Ex-students, families enjoy homecoming activities

Last Friday was a banner (an orange and black one) day in Robert Lee. It was Homecoming '93 for a large number of ex-students and families and local families welcomed children and grandchildren home. A rousing pep rally Thursday night in beautiful weather on the courthouse square, entertained a large crowd. Then at 2:30 on Friday the student council sponsored homecoming parade formed at the courthouse for the march to the schoolhouse. The parade theme "Steer Wars", brought forth all manner of floats and groups, accompanied by the Stompin' Steer Band. School royalty and the WCCCD queens were also included. The float contest was won by the Robert Lee FHA followed by the Third grade in 2nd place. The fifth grade took 3rd place. Following the parade, another pep rally was held in the gym.

Well before the 7:30 kick-off between the Steers and the Irion County Hornets, the home grandstand was filled. There were shouted greetings and hugs for folks who hadn't seen each other in a while.

The half-time came as the Steers were trouncing their opponents (necessary for a good Homecoming). Mr. and Miss RLHS, John Williams and Elaine Gibbs, were recognized. Homecoming King and Queen, Joe Blair and Kim Carver were crowned by the 1992 royalty, Danny Jackson and Shelley Burrows, who is now Miss Rodeo Texas. The other lovely and handsome candidates were introduced also. Seated together and filing out on the field for introduction were members of the graduating class of 1943. Also introduced was the class of 1953 who had been the recipient of a savings bond from the 1943 class when they graduated.

Steer domination of the Hornets continued to a 53-12 finish.

Homecoming '93 had all the

Coke County Championship

Overwhelming wins over pre-season opponents by both the Robert Lee Steers and the Bronte Longhorns have set the stage for the Coke County Championship shootout. Opening district play for both teams will pit the unbeaten teams against each other at Bronte at 7:30 Friday (tonight).

usual ingredients of most of the homecomings everyone has experienced - a parade, pep rallies, nostalgic return of exes, the football game - but never has a public marriage proposal been part of the festivities. Twenty-four-year-old April Scott, living with her grandmother in El Paso, had traveled to Robert Lee for the homecoming. She was accompanied by Michael Baker, whom she had dated for several months. The couple, along with her parents, Johnny and Lori Sevier, were in the stands when announcer Garland Davis advised the large crowd he had had a request. He announced that Michael Baker was asking April to marry him. When she screamed and grabbed Michael around the neck, the announcer allowed that he believed that was a "Yes".

Winner of the "Steer Wars" theme parade for Homecoming was the Robert Lee FHA. Their float depicted war veterans and prisoners of war (the Hornets).

Mayor reads to fifth grade

Bronte Mayor, Martin Lee, read excerpts from the book, The Black Stallion, to the fifth grade class. He visited the classroom as a Community VIP reading role model. Community VIPs are being asked to visit the classroom during the course of the program. They are requested to share information about their jobs with the students, explain how they feel books and reading helped them to attain their position, and then read a selection to the children that was a personal favorite of theirs as a child.

Bloodworth, Barnes exchange vows

Amy Jo Bloodworth and Doug Barnes exchanged wedding vows on August 21 at 3 pm in the Sundown First Baptist Church. Gary Wilcox performed the ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Carl and Laveta Bloodworth. The groom is the son of Royce and Connie Barnes.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, wore an elegant gown of white satin and schiffli lace designed by San Martin. The bodice encrusted with sequins and pearls featured a wedding band neckline, renaissance sleeves and a basque waist. The back bodice was highlighted with strands of draping pearls and a candy box bow which flowed into a semi-cathedral sweetheart train adorned with pearls and lace appliques. She wore a romantic satin hat adorned with laced beaded appliques, double silk illusion pouf and single finger tip veiling.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses tipped with teal, white lillies, white stephanotis and needle point ivy. Black and iridescent streamers cascaded from the back.

Following tradition, for something old she wore her maternal great-grandmother's wedding band; something new was her dress; something borrowed was maternal grandmother's diamond earrings and her paternal grandmother's handkerchief; and something blue was her garter.

The maid of honor was Lori Garth of Lubbock, sister of the bride. The bridesmaids were Karen Escue of Levelland, Miki Askins of Sulphur Springs, cousin of the bride, and Candi Garcia of Plainview.

They wore teal iridescent taffeta dresses with sweetheart necklines, princess bodices with dropped basque waistlines, key-hole back bodices trimmed with a bow, shirred elbow length sleeves, full skirts and hi-lo hemlines. They carried a single long stemmed rose tipped with teal accented with a bow and streamers of iridescent teal.

The flower girls were Anna Julian of Pampa, cousin of the groom, and Shelbi Garth of Lubbock, niece of the bride. They carried black baskets decorated with iridescent teal ribbons. They wore halos of teal flowers and matching ribbons. They dropped rose petals that were given to the bride from the groom while they dated.

The ring bearer was Drew Phillips of Seminole.

The candlelighters were Eli Boxwell and Beau Boxwell of Silver, cousins of the bride.

The best man was Les Barnes of Tampa, Florida, brother of the groom. The groomsmen were Shannon Cochran of Friona, Steve Lowrey of Lubbock and Bryan Curry of Hale Center.

The usher was Matt Todd of Glen Rose, cousin of the bride. He was assisted by the groomsmen.

Special guests at the wed-

Mr. and Mrs. Doug Barnes.

ding were the bride's grandparents, Raymond and Gertie Bloodworth of Silver, and the groom's grandmothers, Rosalene Julian of Georgetown and Lucille Barnes of Farewell.

Following a wedding trip to Florida and a Caribbean cruise, the couple will reside in Lazbuddie.

The bride attended Sundown High School and South Plains College. She is employed by B. A. R. Treating Services Inc.

The groom attended

Lazbuddie High School and South Plains College. He is self-employed.

Courtesies - A bridal shower was held July 17 in the Sundown Home Economics Room.

Longhorns swat Menard Yellowjackets

by Stover Taylor

The Menard Yellowjackets came to town Friday night to sting the Longhorns and claim their fourth victory of the season. However, their stinger could not penetrate Longhorn hide and the Longhorns responded with their best game of the season. After the Horns offense and defense fired up the ball-game was over for Menard, which was after their second ball possession of the game. The Yellowjackets scored a touchdown and a field goal on their first 2 possessions. The Longhorns scored touchdowns on their first 3 possessions of the game. The Yellowjackets rushed for 129 yards on 26 carries of which 96 yards came on the first 2 possessions. The Jackets netted 30 yards rushing the next 3 quarters, gaining one first down the entire second half. The Longhorn defense swarmed the Yellowjackets recovering an on-side kick, intercepting one pass, recovering three fumbles, and shutting down the Menard offense. The Horns scored 5 touchdowns on 311 yards rushing in 59 carries, and 1 touchdown on a 3 yard pass. Gary Bilbrey was the leading ground gainer with 159 yards on 26 carries. Rudy Sanchez had an excellent night kicking the ball on kick-offs and extra points. The Longhorns controlled the line of scrimmage on offense and defense and the result was a 42 to 9 victory over the Menard Yellowjackets.

In the 1st quarter the Yellowjackets took the opening kick-off and marched 68 yards on 12 plays. Ramiro Gonzales scored on a nine yard run, the 2 point conversion failed. The Longhorns took the kick-off and reeled off 65 yards on 10 plays. Gary Bilbrey scored on a three yard run. Rudy Sanchez kicked the extra point. Menard roughed the kicker on the extra point attempt and received a 15 yard penalty on the kick-off. The Longhorns attempted an on-side kick which was successful when one of the Yellowjackets tried to pick up the ball and was hit. The Horns were in business again. The quarter ended.

On the first play of the second quarter Brent Taylor hit Jason Cooper on a 3 yard pass play for the 2nd touchdown. The extra point attempt by Rudy was good. Menard took the kick-off and ran and passed for 7 plays to the 19 yard line. Unable to get into the end zone they kicked a 29 yard field goal. Menard kicked off to the Longhorns for the 3rd time after both teams had scored on their first two possessions. The Longhorns scored on their 3rd possession after moving the ball 60 yards on 13 plays. Jacob Goalson scored on a 20 yard run. Rudy's 3rd extra attempt was good. Brent Taylor intercepted a Yellowjacket pass to end the 1st half with the score 21-7.

In the 3rd quarter both defenses took over. The Horns moved the ball but did not get into the end zone. The 3rd quarter produced the only punt of the night for the Longhorns. The Horns Kale Beck recovered 1 fumble and lost one. The Yellowjackets were not able to make a 1st down in the 3rd quarter.

In the 4th quarter Jason Cooper scored on a 3 yard run, Brent Taylor on a 32 yard run, and Jay Parker on a 31 yard run. Rudy's extra point attempts were good. Jacob Goalson recovered a fumble and the Longhorn defense allowed Menard one 1st down in the 4th quarter. The victory was a total team commitment, to rise to the challenge they saw in the Menard Yellowjackets. The biggest challenge of the season comes Friday when the Robert Lee Steers come to town.

Bronte 6th grade builds quilt

The 6th grade class of Bronte Elementary dedicated their class quilt to Mr. Sanford and Bronte Elementary School. The quilt represents a 6 week unit over Bronte. Each student chose a topic relevant to Bronte and researched the topic thoroughly. They then wrote research papers and poems and illustrated the topics. The illustrations were transferred to a quilt piece. The quilt pieces were sewn together to create a beautiful quilt. Each research paper was put in a decorated book to accompany the quilt. The students learned a variety of information relating to Bronte and really enjoyed this project. Zada Denman donated a special quilt piece for the project. The quilt will be displayed at Bronte Elementary School.

Project Graduation

The senior parents hosted a Kidnap Breakfast for the senior class on Saturday, September 25, at 6:00 am in the school cafeteria. As the parents gathered to cook breakfast and sip coffee, the seniors left the cafeteria to kidnap the freshmen, teachers, and administration of Bronte High School. It was a fun morning with a lot of sleepy heads, grouches, and over zealous seniors. All in attendance enjoyed a breakfast of pancakes, sausage, orange juice and milk.

Bronte 6th grade dedicated this quilt to Mr. Sanford and Bronte Elementary school.

Lady Longhorn Volleyball

The Lady Longhorns played Colorado City, September 28. The Longhorns won (11-15, 15-13, 15-9). Their record is 10-8 and 4-0 at home.

Saturday, the Lady Longhorns opened district with Miles. They captured their first district win 15-8, 15-10. Their record is 11-8 and 5-0 at home.

The Horns played well against the Bulldogs. This year's team is known for its physical strength and depth on the team. Gina Clayton and Wendy Johnson started for the Longhorns, while Laura Thomas came in to help the team with setting. With this team's depth it's a competition for a starting spot. Jill Johnson had eight kills in the match while Cheryl Santos had seven. Laura Thomas accumulated six digs and Gina Clayton had four. Jennifer McCorkle scored twelve points for the Longhorns in which five of them were aces. Joni Barrett came in the game and contributed three kills and two aces.

Next the Lady Longhorns will play Water Valley there, Tuesday, October 5th. On Saturday, October 9th, Santa Anna will come to Bronte to face the Lady Longhorns at 2:00 for JV and 3:00 Varsity. Come yell for the Longhorns and help them win another victory.

Bronte Pep Rally

Bronte High School pep rally is this Friday, October 8, but don't come to the gym expecting the same kind of pep rally that happens most Fridays. This will be a real event! At 3:10 in the school auditorium the cheerleaders and band will thrill you with a "black out" pep rally guaranteed to "pump up" the Longhorns to win the Coke County Football Championship game.

Thorn graduates from ACC

Lucile Bryan celebrates 83rd birthday

The weekend of September 24-26 was very special for Lucile Bryan. Friday, the 24th, was the Bryan's 28th wedding anniversary, and Thelmo Jo Hinnard and Loyd Sevier took them out to dinner in San Angelo and to see the unusual display of Christmas lights displayed in Santa Rita Park. (They did not buy any lights, Wilson explained, but did "borrow" a few ideas to use in lighting BRYAN'S BARN in December.)

On the 25th, Kitten and Freddy Plagens and her sons, Noah and John David Dean, came from Rankin, and they all joined local Methodists who attended Civic Theatre's production of "BIG RIVER".

Jerry Dean and friend, Jeanine Jennings of Austin, joined the family for Sunday, the 26th, Lucile's birthday. Her other child, Tony, who shares the same birthday with his mother, was unable to attend.

Corley Reunion

Enjoying a get-together at the Bronte Community Center, October 2, were the descendants of the late D. J. & Lizzie Corley. Those present were: Lena Stafford and friend Richard Cromwell; Linda and Chuck Jacobs, all of Vacaville, CA; Corley Holbrook, of La Palma, CA; Betty, Alan and Chelsa Latham; Shelene, Johnny, Lynn and Caleb Usry, all of San Angelo; Jackie, Glenda and Justin Corley, of Hobbs, NM; Larry, Joan, Shannon, Kenneth, and Scott, of Smithfield; Joniva Tidwell of Arlington; Davis, Eileen, Kurt Corley and friend, of Midland; John Morrow and Shannon, of Early; James and Etta Ruth Arrott; Jack and Christine Corley, all of Tennyson; Peggy Belew, of Winters; J. B. and Martha Arrott, of Bronte; Loretta Arrott, Deanna Reed and girls, Natasha, Nicole, and Natalee; Wayne and Sandra Arrott; Benny and Jackie Corley; Barry, Shelby, Keith, Tyler, and Caylor Corley; Brenda and James Tidwell; Mary and Jim Morrow and Becky, Effie Corley, all of Bronte; Lena's friends, LaRue and husband, of San Angelo; Emma B. and son, Bernard, of Brownwood. A golf tournament was played by young and old. First place winners were: Mary, Benny, Linda, Larry and Kenneth; Second Place went to Davis, Brenda, Corley, Johnny and Scott.

Lots of good food was enjoyed including delicious barbecued goat cooked by Jack Corley.

The highlight of the day was Lena presenting each niece and nephew with a beautiful porcelain doll that she had made, which was a total of 43 dolls.

At First United Methodist Church's morning service, Lucile was honored by being named the recipient of an award given annually by United Methodist Women. Upon hearing the presentation by U. M. W. President Nina Brewer, Lucile said she didn't feel worthy of the compliments, but that she deeply appreciated the honor. (Her children had made special efforts to be present for the presentation.) Lucile declared, "This has been such a special birthday that I hope to be 83 many more times!"

The following is the tribute Lucile received:

Lucile Bryan

Lucile is the daughter of a Methodist preacher and has been involved in some aspect of church work all her life. She helped with her daddy's services and played or sang wherever she was needed. She was also involved in her community as a young person. In fact, she played background music for silent movies when she was in high school.

Since moving to Robert Lee, 44 years ago, she has either sung in the choir, played piano or organ, provided special music, or encouraged others to perform in the Methodist church. She has been a strong leader in

Local ranchers purchase sire

Salt Creek Beefmasters, owned by Don Fields and Troy Wimberly, has been active in recent Beefmaster sales. The Coke County breeders were successful bidders at the Tom Lasater Ranch Retired Sire Sale at Matheson, Colorado on September 14, 1993. They purchased a four year-old sire that stood high on the list of ten bulls offered by the ranch that originated the Beefmaster breed. This annual sale is one of the most competitive in the nation as breeders bid for these superior bulls.

On Saturday, October 2, Salt Creek Beefmasters was part of the ISA Cattle Company Beefmaster Bull sale in San Angelo. It was a highly successful sale where 262 coming two-year old bulls averaged $2,190. The 19 head of Salt Creek bulls averaged $2,739, with their high selling $5,700 bull going to L. G. Hargis of Waurika, OK.

Some marketing changes are going on at Salt Creek. In the future, the Coke County breeders will be placing some calves in the Beef "On" Forage Test sponsored by Central Texas Beefmaster Breeders and will have some calves available for private treaty sales at the farm.

our church. Many administrative board committees have benefitted from her leadership, and she has also served as our administrative board chairperson. As a school teacher, she created many musical opportunities for the children that they might have missed had she not been there. She was a motivator and she was motivated.

After retiring, Lucile wrote and directed "Ole' Coke County, Home of the Rabbit Twisters." Because of it, many people have benefited and found enjoyment as performers and as spectators. Through it all she has been close to her family as a faithful mother and wife. She is dedicated!

Lucile's tenacity and desire to better herself and her environment have allowed her to accomplish, or cause others to accomplish, more than a "milder" person might have, yet she has ever remained a gracious beautiful lady. This area, the community of Robert Lee, and this United Methodist Church are better because of her influence.

What words can describe Lucile Bryan? She is busy, motivated, dedicated and respected. But, one word remains. As we thank her for touching our lives in so many ways, we say, "Lucile, you are loved."

Personal

Bobby Baker of Robert Lee sustained an apparent heart attack while at work at Bronte's Hall's Super Save last Friday. He was taken to Concho Valley Regional Hospital in San Angelo by his wife, Janet. He was immediately admitted to the Intensive Care Unit where he was treated. After being transferred to a private room on Monday, he again had heart problems and was taken back to ICU. Doctors plan to do an angiogram and other tests when his condition stabilizes. Bobby has a medical history of heart complications.

Kim Carver and Joe Blair, candidates for Homecoming Queen and King, ride in the downtown parade last Friday afternoon. The couple were later named to those honors during the homecoming football game.

Hunter Education Course

Coke County Game Warden Sparks Burdett will conduct a Hunter Education Training Course on 2 weekends this month. The 10-hour course will be given at the county courthouse in four 2 1/2 hour segments. Saturday, October 30, we will be ready for the little spooks that will be out. If you would like to donate a bag of candy it would be appreciated.

The residents will be stuffing Christmas Stockings this year for the Salvation Army. If you would like to donate to a worthy cause please contact Dean or Sherri at the Nursing Home. We need to have them back to the Salvation Army by December 13th. We realize it seems to be early, but Christmas will be here before we know it and this is a very worthy cause.

HEALTH NOTES

Habits, Healthy and Un

Americans are slacking off on some aspects of healthy living. A recent Louis Harris poll for Baxter Health Care showed only one third of us now get strenuous exercise three times a week or more, down four percent from a year ago. The poll shows two thirds of us are overweight, up from fifty-eight percent a decade ago. Those who say they are under great stress at least several days a week has risen constantly over the past decade. It's now at thirty-three percent. Not all the news is bad.

For instance, use of seatbelts has risen dramatically. Seventy percent now say they use seatbelts all the time. However, the percentage who say they obey the speed limit all the time is down to slightly less than half. Perhaps the best of the good news is that seventy-six percent of Americans are non-smokers, an all time high, and use of illegal drugs is down. Despite the mixed news about health habits, more than half of those surveyed think those with unhealthy habits should pay more for their health insurance or a greater share of their medical bills.

Seniors tour Lake O. H. Ivie

On Tuesday, September 28th, a group from the Bronte Senior Center traveled to Lake O. H. Ivie for a river boat tour. Concho Valley Trading Company in Paint Rock provides a three hour boat cruise of the Colorado and Concho Rivers combined with a view of Freeze Dam. Robert Neal was the captain of the 30 foot pontoon and gave an excellent tour and explained about the region, all about rivers and how Lake Ivie came about. Robert grew up in Paint Rock and explored these regions as a kid.

We boarded the First Baptist Church van which was driven by Leslie Rolls about 9:30 am and returned to Bronte about 4:30 pm. Those going on the tour were: Wink Kiker, Marie Arrott, Bernie McCarty, Murl and Pearl Mae Andrews, Leslie Rolls, Felma Evans, Arleigh King, Hazel Percifull, Marguerite Sonnenberg and Pete and Mary Percifull.

A trip is in the works for April to tour up the Colorado River with the same captain. The sun was warm, water was as smooth as glass, and the view was spectacular. Watch for information about our next trip.
