Extravaganza shaping up as fun-filled festival

The Sept. 3 & 4 Labor Day Extravaganza is shaping up as a fun all-day festival for Robert Lee and surrounding communities.

Prairie Fire will play for a dance on Friday night, September 3, at the local Rec. Hall, beginning at 9 pm and closing down around 1 am.

Events in the park will begin under the shade trees at mid-morning on Saturday and continue through the day, ending with a free street dance by Shockwave with deejay Tim Wagner.

In between will be the Rabbit Twister Cookoff, arts and crafts, Sand Volleyball tourney, live entertainment, washer, domino, and horseshoe contests, children's petting zoo, and food booths.

Two other events will be going on also - it's not too late to enter the local talent show. Call Donna or Lynn Green at 453-2215 or 453-2436.

The Miss WCCCD Beauty Pageant needs entries. To enter your cutie, please call Cynthia Hill, 453-4630.

Events outside the park area include the 1st Annual Jake Jacoby ABC Golf Tournament to be held at Mountain Creek Golf Club in conjunction with the Extravaganza. Red Canyon Gun Club will sponsor a Shootoff and Red Canyon Archery Club will host an archery match.

West Coke County Community Development is the sponsor of the annual local Extravaganza. The organization encourages every one to bring a quilt or lawn chairs and spend the day relaxing under the trees in the park.

President Debbie Wilkes, 453-2819, and Chairman DeeAnna Harmon, 453-2804, can give any information needed.

Singers slated to perform

Two well-known performers will sing and entertain during the Saturday, Sept. 4 Labor Day Extravaganza at the county park.

Cindy Nix of Snyder will appear from 1-2pm. She has been involved in country music for a number of years. She sings a variety of styles from C/W to dinner music and loves it all. Her love of the art has kept her performing at rodeos, oprys, banquets, conventions, and festivals in the West Texas area for years.

Cindy has two grown sons, Royce and Ross Hataway. She has been an employee at the Scurry County Health Unit for 11 years.

Keith Longbotham, singer-songwriter-instrumentalist, will perform Saturday afternoon from 4-5 pm. A personable, unique young man, Keith knew early in life that his Christian music would be a big part of his life. Born in Plainview, he went on to graduate from Wayland University with a B. A. in Music. He entered Music Evangelism full-time in 1980 and since that time has amassed a number of awards and an outstanding reputation for gospel music. He has appeared at Opryland USA in Nashville, the Nashville Network and the Grand Ole Opry. Now a resident of Hendersonville, Tennessee, he has recorded several albums. Keith is available now for selected bookings for cruise ships, concerts, conferences, revivals, and retreats.

The Extravaganza sponsor, West Coke County Community Development, feels fortunate to be able to welcome Keith to Robert Lee. By chance, he will be here visiting his sister, Cynthia Hill, and her family.

Both performers will have tapes for sale following their performances. Don't miss these appearances.

A buffet luncheon was held in the home's dining room immediately following the wedding. Coaches enthusiastic about 1993-94

Edward Poehls, head coach and athletic director at RLHS, along with his coaching staff, Bobby Bolding, Sid McCown, Kurt White, and newcomer Jimmy Randolph, are enthusiastic about the 1993-94 athletic program. The coaches and players alike are just playing a waiting game to begin the football season. Meetings and practices began the first week of August - now they are anxious to begin.

The Steers will open at home Friday, September 3, against the Miles Bulldogs at 8 pm in a non-district tilt. Six teams make up the District 9-1A. In addition to the Steers, the division includes Roscoe, Bronte, Sterling City, Forsan, and Roby. After playing in two playoff games last year, the squad has ten returning starters - four on offense and six on defense.

Spark plug Danny Jackson, the 1992 quarterback who also was a defensive anchor, graduated. Stepping up to fill the gap will be senior Joe Blair, backed up by Aaron Hood, a sophomore. The Steers will also rely on all-district candidates John Williams, Scot Millican, Judd Pitcock, Dean Burns, Lee McCown,

RL Jr. High

The Robert Lee Junior High Cheerleaders for the 1993-94 school year were elected Friday, August 20. Those being voted in for this year's cheerleaders include: Tracy Millican - 8th Grade (Head); Bree Bolding - 8th Grade; Robin Sevier - Grade 8; Amanda Brock - 7th Grade; Holly Copeland - 7th Grade.

Anthony Wink, and Jonathan Torres, in addition to newcomers, last year's other starters, and some of the 1992 JV players.

Although Coach Poehls issued a separate Varsity and JV roster, he has said that from time to time someone could be moved up from Junior Varsity when needed, particularly in the instance of injuries.

Her husband, Roger, works for Mitchell Energy at their Silver plant. They have three children, Thomas, 29, Shelia, 25, and Matthew, 9. They attend Pecan Baptist Church.

Jimmy Randolph

Jimmy Randolph will be coaching high school girl's basketball and teaching science classes for RLHS. He graduated from ASU and has taught in Rotan and Winters. Mr. Randolph is a Texas native. He was born in Plainview. His wife, Nancy, works at Lincoln Jr. High School in San Angelo. They have two daughters.

Knuckle cracking harmless

Do not believe what your parents told you. Cracking the knuckles does not cause arthritis or enlarged joints says an orthopedic surgeon at Baylor College of Medicine in Houston.

"It is an old wives' tale. There is no evidence that popping the joint to make a noise causes harm," said Dr. Wendell Erwin, a clinical professor of orthopedic surgery at Baylor.

The cracking noise made when knuckles are strained is caused by quickly forcing lubricating liquid, called synovial fluid, from one side of the joint to the other.

"It is like motor oil in an engine. It does not go away when the knuckles are cracked; it moves around within the joint," Erwin said. "The cracking motion may also create an inert gas that pops when it escapes the joint."

Synovial fluid is the same liquid that is drained to ease the pain from what is commonly called 'water on the knee'. Excessive amounts of the fluid are produced after some injuries to help protect cartilage and tendons.

Erwin says there may be two reasons people crack their knuckles. Some people may feel they are releasing tension. But, the most likely reason is teenagers discover they can make a noise that draws attention to themselves and aggravates their parents at the same time. Then it becomes a habit they keep for life.

"I hate to shoot down a favorite argument for parents against knuckle-cracking, but they cannot tell their children it will lead to arthritis or cause big knuckles and be truthful," Erwin said.

FFA chapter officers named

by Elaine Gibbs
FFA Reporter

The Robert Lee FFA Chapter is ready to begin yet another year of plowing, rounding up cattle, and tending the crops. With pitchforks in both hands, all members are full of excitement for the upcoming year! Actually, this was just an example of a stereotype that is usually associated with FFA.

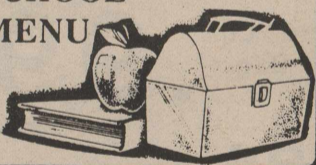

While FFA may have originally consisted of an exclusive group of future farmers, it now includes a much more expanded variety of individuals. From the present-day future farmer or rancher to future doctors or lawyers, FFA has something to offer everyone! FFA provides opportunities for an individual or a team to excel in activities like chapter conducting, public speaking, and judging contests. FFA can develop leadership potential, or it can enhance equally important characteristics in a person.

FFA Officers for the 1993-94 school year are as follows: Rachel Pentecost, President; Blake Payne, Vice President; Wendy McPeck, Secretary; Anthony Wink, Treasurer; Elaine Gibbs, Reporter; Wayne Hayes, Sentinel; and Christy Hendry, Historian. The Chapter Advisor is Mr. Jeff York.

The Chapter will have its first meeting of the year on Wednesday, September 1, at 8:00 pm in the Ag. building. Greenhand Officers and a Chapter Sweetheart will be elected at this time. All members and the public are encouraged to attend.

How Common is the Common Cold? Consider These Questions

Cough and cold season is nothing to sneeze at. Experts say colds are so common during the cooler months of the year mainly because we huddle together indoors, releasing contagious viral particles into the air as we sneeze and cough.

A cold is defined as a collection of infections that can affect the upper respiratory tract: nose, sinuses, throat and lungs, sometimes the ears as well. But, as our nasal tissue swells and no one appears clear-headed enough to create a cure for the common cold, we become all too aware of its accompanying discomforts — stuffy nose, sore throat, hacking cough, and that aching feeling.

What to do next? In our rush for quick solutions, myths abound, for example, from one generation to another. Consider these common questions from the experts at Halls® Plus, Warner-Lambert's new cough suppressant tablet with syrup in the center.

Q. How common is the common cold?

A. Adults reportedly suffer from one to six colds a year, with children averaging six a year. Under age four, boys catch more colds than girls. Annually, nine out of 10 Americans catch a cold, and colds are believed to be responsible for 23 million work days and 26 million school days lost.

Q. Why did Benjamin Franklin insist on sleeping with his window open?

A. Franklin refused to believe that getting chilled or wet would cause one to catch a cold and advocated breathing lots of fresh air for prevention. Many years later, scientific studies indicated he was on the right track. Although chilling and dampness may make an individual more susceptible to catching a cold, scientists now believe colds are caused by viruses — some 200 different kinds of tiny organisms that can be transferred from the mouth or nose of an infected person who sneezes or coughs contaminated material into the air.

Q. What is the most common way to catch a cold?

A. While traditional belief held that colds were spread mostly by coughing and sneezing, current theory is that these contagious illnesses are frequently passed on by hand as, for example, by an individual who touches a virus-contaminated object and then rubs his own eyes, nose or mouth. Thus, professionals advise handwashing to help protect against catching colds.

Q. How long do colds typically last?

A. Generally, a cold — known as an upper respiratory infection — lasts about a week, no matter what you do. Some studies say the third day is generally the most miserable. While home-grown remedies range from chicken soup to kerosene plasters applied to the chest, the main concern is often relieving the cold's accompanying symptoms, whether a sore throat, runny nose, coughing, stuffy feeling or the "blahs." Smoking is thought to worsen the discomforts of a cold. Drinking lots of fluids may make one more comfortable.

Cough drops like new Halls-Plus, the first cough suppressant tablets with syrup in the center to be introduced nationally in the U.S., are formulated to relieve the symptoms of a cold when you need to go on; that is, to fight coughs, soothe sore throats, and help nasal passages feel clearer.

Q. What is the harm in coughing?

A. On the one hand, coughing is one of the body's defenses that helps rid the lungs of harmful substances. On the other, coughing can spread germs. A hacking cough also can prevent you from sleeping through the night — or finishing a sentence in your morning business meeting.

Q. Why do we refer to our nose as "stuffy" when we have a cold?

A. Catching cold means a cold virus has invaded the cells that produce mucus. As a cold progresses, nasal tissues often swell and mucus accumulates in the nose which then feels stuffed up and runny. Mucus is the thick liquid that lubricates the nose, throat and lungs.

SSI Eligibility

"Having your name on someone else's bank account could keep you from getting Supplemental Security Income (SSI)," says Franklin H. Upp, Social Security manager in San Angelo. "If you are listed as a co-owner of a bank account, Upp says, we must count the money as yours even if your name is there merely as a convenience to the account holder."

Upp explained that people cannot get SSI if they have assets (including bank accounts) worth more than $2,000 ($3,000 for a couple).

Here's an example: Janice Jones applies for SSI. Her daughter, Stephanie, has $3,000 in a savings account. Stephanie lists Janice as a joint owner of the account -- primarily so that Janice will have access to the money in case something happens to Stephanie. Although Janice doesn't consider the account hers, Social Security does. Janice could be found ineligible for SSI because she is over the $2,000 resource limit.

If none or only some of the funds in the account belong to Janice, she can retitle the account to restrict her access to the funds or reflect a situation where Janice is acting solely on behalf of Stephanie. Janice could also remove her name from the account or move any funds belonging to her to another account.

Proper titling is also important when community, civic, or social groups collect money for a special reason, such as to assist an SSI recipient pay medical expenses. "For the money to satisfy its intended purpose," Upp says, "the donors must place restrictions on the use of the money and title the bank account in which the money is placed to show these restrictions. As long as the account title shows the money cannot be used for food, clothing, and shelter, the account is not considered a resource", Upp said.

If you would like more information on helping to set up bank accounts involving SSI recipients, contact your nearest Social Security office or call Social Security's toll-free number 1-800-772-1213 business days between 7:00 am and 7:00 pm.

WIC Offers Immunizations

Texas ranks highest among all the states in case numbers of vaccine-preventable diseases. That is a distinction which the Texas Department of Health (TDH) plans to change.

Citing as "intolerable" the fact that 14 Texas children younger than five have died from measles complications since 1988, Dr. David R. Smith, Texas Commissioner of Health, said.

"We're better at vaccinating our cattle in Texas than immunizing our children."

"Mothers already are bringing infants into our clinics for WIC benefits," explained Debra Stabeno, Chief of the Bureau of WIC Nutrition. "In the past, we've referred these children to other health care providers for their shots," she said. "Now we'll directly supply the shots. We expect to save our clients time while ensuring more kids' vaccinations. At least 400,000 children younger than 5 come through the state's WIC clinics each year."

The WIC effort is part of Commissioner Smith's "no more excuses" plan to immunize all Texas children before age 2. According to Dr. Smith, only about 30% of 2-year-olds in Texas' urban areas are fully immunized. "In addition to the preventable toll in human suffering, illness and death, the costs endured by Texas families are enormous," he said.

For more information, contact Debra Stabeno, Chief, Bureau of WIC Nutrition, at 512-458-7444 or Margaret Wilson, Public Information Director, Public Health Promotion Division, at 512-458-7405.

Elderly Falls

The phrase, "I've fallen and I can't get up," seems destined for a special place in the history of American television commercials. The fact remains, some elderly people are prone to falls and a study published in the Journal of the American Medical Association shows that about half of those who had fallen, but had not injured themselves, said they were unable to get up without help. The study suggests some elderly people may need to be taught how to safely get up from a fall.

Getting up may seem obvious, but elderly people who barely have the strength to stand, may be panicked after a fall. Dr. Mary Tinetti and her colleagues, at Yale University School of Medicine, say training in getting up may be as simple as urging a person who has fallen to crawl to a strong supporting surface and then pull oneself up. Such training may be especially important for the elderly who live alone.

Counselor's Comments

by Vicky McCutchen

As school has started here in Coke County, students are busy getting used to that new school year. Elementary students are adjusting to a new teacher, a new schedule, and a new set of expectations. The elementary years are a combination of learning school subjects that build a foundation for their future success in junior high and high school, and of building relationships with their peers. The elementary schedule is full of not only reading, writing, and arithmetic, but such activities as creative writing, computer labs, and fine arts. The nurturing environment of elementary school is an experience we all remember.

Students in junior high and high school are busy getting used to that new schedule and new teachers. Many students and parents may be wondering what that new schedule really means. In the junior high years, students are required to obtain certain units in a variety of subjects set forth by the state. These classes include English, social studies, math, science, computer literacy, physical education, and electives. In high school, the four-year plan begins. This is simply a plan for students to follow for their four years in high school according to the state guidelines for graduating. The high school transcript is a written document of the classes taken and grades obtained in that four year period. When students are seniors, colleges will be requesting a copy of this transcript to review the performance of a student in their high school year.

It looks as though school schedules are here to stay and for very good reasons. They are paving the way for each student and their future in our world of work.

(DM)—Chicken, a favorite barbecue specialty, is even better teamed with fresh, ripe plums and Kikkoman Teriyaki Baste & Glaze. In "Plum Paradise Chicken," chicken quarters are basted during the last 10 minutes of cooking with a rich sauce of pureed plums and teriyaki baste & glaze. The delicate sweetness of baste & glaze, a time-saving blend of brewed soy sauce, sugar, garlic, onion and select spices, is pleasantly accented by the fruit. Baste & glaze also has the just-right consistency to make basting easy. Be sure the coals are medium-hot, otherwise the quarters may char as they need to cook for 45 minutes. To complete the menu, serve a green salad and wedges of cool, juicy watermelon.

PLUM PARADISE CHICKEN

3-pound broiler-fryer chicken, quartered 1/2 cup Kikkoman Teriyaki Baste & Glaze
1/4 pound fresh ripe plums 1 tablespoon brown sugar, packed

Rinse chicken under cold water; pat dry with paper towels. Peel, pit and coarsely chop plums; place in blender or food processor container. Cover and process plums on low speed until smooth; blend with teriyaki baste & glaze and brown sugar and set aside. Place chicken on grill 5 to 7 inches from medium-hot coals and cook 20 minutes, turning over occasionally. Brush chicken with plum sauce and cook 10 to 15 minutes longer, or until tender, turning over and brushing frequently with remaining plum sauce. (Or, broil chicken 5 to 7 inches from heat source 15 minutes; turn over occasionally. Brush chicken with plum sauce and cook 15 minutes longer, or until tender; turn over and brush frequently with remaining plum sauce.)

Makes 4 servings.

Hunting licenses, stamps available now

Certain fishing licenses and stamps bought in August will be valid immediately upon purchase, enabling fisherman to avoid having to buy a temporary license now and another license in September. Hunting and fishing licenses for 1993-94 will be available for sale in many stores beginning the first week in August.

Licenses and stamps issued in August that are valid immediately include resident combination hunting and fishing, resident fishing, special resident fishing, non-resident fishing and the 1994 saltwater sportfishing stamp. These licenses will expire August 31, 1994, same as always.

Another change in licensing states that all non-residents under 17 are exempt from fishing license and fishing stamp requirements, said Paul Israel, license section supervisor at the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. Previously, licenses for this age group were reciprocal with other states - if they charged, we charged.

That rule remains for non-residents 65 or older. They are exempt from fishing license and fishing stamp requirements only if their state of residence offers similar exemptions to Texas residents. Israel said only Louisiana, Oklahoma and Kansas offer similar exemptions at this time.

Other changes include:

*All active duty members of the U. S. Armed Forces and their dependents are now considered residents for hunting and fishing license purposes.

*Hunting licenses valid for deer hunting have an extra white-tailed deer tag for 1993-94. This tag is valid only in the 14 South Texas counties listed on the tag.

*One of the deer tags on the 1993-94 license includes a suggestion to donate venison to Hunters for the Hungry. The tag, which is not an extra tag, is not mandatory, only a reminder to the deer hunter of his option to donate his deer.

The first shipment of licenses and stamps were mailed to stores and TPWD offices July 30. Sportsmen need to purchase their hunting and fishing licenses now, especially if they plan on enjoying the traditional September 1 opener for mourning dove season in the North and Central zones. Texas licenses expire August 31 each year.

Getting a license, along with literature on hunting and fishing regulations, is more than just routine. It helps fuel anticipation for coming seasons and imparts a feeling of stewardship for Texas' natural resources, since most license money is spent to enhance the very resources sportsmen so ardently enjoy.

Licenses and stamps will be on sale at department regional and field law enforcement offices and hundreds of other license deputies across the state, including gun stores, tackle stores and retail outlets.

The hunting and fishing guides have been printed in color for the fourth consecutive year, at no cost to the department.

Most license and stamp requirements are the same as last year. The resident combination hunting/fishing license is $25 and resident hunting and fishing licenses are $13 each. For the avid sportsman, resident lifetime licenses are available. The lifetime combination hunting/fishing license is priced at $800, the lifetime hunting license is $500 and the lifetime fishing license is $400.

A white-winged dove stamp ($7) is needed to hunt whitewings. Other hunting stamps include archery ($7), required to hunt deer or turkey during October 1-31 archery only season; Texas waterfowl ($7) and federal waterfowl ($15), required to hunt waterfowl; turkey ($5), required to hunt turkey; and a free permit to hunt sandhill cranes. Fishing stamps are needed to fish for freshwater trout ($7) and to fish in saltwater ($7). A valid Texas license is needed in addition to these stamps. Check the hunting and fishing guides for additional licenses or stamps.

Sportsmen also should remember when they go into the field that Operation Game Thief offers cash rewards to anyone whose information leads to the conviction of game and fish law violators. The 24-hour toll-free number is 1-800-792-GAME.

Low self-worth causes some people to go on spending binges

Many people who go on spending binges may suffer from hidden pain of low self-worth.

Exports on credit, cash and co-dependency observe that spending binges can be caused by trust in "thing" that people can hold on to, which they believe will never let them down. They have developed mistrust in people. People have a choice, but inanimate objects and possessions do not have a choice and stay with them until they choose to give them away.

What does money mean to you? Think back to your childhood and recall habits concerning money with which you grew up. Did you experience hoarding, collecting, saving, making gifts, buying gifts? What did possessions represent in your family? Write them down and compare them to your attitudes and behaviors regarding money today. You may discover sources of both satisfactions and dissatisfactions you are experiencing with money today.

If you're just recovering from last year's Christmas spending and starting on this year's gift buying, ask yourself why you buy gifts you cannot afford. Studies of compulsive spenders observe that spending more for gifts than you can afford may be for one or more the following reasons:

- *So the person will like you more
- *To feel accepted
- *Buying what you like rather than taking time to shop for what you can afford
- *Feeling it is expected
- *Not wanting to look cheap
- *You don't shop often, so over spend when you do shop
- *You like to see the satisfaction of the "receiver"
- *Guilt - feeling the need to treat everyone the same or to keep a pattern of spending set in more affluent times.

When you understand why you spend as you do, you can begin to seek the results you want by other means. Send a personal message with an affordable gift that may take more time to find, but gives both the sender and the receiver a feeling that the gift affirms your relationship as one that does not have to be bought.

NOTICE OF EFFECTIVE TAX RATES

1993 Property Tax Rates in

ROBERT LEE INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT AND BRONTE INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

This notice concerns 1993 property tax rates for the above jurisdictions. It presents information about three tax rates. Last year's tax rate is the actual rate the school district used to determine property taxes last year. This year's effective tax rate would impose the same total taxes as last year if you compare properties taxed in both years. This year's rollback tax rate is the highest tax rate the school district can set before it must hold a rollback election. In each case these rates are found by dividing the total amount of taxes and state funds by the tax base (the total value of taxable property) with adjustments as required by state law. The rates are given per $100 of property value.
