CONGRESSMAN WALTER ROGERS' WASHINGTON NEWSLETTER SAM RAYBURN

"It is now my sole purpose here to help enact such wise and just laws that our common country will by virtue of these laws be a happier and a more prosperous country. I have always dreamed of a country which I believe this should be and that is one in which the citizenship is an educated and patriotic people not swayed by passion and prejudice, and a country that knows no East, no West, no North, no South, but inhabited by a people liberty-loving, patriotic, happy, and prosperous with its lawmakers having no other purpose than to write such just laws as shall in the years to come be of service to mankind yet unborn."

These words, in the author's handwriting, appear on a portrait which hangs in my office. They were pinned in March, 1913, shortly after the author's election to the United States House of Representatives from the Fourth District of Texas. To me, they allow a clear vision into the integrity and unchanging character of the man who wrote them, Sam Rayburn of Bonham.

Last week, Mrs. Rogers and I attended the services for Speaker Rayburn at Bonham at a nation mourned the passing of a great Texan and an outstanding American. Tributes to the Speaker have been offered from every corner of the world. They will form part of a memorial, the greater part of which will be an eternal monument in the annals of American government where the imprint of Mr. Sam's character will be long felt. I shall always count it a privilege to have served in the greatest legislative body in the world with Mr. Rayburn. We sometimes did not see eye to eye on a given issue, but I never doubted that his sole motivation was to serve America and the cause of freedom with every ounce of his energy and strength, which attitude he always reciprocated.

Last summer the House observed the long tenure of Mr. Rayburn as Speaker, after 16 years, 273 days, more than twice as long as any other Speaker in the history of the United States. The compilations of tributes on that occasion form a booklet entitled "The House will be in order." I have obtained a limited number of these booklets and will be happy to forward copies upon request until the supply is exhausted. I quote from the foreword of this publication a particularly appropriate characterization:

"Those of us who served with Speaker Rayburn and under his guidance for the whole of a political—and often a natural—lifetime, never for a moment lost the feeling of being in the presence of a great and a good man whether we had his agreement or his opposition, or whether he had ours. Where he sat there was authority and dignity, highly warranted seniority, but never the adamant or arrogant manifestations of naked power. For perhaps a quarter of a century, his was one of the strongest, and not infrequently the strongest single voice in Congress. But always Speaker Rayburn accepted for himself with reverence and punctilio what may be called the rule of the democratic process. Above all there was the Constitution of the United States and for him personally the clearly defined and correct outposts of unaggrandized command. It was he, at the peak of his legislative eminence, who said:

"You can't be a leader, and ask other people to follow you, unless you know how to follow, too!"

One fact of the greatness of Speaker Rayburn is that neither opportunity nor invitation of circumstances to the cause of an immense power ever tempted him on a single

MORE RULINGS DUE ON STATE SALES TAX AS APPLIES TO AGRICULTURE

College Station — Several questions concerning the application of the State Sales Tax to agricultural production goods have been received by C. H. Bates, extension farm management specialist. Bates reports that the Comptroller's office has not made rulings on some of these specific items, but ruling No. 13 does cover certain items.

According to this ruling, "Persons engaged in the business of selling tangible personal property to those engaged in agricultural pursuits in the State of Texas shall be required to collect the tax imposed by this law. However, there are items specifically exempt from the taxes imposed by this statute when sold to those persons engaged in agricultural pursuits."

Articles exempted from the sales tax under ruling No. 13 include "The sale of, storage, use or other consumption of any form of animal life of the kind which ordinarily constitutes food for human consumption." This would include beef cattle, poultry and swine, explains Bates. Also exempted is feed for these animals. Dog food, horse feed and bird feed are examples of feeds not exempted.

Seeds and annual plants which produce food for human consumption, and fungicides, insecticides and fertilizers applied to them are also exempted under the ruling. Trees, bedding plants, household insecticides and lawn fertilizer are examples of commodities not exempted.

Bates says the ruling also exempts Farm Machinery or equipment exclusively used or employed on farms or ranches in the production of food for human consumption, feed for any form of animal.

The Quitaque Boy Scouts are selling Christmas Trees this year and they already have a nice stock of them on hand and ready for sale.

They are on display on the lot alongside of Bray Laundry. The Scouts will be the only ones in town who will sell trees this year, so it might be a good idea to hustle on down and make your selection before they are picked over. They will have a tree to fit every need and they will appreciate your buying from them.

Cub Master Jack Morrison announces that Mrs. Delene Tyler will be the pioneer Den Mother to lead in the organization of Den No. 1 of Quitaque Cub Scouts. Eight boys will be selected and notified from the applications received. The first meeting will be this Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. As soon as Mary Stark is physically able, she plans to help with this Den. In the meantime different mothers of the boys will be asked for temporary assistance. Scoutmaster Paul Bailey has assigned Rex Harmon as the Den Chief for this first Cub Den.

The first Cub-Pack meeting will be held the last Tuesday night of January. It is hoped that other Den Mothers will have begun at least one other Den by that time, and will be represented at the first Cub-Pack meeting.

Panthers Win Seventh

Quitaque's tall and improving Panthers roared past the Happy Cowboys 69-43 at Happy Tuesday night running string to seven games in a row for the season. The Panthers are unbeaten for the year. The Pantherettes lost 29 - 60 to a good Happy team and now stand 3 won and 4 losses for the season.

Leading the Panthers in Tuesday nights outing was Sammy Johnston with 25 points. Jerry Stevens was high for the Cowboys with 14 points.

Chlonez Woods led the scoring in the girls game with 20 points.

The Panthers take on a tough Price College Crew here in the local gym tonight and the Panthers will play St. Mary's Academy, also of Amarillo. The Panthers and the Pantherettes were to have played in the Kress Tournament this weekend, however that meet was cancelled due to the fact that the Kress football team is still playing football and have a game Saturday night. Coach Roberts luckily found Price College with an open date also and arranged for the games here tonight. The return games will be played in the Price College gym at Amarillo next Friday night, December 8. Last Tuesday night the Price College team took a 55-44 win over the Class A Memphis Cyclones, which might indicate that the local lads will have their hands full. We have been unable to secure any information on the St. Mary's team but they probably will have a good team.

Next Tuesday night, December 5, the local teams will host the boys and girls teams from Afton. Last Tuesday nights boxes:

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Brunson and Mr. H. W. Hamilton drove to Arran-pass Pass, near Corpus Christi, last Tuesday to do some fishing. The Quitaque Lions Club is again sponsoring a Home and Business Christmas decoration contest: This has been the Club's custom for the past several years and always stirs up a lot of friendly competition among the local residents, business men and women, helps to get the "Christmas Spirit" and adds a great deal to the appearance to our town.

In past years the Lions Club has given cash prizes to the winners of the contest, but due to the fact that the Club spent a sizable amount of money on the Cemetery Paving project and is a little short of funds, a very pretty certificate will be given to the winners instead of the cash prizes.

Some of the business houses are at work decorating their stores; Wilson & Son was one of the first to light up a very pretty window, West Texas Utilities has a pretty front, Pop Clark and his crew have several trees and decorations up in Pioneer Drug and Pete Rice and his crew are at work as this is being written decorating a big window and early Thursday morning work was started on the street lighting, so things are already underway.

The Club urges that all business houses and residences be prettied up for the Christmas season. In years past many of the homes have been decked out in beautiful lights and decorations, many of them being very novel and original.

The Tribune joins the Lions in urging everyone to get into the spirit of the season—dress up your home and your business and let's make Quitaque the prettiest town in Texas. Don't wait—it is time now to get to work on it!

Out-of-town judges will be used to pick the winners in the contest. Judging will be done sometime between December 18 and Christmas Eve.

WHO NAMED BAYLOR UNIVERSITY?

Baylor University, at Waco, was named for an outstanding Judge.

He was Dr. Robert Emmett Blensoe Baylor. How that came to pass is an interesting story.

The man who placed the Baylor name on this great educational institution was William Melton Tyron. He was the second missionary sent to Texas by the American Baptist Home Mission Society. He was a leader in church and state and was the chaplain in the Congress of the Republic of Texas.

Tyron, who first originated the idea of a Baptist university in Texas, was made a member of the committee appointed to secure the university charter from the Republic of Texas.

Tyron rejected Judge Baylor's suggestion that the school be named Tyron and into the application wrote "Baylor".

Tyron then served as the first of Trustees of Baylor University.

SHURFINE SCHOLARSHIP TO CONTINUE

The Shurfine Scholarship Grant is to continue in 1962, the Board of Directors of Central Retailer-Owned ed Grocers, Inc., Northlake, Illinois decided today. According to an announcement by H. W. Garbers, CROG Secretary and General Manager, the more than 8500 retail food store owners who distribute Shurfine Foods in 23 central and southern states will again be able to offer their employees the opportunity of applying for a special college scholarship in food distribution.

The Scholarship Grant is intended to provide recognition and encouragement for careers in food distribution and retailing for young men employed in Shurfine stores.

The scholarship provides for complete payment of tuition, course fees and books for the entire two and one-half year Food Distribution Curriculum at Western Michigan University, Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Western Michigan University's food distribution curriculum was chosen, says Jack Conreux, President of CROG and General Manager of Associated Grocers of St. Louis "Because their system of alternating one semester of college study with a term of coordinated work in the field seems to us the most practical and effective method of preparing for leadership positions in food distribution."

FIRST BAPTIST NOTES —
A number of ladies met on Monday and Tuesday mornings for a week of prayer for the Lottie Moon Christmas offering. They also had charge of the program Wednesday night. Pastor Bob Beck was in Le Fors, taking part on a program there.

A number of our own church are on the sick list this week, and so for them and the others of our community are ill, we wish them a speedy recovery.

— Go To Church Sunday —

This Sunday is both Communion Sunday and Commitment Day. The theme for this year is "The Christian Family Doesn't Need to Drink". To live life to its fullest, to have wholesome Christian fellowship, to experience the maximum joy of mature love, to know God's presence in daily life, the Christian family doesn't need to drink! The special bulletins prepared for Sunday carry the following quotation from the 1960 Discipline of The Methodist Church: "The Methodist Church is in militant opposition to the liquor traffic because its product assails the highest centers of personality and its procedures contribute greatly to the sickness and degradation of people, leading to deterioration of character, discord in family life, neglect and suffering of children. The practice of total abstinence should also be thought of by Methodists as a matter of stewardship concern for our brothers, for the inevitable influence of personal life imposes a solemn responsibility on each one."

SPECIAL PROGRAM SUNDAY NIGHT
The Senior Youth of First Methodist Church will bring a special program Sunday night, complete with Christmas songs and decorations, helping us to remember what the Advent season should really mean. It will be at the 7 o'clock worship hour.

Last Tuesday Stewart McCracken of Tulla and Mary Ellen McCracken were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Boone McCracken. It was Mary Ellen's birthday.

HOME DEMO CLUB ANNOUNCES PLANS FOR CHRISTMAS PARTY
Mrs. Ella Colvin and Mrs. Hattie Bockleman of Quitaque were guests of the Home Demonstration Club Tuesday afternoon. "The best way to cheer yourself is to try to cheer someone else", was the slogan for the day.

Roll Call response was "Remember When...?" There was a round table discussion of "How are you preparing for tomorrow?" in thinking of "Our Aging Population". Several interesting solutions were suggested, two of the most amusing being by Mrs. W. T. Ross and Mrs. C. C. Jones. Gifts were brought by members for the ones believed to be their secret pal. Names will not be revealed until after the Thanksgiving supper and Christmas party, December 12. The decision to combine the two events was made at the last meeting and after details were worked out the following announcement was made:

Tuesday evening, December 12, at 6:30, the party will be held at the Lunch Room. A covered dish supper has been planned with the club furnishing the meat. Each person will bring a secret pal gift and an exchange gift. Each member has the privilege to invite a guest and the guest is to bring an exchange gift. Guests are welcome. Others attending the meeting Tuesday were Meses. L. W. Crowell, M. J. Pyron, O. D. Calvert, Ray Cruse, Sam Ross, Harmon Moseley, L. E. Shorter, G. E. Whitaker, Joe Deagan, Raldo Martin, Jesse Brownling, Leon Cloyd, Wilburn Martin, G. E. Washington, L. D. Bilberry, L. B. Turner, Lois Martin, J. C. Franks and Howard Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Montoya and children of Albuquerque came Thursday morning to visit her mother, Mrs. J. L. Speer, her brother, Johnnie, and her sister, Mrs. Wayne Hunter, Mr. Hunter and children. Friday evening the L. B. Turners joined the group for a supper of Turkey, cranberries, stuffed celery, hot coffee, cream pie and all the Thanksgiving delicacies. Other guests in the Speer home were Judy and Joyce, Clois and Lewis Shorter and Mrs. L. E. Shorter.

Mrs. Earl Patrick took her mother, Mrs. L. D. Bilberry and her grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Giles to Snyder Saturday for a visit with relatives. They returned home by way of Post and visited there.

Mrs. Clayton Bond returned home Friday evening from Colo. where she had gone the first part of last week to visit her son and his family. Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Gates and two daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. James Monk accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Ace Monk of Quitaque and Mickie Maupin of Turkey to Hugoton, Kansas to attend the funeral of their niece, Mrs. Tom Harvey. Mrs. Harvey passed away Saturday at Hugoton. Services were held at Hugoton Monday, after which the body was brought to Vega for burial.

Mrs. Alfred Martin and son, Eldon, spent Thanksgiving at Decatur visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Waters. They were accompanied by Mrs. L. B. Isbell, who went to Arlington and visited

A Fun Food for the gay days HOLIDAY MINCEMEAT FANCIES

Among the sprightly features of the holiday season are the gay, rich and fanciful foods we eat for sheer fun. For example, these Holiday Mincemeat Fancies.

These tarts are frankly frivolous. The pastry shells, tender and flaky, are filled with cooled mincemeat after it's been blended and simmered in apple juice to the point of being almost winey in its fragrant apple tang. In serving, you can top the tarts with a dollop of whipped cream, or ice cream, or with sharp cheddar cut in fancy shape with a cookie cutter—all depending on the occasion, the guests, the time of day and your mood. And among their charms is the cheery fact that they're simple to make:

- 3 cups apple juice
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 2 9-ounce packages condensed mincemeat
- 8 individual baked pastry shells
- Toppings (optional)—whipped cream, ice cream or cheddar cheese

Bring apple juice to boiling point. Crumble mincemeat; add with sugar to apple juice. Boil 6 minutes, stirring occasionally. Cool slightly. Spoon into pastry shells. If desired, top with whipped cream, ice cream or sharp cheddar cheese. Makes 3 cups mincemeat mixture; 8 servings.

her son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Isbell and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Snow were agreeably surprised Friday when a niece and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Taylor of Oklahoma City came by for a visit with them. Mr. Snow hadn't seen his niece in twenty-four years but both Mr. Snow and Mrs. Taylor recognized the other.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jackson of Irving were guests in the home of her sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bond, Saturday and Sunday. Their nephew and niece and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jean Pope of Turkey were also guests of the Bonds.

Rev. and Mrs. Jack Terrell and Elizabeth had as their supper guests Wednesday evening, Miss Lou Foot and Harold Crane of Wayland College. The two young people accompanied the Terrills to Tucumcari, where they spent Thanksgiving with friends. Tucumcari is the home of the young people and the former home of the Terrills. George Crane returned home with the Terrills Friday evening and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Crane and family came for their son Sunday and spent the day.

After the evening prayer meeting service Wednesday at the Baptist Church, the congregation surprised the new pastor and his family with an old fashioned "pounding". Refreshments of coffee, cool-ade and cookies was served to about thirty guests.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Jones and family of Amarillo visited in the home of Mrs. J. L. Speer and family Friday evening and brought some interesting colored slides that the group enjoyed seeing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. George, their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Barrett and children of Bovina and Wallace Baldwin and son, Don, of Plainview enjoyed Thanksgiving dinner in the home of Mrs. Carrie George and Zollie.

HI-PLAINS HI-LITES -

The top yield for 1961 in the test of sixty-two hybrids and varieties of grain sorghum was 8,852.88 lbs. per acre. This yield was 800 pounds greater than the top yield of 1960. The low yield in the test of irrigated grain sorghum was 6,123 lbs. per acre. The average of the entire sixty-two hybrids and varieties was 200 pounds higher in 1961 than the 1960 average in the tests conducted at the High Plains Research Foundation at Halfway, Texas.

The test plots, planted June 13, were irrigated July 31st; August 10; September 5, and September 19 with 2.5 inches per irrigation. Rain-fall received between June 1st and October 1st amounted to 9.67 inches. All varieties received a sidedressed application of 120 pounds anhydrous ammonia on June 27th. The field was planted in cotton in 1960. There was no serious insect or disease damage to any of the sixty-two entries in the irrigation tests. The research reports on these tests include the yield, early vigor, bloom date, percent stand (unusually good) percent lodging, plant height

There was no significant difference in the yield of the top sixteen hybrids of the sixty-two hybrids and varieties tested under irrigation at the Foundation. PINK & BLUE SHOWER HONORS MRS. RONNIE CARPENTER

A Pink and Blue shower, honoring Mrs. Ronnie Carpenter, was given recently in the home of Mrs. Glenn Ramsey.

The center table was very attractively laid with a white crocheted cloth, centered with a blue baby carriage, containing miniature pink rosebuds. These were guarded by two storks, each carrying an infant.

Refreshments of cookies, coffee and hot chocolate were served to a number of guests.

The honoree received a beautiful array of gifts.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mmes. John Fulton, Glenn Ramsey, Gladys Wise, Sid Bogan, R. J. Harmon, and A. C. Barrett.

Mr. and Mrs. John Fulton and boys spent Saturday in Amarillo visiting relatives and attending business.

ALL-COTTON STRETCH YARNS AND FABRICS DEVELOPED BY USDA SCIENTISTS

College Station, Nov. 29 — Texas cotton producers could profit materially from recently announced U. S. Department of Agriculture research. Three methods for manufacturing all-cotton stretch yarns and fabrics have been developed, according to Dr. C. H. Fisher, who heads the Department's Southern Utilization Research and Development Division, New Orleans.

He listed the methods as slack mercerization of fabric to impart specific amounts of stretch; back-twisting resin-treated yarns, which causes them to take the shape of tiny helical coil springs and crimping yarns first made thermoplastic by chemical treatment.

The first method is now undergoing industrial evaluation by one company for use in plastic-coated automobile upholstery and interior linings. Other manufacturers plan to evaluate the three methods in making fabrics for knit bathing suits and dresses, hosiery, foundation garments, sweaters, knit shirts and furniture slipcovers.

Consumer demand for high-stretch fabrics is increasing rapidly, and imparting stretch to cotton can help increase consumption of this agricultural commodity, Dr. Fisher said.

These developments are a result of the broad program conducted by the USDA's Agricultural Research Service to find new uses and new markets for cotton.

"THE OLD RUGGED CROSS" IS AMERICA'S FAVORITE HYMN

"The Old Rugged Cross" still is America's favorite hymn.

Hymn Poll and 10,482 of them chose "The Old Rugged Cross", vivid hymn which describes the traditional meaning of the Cross, as their dearest song.

Bill McVey, Christian Herald Gospel Singer, who directed the survey to determine the hymns America loves best, and Audience Analysts, Inc., Bala-Cynwyd, Pa., the independent research organization which tabulated votes from readers of more than 1,000 newspapers, reported that "How Great Thou Art" was a close second to "The Old Rugged Cross."

"How Great Thou Art", a dynamic gospel song describing God's omnipotence, received 8,449 votes. Audience Analysts said this large vote doubtless was due to the song's popularity at hymn sings across the country. "How Great Thou Art", a favorite selection of baritone McVey and Billy Graham, was fourth in last year's Christian Herald hymn poll and McVey attributed part of its current popularity to its moving evangelistic feeling and strong melody.

The third favorite hymn disclosed by the National Newspaper Hymn Poll was "What A Friend We Have In Jesus", a song which has earned a place in Americans' hearts by its warm expression of faith held by Protestants of every denomination, McVey said.

McVey, who has sung all the top 50 hymns at Christian Herald Community Sings across the country, reported that "In The Garden", a hymn which tells of God's compassion and guidance, received 3,868 votes for fourth place in the National Hymn Poll and was especially preferred in the mid-west.

The Christian Herald Singer noted the rise and acceptance of "Amazing Grace" among American church-goers. This gospel song, which relates how faith provides confidence, moved from ninth place in the 1960 Christian Herald hymn poll to fifth place with 1,816 votes in the National Newspapers Hymn Poll.

The sixth favorite hymn of the 61,445 Americans who voted was "Rock of Ages", a religious song which describes man's confidence in God. "Rock of Ages", seventh in McVey's Christian Herald poll, received 1,511 votes in the July-October National Newspaper Hymn Poll.

The next four favorites were: "Sweet Hour of Prayer", 1,157 votes; "Abide With Me", 1,112 votes; "Beyond the Sunset", 1,050 votes; and, "Whispering Hope", 741 votes. McVey said the vote received by "Whispering Hope" was the big gest surprise in the nationwide balloting. This hymn was 27th in the Christian Herald Poll but moved to 10th in the National Newspapers Hymn Poll.

This year's poll, co-sponsored by the Christian Herald Magazine, the nation's largest interdenominational Protestant publication, and newspaper editors in every state except Hawaii and Vermont, recorded more than 1,900 hymns and gospel songs. Last year, Christian Herald readers voted for 1,666 religious songs.

McVey said the most important point disclosed by this first definite survey to determine the hymns America loves best was that American churchgoers do not prefer one type of religious song to another.

The last two years have seen a constant controversy between hymnal editors, who downgrade hymns they feel are too sentimental and poorly composed and sometimes eliminate those religious songs from hymnbooks, and churchgoers who prefer hymns that have been the most inspiring to them and the easiest for them to understand.

"The National Newspapers Hymn Poll results show that American churchgoers want to sing sentimental hymns and gospel songs like 'The Old Rugged Cross'," McVey said. "If we are to get all Americans singing the hymns or gospel songs of the church again, choir directors, organists and ministers should note the favorites of newspaper readers across the country and encourage religious singing of every variety," he said.

"A silent faith is not as strong as a singing faith," McVey said. "Singing our favorite hymns is a natural way to create a national bond and brotherhood and moral strength in the face of the mounting Communist threat," the Christian Herald singer said.

McVey pointed out that readers who voted in the National Newspapers Hymn Poll divided their ballots almost equally for gospel songs such as "How Great Thou Art" and for hymns such as "What

A Friend We Have In Jesus". "Even though many of these hymns and gospel songs have been torn out of the hymn books, they can't be torn out of the hearts of people who love them," McVey said. "Americans are inspired by the simple melodies and sentiments of their favorite hymns and gospel songs."

"The enthusiastic response to the National Newspapers Hymn Poll by men and women in almost every state indicates that ministers and choir directors should encourage more hymn singing in their churches and at the same time urge everyone to express their faith in song every day," Bill McVey said.
