IN THE SHADOW OF THE CAPITOL

(By Boyce House)

One of the most fascinating spots in Austin is within a stone's throw (if you are a Walter Johnson or a Dizzy Dean) of the front steps of the great granite Capitol and yet is out of sight. If you start toward the old Land Office in the southeastern corner of the spacious grounds, you will find the concrete walk so steep that you will break into a semi-trot and so—though you may have eyes for the little spring flowing from volcanic rocks that look like human skulls and the mirror-like pool with the fish—you are likely to overlook the clump of trees at the very bottom of the hollow.

They are gnarled as though they had been tortured; their limbs are twisted into weird and fantastic convolutions, and trunks and boughs are a dead black. It would have been an ideal place for Poe to have written one of his poems or for one of Poe's characters to commit a murder.

Trees usually lift and exalt the spirit, however, and have inspired the bards of all eras, as witness Bryant's "The woods were man's first temples"; Byron's "There is a pleasure in the pathless woods"; a too-little quoted poem of Lanier's, "Ballad of Trees and the Master," and Kilmer's

"I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree."
Your columnist was once stirred to write a poem (or so I hope it was) on a mesquite.

Found, a candidate with a sense of humor. Judge Ralph Yarbrough of Austin, who aspires to the Attorney Generalship, tells this one on himself: Last summer during vacation, he made a swing over the state. At one small town, he introduced himself to a prominent citizen who exclaimed, "We've been hearing lots of mighty fine things about you, Judge." After the interview had ended, Yarbrough walked down the hall, paused on the sidewalk to glance up and down the street, and heard the citizen ask his secretary: "What did that young man say his name was?"

Touring Texas:
There's a cafe next door to the Boerne Star and a sign on the window reads, "Weather forecast—Chill all week."

Bryan Beck, Corpus Christi merchant, gives an honored place in his office to a painting of Jefferson Davis, dating back nearly 70 years when the former president of the Confederate States visited Beck's grandfather in San Antonio.

Speaking further of trees (which we were, several paragraphs back), probably the most photographed ones in Texas are the three palms on the Corpus Christi beach just back of the Nueces Hotel. Exactly the same height and the cluster of foliage identical, they look like triplets.

In a Uvalde barber shop, a veteran prospector was telling his plans for a search into the mountains of New Mexico. Asked about the Trans-Pecos region of Texas, he drawled, "Ain't much in them (Chisos) mountains except Legions." That thud you heard probably was Frank Dobie, author of "Coronado's Children", fainting!

Austin is distinctive among Texas cities—even the street lights are different. They are on towers as tall as East Texas oil derricks and are moored to earth by four heavy cables. Atop each of the slender, steel lattice-works are five lights of a weird, Edgar Allan Poe kind of blue. They suggest star shells above "No-Man's-Land" on World War nights or a Fourth of July bomb that goes high in the air before it explodes and five balls of blue burst into view.

Signs of the times: On an archery ranger in the edge of Houston: "24 arrows, 25 cents; bow free."

In a Dallas cafe:
"I buy my food F. O. B.;
Pay for it, too, C. O. D.;
And I serve it P. D. Q.;
I can't live on I. O. U."

And in a Fort Worth sandwich shop, "Try a chiliwich." Says which?

Conservation Contest WTCC Feature

Wichita Falls—An annual soil and water conservation contest, with a $1,000 award to the West Texas county with the best improvement record, will be inaugurated by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, if proposals are approved, as is expected at the twentieth annual WTCC convention here in Wichita Falls, April 25, 26 and 27.

Annual awards in the contest, scheduled to begin in the year 1938-39, will be based on soil and water conservation improvements, row cropping, terracing and contouring, eradication of mesquite and prickly pear, listing and clearing ranch and farm land, and other conservation practices.

The winning county will use $250 to stimulate boy and girl club work, and will act as custodian in awarding the remaining $750 for conservation achievements in all of West Texas.

"This enterprise may readily become one of the most constructive WTCC programs, and will influence the topography of West Texas," said D. A. Bandeen, Abilene, WTCC manager, in announcing the contest proposals.

Opening session of the WTCC convention here will be the union religious services, to be held on Sunday afternoon, April 24, in Memorial Auditorium. Rt. Rev. Mnsgr. Patrick J. F. O'Beirne, chairman of the religious activities committee, has announced that Dr. Stephen McKinney, pastor of the St. Paul's Methodist church in Houston, and former Wichitan, will speak.

A contest for the honor of entertaining the 1939 WTCC convention developed this week, with Sweetwater's announcement it will bid for next year's meeting. Big Spring previously had announced it would invite the convention. Big Spring entertained the convention in 1933, and Sweetwater in 1932.

Roswell, N. M., was first to enter the annual contest for the best completed 1937 activities program, while McCamey, Texas, was first into the lists in the contest to select the best 1938 suggested activities program.

Predictions are that the convention program, with LaGuardia's address, and the vital producers conferences, to be devoted to agriculture, live stock and oil industry problems, will attract one of the convention's banner turnouts.

At the Methodist Church

There is much that is of special value in Christian Life which is vitally related to Easter. It will be our aim to strive to enrich our personal experience at this Easter season. Let's look forward to April 17, Easter, by making use of every service of the church. We welcome you to every service.

Yours to serve,
G. L. Keever, Pastor

Baptist WMU, Circle No. II

Circle No. II of the Baptist WMU met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lee in mission study.

The last two chapters of the book, "What is this Moslem World?" were studied, led by Mrs. Rumph.

Refreshments were served to seven members and one visitor.

Both circles meet next Monday in a business meeting at the church.

Baptist Church Program

Sunday School, 9:45
Preaching, 11:00.
B. T. U., 6:30.
Preaching, 7:30.
Mid week service, 7:00.

One merchant in Quitaque has learned not to fight the elements. Rather than continually sweep the sand out of the entrance before his place of business on a windy day, he patiently brushes it up in a neat pile, places it in a box and when he has gathered a box full, takes it out behind the store and wets it down. There's one sure thing, it takes a long time for that dirt to get back around to the front and blow in again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cupell and daughter Clara Belle spent last week end in Canyon with Mr. Cupell's father, Joe Cupell, who is suffering with paralysis. They are happy to report he is better.

Proclamation

Whereas Governor James V. Allred has proclaimed the week of April 4 to 9 as Clean-Up Week in the State of Texas, and

Whereas Quitaque is in need of such a campaign and desires to cooperate fully with state authorities, in addition to it being an annual custom in our city to rid premises and vacant lots of all rubbish, trash, tin cans and other unsightly and unhealthy accumulations,

Now therefore, I, J. W. Ewing, mayor of the city of Quitaque, do proclaim the week of April 4 to 9, 1938, as Clean-Up Week and ask the fullest cooperation of our citizenship in making Quitaque a cleaner, more healthful and more beautiful city in which to live.

Given under my hand and the seal of my office this 30th day of March, 1938.

J. W. EWING
Mayor of Quitaque

School Trustee Election Saturday

There will be an election of trustees of the Quitaque independent school district Saturday, four names appearing on the official ballot from whom two trustees are to be selected. These are P. P. Rumph, Norvell Hamilton, R. B. Persons and Mrs. C. E. Bedwell. Rumph is now serving as president of the board, the other trustee to be named is to fill a vacancy caused by resignation some time ago.

The position of school trustee is one which requires lots of time with no monetary reward, but should be filled only by the most capable men and women. The schools being our greatest interest every voter should go to the poles Saturday and cast his or her ballot.

Meat Stolen

Thieves entered the barn of H. K. Carpenter, five miles northeast of Quitaque Monday night and carried off about 100 pounds of cured meat. Two suspects have been arrested, one being held in the Silvertown jail and the other, after being fingerprinted in justice court here by Deputy Sheriff Summers Wednesday morning, was placed in jail in Quitaque.

In Little Rock On Dam Business

E. B. Tunnell and E. G. Rice left Monday for Little Rock, Ark., for a conference with several engineers regarding survey for the proposed dam on upper Red River in Briscoe county for flood control and irrigation purposes. They expect to return the last of the week.

Messrs. Tunnell and Rice were named as a committee to attend to this matter at a meeting of the board of the flood control and irrigation district at Memphis last week. Tunnell is organization manager and Rice is a member of the board.

At the Memphis meeting, presided over by O. E. Levers of Lakeview, vice president, in the absence of Dr. Roy E. Barr of Childress, president, who was ill, satisfactory progress was reported with the preliminary survey and examination of the terrain along the river in Hall and Briscoe counties.

The so-called he-men who hunt wild game in Africa are just sissies compared to the real tuff guys over at Matador who brought in a dozen or so rattle snakes, cooked 'em and ate 'em and hung up the skins for ornaments.

AGRICULTURAL BRIEFS

BY THE BRISCOE COUNTY AGENT

That old familiar tune "It ain't Gon'a Rain No Mo'", is forgotten history in Briscoe county. It seems that every time we just have to have a rain a new candidate announces for office or some of those "Haylakers" do something that brings on a good rain. A rain in this country is just like a whitefaced calf—always plenty welcome.

Rains for the past week end range from 1-2 inch across the Tule to 2 inches in the south part of the county. These rains have ruined the little wheat—it will all be big wheat from now on. In fact it is growing so fast that some of the combine hands have already started repairing their machines—a trick they seldom think of till June or later. Range conditions have been materially aided by this rain too—just a few more days now and our grass and weeds will be tall enough to graze. The Good Lord can certainly tell when our feed is about all gone.

Cotton Acreage

Every farmer in Briscoe county who plants cotton is especially anxious to know how many acres he can plant to cotton in 1938. As anxious as you boys are to know this—you're not any more anxious than we are here in the office. We are working over time trying to figure this out so we can pass it along to you. In arriving at this figure we have to take all the wheat acreage away from the total cultivated land before we can begin to get at our cotton goals. As soon as we have "squeezed out" all the wheat acres we will be in shape to tell each of you just how many acres you are to plant to cotton. Notices will be sent to each of you giving your cotton goal as soon as we get it figured out. Just be patient—we're going to try to get this out before August.

Radio Broadcast
Briscoe county farm people are to put on a radio program over KFYO in Lubbock, Friday, April 8, at 1:30 p. m. Everyone is invited to tune in at that hour to get an ear full of Briscoe's talent.

Those who take part in the program are not expecting to get a radio "contract" but most of them are making arrangements for some help to handle their fan mail. In next week's issue of the "Headaches" a complete program will be given with the names of those who are to take part in the broadcast. Look out for it!

Cattle Movements
This is off season for marketing a crop in Briscoe county, but all the same the ranchers are marketing a pretty good crop of old cows and long age calves. According to reports by the truckers our average weekly shipments by truck will run around 400 head. Some of these cattle find their way into Fort Worth and some into Kansas City, where they go depends upon where the highway cops are most active. The cattle that are being shipped now represent for the most part the drys and culls. Some fed cattle are going to market but not very many.

Green Bugs
A good many wheat farmers are reporting green bugs in the wheat. The pessimists are groaning about there being no harvest this year because of the green bugs. These fellows forget about the bumper crop we had last year and last year we had millions of green bugs where we don't have any this year. The green bugs do some damage all right but they have as yet not done any noticeable damage in this county. We don't anticipate any radical change for this year either.

Clean-Up Week To Observed Here

Week is to be Clean-Up Week in Quitaque and is decreed by Mayor Ewing. Everyone is urged to pick up all tin cans and other rubbish and put it in containers or in piles it will be accessible to the trucks to be hauled to the dumping place.

The city will furnish the trucks to do the hauling and all the people have to do is clean up their premises and the trash where the trucks can pick it up. The city pays the cost of the hauling which is free to the people.

It is sorely in need of a clean-up campaign and it is the duty of every citizen to make a personal effort to see that his premises are rid of every germ breeding and disease carrying rubbish. They urge the cooperation of everyone.

This will start on their rounds Tuesday morning, which allows folks to gather up the trash and have it ready when the trucks arrive, thus avoiding any delay in getting a clean sweep as they go.

Own vacant lots are urged to see these are cleaned up, as well as the various businesses.

Prog Scheduled for Interlactic Meet

Culture, Enjoys Entertai Program

An unusual entertaining program was at the meeting of the W. C. Culture club last Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. G. Kline. Attendees before pleasure, the of electing delegates to the district meeting at Childress April 28 and 29 was given at the virtue of her position as president Mrs. O. D. Lowry will be a guest and others chosen were Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Paul Hamilton.

An amusing game, "The Optimist" was given by Mrs. Lowry and a guest, "Mrs. from Bird Center" was read. "Mrs. Wiggins" was portrayed by Mrs. V. T. Hall, who in state costume and manner led on "Woman's Rights."

The hostess's delicious refreshments of sand cake to the club members, a guest, Mrs. Orlin Stark.

More Welcome M

Quitaque area had another nice rain Saturday, Sunday, last week, practically that the two days, for a total precipitation of 1.40 inches. Receipt of an inch on March 7 this year total for the month to two. During the period from Feb. 15 a total of 1.60 inches in rain, and snow was received making a total for the period (approx. 40 days) of 3.60 inches.

Frank Miller and Hutcherson have gone to Detroit, where Frank will receive a 1-4 ton GMC truck delivered at the factory which he will drive through Hall Motor Co. They also receive two new pick-ups, which will be hauled back to their new truck and the other behind.

Methodist Young Folk Meet At Turkey

A union meeting of the Methodist young people's league was held Monday night at Turkey. Quitaque was in charge of the program which was as follows:

Two songs by the group.
Scripture reading, Emily Margaret Gardiner.
Summary, Rev. G. L. Keever.
Indian Legend, Miss Bergner.
Reading, Jane Scott.

Following the program a business meeting was held with Turkey in charge and for the first time in a long while new officers were elected. The officers chosen are: president, Dennis Coker, Turkey; vice president, Wren Vinyard, Turkey; secretary-treasurer, Eveline Messimer, Quitaque; student councilor, Mr. Vardi, Turkey. Decision was made to hold the union league meetings every month on the fourth Monday.

A number of games were enjoyed and refreshments of cracker sandwiches, cookies and lemonade were served.

Attending the meeting from Quitaque were: Shirley Jo Powell, Marie Hall, Emily Margaret Gardiner, Anna Belle Gregg, Eveline Messimer, Johnnie Eddleman, Mary Joyce Bailey, Eva Lee Curtis, Jane Scott, Miss Bergner and Rev. Keever.

Jr. Fat Stock Show At Lubbock April 4-5-6

Lubbock—All is in readiness for the eighth annual South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show which will begin Monday, April 4, lasting three days. Entries which have been coming in daily have passed last year's record and from all indications this year's event will be one of the best in the history of the association.

4-H club boys and vocational students from 36 West Texas counties will have part in one of the greatest exhibitions of livestock of its kind. Entries in each division, the baby beef, the fat lamb, and fat pig, have exceeded the hundred mark, according to C. C. Jobson, general superintendent.

The first day will be devoted to weighing in and getting the animals in condition to be judged. The evening of the first day there will be a bonfire entertainment for the exhibitors, beginning promptly at 7:30. Music, talks, games and eats will constitute the program. Beginning at 9 a. m. Tuesday, the second day, judging in all divisions will start. Entertainment for the exhibitors the second evening will be a theatre party.

The first annual 4-H - FFA boys parade Wednesday morning will attract thousands of visitors. Numerous communities and counties have entered units in this parade, with banners, placards, floats and brightly uniformed bands, telling the story of their activities to thousands who will view the parade. Each unit will pass before the reviewing stand to be judged. Awards will be given the best unit of 4-H clubs and likewise the best FFA boys unit.

Climaxing the three day show will be the auction sale Wednesday afternoon with Col. Earl Gartin of Greensburg, Indiana, in charge. All animals placed will pass through the sales ring and be sold to the highest bidder. The chant of the auctioneer will begin promptly at 1 p. m., April 6.

STAMPS QUARTETTE TO SING IN MEMPHIS

The Virgil O Stamps Quartette, nationally famous singers, will appear in a paid concert at the high school auditorium, on the night of April 9, according to A. B. Wills, president of the Hall County Singers association.

The county convention will be held in Memphis on Sunday, April 10, and the Saturday night before and the Stamps Quartette has been secured as an added attraction.

Other prominent singers will be in attendance at the convention, including the Dodson Quartette and Rev. E. F. Cook's Quartette of Amarillo.

Bro. and Mrs. H. G. Finley left last Sunday afternoon for Dallas where he received examination and treatment of his eyes. They returned home Tuesday.

"The Sower"
(By Mable C Bogan)

How beautiful is spring! Sowing time! Sowing seeds to reap fruit. God has already blessed us with rain. How much we should show how we really appreciate it. Spring moisture! Soft warm sunshine, your spirit can feel the desire to work. Sow seeds! You are willing to wait for the first sign of life for them.

My granddaddy used to test his seed to see what per cent was good. That was amusing to me. He would place a pan with dirt in the bottom of it, put his seed between a cloth and a top layer of dirt, keep it properly moistened and the right temperature as nearly as possible. In a few days the seeds would begin to sprout. You could see very well then if you could get a "good stand" as he called it from the seed. What per cent of His people are "good seed"? Will be good fruit to perfection at the harvest.

We are sowing each day. We have such a beautiful parable of the sower in the 8th chapter of Luke. Of the Spiritual Sower let us take courage with the spring again now to sow on good soil.

If we have sown where seeds have sprouted among thorns that are nearly choked out, that Gardener will help us separate ourselves from the thorns. We will feel the pierce of the thorn by the separation and it will heal the wound.

Everyone has a favorite. Make a little corner somewhere and plant or sow those seeds. Let your favorite flower grow thru the summer. Also let your seeds be sown too, seeds of life. See how they will grow in the darkness of doubt and let the shine of encouragement our seeds can grow. Give yours away.

How wonderful is the life of the seed. By this, we know the word. No program anyway debated by music, art or in any other way stir the soul like a little seedling forth a green leaf from it. It was sown in Mother Earth. In each heart there is beet it come out and grow. You may seem the smallest, yet it make a "plant" that fowls of may take refuge in.

We all are "sowers" and we sow, we shall reap, "because" has said so.

Sweeping Up Business
Brooms and brushes are a pain to the housewife, they are signs of industrial progress. Texas business men. According to the Biennial Census of March 1933, Texas ranked among the states in the number of brooms produced. In 1936 a total of 38 broom plants in 1933. There is Texas Broom and Brush Manufacturing association, organized for the purpose of developing industry.

Mr and Mrs O D Lad Jimmie Dick visited her. pat Childress Sunday.

One Man Starts Redbud Fever

"Redbud Fever" has swept over the city of Denton, Texas, and thousands of the delicate flowers are now in bloom throughout the town. The man behind it all is Dr. L. H. Hubbard, who started the movement by having over a thousand redbud trees planted on the campus of Texas State College for Women. With "A Redbud in Every Yard" as their slogan, the Civic Bureau has marked out U. S. Highway 77 as a "Redbud Trail," along which trees are planted at 25-foot intervals within the city limits.

"The Texas cotton crop is the most valuable crop grown in a single political subdivision in the world," says the new World Almanac, published by the New York World-Telegram. Another startling statement included in the write-up is that the value of the average Texas cotton crop is almost as much as the total value of the production of gold, silver, zinc, lead and copper mines in the United States.

 Did you hear—about Jimmie and Wayne beating Harvey and Edwin in a debate?
 Did you hear—about Beatrice and Anna Belle beating Dorothy Dee and Charlie in a debate?
 Eva Lee in homemaking—when assigned again for second time to sweep floor: "Whee-e-e-e!"

As Told in Limerick
 Limericks are easy nonsense. There was an old man of Thermopylae
 Who never did anything properly; But they said "If you choose To boil eggs in your shoes, You cannot remain in Thermopylae."
 —Charlie Burgess

There was a young lady of Niger Who smiled as she rode on a tiger; They came back from the ride With the lady inside, And the smile on the face of the tiger.
 —Harold Bogan

These two boys Harold and Charlie are rather poetical, don't you think? H'm, so do they.

True Saying
 A person is not what he thinks he is, but, as he thinks, he is.
 Politeness is to do and say, The kindest things, in the kindest way.

We all get what's coming to us, whether we're moving along or standing still.
 Success—98 percent perspiration and 2 percent inspiration.
 Knowledge is power when you can use it.

An Elegy on the Death of a Dog
 —Bob Young
 A dog and man at first were friends; But when a pique began The dog, to gain some private end Went mad and bit the man.
 The wound, it seemed both sore and sad, To every Christian eye; And while they swore the dog was mad, They swore the man would die.
 But soon a wonder came to light, That showed the rogues they lied The man recovered of the bite— The dog it was that died.

In English class while sentences were being discussed:
 Miss McCaslin: Which sentence was that? Seven?
 Class: Yes!
 Miss McCaslin: Well, which one comes next?
 Polk Hall: Eight.

The speakers to represent our school in story telling, declaiming, essay writing, spelling, extemporaneous speaking, typing:
 Story Telling—Bennie I Hawkins.
 Declamation—junior girls; Isabelle Hollamon, Frances McCormick; junior boys; Orlin Stark, Jr., Billy Joe Sachse.
 Junior high girls; Mildred Coker, Naoma Matthews; junior high boys; Edwin Drake, W L Graham.

Senior girls: Jane Scott, Dorothy Sachse; senior boys; Charlie Burgess, Wayne Whittington
 Extemporaneous speaking—Orval Graham.
 Essay writers—Rosalind Coker, William Rucker and Marie Hall.
 Spelling—Emily Margaret Gardner, Marion Wilson.
 Typing—J. D.

Swept Off His Feet?
 It was spring in Quitaque. The kitchen was one of the many warm rooms in the old house. J. D. was courting. After he had returned from one of his many early evening calls, his own family asked how he liked the young lady (Edna). "Like her first rate. She swept all around me and never asked me to move."

No Sale
 Insurance salesman: Now that you are married and have the responsibility of a wife, you will surely want to take out life insurance.
 Bryant: Insurance? Shucks, no. Why, she's not the least bit dangerous!

Egg Trick
 Mrs Smithee: How did you make our neighbor keep her hens in her own yard?
 Mrs Scheid: One night I hid half a dozen eggs under a bush in my garden and next day I let her see me gather them. I wasn't bothered after that.

Sleep Cheaper
 Jimmie: I had a dream last night and thought I was married to a millionaire.
 Edna: Why, that's not anything. I have dreams like that in the daytime.

Long Rememberer
 Mrs Smithee: For what was Abraham Lincoln famous?
 Juanita: For his memory.
 Mrs Smithee: What makes you think so?
 Juanita: 'Cause I've seen so many monuments erected to it.

But Don't Write Notes in School
 Edna had just written a note to Walter. In answering it he said:
 I am sorry to see by the rules that note writing is forbidden in school.
 Lor' bless you, boy, replied Edna, so were apples in the Garden of Eden.

Tough Spot
 LeRoy: Why did you call that fellow Horo? I thought his name was Horowitz.
 Polk: It was, but he lived in a tough neighborhood and they scared the witz out of him.

JUNIOR SYNOPSIS
 Listen, my children, and you shall hear
 A synopsis of the junior class, dear.
 Everyone is compelled to agree That juniors have got what it takes, so you see
 The most interesting kids in Quitaque high
 Are the juniors, who'll be seniors by and by.
 Now first is the President, Mr. Bob Grundy,
 Who entertains us from Sunday to Monday.
 Let me introduce this flashing

This tall boy with the wonderful smile
 Is Billy Hutcheson—he possesses a wife.
 And quick—before she disappears with the air!
 Elene Chandler with the bright red hair.
 And of course with her is the friend in need,
 Lovely Dorothy Payne, who is lovely indeed!

Who's that fellow over there, tall, tall, and swarthy?
 Why that's old long-legged, hand-some, old Starkey!
 And who's that cute, red-headed kid? It's Dashing, bumping Richard Tibbetts.
 Don't get scared when you hear that noise,
 There comes Johnnie Gowin—pride of the boys.
 Now get ready! For a shock prepare
 I see Sterling Herrington the Great out there.
 You girls had better shield your heart!

Here comes good-natured, big-hearted Bart.
 Wow! I believe I see them all—
 First is the red-haired Juanita Mayhall;
 Next, Jane Merrell, who doesn't live in vain;
 Then audacious Eva Lee Payne. If you hear a laugh, or if you hear a yell
 It's J. C. Rhoderick, a happy-go-lucky fellow.
 (There's Jack Powell, who will stand by one

 The sweetest person to all it seems Is Connie Faulkner—a dreamer of dreams.

La Rue Patrick, friend of all, Is good in lessons and volley ball.
 That girl who has the dark brown hair
 Is Inez Chandler whom you should admire.
 Marjorie Robinson sings like a bird
 Her voice is the prettiest that ever was heard!

SOPHOMORE HEADACHE
 Attention! Can you (school students) write a poem? Would you like to have it published? Just hand it in to the sophomore reporter and if it passes Mrs Smithee's critical O. K. then you're on your way to fame.

Boners
 Bronx—wild horses.
 Skeleton—a man with his inside out and his outside off.
 Milton wrote "Paradise Lost" right after his marriage. He wrote "Paradise Regained," a few years after his wife's death.
 Epistle—the wife of an apostle.
 In a newspaper article a man once wrote, "I can argue a woman out of anything." A few days later he received a letter requesting him to "please argue my fiancée out of marrying me." The man went west and married the girl himself. My, what a boner!
 Millionaire—a person who makes hats.

Unrecognized Talent!
 Shirley: You wanta fight? I'll fight you.
 Emily Margaret: Naw; I'll crown you one
 I'll black your eye, I'll set you down
 And make you cry.

Freedom of Religion

NEW YORK—This chaste figure of a young girl lifting her face to the skies will be dedicated to freedom of religion in the "Four Freedom" statuette group on the Central Mall of the New York World's Fair 1939.

Carthal Neuhaus of Plainview was in Quitaque Tuesday on business. Carthal is with the Plainview Herald in the typewriter and sales department, and is a splendid young man.

Romance Not All Glitter

HALF the unhappy marriages in the world are those of men and women who preferred a plucked eyebrow to a loyal heart, or a romantic figure of a man to a "good provider", contends Channing Pollock, famous playwright and philosopher.

"I am impatient of people who feel that romance must wear ermine, or have golden hair—of people who seek it 'over the hills' rather than directly beside them," said Pollock who pens "Happiness" editorials on the "Magazine of the Air" heard Sundays from 5:00 to 5:30 p.m., EST, over CBS.

"We may laugh at the words 'good provider' but a 'good provider' is a man who loves a woman well enough to work for her, worry for her and take the blows of everyday for her—and that requires more love than kissing her hand", continued Pollock.

"I know a woman who became a waitress in a cheap restaurant so her husband could have leisure to write an important book. He wrote it, and it was the year's best seller in the non-fiction class. When he looked up from his desk", said Pollock, "to find himself prosperous, and his wife haggard and tired, he still saw romance in his loyal mate."

"A judge once told me of a man and woman who came before him in his court of domestic relations. The man had fallen for a young lovely and wanted to be free. Suddenly while his wife was testifying, this man called the whole thing off. 'Her hands lashed me', he told the judge afterwards. 'They were so rough, and red and tired. And I knew how they got that way. I remembered them over the stove, and in the wash-tub and all the things they'd done for me."

"Romance", added the philosopher, "consists not in giving up a throne for love, but in giving up love, if necessary, and doing your job."

IN THE SHADOW OF THE CAPITOL

By Boyce House

Eastland County newspaperman, has announced for the Legislature. He is the son of M S (Doc) Sellers, popular publisher of the Rising Star Record. . . Spring has arrived! The first pie supper of the season has been held—over at Hudson, Angelina County and Judge Ralph Yarbrough of Austin, who would like to be the next Attorney General, purchased one of the pies. . . Looks as though Texas newspapermen are about to capture "We the People" radio program—first, Jack Gordan, of Fort Worth columnist; then, well-known Gene Cooper, and just a few days ago, Harold Banks, city editor of the Port Worth Morning Star Telegram. Each, besides appearing on the famous radio hour, received an airplane trip to New York City and a cool hundred smackers. Who will be the next one?

Pet Peeve: Folks who ride 19 blocks or more, to town together in the morning with nothing to do but talk all the way, but wait until one gets out, then double park and block traffic while they decide when and where they'll meet for lunch.

These are the days when spring decks the hills and glades of East Texas with fresh, fragrant, brilliant beauty—not the least delightful touch being the bloom of which the celebrated poet, Richard LeGalliene, in his "Ballade-Catalogue of Lovely Things", wrote: "The enchanted dogwood, with its ivory trays." Many of the trees around Lufkin and Nacogdoches look as though a hundred white-winged butterflies had alighted.

Then there are the pink, plushy, wildpeach blooms; and near Alto, one can see from the highway a cottage that is almost hidden by a cataract of vines with great masses of smoky blue blossoms.

And what a contrast is offered along the road between Angleton and Bay City—the old trees, with long gray beards of moss, and thou-

Man Back of the Laugh

EVERY joke is divided into two parts according to Phil Baker: the man who writes the gag and the one who delivers it. Here Phil (above) is seen as the shirt-sleeved comic, not too happy over the brain child of Hal Block (right). Charles Flesher, producer, thinks it's really pretty funny.

Fred Allen (right) is his own "man back of the laugh." Though he employs a couple of writers to put the finishing touches on his "Town Hall Tonight" jokes, Fred is the one who has brought them into existence.

FOOTBALL AND BASKETBALL AWARDS MADE

At a special chapel program in the high school study hall Tuesday afternoon 14 boys received jackets as awards for lettering in football and basketball the past season. The body of the jackets is of suede cloth New Gold color with black leather sleeves—very nice looking jackets.

The Queen Race

Wednesday morning each class in the high school elected a girl to represent their class in the contest for school queen to be crowned next Thursday night, April 7, when the fight teams of Silverton and Quitaque meet in the local gym for a duel meet. The winner of the contest will be awarded a beautiful jacket similar to the awards the boys received for basketball and football.

The following girls ask you to support them in their race for Queen of Quitaque High for 1937-38:

Freshman, Mary Joyce Bailey.
Sophomore, Maurine Boswell.
Junior, Shirley Jo Powell.
Senior, Jimmie Payne.

The proceeds will go to the athletic fund.

Mr and Mrs W H Hopkins of Spring Lake came down Sunday, "Hop" bringing Mrs Hopkins, who was suffering with sore throat to her father, Dr Price, for treatment. She remained with her parents until Tuesday, he returning to his teaching duties Sunday evening.

Still Wearing The Pants

Legislation for equality of the sexes has gone a long way since pre-suffrage days but Texas laws show that there are still a few hang-overs from that era. A woman in Texas cannot convey property, even to her husband, except in his presence. However, even if the property is acquired by both husband and wife during their marriage it can be conveyed by him without the presence or consent of his wife, except in the case of a homestead.

Just as his presence is required for these transactions, his absence is required when a woman makes an acknowledgement before an official, such as signing a document before a notary-public, since presumably he
