New Pets

"We'll take them back to the farm", Pete said, "and turn them loose if they get big enough." Pete Childers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Childers, 405 S. W. 17th St., sits on the table and proudly looks over his new born pets, 14 Top Knot Blue Quail. One other egg was in the process of hatching when this picture was taken. The first quail was born at 10:00 a. m. Wednesday - this picture was taken at 8:30 a. m. Thursday.

The story goes like this - Pete's daddy was cutting a hay crop when the mother quail jumped into the machinery and was killed. He found 15 eggs in her nest. He brought the eggs in, they were placed in a dish on top of a cloth, then set on top of the hot water heater and turned each day for five days. On the sixth day, Boom! quail were all over the utility room, under the dryer and under the washer. Fourteen little ones were found with one egg to go.

Trying to keep 14 young quail together and make a picture is like trying to corral five year olds. One bounded out of the box, to the table and to the floor. It took six hands to corral them. If all goes well, the News will give a progress report.

"I tell you Walter, there's nothing like it in all the world. I know I'll be a senior next year in Sam Houston State Teacher's College! I know I'm grown and past but I just like to plow bare footed," so said Ralph Keen about plowing and going without shoes.

If there's a better time of the day than being greeted by the wife and the little one's after a hard day's work it must be when the shoes have been temporarily discarded.

If there's anything better than pulling in a nice fish it must be sitting on the bank of a running stream and wiggling bare feet under the cool of the water.

If there's a better place to walk than under the trees it must be on the beach sand or the black mud bare footed.

There are few people in the world that I envy--I do know of one. We met her in a country church in Tennessee near Livingston. We sat directly behind her during the services. She stuck her feet back under the pew and her wedge shoes dropped away from her feet--no socks. The soles of her feet were clean but had that dark callused look that only comes about by going shoeless. Cont'd. on P. 3

To the PEOPLE of SEMINOLE,

I have always been proud to call Seminole, Texas my home, but never before as the past few months. May I express my gratitude for your prayers and concern during my recent surgery. My entire family could never repay you for all your acts of kindness.

We were also grateful for the financial assistance. Thank you to Dwayne Herman and the Seminole State Bank for sponsoring the fund that was so helpful.

I am now back on my revival schedule, preaching every other week. I am convinced my recovery has been the result of the prayers of God's people. Thank you once again for joining hands and hearts with us to share this experience.

Regardless of where Shirley, Mike, Terri and I may "live", Seminole will always be "home."

Prayerfully,
Mickey Warlick

Seminole Man Building Projects Wounded In Viet Nam

Word was received this week-end by Mrs. Elaine Kidd McNair that her husband, Darryl, was wounded in action May 21 in Vietnam. Darryl got out of his bunker to rescue a couple of his men when a mortar shell exploded in front of him. He is in the hospital at Tokyo, Japan and has undergone surgery twice. His wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. McNair, talked to him at 2:00 a. m. June 3. He told them not to worry and at present he is supposed to be transferred to a hospital in the states June 28.

Telephone Exhibit

Seminole residents will see the story of telephone service -- from Alexander Graham Bell's first telephone to the laser communications of tomorrow--when Telemobile arrives on Monday, June 9.

Telemobile is Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's exhibit trailer. It will be open free to the public on the Seminole square from 8:45 to 4:30 p. m.

The exhibits show the story of progress made by the telephone industry since its beginnings.

In the trailer's first section, visitors will see early model telephones and learn how their growth brought about today's vast telephone network.

The exhibit's second section shows how the telephone works, and illustrates the various methods of getting calls through.

The last section provides a glimpse at what's in store for telephoning in the future--including demonstrations of the laser and Picturephone. Also, recorded narrations and special lighting effects serve to emphasize certain parts of the exhibit.

"Everyone is invited to the free exhibit," said Harry Sawyer, manager for Southwestern Bell. "Less than 10 minutes is required to tour Telemobile. It is both entertaining and educational."

Construction on the M. S. Doss Scout Center is progressing daily. Note the new wall in the far background and especially the copper plating partially completed on the roof.

A progress report on the Seminole State Bank. A floor section and vault section are shown at the bank's new location at the southeast corner of the square. The courthouse can be seen on the right. In the foreground can be seen the entrance to the underground passageway to the drive-in tellers. (Not for people but for moneys and instruments to be sent back and forth.)

Mrs. R. M. Deen, affectionately known as 'Mama Deen,' is seen with some of her handiwork. "I don't like to quilt in straight lines, so I quilted this one in shells," she said. She is the mother of Howard Deen and lives at 214½ S.W. Ave. G.

On giving a graduating senior a quilt top this year she was explaining how to get it quilted. The senior said, "You've lost me, I don't know what you're talking about."

The wool piece behind her was made of wool thread scraps. Mrs. Deen was 83 years old the last day of last January. "I plan on keeping on quilting as long as my health will permit it."

(It's nice to grow old gracefully. It's better still to grow old gracefully like Mrs. Deen, with interests of some sort.)

WOODENFOOTE

I tried to keep my mind on the services but through it kept running--'she will be pleasant; she will be happy; her children will mind; I know I'm going to like her; she just might ask us to dinner.'

When the services were over I was delighted. We visited and visited. She was happy--she had a happy family--and no wonder, she gets to go bare footed.

Ross A. Smith came through his living room in Ballinger, Texas after finishing his rural mail run and made an outstanding statement. "You won't have any trouble making my daughter a living she does not wear shoes either." We were both in sock feet.

I want to spend another season in Hilo, Hawaii again to see if it is real that when one half of the populus go bare footed and the other half wears thongs and slip-on shoes just part time. (Pardon me just a minute.)

I'm already in a better mood just sitting here with my shoes off just thinking about it. Ah, to live again.

GUEST EDITORIAL BY BOB CLARK
CON'T FROM LAST WEEK

JOHN OWNS HIS HOME. IN TRUE AMERICAN FASHION, IT IS EQUIPPED WITH A LARGE, OVERHANGING MORTGAGE. LAST YEAR HE PAID $800 INTEREST ON THE MORTGAGE AND $450 ON PROPERTY TAXES. AS WE KNOW, BOTH OF THESE ITEMS ARE DEDUCTIBLE IN ARRIVING AT TAXABLE INCOME. JIM, AS WE MIGHT HAVE SUSPECTED, RENTS HIS HOME. ALTHOUGH THE RENT OBVIOUSLY REIMBURSES HIS LANDLORD FOR TAXES AND INTEREST, NO PART OF THE RENT IS DEDUCTIBLE.

JOHN'S WIFE IS A HEALTHY, INDUSTRIOUS HOMEMAKER. A REAL COMMUNITY LEADER. UNFORTUNATELY, SHE HAS BEEN BLIND FROM BIRTH. AS WE WELL KNOW, HER BLINDNESS ENTITLES THE CLEVER FAMILY TO AN EXTRA $600 PERSONAL EXEMPTION. JIM'S WIFE HAS ALWAYS BEEN RATHER SICKLY. SHE IS DEAF, HAS AN ARTIFICIAL LEG, A DEFORMED ARM, CHRONIC HYPERTENSION, MEPHITIS, HEPATITIS, NEURITIS, NEURALGIA, AND POST NASAL DRIP. BUT SINCE SHE ISN'T BLIND, NO EXTRA EXEMPTION.

LAST FALL THE CHURCH TO WHICH BOTH FAMILIES BELONG STARTED A FUND DRIVE TO PERMIT A LONG NEEDED ADDITION TO THE CHURCH. JOHN AND JIM WENT TO THE ANNUAL MEETING TOGETHER AND EACH PLEDGED $200. JIM PAID HIS PLEDGE WITH $200 HIS WIFE HAD BEEN SAVING IN THE COOKIE JAR FOR A NEW ARTIFICIAL LEG. JOHN, THE MORE ASTUTE, GAVE THE CHURCH 10 SHARES OF STOCK WORTH $500, WHICH HE HAD BOUGHT SEVERAL MONTHS EARLIER FOR $200. IN THIS WAY, JOHN RECEIVED AN EXTRA DEDUCTION OF $300, WHILE THE STOCK GAIN ESCAPED TAXATION ENTIRELY.

EARLY ONE SUNDAY MORNING LAST MAY, JIM AND HIS FAMILY BACKED OUT OF THEIR DRIVEWAY ON THE WAY TO CHURCH. THERE THEY COLLIDED WITH JOHN WHO WAS JUST COMING HOME FROM A BIG NIGHT ON THE TOWN. IT COST ABOUT $200 TO REPAIR EACH OF THE CARS. SINCE JIM IS A CAREFUL SORT WHO WATCHES HIS PENNIES, AND INSURES AGAINST ANY EVENTUALITY, HIS EXPENSIVE NONDEDUCTIBLE AUTO POLICY PAID THE ENTIRE $200. OF COURSE HIS ANNUAL PREMIUM IS ABOUT $200, BUT JIM SAYS, "THIS WAY I HAVE PEACE OF MIND." JOHN DOESN'T BELIEVE IN COLLISION INSURANCE. IN FACT, JOHN DOESN'T BELIEVE IN ANYTHING THAT ISN'T DEDUCTIBLE; CONSEQUENTLY, HE HAD TO PAY THE $200 OUT OF HIS POCKET. SO BOTH JOHN AND JIM WERE OUT $200---JOHN FOR AUTO REPAIRS AND JIM FOR AUTO INSURANCE. JOHN GOT A $100 CASUALTY LOSS DEDUCTION, BUT JIM GOT NO DEDUCTION, SINCE INSURANCE PREMIUMS ARE NOT DEDUCTIBLE.

PERHAPS NOW WE CAN SEE WHY JOHN CLEVER IS WELL-TO-DO AND JIM AVERAGE IS HAVING A REAL STRUGGLE KEEPING UP WITH HIS NEXT-DOOR NEIGHBORS. JOHN CLEVER PAYS $250 A YEAR IN FEDERAL INCOME TAX. JIM AVERAGE PAYS OVER $1500---SIX TIMES AS MUCH; AS MY MOTHER WOULD SAY, "SO WHERE'S JUSTICE?"

THIS ALARMING RESULT IS CAUSED BY OUR COMPLEX, INEQUITABLE STRUCTURE. MY EXAMPLE INCLUDES ONLY A FEW OF THE INEQUITIES. THE ENTIRE LIST WOULD BE AS LONG AS YOUR ARM. BY WAY OF EXAMPLE, THERE ARE THE SPECIAL RATES AVAILABLE FOR JOINT RETURNS, HEADS OF HOUSEHOLD AND WIDOWS. THEN THERE ARE ALL TYPES OF NONTAXABLE INCOME SUCH AS PENSIONS, SOCIAL SECURITY BENEFITS, DIVIDENDS, CAPITAL GAINS AND INCOME FROM NATURAL RESOURCES. THEN THERE ARE DEDUCTIONS FOR SUCH PERSONAL EXPENSES AS DOCTOR BILLS, CHILD CARE, PREPARATION OF TAX RETURNS, SALES AND GASOLINE TAXES, ALIMONY AND INVESTMENT COMMISSIONS. FINALLY, CONGRESS HAS DISCOVERED ANOTHER MEANS OF CONFUSING THE TAXPAYER ---CREDITS AGAINST THE TAX, SUCH AS RETIREMENT INCOME CREDIT AND THE INVESTMENT CREDIT. OH YES, I SHOULDN'T FORGET THE EXTRA EXEMPTION FOR TAXPAYERS OVER 65.

I CALL ALL THESE ITEMS INEQUITIES BECAUSE THEY DO NOT APPLY EQUALLY TO ALL TAXPAYERS. IN MY OPINION, THEY HAVE NO PLACE IN OUR TAX STRUCTURE. SOME OF THEM HAVE CREPT INTO THE LAW BECAUSE OUR TAX STRUCTURE HAS BECOME AN INSTRUMENT OF SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC CONTROL--- NOT JUST A REVENUE RAISING INSTRUMENT.

I SUGGEST THAT WE GO BACK TO TAXING INCOME.

ROADSIDE LITTER RESULTS IN THE LOSS OF TAX DOLLARS

Cost of picking up after careless motorists in Texas is now $1.9 million annually. The department provides hundreds of litter receptacles along Texas highways and conducts an educational and informational program to inform the public of the losses in tax dollars and economic waste resulting from roadside litter.

I am responsible when anyone anywhere reaches out for HELP - I want the hand of AA always to be there and for that I am responsible.

MRS. BRENT H. FULLERTON Ring Vows Are Read

The formal marriage ceremony for Miss Teri Teresa Hassell and Brent Hudson Fullerton was held at the First United Methodist Church at 8:00 p. m., June 2, before an arch formed by candelabras with glowing white tapers. Columns entwined with English Ivy topped with an arrangement of white gladioli and blue carnations flanked the arch. Rev. Paul Fullerton, father of the groom, officiated the double ring service.

A spiral candelabra holding white votive cups entwined with English Ivy graced the foyer and gave a soft glow. Family pews were marked with white votive cups with lighted tapers and white velvet with blue streamers with a miniature white bouquet.

Miss Lynda Shults, at the organ, accompanied Miss Susan Walker as she sang "Twelfth of Never" and "Somewhere".

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hassell and the bridegroom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Paul Fullerton of Abilene, former Seminole residents.

When presented in marriage by her father, the bride was radiantly gowned in a Juliet creation of tucked white organza. The fitted bodice featured a wedding band necklace and full bishop sleeves, gathered to cuffs at the wrists. The controlled bell skirt was accented with a soft bowed sash and swept to catillion length. A matching organza bow held her shoulder veil of silk illusion and she carried an empire bridal bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis atop a white Bible.

Miss Robin Hughes attended the bride as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Vicki Ray and Paula Phillips. The bride chose blue and white organza gowns fashioned after her gown for her attendants. The attendants' bouquets were cascades of blue and white spider mums tied with loops of satin ribbons.

Steve Fullerton served his brother as best man. Groomsmen

The fellowship hall of the church was the scene of the reception. The bride and groom's tables were laid with identical linen cut-work cloths. A three tiered white wedding confection was topped with a pair of love doves holding a wedding ring. The attendants' bouquets graced the table. Misses Zo Lynn Wickson and Thea Hassell were at the bride's table. Miss Loretta Dyess presided at the guest registry. Chocolate cake and coffee were served from the bridegroom's table by Misses Judy Fullerton and Nancy Billups.

For travel the bride wore a toast and brown ensemble, white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

MRS. E. G. THORNTON

It's a little lonesome since last Friday when the school bells were silenced. These youngsters make a lot of noise and we hear their laughter and shouts for blocks but now that all is quiet, we really miss this noise. It is hard to keep up with all the goings on and those leaving town and those visiting grandma and cousins but we wish them well and hope that good will come to all who are visiting outside our little town and also inside our little town. We hope that you return safely.

The Little Leaguers are still in full motion. Julian Flores, Jr., who plays with the Yankees, hit another homer Saturday. The Yankees won over the Giants Monday, 4-3. The Braves won over the Oilers, 17-3.

The seniors are now in Colorado. They took off Saturday morning bright and early. Graduation was Friday night and a happy bunch of kiddoes were planning big on the morrow's activities. The sponsors were Mrs. Eunice Holt and Mr. Jess Lancet. Mothers for the class were Mr. and Mrs. Dolan Dempsey and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Thornton. Friends and relatives have been receiving cards, letters, telegrams and phone calls that all is well in Colorado and they will arrive back in Seagraves on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Olen Petty from Arapahoe, Wyoming, and son, Shannon, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A.O. Petty here. James has four sisters who all live here, Mrs. "Peanut" Berry, Mrs. Kenneth Hart, Mrs. Sammy Faulkner, and Mrs. Ross Jones. James is a graduate of Seagraves High School and also Sul Ross College and is teaching in Arapahoe, Wyoming. It is always good to hear from our youngsters and we are proud of James and his work. Jennifer, James' wife, is also a graduate of Sul Ross. He will attend this summer also.

Terri Mitchell has been helping coach a group of the younger girls for their track meet; Cindy Mitchell, Debbie and Mitzzy Berry, Lavonda Billings, Rhonda Clark, Lori Nelson and Debbie and Joan Tupin. These girls ran in the track meet at Lubbock last Saturday. Cindy Mitchell won a trophy. Debbie Berry, Joan Tupin and Lori Nelson won a ribbon. Look what a future team can do!! Go, girls, go!!

These girls will be at Brownfield June 16 for another track meet. Good luck, girls. We will be watching for the good results.

Friends who knew R. G. Le Tourneau from Longview were saddened to hear of his passing from this life. He left a good record of Christian service. It was reported that he gave over 90 percent of his earnings, which was estimated at some millions, to religious and philanthropic causes. A record of service to mankind would be a goal for all of us to try to achieve in this life and then it could be said of us, as of Paul, I've fought a good fight, I've finished the course; therefore, there is laid up for me a treasure in Heaven.

Mrs. Will Lee Clark has gone to Waco for several weeks and then will be back at her home in Monahans.

Miss Shirley K. Winsett will return from Cleburne to enroll in Texas Tech for the summer, working on her masters.

Mrs. Ronnie Crump entered the local hospital for dental surgery on Tuesday. Dr. Cauley is the dentist.

Richard Dickey, son of Mrs. Mae Dickey, got out of the service in March and is enrolled in school at Denton to finish his masters.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Cole returned from a short visit to their son's, Troy, and family in Dallas.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thornton and family of Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Sellers and family of Denver City, Vella and Carolyn Garrett from Lubbock and Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Lumpkin were visiting in the home of Mrs. Maudie Thornton.

J. D. Browne, Jr. had reported to Ft. Bliss for service in the Army.

Dalton Taylor is to report for his physical in the armed forces soon.

O' God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change; the courage to change the things I can and the wisdom to know the difference.

You must not lose faith in humanity. Humanity is an ocean; if a few drops of the ocean are dirty, the ocean does not become dirty.

Visiting in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stone and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Jennings last week were CW2 Phillip Coats and CW2 Kenneth Wuest flying a Hiller helicopter. Others pictured with them are Lee Ann, Stacey Lyn and Mark Stone and Sherry Jennings.

The young men have been stationed in Ft. Wolters in Mineral Wells for the past six months. Their homes are in Karnes City, Texas and Poplar Bluff, Missouri.

Their helicopter is powered by a 245HP engine with a cruising speed of 60-80 knots. Its flying altitude is considered up to 5000 feet. It carries three people and is the type that is used in Vietnam as an observation helicopter.
