Absentee balloting begins for general election

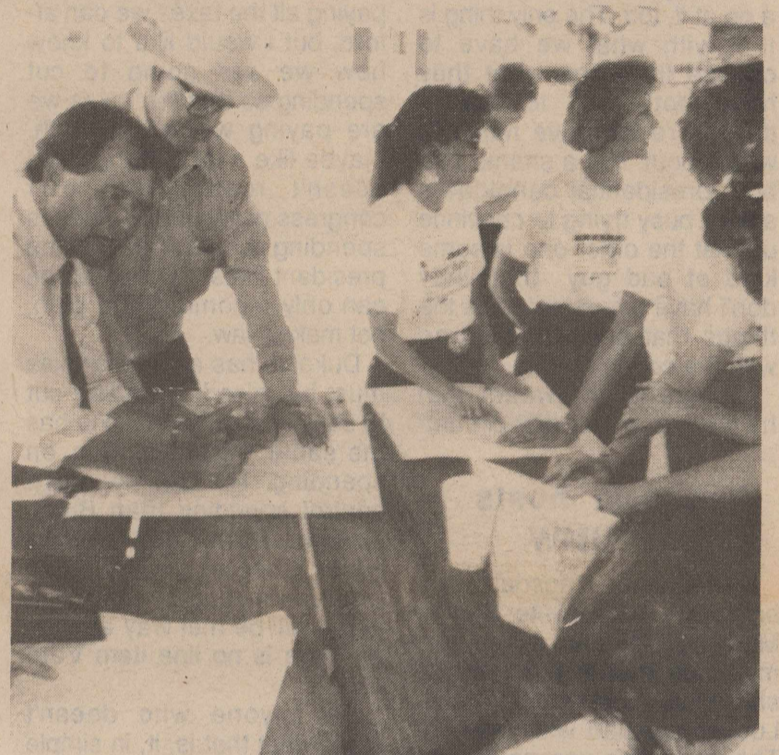

Coke County Clerk Ettie Hubbard announced this week the opening on Wednesday, October 19, of the absentee balloting for the Nov. 8 General Election. Voters may vote absentee 8-5 weekdays in the clerk's office through Friday, Nov. 4. The office also will receive applications for ballots to be mailed to voters through Nov. 1. Voting laws set forth by the office of the Secretary of State no longer require an excuse or reason to vote absentee.

The General Election ballots will carry presidential candidates for four parties -- Republican, Democratic, Libertarian, and New Alliance Party. Three proposed State Constitutional Amendments will also appear on the ballot.

Although no county contested races between parties are up for grabs, county candidates who won in the Primary Election will be listed on the ballot. Also drawing county interest is the race for State Representative of District 66 between Republican Burt Terrill and Democrat Robert Junell. A number of Supreme Court Justices, Criminal Appeals Judges, the U.S. Senate race, and Railroad Commissioners will also be listed.

In this week's Observer/Enterprise is the Notice of Election which gives the polling place locations in each voter precinct for the Nov. 8 election.

DEMOCRATIC VOLUNTEERS WALKED the streets of Bronte Wednesday, Oct. 17, to drum up support for 66th District Representative candidate Robert Junell.

Upcoming

Junell Campaign

Robert Junell, Democratic candidate for State Representative, District 66, will be at the Bronte Senior Center on Tuesday, Oct. 25.

The meeting will begin at 11 am. Prizes will be awarded for the best dessert brought to the meal.

Grandparents' Day will be observed.

Mr. Junell will conduct a question and answer session following the lunch. Margaret Martin, program coordinator, encourages the public to attend and participate in the meeting, and reminds all that the program is for every voter, regardless of party preference.

Terrill Campaign

Burt Terrill, Republican candidate for State Representative of District 66, will be a guest at the Bronte Senior Center on Friday, Oct. 21 for the noon meal with a reception following.

Everyone is invited to participate in the Meals program that day, and those attending are reminded to make a reservation by noon on Wednesday, Oct. 19.

If you do not wish to eat lunch, come afterward for the reception for Mr. Terrill.

"I would like to encourage everyone (not just seniors) to attend, no matter your party preference," stated Margaret Martin, program coordinator for the Bronte Center.

Candidates speak to Bronte group

State representative candidates Robert Junell and Bert Terrill were in Bronte Monday to speak to the Bronte Retired Teachers Ass'n. The meeting was held at the First Baptist Church in Bronte. Candidates and their wives enjoyed a covered dish luncheon provided by the ex-school teachers.

A question and answer session followed each candidate's talk.

Both candidates are West Texas natives and therefore both hold similar views on many of the issues. When asked about gun control Terrill came out strongly against gun control in any fashion.

Junell likewise stated his opposition to gun control but pointed out there was one item he would absolutely vote for controlling. That item is the new teflon coated bullets. According to Junell the one and only purpose of the teflon coated bullet was to penetrate a law officers bullet proof vest.

As to the topics of Teams Tests, teacher health care, and teachers rolls in education. Terrill and Junell held similar views. Both mentioned funding for state mandated programs as being important. Both brought out points in H B 72 which were good but needed refining to operate as intended.

Election day is November 8th and if Monday visit by the candidates is any indication the 66th District will be a battle to the wire.

H&F Guide deadline nears

The 1988 edition of the Coke County Hunting & Fishing Guide will be published as a supplement to next week's Observer/Enterprise. In addition to our normal circulation, approximately 3,500 copies of this year's Guide will be delivered for free distribution to advertisers throughout Coke County and the Concho Valley.

The Coke County Hunting & Fishing Guide has won acclaim as the most informative publication of its type in our area of the state. With the decline in oil production, it is imperative that we promote our hunting and fishing resources in order to maximize this part of our economy.

Advertising deadline for this year's Guide has been set for Tuesday, October 25. Previous advertisers in the Guide should be contacted prior to this deadline; however, should we miss you, please contact the O/E offices in Robert Lee at 453-2433, or Bronte at 473-2001, to include your advertising message in this year's edition.

Those ranchers with deer leases or day hunting available are also requested to contact either office to include this information in this year's Guide.

—The Way I See It—
by Johnny Sevier

Since politics are the order of the day, I might as well have a go at it, too. The only thing is that with what we have to choose from and what they have both had to say, it doesn't really leave much to write about. It is a shame that both presidential candidates are so busy trying to convince us that the other one is some kind of bad guy, that they don't have time to address the things that are really wrong with the country today.

George Bush swears that he will not, under any circum-

Ragsdale hosts Bronte UMW

Mrs. Charles Ragsdale was hostess to the Bronte United Methodist Women when ten members met in the Fellowship Hall. President Diane Luckett opened with prayer. The upcoming garage, bake, and cookbook sale were discussed in length. The group was told about a quilt made within the Conference with each UMW group sending in a block. Helen Kirkland led the study on One Thousand Years of USSR, a study of the Russian peoples and religions. Vera Raney and Willie B. Edmiaston participated by reading articles regarding life in Russia. Vera Raney brought several interesting artifacts that she acquired during a trip to Russia. Each member took part in a test on what you "thought" you knew about Russia.

Members present were: Vera Raney, Helen Kirkland, Drexel Ragsdale, Willie B. Edmiaston, Sybil Henry, Diane Luckett, Marie Arrott, Irene Phillips, Lillian Robbins, and Joyce Bailey.

stance, raise taxes and I like that because I believe we are paying all the taxes we can afford, but I would like to know how we are going to cut spending so that the taxes we are paying will be enough. Maybe like a lot of people, he doesn't realize that our congress pretty much dictates spending whether or not the president likes it or not, so he can only recommend a plan, not make it law.

Dukakis has said that taxes must be raised, spending cut to solve our problems. He has the same misconception on spending. He can no more control spending than Bush, Reagan, Carter and the rest could. Congress is the place where spending is controlled and it will be that way as long as there is no line item Veto Law.

For anyone who doesn't know what that is, it, in simple terms, gives the president the power to Veto any particular item in any bill brought to him from congress without Vetoing the complete bill. This could be one of the best ways ever to cut Pork Barrel Spending, a couple of examples come to mind.

Last year congress passed a 96 Billion dollar road & transportation bill. President Reagan wanted this cut to 78 Billion because of a lot of unneeded expenditures such as a rider on this bill by Sen. Dan Inoye Democrat - California, for 50 million dollars to build a school for Jewish children in of all places, France! So in order to have the money to do the things that really needed to be done, he had to accept it and, of course, you know who gets stuck with paying the bill. Had a line item Veto law been in effect at the time we would have been 18 billion dollars better off today. This is not to imply that only Democratic Senators & Congressmen do this; it means that this is a way of life in our Congress. Every President for the last 40 or 50 years has asked for this law. Congress has resisted this simply because it restricts their ability to repay favors or to bargain for favors. We really should start being very vocal to our Congress about this because as long as they have almost Carte Blanche spending power, nobody we elect for president is going to be able to control spending to any degree. So if you vote for Bush or if you vote for Dukakis, don't be surprised if very little changes.

And that's the way I see it.

Steers take revenge on Sterling City

by Bill Burns
The Steers got revenge against Sterling City Friday night as they whipped the Eagles at their Homecoming and took their first District win. 1st Qtr.
Both defenses played tough, but the Steers were tougher. With 9:25 left, the Steers held on 4th down, but could not get their offense started. The ball changed hands two more times before Bill Grigg came up with a big fumble recovery. A bigger play followed as Cody Anthony hit Wes Horn for a 17 yd. touchdown. The kick failed and the quarter ended Steers 6, Eagles 0.

2nd. Qtr.
The second quarter was defense all the way for both teams. Neither team was a threat to score.

3rd. Qtr.
This quarter was the highlight of the night for the Steers, with 8:54 left in the quarter, Wes Horn got an interception. Later in the quarter, the Steers stopped an offensive threat by holding the Eagles offense on a 4th down play. With 1:21 left, Randy Watkins recovered an Eagle fumble. With 1:11 left Anthony aired one out and Jon Rogers was all alone as they connected for 45 yards, and another Steer touchdown. Jason Wink then went to Joel Herring, who made a spectacular catch, for the two point conversion. Then with 24 seconds gone off the clock, since his last fumble recovery, Watkins came up with another one for the Steers.

4th Qtr.
This was a tough quarter for the Steers, as the Eagles tried to come back. The Eagles had the ball most of the quarter, but the Steer defense rose to the occasion and would not permit the Eagles to score. The game ended Steers 14, Eagles 0.

The Steers meet Water Valley at home this Friday night at 8:00 pm.

Jr. High defeats Sterling

By Lane Jackson
Robert Lee Jr. High has shown improvement each week. Each game we improve in certain areas. However, Thursday night we put it together offensively and defensively for a 34-0 win over Sterling City. We cut our total mistakes drastically. We caused Sterling City to commit errors. Our defense caused fumbles that were recovered by Thad Metcalf, Dane Smith, Jason Bower, Blake Pitcock, and Dant Hughes.
Our defense was more aggressive and our offense was sharper. We scored on long drives and not just big plays. John Fluhmann led the scoring with two touchdowns of 40 and 25 yards. Jason Benton, Scot Millican, and Danny Jackson scored one each with Benton and Jackson each adding a two point conversion.

Benton's extra points were unique in the fact that he intercepted a two point conversion try by Sterling City on the last play of the game. He ran the interception back 100 yards for two points. A new rule this year allows the defense to return a fumble or intercepted two point conversion attempt.
The win was especially gratifying since we lost to Sterling earlier in the season. This was our last home game of the year for the Dogies.
Everyone connected with the Robert Lee football programs are especially appreciative to the West Coke County EMS for their presence at the local ballgames.

Sawyer attending course

Jamie Sawyer is attending an 18-week course at the United States Border Patrol Academy at Ft. McClellan, Alabama where he has been since October 1. He was initially sent to Del Rio for 3 weeks. Upon graduation from the Academy, he will be stationed in Brackettville, Texas.

Jamie was raised in Robert Lee and attended Robert Lee school. His wife, Terri, and 3-year-old daughter, Krystal, are staying with his parents, Tom and Gay Sawyer in Robert Lee.

Bike funds over $1,700

Terri Medrano of Robert Lee, who served as chairman for the St. Jude's Bike-A-Thon benefit, reported this week that contributions have reached $1,748.37 through Oct. 12. She advised that riders who have not turned in their receipts may come by 1724 Euel or call 453-4702. Mrs. Medrano also declared that generous donors, the hardy bike riders, and local businesses insured the success of the worthy project.

A-S boosters to meet

BRONTE SCHOOL NEWS

Menard makes long trip home for Horns

Bronte's Longhorns made the trip to Menard last week to take on the Yellowjackets. The trip home was many times longer than going. Menard left no doubt about who ruled the field. They dealt Bronte a 58-7 loss, the worst loss in recent Bronte History.

Menard exploded for 23 points in the first quarter. They added 14 more in the second quarter and 21 in the third. The fourth quarter was scoreless for Menard.

Bronte gained their only score on a 30 yard pass from Tim Davis to Adam Minjarez who then tossed to John Seals for the touchdown. Minjarez kicked the extra point.

Tim Davis played quarterback in place of Justin Phillips who has a bruised neck.

Bronte's record goes to 1-6 for the season and 2-0 in District. Menard is 6-1 and 2-0.

This week Bronte faces Rochelle at Bronte. Rochelle took a beating last week from Santa Anna 54-7 so both teams will be looking to regain some respect. Game time is 7:30 in Bronte.

FHA to sponsor cow patty bingo

by Corina Juarez

Future Homemakers of America (FHA) has added a new twist or should we say "drop" to the game of bingo. Instead of wishing for that certain letter, you wish for a cow patty to land in your square.

On Oct. 21 at 7:00 pm, when Bronte meets Rochelle on the home field, a cow will be let loose on 200 square feet of land nearby.

Whenever she makes her "deposit", the person owning the square in which the "deposit" was made will win $250. In case of a tie, a judge will be called in to decide the winner.

A posterboard with 200 squares to choose from has been drawn up. The squares are $5 each and there is no purchase limit. To buy a square, contact either Mrs. Howard or any FHA member.

S'Horn Pep Squad members noted

By Vicki Ellis

Loyally following the Bronte Shorthorn football team, is the Bronte Junior High Pep Squad. The pep squad travels to all of the games, participates in the pep rallies, and decorates lockers.

The squad is sponsored by Mrs. Jerita Taylor and consists of girls from the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. "The pep squad doubled in size when the 6th grade joined, plus they've been really enthusiastic," said Mrs. Taylor.

The members include: Tamara Richards-President, Aimee Easterly-Vice President, Jennifer Johnson-Secretary, Amy Allen-Treasurer, Amy Bailey, Daphne Balderas, Athena Black, Angelina Fuentez, Rena Gee, Mandy Gregory, Vanessa Halstead, Carrie Hoyt, Wendy Huckabee, Micah Arrott, Joni Barrett, Gina Clayton, Tanya Dominiquez, Mandy Dunn, Brandy Dutton, Jill Johnson, Jessica Salsar, Jamie Shipman, Laura Thomas, Rhapsody Weaver and Krissy Williams.

S'Horns fall to Menard

by A. Widdle Chort

How many junior Yellow jackets does it take to bring down a Shorthorn? With Running back Jason Blaylock, it takes quite a few. When the Bronte Shorthorns tackled the Menard Junior High boys in Bronte last Thursday it proved to be a chore for the Shorthorns.

After the official Referees failed to show, some unofficial referees were drafted from the stands. The game opened when Menard got control on the kick-off and drove 60 yards against a tough but smaller Shorthorn defense for a touchdown. The Shorthorns held them short on their extra point. We got the ball after they tried an onside kick, but were unable to move very far during the quarter.

During the first half Jay Parker and Jason Cooper were defensive standouts, while offensively, Jason Blaylock carried for an unofficial 5 times for about 30 yards. He was carrying 4 or 5 Yellowjackets downfield when the half-time buzzer sounded.

The second half, the Shorthorns found the Menard boys still hard to run against. Jay Parker was mopping up on his end but still they drove on to score again with no PAT. So it's now 12-0. Jacob Golson received the kick to run it back to the Bronte 25, but soon we gave it back to Menard.

Now we can ask, "How many Shorthorns does it take to bring down a 6 foot, 200 pound Yellowjacket?" A bunch - because he helped Menard to move ahead 18-0.

Rudy Sanchez, a newcomer to the Shorthorn team, really showed some spirit. He returned kick-offs, rushed quarterbacks, and made a lot of tackles. Another outstanding defensive player was Brent Taylor who really stood his ground. Jay Parker was even given the quarterback assignment to show good potential.

The end result of "the game with make-do referees", was Menard 26, Bronte 0.

Say - Coach Tuttle, Does a maroon cap laying on the field mean the same thing as a yellow flag laying on the field?

Good game, boys - let's get the spirit up for Rochelle.

Former students reunite

Bronte High School classes of the late 20s and early 30s had a reunion at Zenter's Daughter's in San Angelo on Friday night, Oct. 14.

There were some 30 present with Woodrow Leonard and Susie (Tannehill) Wike in charge. This was the 4th year for these classes to have a get-together. There were several classes represented, from 1925 thru 1934. The class of 1931 had the most present. A good time was enjoyed by all. Those who were unable to attend were missed and those present hoped they could be there next year.

"In a uniform fever"

by Teresa Sage

"In a fever for new band uniforms." That is the Booster Club and Band's slogan for this year. They are doing everything possible to raise money for the uniforms.

The band's uniforms are ten years old. "They are worn out and out-dated," said Homer Stewart, band director.

Nearly half of the money has been earned to buy their goal of eighty uniforms. If the goal is not reached by the end of the year, the band will only buy pants.

Presently the band and Booster Club are taking donations on chances for a pair of Justin boots donated by Mr. Boots. The drawing for these boots will be December 3, at 3:00 pm at the Mini-Park in Bronte.

Band members also earn money by working all the indoor concession stands for home volleyball and basketball games.

GRANDPARENT HOPEFULS PLAY WAITING GAME

by Jan Hohensee
County Extension Agent

The trend toward delayed childbearing among young married couples has left many of their parents anxious about becoming grandparents.

The "empty nest" feeling parents experience when children leave home may be prolonged as their adult children marry and then put off having children of their own.

The basis for "grandparent anxiety" is more than just the desire to have a baby around. This waiting game can actually interrupt a crucial transition in the aging process.

Grandchildren reassure older adults that the family will go on. Grandchildren are also taken as a sign that the adult children have settled down into secure lives.

Specialists advise older parents to look at the positive aspects of their adult children's delay in having children.

The young couple will have more time to enjoy their early years together and to build their marriage. They will also have a chance to get established financially and to fulfill career aims and personal goals.

Older couples may also find comfort in the fact that grandparenting has not gone out of style, it's just being delayed. About 90 percent of older Americans with children over 40 are grandparents.

Older grandparents are also more likely to be retired and actually have more free time to spend with their grandchildren.

In the meantime, specialists suggest that parents try to provide needed social support for their adult children, so that if and when grandchildren arrive, they will enter a strong extended family.

DON'T BE LIMITED BY COLOR ANALYSIS

Are you a "winter", "spring", "summer", or "fall"? No, this isn't a question asking for your favorite season. It's the categories some color consultants use to describe your complexion and the color of clothes that will look good on you.

The problem is that shoppers are passing up styles that are right for them because the garment is not in "their" color. Retailers are trying to solve the problem by offering blouses and shirts in a range of 32 colors selected from among the 1,000 hues used by color consultants.

Blouses and shirts are the mainstay of the line because they are worn close to the face where color selection is important.

The bottom line in the style-versus-color controversy is that you want to look your best. Remember that color is just one factor. Don't limit your wardrobe because you can't find a certain color in a particular style.

Color charting is not a law but a tool to help you in selecting a wardrobe that mixes and matches. The next time you go shopping look at both color and style. If you can't find your color in a style, find a style that suits you and add accessories in your color.

The Meritorious Service Medal is awarded specifically for outstanding non-combat meritorious achievement or service to the United States.

He is a Disaster Preparedness, Information and Safety Division chief with the 3460th Technical Training Group. Millican is the son of Conrad J. and Pauline Millican of Robert Lee, Texas.

In 1969, he graduated from Water Valley High School, and received a master's degree in 1982 from the University of North Dakota, Grand Forks.

COUNTRY AGENTS NEWS

GET YOUR LAWN IN SHAPE FOR SPRING

Homeowners can take steps now to get their lawns in Weed, disease and insect control along with fall fertilization can help get lawns off to a fast start next year.

Chinch bugs and armyworms must be controlled during late summer and fall. Insect damage weakens turf and allows weeds to invade the lawn. Timely applications of insecticides such as diazinon or chlorpyrifos (Dursban) will control most lawn insect problems.

Fall fertilization maintains the lawns green color and promotes early spring green-up. Use a complete fertilizer with a 3-1-2, 4-1-2 or similar ratio of nitrogen, phosphorus and potash at a rate of 1 to 2 pounds of nitrogen per 1,000 square feet.

A dense, vigorous turf produced by proper fertilization also keeps winter weeds from invading lawns.

If winter weeds have been a problem in past years, apply a preemergence herbicide (chemical weed killer) for additional protection against weeds. Some preemergence herbicides are available in formulations with fertilizers, which simplifies application.

Homeowners should follow label instructions in regard to grass species and rate of application when using herbicides. Materials containing atrazine should not be used around trees and shrubs.

For disease control, apply a fungicide on St. Augustine Fungicides containing PCNB (Terraclor, Ortho Lawn Fungicide), benomyl (Benlate, Tersan 1991) or chlorothalonil (Daconil) control brown patch when applied according to label instructions.

A good practice is to raise the mowing height in October to 2 1/2 or 3 inches for St. Augustine and 1 1/2 or 2 inches for Bermuda lawns. Taller grass provides more cover and insulation for the growing points of grass and reduces the chance of winterkill.

Another fall task for homeowners is to remove excess accumulations of grass clippings or tree leaves from the lawn. Excess debris from these sources increases thatch accumulation and creates a favorable habitat for insects and disease organisms.

* CLEANER WATER.

Planning and management techniques can help reduce water contaminants, particularly those created from "nonpoint source pollution", says Dr. John Sweeten, Extension Service agricultural engineer. He discusses the problem and some solution strategies to gain cleaner water.

food-producing animals or be prepared to face the consequences.

In an effort to prevent misuse of drugs in meat animals, the U.S. Department of Agriculture has passed regulatory laws to control drug and chemical use.

Producers must use only those veterinary drugs, chemicals or feed additives approved by the Food and Drug Administration. The substances must be used at the approved dosage rate, and for the specific purpose or treatment of conditions issued on the label.

The use of any drug or chemical within the established withdrawal time prior to marketing is illegal.

Unapproved drug use in food animals is commonly known as extra-label usage and can only be used under the control of a licensed veterinarian.

Extra-label usage must be in accordance with a veterinarian/client/patient relationship; a careful medical diagnosis; and a determination by the attending veterinarian that available labeled products have been found clinically ineffective.

There must be assurances that treated animals have been adequately identified and that extended withdrawal periods have been established before marketing.

The Food and Drug Administration and the Food Safety and Inspection Service of the USDA have the authority to enforce regulatory laws concerning drug and chemical use on animals.

New program supports county parents

A new program serving San Angelo and the Concho Valley region will provide support for parents of children who are disabled, catastrophically or chronically ill and/or born with multiple health problems.

The Parent/Case Manager Program, funded initially by the Texas Department of Health, will be offered to parents in Tom Green, Sterling, Coke, Runnels, Concho, McCulloch, Mason, Menard, Kimble, Sutton, Schleicher, Crockett, Reagan and Irion Counties through West Texas Rehabilitation Center.

"The goal of this program is to pair experienced parents who've dealt with their children's situation with new parents who need support and information," said Beverly Drennan, Parent/Case Manager director. "We are now actively seeking parents who are willing to train as these parent specialists."

Eula Arnett, who has a child with clinical course cystic fibrosis and a rare immune disorder, is the co-author of the grant which resulted in funding for the program.

"Most parents feel a tremendous sense of isolation and don't know where to turn for help," Arnett added. "Linking them to another parent who can act as a lifeline of experience and support can help them become an effective partner in their child's case management process."

Experienced parents who are interested in applying for a position may contact Drennan or Arnett at WTRC by calling 949-9535.

TAKE THE CHILL OUT OF WINTER HEATING BILLS.

With winter just around the corner, WTU has these suggestions for lower energy bills.

Have heating equipment checked seasonally by a qualified serviceman and check the filter once a month.

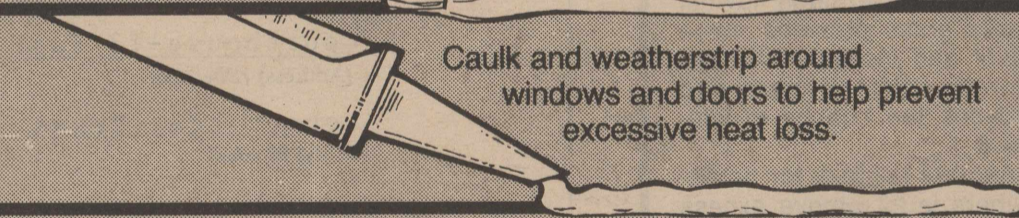

Set the thermostat at 68° or lower.

Check for adequate insulation in the attic. R-30 is recommended.

Caulk and weatherstrip around windows and doors to help prevent excessive heat loss.

Tightly close the damper in the fireplace when not in use.

Open drapes and blinds during the day to let in sunlight and close them at night to hold in warm air.

For a more comfortable home and an electric bill that won't give you a chill this winter, contact your local WTU office for more conservation tips.

Retirement planning should begin now

RETIREMENT PLANNING

People who are thinking about retiring at the end of the year should start making some serious plans now, Franklin H. Upp, social security manager in San Angelo, said recently. And, those plans should include Social Security, Upp said. There are several factors a person should consider.

First, a person under 65 considering retirement should remember that his or her Social Security benefit will be permanently reduced if received before 65. The amount of reduction depends on the number of months a person receives benefits before 65. The reduction amounts to 20 percent at 62, 13-1/3 percent at 63, or 6-2/3 percent at 64.

Other factors can influence a person's decision to retire, Upp said. Availability of a company pension could be a factor. So could the person's ability to continue working. At any rate, a person should contact Social Security 2 or 3 months before reaching 65 to arrange Medicare health insurance protection even if there are no plans for retirement.

A person should have certain information ready when applying, Upp said. The person needs his or her Social Security card or a record of the number. Next, a person needs proof of his or her date of birth. An official record of birth recorded before age 5 is best, but other documents can be used if not available.

A Form W-2 (Wage and Tax Statement) or self-employment tax return for the past year should be available. This is needed so that all of a person's earnings can be considered in figuring benefits.

A husband or wife who is also applying should have the

Influencing your child

PARENTS INFLUENCE SCHOOL SUCCESS

If your child is having trouble adjusting to school, parental attitudes may be one possible problem, the Texas Medical Association says.

Sometimes parents are afraid to let new people care for their children. Children pick up such signals and also become anxious. Parental stress about busing or other problems also can make a child feel uncomfortable.

Doubts and fears of parents and children can be eased by visiting the school and talking with the teacher. Such discussions can familiarize everyone with the child's schedule and upcoming activities. A visit also can give parents an early opportunity to inform the teacher about the child's special abilities, problems, or complicating situations, such as a recent family divorce that may have upset the child.

Another important discus-same documents. Birth certificates of any eligible children are also needed. Do not delay applying if all this evidence is not available. Call the Social Security Office. The people there can tell you what other evidence can be used.

The San Angelo Social Security Office is located at 2214 Sherwood Way. The telephone number is 949-4608.

sion can be between parent and child. It can help reassure the child that he or she can handle new circumstances just as in the past. Getting frequent updates about the child's progress and attitudes can help parents keep in touch with problems.

Persistent problems may mean the child has a learning disorder. To find out about possible problems quickly, tests can be done to determine hearing, sight, or learning handicaps that can cause the child years of frustration and failure if undetected, TMA says. The teacher often can give recommendations about available testing.

No matter what the cause of poor performance in school, it is important to help the child before troubles last too long. Help may be something as simple as aiding the child with homework. Or it may involve getting medical attention. But TMA urges parents to take action to help keep the child from falling far behind in class.

SS number is important

A person's Social Security number is the key to his or her lifetime protection under Social Security, Franklin H. Upp, Social Security manager in San Angelo, said recently.

All earnings that a person has over his or her working lifetime are recorded under that number. If an incorrect number is used, that person may not get proper credit for all earnings.

People should always take their Social Security card with them when they get a new job and make sure that their employer copies the number just as it is shown on the card, Upp said.

People should keep a record of their number in a safe place. Then, if the original card is lost, a new card with the same number can be obtained easier than if the number were not known.

Also, a person applying for a replacement Social Security card will have to provide documentary evidence of identity, Upp said. A person born outside the U. S. needs evidence of current U. S. citizenship or legal alien status.

If a person ever becomes aware that he or she has more than one Social Security number, the individual should contact a Social Security office right away. The people there will help get the situation cleared up so that the numbers are crossreferred and the person gets full credit for all earnings.

It is against the law for a person to use someone else's number. It is also against the law to give false information when getting a number. Penalties include a fine or jail sentence or both.

It is a good idea for a person to check his or her Social Security record every three years or so to make sure that earnings are being correctly reported. This is especially true if a person changes jobs often.

A free form is available for this purpose and can be obtained at the San Angelo Social Security office located at 2214 Sherwood Way. The telephone number is 949-4608.

Trees to be distributed

Ten free shade trees will be given to each person who joins The National Arbor Day Foundation during October, 1988.

The free trees are part of the nonprofit Foundation's efforts to encourage tree planting throughout America.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, send a $10 membership contribution to SHADE TREES, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, NE 68410, by October 31, 1988.

IT'S YOUR CHOICE

DUKAKIS/BENTSEN

Dukakis:

- * Passed the only Universal Health Insurance Program for all citizens of his state.
- * Increased elderly housing funding by $200 million.
- * Provides long-term, home health care and physical fitness programs for senior citizens.
- * Picked Bentsen who has consistently supported senior citizen interests.
- * Pledged to accept no cuts in Social Security, champion health coverage for all, protect pensions, enforce age discrimination laws, and save tax money by promoting home health care and independent living plans for senior citizens.

BUSH/QUAYLE

Bush:

- * Was the only Vice President in history to vote to cut Social Security benefits and programs.
- * Supported closing 700 Social Security offices and cutting Medicare benefits by a total of $1500 per year.
- * Supported private insurance plans with no quality assurance and increased costs to senior citizens.
- * Supported proposals to cut Social Security by $200 billion.
- * Picked Quayle who voted for a $40 billion cut in Social Security, freezing all cost-of-living adjustments, and against human service programs.

How do I know if my money is safe?

Editors Note: State Treasurer Ann W. Richards each week answers questions about personal finance and state government. These questions are compiled from various letters to the State Treasury. Answers are not intended to take the advice of reputable financial advisers or other professional counselors. If you have a question to ask, write to:

your family will not have to bear that burden later.

These policies are usually sold through funeral homes, but other companies offer them as well.

Often the policy holder buys into a plan to relieve relatives of having to finance his or her funeral, yet does not inform the next of kin a policy exists. There have been cases where the policy holder dies, and the family, unaware a pre-payment plan exists, goes ahead and pays the funeral expenses.

As an alternative, The Austin Memorial and Burial Information Society recommends you open a joint savings account between you and the person you designate to handle your affairs when you pass on. Make sure it is stated in your will that the money will go toward your funeral expenses. In a savings account, your money earns interest, is safely insured and after your death, can be withdrawn by the other account holder.

If you have questions, contact the Texas Banking Department at (512) 479-1200, or write to them at 2601 North Lamar, Austin, TX 78705. That department does a thorough job of investigating and regulating pre-paid funeral plans, and does background checks on all licensed funeral plans. The department will be happy to help you look into any plan you may be considering.

With savings and loans shutting down all over town, how do I know if my money is safe?

If your savings and loan is insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, your money is protected up to $100,000. If you have more money than that in an account in your name, I would suggest putting each $100,000 in separate institutions to ensure you are covered.

In a joint account, each person is covered up to $100,000 for total coverage of $200,000 on that account.

My mother recently purchased a pre-paid funeral plan. Are these things legitimate? Are they safe?

In answer to both your questions: probably so, but be careful to check things out before sending any money.

Pre-paid funeral plans are designed to help you take care of your funeral expenses now, so

SOMETHING TO SEE

A new kind of fireplace offers old-fashioned beauty in a contemporary setting.

A clearly valuable asset is getting a warm welcome in many American homes these days. It's the fireplace. No matter how efficient your heating may be, on cold damp days, many say, there's nothing like a real "live" fire in a heartening fireplace.

When furnishing around the fireplace, think big. Put large logs in a huge rush basket. Hang big bellows on the wall. Put a large size picture over the mantle.

One kind of fireplace can double your pleasure — because it can be viewed from two rooms. This new fireplace comes complete with an integral bar steel grate. The firebox features brick pattern refractory side walls and a smooth, easy-clean refractory base and ash guard. The unit also comes with two sets of panoramic glass doors with antique brass trim. They prevent heat loss while enhancing the beauty and romance of the fireplace. Metal fire-screens are included for each firebox opening. A single flue damper control is positioned on the fireplace front for easy, safe use.

An attractive, horizontal louver grille design is also part of the unit's air circulation system. Room air enters at floor level below each fire-box opening, circulates through the sealed heat chamber around the sides and top of the firebox and is equally distributed through the top grilles above the firebox opening to both rooms. An optional fan can be installed behind the bottom panel on each side to accelerate air flow.

Easy to install, this Preway Builder's Edge See-through fireplace, model BE41ST, can be installed with minimum clearance to combustibles on the sides. Handy nail flanges allow the unit to be secured to wall studs. The low profile design allows chimney offset and return under eight feet. The unit uses an economical Preway double-wall chimney with a 10" flue. The fireplace and chimney are U.L. Listed.

The see-through design offers a variety of installation possibilities. Install the unit to be viewed from two adjacent rooms and finish off to correspond with each room's respective decor. Or, install as an island configuration with elevated hearth that continues around island, and create a great focal point and conversation area in a single room.

With a new look at an old American favorite, the see-through fireplace can create a warm and cozy atmosphere in two rooms while maintaining the sleek, open style so popular today.

THE U.S. CANAL IN PANAMA

In the 1970s, many Americans were falsely led to believe that we should have some kind of guilt complex about owning the Canal and that we should "give back" our Canal to Panama in order to guarantee good relations with Panama and Latin America. In truth, Panama had no claim whatsoever to the Canal; the U.S. taxpayers bought, built and generously paid for the Canal to the tune of $7 billion. Since giving Panama our Canal, our relationship has sunk to the lowest level in history.

Under the terms of the 1903 treaty, Panama granted us the exclusive use, occupation and control of the Canal Zone and all rights, power and authority as if we were sovereign "to the entire exclusion of the exercise by the Republic of Panama of any such sovereign rights, power or authority." The length of this grant of sovereignty to us was "in perpetuity"; those words "in perpetuity" appear seven times in the 1903 treaty.

Panama did not lease us the Zone. The term "grant" was used 14 times in the treaty; the term "rent" or "lease" does not appear even once.

All we received was a little piece of land, 10 miles wide by 50 miles long, pest-ridden, mosquito-infested, and uninhabitable. No one in the history of the world ever was so greatly enriched for such a then-worthless piece of real estate.

First, the Panamanians got our guarantee of their independence. Panama had unsuccessfully revolted 50 times against Columbia during the preceding 70 years. By the 1903 treaty, the powerful United States pledged to guarantee the independence of this little country.

Secondly, Panama got the promise that we would build our Canal in Panama instead of Nicaragua, which is closer to our country, has a more favorable climate, and has better geographic conditions. Third, Panama got more cash than we paid for any land in all our history, more, for example, than we paid for Alaska.

Fourth, we cleaned up Panama. We spent two years wiping out malaria, yellow fever, and the rats that carried the bubonic plague. We made it a healthful place to live. Finally, we poured in a tremendous investment which gave Panama the highest standard of living in Central America and the fourth highest in Latin America.

All the talk we hear about moving toward "democracy" in Panama is ridiculous. In the 74 years preceding the Canal giveaway treaty in 1978, Panama had 59 chiefs of state. Since World War II, Panama has had 13 changes of government, five of them violent.

The polls showed that 80 percent of Americans opposed the Canal giveaway. So why did the Senate do it? The big push came from the ten largest banks which had loaned a total of $2.9 billion to Panama. The Torrijos regime was then broke and its credit was gone, so the banks didn't have a chance of collecting their bad loans unless Panama somehow got access to the tolls from the Canal.

Now, ten years later, our Canal is hostage to another anti-American, pro-Communist, drug-peddling dictator. It was all so predictable, Senator Bentsen.

We The People

Celebrate By Voting

Throughout the country last year, commemorations were held honoring those who gathered in Philadelphia in 1787 and crafted the U.S. Constitution. Additional celebrations have been held (or have been planned) around the country this year and next in recognition of the 200th anniversary of the ratification process.

All of these various events are certain to be worthwhile and rewarding to all who participate. But the best possible celebration of the Constitution is to participate in democracy by registering and voting in the upcoming presidential election.

The right of every adult to participate in choosing the country's leadership is the heart and soul of the U.S. Constitution. It is a cherished right longed for by millions of people around the world. The modern struggle for the right to vote in other countries is constantly on the front pages of today's newspaper as voters are sometimes shot on the way to the polls and candidates are assassinated in the midst of their campaigns for office.

Our system of government was bought with the blood and sacrifice of Americans throughout our history. The only way to repay our debt to the men of genius who wrote the Constitution and the men and women of valor who have fought to preserve it is by exercising the right to vote. Through that simple act, you will have reaffirmed the greatness of America, which recognizes that the people . . . "We the People" . . . are the source of all power in our unique system of government. lil

MICROWAVE BASICS

Dessert Cooks While the Cook Dines

There are plenty of occasions during the holidays when crowds gather and spending hours in the kitchen seems like the thing to do.

There also are plenty of occasions when there are only one or two people home for dinner, when time is limited and so is the energy level.

That doesn't mean you should settle for anything less than a complete delicious dinner including dessert.

Keep the freezer stocked with premium frozen dinners, such as Armour Dinner Classics. In the few minutes it takes for the dinners to cook in the microwave, you can put together Individual Jam-Topped Cheesecakes. The cheesecakes will cook in the microwave in the time your dinners "stand" before you serve them. They'll cool in the refrigerator while you dine.

Individual Jam-Topped Cheesecakes

- |   |  |
|---|--|
| 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted | 1/3 cup sugar                              |
| 1/2 cup graham cracker crumbs             | 1 egg                                      |
| 1 package (3 oz.) cream cheese, softened  | 1 teaspoon lemon juice                     |
|   | Dash nutmeg                                |
|   | 2 tablespoons jam or preserves, any flavor |

In small bowl, combine butter and graham cracker crumbs. Press crumb mixture into bottom and up sides of each of two 6-ounce microwave-safe custard cups. In small bowl, combine cream cheese, sugar, egg, lemon juice and nutmeg. Pour cream cheese mixture into prepared custard cups. Heat, uncovered, on HIGH 1 1/2 to 2 minutes or until the center of each cheesecake is almost set, rotating cups once. Cover loosely with plastic wrap and refrigerate 30 minutes. Top cheesecakes with jam or preserves. Makes 2 servings.

YOUR HEART

FACT: Cholesterol Can Be Controlled

Over half of the U.S. adult population is at risk for heart disease now—and the culprit is high cholesterol.

According to W. Virgil Brown, M.D., president of Medlantic Research Foundation and a member of the National Cholesterol Education Program panel that recently set new cholesterol guidelines, the first step in reaching the recommended level—200 mg/dl and under—is to follow a low saturated fat, low-cholesterol diet, combined with exercise. In some persons with very high cholesterol, diet therapy may not be adequate and a cholesterol-lowering medication may be prescribed by the physician.

There are a number of cholesterol-lowering drugs available now. The National Cholesterol Education Program recognizes cholestyramine (marketed as Questran), colestipol (marketed as Colestid), and Niacin as the drugs of first choice in lowering cholesterol because of their record of safety and effectiveness. Questran was the drug used in a landmark 10-year study in which participants who took the recommended dosage of the drug achieved a 25 percent decrease in cholesterol and reduced their incidence of heart attack by 50 percent.

While cholestyramine is a non-systemic drug, meaning it doesn't enter the bloodstream, some of the newer cholesterol-lowering drugs are systemic and do enter the bloodstream. These newer drugs may be appropriate as second-line therapy for individuals with severely elevated blood cholesterol levels.

Remember that treatments for high cholesterol vary, but the first step is talking to your doctor.
