County Stock Show set for this weekend in Robert Lee

The 78th edition of the Coke County Junior Livestock Show will be held Friday and Saturday, January 20-21, 2017, at the Sterling Lindsey Memorial Exhibition Building in Robert Lee.

This year's show will feature animals in the Market Rabbit, Market Lamb, Market Goat, Market Swine and Market Steer shows, but more importantly, many young exhibitors from around the county.

The Pee-Wee Show will be held immediately following the Rabbit, Sheep and Goat Shows on tonight, Friday, January 20, and following the pig show tomorrow, Saturday, January 21, and is open to all children 8 and under who are not 4-H members. Clover bud members are eligible to participate. Participants will need to find an animal to borrow for the show and sign up at the concession stand during the Sheep and Goat Shows.

The county stock show offers the youth of Coke County an opportunity to exhibit their livestock projects which they have worked with for more than 11 months, in many cases.

Besides being a worthwhile educational activity for our youth in teaching them responsibility, working with others and numerous life skills, it is an important economic endeavor when you consider the animals purchased from county producers, feed purchased locally and the premium sale monies that come in from county and other areas. The total amounts of monies generated by these exhibitors amounts to over $150,000 per year that is circulated in the county.

The show will begin Friday, January 20, at 5:30 pm with the Market Rabbit show, followed by the Market Lamb and Market Goat shows. Saturday, January 21, the Market Swine show gets underway at 8:30 am, followed by the Market Steer show at 11 am.

The Buyer's appreciation barbecue will be served at 12 noon. Following the barbecue, the premium sale will be held at 2 pm to honor the prize winning animals and exhibitors.

Persons wishing to donate to the Coke County Livestock

Show can contact either the County Extension office in the courthouse or one of the Livestock Association directors which include Shane Kelton, Douglas Roberts, Tom Sawyer, Terry Austin, Michael Cervenka, Riley Coalson, Corby Kelso, Curtis Knight, Steve Oleksiuk III, Terry Queen, T. J. McCullough, Ricky Ross, Ricky Royall, Bill Torres, Bob Sheets, Noel Tinkler, Mark Wright, Emmitt Crisp, Jack Yanez and Orlando DeLaGarza.

The directors of the Coke County Junior Livestock Show urge everyone to come and participate in this year's County Livestock Show and support the youth of our county for their hard work and dedication.

ECCHD posts board minutes

The East Coke County Hospital District Board of Directors met for a special meeting on Monday, December 5, 2016, at 5 pm in the business office of the Bronte Health and Rehab Center, 900 South State Street, Bronte, Texas. Vice-President Everett Bedford presided over the meeting. Other board members present were Lanette Fletcher, Gina McCutchen and Jerita Taylor. Administrator John DiFrancesco, Jr. and Business Office Manager Fran Sonnenberg were also present. Howard Baker was absent.

The meeting was called to order at 5:00 p.m. by Vice-President Bedford.

A quorum was established. Prayer was led by Everett Bedford.

Public Comment: No public comments.

Executive Session: The board moved to executive session at 5:01 pm. The board returned to the regular meeting at executive session end at 5:26 pm. President Howard Baker arrived at the meeting during the executive session and presided over the remainder of the meeting.

Vote on Executive Session Items: Everett Bedford moved that the board approve the list of employee Christmas bonuses as agreed upon in the executive session. These bonuses will be given as gift cards again this year instead of adding the bonus to the employee's paycheck. Gina McCutchen seconded the motion. Motion carried unanimously.

Adjourn: Everett Bedford moved that the meeting be adjourned. Gina McCutchen seconded the motion. Motion carried unanimously. The meeting was adjourned at 5:28 pm.

Area farmers and ranchers encouraged by nomination

The nomination of Scott Pruitt as administrator of the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) is encouraging news for Coke County farmers and ranchers threatened by the agency's regulatory overreach, according to John Ross Copeland, the president of the Coke-Sterling County Farm Bureau.

President-elect Donald Trump selected Pruitt, the Oklahoma attorney general, to head the federal agency. Pruitt's nomination will need to be approved by Congress.

John Ross said Pruitt has indicated he intends to run EPA in a way that fosters both responsible protection of the environment and freedom for American businesses. John Ross said he hopes Pruitt can rein in an agency that is operating, in some cases, outside of its constitutional and statutory authority.

"I think Scott Pruitt understands that common-sense policies are needed by EPA," John Ross Copeland said. "Farmers and ranchers are confident Pruitt will steer EPA to end the aggressive and punitive approach to regulating that has unfortunately become the agency's trademark in recent years."

As Oklahoma attorney general, Pruitt has been active in legally challenging EPA's controversial Waters of the U.S. (WOTUS) rule.

"WOTUS is a rule that represents a huge regulatory overreach," said John Ross. "I'm hopeful that Scott Pruitt can bring real change at an agency that has been adversarial against family farmers and ranchers for too long."

Bronte City Council Meeting! New attorneys for the counsel, Lois Rockefeller (right) and Eileen Haymam with the firm Messer, Rockefeller and Fort, PLLC, were introduced at the regular Bronte City Council meeting Thursday evening, January 12, 2017. The counsel also authorized the new attorneys to send a letter to vacate to Ronny Loyd in accordance with the motion passed at the December 2016 meeting to terminate the 18.369 acre land lease at Oak Creek Lake. Due to the number of citizens who were present to address the counsel, only a few were allowed to speak. These were chosen by a number draw. Several citizens who had their number drawn donated their 3 minutes to two ladies who had researched city records in order to construct a time line of events surrounding this piece of property and the lease in question. The counsel and attorneys promised the citizens in attendance that all the questions asked, along with the time line, would be reviewed and answers and explanations would be forthcoming. The lease in question, along with the time line presented, is available to the public at ObserverEnterprise.com under the "Contracts" tab.
