Japanese Spearhead In Philippines Is Liquidated; Guam Probably Lost

Manila Suffers Most Severe Attack Of War

Anti-Aircraft Guns Make Enemy Fliers Miss Their Marks

By CLARK LEE
Associated Press Staff Writer
MANILA, Sunday, Dec. 14.—The Philippine army wiped out Japanese forces which had gained a foothold on western Luzon island Saturday and American fliers smashed hard at a Japanese bombing attack on Manila—the war's worst on the Philippine capital—in which at least 75 persons were killed and 300 wounded.

A check-up today showed that a three-mile residential area near Nichols airfield was wrecked, although the American air fighters and strong anti-aircraft defenses forced the Japanese attackers, flying in tight formation, to under-shoot and overshoot their target.

From the mountains of north central Luzon a civilian eyewitness returned to Manila with the first story of the landing of parachute troops, declaring that Filipino soldiers wiped out hundreds of the Japanese parachutists and land troops on Thursday in hand-to-hand fighting which lasted several hours.

An Army spokesman said at 7:55 a. m. today (5:55 p. m. CST Saturday) that operations were proceeding against the Japanese at each of their three Luzon landing points in the region of Aparri, in the north, Vigan, in the northwest, and Legaspi in the southeast.

"There is no change in the situation," he added.

The night passed without incident throughout the archipelago, he said, except for a bombless raid alarm here from 5:30 a. m. to 6:15 a. m.

Activity Sporadic
Ground troops were credited officially with having disposed of the Japanese force which had landed in the Lingayen area some 110 miles north of Manila, with striking distance of the capital.

Lingayen is a port at the head of the Gulf, the most sheltered spot on the west side of Luzon with the exception of Manila bay itself.

A war department communique said Japanese ground activity on Luzon was sporadic and unimportant and added that "The enemy plan is now clearly revealed as an attempt to secure improvised air bases outside of the area encompassed by our ground defenses."

On Friday a Manila communique said an American pilot had machine-gunned 12 Japanese planes on the ground in the Aparri.

Two Killed In Plains Traffic Collisions

NO. 1 U. S. HERO Capt. Colin Kelly, Jr. of the U. S. air corps, above, was killed in action after his bomber destroyed the hits that caused the Japanese battleship Haruna to sink off the northeastern coast of Luzon during a landing attempt by Japanese forces.

Plans Launched For Lubbock's Red Cross Drive

A volunteer committee made up of some of Lubbock's busiest people started the war relief participation in the $50,000,000 emergency war fund of the American Red Cross.

The county's quota in the emergency fund was announced as $14,000.

It is the committee's expectation, they announced, that the quota will be subscribed by next Saturday night.

"Lubbock county never has failed to do more than its part for any worthy cause in a real emergency," was the comment of members of the committee. "It will not fail now in the greatest emergency the nation has faced."

Because of the speed required by the emergency, only the framework for the effort to be made in Lubbock county was completed. Practically all the details still are to be worked out. That probably will be done in time for announcement Monday.

For the present, members of the committee do not know the method that will be employed in establishing contact with those who will be called upon to give. They had not designated anyone to receive calls from those who want to give before contact is established with them. There hasn't been time to work out those details. But they will be worked out by Monday, according to present plans.

But one decision was reached Saturday. It is that those who

W. G. Murray Dies Saturday

Death claimed William Gaines Murray, 61, pioneer sheep raiser of the South Plains, at 2:10 o'clock Saturday afternoon in his 2419 Nineteenth street residence.

He had been ill about two weeks following a heart attack.

Mr. Murray had been a Lubbock resident 22 years, coming here from Hale county in 1919. As a young man he went to Hale Center in 1901 and became associated with his father, the late J. W. Murray, in the sheep raising business there and at Abernathy.

He had been actively engaged in his livestock business until the heart ailment forced his confinement to the residence late last month.

He was a member of the First Methodist church.

Rites To Be Monday

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock Monday at the residence, with Rev. H. I. Robinson, pastor of the First Methodist church, and Dr. J. M. Lewis, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiating.

Subs Plunge 4,000 Japanese To Death

Dutch Raiders Sink Vessels, Leaving Enemy Troops In Shark-Infested Seas

By The Associated Press
BATAVIA, Java, N. E. I., Dec. 13.—About 4,000 Japanese soldiers have been plunged to their death in shark-infested Malayan waters with the sinking of four transports by Dutch submarines, according to an announcement tonight by the commander in chief of the Royal Netherlands East Indies navy.

The Dutch navy is ranging wide in harassment of the Japanese. Besides the gulf of Siam action, the Dutch announced officially that a naval unit had liquidated a Japanese settlement on the east coast of Borneo, one of the largest islands of the N.E.I. archipelago which the Dutch share with the British.

Soviet Takes Stand Against Japanese

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Russia virtually took a stand with the United States in the war with Japan today when Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet ambassador declared Nippon was "a common enemy" belonging to "the same bunch of Axis gangsters."

But in a formal statement on Russia's position and in answer to questions at a press conference, the ambassador carefully avoided making at this time any comment concerning actual Soviet military operations in the Far East.

Would Welcome Aid
And when asked whether Russia would permit Allied forces to fight on Russian territory, or permit the United States to use air bases in Siberia for attacks against Japan, he replied:

That the Soviet union "would welcome help on any front in the common cause."

That he could make no answer in public concerning the question about the air bases.

Litvinoff's statement, despite its reservations, was received enthusiastically in Congress.

Congratulations To:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edward Hill of Lubbock route 5 upon birth of a 5-pound 14-ounce daughter at 11 o'clock Saturday morning in St. Mary's hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Young of 2014 Fifteenth street on birth of a daughter weighing 7 pounds 9 1/2 ounces at 5:35 o'clock Saturday afternoon in West Texas hospital. Dr. Young is head professor of agronomy and head of the plant industry department at Texas Technological college.

War Department Is Seeking New Registration

All Men 18 To 64 Years Old Would Register

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The War department urged Congress today to make swift "all-out" preparation for any eventuality of requiring all men, 18 to 64, inclusive, to register and by making those from 19 to 44, inclusive, liable for military duty.

Secretary of War Stimson told the House military committee in a letter that extension of the present selective service system to youths and older men should be approved with "reasonable promptness" so that a framework could be erected which "will accomplish victory."

Brig. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, selective service director, told the committee during a long discussion of the expanded program that "we are presenting this bill as an all-out measure."

71.2 Million Fighters

Hershey estimated that, including the 11,500,000 men from 21 to 64, inclusive, who already have registered, the overall registration total would reach about 41,000,000. Of these, it was believed some 7,500,000 might be found available for combat duty.

Elsewhere on Capitol Hill, a Senate-House conference committee worked with war-time speed on a bill to adjust the differences between the two chambers, which previously had passed the measure in different form.

Action Monday

Conferees said they ratified most of the $2,000,000,000 increases made by the Senate. These included $500,000,000 for navy fighting planes. Other portions of the bill contain money to equip an army of 2,000,000 men fully.

Idalou Man In Army Is Killed In Crash

The War department Saturday notified Mr. and Mrs. Casimiro Gonzales of Idalou that their son, Hubert Gonzales, about 23, had died in an airplane crash off the coast of Puerto Rico.

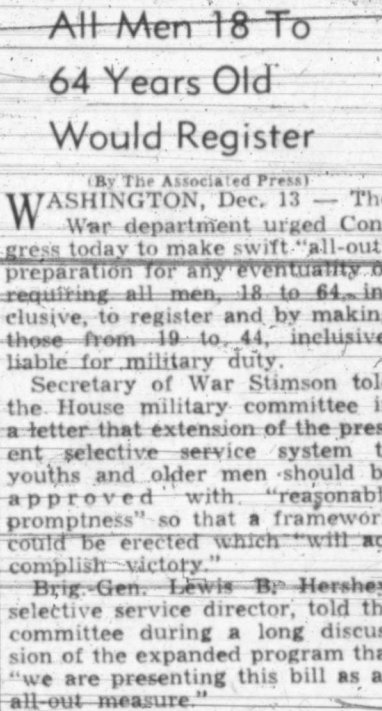

He was a first class private as a mechanic in the air corps, having gone to Puerto Rico Dec. 26, 1940. He joined the Army air force about two years ago.

The parents were informed that the body had not been recovered after the fall into the ocean. No other details were given of the crash, which happened Thursday.

Young Gonzales was a graduate at Idalou high school and formerly was employed in a Lubbock department store.

Attorney Dies At Post Home

T. L. PRICE

He offered for the office of district attorney in 1926, was elected and served his three terms consecutively.

Since that time, except for a brief residence at Tahoka, he had engaged in private practice of law here.

Telling Blow Is Struck At Jap Invaders

Wake Island Is Said Still In Hands Of U. S. Defenders

By RAYMOND J. CROWLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The United States probably has lost the island of Guam to invading Japanese, it was announced today, but the hard-bitten defenders of the Philippines struck a telling blow at Japan by chopping off and liquidating a sea-borne enemy spearhead thrust ashore north of Manila.

The sombre announcement from the Navy department that Guam, 1600 miles southeast of Tokyo, was out of communication with the department and probably captured came as no surprise.

Must Be Prepared

The president had said earlier in the week that the public must be prepared for the fall of the little, 30-mile long island, which lay virtually without fortification in the midst of Japanese-mandated islands east of the Philippines.

The terse communique about the fate of the island, which Congress had repeatedly refused to fortify heavily on the grounds that it might stir Japan up to make war, said:

Cannot Reach Guam

"The Navy department announced that it is unable to communicate with Guam either by radio or cable. The capture of the island is probable. A small force of less than 400 naval personnel and 155 marines were stationed in Guam. According to the last reports from Guam, the island had been bombed repeatedly and Japanese troops had landed at several points on the island."

Japanese bombers aiming at Nichols air field in Manila wrecked more than 100 small stores and residences near the field, killing at least 75 persons and wounding 300. At least four of the planes attacking objectives in the Manila area were reported shot down.

A graphic dispatch from Manila told how hundreds of Japanese parachutists floated down into the mountains of north central Luzon Thursday only to be wiped out in hand-to-hand struggles with Filipino soldiers.

Planes Are Downed

As for the situation in Hawaii, detailed reports to the war department declared that more than 20 Japanese planes were destroyed in the surprise attack on Pearl Harbor last Sunday. Six Army fliers were cited for performing spectacular feats of heroism in the face of superior numbers.

One of the heroes, Second Lieut. George S. Welch of Wilmington, Del., accounted for four of the enemy planes after performing what the War department proudly called "maneuvers worthy of a veteran fighter."

Meantime, a great enigma of the war was at least partially solved when Maxim Litvinoff, Russian ambassador to Washington, denounced Japan as the "common enemy" belonging to the "same bunch of Axis gangsters."

Where They're Needed

Litvinoff said the question as to just where the great powers fighting aggression should concentrate their strength would be "ruled solely by the interests of the common cause."

"We're all in the same boat," he said, and his words seemed to indicate that Russia would strike at Japan from Siberia if and when such action seemed advisable in the light of the whole tremendous struggle encompassing the globe.

The news from Manila that Japanese troops which had gained a foothold at Lingayen, on the west coast of Luzon north of Manila, had been wiped out heartened the capital because it is in that general area that strategists figure the Japanese must make their

Sugar Stocks In United States Frozen By OPM

Limit Is Put On Deliveries

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13. (AP)—The OPM today froze sugar stocks in the United States and limited new deliveries by importers and refiners to 1490 levels. The move was designed to "prevent possible hoarding or speculation."

Emphasizing that there was no immediate or imminent sugar shortage, officials said the order would assure normal supplies to industrial and civilian consumers and would prevent further increases in some 500,000 tons of sugar already built up as reserve supplies this year by jobbers, industrial users and wholesalers.

Consumption Is Up
Under the order, all such stocks in excess of 60-day supply are frozen immediately and no receiver may accept delivery of additional sugar from a refiner or importer if his stock on hand exceeds 30 days' supply.

Further, no receiver can accept delivery of more sugar in any one month than he received during the corresponding month of 1940. The OPM said normal sugar consumption in this country was about 6,800,000 tons, but that consumption this year was running about a million tons more.

Lubbock's Mexican Colony Sends Message To Widow Of Hero Of Jap Ship's Sinking

Lubbock's Mexican colony sent a telegraphic shower of "vivas" to his widow, after they had read of Capt. Colin D. Kelly, Jr.'s death in sinking the Japanese battleship Haruna, 29,000 tons, off the northern tip of the island of Luzon.

They didn't forget, in their meeting of Friday night, to include expressions of allegiance to this country.

Message Sent To Widow
To Mrs. Kelly in New York went the following message signed by Luis Espitia and Prof. Alfredo M. Ibarra, spokesman for the colony's 700 or more Mexicans:

"The Mexican colony of Lubbock, state of Texas, U. S. A., tyrannical in our own sense of the word, Mrs. Kelly, that now to the death of the new hero, her husband, she get to the highest of the Spartan woman. Let's go following the same road to liberty Long live America! Long live Mexico! Long live Mrs. Kelly!"

Testifies About National Unity
Espitia and El Professor Ibarra so interpreted their message which, if not so clear to her linguistically, at least will prove to Mrs. Kelly that what she has read about national unity and the unity of the Americas was not an empty expression.

The message attempted to point to Capt. Kelly's heroism in dealing with an enemy deemed by the Mexican colony "tyrannical" to this nation's interests. Mrs. Kelly's stoic acceptance of her hero husband's fate makes her Spartan-like in her patriotism and a great woman, the message further meant.

"Abajo Japan"
A young Latin just learning to use his penel printed on a newspaper picture of the Haruna:

"Viva America! Abajo Japan!"

"Long live America! Down with Japan!"

"And you can tell everybody that everyone of us in the Mexican town are willing to do anything the government wants us to do to

Grand Opera Of Future Will Be In English; Trend Is Started

BY J. EDWARD MURRAY
 United Press Staff Correspondent
 CHICAGO, Dec. 13—That 90 per cent of the American grand opera audience who enjoy the music but complain about not being let in on what goes on behind all that Italian and French language are going to be satisfied.

The grand opera of the future is grand opera in English.

This conclusion obtains among impresarios, conductors and artists of the Chicago Opera Company. They know their art medium is descending gradually from its foreign language high horse and most of them are promoting the trend.

The Chicago company is enjoying its most successful season ever, but there has been a difference in the reception accorded presentations in foreign languages and in English with the advantage in favor of the latter.

Prefer English

This advantage was most marked in the responsive gaiety of sell-out audiences at "Falstaff" and "Martha" on successive opera nights. Both were in English and the ability of the audience to understand paid dividends in sustained attention.

But the two vehicles in English in the same week only accentuated the persistent intermission question among Chicago audiences—most of whom come from outside the "400" social bracket and more often than not eschew formal dress—the question of why there are not more operas in English.

Answers to the question from the performers behind the big gold curtain revealed many obstacles to opera in English, chief among them adequate, singable translations, but they also revealed that successful operas in English have arrived and are increasing.

"Eventually we must come to opera in English," said Fortune Gallo, now managing the Chicago company after 29 years as head of the San Carlo Company. "Two in one week—'Falstaff' and 'Martha'—is a good start and next year there'll be more."

Martinelli Approves

Giovanni Martinelli, internationally famed tenor and artistic director of the company, commented:

"The tendency on the part of the public in general is to want to know what is going on. The majority wants to hear opera in its own language. From the beginning opera has been presented in metropolitan centers abounding in foreign-speaking populations. As opera is brought to a larger part of the public, there must be more of it in English."

Martinelli added that opera in "American" would get its biggest lift from being written around the American scene. As an example, he cited Charles Wakefield Cadman's "Annerley."

John Charles Thomas, famed baritone whose greatest role is generally considered to be Falstaff in English, was most outspoken in favor of operas in English and against members of his own profession "for not being able to sing English."

Translations Possible

"It is difficult to get good translations that transfer the meaning from Latin languages to English," he said, "but it can be done, and without losing the musical accent or disturbing the vocal position. This is most important to singers for generally the old masters wrote for the voice with the idea of vowel-position and accent in mind."

With suitable translations accomplished, it is only fair to demand that singers learn to sing in English. I am sorry to state that over a period of years I find many offenders among English-speaking singers—especially those in the upper rungs.

Thomas said he hoped soon to add "The Barber of Seville" to the small list of singable and understandable translations.

Thomas Martin, the company's Vienna-born assistant conductor, and his American wife, Ruth, were most enthusiastic about opera in the vernacular. They recently completed and sold to the Metropolitan in New York a translation

NEW FIELD EXECUTIVE
 John Boyle, Jr., pictured above, is scheduled to begin duty as a field executive for South Plains Boy Scout council Monday, succeeding Bevington Reed, who resigned to enlist in the Marine corps. Mr. and Mrs. Boyle are expected to arrive in Lubbock today or Monday from Corpus Christi, where he has been with the Gulf Coast council. His duties probably will keep him in southern counties of South Plains council most of the time.

Defense Posters Are Displayed In School

Special defense bond posters were distributed Saturday for display in every room in the city school system, according to an announcement Saturday by Dr. W. B. Irvin, city school superintendent. They are in line with the effort, he explained, to encourage children to buy defense stamps and bonds.

He added that the sale of stamps among school children has increased "enormously" since the outbreak of war. He had no figures Saturday as to the amount of total purchases, but expects to have a detailed report before the end of the coming week.

Some of the teachers have reported that it is necessary to watch some of the children who have bought stamps with the money given them to buy their lunches.

BOY IS FOUND

AUSTIN, Dec. 13—Almost decapitated, the body of Leslie H. Farris, 24, was found late Friday on railroad tracks here with indications that he had been rolled for some distance under a train.

Last train over the track had passed more than half an hour before the body was found.

—not a "version" they insist—of Mozart's "The Magic Flute."

Stories Not Silly

Martin refuted a general notion that operatic stories are silly and would be made more so if translated, citing Shakespeare's "Othello" and "Falstaff" and works from Wagner who employed all the great German myths.

Giuseppe Bombaschek, conductor and musical secretary of the company, said he soon would take a company of his own on tour to present "Madame Butterfly" in English, 80 times, criterion enough, he said, as to the public's taste.

The solution to the problem of singable translations of the better known operas, Bombaschek said, would be to make long explanatory dialogue parts in English with the famed arias in the language in which they were written.

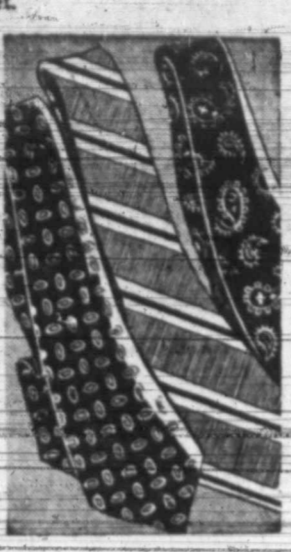

Young Douglas Beattie, basso who sang in both "Falstaff" and "Martha," capped the case for opera in English by stating that "When I sang 'The Marriage of Figaro' in English in Redlands, Cal., last summer," he recalled, "there were more customers at the finish than at the start. They went out and told their friends not only that it was good but that they could understand it."

Central American Nations Are Seizing Axis Nationals And Boats Wholesale

Fifth Columns Are Hard Hit

(By The United Press) Central American nations are seizing Axis nationals and boats wholesale, putting an end to the fifth column problem at the very outset of the war.

Mexican marines took two Japanese fishing vessels near San Jose Del Cabo in Baja California and interned their crew of 12 men. Authorities said they had asked permission to fish for shark where shark fishing was notoriously bad and one boat recently had flown an American flag.

Crew Is Imprisoned
Three American bombers overhauled a Japanese fishing boat trying to flee into the Pacific from Calera harbor, Costa Rica. Its crew of seven Japanese and three Americans was imprisoned.

A dispatch from the Cuban coast town of Pinar Del Rio told of a Navy patrol arresting several Japanese fishermen and a motor launch.

Cuban Minister of Interior Victor Vega Ceballos signed a decree for a concentration camp on the Isle of Pines off the southwest coast. It Japanese, German and Italian nationals violate wartime restrictions, they will be hustled off to it, he said.

Round Up Axis Boats
The Cuban Navy was ordered to round up all Axis boats in its waters. One of the first seized was the 120-foot long luxury yacht of Italian Prince Ruspoli, who has been living in semi-retirement in Havana for three years. The crew was interned.

The Cuban House of Representatives in emergency session Friday night passed a bill to conscript all men between 20 and 35 and empower the president to extend the age limits from 18 to 65, whenever he considers it necessary. Cuba has declared war on the Axis as have most of the Central American republics.

Giovanni Persico and Stephen Tauchnitz, Italian minister and German charge d'affaires to Havana, were handed their passports.

Guatemala restricted constitutional guarantees to German, Italian and Japanese aliens for the duration.

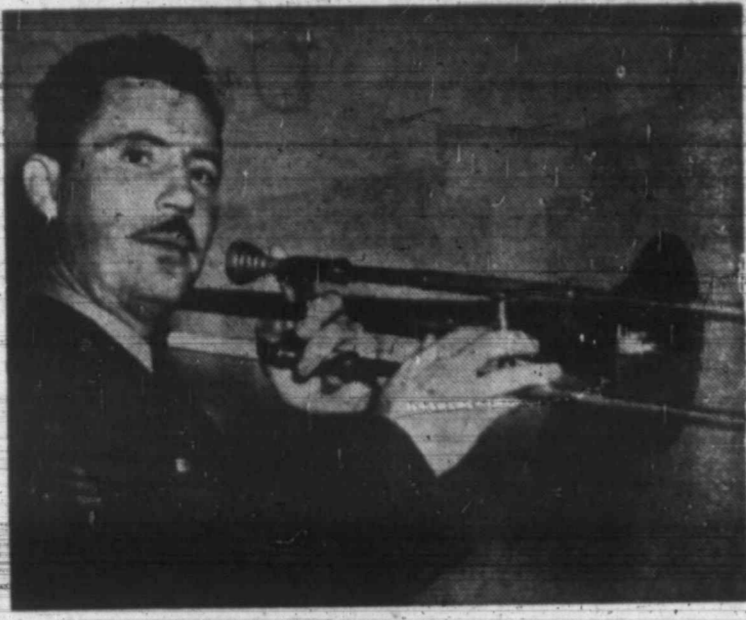

Men To Be Cited
The Nicaraguan government invoked the constitutional decree regarding conscription, and all men between 18 and 30 will immediately be called up for military duty. German diplomats were told to be out of the country within three days, and authorities conducted a spirited search for hidden Italians and Germans. More than 100 Germans and 40 Italians already have been arrested.

Panama, El Salvador, Honduras and Haiti declared war on Germany and Italy Friday. Cuba, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Costa Rica and the dominican republic declared war Thursday on the European Axis nations.

Gov. Glenn Edgerton of the Panama Canal Zone addressed an open letter to all canal and railroad employees, asking them to refrain from writing alarming reports to folks in the United States. He said it was highly desirable that they stress that there was "little danger."

Japs Are Enterned
Ecuador shut up the German Trans-Ocean news agency and ordered internment of Japanese living around Port Guayaquil. The government cancelled the contracts of six Japanese technicians an oil company had engaged for petroleum exploration.

Bolivia cracked down on Axis business, adopting blacklists approved by other American nations and freezing Italian, German and Japanese bank accounts into one

SGT. CECIL FLYNN

Lubbock Youth Lays Aside Musical Instruments And Joins Up With Uncle Sam

WICHITA FALLS, Dec. 13 — National defense fingers can point to a Lubbock man who seems to fit neatly into civilian and army life alike.

Sgt. Cecil Flynn, assigned to the 401st school squadron of Sheppard field, gave up a long and advanced musical profession because he said he believed "the army needs men who like the army and men who have had training in order to train new men."

Mother In Lubbock
The son of Mrs. May Flynn of 1406 Avenue J in Lubbock, Sgt. Flynn's musical career began in high school in his native Lubbock where he played the violin and the newly popularized saxophone.

"Like many another gifted musician, other work could not diminish his interest in music, which was continued when he took an electrical engineering course in Texas Technological college.

"Music took him out on the road and he toured the country with different bands, playing with George Brockbridge's orchestra at the Nichols Hills Country club in Oklahoma City and at one time an engagement at Lake Wichita," the story continued.

Was On Circuit
The orchestra was on a circuit through the southern states when a 13-year-old youth was signed up at Beaumont. He gave the name of Harry James, soon to be known as one of the best trumpet players in the world. A few years later Sgt. Flynn was playing with Harry James' new orchestra. Then after learning to play nearly all the reed and brass instruments, Sgt. Flynn had his own orchestra five years.

"At one time or another he has met nearly all the name-band leaders in the country, including Paul Whiteman, Jack Teagarden, Red Nichols, Wayne King, Bernie Cummings and Glenn Miller, with whom he once worked.

Joined National Guard
In 1926, Sgt. Flynn joined the national guard and spent several years with that organization, achieving to the rank of staff sergeant, and was up for a commission, supervised by the minister of finance.

Uruguay informed the American nations at war with the Axis that they would not be considered belligerents and the minister of defense said he was sending parliament urgent legislation for national defense.

Young Seamen Being Sought

Facilities of the United States Employment service will be used by arrangement with the maritime commission, to speed manning of ships for America's expanding merchant marine, according to information received by officials at the Lubbock office of Texas State Employment service, 1207 Thirtieth street.

Public employment offices in every state will assist in enrollment of apprentice seamen and radio operators for training by the maritime commission, which is administered by the U. S. coast guard, said Paul V. McNutt, Federal Security administrator.

To Launch New Ships
"Some 1,200 new merchant ships will be launched in the next two years and will require 40,000 additional seamen," he added in a communication to local offices.

Young men between ages of 18 and 23 were urged to apply at the local office. They will have to meet physical and character standards established by the maritime service. Though it is not an enlisted service, selective service boards have instructions to waive induction; where possible, of men in the "merchant marine." Apprentices may join the merchant marine reserve of the Navy Reserve and thus be exempt from selective service.

Free Transportation
Trainees will receive free transportation from point of enrollment to the school. A clothing allowance of $100 will be made. Men in the deck, engineering and cooks' and bakers' schools receive a minimum of $21 a month, those in the radio school $36 to $44 monthly. Base pay for graduates employed on ocean and Great Lakes merchant ships is $72.50 per month.

For ordinary seamen and engine room helpers, $92.90 for able seamen and qualified members of the engine department, plus bonuses. Radio operators' base pay ranges from $105 to $165 a month.

The Lubbock branch office of Texas Employment service will give further information and preliminary interviews to applicants; then refer them to the maritime service enrollment officers in key cities, it was said.

Negro Woman Held In Hijacking Case
Bertie Childress, 32, a negro woman, was jailed Saturday as a suspect in the hijacking Friday night of a Mexican, Manuel Hernandez.

Bond of $1,500 was set by Justice J. T. Inmon on the charge of theft from person. Bail was not posted.

Hernandez said the woman took $330 from his pocket while he sat in his automobile talking to a negro man.

Sheriff W. L. (Lon) Cross of Garza county said a black 1936 Chevrolet coupe, license number 478-908, had been stolen at Post.

Police were informed that a 1938 Ford coach stolen here Dec. 5 had been found abandoned and burned 14 miles west of Gail, Borden county. It belonged to W. H. Ferguson, of 1706 Avenue D, police said.

Mrs. George Pierce of 3124 Twenty-first street said a man's jacket had been stolen from her car and residents in 1900-block Twenty-ninth street said a negro was prowling cars in that vicinity. No arrest was made.

Born On Last Day Of Last War; Is Killed On First Of This One

HENDLEY, Neb., Dec. 13.—Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Meyers named their son Victor because he was born the day America triumphed in the first World war—Nov. 11, 1918.

Victor was killed in action last Sunday at Hickam field in Hawaii, the day Japan attacked America in the second World war.

Mrs. Husted Rites To Be Read Monday
Funeral services for Mrs. Arthur Husted, 29, of Corpus Christi, will be conducted at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon in Riv Funeral home chapel, with Rev. W. E. Hamilton of Lubbock, a Methodist minister, officiating. It was announced Saturday night. Burial will be in Lubbock cemetery.

Death Penalty Given Slayer

(By The Associated Press) LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 13.—Robert H. Anderson, stolid-faced 36-year-old former Louisville cafe operator and ex-convict, must pay with his life for the night-time slaying of golf star Marion Miley in her Lexington Country club apartment on Sept. 28.

This verdict was reached last night by a Fayette circuit court jury after nearly 24 hours' deliberation. The defendant, who heard the verdict read by the jury foreman and confirmed by each member of the panel, showed no emotion.

Formal pronouncement of the sentence was deferred by Judge Chester D. Adams but was expected to follow Monday, when Anderson's two co-defendants, Tom C. Penney and Raymond S. (Skeeter) Baxter are called for trial in the same case.

Declined To Take Stand
Anderson had declined to take the witness stand to refute the commonwealth's charge that he and Penney had entered the Miley apartment and shot Miss Miley and her mother, Mrs. Elsie Ego Miley, while robbing them of approximately $130. Miss Miley died instantly, her mother three days later.

Penney, 32, was the principal prosecution witness. He testified he accompanied Anderson on the death trip, that they used Anderson's pistols and that he used Anderson's automobile to escape. Penney was arrested in Ft. Worth, Texas, several days later. Baxter, 27, former greens keeper at the country club, had told them the Miley had several thousand dollars in their possession, Penney testified.

Salvation Army Drive Short Of Its Goal

Donations to the Salvation Army's annual drive for funds to provide baskets for needy families reached only $300 Saturday night, woefully short of the $2,000 goal to be reached by Christmas, said Capt. Herman G. Lambrecht, commander.

The Army hopes to provide 300 baskets to needy families this year, Capt. Lambrecht said, and $1,000 is the minimum cost for which food alone for the baskets can be provided.

He also announced that the Army headquarters at 1120 Seventeenth street will be open from 1 to 5 each afternoon this week for registration of families who want to receive the baskets.

Warning Is Given To U. S. Citizens That All Information Should Be Kept From Enemy; Precautions Are Being Urged

(By The Associated Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 13.—A warning to citizens that enemy spies would seize upon every bit of information to cause damage to the United States was issued last night by Rear Admiral J. W. Green, commander of the twelfth naval district.

The warning, in full, follows:

"To the residents of the twelfth naval district:

"You are violating the security of the United States and endangering the lives of your fellow-Americans if you fail to observe these precautions:

"1. Don't discuss movements or concentrations of our Navy merchant ships.

"2. Don't discuss new military techniques or new weapons.

"3. Don't discuss defense plant production capacities.

"4. Don't discuss movements or concentrations of naval personnel or marines.

"5. Don't discuss naval shore construction projects.

"This is a modern war. The enemy will utilize every conceivable means to obtain information on these subjects.

"His spies will be listening for the stray spoken word, watching avidly for the chance clue in the printed story, listening attentively for the radio announcer who will blunderingly reveal, in one innocent-sounding phrase, enough information to sink a troop packed transport or blast a shipyard.

"This is a total war, and every civilian is in it. It is the responsibility of every civilian to keep from the enemy and his agents that information they will be constantly seeking.

FDR Okays Plan By Jesse Jones

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Creation of the war insurance corporation with a capital of $100,000,000 to provide "reasonable protection" against losses resulting from enemy attacks on private property in the continental United States was announced today by the federal loan administration.

Loan Administrator Jesse H. Jones said the corporation had been set up by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation with the approval of President Roosevelt.

Details Not Complete

The insurance would be against losses sustained by property owners through "damage to, or destruction of buildings, structures and personal property, including goods, growing crops and orchards."

The statement said: "Pending completion of details, any such losses will be protected from December 13, up to a total of $100,000,000.

"Accounts, bills, currency, debts, evidences of debts, money, notes, securities, paintings and other objects of art will not be covered.

None To Enemies

"For the time being, no premium will be charged for this protection and no declaration or reports required unless there is a loss.

"Other terms and conditions for such protection will be announced as established.

"No protection will be available to owners of property who, in the opinion of the president, are unfriendly to the United States."

Ordinances To Get Attention

Two new ordinances and amendments to two others are scheduled for consideration at a special meeting of the city commission Monday night at 7:30 o'clock, according to information given Saturday at the city hall.

One of them proposes a rigid control of the handling and storing of "liquefied petroleum gases," of which butane is the most widely used.

Mayor Carl E. Sifton said that the meeting is to be devoted exclusively to consideration of the ordinances. That will be time-taking because they are lengthy and the law requires that they be read aloud. Members of the commission did not desire to take the time required from a regular meeting.

To Regulate Advertising

The other new ordinance scheduled for reading proposes to regulate outdoor advertising, and is no more than a revision of one in effect until recently which was repealed when a new general building code was adopted. This ordinance is similar to those in effect in practically all Texas cities, officials said.

Ordinances to be amended are those establishing electric and plumbing codes. They and the outdoor advertising ordinance are described as being routine.

The ordinance proposing to regulate the handling of liquefied petroleum gases also is modeled, officials said, from similar regulations in effect in many cities. The gases are described by fire department officials as a fire and explosion hazard when not handled properly.

The proposed ordinance would require permits for all handlers of the product, as well as for the installation of storage tanks of more than 1,000-gallon capacity. It would provide for regular inspections and check-ups. It would not permit any tank vehicle carrying the gases to be driven without in the downtown fire zone, and would forbid overnight parking of such vehicles anywhere in the city limits.

Nation's Railroads Petition ICC For Increased Freight And Passenger Rates

Ten Per Cent On Fares Is Asked

(By The United Press)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The nation's railroads petitioned the Interstate Commerce commission today for increased freight and passenger rates which would produce approximately $388,525,000 in additional revenue annually.

The increases were asked to enable the carriers to meet higher operating costs resulting from the recent wage increases granted their employees.

Ten Per Cent Asked
The proposed increases included:

1.—Increase of 10 per cent in all passenger fares except the 1.14 cents per mile special rate allowed members of military or naval forces traveling on furlough. There would be no increase in the extra fare charged on some trains.

2.—Increase of 10 per cent in all freight rates except those on anthracite and bituminous coal, coke and iron ore.

Would Increase Coal
In the case of anthracite and bituminous coal, the railroads proposed an increase of 5 cents in rates stated on a net ton basis and 6 cents where stated on a gross ton basis, except that rates from all origins to points west of Chicago and Milwaukee would be increased as follows:

1.—Rates of 35 cents and less— an increase of three cents; rates from 37 cents to $1, an increase of 5 cents; rates over $1, an increase of 10 cents.

Manila Is Raided

Region of northern Luzon, thus disclosing establishment of a Japanese air post there.

"Several airfields were attacked by enemy aircraft today," said Gen. MacArthur's 4:30 p. m. Saturday communique.

"Reports so far are meagre, but it is believed our losses were slight. Some Japanese planes were destroyed, including one shot down by anti-aircraft battery of the harbor defenses, but the number is so far undetermined. The situation on the ground has not changed. Mopping up of the Lingayen area has been concluded.

Situation Under Control

An official statement Thursday had said that the situation at Lingayen was "under control" after the first Japanese landing Wednesday. On Friday, however, it was disclosed that the Japanese were attempting to develop a second attack there.

Aside from mention that the situation was unchanged there was no official word on progress of fighting in the Aparri region of northern Luzon, where Japanese first landed Monday and apparently have maintained a small force.

An official broadcast in Tokyo early Saturday declared that Japanese forces were advancing inland from Luzon landings, urging the Filipinos to revolt.

Attacks in Morning

First air attacks on the Philippines Saturday were in the morning. The 11 a. m. communique reported: "In the air the enemy have bombed Cebu and Clark field. On the ground, only sporadic and unimportant activities."

Cebu is on an island of the same name 250 miles northeast of Manila. Clark field, along with Nichols field, is part of the Manila defense system.

Manila watched large Japanese bombing squadrons attack military installations about the capital in assaults which began at 12:35 p. m. Flying in directly from the west, the first wave headed straight for Nichols air depot. It was met by heavy anti-aircraft fire and later by fighter planes which dived upon it from high altitudes while others rose to attack from beneath.

Message For China

Terrific detonations were heard from the Nichols field area. Reports direct from the field and from other airfields which were the targets of the attack said a number of bombs had fallen in native residential sections, indicating that the defenders had forced the Japanese to drop their bombs and flee. (An NBC broadcast from Manila said damage to Nichols field was slight but almost a mile of civilian homes were on fire.)

During the day, Gen. MacArthur sent the following message to Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek:

"I take this occasion to send you a message of greeting in sympathy and in spirit. I have been ranged by your side from the beginning of your epic struggle for freedom. That spiritual conception has now become a reality and I send you this warm handclasp of a comrade in arms."

most menacing bid to smash the Philippines defenses.

Hard Blow At Japs
Though the Japanese hold other beach-heads on Luzon's west coast, the repulse at Lingayen was believed to have struck a hard blow at their general strategic plan. That the forces of Lieut. General Douglas MacArthur have spotted another element in this plan and are doing everything possible to thwart it was indicated in a communique issued by the War Department.

After asserting that the Japanese had bombed Clark field, north of Manila, and Cebu, a city and island 300 miles southwest of Luzon, the communique added:

"The enemy plan is now clearly revealed as an attempt to secure improvised air bases outside of the area compassed by our ground defenses."

FDR. Officials Meet
There was other cheering news, too, from the battle-fronts on land and sea as President Roosevelt met with high War and Navy department officials to discuss the situation, and the House military committee pressed forward with hearings on a bill to register the nation's manpower.

Reports from Batavia, Dutch East Indies, said Dutch submarines had destroyed about 4,000 Japanese soldiers by sending to the bottom four transports headed for the Malay-Battlefront, and that other Dutch naval units liquidated a Japanese settlement on the east coast of Borneo.

But perhaps the most significant news—at least from a psychological point of view—was an admission from the Japanese Premier, Hideki Tojo that Nippon must be prepared for a long war, despite initial successes. Japan is considered the least well-equipped of all the powers for a long war.

There was no official comment here on the latest Japanese claims that a total of three United States battleships were sunk in the raid on Hawaii last Sunday, or that the Japanese had captured, or at least captured, Britain's crown colony of Hongkong off the South China coast.

To Be Compensated

The Japanese, having previously boasted that the battleships Oklahoma and West Virginia had been sunk at Pearl Harbor, added the U. S. Arizona to that roster today. Officials here have acknowledged the loss of only one old battleship.

"Facily, the Japanese admitted that the embattled marines still held little Wake Island in the Pacific. The imperial headquarters at Tokyo said Japanese naval units had damaged military facilities on Wake during an attack Thursday, and that the attackers had suffered "some losses" in the process.

In a move to augment its merchant fleet tonnage, the United States took over the Swedish luxury liner Kungsholm, which recently had been engaged in pleasure trips to the Caribbean. and to purchase certain "critical supplies" for an army of 3,200,000.

Senate and House are expected to take final action on the measure Monday.

Congressional leaders went ahead with plans to draft a gigantic new tax bill, possibly raising $5,000,000,000 annually for the war effort. In this connection, Chairman Doughton (D-N.C.) of the House ways and means committee said non-defense spending must be cut to the bone because "the world has never known anything approximating the cost involved in this world-wide struggle."

President Roosevelt signed a bill annulling legal restrictions on the use of draftees and national guardsmen outside the western hemisphere or American possessions. The bill also keeps all Army personnel in service for the duration of the war.

Another measure retaining naval, Marine corps and Coast Guard enlisted men in service for the duration also was signed by the chief executive.

"I christen you YMS-23," she said. As the new minesweeper slid down the ways, she added:

"And, dammit, I'll serve on you if they'll let me."

Brushing back tears, Mrs. Crouter dabbed at her eyes, brushed aside congratulations, and continued to utter every word of it. And I don't mean to go aboard her as a cook, either.

Oklahoma City, Dec. 13.—Jess Bollman, president of the local motion picture machine operators' union, said today he would recommend that a strike against nine local theaters be called off until after the war and that the money spent for picketing be used to buy defense bonds.

CINCINNATI, Dec. 13.—When Dr. Carroll de Courcy made plans for a new home last summer, he decided he might as well put a bomb shelter in while he was at it.

So while the rest of the house went up, workmen poured concrete walls for the shelter adjoining it. It needed a good strong roof of steel-reinforced concrete. But the Office of Production Management had other uses for the materials and now Dr. de Courcy has a roofless bomb shelter.

work in this effort will do so anonymously. Names of those taking the lead were not announced. They were taking no chance, even of the suspicion that personal glory or benefit could be the aim of those attempting to render an unselfish, patriotic service.

This entire effort, it was explained, has had its beginning in the past week—since the declarations of war on the United States. The Red Cross has, of course, made detailed plans for the work it would be called upon to do in any emergency that would be unforeseen. The plans were ready to be put in operation when need for them arose. But they have to be financed.

So the president authorized and endorsed the present $50,000,000 emergency objective. Quotas were worked out for every state and community in the nation. That for Texas is $1,000,000. Lubbock county's is $14,000. Local committees were notified and, like those in Lubbock, they are getting busy.

Japs Did Talking

Of the money raised, 15 per cent is to be retained by the local chapter. The remainder will go to the most essential of war disaster relief work—and in that connection, it was pointed out that the Red Cross is the only civilian organization recognized by the Army and Navy for the assignment of specific tasks. Some of the money doubtless will go for evacuation of refugees from such war-torn places as Hawaii, the Philippines and other ravaged places. Some will go for food and shelter and medical supplies and treatment for those who cannot be removed. It is a fund for disaster emergency relief, regardless where or when it occurs. It is for a type of work which is described by the highest commands of the Army and Navy to be vital to their operation.

"Our hope and expectation is that Lubbock people will do their share without the necessity of sales 'talks' by anyone," said a member of the local volunteer committee. "It would seem that the Japs already have made all the sales talking that could be needed to insure this fund will be over-subscribed with the speed the emergency demands."

Lubbock County Red Cross Figures Given

Donations totaling $596.22 from outlying districts of Lubbock county brought the total funds collected in a recent Red Cross drive for memberships to $4,717.36, it was revealed Saturday night after a report had been released by County Clerk Ed D. Allen, who was chairman of the county roll call outside the city.

Allen announced county donations by communities and towns as follows:

Slaton, Briggs Robertson, chairman, $378; Roosevelt, Bill Grimes, chairman, $60; Becton, Mrs. Johnny Joiner, chairman, $24.00; Friendship A. L. Red Raiders Humble Defending Champion Texas Miners In Border Loop Opener

Gilbreath And Erwin Pace Tech

56-33 Win

By JOE PIERCE
Avalanche-Journal Sports Writer
IT TOOK THE Texas Mines basketballers, defending champions of the Border conference, just two nights to discover that the championship road in the league is going to be considerably fockier this season.

Texas Tech's Red Raiders furnished the Muckers with positive proof of that last night in the college gymnasium by handing them a thorough drubbing, 56 to 33. Coming after the West Texas State Teachers Buffaloes had rebuffed them, 75 to 44, the defeat left the Miners with slim chances of regaining the crown they won last season—and also indicated that a thrilling season of basketball was when the Buffs and the Raiders tangle next month.

Layla Leads Mines
Byron Gilbreath and Elvris Erwin, a couple of tall-lads who are needed—with almost uncanny ability—to hit their shots from the pivot position, paced a speedy scoring assault that left the Muckers far behind. Gilbreath bucketed nine field goals and four free shots for 22 points and the scoring lead, with Erwin close behind with seven and two for 16.

Donald Lane and Bud Lassiter, Mines' all-conference forwards, were bottled effectively by the Tech defense. Capt. Gabe Gilley, assigned to Lance on defense, never did allow the lad who was the leading scorer in the conference a year ago to start starting center for the Miners, who rung up seven field goals and a free shot for 16 points.

Floyd Fouls Out
The game was slow, due to excessive whistle-blowing by Official Ed Hamright and Curtis Hamilton. Twenty-eight fouls were called, 21 of them in the first half. Each team was charged with 14 infractions.

Lee Floyd, hustling Mines guard, fouled off late in the first half, and Lance and Lassiter, each had three fouls by the end of the half. George Allen, Erwin, Gilbreath and Norman Volk of the Raiders all had three fouls at the end of the game.

The game was closely contested through the first eight minutes, with the score tied at 8-8. At 11-11 before the Raiders began pulling away. Tech led at halftime, 28-20, then starting scoring swiftly in the second half for an easy victory.

Ben Hogan Staves Off Rally By Byron Nelson To Retain One-Stroke Lead At Miami

By JOHN WILDS
Associated Press Sports Writer

MIAMI, Fla., Dec. 13.—Byron Nelson of Toledo made his bid for a second consecutive victory in the $10,000 Miami Open golf tournament today with a sparkling third-round 66 that almost pulled him even with pace-setting Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa.

A bold front-runner, Hogan holed a 10-foot putt for a birdie three on the seventeenth to retain a one-stroke margin for the beginning of the final 18 holes tomorrow. His one-under-par 69 gave him a 54-hole 202 against Nelson's 203.

In third place, four strokes off the pace, came Sam Snead of Hot Springs, Va., still plagued by a wavering putter. He posted a 36-34-70 today.

Nelson's game was superb except on the putting surface. He hit 14 of the 18 greens. Firing six birdies and two bogeys, the former National Open champion made the turn in one-under-34, then rammed home a 15-foot putt on the 18th for his 33.

Hogan Comes Through
Only a magnificent comeback saved Hogan's lead. He was three over par on the first four holes, but birdied the fifth, sixth and eighth to catch up. His duce on the eighth was earned with a successful 70-foot chip.

Just missing a birdie on the 16th, Hogan needed to cut one stroke from par on the final two holes to keep his margin over Nelson, who already had finished. He did it on the long 18th, a heart-breaker for most of the field with his great second shot and putt.

Earl Christiansen, Miami policeman, wrested top place among the amateurs from Dick Chapman of Coral Gables, Fla., former National champion. He read his third successive 72, for a 216 total. Chapman needed 75 and was three strokes behind.

The leaders:
Ben Hogan, Hershey, Pa., 133-64-70-202.
Byron Nelson, Toledo, 137-66-203.
Sam Snead, Hot Springs, Va., 136-70-206.
Jim Ferrier, Elmhurst, Ill., 139-69-208.

Coyotes Crush Ysleta; Lamar Upsets Austin

By The Associated Press

IT'S SUNSET vs. Wichita Falls and Temple vs. Lamar in the semi-finals of Texas schoolboy football this week.

The Bison, Saturday, beat another Dallas team, Highland Park, 7-0, to become the opponent of Wichita Falls, victor over Ysleta, 21-0.

At the same time Lamar, the Houston Cinderella, tear was blasting favored Austin 26-6 to move out against Temple, which reached the semi-finals for the third time in four years Friday by downing Tyler 14-7.

Temple and Lamar will play at Houston Saturday afternoon, but the site and date of the Sunset-Wichita Falls game will not be decided until Sunday when officials of the two schools meet at Dec.

Coyotes Still Passing
Defeat of Austin was a jarring upset, especially by such a one-sided score. The Maroons had taken over the top-rated Corpus Christi eleven in the first round and appeared headed for the finals.

The other three games went as generally predicted.
Sunset's victory over Highland Park was more decisive than the score indicated. Except for a few passing flurries, the Highlanders never threatened the Bisons.

Bounding Bill Blackburn, one of the state's finest all-around backs, intercepted a pass, to race 54 yards to the Highland Park four-yard line, then slung over for the touchdown in two tries.

Wichita Falls moved through the air for its victory over Ysleta which was unable to make a single first down. Gene Hill, as usual, was the Coyote star, passing for all three Wichita Falls touchdowns.

Packers, Bears Meet In Playoff Contest Today

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—The first of two consecutive championship games in the National football league will be staged tomorrow before a capacity crowd in Wrigley field when the Chicago Bears and the Green Bay Packers are scheduled to meet.

For many of the 46,484 fans who already have purchased available sitting and standing space in the park, the meeting of Bears and Packers will hold more potential thrills than the following week's game could possibly produce.

For one thing there's the prospect of football's first experiment with a sudden-death overtime period in case the teams are tied at the end of the regulation 60 minutes. Such will not be the case when the winner faces the Giants Dec. 21, for if that game ends in a tie, it will go into the books just that way and the contestants will be crowned co-champions.

Southwest Loop Defers Action On Cotton Bowl

By The Associated Press

DALLAS, Dec. 13.—The Southwest conference will announce at the annual spring meeting its final and definite policy toward guaranteeing its football champion for the Cotton Bowl game.

It had been expected that action would be taken at the fall session today but two members were not authorized to announce their policy, so the matter was passed over until May.

At that time, however, all schools were requested to come prepared to state their attitude. Five members already are committed to the plan of making the Cotton Bowl a "closed shop." The other two, Texas and Texas A. and M., are not.

Golden Gloves Plans Go Forward; Cancellation Because Of War Not Likely

District Sawoff Here To Go On As Scheduled

Come on, Golden Gloves, let's clear the decks for action! Even though the United States is at war, the boxing wars will not be suspended, and now is the time to get in shape for the long grind to come.

The Fort Worth Star-Telegram, sponsor of the state Golden Gloves tournament, announced last week that plans for the big affair have not been suspended, and until further notice the tournament is definitely "on."

No Cancellation

The same goes for the Lubbock district tournament. It will be run off as scheduled, barring unforeseen and unforeseeable developments.

Sports certainly has a place in the national defense effort, and boxing, like everything else in these times, must think first of what is best for the nation in the war now going on.

But to authorities at Washington, it seems best to go on with sports events as scheduled, and in unusual cases, there's no denying the fact that athletics make a strong contribution to national morale, by providing means of relaxation for fans and participants.

Of course, in these times plans may have to be changed without notice, but only developments of an unforeseen nature could cause cancellation of the Golden Gloves program here and elsewhere over the nation.

Date, Site Unannounced

Not to be overlooked in planning the boxing program is the part it plays in building up the physical condition of participants. It is estimated that more than 200 boys participated in Golden Gloves preliminary and championship tournaments over the South Plains last year, and every one of those 200 had to get in top physical shape before fighting.

And boys who participate in the program this year will certainly be physically ready to answer any call that may be made on them.

Definite dates and sites for the district tournament has not yet been announced, but authorities here are expected to make a decision shortly.

And in the meantime—

There Is No Open Season On Firecrackers In City

W. Guy Casey, city fire marshal, warned Saturday that there is no open season for exploding firecrackers in downtown Lubbock.

A city ordinance prohibits the shooting of fireworks in the immediate business and in the wholesale districts, he explained.

He also took the occasion to remind merchants that most of them are taking chances in selling fireworks or in allowing youngsters to place stands in front of their stores. Few fire insurance policies include payment for fires started from fireworks.

The merchant can refuse the use of his store front to youths who wish to sell Roman candles, baby giants and the like, Casey said.

Texas Citizens Are Urged To Send In Money For Christmas Seals Recently Mailed Them

(Special To The Avalanche-Journal)
AUSTIN, Dec. 13.—As a result of the emergency existing because of the war, the Texas Tuberculosis association is urging all citizens of this state, who have not yet made their contributions for Christmas seals mailed them on November 24, to do so now.

"When the world is on fire," said Dr. Z. T. Scott, managing director of the association, "tuberculosis in our state seems to be a small problem. But let us keep our perspective. National defense, of course, needs money, machines and material. But machines and material need men and men need health."

Must Not Forget Lessons

The lessons learned about tuberculosis in the last war must not be forgotten now. We cannot afford to weaken on the home front by giving the silent foe, tuberculosis, a chance to destroy

Feller's Mighty Arm—Pride Of Cleveland—Offered For Service In Uncle Sam's Navy

By JACK GUENTHER
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—When war comes, personal disappointments invariably melt into insignificance. This is particularly true in sports, where yesterday's headline is today's minor item. When a nation begins a fight for its existence, the sacrifice of boxing, baseball or football careers can't be expected to greatly matter.

For example, there is the case of Robert William Andrew Feller, the 23-year-old fireball pitcher from Van Meter, Ia. He figured the other day in a two-inch sport page story which two years ago would have resulted in a national sensation. The story stated that young Bob had joined the Navy.

Feller has known for some time that he would spend 1942 in one of another branch of the armed forces—the mighty arm which for figures, fighters, jockeys, and football stars have pleaded various reasons for deferment. Feller has asked nothing. Whatever he could do, he said simply, he would do.

There is a difference between Feller and other boys of his age or men who are a little older. He has followed a singular pattern of life. Since he was first able to toddle, Feller has thought first, last and only of baseball.

He stood fast in his determination to follow the greatest of all pitchers, the mighty arm which for figures, fighters, jockeys, and football stars have pleaded various reasons for deferment. Feller has asked nothing. Whatever he could do, he said simply, he would do.

There is a difference between Feller and other boys of his age or men who are a little older. He has followed a singular pattern of life. Since he was first able to toddle, Feller has thought first, last and only of baseball.

Must Decide About Pay

Vice President B. D. Kunkle of General Motors corporation telegraphed Walter Reuther, G. M. director of the United Automobile Workers union, that his company was ready to begin working seven days a week if men and material are available and an agreement can be reached about extra pay for Saturday and Sunday.

Reuther telegraphed Ford, General Motors and the Chrysler corporation from New York Thursday, asking them to institute 24 hours a day, seven days a week schedules on defense orders. He said the union was willing, if an agreement on the extra pay question couldn't be reached in 10 days, to let an arbitrator settle it.

Truck Crops In State Improved

AUSTIN, Dec. 13.—Supplies of truck crops in Texas, the U. S. Agriculture Marketing service reported today, are now moving from winter production areas in fair volume and are expected to increase materially before the month is out.

The acreage of beets in Texas is estimated at 7,100 acres. This is a decrease of 9 per cent from the acreage harvested last season but is 13 per cent larger than the 10-year (1931-40) average. The decrease in the acreage this year results mainly from the loss of early acreage in the lower valley and unsuitable weather in the coastal bend for seeding for early harvest.

Truck Crops In State Improved

The acreage of carrots planted in Texas and the first crop in Arizona is indicated to be 17,650 acres compared with 12,750 acres last year. The Texas acreage is estimated at 9,900 compared with 11,700 acres harvested last year. Part of the decrease is offset by the 1,750 acres planted in Arizona compared with 1,050 acres last year. Supplies from the lower valley of Texas will become more liberal in December, but crops in this area are generally late.

Truck Crops In State Improved

The winter garden section plantings were much earlier than usual. Crops are now in good condition and sufficient acreage is expected to come into production to supply quantities for carlot loadings early in December.

The preliminary estimate of cabbage acreage in the early states (Arizona, California, Florida, and Texas) is 60,800 acres. Last season 41,400 acres were harvested in this group of states, and the 1931-40 average is 43,440 acres. All states show an increase.

Truck Crops In State Improved

On the basis of conditions on December 1, total production of oranges for the United States for the 1941-42 marketing season is indicated to be 84,482,000 boxes compared with 84,082,000 boxes harvested last year.

Production of grapefruit for the 1941-42 season is now placed at 41,490,000 boxes compared with 43,063,000 boxes last year. The December 1 estimate of 41,490,000 boxes is a small increase over the 40,200,000 boxes indicated on November 1.

Truck Crops In State Improved

Prospective production in Texas showed no change in December from that indicated in November which was 15,100,000 boxes of grapefruit and 3,100,000 boxes of oranges.

The congestion of the state highways over a large area, incident to this tournament and football game, and its serious obstruction to their use in defense work, the concentration there of a large police force, now needed for defense services, the unusually large gathering of people, known to the enemy, exposing them to the dangers now threatening, requires that plans for the holding of this tournament and football game be abandoned.

Ford Plants On 24-Hour Basis

(By The United Press)

DETROIT, Dec. 13.—The Ford Motor company, with defense contracts totaling more than $900,000,000, began turning out arms to beat the Axis on a 24-hour, seven day a week schedule today.

Edsel Ford, company president, said the schedule was in effect wherever practical. Workers in the $7,500,000 Pratt and Whitney airplane engine factory at River Rouge, Mich., were put on two, 10-hour shifts, seven days a week.

Ford Plants On 24-Hour Basis

An around-the-clock schedule also was instituted at the $58,500,000 plant near Ypsilanti, Mich., which will be turning out Consolidated B-24E bombers by spring, its air field, in the engineering laboratory, tool and die plant and mechanical foundry.

"We have taken this action in response to the government's declaration of all-out effort on the war," Ford said. "We have asked employees in the present defense operations to volunteer for a seven-day week until we can train additional men so that the seven-day schedule can be maintained for the shop while the individual employ puts in only the normal week. The response to this request has been unanimous."

Truck Crops In State Improved

AUSTIN, Dec. 13.—Supplies of truck crops in Texas, the U. S. Agriculture Marketing service reported today, are now moving from winter production areas in fair volume and are expected to increase materially before the month is out.

The acreage of beets in Texas is estimated at 7,100 acres. This is a decrease of 9 per cent from the acreage harvested last season but is 13 per cent larger than the 10-year (1931-40) average. The decrease in the acreage this year results mainly from the loss of early acreage in the lower valley and unsuitable weather in the coastal bend for seeding for early harvest.

Truck Crops In State Improved

The acreage of carrots planted in Texas and the first crop in Arizona is indicated to be 17,650 acres compared with 12,750 acres last year. The Texas acreage is estimated at 9,900 compared with 11,700 acres harvested last year. Part of the decrease is offset by the 1,750 acres planted in Arizona compared with 1,050 acres last year. Supplies from the lower valley of Texas will become more liberal in December, but crops in this area are generally late.

Truck Crops In State Improved

The winter garden section plantings were much earlier than usual. Crops are now in good condition and sufficient acreage is expected to come into production to supply quantities for carlot loadings early in December.

The preliminary estimate of cabbage acreage in the early states (Arizona, California, Florida, and Texas) is 60,800 acres. Last season 41,400 acres were harvested in this group of states, and the 1931-40 average is 43,440 acres. All states show an increase.

On the basis of conditions on December 1, total production of oranges for the United States for the 1941-42 marketing season is indicated to be 84,482,000 boxes compared with 84,082,000 boxes harvested last year.

Production of grapefruit for the 1941-42 season is now placed at 41,490,000 boxes compared with 43,063,000 boxes last year. The December 1 estimate of 41,490,000 boxes is a small increase over the 40,200,000 boxes indicated on November 1.

Truck Crops In State Improved

Prospective production in Texas showed no change in December from that indicated in November which was 15,100,000 boxes of grapefruit and 3,100,000 boxes of oranges.

BILL DEAN'S COLUMN

If you can read the news stories of the heroic and spectacular death of Capt. Colin P. Kelly, Jr., army flyer, after dealing the Japanese battleship Haruna a lethal blow, without feeling of pride, then read his wife's statement a few days later. "I am proud of him," she said, "and didn't he give those Japs something to remember him by?"

IT'S unbelievable what a difference one little word can make. Some of us went to the football game at Wichita Falls, just recently, and the outcome of that game was important to us. Lubbock's defeat was a bitter dose. That game and all other games fade into insignificance now. Most of the things we fussed and worried about seem unimportant now. Plans we may have made regarding our affairs and conduct months in advance have been thrown in the scrap heap. Events that took place as a matter of course are abandoned. Nothing is certain. Nothing is secure. Our Country is at WAR. This is the most important thing in our lives right now.

ONE has only to observe the trainloads of soldiers traveling Westward to realize the seriousness of the situation. Many far too many of these fine boys will be sacrificed because this is over. And that is the horror of war: Not the spending, not the slavery, not the taxes nor the inconveniences. The most terrible thing about war is that it takes the lives of boys going off and knowing in our hearts that some of them will never return.

NOWHERE a thing is said in protest. No one says it shouldn't be done. Silenced are the voices that scoffed at preparedness measures. All of us now know we should have been preparing long ago. About the outcome there can be no doubt. Our concern is that the thing be ended before subjecting the Nation to the effects of a long duration.

I VISITED several tire dealers after the ban became effective. All were concerned about the future and none of them liked the idea of losing money, but no one complained that it was unnecessary. No one thought he was being imposed upon. All of them realized that this measure was vital to the welfare of the nation and that they would have to adapt themselves to the situation.

ALL of us know that the amount of crude rubber reaching our shores will be very limited. All of us know that existing supplies must be conserved and dealt out most sparingly. We know, too, that rubber is of prime importance in the winning of the war. Listen, then, to the recommendations of the national leaders.

Check tires often for leaks. Keep pressure balanced. Use caps on the valves. Cross switch tires regularly. Keep wheels balanced and aligned. Remove nails, glass and stones from tread. Don't drive fast. Don't make flying starts. Don't make sliding stops. Don't race around turns. Don't scrape or bang curbs. Don't ride a flat. Remember proper care of your tires conserves rubber and saves gas too!

REMEMBER, too, that BILL DEAN'S shop is prepared to help you get the best performance out of your car. SEE you next week. See BILL DEAN any week.

Six Army Fliers Cited For Heroism

Japanese Planes Are Shot Down

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13. (AP)—The War department reported today that more than 20 Japanese planes were destroyed in last Sunday's Japanese air attack in Hawaii.

In an official communique, the War department said Lieut. Gen. Walter C. Short, commanding the Army's Hawaiian department, cited six Army fliers for performing some of the "numerous spectacular feats of heroism" in the action.

In each of these fights, the American pilots were outnumbered at all times and found their opponents decidedly clever and dangerous fliers, "the communique said.

Covering war developments up to 4 p. m., Eastern Standard time, the communique said there was nothing to report from other areas, omitting any further reports from the Philippines.

Earlier the Navy had announced the probable capture of the island of Guam by the Japanese.

Feats Of Heroism
The communique said:

"1. Hawaii:
The War department has been advised by Lieut. Gen. Walter C. Short, commanding the Hawaiian department, that numerous spectacular feats of heroism on the part of American Army fliers were characteristic of the fight during the surprise attack of Japanese aircraft at Honolulu on December 7th. More than twenty Japanese planes were destroyed during the attack. Typifying the magnificent fighting of American pilots, Gen. Short cited the following examples:

"Second Lieut. Kenneth M. Taylor, 514 South Pettit street, Hominy, Okla., and Second Lieut. George S. Welch, Wilmington, Del., both flying Curtiss single-seat pursuit planes early in the raid, attacked a formation of six Japanese planes. Each officer shot down two enemy planes. The other two Japanese planes escaped for the time being.

Cuts Them Both
A short time later, Lieut. Welch, alone, engaged two Japanese planes and, after maneuvers worthy of a veteran fighter, shot them both down. Thus, two young American officers destroyed six enemy planes in their first actual battle fight. Lieut. Taylor only recently arrived in Hawaii and the ink was scarcely dry on his commission as an Army officer when he was engaged in combat.

"First Lieut. Louis M. Sanders, Fort Wayne, Ind., flying at an altitude of about three thousand feet, saw a dog fight between an American and a Japanese plane. As he banked to join the fight, he saw the American plane go down in flames. He immediately engaged the Japanese plane in a furious battle and shot it down.

"Lieut. Gordon H. Sterling, Jr., West Hartford, Conn., located a formation of six enemy planes. Undaunted by superior numbers, he courageously attacked and destroyed one of the Japanese planes.

Amarillo Cited
"Second Lieut. Philip M. Rasmussen, of Boston, engaged a single Japanese fighter plane over Schofield barracks. The ensuing dogfight was witnessed by thousands of spectators as the American pilot, by superior maneuvering, sent the Japanese plane to the ground in a flaming mass of wreckage.

"Second Lieut. Harry W. Brown, 1907 Monroe street, Amarillo, Tex., unexpectedly found himself in the midst of a rendezvous of Japanese planes. Instead of attempting to flee before the overpowering strength of the enemy, he courageously attacked, shooting down one of the enemy planes in the ocean off Kahuku.

"In each of these fights, the American pilots were outnumbered at all times and found their opponents decidedly clever and dangerous fliers.

"2. There is nothing to report from other areas."

Schools Aid In Defense Plans

Increased activity of the city school chapters of the Junior Red Cross and of defense stamp buying reflects a recent request of Supt. W. B. Irvin of the schools system.

"The schools can serve our nation best at this time by building a sincere, strong national spirit, built on a love of freedom and a democratic American way of life," he said in a bulletin circulated among all teachers.

Morale Is Necessary
"Morale is necessary. We shall need to teach our children that sacrifice is inevitable. Sacrifices of all types should be laid aside. Cooperation, consideration of others and mutual helpfulness are necessary attributes which each of us should develop and display.

"I hope teachers may enter into these tasks in that our government, through our people, may grow stronger day by day."

Supt. Irvin will have a report Wednesday morning on volume of defense stamp and bond buying. Late last week, he said the schools were making noteworthy purchases. One school alone, reported by elementary students, had bought more than $100 in stamps.

Program Under Way
As to the work of the Junior Red Cross, Miss Stella Thurman, city schools chairman of the organization and principal of the N. Carter elementary school, reported a well-organized defense program under way, with contribution of gifts going to state orphanages and government hospitals.

Eleven schools, all except two in the city, are 100 per cent enrolled in the Junior Red Cross—which means 134 rooms are sold behind the organization in Junior High, Dupre, K. Carter, George M. Hunt, Sanders, Central Ward, Roscoe Wilson, George R. Bean, Southwest Ward and Guadalupe schools, as well as the affiliated school of Mrs. Doyle D. Jackson.

Gifts Being Sent
Some of the organization's activities include sending on Armistice day of 200 nut cups and 200 tray favors to Camp Barkeley hospital. Sixty gifts this week will be sent to state orphanage at Colmesburg, all wrapped individually and addressed to orphans whose names have been procured. Two hundred valentines will go out to the Waco state orphanage. On Easter, 200 nut cups and 200 tray favors will go to the Veterans Administration hospital in Amarillo. One hundred stories that will be bound by Junior Red Cross members of the schools will go to the blind. All are printed in Braille perforation.

In addition, numerous writing boards for bed patients in government hospitals will be constructed of plywood, and there will be bedside bags and games and puzzles.

The Junior Red Cross has been subscribed to many years by Lubbock schools, but never has there been so much activity, Miss Thurman said.

Exchange Plan Started Again

The Social Service exchange, a clearing house for agencies and individuals who plan to make Christmas donations of baskets and gifts to underprivileged families, will begin operating again Monday and will function continuously through Dec. 24, it was announced Saturday by Mrs. R. A. Mills, president of the Church Women's federation, which conceived and is sponsoring the idea.

The purpose of the exchange is to assure a broad distribution of Christmas baskets as possible by preventing duplication.

On Duty Daily
Any individual or agency planning to distribute baskets may telephone 8684, the temporary headquarters at Seaman hall, 2407 Sixteenth street. Members of the federation will be on duty daily from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., and will check each family with complete cross-reference files. If the prospective receiver of the basket is already listed for a basket by some other agency, the name can be removed from the second list and the contribution made elsewhere, it was explained.

The exchange itself will make no attempt to distribute baskets or to provide names.

Individuals and church organizations were urged to cooperate in the project. Welfare organizations and civic clubs have already pledged cooperation.

The exchange first operated during the five days preceding the second Thanksgiving observance in November.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Spears of Brownfield were cheered late Friday when they received a telegram from their son, Sgt. Vance H. Spears, an army flight engineer, saying he was safe in Hawaii. The Spears family received a letter Dec. 4 in which Sgt. Spears said he was to be transferred to the Philippines at once. He previously had ferried planes to England twice and had made seven flights to Newfoundland. He last visited in Lubbock Nov. 11. Sgt. Spears is a sister of Mrs. Robert L. Bomar of Lubbock.

Making Love Is All Wrong, Beauty Says

AMARILLO, Dec. 13. (AP)—Pretty Beatrix Martinez thinks the American method of making love is all wrong and she offers at least one example.

A senior at West Texas State Teachers college at Canyon, the comely Puerto Rican said it "makes me laugh very much" at the way American youths conduct a serenade.

"One night," she said, "one of the boys on the campus came to Randall Hall to sing to his girl."

"It wasn't romantic," she said. "He sang some silly song like Yankee Doodle to his sweetheart. She leaned halfway out the window, and when he had finished, she clapped her hands. That was indecent."

"Now at home," she continued, "our lover sings of sweet love. Perhaps we peek out at home, or switch the lights on and off to let him know we hear his serenade, but we never allow him to see us."

"Usually, if he loves us very much, he will hire his friends to play the violin and the guitar for him while he sings. If he cannot sing, which is very rare, he hires a third friend to sing for him."

That's the way to love, said Miss Martinez.

She will leave the United States in January with a Bachelor of Science degree in home economics. She makes the return trip with a "bundle of mixed feelings about it."

Her year's schooling at West Texas State Teachers has been very enjoyable, she said. Miss Martinez envies the American girls' freedom, their privilege of going any place unchaperoned.

However, times are changing, even in Puerto Rico. "Why now," she said, "you frequently see FIVE or SIX girls with only ONE chaperon."

The Woman's Angle

By Margaret Turner

"Six yesterday's joys with today's problems, and life will be sweet."

EXPERIENCE is the name men give to their mistakes.

SCATTERINGS
A PERSON'S hands reveal more of his character than his face, according to Suzanne Silvercruys, sculptor. . . A certain woman calls her husband "Theory" because he works so seldom. . . Helen Hayes' voice does something to our hearts. . . We vote an "all right" for the "We Coast" radio commentator, Upton Close. . . Mrs. FDR bought 22 pairs of children's bedroom slippers as Christmas gifts week before last.

WARNING—Dr. Malcolm MacLean, president of the Hampton Institute of Virginia, says the education of women needs a drastic overhauling to prepare them for three tremendous pressures of the next 20 years: The prospect of unemployment; temptation to support discrimination against minorities, and effect of a prolonged war or a sudden peace which would demobilize millions.

DR. Minnie L. Maffett of Dallas, president of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women, says that most people are more vitamin-conscious than vitamin-wise. She believes "a hundred million dollars a year could be saved by the fun of eating good food rather than the questionable pleasure of swallowing pills." . . . A photo shop in a little town, advertised "Let us tint and frame your baby." . . Hershfield reminds us that "even a clock that isn't going is right twice a day." . . A truth that would be reduced find hard to face: If you consume more calories per day than you expend, you burn up energy, you're bound to store it up. Providing, of course, that you are healthy. . . We've heard of only one person a man who wasn't thrilled over the Christmas music. . . Children are entranced with the marionette show in the windows of a department store. . . Why is it that so many women who are heavy above the waistline include bulky fur coats in their wardrobe? . . . Boys were having difficulty in deciding between shows for the two new leading men of the western movie realm, Jarrin John Kimbraugh and Stingin Sammy Baugh, who were featured, here Saturday.

SANDWICH: A sandwich filling that calls for many repeats on your luncheon menu: Thin sardines mashed and combined with cottage or cream cheese, chopped celery, chopped bits of little mayonnaise and crisp lettuce between slices of whole wheat toast.

UNCLE Sam has opened a branch office of his Quartermaster Corps near the orchard trees in Florida and a million dollars worth of limes, oranges, grapefruit and tangerines will be bought by the Army within the next few months through that office. . . The motto of the U. S. Coast Guard is "Semper Paratus" (always ready). . . Someone suggests "for Unity," as a symbol of the United States in war and its indivisible oneness. Arthur Gerald Donahue, an American who is flight officer in the RAF, has written a book, "Halcyon" that is said to be an excellent account of those sunny days, when, during several Texas boys. . . We think more flags of the United States should be displayed in public buildings, at home and wherever people congregate. . . Ten thousand members of the New York United Order of True Sisters (a Jewish group) are cutting their cosmetic bills in half to contribute to a plastic surgery fund for disfigured faces.

REVOLUTION: The war will bring about a change in women's dress as did the last one which saw the short skirt and bobbed hair. . . Go back in history, suggests Schiaparelli. . . Fashion in the U. S. and you'll find the battle dress of Greeks and Roman Amazons—short tunics and sandals with one half of the bosom free to lift a bow and shoot an arrow. . . Our modern women fighting for democracy and freedom, must have their battle dress, clothes in which comfort and freedom will be keywords. . . What fashions this war will give us remain to be seen.

AVIATION cadets in the Army Air Corps have definite ideas about what they would like to find and what they cannot use in their Christmas stockings. They have no place to hang stockings or install fancy gadgets, and besides that they have to contend with the inspecting officer. . . Here are a few of the most sought-after prizes on the "must list" of the majority. . . Small jewelry—preferably chain bracelets with Air Corps insignia and name of recipient inscribed. They are not "sissy" but most of them are slightly superstitious and feel that such an item brings good luck and happy landings. . . Flying glasses—but they must have polarized lenses to eliminate glare while soaring through the clouds. Almost a necessity to the student pilot. . . Portable radio—to aid and abet entertainment during the evening hours but small enough to be hid from the inspecting officer. . . Toilet kits—preferably in a leather case and as to contents let your conscience be your guide. . . Stamps and stationery—they like to write home to mother and best girl. Leave an address off if you personalize it because addresses change so often. . . Luggage—generally of the travel (Turn to Page 4, Column 1, Please)

Nutrition Is Listed As Major Item For Country's Defense; County Women Pledge Aid

REALIZING that woman's part in winning a war is a pertinent one, 387 active members of Lubbock county home demonstration clubs are pledging their part in lining up with others in national defense in this greatest crisis of the country's history. . . More than a "talking" job, theirs is real participation in such actualities as Red Cross sewing, serving as officers in the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, on the Land Use Planning committees, with the county health unit in first aid training courses and with the National Federation in the fight against disease. . . Health Is Important . . . Taking as one of their principal responsibilities that of aiding young America to be made up of healthy men and women, clubs over the country are laying more stress on the study of nutrition. . . As a practical means of achieving proper nutrition for all, the Texas Food Standard has been adopted as a guide in planning, preparing and preserving food by members of these clubs. . . That the procedure learned by attending club programs is an improvement over the methods practiced in the average farm home is shown by the fact by a great majority of the prizes won at the Panhandle-South Plains fair this fall were prizes won by home demonstration club women. . . Appreciate Government's Aid . . . Appreciation of the government's help in supplying agents to assist in the work is evidenced by the business of leading a delegation to Congressmen asking that this service not be curbed and that an increased number of counties be supplied with agents. . . As a result of this aid, the county clubs are 100 per cent in pledging a greater increase in food production for 1942. . . As a means of doing this the women have inaugurated more cold storage food lockers for the preservation of fresh meats, fruits and vegetables; they are devising more means of preparing leftover foods and they are continuing studies for a diet adequate with vitamins and minerals. . . Buy A Defense Bond TODAY!

From Lou To Louella

DEAR LOUELLA. Announcement of the week is the approaching marriage of Miss Mahora Gephart and Ralph Hudgens. No date has been set as yet, however. She is employed at Citizens National bank, he at Lubbock National.

It's probably serious with Evelyn Parry and Bill Sreick. When they went to Carlsbad to visit the caverns last week, most friends thought they'd return Mr. and Mrs. Lucille Hall is expecting a C. Straley home for the holidays from Annapolis. Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Stonerod of 2313 Thirteenth street, will spend the holidays with their daughter, Mrs. John C. Wilder in New Orleans. They leave Thursday, Miss Buena Sowell of Waxahatchie will celebrate Christmas with her sister, Mrs. E. L. Robertson and Mr. Robertson of 1805 Mann street.

GUESS WHAT I Saw? Perhaps they didn't have bus tokens or just wanted to be different. Anyway two of the Tech hitch-hikers had their girl friends raising their thumbs on Broadway this week. Recognized as one of the outsomes was Roe Raglan, sophomore from Sweetwater.

Mrs. Paul Jones in house party given by Ko Shari patronesses, and again one of the most attractive, most gracious women in Lubbock. Clark M. Mullican, looking very distinguished, Miss Dorothy Rylander, greeting everyone, and remembering their names as always. Buddy Sprague, assisted by Mrs. A. L. Strout, working the Christmas puppets in Hemphill-Wells window.

In the annual Abilene Christian college intramural speech tournament conducted by the Gavel club last week, June Seaton, daughter of Mrs. and Mr. J. M. Seaton, 1933 Avenue B, won first place in radio speaking, oratory, etc. (Continued On Page 3)

ANNE FORD'S PRETTY AND PRACTICAL GIFT BLOUSES

"Open House" at the Decorators Studio, 31-o-n-d-a-y-Night, from 7 o'clock until the coffee and cookies run out. You know Fredda, Alma and Marg are having a lot of fun out of their "Men Only," "Women Only" and "Open House" nights. My gift problem has run very much but from what I get, that is not the purpose. It is to get together and discuss the gift problem... openly and frankly... and after the smoke settles the problem is usually solved. Sometimes the gift is bought from the Decorators Studio... and sometimes it is bought elsewhere... never-the-less, the gift problem is SOLVED. Now on Monday night it is "open-house" for couples, working girls, home girls, bachelors, married couples... ANYBODY... coffee and cookies are on the house and if you don't come and get your share of the refreshments they will have to hold them over another week... and I believe that another week will be one too many. By-the-way, we overlooked the main idea this week... Only 9 shopping days until Christmas... and take a tip from one who knows... give quality and you give the best... see the girls at Decorators Studio and you have seen the best... See you next week (I hope)... yours "Nosey."

Naval Enlistment Terms Being Cut

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 13 (Special)—Terms of enlistment in the United States naval reserve have been reduced from four years to a two-year period it was announced today by Captain T. A. Thomson, jr., acting commandant of the Eighth naval district.

The reduction in the period of enlistment, authorized by the Navy department in Washington, was the result of a feeling that many men anxious to serve their country in its Navy have hitherto hesitated in joining up because of the long term of enlistment. Although men may enlist for a two-year period, it is stipulated in their enlistment papers that they may be retained on active duty during the continuance of the war or national emergency even though this exceeds the period for which they enlisted.

Reserve officers and enlisted men on an inactive status are being ordered to active duty as their services are required by the Navy department. Therefore, it was stated that reserve officers are not to report for duty until receiving specific orders to do so.

It was also pointed out that the standards for enlistment in reserve classes have in no way been lowered because of the declaration of war and that all men must meet the same standards as to age, education, experience and physical fitness.

All recruiting offices will be open from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m. seven days a week to take care of the influx of young men seeking to join the naval service, it was announced.

Dolls Prove Favorite Toy For Girls As Many Different Styles Flood Markets

By MARGARET KERNODLE
Associated Press Feature Writer
 "I want that doll over there." That's the Christmas carol you hear these days of Christmas shopping in the toy departments—and no wonder. This year's dolls are as cute as they come, as cuddly and fascinating as the youngsters' school-noon-birds holding them in their arms.
 Once again 70 per cent of the little girls in this country are expected to ask for and get baby dolls. That means baby-dolls, just like real babies, are booming again this Christmas. The magic skins which made news last year, are equally popular this Christmas to prove the trend to realistic dolls.
 Coiffures are as chic as mama's hair-do or fixed exactly like daughter's. Clothes are copies of current fashions, easy to put on, to take off, often washable, up-to-the-minute because modern little misses like them that way best.
 And to please the little people who play with them the dolls are as real as can be. One new doll cries if you squeeze her leg; just as a baby would. And you can wind up another baby doll's tummy and listen through a miniature stethoscope to a heartbeat that might fool a doctor and that beats for several days.
 Mothers-daughters teams are delighting young Christmas shoppers. There's a cunning cloth doll called "me" which comes with a small edition of the same whimsical child-like doll. You can get patterns for the popular mother-daughter dolls in annual change-terizations, too. And you can get help for making these at local sewing shops.
 A pert little Chinese doll comes with a tiny reproduction. Both are fabric doll sets which a little girl can play with together or separately.
 A little freckled farmerette and farmer doll can be had in cloth or rag-doll type. The little girl wears a wool wig, gingham dress, a bonnet to match and panties with lace. The farmer boy wears overalls.
 Musical and military note: soldier dolls really whistle and sailors, too.

Patriotic Spirit Grips Texans As First Week Of War Is Brought To Close

Cooperation Of All Promised

(By The Associated Press)
An aroused Texas ended its first week of war Saturday with fervent displays of patriotism and a willingness to cooperate until victory.

"I'm too old to shoulder a musket, but I can do my bit toward helping our country win," said General Thomas C. Crenshaw of Houston, 72-year-old—Civil war veteran—as he placed an order for defense stamps with a newsboy.

Pledges His Allegiance
The rafter rang when a young Japanese, born in the United States, told the McAllen Rotary club: "While I am of Japanese extraction, I am a born American. In this war with Japan, I—and for my family—salute the Stars and Stripes and pledge allegiance to the United States."

A slogan, lick a defense stamp and you lick a Jap, doubled the sale of stamps in a Dallas industrial concern.

Throughout the state, officials of banks and post offices reported defense stamps and bond sales had increased from three to fourteen times since the Japs raided Pearl Harbor.

Meanwhile, Texans studied precautionary measures against sabotage. The measures, outlined by Maj. General Richard Donovan, commanding the VIII corps area, should be applied for protection of dams, utilities and other facilities not federally owned or federally operated. They include:

Private guards first should be hired. Should they prove inadequate, city and county officials should be called upon for aid in guarding installations.

If those two are inadequate, state authorities should be requested to aid by assigning to protective guard duty state defense guards or other personnel who operate directly under state control.

Requests for military guards should be made only after these steps have been taken and shown to be inadequate. The requests for federal troops must come from the governor of the state to the corps commander.

In another important measure of civilian defense, L. A. Wood, state coordinator for fire defense, announced a statewide fire defense organization embracing 26 districts and calling for the enrollment of citizens as volunteers. There were other instances throughout the state of spirit and defense.

Brady—J. E. (Wild John) Davis, past 80, known as the modern Judge Roy Bean and the Law West of Lost Creek, said he discarded his title of justice of peace in the Voca community, is heading for California next Sunday to "offer my services."

Del Rio—Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers association pledged their cooperation to the government during the crisis.

Ferrell Rotary club abandoned idea of stadium for Christmas night party this year, voted to spend money on defense bonds.

Addison—L. A. Woods, state superintendent of public instruction, in dedicating a school in Addison, urged Texas schools to take the lead in the purchase of defense stamps and bonds.

Dallas—The first air raid wardens school for Dallas county will be held Monday night to start the enlistment and training of more than 5,000 persons needed to protect the county's 400,000 residents from danger of bombing attack.

Interesting Cases Are Found In Juvenile Court Records Juvenile Delinquency In Lubbock Area Declines Since Reaching Peak In 1938

BY ELIZABETH YOUNG
The average Lubbock citizen seems to think that juvenile delinquency occurs only in "dead end" movies, metropolitan slum areas, and among negro and Mexican youngsters. But statistics from the Lubbock court records completely disprove this theory.

Juvenile cases do occur in Lubbock and primarily among white children. The records prove that conditions which create juvenile gangs are not peculiar to "large cities" but that delinquency occurs in all cities, large or small.

Although delinquent activities are on the decrease in Lubbock since 1938, 326 separate juvenile cases have been brought before the Lubbock juvenile court, some of them appearing before the court several times.

In 1938, juvenile crime in Lubbock reached its peak of 193 cases, a total of 118 boys and 13 girls involved. Since then the rate has been gradually decreasing with 68 cases in 1939; 65 in 1940; and 64 so far in 1941. City authorities attribute this decline to the Lubbock Boys' club, established about that time; the joint recreational program of the city and government; and the sudden awakening interest of the service clubs, churches, scout organizations and women's clubs.

Strange as it seems—and contrary to popular belief, a majority of juvenile crimes does not occur among Mexican and negro children, but among white children up to the ages of 17 and 18. Part of this may be attributed to the fact that the whites outnumber the others 25 to 1 in this vicinity, but the percentages still show that more of Lubbock's juvenile criminals are white children than any other race.

Sent To Reform Schools
Of the 326 cases, approximately 45 were sent to reform schools. Most of them were children of poor parents. This is not always true, however, for there are a few cases on the record from the best districts in Lubbock—as well as "shack town." They have been arrested for stealing, gambling, truancy and fighting. More crimes occur between the ages of 15 and 16 than at any other age. The judge before whom these charges are brought tries several remedies: putting them on probation, fining them, sending them to better schools and new environments and sending them to reform schools.

According to Judge E. L. Pitts of the 96th district court, and before whom the major juvenile cases of the city come, the larger portion is for petty thefts. It is an acquired habit, he finds. He says that the juvenile charge has started out by breaking promises made to his parents and teachers; next he is found cheating in school and on the playground; then caught taking pencils and equipment from children at school; and then goes a step further to stealing apples, oranges and milk bottles; and more boldly, steals from counters in downtown stores. The youngster then finds himself brave enough to steal an air rifle or even a bicycle, and finally comes to the point where he learns to break into houses and stores at night. If he isn't halted before this stage is reached, he finally becomes a burglar, robber and an outright criminal in turn. Some articles which city juveniles have been charged with taking are: razors, handkerchiefs, ear bobs, metal "links," rings, pocket knives, watches, chickens, gasoline, overcoats, rifles, money and automobiles.

Poverty Set The Stage
A good example of a local juvenile delinquent is a small boy who was before the Lubbock court some time ago. Poverty set the stage for the child's crimes. Sixty per cent of his leisure time was spent on the streets. He lived with a relative because both his parents were dead. His delinquent activities began as a probable result of his street contacts for here he learned independence and acquired a disrespect for law and authority. The boy was brought before the court several times for petty thefts and finally, through the influence of a Catholic priest, was committed to the famous home for boys in "Boys' Town," Nebraska. Progress reports show that he is doing well and making a good citizen there.

Although the major portion brought into the courts are boys, not all delinquents are boys. Several girls have been brought into the court and some of them sent to reform schools. The main charge brought against girls is "moral delinquency." One of the first girls cases on the court records is that of a little girl who came from a broken home where the family had very little money. She soon was brought into court when she was 16 years old on charges of moral delinquency brought on by truancy from school, frequenting honky-tonks and general misbehavior. The court ordered her sent to the state reform school for girls at Gainesville. She cursed the judge and jury when she heard her sentence. Her reports from the school showed that she was unruly at first, but soon reported that she was learning to knit and sew and was taking courses in shorthand and typing. A year later, she was recalled and sent to East Texas. This was six or seven years ago and authorities who have seen her recently say that she is a good citizen now, married and raising a family. She made a special trip to Lubbock to apologize to the court for her actions when she was sent off to school and to thank them for the chance they gave her.

Role Of Parents Vital
City experts in this field find one striking effect—that a child who has a normal home life rarely comes before the court for any charge. Research into the question shows that the role of parents in the youth problem is becoming recognized as vital. A majority of delinquents definitely come from broken homes or homes where the mother works, either for choice or necessity. As a rule, the parents are divorced, separated or one or both is dead.

The court records contain such charges as auto-stealing, burglary, hold-ups, possession and sale of narcotics and sex offenses.

The court realizes that the youth offender is generally a victim of circumstances. The goal of Judge Pitts is not to punish the child, but to help him find a useful place in society. In a typical case, when a boy is arrested for the first time and carried into court, the judge has a heart-to-heart talk with him and he is dismissed with a warning or a small fine. He may be put on probation, or under adult supervision. Only as a last resort is he sent to an institution. It is a rule of Judge Pitts never to commit a child to an institution on a first offense.

After the offender is sent to reform school, he is not recalled in less than 12 months. After being recalled, he must report regularly to the court.

Records show too, that delinquent children do not always make criminals of adults. Local statistics show that 3 out of 4 child delinquents here make good. This Lubbock record is above the federal average which shows that only 2 out of 4 make good. Those who fail, however, usually become criminals of the worst order. It has been the finding here that when young offenders do make good, people soon forget and he enters community life and makes a good citizen of any community.

Yule Programs To Be Staged

A schedule of Christmas programs and parties to be given under sponsorship of the city-WPA recreation project was announced Saturday by Miss Imogene Douglas, project superintendent.

Most of them are scheduled during the coming week, but the climaxing program in which approximately 75 children will take part is set for Tuesday night, Dec. 23, Miss Douglas said.

Dance Monday Night
First event of the week will be a dance Monday night at 8 o'clock in the social center in Mackenzie state park, at which business college students will be guests. The Recreation Leaders club will meet in the same place Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

Three events are set for next Friday night, Miss Douglas reported. One will be a Christmas party in the Community Center, Sixth street and Avenue B, where Santa Claus will greet children under 12 years of age. The social recreation team of First Baptist church will direct games and a program is to be presented by a group from Texas Technological college, N.W.C.A. The fun will start at 7:30 o'clock.

Scheduled the same night at the same time is a Christmas party for negro children of school age in Dunbar school. The negro WPA recreation team will be in charge. The Mackenzie park social center, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Kite are to be hosts to the Forty-eight club.

Senior Party Planned
Set for the night of Dec. 22 in the community center is a Christmas party for senior boys and girls, sponsored by the WPA social recreation team.

It will be followed the night of Dec. 23 by the Christmas program in the same place. Directing the preparations are Mrs. Lorena Sanders, Mrs. Eva May Gowdrey, Mrs. Meda Beaty and Cecil Tarpley, all of the recreation project staff.

Miss Douglas reported that craft classes organized during the past week have been operating successfully and will continue during the coming week. Tools in the community center have been made available to those enrolled to make useful articles under skilled supervision. Articles made during the past week, most of which are intended to be Christmas gifts, have included whatnot shelves, magazine racks, tie racks, scrap books, game books, broom holders, picture frames and numerous others.

Mrs. Lillie Waldrop Is Taken By Death
Mrs. Lillie Waldrop, 91-year-old native Texan, died in her home at Woodsboro, Throckmorton county, late Friday night after a brief illness, according to a message received here by her granddaughter, Mrs. D. O. Wiley, 1808 Twentieth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley and their son Charles, 16, left soon after for Woodsboro to attend funeral services, which were conducted Saturday afternoon. Norman Wiley, 19, and Genelle Wiley, two other grand-children, were unable to attend.

Mrs. Waldrop had visited in Lubbock a number of times, the last time in 1934. She reared Mrs. Wiley, who was an infant when her mother died. Mrs. Wiley related that her grandmother was feeble, but apparently in good health, when she heard from her about a week before.

Surviving Mrs. Waldrop are three children, 15 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Jewelry Collection Shown At Museum

A collection of rare and valuable Oriental and Indian jewelry has been lent to the West Texas museum by Judge James D. Hamlin of Farwell and will be on display until Jan. 15. Judge Hamlin lent a display of oriental art to the museum several weeks ago and it still is being exhibited.

Some of the rings bear unusual carvings, including one made of Japanese beetle and one made to represent a Chinese dragon. Unusual design and workmanship also are represented in rings of Chinese coral, turquoise, emeralds, ivory, amber, amethyst, lapis-lazuli, jadeite, rose quartz and green-jade and others from Persia, Tibet, Siam and Bali.

Over 100 rings made by Navajo and Zuni silversmiths and set with Nevada and New Mexico turquoise form a large part of Judge Hamlin's collection of Indian jewelry. Both old and new ring styles are represented. A group of silver and turquoise set bracelets made by Indian silversmiths is included in the collection. One bracelet is an example of the recent revival by the Zuni silversmiths of their ancient mosaic work.

Fourteen Indian necklaces ranging from simple strands of shell and silver beads to large pieces of heavy turquoise strung with shell and coral are high lights of the Indian collection. A coral necklace interspersed with silver crosses shows the Spanish influence on the Indian craftsmen.

China Bids Fair To Play Tremendously Important Role In War With Japan

Big Reservoir Of Manpower

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE
Wide World War Analyst

What appears to be an impending major assault by the Japs against strategic Luzon island in the Philippines is the important development at this writing in the battle of the Pacific—a further grim test for our defenders, and good luck to their stout hearts.

Luzon, on which lies Manila and the naval base of Cavite, is the key to the Philippines. While the loss of these islands wouldn't represent a decisive victory for the Japanese, it would be a heavy blow.

Forces Are Concentrated
The enemy has concentrated heavy sea-forces off the province of Zambales, which is on the west coast of Luzon and throws a protective arm about Manila bay. As a further indication of a gathering storm, waves of Jap bombers, early this morning swarmed into the Manila area, where our fighter planes promptly engaged them and a fierce air battle developed.

Meanwhile Japanese land forces which had got ashore at various points in Luzon were waiting to cooperate with these fresh operations. One of these contingents, at Lingayen on the west coast, has been wiped out.

Music To Herr Hitler
The din of this fresh conflict in the Far East must be music in the ears of Herr Hitler, as a red wave of disaster sweeps over his wavering lines in Russia. The Fuehrer certainly caught the Japs in a sweet horse-deal when he pushed them into the war by persuading them that he was a sure winner.

Even as the Japs struck at us in the dark, the Nazi invaders in Russia were on such a tough spot that now, only a few days later, the Muscovites report successes which lead London military commentators to believe the Nazis may be headed for a catastrophe. Had Tokyo waited a week longer before making its decision, it might never have attacked the best friend it ever had.

Once again at a psychological moment Hitler has achieved a major diplomatic victory. As Russia starts to knock the gilt off his ginger-bread, he unloads a bundle of his troubles onto the narrow shoulders of the Japs.

Chinese Play Big Role
There is another aspect of the battle of the Pacific from which our attention has been distracted because of preoccupation with the shock of our sudden plunge into the second World war. We have momentarily overlooked our very patient—and good—friend—John Chinaman, who bids fair to play a tremendously important part in this conflict.

The Japanese had barely launched their attack on America and Britain when the Celestials began an offensive against Jap-held Canton, the great southern Chinese port northwest of the British crown colony of Hongkong which the Nipponese are attacking. The latest word from that front today is that the Chinese attack is being intensified. This operation is important because it is believed Canton is the main base for Jap bombing of Hongkong.

But Canton represents an isolated incident. The Chinese have signaled that they are prepared to go all out in support of the Allies. Dr. Wellington Koo, famous Chinese ambassador to England, says China is ready to provide trained troops for the defense of British Burma or of Russia if the Japanese attack.

Dr. Koo says: Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek has offered the Soviet union a million soldiers if

Report Is Given Of Cows On Test During November; Production Figures Revealed

The 396 cows on test among members of the Lubbock Dairy Herd Improvement association during November, average 21.9 pounds of butterfat and 465 pounds of milk per animal, including 71 dry, the monthly report of Loy Gene Brown, fieldman, as prepared by C. C. Jobson, county farm agent, shows.

Milk produced was 181,411 pounds during the month, or 8,686.38 pounds of butterfat. Average test was 4.73 per cent.

Japan strikes at Russia. The Chinese can afford such a huge contribution in man-power, because they claim to have an active army of 5,000,000 with 12,000,000 in reserve—China's reservoir of men is virtually inexhaustible.

Mrs. J. J. Smith of Plainview, had the high herd for the month. Other ranked were, Clayton Fuller, Lubbock; Rufus Rush, Lubbock and A. B. Buchanan, Brownfield.

Herd records include: Mrs. Smith, 12 cows, three dry, 7,450 pounds milk; 422.54 pounds butter fat, 621 pounds per cow; 5.8 per cent test; 36.88 pounds butterfat average.

Fuller, 21 cows, two dry, 12,318 pounds milk; 646.547 pounds butterfat, 615 pounds milk per cow; 5.25 per cent test; 32.32 pounds butterfat average.

Rush, 23 cows, one dry, 18,631 pounds milk; 648.28 pounds butterfat, 310 pounds milk per cow; 3.46 per cent test; 28.95 pounds butterfat average.

Buchanan, 45 cows, two dry, 23,349 pounds milk; 1,234.77 pounds butterfat, 518 pounds milk per cow; 5.29 per cent test; 27.44 pounds butterfat average.

South Plains Ranchers Showing Interest In Predatory Work

South Plains ranchers are much interested in predatory control work, according to E. G. Pope, district agent of the fish and wildlife survey of the U. S. department of the interior, and additional trappers may be secured for this area.

Motley, Floyd, Crosby, Dickens and Borden are among the counties with trappers, along with Lynn and Hale.

Roberts county in the North Panhandle is making inquiries about trappers, as well as Garza and Scurry.

Pope said that one or two more counties would complete a ring of areas where predatory control

Handel's Famous Oratorio, "The Messiah," To Be Presented In City Today

Large Chorus To Take Part

Handel's celebrated oratorio, "The Messiah," will be presented by a chorus of 100 voices and the Tech Symphony orchestra twice today, at 4:30 and 7:30 o'clock in the First Baptist auditorium with Dr. Julien Paul Blitz as director.

The presentations are open to the public and no offering will be taken, it was announced. Mrs. Blitz will play accompaniment for the orchestra and for the soloists: Mrs. W. Jack Lewis, soprano; Miss Margaret Prewitt, contralto; Ira Schantz, tenor and Rex Webster, bass.

Purpose Is Two-Fold

Never in the history of the world has there been so much strife, unrest, sorrow and uncertainty than at the present. Music, good music, is one of the best means to help people forget the troublesome times. In the presentation of "The Messiah," the purpose is two-fold, that of selling the Christmas story in music and of cheering and reviving hopes in our Christianity through the crisis which we are now passing.

"The Messiah," heard practically all over the world, was first performed in 1742, the inspiration coming to Handel from the Bible. He wrote the complete oratorio in three weeks.

Three Direct Oratorio

The oratorio has been presented in Lubbock under direction of Mrs. Carl Seagrin, Miss Myrtle Dunn and Doctor Blitz, head of the department of music at Tech college.

Invocation this afternoon will be asked by G. C. Brewer of the Broadway Church of Christ and Dr. Jack M. Lewis of the First Presbyterian church will ask invocation at the evening hour. Benediction this afternoon will be given by Rev. H. I. Robinson of the First Methodist church and tonight by Dr. G. E. Hereford of the First Baptist church.

Usual Services Will Be Held At Church

Although its choir is cooperating in presentation of "The Messiah," being presented at First Baptist church, the First Methodist church will conduct services at 7:30 o'clock tonight as usual, said Rev. H. I. Robinson, pastor.

The service will be for those who have attended the afternoon presentation of "The Messiah," Mr. Robinson said.

It was also announced that Friday night will be "Deck the Halls" night at the church. At conclusion of the decorating, there will be carol singing in the ladies' parlor and refreshments will be served. The decorations and a scene in front of the church will remain throughout the Christmas season.

Wife Of Texas Tech President Is Taking Lessons With Rifle

Brightest pupil in an advanced riflery class for women at Texas Tech is the wife of the college president, Mrs. Clifford B. Jones. Although she has known how to shoot with shotgun and "22" as long as she can remember, and has bagged her limit of quail, duck and dove many a day, she takes seriously the instruction on firing the Army rifle.

Principal differences between the Army "22" and her own, according to Lieut. Henry D. Weston, are the sling and pistol grip of the former; its straight, knifeblade front sight and adjustable rear or peep sight; and the fact that it is belt-operated instead of double-barreled.

Mrs. Jones practices marksmanship with an advanced class of eight co-eds three times weekly, in standing, kneeling, sitting and prone positions. Asked why she wants to improve her aim, the president's wife said she "just wanted to shoot better."

Door-Stop Detonated With A Loud Boom

DETROIT, Dec. 13 (AP)—Spy scenes and breakouts got Mrs. Donald de Rush of suburban St. Clair shore to thinking about the 50-pound gadget she picked up on the Lake St. Clair beach and had been using for a door-stop the last two months.

Police called Selfridge field officers who announced that Mrs. De Rush's "door-stop" was an aerial bomb of a type once used by the Army air corps. They said the firing pin had been pulled but that the bomb had failed to explode. The officers used dynamite to detonate the "door-top" in an isolated section.

Japanese Are Living In Fear Of Raids

SINGAPORE, Dec. 13 (AP)—The civilian population throughout Japan is living in fear of air raids, British nationals reported upon arriving in Singapore aboard what is believed to be the last British or Allied merchantman to get away from Japan.

The ship, which left Japan taking out the last Britons before the outbreak of hostilities, sighted two Japanese planes en route, and the passengers said one of the craft fired a burst of machinegun fire without doing damage.

Texas U. To Grant Credit To Soldiers

AUSTIN, Dec. 13 (AP)—The University of Texas administrative council today announced that students enlisting in the armed forces will be credited for work being passed at the time of withdrawal from school.

President Homer P. Rainey, asserting the rule was temporary until a policy was formulated in Washington, said the school would not grant degrees to June candidates unless the student concerned was successfully completing courses required for degrees.

WE'RE READY
...and big enough to do the Job!

AMERICA is busily engaged in building a defense of her freedom.

This freedom of ours—freedom of action, freedom of thought, freedom from fear and oppression, freedom of enterprise—is the most precious thing in the world to protect.

Electric service will play a big part in this great program of strengthening our defenses. Your electric company is ready NOW to do its full share in any task this community may be called upon to perform.

We're ready because for years we have planned far in advance in order to meet your ever-increasing demands for electrical service.

Because of this we have built power capacity in advance of any demands in the community.

To assure constant power under all conditions our several sources of electricity are linked together so that the switch at your finger-tip controls power from many sources. If one should fail, it is but a split second until a new source of power is at your bidding.

The highly skilled and trained staff of people who have built up your electric service, and who are serving you from day to day, are eager for any new task.

It is through these people, and this marvelous system of inter-connected power plants and distribution lines they have built, that we are ready to do our part.

Meanwhile, we have not forgotten that our job in the future, as in the past, is to improve our service and its usefulness to you, and bring more of the good things of life to more people at less cost.

American Housewives Take War In Stride; No Stampede Made On Food Stores

No Shortage Of Supplies Seen

(By The United Press)

American housewives are taking the war in stride, apparently confident "the breadbasket of the democracies" will have ample food supplies for a long conflict.

A coast-to-coast United Press survey today disclosed little evidence of food hoarding and showed there had been no stampede on food stores during the first week the nation was at war.

Some cities reported increases in purchases of sugar and flour by homemakers who remembered sugar rationing and food queues during World War I, of tea, canned seafood, rice and spices from the Orient and of pineapple from Hawaii.

But grocers across the nation said sales were holding—near normal, that there were no unusual price increases and that they were discouraging large purchases. Some restricted the amount of sugar to each customer.

Some grocers reported the upswing in sales was less than in September, 1939, immediately after the outbreak of the war in Europe.

President Roosevelt said there's no food shortage and we think he's as good an authority as anyone," said a chain store executive at New York, where "moderate runs" on sugar, flour, coffee, tea and pineapples were reported.

Richard W. Crummett, U. S. Department of Agriculture told a meeting of New York food dealers yesterday that no food shortages were anticipated even if the government should continue its "food for Britain" program.

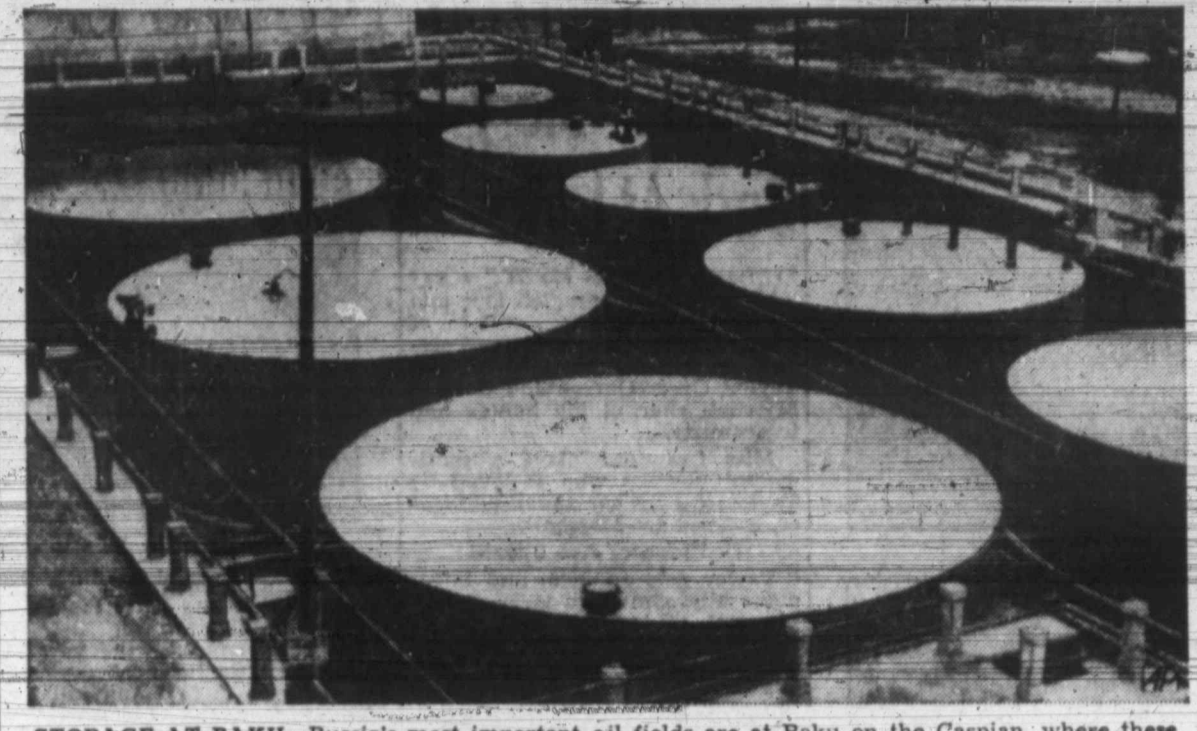

The Office of Price Administration at Washington reported a run on canned vegetables, flour, soap, candles and blackout materials at Los Angeles. OPA Administrator Leon Henderson probably will attempt to allay fears by announcing abundant supplies are available.

No Need To Hoard

"If the people know what the real situation is, they'll know there is no need to hoard," an OPA spokesman said, adding that the office would set price ceilings for any food which tends to "get out of line."

Government authorities said the food outlook was better than in 1917, when only sugar was rationed. It was believed the government may take action again to restrict sugar deliveries.

Pilot Doffs His Togs To Demonstrate The Muscles That Are Used In Flying Plane

BY FORREST CASTLEBERRY
United Press Staff Correspondent
MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 13

What muscles does a pilot use in flying?

This question arose in the office here of Ernest Smith, director of athletics for the U. S. army air corps in the Southeast.

Smith was on the spot. Twenty-eight assistant physical directors, charged with whipping aviation cadets into shape, wanted an answer.

"I don't know," said Smith, watching a formation of planes nose up from a nearby flying field, "but come on—we'll find out."

28 Observers

And so 28 men, scheduled to go out to as many airbases as trainers for aviation cadets, followed the director. All like Smith, were experts in their line—many of them college coaches—but conditioning a man to handle a military airplane was something else.

And Major Gen. Walter R. Weaver had ordered that all American and British cadets in the Southeast be conditioned specifically to meet the strain of flying.

Smith halted on the flying field and said to a cadet:

"Mister, take off most of your clothes and get in that airplane there. When the cadet was in the cockpit, he added: "Now please go through all the motions of flying."

The cadet flew as he had never flown before—without leaving the ground, without flying togs—almost without any togs at all.

Mike is tall, Ortho short.

Mike had his best pair of pants cleaned and pressed. Ortho did likewise.

Mike complained that his pants came back too short. Then Ortho remembered that his pants had seemed awfully long. That's why he had them cut off.

types of athletic equipment.

Leading authorities are convinced there is no better insurance against accidents and loss of life than physical fitness—clear minds and steady hands in the cockpits of the nation's combat ships.

Two groups left basic and entered advanced school a short time ago. One group had had the benefits of the scientific athletic training, the other had not. In a series of three tests, it was found those men with the training scored 29 per cent higher than the others.

Director Smith believes it is a fair indication that athletic program is doing a lot of good for a lot of cadets.

Band Concert Set Tuesday

Annual Christmas concert of the Texas Technological college band will be given, free to the public, at 8 o'clock Tuesday night in the college gymnasium, under direction of D. O. Wiley, director.

Approximately 100 members of the concert band will play a varied program, including popular and classical numbers. Several Christmas numbers will be played.

The program will open with "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise," arranged by Harry L. Alfond, described by Wiley as "an old popular number paraphrased and arranged in the best Hollywood style." It will end with Christmas Rhapsody, a rhapsody on Christmas songs arranged by the Chicagoan Clifford Lilly, sung by a double quartet from the band.

Remainder Of Program

Remainder of the program follows: First movement from Sonata No. 4 (Mozart-Paulson), first of the Mozart sonatas to be published for band; Emperor (Johann Strauss), ranking in popularity by low only Blue Danube and Tales of Vienna Woods among Strauss waltzes. Flirtations written by Herbert L. Clarke, for 23 years Sousa's cornet soloist, played by a cornet trio, Happy Hendryx, Eloise Adams and Jesse Day; Polonaise from the opera Christ-

He walked to the speaker's table and addressed the club.

Intelligent Handling Of Reports Is Urged

AUSTIN, Dec. 13. (AP)—Gov. Coke Stevenson today made public an appeal from the Office of Civilian Defense in Washington for "intelligent handling" of air raid reports.

"Due to many wild rumors that have circulated in the last two days, it is imperative that regional civilian defense offices instruct all state and local organizations of civilian defense not to alert or give and so-called information concerning prospective air raids unless your office gets direct information and instructions from corps area commanders," said the civilian defense memorandum.

"It is imperative that intelligent handling of these wild rumors be had, otherwise panic will be created in congested areas."

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13. (AP)—Temporary emergency price ceilings over all fats and oils, except butter, at levels prevailing on November 26, were imposed today by Price Administrator Leon Henderson.

The action represented Henderson's second effort to prevent development of runaway prices on basic foodstuffs. Yesterday, emergency ceilings were ordered for unprocessed coffee, cocoa, and pepper.

The schedule on fats and oils applies to sales at all stages of distribution except retail.

Hollywood On The Loose...

They Get The Gals In Hollywood For Morale Of Army

BY PAUL HARRISON
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 13—The movie colony has been doing pretty handsomely by the pleasant practice of entertaining groups of service men in private homes, and Melvyn Douglas is one of the busier hosts.

Other day he telephoned the committee that arranges such things, offering to feed and entertain about 35 of the boys. Said to send them around about 4 p. m., and he'd see that they got back by midnight. Also, promised the actor confidently, he'd provide dates for everyone. He was thanked, and assigned 50 marines.

"Maybe you know how Hollywood gals are about appointments, or if you don't you're lucky. Any way there was a hitch somewhere in the cute-recruiting arrangements, and only 35 actually showed up. Douglas didn't wait long for stragglers. He picked a couple of the handsomest marines, led them a block or so over to busy Beverly boulevard, took up a post on the curb and began thumbing.

There was no indiscriminate signaling, of course. Only pretty girls in cars. A few prospects got by, but most of them recognized the star whose last job was kissing Greta Garbo and wheeled up to the curb with shrieking brakes. After that, it was easy. Within half an hour, 15 eminently satisfactory young things had been de-livered to the home of Douglas and Helen Gahagan and were busy on the telephone, breaking dates with fiancés and regular boy friends.

Hedy Lamour?

ON a San Diego bound train, Dorothy Lamour was asked if she'd mind going forward a few cars to be introduced to a coach full of soldiers. She said of course she'd do it, and that she hoped the boys wouldn't mind because she didn't happen to be traveling in a sprong.

The remark seemed only to confuse the young officer who escorted her. After yelling for attention he announced her as "Dorothy Lamour" and then, thinking to correct himself, as "Hedy Lamour."

Miss Lamour wasn't flustered. "Just call me Butch," she told the lads. And they did.

MILITIA outfit called the California State Guard has been recruiting hereabout, but it got little support from the film colony until Col. Lewis Stone began organizing the 1st Evacuation Regiment. This will be a transport outfit, motorized with station wagons, and charged with the job of removing people from zones of bombing or disaster. Almost every car in town seems to own a station wagon, and future evacuees can figure on being rescued in style, with a Cooper or a Gable at the wheel, and air-conditioning and a cocktail bar to help turn the retreat into a memorable excursion.

Blocks Boners

A FEW weeks ago I had an account of how technical advisers of historical pictures nearly go goofy trying to keep wrist watches out of scenes. All such anachronisms are a problem even to as careful a man as Cecil De Mille.

Years ago, filming "Cleopatra," he discovered that somebody from the prop department had installed a French telephone in Cleo's boudoir. In "The Crusades," a woman carried a large knitting bag into a scene. In "Northwest Mounted Police," one of the Indians was found to have a hula dancer tattooed on an arm.

Another day, while editing the 1940 ballroom sequence in "Reap the Wild Wind," De Mille uttered a low moan and stopped the film in the background, but plain enough if you happened to be looking that way, was an extra player wearing dark glasses and carrying a copy of a modern picture magazine.

"When Ladies Meet" Is Gay Romance Now At Broadway

Popular Story Back At Lyric

"WHEN LADIES MEET" a gay romance of tangled love and equally tangled lovers, will be at the Broadway today through Tuesday, with Joan Crawford, Robert Taylor, Greer Garson and Herbert Marshall sharing the honors and the comedy.

Miss Crawford plays a sentimental novelist who is loved by Taylor and by her suave publisher, enacted by Marshall.

Confidences Are Shared

Taylor gets an idea, and introduces Miss Crawford to Miss Garson, not telling her that she is meeting Marshall's wife. The two become fast friends and Miss Crawford confides her affair with the publisher to his wife.

Then Marshall enters to find himself in trials and tribulations galore. Miss Garson decides to leave him. This last flirtation is too much. He discovers he's really in love with his wife, which leads to comical complications.

Miss Crawford displays a flair for comedy. Taylor enacts his role with convincing skill, and Miss Garson is the personification of charm. Marshall overlooks no opportunity for comedy. Spring Byington is comical as Bridget, the role she created on the New York stage. The picture is directed by Robert Z. Leonard, director of "Ziegfeld Girl."

Popular Story At Lyric

One of the most exciting stories in American fiction will appear at the Lyric theatre today, when Paramount's Technicolor film version of Harold Bell Wright's gripping novel, "The Shepherd of the Hills" is brought to the screen.

Produced, acted, and directed in the spirit of the original tale of the Ozarks, "The Shepherd of the Hills" unleashes the strong drama and exciting romance that thrilled the readers of the novel. John Wayne and Betty Field are stars of the picture. The story concerns the vow of Young Matt, the hot-headed young mountaineer, to find and kill the man he believed had wrecked his mother's life and placed a cloud over him since birth. Young Matt's relentless urge to wash away disgrace in blood is what keeps pretty Sammy Lane, his sweetheart, from marrying him. Outstanding performances are contributed by Beulah Bondi, James Barton, known for his portrayal of Jester Lester in the jam-packed stage play, "Tobacco Road," Samuel S. Hinds, Marjorie Main, Marc Lawrence and Fuzzy Knight.

"WHEN LADIES MEET"—BROADWAY

LINDSEY

Now Showing—Thru Wednesday

The locale of this story is the Okla-fenokee Swamp in the State of Georgia. Not so many years ago, its seven hundred miles of marsh and cypress were an unknown wilderness to the people who lived around its edges. They knew that its sluggish waters were filled with alligators and that its boggy forests harbored the deadly cottonmouth snake. They feared these creatures, but much more, they feared the unexplored vastness in which a man might disappear, never to be seen again.

"Rage In Heaven" Takes Top Spot Of Week At The Tech

Cagney, Davis Arcadia Stars

"RAGE IN HEAVEN," which comes to the Tech theater today, Monday and Tuesday, is a psychopathic drama, generating suspense and tension throughout. Top acting honors go to Robert Montgomery, a psychopathic case, who meets George Sanders, an old college friend in a London hotel. Together they meet lugrid Bergman who marries the mentally unbalanced Montgomery and complicates the plot considerably.

Wealthy And Witty
Montgomery is both wealthy and witty, but falls in a feeble effort to run his marital happiness by jealousy, misunderstanding and persecution and finally breaks with his old friend Sanders.

Police are mystified when Montgomery is found dead and tension increases when Sanders is accused of the murder. Oscar Homolka does an excellent portrayal of the psychologist who diagnoses the case.

The story, based on the novel by James Hilton, stars Montgomery, Miss Bergman, and Sanders ably supported by Homolka and others.

No War In Film
Time of the action is 1936 and the place is England, but there is no war nor war talk in the film.

The Arcadia program for today, Monday and Tuesday is a double one for laughs and excitement. "The Bride Came C. O. D." starring Bette Davis in her first role short of melodrama, affords 90 minutes of comedy and romance.

Miss Davis lets herself in for quite a lot of punishment at the hands of James Cagney and circumstance when she, a Texas oil heiress decides to elope with a big name orchestra leader. When they are about to get away, Cagney, in cahoots with her father, kidnaps her and starts across the desert to deliver her unmarried to her father. He doesn't count on crashing in the desert and finding Miss Davis a veritable feminine wild cat.

Battle Royal Starts
The battle royal starts and doesn't stop until the end of the film when they finally reach an understanding. Bette has trouble with Cagney, her father, her fiancé and even the desert cactus before the end.

Miss Davis and Cagney are supported in their stellar roles by Stuart Erwin, Eugene Pallette, Jack Carson and several others. Quality entertainment for western addicts and others is the radio show—"Cherokee Strip." Accented by color and action, Richard Dix is the top star and matches his work in "Cimarron."

Dix is a hard-riding, fast-shooting United States marshal with a special job of cleaning up the "Cherokee Strip" in Oklahoma. He encounters victory, joy and kinship as the villains in the Strip and spends considerable time cleaning them out. Andy Clyde acts as his chief side in the film.

The above-the-average supporting cast includes Florence Rice, Jory, Clyde, George E. Stone and Morris Ankrum. Critics call it "tops in outdoor entertainment."

"RISE AND SHINE"—LINDSEY THURSDAY

Lindsey Program

playing another "down-to-earth" role. That is the current offering at the Tower which features "Our Wife" one of the better comedy productions of the year.

Taking headline roles along with Douglas are Ruth Hussey, Ellen Drew, John Hubbard and Charles Coburn.

Top Notcher At Texan
The story of "Our Wife" concerns itself with widely divergent methods of ensnaring a man, and the use of these methods by a couple of charming ladies. The first is firm in the belief that in any contest brains will prevail. The use of any other weapon would be beneath her dignity. The other is equally certain that physical attractions, alluringly employed, cannot lose. While the situations that develop in such a contest are hilarious, the plot also has a dramatic touch. Douglas plays the role of a young band leader who married young—but was soon disillusioned when his pretty wife deserts him because of a streak of bad luck. When the inspiration of another girl leads him to new success, the wife wants him back. The women fight it out.

"Stanley and Livingstone," one of the better pictures to come out of Hollywood is the headliner at the Texan to day, Monday and Tuesday.

Starring Spencer Tracy, Nancy Kelly and Richard Greene, the film is based upon the great contribution which Livingstone made in Africa. Tracy, playing the part of a London newspaperman, goes into the dark continent to get a story about Livingstone's activities. That trip and what he saw after reaching his destination help "make" the picture.

Two features on the same program are on the card at the Calcutus today.

Highlighting the twin bill is "Mr. District Attorney," a thriller with Peter Lorre portraying the elusive Mr. Hyde. Dennis O'Keefe and Florence Rice furnish the romantic leads.

The other feature, "Men of the Timberland," stars Richard Arlen and Andy Devine, and is the story of the battle against crooks intent on destroying rich lumber reserves. The double program continues through Tuesday.

Gable And Russell Stars Of Comedy Feature At Midway

Both Portray Crook Roles

A ROMANTIC, action-packed drama of the Far East, "They Met in Bombay," brings Clark Gable and Rosalind Russell together today at the Midway theater in one of the best of the year's adventure yarns.

The story revolves around the escapades of Gable and Miss Russell, a pair of international jewel thieves who try to outwit each other and end up trying to outwit the police.

Both After Fortune
They clash as each discovers the other has designs on a fortune in diamonds, after they have met in Bombay. Gable is a discredited British army officer who has turned into a suave gentleman crook, and Miss Russell is a chic, smooth-talking "Lady Raffles" moving in smart circles. Miss Russell "lifts" the valuable diamond necklace first, but Gable, through a ruse, takes the loot from her.

Fireworks between the two continue until they are forced to flee together from the police. On board a freighter heading up the China seas, the fugitives discover that they love each other; henceforth, they are two against the world.

The villainous skipper of the freighter, portrayed by Peter Lorre, betrays them to the police, but eventually they reach a sanctuary in a Hongkong cellar hideout. In Hongkong their fortunes become involved in international affairs and Gable redeems himself through his heroic assumption of the uniform to which he was once entitled, an action building the story to a surprise, dramatic climax.

Pinky Tomlin's Orchestra Will Play At Old Hayloft

TALL, lanky, bespectacled and melodic Pinky Tomlin, composer of the hit song, "The Object Of My Affections," will bring his dance orchestra to Lubbock Tuesday for a one-night engagement at the Old Hayloft, located on Avenue J, it was announced Saturday.

Featured in Tomlin's band are Fran Meekin, Jeri Sullivan and the Tomlin Tom Cats.

Has Had Top Engagements
Pinky's young dance band has played a series of engagements at the Billmore Bowl, Los Angeles; the Jung hotel, New Orleans; Muehlebach hotel, Kansas City, and the Drake hotel in Chicago.

Although identified with the guitar, Pinky plays all string instruments. The first time he sang "Object" in public was at the Billmore Bowl, with Jimmy Grieg's orchestra. As a result of his success as a soloist, Pinky was booked into the Paramount theater, Los Angeles, and stayed for 13 weeks.

Grabbed By Movies
The movies grabbed the young musician and his first film was with Robert Taylor and Virginia Bruce, "Times Square Lady."

Radio work followed and personal appearance tours in theaters throughout the country. Now

PINKY TOMLIN

Pinky has gathered together a group of accomplished young musicians to form his own dance orchestra which is recognized as one of the finer entertainment organizations in the country.

Tuesday night's dance will start at 9 o'clock and admission price will be $2.50 per couple, plus throughout the country. Now

Defense Needs Aiding Copper

PHOENIX, Dec. 13 (AP)—Already stimulated by the defense boom into a $44,000,000 expansion, Arizona's copper industry has begun preparations for a $28,000,000 additional expansion, it was disclosed here by Sen. Ernest W. McFarland, D., Ariz.

The $35,000,000 Morenci open pit copper mine has scheduled production to begin about Dec. 16 and the defense plant corporation has agreed to loan $9,000,000 for development of low grade copper properties of the Castle Dome Copper company, west of Miami.

Now McFarland has revealed plans of the Defense plant corporation to loan the Phelps Dodge corporation $28,000,000 for further expansion of its Morenci open pit properties.

The aim of the loan would be to step up production of copper vitally needed in the defense program. McFarland came to Phoenix to make arrangements for a water supply needed for this expanded plant.

The Arizona junior senator sought arrangements to provide some 10,000 acre-feet of water annually for a new defense program copper plant. He opened discussions with representatives of Upper Gila water users.

Similar conferences were held earlier with the Reconstruction Finance corporation, Department of Interior, Indian service and other officials.

Transit Visas To U.S. Suspended

(By The Associated Press)
 WASHINGTON, Dec. 13—Secretary Hull said today the state department had received information that the Portuguese government had suspended the issuance of transit visas to Americans and others in Europe desiring to enter Portugal en route to the United States or other destinations.
 Hull said it was his understanding that Portugal would still issue visas to Americans headed from the United States via Portugal for other destinations in Europe.

Facilities Not Available
 The reason for this appeared to be that, while there are facilities for going from Portugal to other European countries there now are very few facilities for crossing the Atlantic from Portugal.
 Thousands of refugees from all over Europe, particularly from Nazi-conquered countries, have poured through Portugal since the beginning of the European war, and it was assumed here that flow of refugees would at least temporarily cease.

Tarzan

by EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

DEATH IN THE DESERT

TARZAN'S CAMEL FELL, FATALLY WOUNDED. HER AGONIZED CRIES STRUCK PITY TO THE APE-MAN'S HEART. "POOR OLD MEHARA," HE LAMENTED; "NOW YOU MAY GO TO THE LAST OASIS, WHERE THE GRASS GROWS SWEET AND TALL."

THEN SADLY HE PLUNGED HIS KNIFE INTO THE OLD FAITHFUL CREATURE TO END HER SUFFERING.

NOW NIMALI WAS DRAWING NEAR. IF TARZAN RAN, HE'D BE DROPPED BY A BULLET.

HURRIEDLY HE SCOOPED OUT A HOLE AND CRAWLED BENEATH MEHARA'S CARCASS—A TEMPORARY SHELTER AT BEST.

ANGERED BY THIS STRATEGY, NIMALI OPENED FIRE. ONE BULLET PIERCED THE CARCASS AND SCRAPED TARZAN'S ARM.

THEN THE VIOLENT SANDSTORM, SWEEPING OUT OF THE SOUTH, STRUCK WITH FULL FORCE. AS THE EERIE BROWN NIGHT ENVELOPED THE DESERT, TARZAN LEFT HIS REFUGE TO ENGAGE NIMALI HAND TO HAND.

HE CIRCLED TO CATCH THE SCENT OF HIS WILY FOE, BUT THE DRIVING SANDS CLOGGED HIS NOSTRILS.

THE SHARP PARTICLES STUNG LIKE THOUSANDS OF TORMENTING INSECTS. HE HUDDLED DOWN FOR PROTECTION.

THEN HE TOOK OFF HIS LOINCLOTH AND USED IT AS A SCREEN TO FILTER THE ATMOSPHERE SO HE COULD BREATHE.

SOON THE TORRENTS OF SAND WERE COVERING TARZAN. HAD HE ESCAPED NIMALI ONLY TO BE BURIED ALIVE?

SUPERMAN

JERRY SEGEL AND JOE SHUSTER

WHEN LOIS LANE IS ASSIGNED TO COVER ONE OF NANCY TALBOT'S LAMISH PARTIES, CLARK KENT INSISTS ON ACCOMPANYING HER. AND WHEN ALBERT REYNOLDS, NANCY'S LAWYER-FRANCE, TELLS LOIS HE WANTS TO SEE HER ALONE ON THE TERRACE, CLARK SWITCHES TO THE IDENTITY OF SUPERMAN, THEN SCALES THE MANSION'S SIDE.

Copyright 1941, McClure Newspaper Syndicate

YOU SAID THERE WAS SOMETHING YOU WANTED TO DISCUSS WITH ME?

TWO THINGS, AS A MATTER OF FACT. ONE, HOW LOVELY YOU ARE. TWO, HOW ATTRACTED I AM TO YOU.

BUT MISTER REYNOLDS!!

CALL ME ALBERT! I'M GOING TO KISS YOU, LOIS... DO YOU MIND?

CERTAINLY DO!

YOU LITTLE VIXEN! SPITTED, EH—WELL, I'M GOING TO GET THAT KISS WHETHER YOU WANT ME TO OR NOT!

AWK!

YOU'RE GOING TO WHAT—???

IT MEANS YOU'VE BEEN A BAD BOY AND I'M NOT GOING TO LET YOU GO UNTIL YOU PROMISE TO BEHAVE.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?

I'LL PROMISE NOTHING!

YOU'RE ASKING FOR IT!

EXACTLY! SUPERMAN WHIRLS REYNOLDS AROUND AND AROUND IN THE AIR...

EE-YIPE! STOP! STOP! I'LL BEHAVE!

THAT'S MUCH BETTER!

SEE TO IT THAT YOU KEEP YOUR WORD!

THANKS, SUPERMAN! YOU'RE A PAL!

SWIFTLY, SUPERMAN SWITCHES BACK TO CLARK KENT. MINUTES LATER, HE ENCOUNTERS LOIS...

YOU LOOK SLIGHTLY UPSET, LOIS.

WHAT'S ALL THAT NOISE? SOUNDS LIKE A BRAWL!

JACK PHILLIPS! WHAT ARE YOU DOING HERE!

HE HAD NO INVITATION— BUT INSISTED ON BREAKING IN...

I'M GOING TO TALK TO YOU A FEW MINUTES NANCY THEN I'LL LEAVE QUIETLY!

NAVY BOB STEEBIE ★★★ by WILSON STARBUCK

THE U.S.S. PERDUE, ALTHOUGH SERVING AS THE PRESIDENTIAL YACHT, IS A NAVAL VESSEL COMMANDERED BY A NAVAL OFFICER OF THE LINE AND MANNED BY A NAVY CREW.

CLIP AND SAVE FOR YOUR NAVY SCRAP BOOK.

THREE NAVY PLANES, SCOUTING THE WATERS AROUND THE DESTROYER ON WHICH BOB IS STATIONED, ENCOUNTER THREE STRANGE AIRCRAFT, ONE OF WHICH DIVES SQUARELY AT THE LEADING AMERICAN— DOWNING HIM!

WHEW! WE'RE LUCKY SO FAR— BUT WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?

LOOK! WHAT'S THAT?

A SHIP! I HOPE SHE'S ONE OF OURS!

AS THE AMERICANS MAKE FOR THE OBJECT ON THE HORIZON, THE TWO STRANGE PLANES SUDDENLY TURN TAIL AND QUICKLY DISAPPEAR INTO THE WEST!

THAT IS ONE OF OUR DESTROYERS! WE'VE GOT TO SHOW THEM WHERE TO GO!

IT'S THE DESTROYER WITH BOB AND BILL ABOARD! CIRCLING, THE PLANES GUIDE THE SWIFT CRAFT TOWARDS THE MEN STRUGGLING IN THE WATER!

KEEP THOSE PLANES DEAD AHEAD, STEERSMAN!

THERE THEY ARE! WE'LL HAVE A TOUGH JOB PICKING THEM UP IN THIS SEA!

IN NO TIME THE DESTROYER HAS A BOAT OVER WITH BOB IN CHARGE, FIGHTING THE ROUGH SEA TO REACH THE FAST WEAKENING MEN!

PULL TOGETHER, MEN!

... CAN'T— HOLD— ON— MUCH— LONGER!

BUT SUDDENLY LIKE AN INVISIBLE HAND FROM THE VERY DEPTHS, AN ANGRY WAVE CRASHES AGAINST THE SMALL WHALE BOAT WITH DISASTROUS RESULTS!

CATCH HOLD OF THE BOAT!

W.B. FRANCE CLAIMS HE'S SENDING MONEY TO OCCUPIED COUNTRIES TO HELPLESS RELATIVES OF PEOPLE IN AMERICA, BUT WHEN JANE MARKED MONEY—

WE'VE TRACED THE MARKED MONEY—THREE DIFFERENT MEN DEPOSITED IT IN DIFFERENT BANKS—

SO IT DIDN'T GO TO EUROPE—

WHO ARE THESE THREE MUGS?

ONE IS A CHEMIST—ONE A PHOTOGRAPHER AND THE THIRD RUNS A CHEMICAL SUPPLY HOUSE!

GOOD—WE'LL PICK 'EM UP!

NOT SO FAST, TUBBY—

FRANCE COLLECTED THE MONEY—THESE MEN DEPOSITED IT—THE MAN IN BETWEEN IS RUNNING THIS SHOW—HE'S THE ONE WE'RE AFTER—

MR. GREER, WE HAVE PROOF THAT THE MONEY YOU ARE PAYING W.B. FRANCE ISN'T GOING ABROAD TO YOUR PEOPLE!

IT'S A SWINDLE!

WHAT?

WHY HE JUST PHONED—WANTS TO COME BACK FOR MORE—

BUT I'LL BE READY FOR HIM—I'LL CALL THE POLICE!

AND LET THE REST OF THE GANG GET AWAY? WE WANT HIM TO LEAD US TO HIS SUPERIOR!

SURE!

THERE'S NO USE WASTING MONEY ON HIM—

BUT DON'T LET HIM KNOW HE'S UNDER SUSPICION!

AND SO—

I'VE DECIDED NOT TO SEND ANY MORE MONEY ABROAD, MR. FRANCE—

BUT YOUR POOR BROTHER—HIS FAMILY—WILL YOU LET THEM STARVE?

I'VE MADE UP MY MIND—THAT'S FINAL!

OH, NO IT ISN'T—YOU'LL COME ACROSS OR ELSE—

FIRST YOUR BROTHER WILL LAND IN A CONCENTRATION CAMP—THEN TORTURE—IF THAT ISN'T ENOUGH—DEATH!

YOU'D BETTER COME ACROSS!

CAMELS PRINCE ALBERT

Season's Greetings

Make your gift Camels. America's favorite cigarette is sure to please. The gay gift package below contains four boxes of the popular flat fifties. No other wrapping needed.

Another Camel way to say "Merry Christmas"—the famous Camel carton (10 packs of 20's). Hours of Camel's mild, flavorful smoking pleasure. All ready to give—with place for name.

You're proud to present pipe-smokers with this big one-pound tin of mild, rich-tasting Prince Albert Smoking Tobacco. Magnificent in its Christmas jacket... just right in a pipe!

There's an added pleasure in giving Camels at Christmas. You know your gift will be so genuinely welcome. More smokers prefer Camels than any other cigarette. And that preference holds for men in the Army, the Navy, the Marines, and the Coast Guard, too! So remember those lads in uniform... remember all the cigarette smokers on your list... with the cigarette of costlier tobaccos—Camels. Your choice of the package of four flat fifties or the popular Camel carton.

PRINCE ALBERT

If he smokes a pipe, a big, long-lasting pound of cool-burning Prince Albert spells smoking pleasure way into the New Year... at camp, on ship, at home. Prince Albert is choice tobacco, "no-bite" treated for mildness and "crimp cut." It's the National Joy Smoke. There's no other tobacco like it. Your local dealer has two handsome Prince Albert "specials"... the pound tin (left) or the special glass humidor jar. Get yours today.
