Special activities highlight Summer Fest

A Summer Fest in downtown Bronte will kick off Friday, June 21, at 9 am when booths will open for business. The two-day event is co-sponsored by the Bronte Chamber of Commerce and the Bronte Merchants Association. Booths are still available and can be reserved by contacting the City Hall at 473-3501 or Sublett's Antiques at 473-2144. The 10' X 20' spaces are $10 and located in the City block just south of the old Santa Fe Depot and on the First National Bank parking lot. The Bank parking lot spaces will be open after 3 pm Friday and all day Saturday.

A number of special activities will also take place beginning Friday evening at 7:30 pm when the Bronte Texas Theater Preservation Society opens the doors of the old Texas Theater on West Main Street to screen the 1950 Walt Disney classic film "Cinderella." Admission ticket prices are adults $3 and children under 12, $1.

Saturday morning after booths open at 9 am, a Pet Parade will leave the Highway Garage area at 10 am parading up West Main Street to the Gazebo where ribbons will be awarded. Entrants in the parade should check with Susan Arrott or Shirley Denton, Chairmen of the event.

A Magic Show will follow the pet awards with Magician Dick Halstead on stage at the Gazebo. Acts of mystery will hold the audience in awe.

At 11 am, the second screening of "Cinderella" will be in the Texas Theater. A final showing will begin at 2:30 pm. Enjoy the feeling of returning to the popular 1950's time of "going to the picture show."

The Bronte First Sunday Singers will perform at 2 pm at the Gazebo.

Food booths will be located in several areas downtown. These will be sponsored by local clubs and organizations only. The Sorosis Study Club will sell three kinds of sandwiches and large pickles. The Eastern Star Chapter will have brownies, cookies, and drinks for sale. The two groups will be located on the portico of the Santa Fe Depot.

Bronte School Cheerleaders will host a hot dog and Coke refreshment stand. The local FFA chapter will be selling sausage-on-a-stick and lemonade from a booth located in front of Joni-Lyn Factory Outlet on Hwy 277 north.

The Bronte Evening Lions Club will have a booth promoting their Flag program.

Other activities going on continuously on the Gazebo/Depot grounds will be a "Petting Zoo" sponsored by the FFA club, and "Pony Rides" sponsored by the Coke County Rodeo Association.

Also on the agenda are plans for a "Dunkin Booth." Certain "special persons" will climb on the hot seat giving everyone a chance to cool them off.

On Saturday, there will be a Seniors Tournament at the Singing Winds Golf Course. The 18 Hole tourney will have three categories: 50-59; 60-69; and over 70. For more information, contact the Singing Winds Golf Shop at 473-2013.

Most businesses will have sidewalk or in-store sales during Summer Fest. Make plans to either manage a booth with Arts and Crafts or Flea Market items, or just come and enjoy the day by taking part in all the activities in Bronte June 21 & 22.

Rainfall totals revealed

Three separate big rains plus isolated thunderstorms this month has left from 5 inches in West Coke County to generally 7 inches in Robert Lee, and as much as 10-11 inches in guages on the east portion of the county.

Although strong, whirling winds brought down trees and caused some anxious sky-watching Wednesday and Thursday of last week, the area escaped extensive damage. Although a number of tornadoes were spotted and large hail fell to the north, the local region dodged the bullet.

Robert Lee's Mountain Creek Lake gained about 4 feet of water and according to a spokesman at city hall, plans are to use from the reservoir rather than Spence if possible.

Big rains upriver from Lake Spence, including a 3 1/2 inch gully-washer Wednesday night of last week at Silver reportedly brought a 4-foot gain.

More possible thunderstorms are in the forecast and would be welcomed. For all the obvious benefits, the rain was a life-saver and interrupted a headstart on a drought after a very dry spring.

Pageant rehearsals begin

Practice has begun for the cast of "Ole Coke County - Home of the Rabbit Twisters." The colorful historic pageant will be presented in Robert Lee's Mountain Creek Amphitheatre July 19 & 20 and July 26 & 27 for its 15th annual run.

Community residents are especially encouraged to support this ongoing tradition as a projection of county history and a vehicle to draw visitors to Robert Lee and Bronte. Ticket sales, donations, and memberships in the Coke County Pageant Association must bear the burden of equipment, upkeep, and repairs. The association continues to operate on a shoestring budget. If you would like to see the pageant continue as a yearly event, buy a membership in the county's history. Single memberships are $5; family memberships are $10; sustaining memberships are $100; honorary dues are $250; and a life membership is $500.

SW Sr. Tourney

There will be a Seniors Championship 18 Hole Individual Golf Tournament at the Singing Winds Golf Course in Bronte June 22nd. Tee time is 8:30 am with a $15 entry fee. Category divisions are as follows: ages 50-59; ages 60-69; and 70 and over.

Festival activities slated

Plans for events on Saturday, July 20, termed the Rabbit Twister Festival, continue to build in Robert Lee. The idea of the fun day was

Sterling County centennial slated

Sterling County is celebrating its 100th Birthday, the weekend of June 21-23, 1991, in Sterling City. The Sterling County Historical Society, Inc., a non-profit organization, will sponsor the three-day event. Fund-raising items include: ceramic mugs, t-shirts and golf caps with the red and blue logo, miniature County flags, a limited edition commemorative plate featuring an oil painting of the old railroad depot, and a drawing for an original oil painting.

The schedule of events will include on Friday: a golf tournament, kids' playday events, various historical, art and family displays and exhibits, a barbeque meal in the park, entertainment featuring cowboy poets, Dennis Gaines of Spur and Clay Lindley of Sierra Blanca and a beard-growing contest. A mock saloon will provide information, refreshments, souvenirs and entertainment during the weekend.

On Saturday, a parade will proceed through downtown and conclude with speakers on the courthouse lawn. Arts and crafts booths, food booths and children's activities will proceed into the afternoon. A musical production will be in the O.T. Jones Auditorium and will feature a wide variety of entertainment. Among the entertainers will be the Uvalde Indian Dancers, a Spanish dancer, Angela Sedeno; fiddler, Julie Carpenter; Marla Zurek's dancing classes, cloggers and Jubilee singers. A drawing for an original oil painting will be held after the program. Saturday evening's highlights include homecooked barbeque and a dance featuring the group "Borderline". Sunday will feature an all community worship service and a box lunch in the park with special music.

This Centennial year promises to be an exciting year in Sterling County history and the beginning of the next one hundred years near the banks of the Concho River.

spawned by a committee formed as an offshoot of West Coke County Community Development. They pledged to assist the "Ole Coke County - Home of the Rabbit Twister" pageant in any way possible to keep afloat a 15-year tradition. The pageant has a widespread "claim to fame" now since numbers have attended from all over Texas, several states, and even other countries. The outdoor drama and its dates are listed in Texas Highways and noted this month in Texas Monthly magazine. The committee's efforts project WCCCD's goal to promote the area in whatever ways it can.

The Rabbit Twister Festival will begin at 10 am in south Robert Lee with a parade, the likes of which hasn't been seen in town before. Fort Concho, the Shriners, a riding club, Goodfellow, clowns, and individuals have already promised to be on hand. If You want to join in, come on down! If You have something to sell; want to show something old you or your kin has; want to sing, dance, or entertain; or demonstrate a skill or homesteading practice of old, please call Lynn Green, 453-4626, Becky Ross, 453-2415, or Dee Anna Harmon, 453-2804.

A decision was made by the committee to raise money to buy a large commercial-type banner to go across a nearby highway, probably Hwy 208, to advertise "Ole Coke County" - one that could be put up each year well ahead of performances to advertise. A Father's Day Bake Sale on Friday, June 14, at 9 am at the Robert Lee State Bank will help fund this project. If You can help by baking, donating, or buying, please do.

Bilbos to celebrate 70th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Alley James Bilbo of Robert Lee will celebrate their 70th wedding anniversary with a family reunion this weekend at the lakeside home of their daughter and son-in-law, Jo Ann and Jarvis Littlefield. The Littlefields live north of Grove, Oklahoma, on the Grand Lake O' the Cherokees.

Alta C. Bell and Alley James Bilbo were married June 15, 1921, in Robert Lee. They have five daughters, Alta Bell Kay of Alpine, Jamie Boren of Robert Lee, Jo Ann Littlefield of Grove, Oklahoma, Janet Rathmell of Mertzon, and Peggy Gilmore (deceased) of San Angelo. They have fifteen grandchildren, twenty-five great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

Mr. and Mrs. Bilbo are both natives of Coke County and have lived here most of their lives. In the early years of their marriage, Mr. Bilbo worked at City Drug, farmed and ranched, and was a car salesman for Coke Motor Company. From 1942-1952, the Bilbos owned and operated Bilbo Drug in Robert Lee. Milkshakes, Bilbo-made ice cream, medical advice, and medicine for your stock were some of "Doc's" specialties. Alta specialized in selling beauty products, gifts, and gift-wrapping. After the drug store days, he sold insurance and she was a substitute mail clerk for twenty years at the Robert Lee Post Office. They are members of the Robert Lee United Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Bilbo live at 901 Bishop in Robert Lee. At 91, Alley still likes to talk, fish, play dominoes, and water his shrubs and pecan trees. Alta, at 89, still drives her car every day and does the shopping and housework. One of her hobbies is to bake pecan pies by the dozens for family and friends. She not only bakes the pies but gathers and shells the pecans for them. She enjoys attending Sunday School and church regularly. Alley and Alta both enjoy keeping in touch with the members of their large family.

Most of the family members will attend the reunion this weekend. Entertainment will include musical talent, water sports, and horseshoe pitching. Themes for the three nights will be Mexican Fiesta, Hillbilly Night, and Wildlife Night.

Hosts for the reunion are the Littlefields, their children, and grandchildren who all live in the Grove, Oklahoma, area.

Rifle match results told

Red Canyon Gun Club at Robert Lee hosted its second small bore silhouette rifle match this year on June 9. Small bore rifle and pistol silhouette shooting is one of the most popular shooting events sponsored by the National Rifle Association. It is more demanding, but also more rewarding because you can see the results of your shot when you hit the silhouette, it is knocked from the stand, in comparison to shooting targets, where you can not visibly see the hit on paper targets. One must shoot a total of 40 silhouettes, cut out of 10 chickens at 40 meters of 1/4 steel; 10 pigs at 60 meters; 10 turkeys at 77 meters; and 10 rams at 100 meters; all from standing (offhand) position, no supports or slings are allowed. Shooting coats are permitted. Only 22 rimfire rifles or pistols are permitted.

Richard Johnson of Robert Lee won high overall with Billy Henson of Big Spring second, and Earl Williams of Ker-ville taking third.

Robert Lee.

The next smallbore silhouette shoot will be August 11th at 1:30 pm at Red Canyon Range east of Robert Lee. Any shooter who is interested, come on out to the Range. New shooters will be given instruction on silhouette shooting.

For more shooting information, contact Richard Johnson at J & B Lumber and Hardware in Robert Lee.

State crop, livestock surveys begin

With land preparations and planting getting underway across the state, Texas producers are gearing up for another year, and one of the most important production inputs a producer can use in determining production and marketing plans is the mid-year crop and livestock reports released by the Texas Agricultural Statistics Service.

Beginning June 1, representatives from the Texas office will begin contacting farmers and ranchers across the state to help set the 1991 planted acreage estimates and mid-year livestock inventories.

"Information from these surveys will provide Texas producers with solid facts and figures they can use when making their plans for the coming year," state statistician Dennis Findley reported.

"The surveys will be very important this year because they will be the first accurate measure of the impact of participation in the 1990 government farm bill," he added.

Individual reports will be combined with other reports to set state estimates. Results of the confidential interviews, conducted by telephone or in person by field enumerators, will be published later this summer. The 1991 acreage estimates will be released June 27, while the mid-year cattle inventory will be released July 29.

"These surveys are important production tools and good, overall participation will give producers an accurate view of where Texas agriculture stands.

"Following several years of near drought-like conditions in the central and southern portions of the state and severe flooding in East Texas last spring, some producers need all the help and information they can get," Findley noted.

Academic honors awarded

The United States Achievement Academy announced today that Laura Thomas has been named an All-American Scholar.

The USAA has established the All-American Scholar Award Program in order to offer deserved recognition to superior students who excel in the Academic disciplines. The All-American Scholars must earn a 3.3 or better grade point average. Only Scholars selected by a school instructor, counselor, or other qualified sponsor are accepted. These scholars are also eligible for other awards given by the USAA.

Laura, who attends Bronte School, was nominated for this National Award by Jerita

Taylor.

Laura will appear in the All-American Scholar Directory, which is published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in American history. Certainly, winners of the All-American Scholar Awards should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stevens, Executive Director of the United States Achievement Academy.

Laura is the daughter of Danny and Roenna Thomas of Bronte and the granddaughter of Leon and Zenita Gardner of Sylvester, Texas, and Mary Wilkins of Odessa.

Dieters Beware

The old saying you can never be "too thin or too rich" makes many people laugh, but improper dieting can lead to serious complications and the long-term effects can be life threatening. The belief that thinness is somehow healthy — let alone required for acceptance by others — is both peculiar and dangerous.

Americans are notorious dieters, primarily due to the notion that "thin is in" as portrayed in print advertising, on television and in motion pictures. Many try fad diets and fasting as ways to achieve this "ideal" image. Fad diets and fasting may be good ways to lose weight quickly, but they also are good ways to lose other things... like calcium from your bones. Most diets are extremely low in calcium and, of course, if dieters are fasting they get no calcium at all. Improper dieting over a long period can mean a decrease in the amount of calcium to the body and a deterioration of the bone structure.

According to the Food and Nutrition Board of the National Academy of Sciences, it is difficult to get most of the vitamins and nutrients the body needs, including calcium, on a diet of 1,800 to 2,000 calories. Many popular fad diets call for 1,200 calories or less. Dieters tend to avoid the richest source of dietary calcium, dairy products, because of the perception that they are "fattening."

A study published in the Journal of the American Dietetic Association evaluated 15 popular well-known diets. The study showed that the nutrients most often below recommended levels included thiamine, B-6, vitamin B-12, iron, zinc, magnesium and calcium. In further review of calcium the study found that, out of 15 diets, only four of them met the RDA of 800 mg.

Another report printed in the American Journal for Clinical Nutrition studied ten obese adolescents on a protein-sparing modified fasting diet (PSMF). In this group of PSMF dieters, the calcium intake declined significantly by 53 percent. This drop was due mostly to the decreased consumption of dairy products, which most dieters remove from their weight loss program. The report went on to say that a calcium supplement should be included in the diet to ensure an adequate intake. The study concluded that "... calcium intake should be increased to ensure sufficient dietary calcium for maintenance and adolescent growth."

If you want to lose weight, the best advice is to consult your doctor, eat sensibly and begin a proper exercise program. Here are some precautions and tips that will help to ensure proper nutrition while dieting:

- Eat nutritionally balanced meals.
- Choose lean meat, fish, poultry and dry beans and peas as protein sources.
- Limit your use of fats and oils.
- Choose foods that are nutrient packed.
- Maintain a proper calcium balance. If dairy foods such as milk, ice cream and cheese are being eliminated from the diet, make sure you maintain between 800 and 1,000 mg of calcium daily. A calcium supplement, one that is scientifically proven to dissolve and be absorbed by the body, such as Os-Cal® 500, twice a day will help to ensure a proper balance.
- Exercise. Dieters can add calories to their diet and burn them off with exercise. Exercise will make it easier to meet nutritional requirements and even speed up weight loss. One hour of good exercise burns 300 calories and stimulates the body's metabolism to burn off even more calories when resting.

Always remember to consult a physician or dietician before beginning any weight-loss or exercise program. By using a little common sense and sticking to a proper nutritional program, dieters can keep from taking a ride on the too familiar diet "roller coaster."

For a free booklet on calcium and osteoporosis, send a written request to: Calcium Nutrition, P.O. Box 32080, Kansas City, MO 64111.

Dear Editor,

I am Mrs. Nettie Lee Coalson. I want to correct one of the errors in the write-up.

Dear Editor,

By now, I am sure you are aware that despite Congress' promises to use the new tax revenue to reduce the federal deficit they did the exact opposite.

That's right, Congress enacted the second largest tax increase ever and rather than reduce the deficit, they increased spending $111 billion (and that doesn't include the Gulf War costs) and pushed the FY 1991 deficit to an all-time record of $320 billion.

But if you're saying to yourself, "I remember hearing Congressional leaders promise that the new budget would mean a $500 billion spending reduction in the years ahead. How can they say that?"

Let me explain. Only in Congress can you promise a $500 billion savings at the same time you increase actual spending by $111 billion. Here's how it works:

When Congress talks about spending cuts, they are not talking about cutting actual spending, but reducing projected increases. If Congress just reduces the amount of increased spending, they call that a spending cut -- even though actual spending is still increasing.

Confused? Let me give you a simplified example. Let's suppose Congress today is spending $1 on a program and they have budgeted to spend $2 on the same program next year. However, if they spend $1.75 next year, they will call that a spending cut of $0.25 -- even though they actually increased spending by $0.75.

When Congress promised to save $500 billion in the years ahead, this was not an actual cut of $500 billion, it was a reduction in their "pie-in-the-sky" budget for the future. Even with their supposed $500 billion cut, actual spending will still skyrocket.

THE PROMISE OF DEFICIT REDUCTION WAS NOTHING

MORE THAN A MYTH. Congress just wanted more taxes for more spending. And they would promise anything just to get more of our income.

Congress is bankrupting America. Because of Congress' non-stop deficit spending, the interest payments on the national debt exceed a whopping $256 billion annually. These interest payments on the ballooning national debt are already more than all the individual income taxes paid by everyone who lives west of the Mississippi River. We are rapidly approaching the day when we won't be able to make the interest payment on our debt. I'm sure you understand what happens if you can't make the interest payment on your debts.

I urge you to tell the American people the real story -- that deficit spending is increasing, not decreasing as Congress promised. And tell them that the deficit represents a very grave threat to our future.

Sincerely,
Billy B. Barfield

Tumbleweed set for C. City stage

The Colorado City Playhouse will showcase the premier of "Texas Stories," a one-man stage presentation by Tumbleweed Smith at the historic Opera House located at 337 Walnut Street in Colorado City.

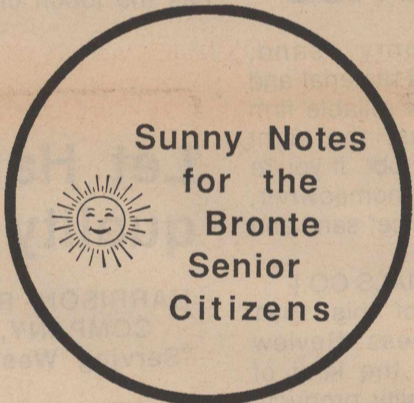

The production, directed by Tim Haynes, features Tumbleweed commenting on Texas life and playing tape recorded segments of Texans relating humorous first person experiences.

Tumbleweed has a vast resource of Texas voices on tape. He has been interviewing residents of the Lone Star State since 1969 when he started his daily syndicated radio show, "The Sound of Texas." In that period of time, he has gathered the largest private collection of oral history in the U. S.

Tumbleweed, a recognized storyteller, has met the people who make Texas the most unique state in America. He takes the time to travel small back country roads and visit with the wonderful characters who live there.

"Texas Stories" opens a four performance run on Thursday, June 20th, and will conclude with a matinee performance at 2 pm on Sunday, June 23rd. Curtain time June 20-22 is 8 pm when a recorded pre-show broadcast begins.

For tickets to this season's premier performance of "Texas Stories" by Tumbleweed Smith, call the Colorado City Opera House box office at 915/728-3491. The box offices opens on Monday, June 17th. Persian Gulf vet benefit increases told President Bush signed a comprehensive benefits package April 6 providing or expanding a variety of benefits administered by the Department of Veterans Affairs for Persian Gulf War veterans.

The legislation formally defines the conflict in the Persian Gulf as a period of war for benefits purposes, beginning August 2, 1990, and ending by Presidential proclamation or by law.

The bill expands eligibility for VA readjustment counseling for Persian Gulf War veterans, as well as veterans who served during other periods of armed hostilities following the Vietnam War, such as Lebanon, Grenada, and Panama. VA's Readjustment Counseling Service, which operates a national network of 195 Vet Centers was originally established to provide counseling and outreach services to Vietnam veterans and family members.

Other highlights of the benefits package:

- Montgomery GI Bill-Active Duty basic education rates are increased from $300 and $250 per month to $350 and $275 per month, beginning October 1991 through September 1993.

- Rates for full-time training under the Montgomery GI Bill-Selected Reserve are increased from $140 to $170 per month, beginning October 1991 through September 1993.

- Eligibility for VA-guaranteed home loans is extended to each veteran who served during the Persian Gulf War for 90 days or more (previously 181 days or more), even if they did not serve in the combat area.

- Eligibility for VA pension programs is extended for Persian Gulf War veterans and their survivors.

- Persian Gulf War veterans who develop an active psychosis within two years of discharge will be presumed to have incurred this disability during active duty (for health-care purposes).

- Dental benefits are authorized for veterans who served on active duty for 90 days (previously 180 days) during the Persian Gulf War.

- Maximum Servicemen's and Veterans' Group Life Insurance coverage is increased from $50,000 to $100,000.

For more information on VA benefits, veterans and family members are urged to contact the VA Regional Office in Waco at 1-800-827-2012. Information can also be obtained from Carl Knappe, Veterans Counselor for the Texas Veterans Commission. His office is located at the Big Spring VA Medical Center, and the telephone number is 915-264-4819.

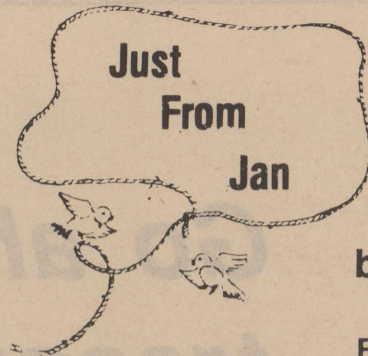

Social Security

Married women who are self-employed need to check their Social Security records to verify that all their earnings are credited. According to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), some married women who filed a joint tax return and were self-employed under their maiden names may not have their earnings recorded correctly.

The reporting problem identified by IRS has been corrected for current tax returns, but past years of self-employment earnings may not appear on some women's earnings statements.

To get an earnings statement, call Social Security and ask for a form SSA-7004. Complete the form and mail it in. The statement will be sent in a few weeks.

The Social Security Administration recommends that all workers send for and review their earnings statements every 3 years. Errors can usually be corrected if they are identified early.

If you are planning a cook-out, it is better to be food safe than sorry. Cooks should be advised to take food safety from the kitchen to the grill. Follow these tips to help prevent food-borne illness:

- If meat or seafood is frozen, allow plenty of time for thawing in the refrigerator at 40° or below. Never thaw meat on the kitchen counter at room temperature. Outer layers of the meat may reach a temperature that promotes bacteria growth before the inner layers are thawed.

- If you marinate food, do it in the refrigerator. Do not use leftover marinade as sauce on the cooked meat. Marinade may have picked up bacteria from the raw meat that could contaminate the cooked meat.

- Be sure to wash with hot soapy water and sanitize cutting boards used with raw meat. Use different cutting boards for meats than for raw fruits or vegetables.

- Once the meat has been placed on the grill, wash dirty dishes or utensils before using them again. Bacteria on dirty utensils can contaminate cooked meat. Cooking kills bacteria, but foods can be re-contaminated.

- Always wash your hands after working with raw meat or poultry. Handle raw foods and cooked food separately. Use clean dish towels or pot holders for handling cooked foods.

- Cook meats thoroughly to kill bacteria. If you like steak rare or medium-rare, remember that all bacteria may not have been killed if the food was not cooked thoroughly.

- After cooking, eat as soon as possible and refrigerate any leftovers.

Tips for summer snacks

When it comes to eating snacks this summer, it is just as easy for kids to reach for a frozen orange wedge as a sugary snack cake.

"Summer time often means increased activity for children, and with that increase comes the need for snacks to help meet their extra needs," said Janice Stuff, a nutritionist at the USDA Children's Nutrition Research Center in Houston.

About 20 percent of a child's calories and nutrients come from snacks. By giving some thought to snack selection, parents can provide their children with healthy choices.

"Try to avoid spur-of-the-moment purchases like soda pop, chips and candy," said Stuff, who is also a research instructor at Baylor College of Medicine.

Stuff recommends the following summer snacks:

- unsweetened fruit juices
- milk shakes made with bananas or fruit juice
- natural frozen fruit pops (purchased or homemade)
- fresh fruit
- frozen orange wedges or grapes
- low-fat yogurt
- low-salt, low-fat pretzels, whole wheat or soda crackers
- graham crackers
- bagels
- low-sugar cereals
- raw vegetables

"Encourage carbohydrate snacks, like crackers and fruit juice, when your child is very hungry because these are absorbed more rapidly and will satisfy hunger quickly," Stuff said.

The plan for providing healthy snacks includes education, convenience and some pre-planning.

"Post a list of snack choices on the refrigerator," Stuff said. "Make it easy for children and family members to find snacks by designating a special area in the refrigerator and on the counter."

Stuff encourages parents to include children in grocery list planning, to store snacks in easy-open containers and to discuss proper times for snacks.

"Children should know not to have a snack too close to a meal," Stuff said. "The best time is one to two hours before or after a meal."

Most children need three meals and possibly two snacks to meet their daily nutritional requirements.

Stenholm to study Can. health care

Congressman Charles Stenholm (D-TX) is one of 13 members of the House of Representatives who will travel to Canada on June 7, 1991, to study the Canadian health care system.

"Health care is one of the main issues facing Congress today," said Stenholm. "It is in our best interest to explore all avenues in an effort to find ways to offer affordable health care to all our citizens."

He pointed out that the number of uninsured Americans, health care costs increasing several times the rate of inflation, the complexity of Medicare paperwork, and businesses being forced to commit larger portions of employee benefits to health care are problems that need to be addressed and solved as quickly as possible.

The group will travel to Ottawa where they will meet with government officials to obtain an overview of the Canadian health system. They will have lunch with Members of Parliament and journalists who will give their views on their country's health system. The afternoon session will include hospital administrators and physicians' point-of-view.

"While there are a number of reasons I would resist our country moving towards a national health care system such as Canada has, I still think there is much we can learn from our neighbors," Stenholm said. "In at least two ways---paperwork costs and insuring all their citizens---Canada is doing a better job than the United States. I'd like to find out which ideas we might be able to borrow."

Stenholm was chosen to participate in the trip because of his involvement in health care issues, particularly as co-chairman of the 170-member Rural Health Care Coalition.

New law increases vet home, land loans

Gov. Ann Richards recently signed into law a bill which will allow the Texas Veterans Land Board (VLB) to increase the loan amounts on home and land loans made to Texas veterans.

"Texas veterans will now find it easier to purchase land and homes because this legislation brings our loan amounts more in line with today's economy," said Land Commissioner Garry Mauro, who chairs the VLB.

The new law gives the VLB authority to boost the maximum loan for home purchases to $45,000 from $20,000. Mauro anticipates the VLB will take action to increase the loan amount so that it is effective September 1.

Local ladies place third at Midland

Three Bronte ladies and a fourth from San Angelo participated in the Four Ladies Low Ball Golf Tournament held June 6 at Ranchland Hills Country Club in Midland.

Out of 33 teams, the area team consisting of Katie Campbell, Sue Caudle, Mary Morrow, all of Bronte, and Johnnie Rowoldt from San Angelo, won 3rd Low Gross in the Championship Flight with 10 under par.

Katie Campbell and Sue Caudle of Bronte were one of thirty-three teams that played in the Two Lady Select Shot Golf Tournament June 8th in Big Lake. They came away with 3rd place in the Championship Flight after being tied with Johnnie Rowoldt and Linda Faulkner of San Angelo. The Bronte ladies won on a scorecard playoff.

The new law also gives the board the authority to boost the land loan to $40,000 from $20,000. However, changes in federal tax law will be required to increase the ceiling. Mauro said he is currently working with the Texas congressional delegation to accomplish this.

He said the loan ceilings needed to be raised because veterans were finding it more and more difficult to put together financing packages under the present limits.

Mauro said boosting the home loan limit to $45,000 will "provide a financing alternative for low-to-moderate income veterans who are currently locked out of the housing market."

"It's hard to find a house in Texas for $20,000. And if you could, Wichita Falls is now the state's only known financial market where mortgage bankers will finance a home sold for under $45,000," Mauro said.

When the rural land program was initiated in 1949, the Veterans Land Board set the loan limit at $7,500. On the average that was good for the purchase of about 150 acres.

"If you apply a conservative inflation rate to that real estate value of four decades ago, the equivalent figure in today's market would be $39,000. And that representative 150-acre tract now goes for $103,000," Mauro said.

The land loan ceiling was last raised in 1979, from $15,000 to $20,000. The home loan program was created in 1983 with a $20,000 ceiling.

Currently the Texas Veterans Land Program lends eligible Texas veterans up to $20,000 at 7.99 percent interest to purchase at least five acres of land. The Texas Veterans Housing Assistance Program currently lends eligible Texas Veterans up to $20,000 at 8.5 percent interest to purchase a home. The loan can be used in conjunction with a conventional, FHA or VA loan to give Texas veterans a lower overall interest rate.

For more information on the Texas veterans programs, call the VLB toll-free at 1-800-252-VETS.

The amendment would also authorize county education districts to hold elections to exempt from ad valorem taxation not less than $3,000 of the market value of the residence homestead of a disabled person or a person sixty-five years of age or older. Finally, the amendment would authorize elections in county education districts for the taxation of certain tangible personal property exempted from ad valorem taxation by the legislature.

PROPOSITION NO. 2 ON THE BALLOT

Senate Joint Resolution 5 proposes a constitutional amendment that would allow the legislature to pass general laws authorizing Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board or its successor to issue and sell up to $300 million of general obligation bonds to finance educational loans to students. The amendment would also authorize the legislature to provide for the investment of bond proceeds and to establish an interest and sinking fund to pay the bonds and provide for the investment of such fund. Social Security

Many young people will take a summer job this year, many for the first time. If you are one of them, there are some things you should know about Social Security.

First, of course, you need a Social Security card. I imagine almost all of you have one already. But, if you do not, just contact Social Security.

While you work in 1991, a little over 7-1/2 cents is deducted from each dollar of your pay for Social Security taxes. Your employer pays a matching amount. These taxes help finance monthly retirement, survivor, and disability benefits for about 40 million Americans, as well as the hospital insurance part of Medicare for most older people as well as those with long-term disabilities or permanent kidney failure.

Someday, benefits may also be paid to you and members of your family if you have credit for enough work under Social Security. In 1991, you earn 1 Social Security credit (called a "quarter of coverage") for each $540 of your annual earnings, up to a maximum of 4 credits for the year if you annual earnings total $2,160 or more.

Personal

Dianne Pruitt of Long Beach, California, called her grandmother, Mrs. Ella Pruitt of Bronte, last Thursday afternoon at 4 pm and reported she was flying 37,000 feet in the air above Bronte on a commercial airliner enroute from Los Angeles to Toronto, Canada via Dallas.

She called again at 9:30 pm saying that she had arrived in Toronto safely.

All of your covered wages and self-employment income are recorded under your name and Social Security number on a lifetime earnings record. Your entitlement and the amount of your future benefits will depend on the accuracy of that record.

About every 3 years, you should request a Personal Earnings and Benefit Estimate Statement (PEBES) to make sure your record is correct. You can get a free PEBES request form by calling Social Security.

There are special rules that apply if you receive cash tips in your job. They must be reported in writing to your employer within 10 days after the month ends if they amount to $20 or more.

For more information about this or anything else about benefits contact Social Security.

Jameson receives Texas Tech degree

More than 1,500 students at Texas Tech University received degrees during spring 1991 commencement exercises. Keynote speaker for the general commencement ceremony was Texas Higher Education Coordinating Board Commissioner Kenneth H. Ashworth.

Degree recipients included Harold Hiram Jameson, formerly of Silver, who was awarded a Bachelor of Science degree in Petroleum Engineering. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jameson of Silver.

About $450 million worth of pickles and pickle products is made each year.

Detecting skin cancers

The American Cancer Society estimates that skin cancer will cause 8,500 deaths. More than 600,000 cases are diagnosed every year, and the most serious skin cancer, melanoma, is increasing at a rate of 4 percent per year ("Cancer Facts & Figures - 1991," American Cancer Society).

"People should avoid being outdoors between 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. because that's when the sun's ultraviolet rays are strongest. Also, protective clothing and sunscreen with a sun protection factor of at least 15 should be utilized at all times," said Doris Scales, R.N., at Methodist Hospital's Hodges Cancer Center.

Early detection is vital to survival. Some early warning signals to look for are:

- Change in size or color of a mole, especially if half the mole does not match the other half
- Darkly pigmented growth or spot
- Scaliness, oozing, bleeding or change in the appearance of a bump
- Spread of pigmentation beyond its border
- Change in sensation, itchiness or pain

Adults should practice self-examination once a month, and if they notice any suspicious lesions, promptly visit their physician. Treatments for skin cancer are highly successful if the melanoma is detected and treated early.

Birthing classes expand

The Women's Center of Methodist Hospital has expanded its services for expectant mothers, which already includes prepared childbirth classes, sibling and adult tours, access to a videotape library and weekly infant CPR classes.

Each mother who attends "Great Expectations," the hospital's early pregnancy class, will receive a journal and calendar designed especially to help chronicle the events related to her pregnancy.

The calendar is dateless. Therefore, the expectant mother can begin filling it in from the moment she discovers her pregnancy through the next nine months. There are also special pages for labor, "announcing" the new arrival and the mother's first impression of her child. Also, each calendar comes with a full page of stickers so that the mother can highlight special moments in her pregnancy.

For more information concerning the childbirth classes at Methodist Hospital, contact The Women's Center at (806)793-4333.
