Labor Day Extravaganza activities detailed

West Coke County Community Development will sponsor the Labor Day Extravaganza at the county park in Robert Lee Saturday, Sept. 2. The event will have something for everyone.

Those involved in the work of the festival can set up games and booths from 3 to 4 to prepare for the start of the evening.

Activities will start at 4 pm and continue until about 6:30. Booths will open, adult and children's games will begin, and the stage entertainment will start. Most happenings will take place in the shady area in the center of the park.

Chairman D'Ann Eubanks said Tuesday that a good lineup of booths have confirmed participation, including food items, gifts for sale, services and raffles, game booths, and exhibits. WCCCD will have a booth for door prizes and memberships. A full schedule of fun games are planned for both children and adults.

Stage entertainment will be kicked off at 4 pm by a barber-shop quartet, "Gotchal!" of San Angelo. Members are Dan Hitchcock, David Goff, Derek Smith, and Morris Wallace, all of San Angelo. Also scheduled are the Robert Lee Cheerleaders, Wes Horn, Russ Horn, Jeff Wilkes and group followed by the Coke County Pageant Choir. At 5:30 Billy Newman will entertain until the finish of the activities.

Robert Lee volunteer firemen will hold a BBQ supper from 6 until 8 in the Rec Hall. The $5 and $3 tickets may be purchased in advance or at the door.

Drawn periodically during the evening will be the door prizes provided by local merchants and individuals. At 10 pm (during the dance) a VCR will be awarded in a drawing by the sponsor, WCCCD. Winners must be present to claim all door prizes.

Sundown, a local band, will play for the dance in the Rec Hall 8:30 - 12 midnight. Tickets for those 12 and over are priced at $2. These dance tickets will make the holders eligible for door prizes. Entrance requires orange ticket on collar.

The community development board urges everyone to enjoy a fun evening at home with your neighbors, family, and friends. Come to the Extravaganza!

Dove season set to open dove season.

A favorite of many hunting enthusiasts, mourning dove season, opens in the Central Zone, which includes Coke County, on Friday, Sept. 1. The 60-day season will end October 30. Bag limit is set for 12 per day and shooting hours are one-half hour before sunrise until sunset.

Texas hunting and fishing license expired, Thursday, Aug. 31. New license will be required for the upcoming Since mourning doves are migratory birds, shotguns must be plugged back to 3-shot capacity. Both Texas and federal game laws prevent baiting an area for migratory birds; a hunter cannot bait an area with grain or other food-stuffs to attract doves. This law does not apply to legitimate farming and ranching operations. Hunt to your heart's content in fields, pastures, and around tanks and feed lots. The law of averages is on the side of the doves, anyway!

LL scoreboard on its way

It was announced this week that a scoreboard is on its way to the Robert Lee Little League ball field. The softball tournament here on Aug. 5 and 6 raised a major portion of the funds needed and Coca Cola Bottling of San Angelo has agreed to donate the remainder of the money.

The board will be approximately 10' x 4', lighted with in-ning, score, batters count and outs.

According to The Carousel's owners, Becky Ross and Leigh Ann Stephens, it will take from 4-6 weeks to get the board and have it installed.

It has been a long wait since the tournament was held to get this good news from Coke but well received in any case. Through a tough effort put forth, a goal was attained.

Upcoming

4-H Patty Booth

The Coke County 4-H Clubs will have a booth at the Labor Day Extravaganza. 4-H will sponsor "4-H PIG PATTY BINGO". For a donation of $5.00 you will have a chance of winning $200.00.

The booth will be set up in front of the Sterling SLindsey Memorial Exhibit Building (show barn). Please come by and show your support of the 4-H clubs and win BIG!!!!

ABC Tournament

Butch Davis Special, an ABC golf tournament at Bronte Singing Winds course will be Sunday, Sept. 3rd. Tee-time 1:30. Register by 1:00 pm.

C'house to close

According to the Coke County Judge's office, the county courthouse will be closed Monday, Sept. 4, in observance of the Labor Day holiday.

Band Boosters

Bronte Band Boosters will hold the first meeting of the year, Sept. 6 - 8:00 p.m. in the Band Hall. Parents of all band children are welcome. Let's get off to a good start!

RLVFD Barbecue

The Robert Lee Volunteer Fire Department will hold a BBQ supper Saturday evening, Sept. 2, from 6-8 pm. Serving will be in the Rec Hall at the county park. Adult tickets for those 12 and over will go for $5. Children under 12 can eat for $3.

Commodities

Food commodities will be distributed Thursday, Sept. 7, at the Bronte and Robert Lee Senior Citizens Building from 8:00 - 12 noon.

All commodities are distributed on a first come, first serve basis.

Tennyson Exes

Tennyson Community Homecoming will take place Saturday, Sept. 2, in the community center in Tennyson. The gathering will begin at 3 pm. A business meeting will be held at 6:30 followed by the Pot Luck supper. The association will furnish tea, coffee, ice, and paper goods. Those attending should bring a covered dish for their family. Everyone is welcome.

C/W Musical

Thursday, Sept. 7, will be the date for the monthly Country/Western Musical in Robert Lee. The free entertainment will begin at 7:30 pm in the Rec Hall.

Beef cattle meeting slated

There will be a multi-county beef cattle production meeting held on Tuesday, September 5, in the Ballinger High School cafeteria. This meeting will be sponsored by Coke, Runnels, Tom Green and Nolan counties. The meeting will begin at 6:00 p.m. with a barbecue meal sponsored by several agriculture products companies. They will have booths set up displaying their products throughout the evening. The meeting will begin at 7:00 pm with Dr. John McNeil, Extension beef cattle specialist discussing cow-calf production with the main focus on short-term stocking of cows versus long-term cow-calf production. Next, Dr. Jerry Cowley, Extension beef specialist, will discuss physical and health traits for a good beef cow. This will be followed by a panel discussion of local producers and veterinarian on raising baby calves. John Cargile will be on hand to discuss the practice of selling and buying livestock on the satellite auction. Finally, Dr. McNeil will discuss what is the ideal breed and type of beef cow for producers.

All interested persons are invited to attend and need to call the County Extension office at 453-2461 by Friday so we can get an estimate for the meal.

Hunting leases to be updated

Coke County producers who wish to have their hunting leases listed with the County Extension office should contact the County Extension office at 453-2461. We need the size of the lease, approximate location, facilities available, number of hunters and price for lease. We will compile this listing next week and send it to the persons who have contacted our office for leases.

City to close

Robert Lee City Hall and the Sanitary Landfill will both be closed Monday, September 4 for Labor Day Holiday.

Jones

V. W. Lehde, father of Ruby Jones of Robert Lee passed from this life at 4 A.M. Wed., Aug. 30, in the Holiday Retirement Center in Sweetwater, Tx. He was 94.

Services will be held Friday, Sept. 1, at 11 A.M. in the Highland Heights United Methodist Church in Sweetwater with Tommy Taylor leading the service. McCoy Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Lehde was born in Willis Point, Tx. on July 14, 1935. His father Wilhelm Lehde came to this country from Germany and his mother Caroline Wetzel, came from Sweden as children. They reared their family in Chriesman, Texas.

Val William Lehde was married to Mary Ethel McLeod in the Methodist Church in Chriesman, Tx. on September 6, 1916. They would have celebrated their 73rd wedding anniversary next month.

Mr. Lehde retired from Gulf Oil in February, 1959, where the family had lived since 1930 when they moved from Port Arthur, Tx. with Gulf. He had been retired 30 years. Mr. Lehde was a devout Methodist and served many years in the Highland Heights United Methodist Church as Steward. He was a Master Mason. Masonic rites will be held in the family plot at the graveside in the Sweetwater Cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, also of the Retirement Center: one son and daughter-in-law, Walter and Virginia Lehde of Madisonville, Tx.; two daughters and sons-in-law: Muriel and Jesse Reid of Prescott, AZ and Ruby and Bill Jones of Robert Lee; 6 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren. He was preceded in death by one grandson, Murray Neil Jones.

Friends will be received at the Jones home in Robert Lee and at 309 E. Ave. B in Sweetwater.

Hankey

Local relatives learned of the death of Wade Hankey of Ashland, Virginia on August 18. Funeral services were held there August 22. He died suddenly of an apparent heart attack. He is survived by his wife, the former Leslie Nell Wink, one son, David Hanky, and two daughters, Cathy Lane, and Carol Buchanan, all of the Ashland area. Attending the services in Virginia were Mrs. Hanky's parents, Mr. & Mrs. Leslie Wink of Robert Lee, and several sisters and brothers, including Robert Wink and Erma Lee Gartman, both of Robert Lee, Kenneth Wink of Marathon, Milburn Wink of Hamlin, and Kay Ledbetter of Lubbock.

Miller accepts new position

Dr. David Miller, an assistant vice president for development at Hardin-Simmons University for the past 4 1/2 years, resigned effective in early May to become vice president for development and community relations at Hendrick Home for Children, Abilene.

Miller, an HSU alumus, has been active in Abilene's First Baptist Church where he is a deacon and chairman of several key committees.

He received a BA degree in religion from HSU in 1974, a MDIV degree from Southwestern Seminary, Fort Worth, in 1977, and a doctor of philosophy degree from Southwestern in 1982.

Dr. Miller is the husband of the former Elaine Fikes of Robert Lee. Her parents are Mr. & Mrs. Weldon Fikes, longtime Coke County residents. She is employed by the IRS in Abilene.

Updated immunizations are required

As the new school year approaches, the Texas Department of Health (TDH) stresses that parents should check their children's immunization records to see that they are up-to-date.

State law requires that children entering Texas schools or day care must show proof of immunizations for six communicable diseases -- polio, tetanus, measles, rubella (German measles), mumps, and diphtheria. Whooping cough (pertussis) vaccine is required for all children younger than five entering day care or public school, although TDH recommends that children through six also receive the vaccine.

According to WE Hodgson, in the TDH Immunization Division, until the recent highly publicized outbreaks of measles and whooping cough, some parents appeared to believe that so-called "childhood diseases" were virtually wiped out.

"It is true that cases of some of these illnesses had diminished for a few years, but that was a reflection of how well most of the population was complying with vaccination requirements. None of these communicable diseases are extinct, so the threat of infection is always present for anyone who has not been vaccinated, or who has not had the diseases," Hodgson said.

Hodgson said that the measles outbreak was one of the largest in recent history. "About 3,000 cases, including nine deaths, have been reported since the epidemic began last Thanksgiving in Houston." The state had not experienced so many cases since an even larger epidemic struck in 1971, when 9,585 cases were reported.

He said that recent whooping cough outbreaks in Tarrant, Travis and Bexar counties also have been cause for serious concern. More than 80 cases of the highly contagious disease have been reported. "With children returning to school, those infected may spread pertussis among unimmunized classmates. We want parents to be doubly sure that their children are protected, or we may have an escalation of the present outbreaks."

If parents have any doubts about their children's immunizations, they should check with their family physician or local health department. "One overlooked vaccination or booster can mean a sick child, able to infect others who may also be susceptible," Hodgson added.

Other vaccine-preventable diseases reported in Texas last year included mumps (327 cases), rubella (30), and tetanus (6). There were no cases of polio or diphtheria reported.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Hal,

On behalf of the Coke County Historical Commission, I thank you for the press coverage of the events of the Coke County Centennial Celebration July 22.

Without the efforts of you, your staff and the newspaper, the county's special day would not have been the success it was. The courthouse and its grounds were visited that day by over 400 people of which we are so grateful for their attendance and all those who exhibited and contributed their time.

Again I thank you for the coverage and the continuing articles of the history of our great county.

Sincerely,
 Fran Lomas
 Chairman, CCHC

Exercise, diet eases symptoms

New understanding about exercise and diet can now help some of the most distressing symptoms of parkinsonism, enabling the patient to function better than previously thought possible, according to recent studies. Stiffness and slowness of movement are characteristic of Parkinson's Disease. New physical therapy, coupled with dietary considerations, has resulted in dramatic easing of symptoms. Physical therapy is advantageous because it can be practiced at home by most patients. Information is available upon request by writing Parkinson Research, Dept. 409, Winona, TX 75792.

Center slates field day

The Texas Agricultural Research and Extension Center here will play host September 7 during the complex annual Sheep and Goat Field Day. Registration begins at 9:00 a.m.

This year's field day is being specially dedicated to Dr. Charles W. Livingston, Jr., long-time Center veterinarian. Livingston has been with the Texas A&M University System for 34 years.

Another of the day's activities will be a trade show held on the grounds. The show will feature the latest in commercial ranch related goods available to West Texans.

The day's formal activities will begin with a morning tour of some of the work being conducted at the center. The various stops include Cashmere goat and Australian Merino research, new mesquite control developments, and new measurement techniques for wool and mohair. Also included will be a look at controlling external livestock parasites and the status of lean lamb in the sheep industry.

Following a catered lunch, the afternoon will begin under the direction of Ralph Mayer, newly elected president of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers' Association. The session will open with Livingston's special recognition ceremony highlighting his many contributions to the sheep and goat industry. Following Mayer will be an American Sheep Industry Association update will be given by Big Lake rancher, Bill Schneemann, president of the organization.

Teachers treated to catered dinner

Teachers involved in the Bible instruction program of the Southside Church of Christ, Robert Lee, were treated to a catered dinner by the church elders on Tuesday evening. Teens from the congregation served as babysitters for those with children. Appreciation for the skills, hard work and preparation of the teachers was expressed for the elders by Bill Brown. He also spoke of the responsibility of being a day by day role model for those being taught. Church elders include Jerry Horn, Bruce Deere, Benny Rogers, Bill Green and Bill Brown.

Centennial Celebration

The late Jessie Newton Yarbrough, Coke County educator and historian, examines the remains of a mail coach found in Grubb's Canyon on the Nora Gee Ranch between Robert Lee and Sterling City perhaps in the late '40s.

KLST presents program

Highlight of the West Coke County Community Development meeting on Monday evening was the presentation of the feature program by an eight-member staff of KLST 8 television of San Angelo. The presentation preceded the general meeting of the organization. Personnel was introduced by Philip Brassie, general manager of KLST, including Gordon Hay, station and program manager; Larry White, chief engineer; Scott Underwood, sales manager; Lou Kordek, news director; Mary Ann Allen, public service director; Pat Attebery, special programming; and Jeff Bennett, creative services. Brassie outlined the station's efforts to visit in the nine-county viewing area. They recently came to Robert Lee and made a hometown ad which was shown for the first time on Tuesday. He also explained the procedure for turning in news and public service announcements. The staff then presented a creative video on the new fall line-up of programs on the theme Are You Ready.

President Robert Wink thanked the group and the business meeting opened. Much of the discussion involved the most immediate WCCCD project, the Labor Day Extravaganza to be held at the county park this weekend. Various committees on the project reported on their plans. The upcoming Big Buck contest was discussed, along with plans to feed Coke County's hunters next year, and possibly a dance for them. In the planning stages is the forming of an industrial board to seek industry for Coke County. The five member board would be made up of Robert Lee and Bronte citizens.

In the near future are other projects such as the cleaning of the group's 2-mile highway responsibility, plans for the Christmas celebration and the printing of emergency numbers for residents.

The September meeting will be the 25th in the courtroom at 7 pm. Join in the West Coke County Community Development's effort to resist the move away from small communities everywhere.

Perry receives Master's degree

Russ Perry of Megargel received his Masters Degree in Education at Sul Ross State University, Alpine, in August. He is a graduate of Winters High School.

He is married to the former Kelly Lawhon of Bronte. They have two boys, Callan, and Landon.

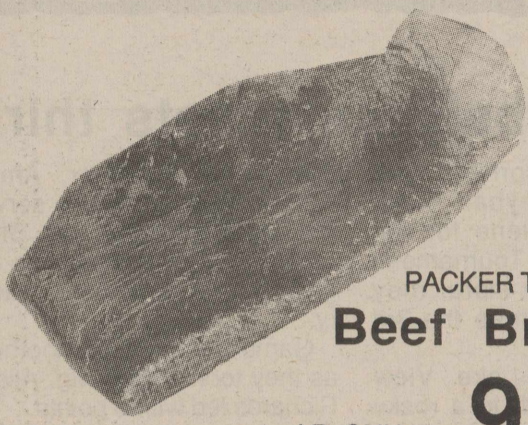

Margaret Martin is his grandmother. His father is Larry Martin of Fort Worth and Mrs. Cassie Minzenmayer of Abilene is his mother.

Volleyball team nets third at Abilene

Early Sat. morning, the Bronte JV volleyball team traveled to Abilene for the Abilene High JV Tournament. While they were there, they managed to capture the 3rd place trophy.

Bronte faced Lake View first. They got off to a rocky start and found themselves down 5-13. However, Amie Parker stepped to the serve line and changed all that. She ruled off 10 straight points to give the Horns a 15-13 victory.

Game 2 was a bit smoother as they took a 15-6 win. Alisa Richards led with 8 points.

Next came Abilene High. The Horns had several chances to win, including game point twice. The Eagles held on and took the game 14-16. The momentum in Game 2 belonged to Abilene as they won the match 15-8.

Bronte and Central squared off for 3rd place. Though it wasn't easy, the Horns won 15-11; 15-2. The JV now has a 3-1 record. All the teams they have played have been 4 or 5A teams. "I'm impressed with how they handled themselves against the bigger schools," said Coach Bozarth. "They weren't intimidated at all. I expect good things from these girls down the road."

Making the trip was: Kristie Cooper, Ree Baldwin, Amie Parker, Alisa Richards, Melissa Bivins, Susan Culp, Tina Smith, Sonja Salser, and Misty Mackey.

V'ballers travel to Big Spring

Volleyball season has officially begun. Last Tues. JV & Varsity teams traveled to Big Spring to face the Lady Steers.

The JV started off on the right foot taking a 15-6; 15-11 win. They were lead by Melissa Bivins, Kristie Cooper, Alisa Richards, Tina Smith and Ree Baldwin.

The varsity had a tougher match. After losing the 1st match 11-15 they turned around and won the second game 15-11. Jennifer Robinson served for 9 points.

Racing out to a 12-2 lead in the 3rd, the Lady Longhorns relaxed 3 pts too soon. Big Spring stormed back to defeat the Horns 15-13.

Teresa Vaughn and Darla Scott led with 5 kills each. Eboni Taylor and Angela Reyes took blocking honors with two each. Scott and Reyes also had 2 digs, while Scott and Robinson served 3 aces.

Big Spring will travel to Bronte on Sept. 5 for JV & Varsity games beginning at 5:00.

Family reunion set for Tennyson

The Brown-Green-Heygood family reunion will convene all day Sunday, Sept. 3, at the Tennyson community center. Pot Luck lunch will be served at noon. All relatives and friends of the families are urged to join them.

4-H offers opportunities

Young people with a desire to learn more about their world have the opportunity to participate in a fast-growing organization--4-H.

The 4-H program offers a variety of activities for youth who are in the third grade through 19 years of age said Jan Yanez, county 4-H program coordinator with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Young people can get involved in project groups, special interest groups or service groups that appeal to their interests.

While 4-H meetings cover a variety of subjects and activities and are held periodically, project groups work on one specific subject and last only until the project is completed.

Project subjects may include gardening, auto repair, raising and caring for an animal, safety, clothing, food & nutrition. These projects are usually directed by a volunteer leader.

Special interest groups are a vital part of the 4-H program and may deal with such subjects as drugs, dating, etiquette and ecology. These group studies help youth

Pierce named talent winner

Abigale Pierce, 3-year-old daughter of Doug and Gale Pierce of Grape Creek and granddaughter of Mr. & Mrs. Jack Raymond of Houston, was named Glamour Girl and High Point Talent Winner in the Kids of America National Competition held recently in Dallas.

Abigale represented the West Texas area after being selected as both Talent and Beauty Queen at the preliminary competition in Big Spring last fall.

More than 500 children between ages 3 and 18 from 39 states attended the national pageant.

Abigale was selected from among 57 girls ages 3 to 6.

She is sponsored by Luke Allen Photography, Fisher's Food Mart and Grape Creek Cycles.

Cases may be returned

Those colorful milk cases used by dairies to deliver milk to stores and restaurants are handy containers. They are great to store things in the garage or truck. College students love them for shelving in dormitories or apartments.

But using them or even possessing them is now illegal and can mean a big fine when convicted.

Governor Bill Clements signed legislation on June 14, which becomes effective on September 1, stating that any person who is illegally in possession of a milk case or cases shall, upon conviction, be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding $300 for each case. This fine also applies to removing the name of the dairy from the case.

However, there is a "grace Period" of 60 days...that runs to November 1...to permit those who have cases in their possession to return them WITHOUT PENALTY. That means cases may be returned to stores that sell the milk from the dairy named on the case, or to the dairy plant itself, without any fine. After November 1, legal action will be taken.

Why was this law passed? "The case loss in Texas and across the nation is tremendous", according to Glenn Brown, President of the Dairy Products Institute of Texas. The State of Texas had a loss last year amounting to over 7 million dollars. This not only affects the dairies but ultimately raises the price of milk to consumers. The industry regrets that this action had to be taken", said the dairy spokesman, "but the costs are prohibitive and keep increasing year after year."

The same legislation also provides an identical penalty for the illegal use of grocery shopping carts, bread trays, laundry carts and egg baskets. These industries also lose large numbers of this expensive equipment which is also reflected in prices to the consumer. The 60 day grace period also applies to the return of these items.

"College students are big violators," the dairy spokesman added, "as they use them for shelves and supports in their dormitories and apartments. People who drive trucks for business or pleasure keep supplies in these cases. They are also seen at marinas, open air markets and in countless other locations. In the past, cases have not only been used but also sold at flea markets. These will be checked after the grace period and punitive action will be taken."

Senior class elects officers

The Senior Class of 1990 from Robert Lee High School elected class officers, favorites and sponsors on August 28. The class chose as sponsors Ms. Susan Blasingame, Mr. Graham Bullard, and as co-sponsors, Mr. & Mrs. Bill Ballew. The class then elected officers as follows: Pres. - Karla Aldridge; Vice Pres. - Theopa Rodriguez; Sec. - Jason Wink; Tres. - Lisa Sanchez.

The class then elected favorites which are Rachel Lopez and Jason Wink.

The group set $25 dollars dues for each semester. The meeting ended by deciding to have a dessert booth at the Labor Day Extravaganza which is being held at the Robert Lee Park on Sat., Sept. 2, beginning at 4:00 p.m.

Jr. High elects cheerleaders

Robert Lee Junior High students elected cheerleaders on Tuesday for the 1988-89 school year. The squad includes Elaine Gibbs, 8th grade, head cheerleader, Kim Carver and Kristy White, also 8th graders, Robbye Millican and Laura Chesshir, both 7th graders.

Book presented to school

The Robert Lee Elementary School, Grade 6, was presented a gift book entitled The Way To Go. Sponsoring the book were the Cracker Barrel Restaurant, Robert Lee State Bank, Hillside Grocery & Marine, and The Flower Sak. Civic-minded leaders in communities throughout the nation are participating in this Program.

The Way To Go, handsomely bound and illustrated in full-color is a collection of eight short stories. Written to appeal to young people in today's world, the stories reinforce traditional moral values. For instance, one of the stories emphasizes the importance of being a responsible person; another shows how highly honesty should be valued; another focuses on the danger of drugs and alcohol.

The Program is described as being a response to a growing concern felt by parents and others throughout the nation. Too often, it is maintained, young people are the innocent victims of harmful influences that undermine the sound values parents are trying to teach their children in the home. National statistics on drug and alcohol related accidents involving teenagers, on missing children, teenage pregnancies, teenage suicides, are cause for alarm. The great majority of parents do not have these problems. Nonetheless, they worry about them: peer pressure is a strong influence on young people.

The response of the local sponsors of this Program, when asked why they are participating in it, can be summed up as follows: "This community means a lot to me. Our young people are our most precious resource. They are our future. This Program is good for our young people, their parents, and our community."

Planned Parenthood

Planned Parenthood of West Texas, Inc. will provide confidential AIDS testing and counseling in San Angelo on the following dates and times: San Angelo Clinic, 2619 Sherwood Way, 944-1909, Thursday, September 21, 8:00 a.m. -- 12 noon.

NOTICE OF EFFECTIVE TAX RATE

This notice concerns the 1989 property tax rate for Robert Lee I.S.D. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the taxing unit used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the taxing unit can set before taxpayers can start tax rollback procedures. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.

Last year's tax rate:
Last year's operating taxes	$ 863,874
+ Last year's debt taxes	$ 0
= Last year's total taxes	$ 863,874
÷ Last year's tax base	$ 122,668,800
= Last year's total tax rate	$.71 /$100

This year's effective tax rate:
Last year's adjusted taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$ 859,571
÷ This year's adjusted tax base	$ 129,304,630
= This year's effective tax rate	$.66476 /$100
× 1.03 = maximum rate unless unit publishes notices and holds hearing	$.68470 /$100

This year's rollback tax rate:
Last year's adjusted operating taxes (after subtracting taxes on lost property)	$ 859,571
÷ This year's adjusted tax base	$ 129,304,630
= This year's effective operating tax rate	$.66476 /$100
× 1.08 = this year's maximum operating rate	$.71794 /$100
+ This year's debt rate	$ 0 /$100
= This year's rollback rate	$.71794 /$100
+ Rate to recoup lost state funds	$.01495 /$100
= A. Rollback rate	$.73289 /$100
B. Rate that would result in maximum state funds	$.30757 /$100
Rollback Rate (greater of A or B)	$.73289 /$100

SCHEDULE A: Unencumbered Fund Balance

The following balance will probably be left in the unit's property tax account at the end of the fiscal year. This balance is not encumbered by a corresponding debt obligation.

General Operating Fund $248,000.

SCHEDULE B: 1989 Debt Service

Robert Lee I.S.D. does not have any long-term debt to be paid from property taxes.

This notice contains a summary of actual effective and rollback tax rate calculations. You can inspect a copy of the full calculations at the Coke County Appraisal Office, 710 Austin, St., Robert Lee, Texas.

48 years of teaching

Forty-eight years in the classroom sets record

[Editor's Note - The following story was written by the late Ulmer Bird and appeared in his journal which he and his wife, Josephine, put together in 1982.

Jessie Newton took the state teacher's examination, passed it, and began teaching in a one room school in Coke County at the age of 17 as Miss Jessie Newton, she taught from 1909 until 1920, in which year she was married to Bryan Yarbrough, who at one time had been one of her pupils. The two taught together for 24 years, until ill health forced his retirement and brought his death. All together she taught 48 years.

Her first school was Valley View, the year was 1909-10, and she started teaching the day after her 17th birthday. The year before, when she was sixteen, Jessie had graduated from the Robert Lee High School and attended the "Summer Normal", a school especially to prepare prospective teachers for the examination and for teaching.

The young teacher for her first year's work, received a total of $240, $40 per month for a six month school. But she paid a total of $50 for the six month's room and board, good country food. She boarded with the Bob Houston family. There were seven or eight people in a four room house.

John Stroud, the principal, occupied one room. Jessie, with two daughters of the family, Ruby and Jewel, another. Mr. and Mrs. Houston, another. The fourth room was for cooking and eating and living. The house was the usual pioneer type-built of 1' x 12' "boxing" plank, the crack between covered by strips of lumber about three to four inches wide, hence the name, "box and strips". There was a porch on the back.

The two teachers and the family never thought about being under-privileged. They kept a state of merriment and happiness going, played pranks on each other. Following the year at Graham Valley, Mrs. Yarbrough taught at Paint Creek and continued yearly going to college during the summer, graduating from San Marcos. After her graduation, schools for the year had about all been taken, but she was employed to teach at Iolanthe, with 12 pupils, just over in Sterling County west of the Cedar Hill community which now is ranch land west of the gas plant.

"From the Texas Natural plant up on the hill I suspect you could look over and see where Iolanthe was. I walked 2 or 2 1/2 miles to school, and I remember the weeds were pretty heavy on that. I boarded with some people named Boswell, and Mr. Boswell cut a trail for us to walk through the broom weeds."

We are quoting now from a taped conversation in the Ulmer Bird home Sunday, August 6, 1978. I asked at this point, "Had you ever given thought to getting a bicycle?"

"No, I didn't have a bicycle. That's one thing that brings to mind my youth because I don't suppose there ever was a person -- especially a girl, who grew up that wanted a bicycle any worse than Jessie did. I'm telling you, I wanted a bicycle; but I couldn't have one, so I just never did learn to ride one.

"After that, I thought, 'Well, I'm just going to ride one, and after that maybe I'll still get one'. When I was teaching at Lowake, I went out on a picnic with a family that lived there. The mother in that family was riding a bicycle. She got her clothing somehow hung, got dumped, and broke her leg, and after that I lost my enthusiasm, and was just plain afraid to try it.

"As I remember, the 12 students at Iolanthe were in about four or five different grades. That was especially easily handled. But in a one-teacher school you have 20-25 pupils and have all the grades - have to get them all in - you don't have but about 10 minutes for each class.

Mrs. Yarbrough and I discussed in this taped one-hour interview the one teacher school in which education started in Coke County and the rest of the frontier. The citizens did not wait for counties to be formed and bonds to be issued, but as soon as there were a few families settled down, they pitched in together and built a school, often donating their time and raising the money among them. The school house was also a community meeting place and nobody raised a fuss if hymns were sung and the gospel preached in the same building.

Jessie Newton Yarbrough in her record-setting career of 48 years in the school room bridged two eras from the hand made, citizen-enterprise community-built one-room school to the modern school systems, presiding as teacher, principal, and sometimes care taker of these schools at Valley View, Paint Creek, Graham Valley in Coke, Iolanthe in Sterling, and, with her husband, teacher at Lowake in Concho County, then in the Robert Lee, Amarillo, and Lakeview systems, retiring from Lakeview in 1957.

Tandy receives Sul Ross degree

Sul Ross State University conferred degrees and certificates on 161 summer graduates during commencement exercises Aug. 17. Dr. Felix D. Almaraz Jr., history professor at the University of Texas-San Antonio, was the keynote speaker.

Among those receiving degrees was Sara Tandy of Bronte who received a bachelor of arts.

Bryan hosts first fall UMW meeting

United Methodist Women of Robert Lee held their first fall meeting of the 1989-1990 season in the Wilson Bryan home on Wednesday, Aug. 23. Fourteen members and two visitors attended.

The annual kick-off salad supper was served from the dining room table and taken outside to be consumed in the delightful surroundings of Wilson's back yard. The group enjoyed the wide variety of salads brought by each member, and recipes were enthusiastically exchanged.

President Lois Dunklin called the group to order for a short business meeting, then a thought-provoking program on "The Poor of America" was presented by Dell Parker assisted by Laura Herford and Alice Beaty.

A lively discussion of state and local programs followed. The group made tentative plans to assist in an "awareness program" for adults and youth related to drug and recreation problems in our area.

Lucile Bryan's co-hostesses were Emma Lee Bickley and Laura Herford. Others attending not mentioned here were Vivian Jacobs, Fay Roe, Joyce Rives, Willie Gatlin, Irene Newell, Nina Brewer, Pauline Vaughan, Pam Kilpatrick, and visitors, Floy Sawyer of Robert Lee and Neleta Campbell of Tyler.

HEALTH NEWS
ORAL CANCER SELF-EXAM CAN SAVE YOUR LIFE

HERE'S HOW

To help detect oral cancer before it spreads, the following self-examination should be performed monthly.

First, remove any dentures or artificial prosthesis. Using a bright light and mirror:

- look at and feel the inside and outside of your lips, your gums and the roof of your mouth
- pull out your tongue; while holding it with your thumb and forefinger, check all surfaces
- examine the floor of your mouth and the underside of your tongue by touching the tip of your tongue to the roof of your mouth
- feel both sides of your neck and under your jaw for lumps or swollen areas

If you find anything unusual, such as sores or lumps, consult an oral surgeon or your physician immediately.

FREE BROCHURE

For a free brochure on oral cancer and the self-examination, contact an oral surgeon in your area or the American Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons, 9700 W. Bryn Mawr Ave., Rosemont, IL 60018, or call 1-800-843-4422.

One in two people diagnosed with oral cancer dies within five years. Many of these deaths can be prevented by detecting the disease early through the use of a self-examination according to the American Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons.

Most oral cancer is not diagnosed until it is in advanced stages because the initial symptoms, though visible, are not painful. A monthly self-examination can reveal a possible problem. When detected early, nine out of 10 victims survive.

WARNING SIGNS

Warning signs that can indicate a problem include:

- chronic sore throat or hoarse voice
- difficulty chewing or swallowing
- a feeling of burning or numbness in the mouth
- lumps or a thickening of tissue in the neck, face or mouth
- reddish or whitish patches inside the mouth or sores that fail to heal or bleed easily

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON TAX INCREASE

The (Robert Lee I.S.D.) will hold a public hearing on a proposal to increase total tax revenues from properties on the tax roll in (1988) by (.9,814) percent. Your individual taxes may increase at a greater or lesser rate, or even decrease, depending on the change in the taxable value of your property in relation to the change in taxable value of all other property.

The public hearing will be held on (Sept. 7, 1989) at (Robert Lee School) 7:30 p.m. Board Room

FOR the proposal: Ray Aldridge, Mary Grim, Riley Waldrop, Bill Burns, Butch Davis, Caylon Pitcock
AGAINST the proposal: NONE
PRESENT and not voting: NONE
ABSENT: Jim Clendennen

The statement above shows the percentage increase the proposed rate represents over the (effective) tax rate that the unit published on (*Sept. 1, 1989). The following table compares taxes on an average home in this taxing unit last year to taxes proposed on the average home this year. Again, your individual taxes may be higher or lower, depending on the taxable value of your property.

	Last Year	This Year
Average home value	26,000	26,000
General exemptions available (amount available on the average home, not including senior citizen's or disabled person's exemptions)	10,200	10,200
Average taxable value	15,800	15,800
Tax rate	.71	.73 (proposed)
Tax	112.18	115.34 (proposed)

Under this proposal taxes on the average home would (increase) by $ (3.16) or (2.8) percent compared with last year's taxes.

Comparing tax rates without adjusting for changes in property value, the tax rate would (increase) by $ (.02) per $100 of taxable value or (2.8) percent compared to last year's tax rate. These tax rate figures are not adjusted for changes in the taxable value of property.

FunDay set September 9

Only a few weeks remain before the top leaders of the House Democratic leadership arrive in West Texas to join Charlie and Cindy Stenholm for their annual FunDay in Stamford.

House Speaker Tom Foley, Majority Leader Richard Gephardt, Congresswoman Barbara Kennelly and Congressmen Mike Parker and Bill Sarpalius will join the Stenholms for the weekend.

Foley, of Spokane, Washington, has an active interest in agriculture issues. He was the Agriculture Committee Chairman from 1975 to 1981 and actively worked on the 1985 farm bill.

Gephardt, of St. Louis, Missouri, is a former Presidential candidate and former Democratic Caucus Chairman.

Kennelly is from Hartford, Connecticut. She serves on the House Ways and Means Committee and the Democratic Steering and Policy Committee. She supports child-care deductions and standard deductions for single-parent families.

Parker is a freshman lawmaker from Brookhaven, Mississippi. He serves on the Veteran's Affairs Committee and the Public Works and Transportation Committee.

Sarpalius is also a freshman lawmaker from Brookhaven, Mississippi. He serves on the Veteran's Affairs Committee and the Public Works and Transportation Committee.

Sarpalius is also a freshman lawmaker from Amarillo. He traded in his seat in the Texas Senate to run for Congress and currently serves on the House Agriculture Committee, and Small Business Committee.

"I am honored to have the top House Democratic leaders as well as my fellow colleagues come to our FunDay," said Stenholm. "Not only will they be sharing their friendship with us, they will also have an opportunity to meet my constituents of the 17th District. I think this helps them better understand our part of the country."

This is Stenholm's 11th year of service in the U.S. Congress.

Everyone is invited to the picnic on Saturday, September 9, 1989 at the Ericksdahl picnic grounds, east of Stamford. The food line opens at 4:30 p.m. and will be topped off with the annual treat of Comanche County watermelon.

The cost of the Saturday picnic is $10.00 a person. Those who sell or buy ten tickets ($100) will be listed as a picnic host and will also be invited to the Congressional Reception Friday evening.

Reduce risks to the heart

About half of all Americans develop some form of heart disease. The most common is atherosclerosis, a hardening of the arteries caused by a buildup of fatty deposits along the vessel lining.

When the coronary arteries, which supply blood to the heart muscle, become blocked by fatty deposits, chest pains and shortness of breath may appear. These are signs of heart disease.

For many people, however, there are no warnings, and the first sign of heart disease may be a heart attack. According to Jana Fristoe, R.N., cardiac rehabilitation nurse at Methodist Hospital, it is important to recognize and reduce risk factors before they reach this stage.

Some factors are age, sex and family history of heart disease, over which we have no control. According to Fristoe, the three most important controllable factors are: blood pressure, cholesterol level and smoking.

BLOOD PRESSURE. People with high blood pressure have a high risk of heart attacks. High blood pressure makes the heart work harder and hardens the arteries. This can be controlled by taking antihypertensive drugs, reducing salt intake and losing weight.

CHOLESTEROL. People with diets high in cholesterol and fat have more heart attacks than those whose diets are low in saturated fats. A blood cholesterol level of more than 200 mg can be lowered by cutting down on red meat and dairy fats and cooking with polyunsaturated oils.

SMOKING. More heart attack deaths are linked to cigarette smoking than any other factor. Recent studies show that low-tar, low-nicotine cigarettes do not lower the risk of heart disease. The best preventive measure against heart attacks is to stop smoking.
