Howard County Volunteer Firefighters battled this blaze off of Ratliff Road in May 2018. The Howard County Volunteer Fire Chief is asking to withdraw the current Burn Ban order? That's what the agenda for this week's Howard County Commissioners' meeting says.

The meeting, scheduled for 3:30 p.m. Wednesday in the third-floor courtroom of the Howard County Courthouse, 300 S. Main St., kicks off with discussion and possible action on "Withdraw current Burn Ban order at the request of HC Volunteer Fire Chief" Mitchell Hooper.

The county's burn ban, which was set to expire March 12, was extended for an additional three months at the March 3 meeting, resetting the ban's expiration date to June 12.

In other business, the commissioners plan to:

- Consider approval of invoices, purchase requests and budget amendments;

Car show fundraiser lets Jesus Take the Wheel

By AMANDA DUFORAT
 Managing Editor

The weather is warming up and it's time to clean up and show off your car, while helping support a local ministry. The Jesus Take the Wheel Car Show Fundraiser, to benefit the Laredo Hill Apartment ministry, is set for April 27 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Credit World parking lot.

"This is a ministry that started about a year ago, when we first went out and started a summer Bible study, and it has grown into connections with the families and continues to expand," Ashley Marquez, ministry event coordinator, said.

She continued, "It can be hard to get people to come to church so we decided to go outside the box and we took the church to them. In addition to the Bible study, we did a clothing drive before the beginning of school and have had several other events throughout the year."

Once school was back in session, the Bible studies were put on hold, but the church van has been picking up the youth at the complex who want to attend on Wednesday nights and even on Sunday mornings, according to Marquez.

"Over this past year we have been able to build connections and relationships with the families at Laredo Hill Complex and we want to make sure the kids are able to join us for all the activities, including church camp," she said.

Funds raised at the car show will benefit the Laredo Hill Ministry, which is designated to help the youth in that community get to church camp and support activities and outreach throughout the year.

"The car show is a way we can get the community involved. The church has been providing outreach, but we wanted to give the community an opportunity to help out as well," Marquez said.

The summer camp is between two days to a week long, depending on the age of the child, with tuition ranging around $200 per youth. According to Marquez, in addition to the camp fee, those attending need to be able to purchase certain items such as sleeping bags, bathing suits, toiletries and more to get them through camp.

"When you are a single parent family or have multiple kids wanting to go to camp, the cost can get up there and we want to make sure those kids who want to attend are able to attend, without cost being a factor," she said. "The car show allows us to help meet a need, have community involvement and have some fun."

For those wanting to enter the car show, registration will take place starting at 9 a.m. the day of the event. Registration is $20 per vehicle and all makes and models are welcome. Voting will be done by the community and categories will be Top 20 and Best of Show. In addition to the car show, there will be vendors and more.

"The event is free to attend so we encourage the community to come out and join us," Marquez said.

For those wanting to help out and not able to attend the car show, donations can also be dropped off at First United Methodist Church, located at 400 Scurry Street. All funds should be marked for the Laredo Hill Children's Ministry.

News Briefs

Coast Guard: 23 adrift for days rescued in Gulf of Mexico

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The U.S. Coast Guard said it worked with a cruise ship to rescue 23 people adrift for days in the Gulf of Mexico.

A Coast Guard news statement issued Sunday saying 22 Cubans started traveling on a wooden boat from Cuba to Mexico before losing power and drifting three days. A Cuban-Mexican man took them aboard his sports fishing boat, but then its engines malfunctioned and the group drifted three more days.

The Coast Guard said it was contacted early Sunday by a brother of one of the Cubans. In addition to launching its own effort to find the disabled fishing boat, the Coast Guard alerted the Carnival Fantasy.

The cruise ship took the 23 people aboard within hours, about 130 nautical miles (210 kilometers) off Mexico's Yucatan Peninsula.

The statement said two of the people rescued had minor medical issues and were treated by medical staff on the cruise ship. It added that the 23 people would be transferred Tuesday to U.S. Customs and Border Protection and Coast Guard Investigative Services in Mobile, Alabama.

Facebook, Instagram, WhatsApp back up after massive outage

Facebook, Instagram and WhatsApp were temporarily down early Sunday.

All three social media platforms, including Facebook Messenger, were affected by the outage.

Downdetector.com, a site that monitors site outages, shows Facebook had been down since 6:30 a.m. EST in much of the world, with thousands of reported outages concentrated in the northeastern U.S., Europe and the Philippines.

It appeared to be back up and running for most users by 9 a.m. EST.

A Facebook spokesman declined to give a reason for the outage, but said the issue has since been resolved and the company apologized for any inconvenience.

#FacebookDown, #instagramdown and #whatsappdown were all trending on Twitter globally.

Facebook acquired Instagram in 2012 and WhatsApp in 2014.

There are more than 1.52 billion daily active Facebook users, according to the social media network's website.

Boy thrown from Mall of America balcony still hospitalized

BLOOMINGTON, Minn. (AP) — A 5-year-old boy who was seriously injured when he was thrown from a third-floor balcony at the Mall of America near Minneapolis remains hospitalized.

Friends of the family have started a crowdfunding effort to help with medical bills. The GoFundMe campaign had raised nearly $400,000 as of Sunday morning.

Bloomington Police Chief Jeffrey Potts said Sunday that the boy is "still alive and receiving care," and that the family wants privacy. Children's Hospital Minneapolis had no information to release.

Authorities haven't released the boy's name. They say he fell nearly 40 feet after a man threw him off the balcony Friday.

Twenty-four-year-old Emmanuel Deshawn Aranda, of Minneapolis, is jailed on a suspicion of attempted homicide charge. Jail records don't list an attorney for him. He could be formally charged as early as Monday.

DFW Airport to start planning 6th terminal for more flights

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — Talks are expected to begin this spring on adding a sixth passenger terminal at Dallas-Fort Worth International Airport, the main hub for American Airlines, aviation officials said.

Airport authorities said there's a good chance Terminal F could be built with design standards that allow more airplanes to park in a smaller space, the Fort Worth Star-Telegram reported.

Terminal F will probably not be the same shape as other terminals at DFW. Some 60% of DFW passengers are connecting for another flight, and the half-moon terminal design is not the best shape for connecting customers, said Sean Donohue, DFW Airport chief executive officer.

While the discussions around the construction of Terminal F are still introductory, it's likely the new terminal could be created without a parking garage, officials said, citing data indicating that about a quarter of car traffic at the airport comes from ride-share services such as Lyft and Uber.

"If we can add gates without a lot of the things you typically need for a terminal, that might be really helpful," said Tim Skipworth, American Airlines vice president of airport affairs and facilities.

Donohue said that while no financial projections are available, it's likely the new Terminal F would be the key part of an airport capital improvement project that could cost as much as $4 billion through 2025.

Some temporary enhancements to Terminal C, the airport's busiest terminal and also the only one that hasn't received capital improvements in the past 20 years, would also likely be included in the project.

Those funds are expected to come from airport revenue bonds issued by the airport's owner cities, Dallas and Fort Worth. The money would be reimbursed from dues paid by airlines who use DFW, chiefly American, which considers DFW its primary global hub and runs about 80% to 85% of all flights there.

Texas governor praises town damaged in 2013 fertilizer blast

WEST, Texas (AP) — Gov. Greg Abbott on Saturday praised first responders and residents of a Central Texas town for working together on recovery efforts after a 2013 fertilizer plant fire and explosion claimed 15 lives.

Hundreds of people attended the ceremonies to dedicate the City of West Fallen Heroes Memorial, located in a park in the town about 65 miles (104.6 kilometers) south of Dallas. Architect and former West resident Kurt Vrbas designed the memorial featuring a reflecting pool and plaques.

Abbott said he's proud of everyone who worked to make West "better than it's ever been" after the April 17, 2013, blast at the West Fertilizer Co. plant. A dozen emergency responders and three residents died, and hundreds of homes were damaged or destroyed.

The governor offered additional admiration for the people of West and the $300,000 memorial project, funded by donations.

"The community has displayed the trademark Texan resiliency," Abbott said in a tweet.

The memorial project was led by West resident Joe Pustejovsky, whose son, Joey, was a member of the West Volunteer Fire Department and one of the 15 people who died.

"It's always been let's pull together, let's get it together," Pustejovsky said.

Man arrested in assault on transgender woman in Dallas

DALLAS (AP) — Police in Dallas have arrested a 29-year-old man in the brutal beating of a transgender woman in an attack that was caught on cellphone video.

Dallas police say Edward Thomas was arrested at about 9:30 p.m. Sunday "for his role" in the attack. He was jailed on suspicion of aggravated assault, and records don't list an attorney who could speak on his behalf.

Police did not say whether anyone else would be arrested in the beating, which happened Friday in broad daylight in front of a crowd of people, but said the case is being investigated as a hate crime. The woman told police she was attacked after a minor traffic accident.

A purported video shows a man in a white shirt viciously beating the woman, apparently into unconsciousness, while the crowd looks on and homophobic slurs are shouted. Several women eventually carried the victim's limp body to safety.

Family members told Dallas television station WFAA that the woman suffered facial fractures and injured her right arm in the attack.

Leslie McMurray, a transgender woman who is an education and advocacy coordinator at the Resource Center in Dallas, called the attack "terrifying."

"You could just feel the energy and the malevolence of this crowd escalate as the violence ensued and there was no voice standing up saying stop," McMurray, who wasn't present during the attack, told WFAA. "There's no reason that our lives are less valuable than someone else or that we should be someone's punching bag just because we're transgender."

SWEETWATER – The Steers got another big district win on the road in Sweetwater to improve to 4-1 in district play and take sole possession of first place with Greenwood's loss to Snyder. It was Big Spring big sticks that got the job done last Friday. The Steers outthit the Mustangs 13-5 in the game and scored runs in 4 innings while allowing runs in just two. With bad weather and delays, Big Spring never lost their focus and kept their mind on the task at hand and got the much needed district win as they get ready to host a string of home games to close out district play.

The Steers jumped out early and got on the scoreboard first with an RBI single by Cade Wash to bring Elijah Munoz across the dish in the top of the first for a 1-0 lead. Big Spring forced the Mustangs to give up three down in the bottom of the first then really turned up the heat and scored 4 runs in the top of the second. With the bases loaded Elijah Munoz hit a 3-run RBI triple to left field to give the Steers a 4-0 lead. On the very next at bat, Jason Miramontes hit a hard RBI single through the gap and Elijah came across the plate again to give Big Spring a 5-0 lead and put the game well in control.

Sweetwater did answer with a solo run in the bottom of the second and then another solo run in the bottom of the third after holding Big Spring scoreless in the top of the inning. But it was just not enough offense to match the Steers and after both teams were held in check in the fourth inning, Big Spring scored again on an RBI single by Brett Berringer to make it a 6-2 game in favor of the Steers.

Big Spring would hold the Mustangs scoreless for the rest of the game but did manage to put up two more runs in their last at bat. This time it was little Michael who did the damage. Michael hit a line drive 2 run RBI single into right field to give the Steers the impressive 8-2 victory over the Mustangs.

Kyle Seymore got the start and the win for the Steers on the mound. Seymore threw four innings, allowed just two runs on two hits and struck out three in the solid outing. Tyler Warner got the start for the Mustangs on the rubber. Warner gave up eight runs on 13 hits in seven innings, but did sit down seven steers on strikes.

With 13 hits in the game they was a lot of success at the plate for Big Spring. Brett Berringer, Anthony Sarmiento, Cade Wash and Elijah Munoz all racked up multiple hits in the game. Elijah and Michael Munoz led the Steers offensively with 3 and 2 RBIs respectively on three hits.

Big Spring will welcome Greenwood to Steer Park on Tuesday looking to improve to 5-1 in district and redeem their only district loss so far this year.

Lady Steers hold off Sweetwater 4-3 to remain unbeaten in district play

By JORDAN PARR

Sports Editor

SWEETWATER – The Lady Steers had all the momentum in their favor riding a six-game winning streak into Friday nights matchup with the Sweetwater Lady Mustangs, but the Lady Stangs did not go down easy. Sweetwater fought till the very end and made Big Spring earn the tough one run win till the last pitch. The Lady Steers outthit Sweetwater 10 to 5 in the game but just couldn't generate runs like they are used to and put them in the driver seat with a 4-1 lead.

The Lady Steers got on the board first in the top of the second on an error that allowed Jocelyn Gonzales to score and take a 1-0 lead. Neither team would score again until the bottom of the fifth when Sweetwater tied the game at 1 all on an RBI double by Black. Maddie Daniels really did a great job all night from the circle limiting the Lady Stangs opportunities at the plate.

In the top of the sixth inning, Big Spring finally got what they had been needing all along with a big three run inning. Jocelyn Gonzales got the inning started with a big solo shot deep over the center field wall to give the Lady Steers a 2-1 lead. Then after singles by Kalyn Whitehead and Amber Martinez, Alexis Starr hit a hard liner to center field to drive in two runs and really give Big Spring a nice three run advantage at 4-1 heading into the bottom of the sixth. Unfortunately, Sweetwater wasn't going to let it go that easily and they scored two runs of their own in the bottom of the inning to make it a tight 4-3 game heading into the seventh.

In the seventh the team could get anything going offensively and the Lady Steers held on for the narrow 4-3 win to go to 7-0 in district and remain in first place as they prepare to welcome Greenwood on Tuesday night. Maddie Daniels was really good for the Lady Steers on the rubber. Daniels pitched seven innings and allowed just 3 runs on 5 hits to get yet another win. Kara Lehner took the loss for Sweetwater. Lehner pitched six and two-thirds innings, allowed 4 runs on 9 hits and struck out four.

Gonzales and Martinez led the way for Big Spring offensively each col-

Bulldog pitcher Ky Kemper throws a strike across home plate during Coahoma/Anson varsity baseball game held on Friday, April 12, 2019, in Anson.

Special to the Herald

ANSON – The Coahoma Bulldogs lost a heartbreaker on Friday after the Anson Tigers hit a walk-off grand slam to steal away the victory, 8-4.

The Tigers were quick to take the lead early in the game scoring two runs in the first inning and one more in the second, but the Bulldogs got on the scoreboard in the third. Ky Kemper started off a Bulldog drive when he stole home for Coahoma's first run.

Then, the Bulldog offense took control of the game in the fourth starting with Taylor Barnes who singled on a line drive to right field to bring in Kobe Cervantes for the run. The Bulldogs tied the game when Chris Castillo scored a run off a bunt by Brysen Kerby. A balked pitch by Brysen Barnes across home plate and gave Coahoma the lead.

From then on, the game came down to a pitcher's duel through the bottom of the seventh inning. The Tigers tied the game on a line drive to center field for a run and the next batter sealed their victory with the grand slam. Kemper, Barnes, Castillo, and Cervantes all got hits for the Bulldogs. Brant Gartman hit a double in the second inning. Kemper was solid on the mound. He allowed eight runs off of nine hits and struck out six.

Next: Coahoma faces Colorado City at home on Tuesday. Game time is 7 p.m.

Bulldogettes cage Lady Tigers

Special to the Herald

ANSON – Jaydan Mann had a five RBI day to help lead the Bulldogettes to their third straight district win Friday night against the Anson Lady Tigers. Coahoma won 13-6.

Mann started off the Bulldogette offense in the first inning by scoring a run after Caitlyn Corley singled on a fly ball to right field. Coahoma broke open the game in the third inning driving in five runs and padded the score five more in the top of the seventh inning.

However, the Lady Tigers were not quite ready to call it a night. Whitney Wilson started off an Anson seventh inning rally hammering a double on a fly ball to center field which drove in a run. Anson earned three more to narrow the score 13-6. However, Coahoma's pitcher MaKynlee Overton shook off the setback and shutdown the Lady Tigers' rally first with a ground out and then a strike out.

Mann went 4-for-5 at the plate with three runs and five RBIs for the game.

Cassie Grant was 3-for-4 with one run and two RBIs. Lexi Montelongo, Corley, Kaylor Green, and Overton had two hits a piece. Overall, Coahoma out hit Anson 13 to 6.

Overton got the win for the Bulldogettes. She sacrificed nine hits over seven innings.

Now the Bulldogettes set their sights on Colorado City to battle for the second spot in District 5-3A. Coahoma hosts the Lady Wolves at 5 p.m. on Tuesday.

Here's How it Works:
Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!

Self-Conscious Square of Venus and Jupiter

ARIES (March 21-April 19). You're not threatened by other talented people, because your creativity allows you to see how melding your talents together makes everyone shine brighter.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). This game you're playing requires strategy. Think far ahead, and then work backward to determine how to get there, imagining the variables you're likely to encounter along the way.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). What's ailing you may seem like a matter of psychology, but it can be handled just as easily with a rearrangement of schedule and some other practical matters. It's all about your system. Make things easier for yourself.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). Atmosphere can make or break things such as dates, dinner parties and even simple conversations. The good news is that you have a lot of power over this. If a place doesn't feel right, just take the action elsewhere.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). The manual for fiction writers suggests that in a good story, characters drive the plot and not the other way around. Similarly, today you decide who you want to be, and your actions advance the plot.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). This is a new you, so clear your environment of all the unwanted reminders of the old you doing the old habits, and fill the space with symbols, tools and fuels that represent the new you.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Once upon a time, the role you're in now seemed like a distant impossibility, and now you've set your sights on another equally improbable (yet eminently possible) reality.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). How you feel about the decision right now is different from how you'll feel tomorrow and next year. Keeping the perspective of time in mind helps you set future you up for success.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). No matter what the problem is, you can be sure that someone else has had it or is having it right now. So find out who's in the club, and see what you can learn. This one will be solved more CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). When people see you the way you want to be seen, it feels somewhat satisfying at first, if a little hollow. That's because there's nothing quite as fulfilling as being fully embraced for who you really are.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). What you see is never all that is. Magic shows are built on this premise, and so are drama, branding and dating. Your edge today is your curiosity. You'll follow it to answers that are out of the frame and behind the scenes.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). Once you're in temptation's living room, it will seem impolite to turn down the offerings. You're lucky that you know where temptation lives. Don't even go down that street.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (April 15). Your gumption will be invigorated, and your dreams never seemed more possible -- largely because of your "no excuses, no quitting" attitude. You'll change something in the next three weeks that makes it more possible to devote yourself to your work. Surprises will further enliven the journey, including support people and funding. Virgo and Cancer adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 40, 1, 38, 20 and 16.

Tiger Woods makes Masters his 15th and most improbable major

By DOUG FERGUSON

AUGUSTA, Ga. — Tiger Woods blazing to victory in his Sunday red at the Masters, a scene once so familiar, was never more stunning.

It was only two years ago at Augusta National that Woods needed a nerve block just to hobble upstairs to the Champions Dinner, unsure he would ever play another round of golf. He had a fourth back surgery with hopes of simply playing with his two children, not chasing Jack Nicklaus in history.

And now it's all pieced back together — his life, his back, even golf.

A fallen hero, a crippled star, Woods is a Masters champion again.

He won his fifth green jacket, his 15th major, but never with this much raw emotion. The most ferocious fist pump was when he walked off the 18th green, scooped up 10-year-old son Charlie, and embraced his mother and his 11-year-old daughter Sam.

"For them to see what it's like to have their dad win a major championship, I hope that's something they will never forget," Woods said.

Who can ever forget this day?

"It's hard to really feel bad about how I played because I just witnessed history," said Xander Schauffele, one of three players who finished second. "It was really cool coming down the stretch, all the historic holes, Tiger making the roars. I feel like I got full Masters experience."

The comeback goes beyond the two-shot deficit he erased before a delirious audience that watched memories turn into reality.

It had been 14 years since he last won the Masters — no one had ever gone that long between green jackets. He had gone nearly 11 years since his last major, the 2008 U.S. Open at Torrey Pines on a shattered left leg.

This was bigger.

Woods never missed a shot that mattered over the final seven holes, taking the lead with a 5-iron to the fat of the green on the par-5 15th for a two-putt birdie, delivering the knockout with an 8-iron that rode down the ridge by the cup and settled 2 feet away for birdie on the par-3 16th.

He tapped in for bogey and a 2-under 70, and the celebration was on.

"WOOOOOOO!!!" Woods screamed as he headed for the scoring room with chants of "Tiger! Tiger! Tiger!" He had never hugged more people, everyone in his camp who stood by him through a public divorce, an embarrassing mug shot from his DUI arrest when he took a bad mix of painkillers and the four back surgeries, the most recent to fuse his lower spine

"I had serious doubts after what transpired a couple of years ago," Woods said. "I could barely walk. I couldn't sit. Couldn't lay down. I really couldn't do much of anything. ... To have the opportunity to come back like this, it's probably one of the biggest wins I've ever had for sure because of it."

President Donald Trump, who has played with Woods at his Florida course, had two tweets of congratulations. Fenway Park posted the news on the scoreboard.

A comeback for the ages?

It rates among the best because Woods has meant so much to so many in a sport he ruled for so long. Whether he can dominate it again is still to be determined. Woods needed some help to win this Masters. Six players had a share of the lead at some point on the back nine, and there was a five-way tie at the top when the final group was still on the 15th fairway.

"You couldn't have had more drama than we all had out there. And now I know why I'm balding," Woods said. "This stuff is hard."

It didn't look that way when he was younger, healthier and the most popular sporting figure in the world.

Woods lost his impeccable image to a sex scandal, one of the swiftest and most shocking downfalls in sports. He lost his health to back problems. He went two years without even playing a major.

Now the comeback is truly complete. And the race is on.

"A big 'well done' from me to Tiger," Nicklaus tweeted. "I am so happy for him and for the game of golf. This is just fantastic!!!"

Woods now is three short of the gold standard — 18 majors — set by Nicklaus.

"I think 18 is a whole lot closer than people think," Brooks Koepka said.

Joe LaCava, the caddie who stayed with Woods even when he didn't play for the better part of two years, said they have talked about the record.

"We're on 14 and I said, 'Let's get to 15.' You can't be on 14 and thinking about 18," LaCava said. "But now we can start talking about 16. So we're getting closer."

It was the first time Woods won a major when trailing going into the final round. Francesco Molinari, the 54-hole leader, was still up two shots heading into the heart of Amen Corner.

And that's when all hell broke loose.

Molinari's tee shot on the par-3 12th never had a chance, hitting the bank and tumbling into Rae's Creek for double bogey. Until then, Molinari had never trailed in a round that began early in three-comes to finish ahead of storms.

And then it seemed as though practically everyone had a chance, until Woods delivered the key shots at the big moment, just like the old days.

Schauffele failed to birdie the par-5 15th and scrambled for pars the rest of the way for a 68. Dustin Johnson made three straight birdies late in the round, but he got going too late and had to settle for a 68 and a return to No. 1 in the world.

Woods goes to No. 6, his first time inside the top 10 since the 2014 PGA Championship.

Koepka, one of four players from the final two groups who hit into the water on No. 12, rallied with an eagle on the 13th, narrowly missed another eagle on the 15th and was the last player with a chance. His birdie putt on the 18th from just outside 10 feet missed, and he had to settle for a 70.

"You want to play against the best to ever play," Koepka said. "You want to go toe-to-toe with them. I can leave saying I gave it my all. He's just good, man."

Woods finished at 13-under 275 and became, at 43, the oldest Masters champion since Nicklaus won his sixth green jacket at 46 in 1986. That has stood as Augusta's defining moment for years.

This one is sure to at least rival it.

"This is definitely, probably one of the greatest comebacks I think anybody's ever seen," Koepka said.
