REVIVAL WILL BEGIN SUNDAY AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

A revival meeting begins at the Quitaque Baptist Church Sunday morning and will continue through Sunday, October 24, according to pastor Bill Curry.

Evangelist for the revival is the Rev. Troy Walker and the music director will be Leon Hokett.

The Rev. Troy Walker is from Muleshoe and Leon Hokett now lives at Daingerfield.

Services will be held twice daily with the week-day services scheduled for 7:00 a. m. and 7:00 p. m. Sunday preaching services will be at 11:00 a. m. and 6:30 p. m.

Pastor Curry extends a cordial invitation to everyone to attend all services of the revival. You are sure to receive a blessing by attending.

Deborah McKay of Amarillo spent the week-end at home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lon McKay.

Mrs. Bill Woods, Myrtice Gillespie, Gladys Stroup and Minnie Mae Roberson attended the open house at Kings Manor in Hereford Sunday afternoon.

New Program Explained Further

At its last regular meeting the Quitaque Board of Trustees decided that it would enter into PESO (Panhandle Educational Service Organization), which is an outgrowth of the President's Elementary and Secondary Education Program. This organization is a cooperative effort made up of 26 counties of the Panhandle consisting of the majority of the school districts in this geographical area. The group will develop programs for the educationally deprived children as described in a previous article which appeared in an earlier edition.

Quitaque will receive some $18,000 under this program. The school was notified last week that an adjusted figure would increase our grant about another $1,300, giving us extra money on which to operate our program. Of this $18,000 it will cost us about four percent to administer the program through PESO. The cost will not come from local tax effort, but will come from the original grant and the local school should have more than $17,000 to spend on programs and services after paying our administrative fee of four percent.

PESO is sponsored by West Texas State U. at Canyon. The programs are now being developed and it is expected that the services will begin about January, 1966.

It should be kept in mind that ALL money granted will be used in developing better educational services for students residing in our district, plus locally transferred students. All money NOT expended will be turned back to the Federal Government and will NOT go to neighboring districts as each school will operate independently of one another.

PESO will be housed in Dwight Morrow Elementary School, 1601 Cleveland Street, Amarillo. The organization and area schools in the Panhandle will have some $1,230,200 to spend on bettering their educationally deprived children, above that which is now being offered.

F.H.A. PARTY

The Quitaque Chapter of the Future Homemakers of America held its monthly meeting Tuesday in the Homemaking department.

Patricia Brunson, Chapter president, called the meeting to order. The F.H.A. Prayer-Song was led by Janet Bailey. Following the business meeting, Sherry Mullin, the Floyd County Home Demonstration Agent, who was guest of the local chapter Tuesday evening and principal speaker, spoke to the girls on "Different Careers in Home Economics." Career Month is being observed this month by the local chapter and the talk pointed out a few of the careers that are open in the field of home economics. Slides were shown along with the very informative talk.

Following the talk the girls sang the F.H.A. State song.

Refreshments of punch and cookies were served by Barbara Reagan, Gwen McKay and Pam Curtis.

PALO DURO SHEEP SHOOT SCHEDULED

San Angelo — Approximately 50 aoudad sheep hunting permits will be issued to landowners in the Palo Duro Canyon for the December 10, 11 and 12 season, according to Richard DeArment, Panhandle wildlife biologist for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

So much interest has been shown by the hunters during past aoudad hunts that permits will be difficult to obtain.

Sportsmen were advised to contact landowners in the Palo Duro Canyon well in advance of the December season.

Biologists plan to gather additional breeding habit information from animals taken during this year's hunt. Therefore, all animals must be checked at Texas Parks and Wildlife Department check stations at strategic locations around the Palo Duro Canyon hunting area.

In 1964, 13 aoudad sheep were killed. The largest weight recorder was over 270 pounds.

LOCAL MASONS ATTEND MEET AT CARLSBAD CAVERNS

A group from the local Masonic Lodge enjoyed a nice trip and very impressive ceremony Saturday night when a degree in Masonry was presented in the dining hall of Carlsbad Caverns. The men were in costume and they report it a very impressive scene. There were 66 lodges from Texas represented along with New Mexico and other states and there were also Masons from France and Germany present. Those attending from here were Horace Hunter, J. T. Persons, R. J. Harmon, Gerald Smith, and Bill Helms. The men spent the night in the Holiday Inn at White City.

MY TRIP TO EUROPE (By Cleo Ham)

We arrived in Hook of Holland for a Dutch breakfast and from here our modern motor-coach will drive us past the famous Dutch seaside resort of Scheveningen to the capital of the Netherlands, the Hague with its Royal Palace, then continue to Oalsmeer, famous site of flower auctions, where we saw buildings of flowers on display to be sold at auction by buyer from different countries. There are few large farms in these countries, mostly little fields of fodder where we saw women doing most of the labor, raking the fodder and putting it in carts or baskets carrying it. Potatoes, beets and all kinds of vegetables are raised here. After lunch we continue past Breda into Belgium to reach Brussels, the capital where we have an evening tour of the illuminated city and see the fabulous Grand Place with its beautiful Guild Houses. From Brussels we motor to Aachen in Germany, the town of Charlemagne and via Cologne along the River Rhine. We enjoyed a thrilling cruise on the river past romantic villages and castles, and continued to Frankfurt for the night, where we dined at the Henninger Tower, Frankfurt's exclusive revolving restaurant. On Sept. 5 we left by coach for Lucerne, Switzerland, stopped at Heidelberg and went sightseeing at the university and the picturesque quarters along the River Neckar, then by Autobahn to Basle and Lucerne, the country's picture-book city, dominated by majestic mountains and beautifully situated on lovely Lake Lucerne. We had dinner there with folklore entertainment, which we thoroughly enjoyed. We took part in the games and all had our pictures taken. Next day we went sightseeing in this fine resort in the heart of William Tell's country, seeing the wooden Chapel Bridge built in 1333, the Lion Monument, the Medieval walls and the 16th Century Town Hall. In the afternoon we attended a concert and took an excursion to the Pilatus Mountain. We continued on to Liechtenstein-Innsbruck, across central and eastern Switzerland with its glistening lakes, tiny hamlets and green mountain pastures to the Independent Principality of Liechtenstein through the Austrian Alps, to Innsbruck, where we had dinner and a Tyrolean costume entertainment awaiting us. On September 8 we drove over Brenner Pass and through the Dolomites to Cortina through the Italian Alps to Venice where we had to take a boat to our door of the hotel where we stayed. The hotel was once a palace for a duke and was most beautiful.

(Mrs. Ham continues her story in next week's issue, describing her visit in Italy and then in to France).

Youngsters Present Good Program At P-TA Meeting

The Parent-Teacher Association met in regular session Monday evening.

L. B. Monk, the association president, presided over the business session, which was opened with a prayer, led by Bill Griffin. George Ray Colvin led the pledge to the flag. Secretary Jimmy Lee Gibson presented the minutes of the last meeting, and Jimmy Davidson presented the financial report. Mrs. Jake Merrell received the record album.

Following the business meeting, a talent show was presented by the elementary grades. There were fifteen entries in the show and those who failed to be present Monday night missed a very fine show.

The first number on the program was a piano solo by Donald Ramsey. Next was a skit, "Big Mike" by a group of sixth graders. The Third Grade girls presented a choral reading which was very good. Then Connie Purcell and Sherri Brown sang "I'm Henry the Eighth, I Am." Next was Gene Payne who presented a pantomime in good style.

Little Donna Brown, who is in the First Grade, sang "Me and My Shadow." Kay Polk and Ruth Ann Purcell sang "Fuzzy Wuzzy Was A Bear" and "A Spoonful of Sugar". Randy Stark presented a reading, "Growing In Dignity." The next number on the program was a dance number by Dixie Ivory. Carol Purcell played a number on her electric organ, which was followed by two piano solos, "Wheels" and "He", played by Neva Dale Morrison. Donna Mason did a pantomime number and Larry King presented a cornet solo, "Home On The Range". Scotty Stark and Eddie Owens sang "Supercalifragilistic" and the finale was a fine number presented by Pepper Jones and Dianna Purcell. "Pick Your Knees up and Step 'n Time" from "Mary Poppins".

The judges had a difficult time selecting a winner. First place went to Pepper Jones and Dianna Purcell; 2nd place was won by Randy Stark; and 3rd place winner was small Donna Brown.

Everyone is urged to attend every P-TA meeting possible.

Mrs. Vance Robison and Mrs. Buster Chadwick and Stachia, were in Plainview Monday. Mrs. Robison went to the dentist, and the ladies visited their brother, Guy Paul Smith and his family also.

MISTAKE EXPLAINED TO P-TA

Johnny Mason, Supt. of Schools, made a very important announcement at the regular meeting of the P-TA Monday night concerning the typographical error which appeared in a recent article.

The word "not" was left out of a letter to Mr. Mason that made it appear that the "Weekly Reader" magazine was owned by a subversive organization. Mr. Mason made it very clear to those in attendance at the P-TA meeting that it was a typographical error and that the Weekly Reader allegation was without basis. He stated that all means were being used to clear up this situation in the minds of the Quitaque people.

Basketball Season Starts Friday Night

A brand-new basketball season begins Friday night for the Quitaque Pantherettes and Panthers as the teams journey to Quail for the season opener.

The Pantherettes start a new season with a new coach, Gano Wilson, and Coach Wilson is just starting a new career, that of teacher and coach. His will be a unique experience for his very first game in that he is starting off by playing his home town. Coach Wilson is a graduate of Quail High and played basketball there himself.

Coach Wilson in announcing his starting lineup for Friday night, stated that he has two teams, a 12-member squad of girls, and there is little to choose between the two teams. They appear to be of near equal ability. In fact, he says that he plans to platoon them Friday night, with the starters playing the first and third quarters

The second six are Billy Cheatham, Carol Myers and Cheryl Mason, forwards; and Jo Beth Merrell, Shirley Dowd and Rhonda Rogers, guards.

MORE CHANGES ANNOUNCED IN SOCIAL SECURITY PROGRAM

If you have a student in school and you are trying to figure out how to keep him there, perhaps social security can help. There are students in this area who may be eligible for social security benefits as a result of recent changes in the social security law. Hal Geldon, District Manager of the Amarillo Social Security District Office, said today.

Under the new law, if a child was receiving benefits on a parent's social security record and these benefits stopped when the child reached 18, the child may be able to start receiving benefits again if he is a full-time student under 22 years of age and not married. Even if he never drew payments before, if he is under 22 and unmarried, he may begin receiving benefits if he is a full-time student, Geldon said. These benefits are payable only on the record of an insured parent who is receiving retirement or disability benefits, or who is deceased.

Benefits are not automatic, Geldon cautioned. They must be applied for by the parent or child.

"Today, All But The Baby Is Thrown Away"

"DISPOSABLE" is today's magic word in the nation's hospitals. They've found using disposable equipment and supplies affords great savings in labor costs of storing, sterilizing and transporting a variety of standard, re-use hospital materials.

Baby wards led the way. Hospitals for years have used disposable diapers, nursing bottles and nipples. Now they even have throw-away bassinets.

Disposable paper or plastic plates, cups, forks, knives and spoons came in next. Then came disposable patient bed-jackets, underpads and bedding. Now there are throw-away razors, wash cloths, towels and slippers.

Surgeons today wear disposable gowns, caps, masks, gloves and shoes. They have precision-made, high-grade steel surgical instruments, which are thrown away after an operation — at less cost than the sterilization procedure of the re-use instruments.

"Progress in creation of disposables has been swift and resourceful," William O. Elson, medical research director, Bauer & Black division, the Kendall company, said.

Pointing out that the cost of the average hospital patient's care has jumped from $10 to nearly $45 per day since 1945, Elson said:

"A way had to be found to make hospital care more efficient to cut patient costs. Physicians and the medical supply industry teamed up to find and test possible disposable items.

"Today's approach is the design of complete kits, sterile and ready for use, which take care of an entire medical or surgical procedure.

"Such packages include everything the surgeon or physician uses for a procedure. One example is called a 'wound-dressing team.' Recently developed by Curity laboratories, it is actually two kits which contain surgical instruments, gloves, sponges, antiseptics and other items, even a cardboard basin, which replaces the stainless steel basin formerly used and then sterilized for re-use. After an operation, the whole 'wound-dressing team' is disposed of in an incinerator," Elson said.

With less time spent on sterilization and on laundry handling, it is found that nurses' aides and orderlies can be utilized for more patient-care.

Home Baking "In" Again

Home baking is making a big comeback. It's no longer just Grandma's kitchen that entices visitors with the heavenly scent of freshly baked bread and rolls, apple pies and cherry tarts, Christmas cookies and birthday cake.

Today, both the teenage bride who's a cooking novice and the busy suburban homemaker are turning out tasty pastries that delight husbands, houseguests and even "picky kids."

Why the home-baking boom? Not the least of the reasons is the non-stick aluminum baking pan. Originally introduced for fat-free frying, non-stick pans have caught on with homemakers because they're so easy to clean, whether or not grease is used. Now there is a good selection of aluminum pans with non-stick finishes designed for oven use. Since aluminum is by far the best heat conductor among materials used in cooking utensils, baking results are consistently good in aluminum oven ware.

When the baking's finished, a quick wipe with a sudsy sponge or dishmop completely cleans the pan that's lined with Teflon or one of the other quality non-stick coatings. Even those hard-to-clean muffin tins and fancy cake molds come clean quickly without soaking or scouring, and baked-on casserole foods such as macaroni and cheese wash right off, too.

Non-stick aluminum oven ware includes cookie, cake, bread and muffin pans, and casseroles that can also be used over direct heat for top-of-the-range cooking.

For Holiday Tables

D'Arcy and her sister have made a pumpkin head and two "turkeys" to use as a holiday center piece. They've had fun doing this and so will you when you copy their handiwork.

Just look what D'Arcy and her older sister have made! A pumpkin head and two "turkeys." What fun! Especially since they grew an unusual plant called unicorn plant or devil's claw, just in order to make the turkeys.

Sis made the turkeys from the hard, dry seed capsules of the unicorn plant. On the end opposite that attached to the stem were two long "claws." Sis cut these off first, then made a "leg" for the turkey to stand on.

She cut a small oblong piece of corrugated cardboard from an old carton, poked a 3/4-inch-long screw through the middle of it, and screwed the tip of the screw into the seed capsule. She did this on the side of the capsule that has a sort of "fringe" because the fringe looks like feathers for the bottom of the turkey. Now the body of the turkey could stand.

Next she cut off the tip end of the seedpod where it had been attached to the stem while growing on the plant. She doubled a pipe cleaner, pinched the two parts together, bent the piece into an S to resemble a turkey's head and neck, and poked one end of it into a tiny slit she made at the end of the seedpod.

The other end of the seed capsule, from which she had cut the claws, had an opening through which the seeds had fallen out. Into this opening she poked 3 tips of the seedheads of grasses for the tail of the turkey.

To make the turkey look even more "natural," she painted the body and the "leg" and platform brown, touched up the tan grass seedheads with brown, and put a bit of red paint at the "beak" end of the head and again under the turkey's "chest."

Meanwhile, D'Arcy chose the tiniest pumpkin she could find in the garden so that it would not be too large for the little turkeys to pull. She found it was easy to cut out eyes, nose and mouth with a sharp knife.

When the turkeys were finished she tied a piece of string to the neck of each for "reins" and draped the string over the stem of the pumpkin so it would look as if the turkeys were pulling it along the table.

His class was present along with his teacher, Mrs. George Pope, who planned and played several games with the children. Mrs. Homer Bruton was also present to help with the refreshments along with Louis' mother, Mrs. L. E. Shorter. A good time was reported by all.

Only a little over 1,100 samples have been classed through October 8 for the 58 gins in the Memphis classing territory." More than half of these samples were received during the current week, and the harvest is expected to get under way in earnest within the next week or so.

Micronaire averages have been very good, with 94 per cent falling in the 3.6 to 5.1 ranges. One per cent miked 3.0 to 3.2, four per cent 3.3 to 3.5, and one per cent 5.2 and above.

The USDA's Consumer Marketing Service reported only a small amount of the current ginnings is being sold, and the Commodity Credit Corporation reported a limited amount going into the Government Loan. Spot markets at Dallas and Lubbock report prices on predominant grades and staples at 30 to 50 points above the Loan. Middling Light Spotted 15/16 is quoted at 26.80 cents per pound.
