Panthers Ease By Winds

The Floydada Whirlwinds blew into town Monday night, blasted the boys B team in the opening game, took a lopsided 73-33 win over the Pantherettes, then found a tough foe in the Panthers, who were determined to even the score with the 'Winds, who had took an earlier season win over the Quitaque lads at Floydada. The final score in that one was Quitaque 92, Floydada 88.

The Quitaque B team lost 63-31.

The Pantherettes, who lost 72-34 to the Whirlwinds at Floydada in November, again were no match for the Floyd County crew, who are probably the best team the Quitaque girls have played this year. They have an abundance of tall guards and forwards who can move well and hit the basket.

Janice Dudley connected for 18 points for the Quitaque team followed by Jennifer Whittington with 11, Deborah McKay 2 and Patricia Brunson 2.

The Panthers, sparked by a 45-point outburst by Jim Saul, had to really battle to even the series with the Whirlwinds. The locals got into early foul trouble and had to play much of the game without the services of Jack Johnson. At the end of the first period the Panthers were trailing by 10 points and the local fans were a trifle uneasy. The Panthers refused to fold, however and with Saul hitting well, pulled to within 5 points, 45-50 at half-time.

The third quarter found the Floydada lads getting in foul trouble, also, and with a minute to go in the third quarter Robin Brown tied the score at 68-68. The 'Winds dropped in two more field goals to lead 72-68 at the end of the third period.

The fourth period found the Floydada lads losing all five of their starters, and Quitaque lost Joe Hamilton, Phil Barefield and Bobo Morrison joined Jack Johnson and Terry Woods on the sidelines because of too many fouls. It was a good one to win and now evens the slate between the two teams for the year.

The local teams are playing in the Claude Tournament this weekend and both teams played the teams from Groom Thursday morning, the girls at 9 and the boys at 10:30. The winner of the boys game will play at 1:30 Friday afternoon. The losers will play Saturday morning at 11. If the Pantherettes win their Thursday morning game they will play at 12 noon Friday. If they lose they will play Saturday morning at 8 o'clock. Finals will be Saturday with the consolation games to start at 4:30.

Girls teams entered in the tournament in addition to the Pantherettes are Groom, Spearman, Silverton, Turkey, McLean, Miami, Clarendon and Claude. In the boys division are teams from the same schools as those entered in the girls division.

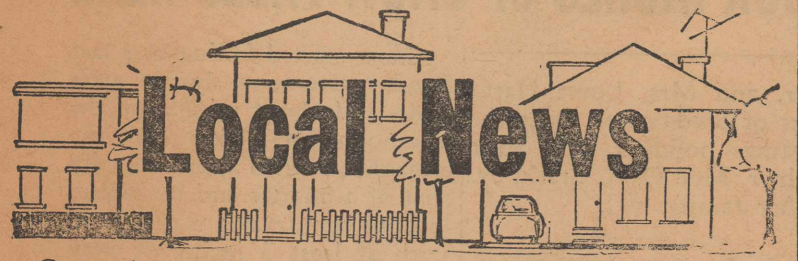

Next Tuesday night, Jan. 7, district play begins when the local teams drive to Flomot for a pair of games and then next Friday night, Jan. 10 the games will be at Turkey, another pair of district games.

TAX FACTS

A REAL BARGAIN!

GASOLINE QUALITY HAS BEEN IMPROVED SO MUCH THAT TWO GALLONS NOW WILL DO THE WORK THAT WOULD HAVE REQUIRED THREE GALLONS IN 1925. SURPRISINGLY, THE COST—EXCLUDING TAXES—IS ABOUT THE SAME!

IN THE PAST 10 YEARS, WHILE PRICES IN GENERAL ROSE 15 PERCENT, THE AVERAGE PRICE OF REGULAR GRADE GASOLINE, BUCKING THE TREND, DROPPED MORE THAN 4 PERCENT. BUT IN THE SAME DECADE, GASOLINE TAXES INCREASED NEARLY 39 PERCENT.

GASOLINE TAXES NOW COST MOTORISTS $17 MILLION EVERY DAY. ON A NATION-WIDE AVERAGE, TAXES ADD 50 PERCENT TO THE RETAIL PRICE OF THE FUEL.

For the second straight week, weather was a factor in omitting the evening service. The morning activities, however, were up considerably over the previous week.

In beginning the new calendar year the pastor plans on using the study book, "Our Mission today: The Beginning of A New Age," as the basis for discussion in the evening services for some time. This volume was written by Dr. Tracey K.

 Jones, Associate General Secretary of the Division of World Missions. The question sometimes comes up concerning the evening service on Sunday:
 Shall we have more worship?
 Most of us were in a worship service this morning. Or shall we learn more? We engaged in an educational enterprise as we were in Sunday School. This is in many ways a fusing of the two with emphasis on the warm heart and the trained mind, to the end that in due time serving hands might reach the entire world for Christ. The introduction to this study comes next Sunday evening, the title being: "Needed, And Available: New Wisdom." The title for the morning is "The Trumpet Sounds," an introduction to the new curriculum which is to go into effect in Methodist Church in September, of 1964.

The pastor is to join others in the Plainview District in a "Retreat" at Ceta Canyon Camp on Monday, Jan. 7, beginning at 10:30 A. M. A theological teacher from S.M.- U., Dr. Lamar Cooper, is to be instructor for the study session.

As all of us meet the new year, it would be good for us to face the implications of one man's rather harsh statements to his members, when he told them that some of them were not the eye, ear, or hand that St. Paul mentioned. He said some were like tonsils: "We are no worse off when you are gone"; some were like the appendix: "We did not know we had you till you caused us trouble"; and some were like artificial teeth:
 "Sometimes you are in and sometimes you are out." Fortunately many persons are of real help, and all can be of help to others. Here's wishing that each person who reads this is going to find ways to get things done for God, and not waste time on excuses for getting out of work.
 That's the way real joy comes.
