plays in the fields, crows like a rooster, and is as white as a mule?

Walter: I don't know.

Inetha: That would be a whopper of a joke if it had an answer.

The seniors wish to thank the business men and everyone else for their help in making our play a great success.

This week's theme song—Rain.

The seniors' theme song last week—"Work for the Night is Coming," (and it came—Friday night.)

Crack from a senior (not a dumb-bell)—Harve: Wayne, do you think a cross-eyed boy can make more goals in playing basketball than anyone else?

Wayne: Sure, he sees two goals at a time and surely he could make one of them. Simple. Yes — no?

Have you heard the song "Sleepy Time in Sleepy Hollow" These study halls seem to be a place for sleepy people. You can look at a person for a few minutes who seems to be so deeply absorbed in a certain book, then all of a sudden, you can almost near the words mumbled by the student. "Time out" and then the head flops down on the desk. Don't think for one minute that it stays there, though. No! I should say not. Along comes a teacher. "Listen", says the teacher, "this is no place to sleep, sleep at home." The drowsy head jumps back to normal position and the student begins to study again.

Why so many telephone calls? We wonder!

We are glad to see Walter Taylor back after a few days absence from school.

Orval Graham has been sick with a cold but he is all right now.

Juanita Case has a new cedar chest and Edna Young has a new fitted case. Where did they get them? Well, Edna and Juanita say they weren't given to them, they worked for them.

The homemaking students made muffins Tuesday and Miss McCaslin, Miss Bible, Mr Bryan, Mrs. Smith and Mr and Mrs Scheid wanted some one to slip them one. Imagine!

THE JUNIOR JOURNAL

Editorial

We have at last started making preparations to crash the gates of Silverton—our chief competitor in the county meet—and we'll bring home all winning titles, trophies and honors. The juniors will be well represented in spelling, writing, debating and track. Watch us!

An appealing lecture was given us by Mr Schoggins, a Texas ex-convict, last Monday in the high school auditorium. An audience of excited students were held spellbound forty-five minutes during which he narrated his experiences in the penitentiary. He informed us that he could talk thus for fully five and a half hours and we are sure we could listen even longer.

Business

Six weeks' test week again! It won't be long until school will be out (dreadful sorrow) and we will not get to take any tests for a while. (dreadful sorrow.)

Magazine Section

Poems

Geometry problems are quite hard to grapple.
 But most any student can dance the Big Apple.

Plaint of the Freshman

Failed in algebra; flunked in math,
 They heard her softly hiss,
 I'd like to find the guy who said
 That ignorance is bliss.

My gal got older every year
 Until her twenty-first.
 There she paused for seven years,
 And now she's in reverse.

Sports

The juniors really have some boxers if they could just find it out. Some day we'll wake up and find somebody that is as good as that senior, Barney Bogan. Then we'll show old Rex Daniels who's who and what's what. Likely candidates for the job: Tibbetts, Rhoderick, Gowin, Powell and Starkey.

A class meeting was held unexpectedly Monday morning in which we agreed on nothing. The main subject was what juniors will do on juniors day.

Society News

That senior play of Friday night was enjoyed by at least one junior boy who happened to be Johnny Gowin.

Inez Chandler really spent the weekend with friends but rumors say—she didn't.

Victims of the dipsy doodle: LaRue, Rosalind and Dorothy.

Nora Lale wears three rings on her fingers. I don't know how to interpret it.

Johnny wore glasses to school Tuesday—and colored ones at that! He explained his condition by blaming his eyes!

SOPHOMORE HEADACHE

The sophomore class is happy to announce their contestants in the following interscholastic events:

Declamation, Ophelia Hatton, Mildred Coker, Jane Scott and Edwin Drake.

Essay writing: Marie Hall and William Rucker.

Spelling: Margaret Gardiner, W E Helms and Marion Wilson.

Track and field events: Walter Patrick, W E Helms and Joe King.

Poetry

Spring has come, the grass has riz
 I wonder where the flowers is.

More Poetry

My gal has went away (boo hoo)
 My gal has went to stay (boo hoo)
 I cannot went to she
 Her cannot came to me.
 Gee! Don't it awful!

Kathleen: Why, Lorene, you don't seem worried about your tests.
 Lorene: I'm not. You see if I worry before I take the test I never need to afterwards.

Kathleen: Oh Yeah? (Folks, this is a true experience.)

Still More Poetry

Spring has come Winter has went.
 It was not did
 By accident.

Our motto: "Be prepared—the worst is yet to come." (Meaning our grades on our six-weeks' test.

FRESHMAN NEWS

Miss McCaslin: Charles, if you had a little more spunk you would stand better in your class. Now do you know what spunk is?

Charles: Yes 'um. It's the past participle of spank.

Ralph: Why don't you pay more attention to Jean?

Bernie Lee: A burnt child stays away from the fire.

Ralph: I don't understand.
 Bernie Lee: She's an old flame of mine.

Question: Why is there less mischief and more studying among the freshmen this week?
 Answer: Exam week.

Why did Ralph go to sleep in English class Friday? Did he stay up too late Thursday night?

We wonder why Helen has been mad lately?

Who is Johnnie's Flomot boy friend?

Why was Aileen so tickled Monday? Was it because she thought a certain boy was going to move here?

popularity of person and great public generosity. Public office should inspire private financial integrity.

The stewardship of public officers is a serious and sacred trust. They are so close to the means for private gain that, in a sense not at all true of private citizens, their personal possessions are invested with a public importance, in the event that their stewardship is questioned. One of their deep obligations is to recognize, not reluctantly or with resistance, but freely. It is in the spirit of a public trust to give, when personally called upon, public proof of the nature, source and extent of their financial affairs.

"It is true that this is not always pleasant. Public service makes many exacting demands. It does not offer large material compensation; often it takes more than it gives. But the truly worthy steward of the public is not affected by this. His ultimate satisfaction always must be a personal sense of a service well done, and done in a spirit of unselfishness. Standards of public service must be measured in this way. The State must expect compliance with these standards, because if popular govern-

Medley of America's Major Melody Makers

By Joseph R. Fliesler

(1) Walter Donaldson, composer and (2) Harold Adamson, author of "Did I Remember"; (3) Fred E. Ahlert, composer and (4) Joe Young, author of "Take My Heart"; (5) Gerald Marks, composer, (6) Irving Caesar and (7) Sammy Lerner, authors of "Is It True What They Say About Dixie"; (8) Mack Gordon and Harry Revel, composer and author of "When I'm With You"; (9) Milton Ager, composer, (10) Charles Newman and (11) Murray Mencher, authors of "You Can't Pull the Wool Over My Eyes"; (12) Nacio Herb Brown, composer, and (13) Arthur Freed, author of "Would You"; (14) Richard Rodgers, composer and Lorenz Hart, author of "There's a Small Hotel"; (15) Irving Berlin, composer of "Let Yourself Go"; (16) Billy Hill, composer of "Glory of Love"; (17) Tot Seymour and Vee Lownhurst, author and composer of "Cross Patch"; (18) Richard Whiting, composer of "When Did You Leave Heaven," Walter Bullock, author; (19) Hoagy Carmichael, composer of "Stardust," Mitchell Parish, author.

A TOTAL of 132 songs in the repertoire of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers were performed 2,237,929 times during 1938 over the principal networks, according to the latest program analysis. The leading song of 1938 was "Did I Remember" by Walter Donaldson and Harold Adamson, published by Leo Feist, Inc., from the motion picture "Suzy," which was performed 30,442 times from June 13th, 1936 to end of year.

The second song, "Melody From The Sky" by Sidney D. Mitchell and Louis Alter, published by Famous Music, Inc. from the motion picture "Trail Of The Lone Some Fine," rolled up 29,425 credits from January 1st, 1936. The leading popular song with no motion picture or stage background was "Is It True What They Say About Dixie" by Gerald Marks, Irving Caesar and Sammy Lerner, published by Irving Caesar, Inc., which performed 29,346 times beginning February 3rd, 1936. A little over a hundred men and women wrote the songs which were most performed. A few of the leaders are presented above. Available for the use of broadcaster's and other licensed establishments were the millions of compositions copyrighted by the 44,000 members of A.S.C.A.P. and affiliated world-wide societies organized to provide a central outlet for this vast service. ## GASOLINE NEWS

ETHEL CARTER

Mrs L J Bedwell, in company with Mrs C E Bedwell of Quitaque motored to Plainview Tuesday. Anderson White with his cousin, O C White of Silverton left Wednesday for a visit with relatives and friends in Dallas county.

Guests at a dinner party at the home of Mr and Mrs Ordis Chandler and children were Mr and Mrs Eugene Chandler, Mr and Mrs Leon McCracken, Leon and Mary Jo, Mr and Mrs Otho Meachem, Duncan Chandler and Bobby Pierce of Turkey and Mr and Mrs Elmer Chandler and baby of Kent.

Grandma Stanford of Turkey spent Thursday with Mrs J T Whittington.

Alonzo Rogers and Rex Morris of Kent made a business trip to Childress Monday.

Mr and Mrs Floyd Liner of Memphis visited Mrs Liner's sister, Mrs W O Williamson and family Sunday.

Mr and Mrs Boone McCracken and Misses Maudine McCracken, Ethel Carter, Iva Belle Matthews and Cloie Woodruff attended church at Turkey Sunday.

Mr and Mrs Marion Whittington were week end visitors at Childress.

Mrs Jack Hardcastle and children left Monday for their home at Sudan having spent a week with her sister, Mrs J Rogers and family.

Mr J H Gibson and son Norman of Turkey, Mr and Mrs Herbert Gibson of Lesley, Mrs Parker of Odessa, J A Stegall of Lockney attended church here Sunday.

Mr and Mrs W M King, Mmes Edgar Morrison, W J Carter and Miss Ethel Carter were visitors in Turkey Wednesday.

Mr and Mrs Odell Mott and Colleen of Lubbock spent Sunday here visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs Guy Waters of Flomot visited Mrs W E Morrison Thursday.

The government could not stop to haggle over prices. The securing of supplies in that momentous time was far more important than the price.

Young men were drafted for the military and naval service. Why should not the same method have been used with reference to the property and plants of those engaged in the manufacture of the supplies essential to the waging of that war? A law should be enacted now, to be automatically operative upon the declaration of war, whereby when young men are drafted, munitions plants and factories making war supplies should be subject to draft on the Nation's own terms, just as is the manhood of the country.

Crop Loans

Provision has been made, and the funds are now available, for crop and feed loans. While these loans are not made in large amounts, they have proved very helpful in financing farmers who are in need of credit to make their current crops. A very large percentage of these loans is repaid. In the country as a whole the losses have been very small and great assistance has been rendered in this manner.

SIDELIGHTS

By Marvin Jones

Member of Congress From Texas

Interest is being revived in legislation to take the profits out of war. The Military Affairs Committee of the House now has legislation of this character under consideration.

It was my privilege more than fifteen years ago to make a speech in the House of Representatives urging that legislation along these lines be enacted. So far as I know, it was the first speech made on that subject in the House.

Many men made money during the World War. The morning after war was declared, the munitions makers and those engaged in making the essentials of war were much
