Candidates For City Offices

Lions Would Enlarge Scope Of Local Club

A committee to advise with the city commission with respect to a location for the city auditorium, construction of which was authorized in a recent bond election, was named by the Muleshoe Lions Club at their meeting Tuesday.

Boss Lion Tye Young named Vance Waggon, Howard Elliott and Horace Taylor on the committee, whose duties will be to find suitable sites that may be bought and used for the building.

The action came after Lion H. D. King, in charge of the day's program, had urged that the club find a larger meeting place and expand the membership to 100 or more, to include farmers who are interested in joining the organization.

King's idea was that the Lions Club, by including farmers and others in the club, can lead in promoting city and community enterprises.

Several Lions spoke warmly in support of his idea.

Dan Cook, Back From Army Service, Enters Race For Judge 64th District

Dan M. Cook this week authorized The Journal to print the following announcement concerning candidacy for district judge in the 64th judicial district, subject to the Democratic primary.

"I recognize the fact that I am at considerable disadvantage in this campaign because of my inability to announce for the office at the usual time, and because of my four years absence from the district, during which time many voters have moved into the district and many have attained voting maturity; but I shall see as many of you as time and a '36 model automobile will permit and personally appeal to you for consideration.

"I recognize that I am asking a high honor at your hands, an office that will require unusually sound judgment and legal ability during the years of unsettled conditions that have always followed in the wake of a conflict such as that from which we have just emerged.

"If elected, I pledge the citizenship of this district to give all of myself, my energies and abilities to the end that the matters coming before me shall be promptly, economically, justly and legally concluded.

DAN M. COOK."

Cook was born in Mt. Pleasant 56 years ago, he said, and received his education in public schools of Titus county, Sam Houston State Normal, the University of Texas and Texas A. M. University.

He enlisted in the army in 1915.

Early opening of a photographic studio for Muleshoe has been announced by Mr. and Mrs. Homer Pierce, who are moving here from San Diego, California. Mrs. Pierce is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Stone.

The studio, which will be known as "Pierce's" will do portrait and commercial work, photo finishing and in fact everything that a complete photo studio is expected to do.

The Pierce's have purchased a complete photo studio in San Diego, California. They will be ready to make pictures in their studio or in the field. A fine Graphic has been purchased that will enable them to take pictures of livestock, buildings, farm scenes, social or public events.

During the last three years they have been in business at San Diego. Both are former students of Texas Tech, where they first became acquainted. They have been unable to solve the housing problem for their studio, so have rigged up a "dark room" at the Stone home, but they hope to announce a permanent home for their business soon.

RIBBLE'S RIPPLES

Those who are interested in being learned in the affairs of the world often wonder, "I'm told, about whether or not they are really 'educated.' Not all who are really 'learned' are educated.

This uncertainty about being "educated" has its like-minded state in the uncertainty of one's being a "Christian." Not all who are learned in the technical matters of Christianity are really and truly Christian. Forgetting this, some have depended upon meeting the legal requirements of becoming a Christian, and have neglected to really become such "in deed and in truth."

The Scriptures are given by inspiration and are for "instruction in righteousness." This word instruction is as near the equal of "education" as any word in the New Testament. "Be not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is," is another near equal in meaning. Back of all the technical requirements of being baptized, confessed, penitent, believer is the tacit understanding that one shall continue in, and grow in the doctrines of Christianity. No mere formality of obedience not followed by a real spiritual growth will make one "a Christian" in the New Testament basic meaning.

A Christian should use "good language." And I do not mean by this that he should merely avoid profane language which he certainly should do, but "sound words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ." 1 Tim. 6:3 Christ said, "my words are spirit and they are life." Jno. 6:63. Those who heard them said they were the words of eternal life." See verse 68. We should "hold fast to the form of sound words . . . in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus." 2 Tim. 1:3. "Sound speech which cannot be condemned; that is of the country part may have no evil thing to say to you." Tit. 2:8. Speak of Bible things in Bible language and using Bible names. This is "sound speech, sound words." Sound means, in our Bible, wholesome, healthful, spiritual. These should characterize a Christian. The language of Ashdod should be avoided. See Neh 13:24.

Howdy, folks. Another proof that "all the world's a stage" appears in the fact that our bank roll has about as much purchasing power as stage money.

We're in a quandry. If we worry over currently high prices of feed while we're eating, we get indigestion, and if we don't eat, more than we can afford.

When we get indigestion, we sleep like a top, though. That is if we don't stop turning and twisting for hours.

Of course we're better off than the party who couldn't eat or sleep after his wife left him. She didn't leave him the price of a meal or a bed.

On the other hand, nothing bothers the Mrs. She sleeps like a log, but then she would.

You won't find a better buy than our Universal Washing Machine.

If you let us sell you one of them, we are certain that you will be a regular customer from then on.

MULESHOE STATE BANK BUILDING

You aren't getting machinery, Mr. Farmer, because...

PICKET LINES have taken the place of PRODUCTION LINES!

...so don't blame your Implement Dealer!

Your implement dealer had planned and expected to have his display floor filled with new implements and tractors weeks ago. And we had planned to make them—had told our dealers and our farmer customers they would have new equipment and plenty of service parts for the 1946 spring work. And we had hoped to sell these machines at no advance in price.

Real Production Had Started

When the war ended, our organization bent every effort to increase production, with the result that in the last months of 1945 machinery was being built in very substantial quantities. Here are a few figures:

ITEM	NOV. 1945	DEC. 1945
Tractors	7,271	7,432
Combines	2,345	2,526
Cultivators	3,482	3,308
Hay Loaders	209	982
Plows	6,185	6,702*

*Plows are made in our Canton and Chattanooga Works, which are not on strike. January production was 7,747 plows.

Both your dealer and we were encouraged by this production picture at the turn of the year. But the strike changed all that. As you know, the CIO United Farm Equipment & Metal Workers of America called a strike in ten of our plants, on January 21, 1946.

What Is The Strike About?

Wages are a basic issue. At the time of the strike, Harvester employees were among the highest paid workers in American industry. When the strike began, the average hourly earnings in the ten plants, not including overtime, were \$1.15 $\frac{1}{2}$. If present wage proposals are adopted, this figure will become \$1.33 $\frac{1}{2}$ per hour.

When the strike began, negotiations were broken off by the Union on the issue of compulsory union membership. The Company has no desire to weaken the Union. It recognizes certain reasonable needs of the Union. But the Company does oppose compulsory unionism. It feels strongly that an employee's membership should be a matter of his own choice.

Material Costs and Price Relief

Wages and materials are the great costs of operating our business—together they consume all but a few cents of every dollar the Company takes in. Wages are obviously going to be high—and nobody knows just how high material costs will go.

In the face of rising costs of materials, the Company does not see how it can pay the wage increases recommended by the Government fact finding board until it has definite and satisfactory assurance from the Government that reasonable price relief will be granted to the Company within a reasonable period of time. This matter is of such importance that it will not be discussed here, but will be covered by future advertisements devoted to both price and profits.

Speaking for our dealers and ourselves, we can assure you that no customer is more eager than we are to resume production. We are doing and shall continue to do everything in our power to bring about a fair settlement as soon as possible.

Dad's right

—wanting another OIL-PLATED engine

CONOCO Nth MOTOR OIL

and remember another big thing: Don't say "CONOCO"—SAY "N-TANE". CONOCO N-TANE GASOLINE

Motorists' Lesson I from World War II is that cars with OIL-PLATED engines don't quit easy. Though some are being traded for style's sake now, you can safely figure that the owners are repeating on OIL-PLATED engines! They make sure to get them—the same as you can do—by using Conoco Nth motor oil, with its added OIL-PLATING ingredient. This acts magnet-like, forcing engine parts to attract and hold a close-bonded surfacing of lubricant.

Like a shield over the finished inner surfaces that you want preserved, OIL-PLATING is in position against wear . . . in position to discourage carbon, gum, and sludge—to encourage oil and gasoline economy. You want all that, and it's yours for the asking. Just ask for Conoco Nth oil in any car. In the case of an older car, you certainly need a Spring oil change now, so this is exactly your time to OIL-PLATE. Pay just a bit more for it! See Your Conoco Mileage Merchant, Continental Oil Company return from the first meeting of the United Nations Organization in London. They have been well received here. They talked not of war but of peace. Their emphasis was upon better understanding among the nations. They spoke of tolerance and mutual respect, while advocating a firm and definite American policy.

The Senate has not permitted partisan politics to play a part in efforts which are being made to promote the success of the U.N.O. This significant fact was made clear by the report of Senator Vandenberg, the Republican leader in the Senate in foreign affairs matters. We cannot afford to fritter away a victory which was won at so great a cost.

The question of whether to permit the Navy to use 90 American ships in an atomic bomb test in the Pacific was not an easy one for the House to decide. However, upon the insistence of the Navy, the House voted to permit the test.

Undoubtedly, it is very important to our security to have accurate knowledge at an early date as to just what an atomic bomb will do to Naval ships. Naval officers point out that there is little comparison between the relatively fragile and inflammable Japanese cities and heavily armored ships of the Navy. The Navy insists also that a few modern ships be used in the test if necessary knowledge is to be gained. The argument was made that in the event of a future war the lessons learned from the tests might result in saving millions of dollars and thousands of American lives.

A bomb, other than atomic, will sink a single ship, but no one actually knows what an atomic bomb will do to formation of Naval vessels. Before proceeding with post war plans, the Navy wants to know if an atomic bomb will sink the Navy. Naval officers apparently do not think so.

By congressman George Mahon
Some real progress is being made toward reducing Government spending and recapturing funds appropriated before V-J Day but not actually spent. This week the House passed a bill providing for the recovery of six and one-half billion dollars in unexpended Government funds in the hands of the Army and Navy and other Government agencies. This brings the total sum of money recovered since the end of hostilities to fifty-seven billion dollars, a sum greater by almost one-third than we have ever collected in Federal taxes in a single year.

We have not taken back from the Army and Navy certain unexpended funds required for rounding out the construction of bases in the far Pacific, but we have called for a clearer policy and no duplication of effort in the construction of these bases. After the peace treaty is officially agreed to, it might be difficult to complete fortifications without the charge being made by certain foreign powers that we are making aggressive threats against them.

There will be further recoveries of funds from the War and Navy departments and other agencies following additional investigations which are now in progress.

put the GOLDEN RULE into action

The men brought their hammers and their saws

The women brought along their kettles and their "stittles"

"As ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them, likewise."

That is a scriptural injunction which everyone learns in childhood. Too often it is forgotten in the stress and strain of daily living.

Your neighbors, the farmers, have put the Golden Rule into action through their cooperatives. Human necessity led farmers to work together for the common good. This working together is not new. Farmers have practiced cooperation for generations before there were co-ops.

The old barn raising bee is an example of farmer-cooperation. The farmer who needed a barn called on his neighbors. The whole community helped to build the barn. The men brought their hammers and their saws. The women brought along their kettles and their "stittles". Working together as a team, the farmers raised their neighbor's barn.

That spirit of cooperation among farmers has come down through the years. Today, farmers continue to be America's cooperators. Three out of every four farmers in the great Northwest belong to one or more cooperatives.

The problem of the farmer is one of obtaining a stabilized income. Farmers know that it is dangerous for Americans to allow any large segment of the economy to suffer. They want everyone to prosper. They know first they can produce all the food and fiber the people need. The war proved that.

Through their cooperative effort farmers have achieved some measure of economic security. They buy equipment and supplies and sell their products—at cost. They furnish themselves with the services they require because they all are part and parcel of their cooperative. They have equality in all decisions.

Farmers' cooperatives are non-profit enterprises. All the earnings are returned to the farmers as savings—on the basis of their patronage.

Thus, in teaming up with others, the individual farmer has met the problem common to all farmers.

For true cooperation is founded on a regard for one's own neighbors.

One must do for others what he wishes them to do for him. Thus, true team work brings into action the Golden Rule.

Your neighbor, the farmer, wants you to know how he built his co-op. He wants you to understand his attitude. He welcomes your friendship and goodwill. Drop in at the nearest farmers' co-op. Get acquainted with the manager. He's your neighbor.

These cooperatives help build your community vert starvation among liberated peoples of Europe and Asia. While this world shortage of fats and oils is reflected in the United States by reduced production of soap and other industrial products. In countries than the Americas there is in addition a grave dearth of food fats which are a prime essential to maintain health.

"Obviously," comments the American Fat Salvage Committee, "We cannot use waste from American kitchens to feed the starving peoples of the world, but every American woman can save her cooking fats for reuse. After she has gotten the food values out of them she should turn in her used fats for industrial uses. This will mean that industry will not have to make as great demands on the over-all supply of available fats and oils and that more food can go to feed the starving."

Letters From Service Men

We publish below a letter from Orville and Nelson Burris, written from San Antonio.

To All our Muleshoe friends: I know it was a shock to all of our friends to see us go so quick, but we knew we had to go so we joined so we could get what we wanted. We didn't go for the fun there was in it, we went to help keep the Union's peace. We know we were needed worse out there with our orphan brothers and sisters and most of all with our poor old mother, who has all the burdens on her shoulders and is turning gray headed over it, but we'll be back some day and there won't be any more heartaches and pains.

May God bless all of you and help mother and children to make a better stand. Expecting to see all of you soon.
