County grid squads open season tonight

Bronte

Home-town boy Keith McCutchen will be at the helm of the Bronte Longhorns for the first time when they open the football season against Jim Ned at 8 p.m. at home. Assisting McCutchen will be Rocky Rawls, David Tandy, and newcomer, Kevin Burns, who was at Milsap last year.

The Longhorns share District 15-A with Eden, Menard, Miles, Santa Anna, and Rochelle.

In the absence of Head Coach McCutchen, Burns said Wednesday that the coaching staff was pleased with the Longhorns performance during their two scrimmages with Water Valley and Garden City. Nineteen players make up the Bronte unit. Burns related that the small number and the lack of depth made injuries a serious factor to the success of the program and will always be so in a Class A school.

Friday night's game promises to be a battle; Jim Ned boasts a squad small in number (20) but has super individual size. Their line averages 190 and the backs are also big.

According to Burns the team and staff are anxious to get started and they feel they have come a long way and are up to the challenge.

Robert Lee

The Robert Lee Steers will open the 1989 football season on the road Friday at 8 pm (tonight) against the Miles Bulldogs.

Head coach and athletic director Ed Poehls said his squad is enthusiastic and ready to play. "The heat has been hard on us. Our evening practice from 2:55 to 5:30 has been the hottest part of the day, over 100 degrees. We're hoping for some cooler weather by 8 p.m.," he said.

Poehls stated that Miles has a 6-4, 200 lb. quarterback, Chris Blackwell, who has been a thorn in area teams' side since he was a freshman. Now a senior, he has thrown for 3,430 career yards. His receiver, Charlie Williams, was the top receiver in Class A last year with 1,100 yards.

Thirty Steers are working out at this time, including two boys who are transfers and will play on the planned JV schedule. Coach Poehls noted he was pleased with the scrimmages the Steers have played and says they are improving all the time.

Assistant coaches in the program in addition to Poehls, are Lane Jackson, Bob Bolding, Sid McCown, and John Trice.

The Coke County 4-H Shooting Sports club sponsored a Community Service booth at the Labor Day Extravaganza. There they displayed materials used in the 4-H Shooting Sports program. The club is currently selling chances on a Ruger Model Bolt Action Rifle to be drawn for on October 20th at the Robert Lee VS Sterling City football game. Proceeds for the drawing will go toward expenses during the year. If you would like to know more about the Shooting Sports program, please contact the Extension Office at 453-2461.

"Standing room only" at Extravaganza

About three hundred folks of various ages and interests enjoyed events at the county park in Robert Lee during last Saturday's Labor Day Extravaganza, sponsored by the West Coke County Community Development. While hometown booths either exhibited for organizations, sold wares, or served food, games for children were being carried on. Spokesman for the game committee, Debbie Wilkes, related that big favorites of the kids were "Panning for Gold", "Go Fishing", and the "Balloon & Dart Throw". She said parents expressed their pleasure that events had been planned with the small children in mind.

Door prizes donated by merchants, individuals, and WCCCD were given away all afternoon and into the evening. Entertainment on the free stage in the park, ranged from the local cheerleaders, and other hometown entertainment to the well-known barbershop quartet "GOTCHA" of San Angelo. The large trees in the park provided ample shade for the usual blistering West Texas summer heat. As the sun moved, so did the leisurely crowd.

The Volunteer Fire Department served BBQ with all the trimmings for the evening meal and did a land-office business. A reported 437 tickets were sold, sending the overflow from the Rec Hall into the park with their plates, resembling an old-fashioned Labor Day community picnic.

Following a quick cleanup, SUN DOWN, a local band, played for the dance in the Rec Hall to a standing-room-only crowd. During the dance, the sponsors drew for the big prize of the day, a VCR. Cody Allison, 15, of Odessa was the lucky winner.

The success of the event led the West Coke County Community Development board to re-affirm their belief that there is still a place for such activities in small-town communities.

Audiologist set for RL seniors

Neta Schnabel, West Coke County Senior Citizens Coordinator, announced Tuesday the scheduling of an audiologist who will be at Robert Lee every other month on the second Tuesday. Beginning Tuesday, Sept. 12, Michael King will be at the Senior Citizens Building from 1-3 p.m., for hearing tests and hearing aid repair and checking. He is a representative of Professional Hearing Aid Center. For appointments or other information call 453-2314 Monday, Wednesday, or Friday from 8 A.M. until 1 P.M.

Survey reveals changes in veterans

"Almost half of all U. S. veterans have either been exposed to combat or have served in a war zone, according to a majority survey of the veteran population released by the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA)," said Dr. Stephen L. Lemons, Waco VA Regional Office Director.

Conducted for VA by the U. S. Census Bureau, the survey was designed to update data on the demographic and socioeconomic characteristics of the nation's 27 million veterans. The last such "state of the veteran" survey was conducted in 1979, according to Lemons. Since then, major changes have occurred in the veteran population, including the impact of the all-volunteer force, the "graying" of the veteran population, increasing numbers of women veterans and the changing racial mix of the veteran population.

Results of the survey, based on interviews with more than 9,000 men and women veterans during 1987, also provide information on both users and non-users of VA medical benefits programs. This information is of particular importance to the Department in planning for the future needs of veterans because VA records provide information only on those who use VA programs and services.

Other major survey findings include:

* Most veterans (64 percent) entered military service through enlistment and left the military through means other than retirement (80 percent);

* Nearly 30 percent served only in the United States;

* 79 percent are married and 77 percent are homeowners;

* 34 percent used a VA-guaranteed mortgage at some point in their lives (including their current home);

* 21 percent have used a VA hospital or other medical facility;

* 56 percent report that they have no disability or health condition that prevents them from working or that limits their work.

* 65 percent reported having some contact with VA since leaving military service.

"VA is responsible for providing medical care; compensation and pension payments; home loan guarantees; and educational, burial and insurance benefits to eligible veterans and their families," Lemons said. "Almost one-third of the nation's population -- approximately 80 million persons who are veterans, dependents and survivors of deceased veterans -- are potentially eligible for VA benefits and services."

Junell endorses drug education project

State Representative Robert Junell has endorsed a special drug educational project sponsored by the Texas Department of Public Safety Officers Association called "Join the Move!" This statewide program encourages young people to join the fight against drug abuse. This summer, Texas school children across the state are participating in the first phase of "Join the Move!", a student artistic competition.

Representative Junell also had the opportunity to visit with Honorary Chair of the project, Alice Sessions, wife of FBI Director William Sessions, during her recent visit to the capitol on behalf of the statewide project.

The meeting gave both the opportunity to discuss the challenges of drug education in our schools. Mrs. Sessions stressed that drug education efforts are having an impact, citing a recently released survey by the National Institute on Drug Abuse reporting that cocaine use by high school seniors decreased significantly between 1978 and 1988. "We are getting the message out that Texans simply will not tolerate drug abuse in our state. That is why it is important for young people to take a stand, to say we will not allow drugs to rule our schools or our communities."

If you would like more information about the project, write DPSOA at P. O. Box 4998, Austin, TX 78765.

nesting sites for songbirds," John Rosenow, the Foundation's executive director, said.

The trees will be shipped postpaid at the right time for planting between October 15 and December 10 with enclosed planting instructions. The six to twelve inch trees are guaranteed to grow or they will be replaced free of charge.

To become a member of the Foundation and to receive the free trees, send $10 membership contribution to TEN TREES, National Arbor Day Foundation, 100 Arbor Avenue, Nebraska City, NE 68410, by September 30, 1989.

Library gets "new look"

We are all excited with the "new look" in the library this year. The new paint job was most welcome and is appreciated by all of us--students and faculty. The administration and the Board of Trustees made this "new look" possible.

We have many exciting books for reading and our students are already well started on their reading projects for this year. Our English students participate in this reading program each year. Our science department also has a reading program that supplements their regular classwork.

We have recently updated our science section (500-600) and have made numerous additions to our Reference Section. Two new maps of Texas were framed over the summer and are now hanging in the library. One of these maps deals with the Texas Sesquicentennial History and the other map deals with the Natural Heritage of Texas and endangered species of Texas. Both maps make an educational and interesting contribution.

We invite you parents and friends of the community to visit us and see the library.

Signals warn of cancer

Dr. Frankel, Director of the Division of Hematology/Oncology in the Department of Pediatrics at Scott and White Memorial Hospital and Clinic in Temple, notes that "since Texas is one of the leading centers in the United States for research into and treatment of childhood cancer, the most important thing for people to understand is that the majority of childhood cancers are curable."

"Parents and others who care for children should not ignore signs of poor health in their children out of fear of detection of cancer," urged Dr. Frankel.

The American Cancer Society has issued the following eight warning signs of childhood cancer:

1. Continued, unexplained weight loss

2. Headaches with vomiting in the morning
3. Increased swelling or persistent pain in bones and joints
4. Lump or mass in the abdomen, neck or elsewhere
5. Development of a whitish appearance in the pupil of the eye
6. Recurrent fevers not due to infections
7. Excessive bruising or bleeding
8. Noticeable paleness or prolonged tiredness

Hwy construction

The contractor has set barricades and begun work on the Oak Creek Bridge on State Highway 70 north of Bronte.

J. H. Strain & Sons, Inc., of Tye, Texas is contractor on the project. Thomas C. (Carl) Atchison, P. E., is Resident Engineer in charge of the project for the State Department of Highways and Public Transportation.

This project will widen and upgrade the bridge and approaches to current design standards, providing two 12-foot travel lanes and 8-foot paved shoulders. At the same time, the bridge deck will be replaced, and repairs will be made to both the substructure and superstructure of the bridge.

Estimated cost of the project is $1,236,000, and expected completion date is late summer 1990.

During the next month to six weeks, there will be times when one lane of traffic is closed for short periods of time. Flagmen will be utilized to direct traffic.

When work begins on removing and replacing the bridge, in about six weeks, traffic will be limited to one-way. Traffic signals will be in operation at each end of the bridge to facilitate the movement of traffic. These signals will be operated 24 hours a day.

Motorists are urged to slow down, drive with care, and watch for men and equipment in the construction area.

Band leaps into season

The Bronte Longhorn band has leaped into marching season with flying colors!

Band students showed their interest and dedication to the band earlier this month by attending "one-a-days." Here, they got an early start on new music and it gave the incoming eighth-graders a chance to see how the High School Band operates. The students are doing great and are excited about starting the season in their new uniforms.

To start out the year, the band held their officer elections. The results are as follows: President: Brian Arrott, Vice President: Eboni Taylor; Sec./Treas.: Kristie Cooper, Librarian: Lee Sonnenberg.

The class representatives are: 12th: Gary Blair, 11th: Billy Magness, 10th: Luke Robbins, 9th: Amy Allen, 8th: Jay Parker.

Children Can Be Taught To Behave in Public

Parents who are embarrassed by their young child's behavior in public have obviously not done their homework.

Because children are not born socialized or to mind in public, they have to be taught social rules at home.

Threats to go to the car or to go home, pinching or kicking a child under the table or to ignore a disruptive, attention seeking child reflect the parents' inability to take charge of the situation.

Most parents have been or will be embarrassed in public at some time by a child's behavior. Specialists suggest several steps to minimize these occurrences.

Plan public times or expeditions to take advantage of "up time" for the child. Avoid taking a hungry, sleepy or tired child anywhere but home to his or her bed.

In a restaurant, make sure young children have something to eat immediately, such as crackers. Too much snacking, however, can ruin his meal. Practice good table manners everyday at home. Prior to going out, tell the child what to expect and exactly what you expect of him.

Specialists also suggest making common sense rules, such as young children should sit in shopping carts or in strollers, children should walk with the parent and never run, everybody should hold hands when in traffic areas, children should practice keeping their feet on the floor and their hands to themselves, especially in stores with breakable items.

Parents should accentuate the positive. Tell children you know they will try to be good. Let them know you'll remind them gently if they forget. A quiet whisper will do more good than all the threats in the world.

Controlling one's behavior is tough, especially if you haven't had many years to practice. Promise the child a reward for helping you and everyone else have a pleasant time.

When a child needs correcting, take him aside--leave. Throwing a fit is a historical, worldwide event known best by children. Removing him from his audience removes his support of power, and parents can take charge again. Parents are responsible for their young child's behavior.

Some children make parents' jobs easier than others. Taking children anywhere involves constant thought and attention. If you don't want to be bothered, you better not take children with you. It is a certainty, everybody loves a good child, but everybody notices a bad one's parents.

Personal

Visitors at various times during August and September in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Herford of Robert Lee were their sons and their families, Ernest and Charlotte Herford, Stacy and Lauren of Snyder, and Charlie of Sulphur Springs, and Charlotte's nephew, Doug, of Tyler, and Doug Herford, Jacob and Bree of Ventura, California.

Also visiting at various times during that week were Charlotte, Stacy and Lauren, and Mrs. Herford's niece and children, Nancy McCoulskey Sinomeau, Mark and Megan of Lamesa.

Jacob and Bree flew to Dallas with their mother, LaVonda Herford, to visit her family and then the Herfords met LaVonda in Midland on her way back to California and brought the children to Robert Lee for a three week visit. Their father, Doug, came Labor Day weekend to take them home.

On Saturday, September 2, Ernest and Charlotte, Lauren, Stacy and friend, Amy, visited and the entire family enjoyed the community celebration at the park and recreation hall. Ernest and Doug especially enjoyed visiting with acquaintances from their growing-up days in Robert Lee.

Adequate lighting makes sense for... reading, working and studying.

Use the correct lighting for all your tasks by remembering these lighting tips.

- When possible, move your light source around until you eliminate any shadows or glare to make it easier on your eyes.
- Look for a light source with soft, even illumination so the brightness is balanced down, out, and up.
- When buying bulbs, remember that the lumen rating tells you the light output of the bulb. The watts are how much electricity is needed to produce the light output. And bulb life is the estimated number of hours the bulb will burn.

Fertilize Fruit Trees Now
Fertilizer now will help put your landscape fruit trees in good shape for winter.

Caution and common sense are the watchwords for this process, but many trees benefit from a boost before cold weather comes.

Make sure the tree is not actively growing as added fertilizer will promote more growth resulting in severe freeze damage.

Trees under three years old should not be fertilized now as they are the most likely to begin new growth.

On mature trees that are not actively growing, apply one cup of ammonium sulfate (21-0-0) around the dripline. The dripline is the edge of the tree's canopy and is usually the edge of the tree's root area.

For trees that look to be in poor health, two cups should be added.

Higher rates than those suggested could cause freeze damage, but the correct amount at the right time will make the trees look healthier and bloom better next spring.
