TWENTY-FOURTH YEAR, NO. 12

Mr. Muleshoe

I sometimes think we would do well to plow up every third newspaper editorial and special writer, and every other radio commentator. Then maybe the remainder could get together on what to tell our dear people out here in the sticks.

You take for instance this matter of the chicken hatch for this spring. A local hatchery has advertised its intention to give away five thousand baby chicks—not because they wouldn't be wanted by the people but because it must make room for the chicks that are to come from the incubator with every coming week.

The hatchery man has never had to kill any chicks or give them away before. In other words, the farms around Muleshoe need the baby chicks, and the people will wash before long that they had bought. But the radio commentators, have said, the made fact dealers in the newspapers have written that there won't be any feed. Would you buy a big supply of chicks if you feared the feed supply would fall just as you got them to growing good?

Mind you, it isn't the price of feed but the fear of its total lack, that keeps people from stocking up now. Some of these chicks the local folks are giving away will be laying eggs perhaps for your breakfast, in a few months, so I believe they are doing right by giving chicks with each order to induce people to buy, rather than kill them. But I wish that Uncle Sam would have somebody there in Washington to act as spokesman for the chicken and feed supply subject, and just one authoritative source for such information. Then we would know whether or not those in authority who undoubtedly want a high quota of chicks for this year, are willing to earmark the feed to raise them on.

Feed IS short, there is no doubt about it. But do you believe this country can get along without chickens?

Two of our trustees went to Munday to interview the new superintendent Mr. Cunningham, and while waiting to see him inquired casually of the townspeople about him.

A service station man recommended him most highly, as the finest superintendent he ever saw, a great administrator, a fine Christian gentleman, but suddenly stopped and said:

"Why in heck do you wish to know?"

The plainman replied: "We are trying to hire him to be superintendent at Muleshoe."

"Listen," the native came back: "he spends half his time taking care of his chickens and the other half hunting. He is not a very good schoolman, and I'm afraid you just wouldn't like Mr. Cunningham out there at Muleshoe at all."

BAILEY COUNTY FAT CALVES ALL IN THE MONEY AT LUBBOCK

Bailey County boys won first place in the county exhibit of calves at the South Plains Junior Fat Stock Show held this week at Lubbock, competing with nearly 40 counties. It was a signal recognition of the work of local boys in their feeding demonstrations.

The five calves taken to the Lubbock show were owned and fed out by Duane Key, Marshall Head, Everett Lee Reeder, Charles Snyder, and Alton Taylor. They were grouped for the county competition.

Calves and pigs taken to the Lubbock show placed high in their classes. Coming after the honors the boys earned in the Muleshoe show, the Lubbock winnings put a fitting climax to the year's work in Bailey County, and reflects credit on the boys and their advisers, "Chief" Jones and Edward White, vocational agriculture teachers, and J. K. Adams, county agent.

Tom W. Deen Asks Reelection As Representative

A group of friends of State Representative Tom W. Deen have authorized The Journal to announce that he is a candidate for reelection to the office, subject to the Democratic primaries.

His statement to the press reads as follows:

"TO THE VOTERS OF STATE REPRESENTATIVE DISTRICT 120:

Realizing that it is pretty hard for a poor man to make a race for a district office and having watched the record of Tom W. Deen and discussed his platform with him, we know he has stood for and will continue to stand for the following:

"Redistricting the State for state Representatives and state Senators; appropriating the full $35,000,000 as called for in the constitution for payment of old age pensions, and for the blind and dependent children."

"Strong laws to curb the liquor traffic, and that he is in sympathy with the program of the United Texas dries; has supported teachers' retirement program and favors raising teachers' salaries and is a friend of the school children; favors allowing all service men with an honorable discharge $300, mustering out in addition to what the federal government allows."

"Wants to kill the bill in the last legislature that would abolish the refund on gasoline that the farmers of this district use in their tractors, thus saving the farmers thousands of dollars."

"Voted against House bill 12 that would have made it possible for laboring men to organize in Texas and thus protected the rights of the laboring men of Texas; is opposed to special interests of the north and east building pipe lines to pipe out our natural gas to build up the industries of those sections, and favors using such natural resources to build up Texas industry. To accomplish this purpose he favors a heavy tax on all gas piped out of the state."

"This announcement is paid for by Mr. Deen's friends."

Three of the fat barrows of Bailey County boys sold as follows:

Duane Key, sold to Brookhaven Country Club for 35¢ per pound.

Ben E. Keith Company Observes 40th Anniversary

In January, 1906, the Ben E. Keith Company was born. Although the firm was first organized as the Harkrider-Morrison Co. its name was later changed to the Harkrider Keith Cooke Company and operated as such until 1931 when the present name of Ben E. Keith Company was adopted.

Mr. Keith has been with the firm since it was organized. He was the first salesman, a member of the first board of directors and since 1918 has been president of the company.

The first branch house was established in Wichita Falls in 1907, with George Keith, Sr., as manager. A second branch, called Merchants Fruit Co., was added in 1912 at Ft. Worth. This steady growth continued with houses being opened in Abilene in 1919, Dallas in 1923, Lubbock in 1925, and Longview in 1931.

It was in 1918 that Mr. Keith purchased the controlling interest in the firm, and in the organization that followed Ben E. Keith was elected president, George D. Keith, Sr., vice president, and Frank Taylor, secretary-treasurer, which offices they have held from that date to the present.

Today the company identifies its superior products with yellow and blue "Fresh From Keith's" markers which serve as guides to housewives in purchasing the best quality fruits and vegetables at their favorite independent retail dealers.

In addition to its own business, the Ben E. Keith Company has been keenly interested in everything affecting industry to the ultimate end that growers might receive the highest prices possible and at the same time permit the consumer to purchase the best quality products at the lowest possible price. Furthermore, managers and employees of all Ben E. Keith houses take an active part in all civic affairs and contribute materially to the welfare of communities in which they reside.

After forty years of painstaking, constructive service to the fresh fruit and vegetable industry, the Ben E. Keith Company today enjoys a position of leadership in the Southwest and is ranked as the leading distributors of fresh fruits and vegetables in this section of the country.

Farmers are your neighbors - They want you to know that -

Cooperatives

form a LINK between FARM and TOWN

FARMS no longer are isolated. Farmers no longer live in a separate world, isolated from others.

Transportation and communication marvels of the Twentieth Century have brought country to town and town to country. This shortening of distance has brought people closer together. There is a stronger linking of interests of farmers and townspeople. Neither can now say, "You go your way and I'll go mine."

For, basic wealth comes from the toil of the farmers. When the farmers prosper you townspeople share in their prosperity. That is because they buy more of what you townspeople supply. They have more money to spend.

Thus, when farmers effect savings through their cooperatives, these savings benefit you. The farmers' co-ops mean an investment by the farmers in the future welfare of your community. They stand as an assurance to you that your neighbors, the farmers are your customers.

Co-ops help farmers. Farmers' co-ops also help you.

Savings that the farmers make through their cooperatives are spent on your Main Street. That means more dollars for townspeople because of farmers' cooperatives.

Of course marriage is the spice of life.

We heard about one man who went into matrimony with his eyes closed. Her father packed an awful wallop.

RIBBLE'S RIPPLES

BACK TO THE BIBLE, that's the slogan of the little Church of Christ in Muleshoe. This church wants to serve the needs of those who are anxious to please God in every act of service and obedience. It isn't a fine church, its house of worship is small, and crowded. Everything is simple. Its purpose is not to feed vanity, pride, nor display. Its services do not aim to amuse or entertain those who attend, but to help them worship God and to obey His will.

It exists here as a simple New Testament body, pointing those in its neighborhood to the Christ of the Bible, and to the Father above who desires that all that worship shall "worship Him in spirit and in truth."

Its doors are open to those who from the depth of their hearts would reach out and find and worship God in the simple unpretentious manner of the earliest churches of the New Testament times. To love, worship and serve God means eternal life, eternal salvation in the Heaven of the Bible.

There is not much that is ready made for you in this little church. There is no ready-made creed. You are to simply take God's word and make that your creed.

There are no ready-made prayers for you to repeat, every person simply prays out of the depth of his own heart.

If you like to worship God in spirit and truth; if you enjoy listening to and reading God's word; if you enjoy warm brotherliness, and hearty welcomes to services, then come to our services. The little Church of Christ on the Morton highway in Muleshoe.

How would you CHART YOUR COURSE?

Pictured here are the records of four "life lines" of our business—four things which largely control the destiny of any business, whether it be a farm, a factory or a store. They are Wages, Materials Costs, Prices, and Profits. Suppose these were pictures of what is going on in your own affairs. How would you chart your future course from these facts?

With the proposed increase, wage rates will have risen from $0.85 1/2 per hour in 1941 to $1.35 1/2 in 1945. Chart does not show effect of 1946 increases.

By the end of 1945, prices on all commodities other than farm products and foodstuffs were 42% above 1941. Chart does not show effect of 1946 increases.

Using U. S. Bureau of Labor Statistics with 1941 prices equating 100, prices of farm machinery in 1945 were only 104.9.

Profit per dollar of sale has declined since 1941. In 1945 it was slightly less than four cents, or about 4.4 cents in 1941.

What about wages? Wages have risen steadily for five years. Before the strike which began on January 21 in ten of our plants and which has checked off nearly all farm machinery production, earnings of employees of these plants averaged $1.15 1/2 an hour, not including any overtime. The Union demanded a 34 cents per hour increase and a Government board has now recommended a general increase of 18 cents an hour, which would make average earnings $1.33 1/2 an hour. Weekly average would be $53.40.

What about materials? No one seems to know how high materials costs will go. The Government has increased steel prices as much as $12.00 a ton, with an average increase for all grades of 8.2%. Steel is the most important material we buy, but prices on other materials are also increasing.

What about prices? There has been no general increase in our prices since they were frozen by the Government in early 1942. Since then a few small increases have been allowed where particular machines were substantially changed in design.

What about profits? Risk is part of the American profit and loss system, so we do not, of course, ask either our customers or the Government to guarantee that we can be certain of profits each year. The chart tells the story of our profits during the war. Although Harvester produced more goods than ever before, it had no desire to get rich out of war, so our rate of profit has steadily gone down. What our 1946 profit will be is extremely uncertain.

What is the next step? As you can see, our present situation is that with frozen prices and declining profits, we are asked to pay higher materials costs and to make the biggest wage increase in the history of the Company. Can we do this?

Wages and materials consume all but a few cents of every dollar we take in. If our prices continue frozen, and cost of wages and materials continues to rise, obviously our Company will begin to operate at a loss at some point. The exact point at which operating at a loss would start is a matter of judgment. Government agencies and union leaders may have opinions as to where that point is. But if they turn out to be wrong, they can shrug their shoulders and say: "Well, it wasn't my responsibility. I didn't make the decision."

The management of this Company cannot and will not say that. It dares not gamble. It has to be sure. Continuation of our service to millions of customers, the future jobs of thousands of employees, and the safety of the investments of 39,000 stockholders depend on our making as correct a decision as is humanly possible.

What about future prices on farm machinery? The judgment of Harvester's management now is that we cannot safely make the huge wage increases recommended by the Government until the Government authorizes adequate increases in the price of farm machinery to cover the resulting increased costs.

That is not a judgment that makes us happy. The Company does not want to raise prices. We prefer to lower prices, when possible, and we know our customers prefer to have us do that. We have produced in 1942 prices, and hoped we could continue to do so. We have delayed seeking general price relief in the hope that it could be avoided. Now we are convinced that it cannot be avoided any longer. The price question must be settled. Until it is settled we do not see how we can settle the wage question. Until the wage question is settled we do not see how we can resume production and begin turning out the farm machines which we know our farmer customers need.

Because of the important stakes which both farmers and city dwellers have in this controversy, we are bringing these matters to your attention. Through the close currents of today's conditions, we are trying to chart a course that is fair to our employees, to our farmer customers, and to our stockholders.

GIVEN DISCHARGE

Seaman, 1c Dilbert Jackson, of Muleshoe, has been given his honorable discharge from the U. S. Navy at Clearfield, Utah.

It wasn't so long ago that only a few farmers in the Panhandle-Plains area knew that the finest potatoes in the country could be grown in this area. It was a small crop then and didn't amount to much.

But look at the potato crop now! It's important and becoming more so every year. Our potatoes are superior to those from the northern states. They taste better—bake better. Agriculture experts will tell you that! And our potatoes are easily marketed.

Yes—we have everything in the Panhandle-Plains—including an abundant supply of cheap, dependable electric power for irrigation and processing of agricultural products.
