3 Years Before We Get A New Auto

In an appeal to passenger car owners to conserve their automotive investment, the Office of Defense Transportation, warns that it will be at least three years before many millions of private car owners and prospective car owners, who want new automobiles, will be able to get them.

The ODT official said this fact has not been generally realized in the first rosy flush of enthusiasm over the limited resumption of passenger car production. Although it is expected that 240,000 passenger cars will be built this year, that number will replace less than one percent of the nation's automobiles.

WASHINGTON.—Defense Transportation Director J. Monroe Johnson warns American motorists that it will be at least three years before many millions of private car owners will be able to buy new automobiles. None of the cars produced in the near future will go to the average driver, the ODT chief said.

With The Sixth Army On Luzon. —For heroic achievement in a tank infantry assault on Clark Field, Sgt. Bob A. Knight, husband of Florence P. Knight of Muleshoe, has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal by Gen. Walter Krueger, Sixth Army Commander.

Lieut. O. G. Kuler, Enrolling Officer, U. S. Maritime Service, Dallas, advises The Journal that Doyle Trapp, of Muleshoe, has volunteered and was transferred Monday of this week to the U. S. Maritime Service Training Station, Sheepshead Bay, New York.

"The urgent need for more courageous, physically fit men 17 to 50 years of age to be trained for vital service with the American Merchant Marine continues," said Kuler.

"With several million troops scheduled for transfer to Pacific War theaters, the job of the Victory Fleet calls for delivery of ten tons of equipment per man on initial landings and one ton of supplies per man, each month thereafter."

British Fleet in Pacific Attacks

ADMIRAL CHESTER W. NIMITZ, over-all Pacific Commander under whom the British Pacific Fleet operates, the other day told the British sailors that they had performed a valuable service guarding the left flank of the American Okinawa campaign. "You kept the Japs off our necks," said the American Admiral. This is one of the first pictures showing this powerful British fleet in action. The flagship—the modern battleship "King George V"—is in the lower ground, supported by other units, as planes from the British carriers set out to attack the Jap bases.

Death came unexpectedly to I. F. Wilemon, Bailey County pioneer, as he worked late Monday on his irrigated farm 6 miles northeast of Muleshoe, in the Y. L. community. He was found dead about eight o'clock Tuesday morning.

Actual time when death occurred is not known. Mr. Wilemon was irrigating, and apparently had started to change his set when he was fatally stricken. He was 62.

At the time, his wife was en route to Oregon to visit the family of a daughter. She was not aware of his death until she reached her destination, early Wednesday morning. Since moving to Bailey County in 1915 from his native Nebraska, Mr. Wilemon has been a most useful citizen. He was a member of the board of stewards of the Methodist Church at Y. L.; had been a member of the Y. L. school board of trustees; he has since 1941 been a director of the Plainview Commodity Credit Association; and an official from its founding of the Bailey County Rural Electric Association.

Mr. Wilemon was born March 27, 1883, near Sprague, Nebraska. On December 25, 1912, he was married to Miss Clara Elaine Surhman, at Sprague. Mrs. Wilemon and three children survive: Mrs. Esther Green of Portland, Ore.; Mrs. Edward Moore of Needmore, Bailey County; and Dick Wilemon, Muleshoe.

Other survivors include his brother and sisters: E. C. Wilemon and Miss Alma Wilemon, Sprague, Neb., and Mrs. Agnes Seik, of Crete, Neb.

No word has come as to his condition. It is presumed here that the services of a specialist may be obtained at Dallas and his friends are hopeful that the mayor speedily will be on the way to recovery.

Q. My husband was killed in action in the Pacific. I know I will receive his back pay, insurance, and a death gratuity equal to six months pay. Am I also entitled to draw the mustering out pay he would have received with his discharge?

A. No. Mustering out payments are not made if soldiers die in the service.

Q. My boy fought all through the European campaign with the Third Army. I have read that this will be one of the Armies which will be left to occupy Europe. Does that mean he will not come home until the Third Army is released from occupation duties?

A. The fact that the Third Army has been chosen to occupy Germany does not mean that any individual soldier or unit of the Third Army will remain throughout the occupation period.

Sharp Characters Act At Ease With Others

WHY is a sharp character sharp and why is a sad sack sad? Why do some guys and girls seem at ease with others? Why do others with just as many assets seem to be beating their brains out trying to decide what to do with their hands? It's all a matter of learning to control your outward actions, no matter how awkward you feel, says Holly Miller, whose column in nationally circulated Capper's Farmer is a popular feature among teen age boys and girls as well as their elders.

"Be a smoother you act, the smoother you feel," she counsels. "The well-mannered may not show an 'act,' but don't let it show. Mend your clothes as many girls get up at a gap to press your suit, spend half an hour before your mirror getting your makeup right—if you must. Then for your appearance, 'Boys, that means no fussing with ties and trying to make a crease where there should be one. Girls, that means no peeking in mirrors, no patting your hair, no pulling of clothes and straightening of stockings seams.'"

Among Miss Miller's suggestions for cultivating poise and ease are: Stand up straight; Look 'em straight in the eye; Avoid mannerisms; Don't talk with your hands. "Beat your gums—but not so loud," she advises. "A shrill, loud voice is curdling to the spirit. On that same subject, rearing, giggles and horselaughs are strictly for the birds."

Pad for Baby's Play Pen

An economical, soft padding may be made for the baby's play pen with an old piece of bed padding, according to the Home Editor of nationally circulated Capper's Farmer. Cut this size of the pad and cover with durable blue denim. Bind the edges together with red binding.

Low Cost Group Hospital Plan Aids Farm Folks

GROUP hospital service provided by the Blue Cross plan now protects more than 17,000,000 town and farm folks at low cost, according to George A. Montgomery, associate editor of Capper's Farmer, in an article in the nationally circulated farm magazine.

In some sections of the Corn and Wheat Belts, heaviest enrollment of low Blue Cross members is now in farming areas, he writes. In agricultural regions with now cover groups of farmers and other rural residents. Granges, townships, community or county (farm co-operatives, Farm Bureaus and other rural groups are eligible units in many farming states.

Now co-ordinated through the Hospital Service Plan Commission of the American Hospital Association, the Blue Cross got its start in Texas, the Capper's Farmer writer points out, when a group of teachers agreed to pay in advance $3 a semester to a local hospital for 2 weeks' care for any member of the group that needed it. So satisfactory was the plan that within 3 years it was being tried out in such widely separated states as New Jersey and California. Since then it has spread to 43 states and the District of Columbia and to 7 Canadian provinces and Porto Rico.

Annual costs range from $15.60 a family in the vicinity of Rockford, Illinois, where more than 80 per cent of the population is enrolled, to $30 in California where hospitals are taxed and the general living cost level is higher.

Statistics compiled by the Blue Cross indicate that but 1 member in 10 goes to a hospital each year. The low percentage cuts costs when all risks are shared equally by an average group. The Blue Cross pays costs billed by the hospital, but does not provide services of a doctor. Approximately 1 1/2 million hospital bills are paid annually by Blue Cross, of which 30,000 are for obstetrical care.

About 80 per cent of the money paid in as fees is used for current hospital bills, another 10 per cent is set aside as a reserve for future hospitalization, and 10 per cent goes for administration expense. Some units have built up a reserve to a point where it will meet all needs of unusual nature, even a severe epidemic. Since Blue Cross is a nonprofit organization, units with a surplus are offering greater benefits to members at no additional cost.

Bailey Women To Short Course

LUBBOCK.—"The Adequate Rural Home" will be the theme of a three day short course for rural women to be held at Texas Technological College in cooperation with the Home Economics and Agricultural divisions of Tech.

The 295 women who are expected to attend will be housed and fed in the college women's dormitory No. 1. They will come from the following 20 counties which compose Extension District number 2: Bailey, Briscoe, Castro, Cochran, Crosby, Floyd, Dawson, Garza, Hale, Quinnes, Hookley, Lamb, Lubbock, Lynn, Parmer, Scurry, Swisher, Terry and Yoakum.

Women who want to attend should register through their local county home demonstration agents. Fee for the entire course including room and board, is $10. Miss Kate Adele Hill, district agent for the Extension Service, is general chairman and Dean Margaret W. Weeks of the Texas Tech Division of Home Economics, is co-chairman.

Instruction and lectures include a program of six main divisions: Landscaping the Rural Home; Clothing for the Family; Your Home of today—Color Schemes, Textiles, Furnishings; Your House of Today—House Plans, Furniture; Food for Health; Handicrafts.

The Army Answers Your Questions

Q. Our son, who has not yet returned to this country from the European Theater, writes that although he has more than 85 credits for discharge under the point system he expects to be kept in the Army for quite a while. Doesn't everybody who has more than 85 points get out?

A. No. Your son undoubtedly has some specialized skill which the Army needs badly to carry on the war against the Japanese. Such men will be kept in the Army regardless of their point scores until another soldier can be trained to take their places.

Q. I am an honorably discharged Army veteran. I am planning to start my own small business and I would like to buy some surplus Army equipment. To whom in the Army should I apply?

A. You should not apply to the

Postwar Kitchen-Laundry to Banish Drudgery

Combination kitchen-laundry will save homemaker steps.

AS WAR BONDS accumulate, many farm homemakers are dreaming of beautiful, work-easy kitchens and light airy laundries on the first floor that will cut household drudgery, according to an article in nationally-circulated Capper's Farmer.

The combination kitchen-laundry pictured above was planned by a well-known electric equipment manufacturer to make those dreams come true. It is a sample of the improved appliances which will be available after the war, says the article in the magazine read by 1,250,000 farm families. The new laundry equipment will be attractive and the elimination of drudgery basement stairs with baskets of clothes will justify the combination. Starting at the left side of the sketch is a power ironer, that will enable the homemaker to whiz through ironing in seemingly no time. Next is an automatic washer that does the clothes while she prepares dinner. An automatic drier is handy to receive damp clothes, then to tumble them dry in warm air. Beyond the sink a counter and 2 pull-out ventilated metal hampers make sorting clothes easy.

In the kitchen an electric range is conveniently near the dining-room door. The sink directly under the window is equipped with an automatic garbage disposal unit. Next to it is the electric dishwasher that takes care of a whole day's dishes at once. On both sides are cupboards. These cabinets contain the refrigerator and electric refrigerator. In the center is a snack bar.

Most People Get Enough Protein

Consumers these days are more protein conscious than ever before, due to meat shortages and the constant problem of making up deficiencies created by war time conditions. A better understanding of the various sources of this body building element may settle some of the questions in the minds of the housewife in her menu planning today.

In the first place an answer to the question of "what is protein" might serve as a help in this task. Protein is that food substance that builds and repairs body tissues. It is essential to growth and health. It is found in different forms in various foods. Meat is, of course one of the most popular sources, but we get animal protein also from poultry, fish, eggs, and milk and milk products. Most plant foods also have protein and we may substitute such foods as cereals, dried beans, and peas, peanuts and soybeans, and help to fill this need.

Animal protein is more complete than plant protein, however, and comes nearer to filling our needs for tissue building and repair.

The figures from the National Research Council's yardstick of good nutrition should set the mind of the meal planner at ease, as these figures indicate that good nutrition calls for only about 70 grams of protein a day for a man, and 60 grams for a woman. We still get more than the yardstick figures demand, as civilian food supplies allowed sufficient last year for an average of one hundred grams a day.

Combining the kinds of protein in the diet will take care of all the protein needs adequately. We usually get about a fourth of our protein from cereals, and these do a better protein job because they are ordinarily teamed with the animal protein of milk. Meat and vegetable stew, macaroni and cheese, milk and egg custard, corn pudding, all these combinations, if used, leave little to worry about on the question of protein in the weekly menus for the average family.

Quality Canning Methods Outlined

Emphasizing improved quality in home canned foods, Mrs. J. Levenez specialist in food preservation has compiled into chart form a comprehensive guide to better canning methods. The bulletin, published by the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, is available from your county home demonstration agent's office in the courthouse in Muleshoe. Entitled "Prevent Spoilage and Poor Quality in Home Canned Foods," the bulletin was written for the average homemaker, and it includes helpful information relative to the most common types of spoilage and poor quality, the organisms affecting foods, and remedies for spoilage.

The chart was published in answer to the questions most commonly brought up in local canning clinics held over the state during the last few years, since renewed interest in home canning has created a demand for scientific information on the subject.

Mrs. Levenez describes in the bulletin the appearance and the texture of various foods of inferior quality, types of spoilage and their

Sidelights From Washington

The U. S. Senate, after reasonably brief hearings and debate, will ratify the United Nations Charter that was adopted at San Francisco. That is the prevailing view in Washington. There is an air of eagerness and optimism which exceeds the early expectations of friends of world organization.

Within two hours after Senator Connally arrived from the conference he gave us Texas members a preliminary report on the new charter. Early U. S. ratification would set the pattern for other nations. War has become such a terribly destructive thing that there can be no hope for the world unless we establish an effective organization for peace. The Charter makes dull reading, but it can and must become the greatest instrument for peace ever created by man. There will be many disappointments ahead, and we must steel ourselves against them, realizing that the Charter is far from perfect and that we must not expect too much or to little of it.

(Anyone wishing a copy of the proposed Charter can secure it by addressing a request to me at the House Office bldg., Washington, D. C.)

Those interested in Rural Electrification in West Texas will be pleased over the action we took in the House last week. I joined other friends of REA in putting through an amendment which provides for an additional one hundred twenty million dollar REA expansion program. This money is provided by Government loans which are repaid by patrons of REA. Applications for REA expansion now average one million dollars per day. The program is still being retarded, however, by the scarcity of certain critical material.

Members of the House almost come to blows whenever the merits or demerits of oleomargarine and butter are discussed in Congress.

For fourteen years there has been a provision in an appropriation bill prohibiting the purchase of oleo for the Army except for cooking purposes, unless special request to the contrary is made by the soldier. Some of us recently undertook to strike this from the law, arguing that though most of us prefer butter, both foods are wholesome and neither should be discriminated against. We argue that in view of food shortages the Army should be relieved of what we called an unreasonable restriction. After heated debate however, the motion was defeated and the restriction remains in the law.

 4. How do you prime a pump?
 5. What is the best material to use to clean a lamp chimney?
1. A material now identified as chiffon; 2. A serving set for the dining room; 3. Spring, for it's the oil-time equivalent to "courting"; 4. Pour water into the pump, while working the handle up and down; 5. Paper, because it leaves no lint on the chimney.

THEY DID IT BEFORE— THEY CAN DO IT AGAIN With Farmall Tractor Power

Atlantic seaboard, worried farmers searched the skies for signs of clear weather, but the cold rains fell relentlessly.

For more than a month the seed should have been germinating in the warm soil. Millions of acres lay unplanted because the ground was too wet for preparation of the seed bed and too cold for germination of the seed.

Only a generation ago there could have been but one outcome—crop shortage and food scarcity. Nature allows scant time for planting when the warm sun waits till late May or June before drying the soggy soil. Horses are too slow and tire too quickly to get the job done then.

But the farmers remember May of 1943—only two years ago—when their fast, untiring tractors averted crop failure. Then, too, rains flooded the fields and the month was all but spent before they could go in on the land and plant.

In 1943, most farmers drove their tractors from dark to dark, and longer. Many planted around the clock, working in two or three shifts. They made one of the greatest crops in history.

In today's war-torn world—with hunger and disease already stalking many peoples—even one major crop failure could bring famine. This is why the sound of tractors and planting machinery was heard, day and night, from the Plains states to the Eastern seaboard—why headlights stabbed the darkness over the fields.

America's farmers are doing it again, in spite of an unprecedented combination of adverse circumstances—bad weather, shortages of machines and shortness of manpower. For the second time in three years, they are relying upon their tractor-powered machines to help rescue large areas of the world from catastrophe. More of these tractors are products of International Harvester than of any other company.

Skillet Chicken and Rice Is Zestful Dish

IT'S chicken every Sunday and oftener, once the family has tasted Skillet Chicken and Rice, says Marjorie Griffin, the rural home editor of Capper's Farmer, a farm magazine of national circulation. As the ingredients cook together, the rice takes on an added flavor. Served in a white fluffy mound, surrounded or topped with a tender, succulent piece of chicken, this rice combination is an appetite-tempting favorite. Parsley sprigs and red peppers give it added color appeal. The Capper's Farmer expert points out:

Skillet Chicken and Rice
1/2 lb. Chicken
1/2 lb. Rice
1/2 cup. salt
1 cup. paprika
1 onion
1/2 cup. Parsley
1/2 c. fat
1/2 c. boiling water
3/4 c. rice, washed
1 onion
1/2 cup. Parsley

Cut chicken into serving pieces; rub with mixture of flour, salt, pepper and paprika. Brown in the hot fat. When well browned, reduce heat, add boiling water and onion (or 1 onion garlic). When chicken is about one-fourth done, sprinkle rice over it. Cover tightly. Cook gently until chicken is tender, rice is fluffy and tender, and water is evaporated—, to 1 1/2 hours. Remove onion. Serves 5 to 7 depending on size of bird.

Orange Roll Offers Refreshing New Dessert

The family will enjoy this orange-flavored treat.

FEATHER-LIGHT Orange Roll is a happy ending for any meal. Marjorie Griffin, rural home editor of Country Farmer, advises homemakers faced with the daily task of providing zesty desserts. "Dinner guests will think you're super smart to prepare it," she writes in the magazine read by 1,250,000 farm families. "Surround it with thinnest of orange slices and green leaves on a handsome platter." The recipe she provides will make 10 slices, or enough for some "seconds" in the average family.

Orange Roll
 3 EGGS 1 1/2 tsp. baking powder
 1 c. SUGAR 1/2 tsp. salt
 4 tbsp. orange juice 1/4 tsp. confectioner's sugar
 1 c. cake flour

Beat eggs until lemon colored; add sugar, beating until mixture is thick.

Add orange juice. Sift together flour; baking powder and salt; add to first mixture, mixing only to blend. Line a shallow pan, 10 by 15 inches, with waxed paper. Pour in batter; bake at 375° F. for 20 minutes. Sift confectioner's sugar on piece of paper. Turn cake out on this and remove waxed paper. Spread with Orange Filling; roll up like jelly roll.

Orange Filling
 1 c. orange juice 3 tbsp. cornstarch
 1 egg yolk 2 tbsp. butter
 1/4 c. corn syrup salt

Add 1/4 c. orange juice to beaten egg yolk; add syrup and cornstarch and mix thoroughly. Heat remaining orange juice in top of double boiler; add to egg mixture and return to double boiler. Cook, stirring constantly until thickened; cover and cook 5 minutes longer. Remove from heat, add butter and salt; cool.
