You Can't Take It With You' is Amusing Story

Grandpa Vanderhof (Lionel Barrymore) decided one day that he had enough money for the rest of his life, promptly retired and, for thirty years has been having fun. His daughter, Penny Sycamore (Springfield), tries to write plays when isn't trying to paint; her husband (Samuel S Hinds), manufactures fireworks with the assistance of Mr DePinna (Halliwell Hobbes), used to be an ice man until he died at the Vanderhof home and died to stay. Essie (Ann Miller), daughter of Paul and Penny, makes money and studies ballet fun under the tutelage of Kolenkoff (Mischa Auer), Russian ex-resident. Her husband, Ed (Dub Taylor), plays the xylophone, prints up the daily dinner menus and sells Essie's candy and the fireworks.

The youngest member of the family is Jean (Arthur), the secretary in charge with her boss, Tony Kirby (James Stewart), who somewhat resembles his tycoon father (Edward G. Robinson). The elder Kirby, plotting a major business coup, needs the Vanderhof home in order to expand his plant, but Grandpa blandly refuses to sell. Tony, loving the eccentric family, hopes that his parents will also sell. He brings his parents to see a circus in progress.

The socially prominent Kirbys are rather horrified when police raid the Vanderhof home and throw everybody the Kirbys included—into jail on suspicion of anarchism. Grandpa is irritated by Kirby's superiority, speaks his mind, and in court next day wins freedom of them all when the tycoon's own battery of lawyers fail. Alice, infuriated at the Kirbys' lives home after repudiating Tony, Grandpa, heartbroken, decides to sell his home and start life anew somewhere else. With the power he had sought and the merger in his grasp, the elder Kirby suddenly discovers that life is empty for him, too. He toys with Grandpa's harmonica and laughs over the night he had spent in jail. Tony's decision that he's tired of Big Business is the final straw; the elder Kirby realizes that he himself never had a chance to play. He quits his office, hurries to the Vanderhof home.

Alice, unable to stay away from her family, returns. Tony's father gleefully wrestles with Kolenkoff and finally throws him. In jubilant triumph, he challenges Grandpa to a harmonica duel.

Seeing the regeneration of the elder Kirby, Alice decides happiness is possible with the son.

Homemakers S S Class Has Christmas Social

The annual Christmas party of the Homemakers Sunday class of the Baptist church was held last Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs J C Rhoderick. The devotional, given by Mrs May Gillespie, was taken from Math. 2:1-6 and Luke 2:8-14, which tells the Christmas story. An original Christmas poem was read by Mrs S T Bogan and a reading, "The Unexpected Guest" was given by Mrs J N Hamilton.

At the conclusion of the program the guests were invited into the dining room where a beautiful Christmas tree centered the table which was covered with gifts. These were presented and refreshments of sandwiches, cake and hot chocolate were served to the following:

Mesdames Barrett, Finley, Burgess, Bedwell, Lee, Jacks, Dunavant, O W Stroup, Ross, Bogan, Gillespie, J N Hamilton, L E Graham, Hatton, Brittain, and the hostess, Mrs Rhoderick.

SOME SIDELIGHTS ON THE "HOUSE OF DAVID"

The House of David basketball team which plays here Dec. 27, was organized by George H Johnson. 8 seasons ago and since that time has been occupied touring the Middle-west, the Far West and the Pacific Coast, averaging 125 games per season, during which 90 percent have been placed in the win column. Made up entirely of ex-college stars, as well as former members of the colony at Benton Harbor, Mich, the team has won its way into the ranks of better American basketball attractions.

Merrells Celebrate Silver Anniversary

Mr and Mrs W W Merrell were delightfully surprised last Sunday when they returned from Sunday school to find their home crowded with relatives and friends and a sumptuous dinner spread, all in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. This number of years marking the silver anniversary they were presented with a set of silver tea spoons.

Present for the celebration were the following: Mr and Mrs Tim Standefer, Mrs Robert Watley, Mrs Hezzy Martin, Mr and Mrs O O Tolar, Mr and Mrs Dyke McMurray, Miss Dessie McGowen, Mr and Mrs Bud McGowen, Richard McGowen, Mr and Mrs Dock Merrell, Mrs Jinks Taylor, Mrs J P Taylor, Betty Ruth Merrell, Arrial McGowen, Howard Standefer, Jimmie Lee, Samuel, Dannie Rae McGowen, Truman, Bill, Robert Merrell, Jane, Dexter Merrell, Hallie, Ruth, Gene Standefer, Mr and Mrs Ashel McGowen, Charlie Parker, Jimmie Taylor, Annie Mae, Genevieve, Eldon Merrell, Ina Joe, Annie Mae Martin, Mary Merrell, Ravenell Cobb, Marie Brummet, Virgil Patrick, Archie Ray Martin, Oscar Gerlack, Richard Tolar, Billie Gene Tolar, Gerald Smith, William Lee, Claude and Jack Loudermilk.

Panther Quits Meet Turks Here Tues. Nite

The Turks come over to the Panther's lair next Tuesday night, Dec. 20 to do battle to the fighting Panthers in the second conference game for both teams. The Turks have the best record concerning their season thus far. They have not lost a game, having defeated Silvertown by a top heavy score and winning right handily from the Matador club. However, the Panthers have defeated Roaring Springs, a conference team, and a good team from Happy. These boys promise to give the Turks a run for their money. The team this year is made up of some new men, but shows promise of being much better as the season gets under way.

Come out Tuesday night and give these boys your support. The Pantherettes will play a girls' team from Whiteflat in the opening game at 7 o'clock. This is also a conference game for these young ladies. Turkey does not have a girls' team and White Flat is substituting for their girls.

Culture Club Has Study of Russia

The Womens Culture club met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs P P Rumph for a study of "Russia." Mrs J H Hughes was leader.

Roll call was answered by naming a geographical fact about Russia. "The Soviet World" was the subject of Mrs R B Person's discussion and Mrs Sammy Bryan reviewed and discussed the book "Education of a Princess" by the Grandduchess Marie.

Mrs Rumph's subject was "War and Peace." The next meeting of the club will be a Christmas program and the study will be on the Bible.

FARMERS IN FAVOR OF COTTON MARKETING QUOTAS

College Station—Returns to AAA headquarters Saturday night from 167 of 236 counties voting showed 97,422 for and 31,840 against cotton marketing quotas, approximating a 75 per cent majority.

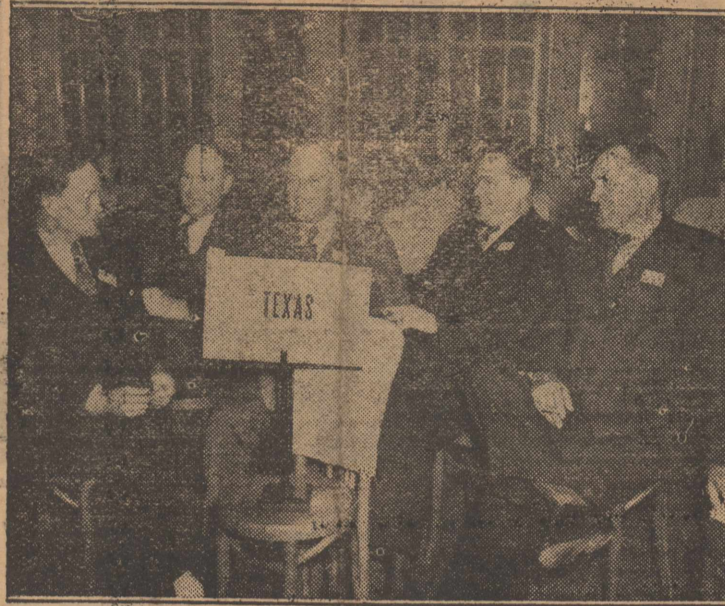

E N Holmgreen, state AAA administrator, said opposition votes were running about like they did last year, when Texas gave quotas an 88 per cent majority, but that a comparatively light turn-out apparently accounts for "a difference on paper."

Of 13 counties not reporting a favorable majority, seven did likewise last year. All but nine of 40 counties so far lacking the necessary two-thirds majority for universal application of the quotas are minor cotton counties, Holmgreen said.

The vote in Quitaque was 128 to 16.

Esteen Latham and family have moved to the house in the northeast part of town vacated by John Boyles who has moved to a place on his father-in-law's farm.

Delegates To Cotton Conference

Leaders in the cotton industry are united to restore King Cotton to his throne.

Through mobilized efforts of all branches of cotton industry in 18 cotton producing states, the National Cotton Council of America was formed in Memphis, Tenn., with Oscar Johnston, of Scott Miss., manager of the world's largest cotton plantation, as its head. The objectives of the council are increased consumption of American cotton through coordinated program of advertising, research and education.

AGRICULTURAL BRIEFS

BY THE BRISCOE COUNTY AGENT

There will be an important meeting for farmers Tuesday night, Dec. 20, at 7:30, at the school auditorium.

Subjects of particular importance and of interest to all farmers will be discussed. This meeting will be of interest to either men or women (or both) and you are urged to be present. Don't forget the date, Tuesday night, Dec. 20 at the school auditorium at 7:30.

Our wheat land measurements are moving along at a satisfactory pace. If we don't have too much snow and rain (?) from now till January 1 we'll be through with the measuring.

Most of the boys are being found to be 100 percent in compliance this time. Some folks think that the dry weather may be the cause of full compliance, but here in the office we've never suspected anything like that—No!

December 15 was set as the deadline for getting in compliance if there was too much wheat planted. The seeding of 25 percent by weight of barley or rye on the excess wheat acres will put you in compliance or the sowing of 51 percent of oats or any other small grain on the excess wheat acres will turn the trick—or

Applications For Pay

When you read this we'll be ready for you to come into the office and sign up for your 1938 pay day. Believe it or not we have finally got these applications in shape to sign. They may not be in shape to get the money on, but here's hoping!

All applications for pay that are on the hill will be in the County Agent's Office for signatures. All of the Quitaque, Kent and Gasoline applications will be at Quitaque in the bank. The Quitaque bunch will be in Quitaque Tuesday and Wednesday of next week (December 20-21). These applications are being brought to Quitaque as a matter of convenience to the farmers of the Flats. We hope you boys will all come in the bank December 20 or 21 to sign your applications so as to save a trip to Silvertown.

Last week in Plainview the Fourth Southwest Dressed Turkey Show was staged. In years gone by the boys from Washington and Oregon have been roaming away with the show but

City and Merchants Ready for Christmas

Quitaque in her best holiday bib and tucker is the most beautifully lighted little city in Texas. Augmenting the canopy of red, orange, green and blue lights which were strung the length of Main street last week a huge silver Christmas tree with the decorative lights has been placed in the center of the business section at the intersection of Main and First streets.

Under the supervision of Bill Middleton the large pine tree was sprayed with silver paint and then decorated and moved to its location, under the streamers which are crossed in the center of the street.

At night the city is visible for many miles and compliments are heard on all sides. One man stated that as he was coming into town from Silvertown and dropped off the caprock it looked like he might be going into Fort Worth or some other large city.

It took Quitaque a long time to "get the spirit" but when she did it was in a big way. And in the same spirit the merchants, with huge stocks of Christmas merchandise, are offering bargains in the same big way. Come to Quitaque to do your shopping and enjoy the scenery.

Follow Postal Rules For Safe Delivery

Postmaster S T Bogan requests all having Christmas packages to mail to please do so as early as possible that they may reach their destination on time.

Mr Bogan also calls attention to the postal regulations concerning mailing these packages and the strain to which they are subjected during the holiday rush season thereby requiring proper wrapping.

Gift packages may be wrapped in decorative tissue or colored paper and tied with ribbon, but must have an outside wrapper of heavy strong paper to satisfy postal rules. All breakable articles should be properly packed and marked "fragile," and the usual mailing precautions taken to insure delivery, or return if delivery is impossible.

Mrs B H Cooper of the Flomot community, about 80 years old, suffered a stroke of paralysis at her home Sunday night, and Monday was in a very serious condition. She had attended church services and apparently was in normal health when she started to retire. Members of the household hearing a peculiar noise emanating from her room made investigation and found her lying on the floor in a critical condition. Mr Cooper died about a year ago as the result of a stroke.

Fun and Profit From Benefit "42" Party

The motif for the benefit "42" party sponsored by the Womens Culture club and held last Friday night at the high school gym, was an airplane trip and was stressed in various novel ways. The tickets to the affair were hand decorated with tiny airplanes and printed in the customary manner, entitling the purchaser to a ride on the "Quitaque Airlines." The guests were received by a bevy of girls in blue uniforms wearing the conventional stewardess caps, who also assisted in serving.

Thirteen tables were filled and a number buying tickets who could not attend nearly twenty dollars was netted. High score was made by E G Rice who was presented with a sterling silver (?) loving cup. However some claimed that he had an advantage as he was equipped with a stewardess cap "for luck." Three players tied for "wrong way" score and a feather-blowing contest was held for elimination, Venus Gillespie outwinding the others, and getting the "medal".

H G Gardiner acted as pilot in charge of the festivities and the girls assisting were Emily Margaret Gardiner, Lorene Rhoderick, Marie Hall and Lela Mae Persons.

Meth. Young Women Have Christmas Party

With her house attractively decorated for the holiday season, Miss Minnie Mae Roberson was hostess to the Young Woman's Missionary society Tuesday evening at the annual Christmas party when each member received a gift from the tree, revealing her "peanut" friend.

A lovely Christmas story was given by Miss Margaret Bergner, and the music, consisting of the singing of Christmas carols, was in charge of Mrs Faye Scoggins.

Clever refreshments, which were small red stockings containing candy, nuts and fruit, were served to Mesdames R L King, Frank Gillespie, and Misses Margaret Bergner, Mary Lee Cooper, Helen Allen, Mabel Atkinson, Jeanne Puckett, Evelyn Messimer, Willie Mae Grandy and the hostess.

Young Pampa Preacher Baptist Church Sunday

Rev. J O Gilliam of Pampa will preach at the local Baptist church Sunday. Rev. Gilliam is a young man who at present is serving a part time post at Skellytown and also is employed in a Pampa bank. He has a number of friends here who praise his speaking abilities very highly as well as his spiritual character and hope that he will have a good audience Sunday.

He will accompany Houston Allen and family and James Williams and family of Pampa here for the week end with relatives and friends.

METHODIST WMS MET IN TUNNEL HOME

The Methodist missionary society met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs Jim Tunnell for the last regular lesson of the year. The study was a World Outlook program. Mrs May Gillespie gave the devotional.

Election of officers for the new year was completed. Mrs Hughes had been chosen president, Mrs G Tunnell, vice president; Mrs Gardiner, treasurer and to complete the list Mrs V T Hall was chosen corresponding and recording secretary; Mrs Tim Moore, supt. of supplies; Mrs Joe Graham, supt. of study and Mrs Jim Tunnell, World Outlook chairman.

A report was heard from the treasurer.

The program was a "quiz" study of the year's World Outlook lessons and was presented by Mesdames Hall, Hughes, Gardiner, G. Tunnell and Wess Woodward.

CAR DELIVERIES DELAYED

Hal Overstreet and party did not leave for Detroit as he had planned, having received a wire that delivery on the seven new automobiles could not be made at that time due to labor troubles in the factory. Delivery at the factory will be made to Mr Overstreet Dec. 27 and he and the party will leave here Christmas Eve to bring them back. This will be a real Christmas trip.

THE ADVENTURES OF OZZIE

LISTEN TO THIS

By TOM FIZDALE

With Rudy Vallee in Hollywood and Eddie Cantor in New York, it looks as though radio stars are beginning to recover from their vacations sufficiently to get the wander-lust again. Burns and Allen have made two transcontinental trips since their return. Now all we need is for Jack Benny, Charlie McCarthy and Bergen, Bob Hope and the Star Theatre troupe to decide to go east and for Tommy Riggs, Fred Allen, and a few more New York stars start west. Then we'll know everything is back to normal again.

Tommy Riggs are his favorite diversions and his big ambition is to catch a barracuda, fighting deep sea fish.

Tommy Riggs, whose voice-child, Betty Lou, is starred with him on his Saturday night variety show, is the subject of a lot of scientific scrutiny because of those remarkable vocal cords that enable a husky man to portray the voice of a little girl so perfectly that most of a nation is fooled. Outside of that, however, Tommy is a very regular chap. Horseshoe pitching, golf and mystery stories are his favorite diversions and his big ambition is to catch a barracuda, fighting deep sea fish.

Ned Sparks, dour-faced, cigar smoking comedian, whose voice with the brassy-tyang is heard belittling everyone on the Wednesday night Star Theatre show, once played the music halls of the Yukon—as a tenor.

Those who know Joan Blaine, beautiful star of Valiant Lady on NBC, admit that she is both determined and resourceful. Those traits were demonstrated again recently when she got a cinder in her eye on the way to the studio for pre-program rehearsal. Unable to read her lines and with no time for medical attention, she had a fellow actor read them over to her until she had them memorized and proceeded to play the broadcast without faltering. A quick mind and her early theatrical training, plus those other named qualities, had come to her rescue.

Joan Blaine

Motion picture scouts are giving more than a casual thought to Red Foley, star of that Saturday night Avalon Time show. Plenty masculine, with a singing voice equally effective in both current and early American songs, Foley is one of the most rapidly rising radio stars of the year.

Jane Crusinberry, author of those top-flight dramas, The Story of Mary Marlin, gets plenty of exercise just writing her scripts. She gets so engrossed in her story that she gets up from her typewriter every few minutes to act out the scene herself in order to make the dialogue more natural.

If you are one of those people who hate to write even a letter, give a thought to Don Quinn, author of those crack Fibber McGee broadcasts. He writes and re-writes every script as many as half-a-dozen times before it goes on the air—and then isn't satisfied with it.

George Burns' staff worked for four months preparing the original score and plot construction of the 27 minute musical comedy, "Three Loves Has Gracie of 1938," which George and Gracie aired on a recent broadcast. Since yesterday's broadcast is as dead as yesterday's newspaper, their only solace was that fifteen million people were in the audience when the curtain went up.

The largest congregation administered by any minister in the world is that of the Rev. Charles E. Fuller, conductor of the Old Fashioned Revival Hour on MBS Sunday nights. He has almost 20,000,000 regular parishioners.

LOCAL BASKETBALL DOPE
Tuesday night, December 13, at the Quitaque gym, the Panthers defeated the Happy High School team by the count of 24 to 18. This was an interesting game throughout. The game being tied two or three times in the first part. The count stood 14 to 7 at the halfway mark.

Quitaque's line up was: Tibbetts, and Powell at forward, Starkey at center, Grundy and Rhoderick at guards. Gowin, Patrick, Drake and Stevens also saw action. All of these fellows gave a good account of themselves.

There was also a game between the B clubs of the two teams. This proved to be exciting throughout. It was truly a fast game in all departments. Some of you A club boys had better watch out for you may be stepping down. Curtis Latham stood out for the second string boys by his speed and goal shooting ability. The line up was Curtis Latham, Bob Lee at forwards, Bart Stevens at center, Walter Patrick and Shug Drake at guards. Byron Wise also played a great deal of the game. These fellows have a lot of ability.

Quitaque returns this game at Happy Saturday night. In the meantime they will enter the Plainview tournament Friday afternoon at 2. They will play Abernathy high in the first game. Abernathy will play Lubbock district last season.

 Basketball season has started here! Our boys played Roaring Saturday and beat them. They did things right and starts from the very first. Speak to the teachers, students, parents, and everybody: "Boys, do it for you!"

Here's the girls' team. It's the reason Roaring calls was that Roaring is an exceptionally good team. We couldn't get organized. Next time we'll try to do better, and it did do pretty good.

Some—very delightful—was at Turkey Sunday. . . two couples in a one-seater looked very much like one in a car. . . Three senior boys showed over at Turkey. They say it was a good thing—Shug Drake made a speech—who was he sitting in the class is a nice place to take walking exercise. . .

Well, of all things to do about everything we are Homemakers have been. Just let me give you an example of what we have been doing.

Well, we have certainly been cooking! We cooked breads, cakes, and some of the girls turned out real biscuit makers. Some studied and prepared themselves for breakfast foods for general day morning. Don't forget, we have studied everything "coffee to popovers."

It is near Christmas and we are all preparing Christmas for one another. The FFA decided on the subject "Christmas waste."

It is near Christmas and we are all preparing Christmas for one another. The FFA decided on the subject "Christmas waste."

The meeting of the local FFA chapter will be held tonight, Thursday, Dec. 15. The program will include a talk by Rev. U S Sherrill, pastor of the Methodist church. Several musical numbers by the FFA band, impromptu speeches by members and discussion and report of committees in the Father and Son banquet to be held Friday night, Jan 13.

The principal speaker for the banquet will be Ray L Chappelle, head of the agriculture education department, Texas Tech college at Lubbock. Mr Chappelle is an excellent speaker and we are sure will give us a talk that will be enjoyed by our fathers and other guests.

Mr King attended a district teachers meeting in Memphis Friday night, Dec. 9. About 8 teachers were present and the program of the evening included a study of dairy products judging led by Mart Pederson, professor of dairy manufactures at Tech. We are looking forward to our next district boys meeting which will be held at Childress Feb. 4.

The agriculture classes have been studying selection and judging of grain sorghums as well as selection of supervised practice jobs. Each boy taking agriculture has a supervised practice program including some 10 to 15 jobs other than their regular project jobs. These supervised practice jobs include jobs on improvement projects, jobs on construction and repair as well as several supplementary farm jobs.

The Agriculture boys have made more than toast and coffee. They have studied everything "coffee to popovers."

Terraces Check Erosion Damage

Broad-based, level terraces with closed ends retain practically all the water on the land where it falls, giving an equal distribution of moisture which results in a uniform crop stand. Farmers of the wind erosion area are finding that yields on terraced fields are higher and that erosion is checked. Terraces are recommended wherever contour farming is not sufficient to prevent loss of water. This farmer is constructing a terrace on a field in one of the Soil Conservation Service demonstration areas.

SIDELIGHTS

By Marvin Jones
 Member of Congress From Texas
 Chairman, House Committee on Agriculture

In the current discussions of the farm bill many of the most desirable features have been overlooked. Some people have thoughtlessly urged that the measure be repealed. They overlook some very worthwhile features of the bill which I do not believe any thinking person would want repealed. Among these are the following:

1. The freight rate provision, which authorizes the Secretary of Agriculture to file applications to correct the rank discriminations against agricultural products in the freight rate structure of the country. This has been one of the greatest burdens agriculture has suffered. I do not believe any thinking person actually interested in the success of the American farm would want this provision repealed.

2. The research provision, which provides for the establishment of laboratories in the different sections of the country and for the search for new markets, new outlets, and new forms of distribution for the various farm products that are produced. Surely no one wants this desirable feature repealed.

3. The export provision, which provides for 30 percent of the tariff collections to be devoted to exporting farm commodities and to distributing these commodities and their products among the needy people in America. Surely no wise person would want this provision repealed.

4. The soil conservation provision. Every man, woman, and child in America is interested in the conservation and rebuilding of the soils. Some of the finest work that has been done in this generation has been in connection with the soil conservation provisions of the act. I do not see how anyone can object to this provision.

5. The loan provision, which is intended to prevent complete collapse. Last year we produced the greatest cotton crop in history. We produced the largest wheat crop since 1915. With a smaller cotton crop in 1937, cotton sold at 4c and found. In 1932 with a smaller crop than in 1937, wheat sold at 10c per bushel.

Land unsatisfactory as prices are, they are infinitely better than they were in 1932. In addition, the cotton and wheat farmers are receiving soil conservation payments. The cotton farmer is receiving a price adjacent payment, and the cotton and wheat farmers are to receive additional parity payments.

If cotton or wheat farmer will take pencil and figure these payments and prices along side the 1932 program he will find how much better he is with the present program than he would be with no program at all.

Some familiar with the facts knew the new farm act of 1938 was into effect during the most difficult period that could be conceived. Tremendous surpluses that had produced in our major crops compounded the problem to an extreme.

It is to me that anyone sincerely interested in the success of the farm program should be willing to wait there is a thorough try-out of new measure or at least until season has passed before beginning to sow the seeds of discord and to up dissatisfaction.

No claims the new law is perfect. On other hand, no fair man can deny it has many desirable features. Man is wise enough to predict advance just how it will work. No doubt in the light of experience some changes will be found necessary. These changes can and should be made. Congress does not meet January. By that time I am sure needed changes will be much clearer. In the meantime I hope the farmers and every sincere friend agriculture will refrain from inting to the end that the best possible results may be obtained.

Any after its success, depends upon three things: 1. the form of the law; 2. the character of administration; 3. the cooperation of those in whose interests it is enacted.

No law, never perfect can be successful unless it is well administered. No, however perfect, even if well administered, can succeed unless the people who are affected are willing to cooperate. He does the farmer, no man who lights the torch of intolerance and who undertakes to create dissension at the very time during most critical part of the work is doing.

The agricultural program today is not a bill. It is a movement, and the bills are hasty steps in that movement.

I am sure every true friend of the farmer wishes to see the law improved as we go along. I am sure that, by intelligent and cooperative effort, great improvement can be made. This is the history of all great movements in America. I do not believe that the solution of this age-old problem can be achieved or even materially contributed to by extreme attacks and bitter personalities. I am sure that if all those who have a simple heart interest in the success of the greatest of all American businesses—American agriculture—will calmly analyze and show a disposition to cooperate in working out the final program, great progress can be made.
