The luminarias can be purchased for a minimum donation of $5 from any CCRFL team member; Katie Drennan, 453-2343 in Robert Lee; Lanette Fletcher, 473-6791 in Bronte or Lori Griffin in Blackwell. Texas Mesquite Art Festival slated

The Texas Mesquite Art Festival is returning to San Angelo, on April 16-18th and promises to showcase the best mesquite artisans.

Roger Ellison, San Angelo Festival Director, said many juried artists from around the state and beyond will gather at Fort Concho for a 3 day celebration of the exquisite and attractive mesquite. "Besides seeing the absolute best of mesquite, visitors will enjoy one of the largest gatherings of mesquite artisans," Ellison said.

The festival, like mesquite wood itself, has come a long way since the first Fest, which was held in Fredericksburg, Texas in 1992, and is still going strong today.

Visitors will be treated to collections of sculpted wood from the world's absolute finest mesquite craftsmen. Items range from large furniture items such as beds, dressers and chairs made entirely from mesquite, to unique craft and gift items such as beautifully turned lamps, delicate scroll work, handsome pen and pencil sets, unique Christmas tree ornaments, sturdy gun stocks, sculpted vases, and dimensionalized artwork, all carefully crafted of mesquite.

Once viewed as a nuisance, mesquite has become the darling of architects and retailers. Mesquite's growing appeal comes in part from the high profile offered by the Texas Mesquite Association. They host both festivals, according to Ellison. Articles praising mesquite's quality and value have appeared in such magazines as "Texas

Highways," "Veranda," and "Fine Woodworking."

Architects now vie to install mesquite accents in upscale homes," Ellison said. Mantles, doors, flooring, art items, dining sets, tables, and other furniture are increasingly requested in mesquite.

Hours are Friday, 4 pm-9 pm; Saturday, 10-6 pm and Sunday, 10 am-4 pm. Items are available for purchase, with food and drink sold on the grounds. Free parking.

More information on the Texas Mesquite Art Festival and the Association is available by calling the Fest office toll free at 1-866-TEX-FEST (839-3378).

Fun Ways to Improve Children's Reading Skills

Reading is a fun activity, but it could be more vital to the nation's well-being than you think. The United Way estimates that illiteracy costs taxpayers $20 billion annually. At the same time, the National Center for Educational Statistics reports that 33 percent of fourth graders in the United States cannot read at the most basic level.

Clearly, helping all children develop excellent reading skills is in everyone's best interest. Fortunately, the first few steps in doing this can start at home, with several ways to get kids reading better.

Actions are Louder Than Words

Nothing teaches your child the importance of reading more than seeing the many ways you use reading throughout the day. Tasks as simple as surfing the Web, looking up a recipe, going through the mail, and enjoying a good book, magazine or newspaper can spark interest in reading among young people. It's also important to have age-appropriate books in the home for your children to enjoy.

Get Them Engaged

Engaging children in the read-aloud process helps them learn to read better. While asking questions and allowing your child to ask questions, you also can be playful. Read with expression, give the characters special voices, and laugh when something silly happens. Make reading a fun experience and children naturally will be drawn to it.

Set a Good Example

"Parents are the best role models when it comes to illustrating the importance of reading," says Sharon

Darling, founder and president of the National Center for Family Literacy. "They must demonstrate that becoming a good reader is a critical skill."

Perhaps no one has demonstrated that better than Alferd Williams, the 71-year-old son of sharecroppers who fulfilled a lifelong dream when he enrolled in a first-grade class to learn to read. Inspired by his story, The UPS Store is sponsoring an annual award in his honor to be presented by the Toys for Tots Literacy Program.

"Alferd's story is a testament to determination and every person's right to learn to read," says Lt. Gen. Pete Osman, USMC (Ret), president and CEO of the Marine Toys for Tots Foundation. "When a child fails to learn this basic skill, the cycle of poverty becomes nearly impossible to break."

Get Involved

You can promote literacy in your community by volunteering to read at a local school or donating to the Toys for Tots Literacy Program at a participating The UPS Store location. If you'd like to honor someone who inspires a love of reading, submit a nomination for the Alferd Williams Literacy Award between April 1 and May 31. Visit ToysforTotsLiteracy.org to learn more.

By following just some of these helpful tips, you can enhance the life of a child and help create a brighter future for all of us.

For more information on helping children learn to read, visit www.famlit.org.

No Hope Without God

For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul? Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him? Will he delight himself in the almighty? Will he always call upon God. • Job 27:8-10

When a wicked man dieth, his expectation shall perish: and the hope of unjust men perisheth. • Proverbs 11:7

If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men the most pitiable. • 1 Corinthians 15:19

But as for the cowards and the ignoble and the contemptible and the cravenly lacking in courage and the cowardly submissive, and as for the unbelieving and faithless, and as for nations, and as for murderers and the lewd and adulterous and the practicers of magic arts and the idolaters (Those who give supreme devotion to anyone or anything other than God.) and all liars (Those who knowingly convey untruth by word or deed.) all of these shall have their part in the lake that blazes with fire and brimstone. This is the second death. • Revelation 21:8 Amplified Bible

We must be doing something right!

You asked for it and we responded...Right Wireless now has monthly billing instead of billing every four weeks...it's like getting several free days of service each month. Plus, if you need it, you still have the option of paying weekly. Now, that's getting the best of both worlds!

Plus, you can come in to Right Wireless, get a new phone and the first month's service and be out the door for under fifty bucks! You heard right...out the door for under fifty bucks with a new phone and your first month's service!

When you compare apples to apples with the other pre-paid companies, you won't find a better deal! And, the deal gets even better when you find you're using our huge 21 county network that will soon grow to 26 counties where you live, work, and play!

We offer the lowest prices, with the largest coverage area, and the most locations. And, as always you don't have to worry about a contract, credit check, or a deposit!

Right Wireless where you're out the door for under fifty bucks!
