Area Paralyzed By Weekend Snowfall

An unexpected heavy snowfall, ranging up to a foot or more, virtually paralyzed activity in the Snyder area Sunday and today.

All schools in Scurry County were shut down for the day, including Western Texas College, and Borden County Schools were closed due to the heavy snow.

Other activities scheduled for today and tonight were either canceled or postponed, and area residents were being urged to stay off the highways and streets unless it was absolutely necessary to travel.

There were reports of stranded vehicles on area roads in various directions and when several persons tried to go to Western Texas College early today their cars unable to negotiate a slippery Roundtop Road.

Virtually all organizations that had meetings or activities scheduled today or tonight had announced cancellations early today.

Jim Rambo, drama director at Western Texas College, announced that the final presentation of "Becket" in the WTC Fine Arts Theatre, had been postponed until Tuesday night. It had originally been set for tonight.

The snowfall, which began late Saturday night, continued through Sunday and forecasts indicated that even more could be expected today before a clearing trend sets in tonight.

In Lubbock, Wichita Falls and Childress were snow-covered and dangerous.

"We got a bunch of ice, and a bunch of snow on top of that," said a Department of Public Safety spokesman in Lubbock. "It all adds up to one big problem: it's slick and hazardous any way you want to go out of Lubbock."

The National Weather Service reported that early Monday, most secondary roads from the Big Bend area northeast to San Angelo were closed, and main arteries were passable only with extreme caution.

In Amarillo, with snowdrifts three to four feet deep downtown, cars and trucks were stranded on the clogged

California Homes Raked By Fires

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Roaring fires moved on in front of the capricious Santa Ana winds today after inflicting losses in the tens of millions of dollars over 44,000 acres of parched brushland. More than 100 homes were damaged or destroyed and at least one person died.

Some of the hillside homes were valued at more than $1 million.

Choking smoke and ash blown by the northeasterly winds, which ranged up to 80 mph, blanketed areas several miles from the nine fires that raged through the weekend.

While the fires spread, homeowners tried to salvage bits of their charred homes. One old man wept in the arms of his pregnant daughter as a forlorn dog sat near smoldering ruins in the posh Bradbury area.

The wind and fires interrupted electricity to some 50,000 homes, though power was restored to more than 90 percent of them by Sunday night. A power failure to one pumping station cut water pressure, frustrating firefighters already having trouble pushing away the curious, officials said.

Two people were arrested on charges of looting ruined homes. Fire authorities called a "red flag" alert throughout Southern California due to high fire danger, severely restricting activity in brushy areas. There has been no significant rain here since April.

Added together, the fires had consumed about 70 square miles of land. In the Carbon Canyon blaze, about 30 miles southeast of Los Angeles in Orange County, several horses died and a number of homes were charred as flames raced across 8,000 acres, fire officials said.

The flames raced through an oil field so quickly they jumped the wells and roared on to threaten the small community of Olinde, burning up to the laws of several evacuated homes before being stopped.

The 10,000-acre Sunland fire forced residents of suburban Glendale and Burbank out of their homes, said Burbank Fire Department spokesman Rich Kaufman. That blaze claimed 12 homes.

Ask Us

Q.—Is it true that SACROC is going to start using water from Lake J. B. Thomas for the water flood system?

A.—The Colorado River Municipal Water District furnishes water for several waterflooding projects in area oil fields and in recent months it has been mostly salt water. In the past, however, the district has sold fresh water for this purpose, and it recently notified SACROC that some fresh water will be available again, now that the lakes have a good supply on hand.

Rome Monuments Need Protection

ROME (AP) — Communist Mayor Luigi Petroselli says Rome will close a wide traffic-clogged boulevard in the historic center of the city to cut vibrations and exhaust fumes that are damaging the famous monuments.

"I'm not saying we'll do it tomorrow, but the decision has been made. We will close the Via dei Fori Imperiali," Petroselli told a news conference Saturday.

The road cuts through the Roman and Imperial Forums and connects the Colosseum and Piazza Venezia. Officials have discussed closing the boulevard for years.

The snow was accompanied by high winds, which made it impossible to get accurate measurements, but indications were that well over a foot of snow had fallen here.

There were accumulations of at least a foot on open spaces, and much of it had melted as it fell as the thermometer hovered around the 30-degree mark most of the weekend.

The snowfall here was part of a big pattern that stretched over much of the state.

Snowfall of two to four inches was common in West Texas, but 12 to 15 inches fell in Alpine, 10 inches hit Lubbock, and eight to 10 inches covered the Sweetwater area.

The Department of Public Safety reported that all roads

Hostages' Fate Decided

BIERUT, Lebanon (AP)—The speaker of Iran's Parliament, Hashai Rafaisanjani, reaffirmed today that the issue of the 52 Americans held hostage in his country had been "decided" and there were no plans to debate it again, the Iranian news agency Pars said.

Pars quoted Rafaisanjani as saying at a news conference: "The Islamic Parliament has already decided this issue. The government has been instructed to act accordingly."

Algerian diplomats, acting as intermediaries, delivered to Iran last week the U. S. response to Iranian conditions for the release of the Americans held captive since Nov. 4, 1979.

Iran has demanded the return of the wealth of deposed Mohammad Reza Pahlavi, the unfreezing of Iranian assets in the U. S. banks, the dropping of legal claims against Iran and a pledge by the United States of non-interference in Iranian affairs.

Col. Sanders Fussing

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Col. Harland Sanders, the goateed gentleman who made a name for himself with his Kentucky Fried Chicken recipe, has found hospital food not to his liking.

Doctors said the fussing was an indication that Sanders, 90, was getting better, according to John Cox, a spokesman for Kentucky Fried Chicken.

Sanders has been hospitalized since Nov. 7, when he was admitted for treatment of a kidney and bladder infection.

Sanders lost consciousness for a time Friday, but Sunday he was awake and alert, Cox said.

"He is sitting up and talking to people, and the doctors say he is fussing about the food, which is always encouraging," Cox said.

Commandments Barred

WASHINGTON (AP)—Kentucky cannot post copies of the Ten Commandments in every public school classroom, the Supreme Court ruled today.

By a 5-4 vote, the nation's highest court said posting the commandments in public schools violates the Constitution's freedom-of-religion guarantees.

The court's decision, coming in an unsigned opinion, reversed a Kentucky Supreme Court ruling that the state's action was constitutional.

Haitians Back Home

POR AU-PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—Most of the 106 Haitians who tried to flee to Florida but got shipwrecked in the Bahamas for 40 days were back today in the same villages they never wanted to see again. But at least 20 were hospitalized at Port Au-Prince, suffering from malnutrition or beatings by the Bahamians.

Buses took the remainder back to the Artibonite Valley in central Haiti where malaria was prevalent last year; to Gonave Island off the central coast where an eight-year drought has caused widespread hunger, and to the arid, northern coast, hardest hit of the erosion-plagued mountainous areas of Haiti.

12 Iranian Gunboats Sunk In Iraqi Attack

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP) — Iraqi forces attacking Susangerd sank 12 Iranian gunboats in the Karkheh River on the outskirts of the city, the Baghdad command said today. Iran said it sent in tanks and troop reinforcements behind rocket-firing helicopter gunships in what appeared to be a last-ditch effort to hold the southwestern highway city against the invaders.

Kuwait, meanwhile, charged Iran with the second rocket attack on its border in five days and the government held an emergency session to draft a protest note to Iran. Kuwaiti newspapers said the raids were a deliberate Iranian attempt to expand the theater of the two-month-old Persian Gulf war.

Tehran Radio said troop reinforcements, supported by tanks, shot their way through an Iraqi siege and entered Susangerd at midday, joining other defenders "in the valiant city."

Military communiques from Baghdad and Tehran said hundreds of killed and wounded lay in the embattled streets of Susangerd. Both sides claimed Sunday they had killed 500 of each other's soldiers in house-to-house fighting there.

Today's Iraqi communique said in addition to sinking the gunboats, its forces destroyed 10 rocket-launching bases, eight Iranian anti-tank missile launchers and 22 military vehicles in Susangerd, and that "the enemy lost a huge number of soldiers killed in the operations Sunday night and early Monday."

The Tehran broadcast did not say where the reinforcements were sent from. A probable source is the city of Ahwaz, which has the largest army garrison in southwestern Iran and is 30 miles to the north.

A Baghdad communique said Iraqi forces in the drive to capture Susangerd killed 40 Iranian soldiers in mid-morning battles. It conceded 34 Iraqis killed in the morning fighting in Susangerd and elsewhere on the battlefield.

The communique claimed Iraqi troops sank 12 boats in the Karkheh River, which runs along the northeastern outskirts of Susangerd, to close all routes of escape to the city's garrison and Islamic revolutionary guards. Susangerd is 20 miles east of the Iraqi border and 30 miles northwest of Ahwaz, the capital of Iran's oil-rich Khuzistan Province that the Iraqis are trying to squeeze in a pincers movement.

A communique from the Iranian general staff said Iranian fighter planes bombed the Iraq's southern naval base of Um Qasr again and sank two enemy warships.

The reported rocket attack by Iranian warplanes on Kuwait's nearby Abdali border post on Sunday rekindled fears of expanded warfare in the gulf region that supplies 40 percent of the non-communist world's oil supplies.

In Paris, meanwhile, the Arab Oil and Gas Bulletin said today that losses in the oil losses of Iraq and Iran during the war amount to between $16 billion and $18 billion.

The publication said Iran's losses from the destruction of oil installations are estimated to be between $5 billion and $6 billion and Iraq's, between $4 billion and $4.5 billion.

Reagan Takes Strategy Package To Washington

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Ronald Reagan, armed with a detailed strategy he says can make his promised tax and spending cuts a reality, prepared today to fly to Washington for the first time since being elected president two weeks ago.

In five days in Washington, he will meet with the man he defeated, Jimmy Carter; with congressional leaders of both parties; and with the transition staff he picked to help guide the transfer of power.

He is due to arrive in Washington in the early evening, fly by helicopter to a government guest house and, 30 minutes later, address by phone the nation's Republican governors, meeting in Philadelphia.

On Sunday, Reagan and former Treasury Secretary George P. Shultz, chairman of a committee of 14 prominent Republican economists who drafted the detailed spending and tax cut plan, met reporters.

But neither would describe specifics from the proposal except to confirm that it is a detailed plan to implement Reagan's campaign promises to cut government spending by 2 percent annually and federal income taxes across the board 10 percent for the next three years.

After a 45-minute session with the economic advisers, Reagan told reporters: "It's all there in the paperback, some light weekend reading." He carried two large black three-ring binders, which he said contained summaries of the recommendations.

"We're going to do what I said throughout the campaign we would do. These are plans for implementation, reducing the cost of government, reducing the burden on the people and getting a prosperity that would be shared by all," Reagan added.

Shultz said the report could reshape government and revitalize the economy.

"Strong and decisive things can be done," Shultz said, adding that a top priority is controlling government spending. He had harsh words about the present state of the economy:

"If we have had a recovery at all, it is a very fragile one," Shultz said. "The situation the governor will inherit is very gloomy. The rate of inflation is very high. The budget is hemorrhaging. It is a very bad scene."

Asked if the planned budget cuts would reduce govern-

Tests Passed By Stacy Dam Model

A model of the Stacy dam has come through tests with flying colors.

While some simulated flood runs are continuing on a scale model of the dam at Colorado State University in Fort Collins, the most rugged tests have been completed. O. H. Ivie, general manager of the Colorado River Municipal Water District which will build the Stacy project, said that the tests had disclosed the need for some modifications, but that most of these will result in savings in construction as well as increase the security of the structure.

The dam model was constructed on an exact scale of one to 40, even down to the sizing of the rocks used as rip rap or in the stilling basin. Then river flows of every possible magnitude were routed through the spillway, and the emergency spillway, including "100-year flood" of 265,000 cubic feet per second discharge (132,000 acre feet per day), or the maximum possible flood condition of 340,000 per second feet (170,000 acre feet per day) discharge. Because there is a bend in the river channel above the dam location, it may be necessary to construct a "spur" dike at one end of the spillway to convey the flow directly upon the face of the spillway and thus even the flow to all gates. The ultimate flood test also revealed a moderate problem of tailwater when both the spillway and the emergency spillway are discharging at the absolute maximum.

Ivie said tests were continuing, and a final report from the Colorado State University is expected before the end of the year. Similar model tests on the dam at Lake E. V. Spence resulted in savings which more than paid for the study and overcame some critical safety problems.

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Much of President's Carter's unpopularity, ac-ording to contemporary mythology, can be ascribed to the contempt with which Northern big-city sophisticates long have viewed the Southern small-town farmer.

But in this year's election, urban residents generally maintained their 1976 levels of support for the president. It was Carter's peers — residents of small towns and rural areas, farmers and Baptists — who renounced him with a vengeance matched by few other blocs of voters.

That intriguing pattern is perhaps the most fascinating product of the analyses of specially selected election precincts and the Election Day surveys of voters conducted by the television networks and other news-gathering organizations.

In Tennessee, for example, Carter this year carried the major cities by a 57-41 margin, unchanged from his 1976 performance, but President-elect Reagan won 58-39 among farmers, 50-47 in small towns and 52-46 in rural areas.

Similarly, Carter's own strength in Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin dropped only 1 percent to 2 percent in the big cities but plummeted 10 percent to 12 percent in the small towns and rural areas.

Among farmers, the president's 1980 support was down 10 percent to 16 percent from 1976 in Arkansas, Florida, Kentucky, Maryland, Michigan, Nebraska and Tennessee. Even more startling were declines ranging from 26 percent to 30 percent in Minnesota, Oklahoma and Texas.

In Iowa, Reagan won 56 percent of the farm vote. In Massachusetts, he carried the small towns by a 41-38 margin, because Carter lost 21 percentage points among those voters.

In Alabama, Carter this year carried the major cities by a 63-34 margin, improving upon his 1976 position among urban voters by 18 percentage points. But he lost 11 percent in the small towns and 17 percent in rural communities, allowing Reagan to capture those areas.

Among Baptists, the president's strength this year compared with four years ago was down 10 percent to 12 percent in Alabama, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Although Carter's home state of Georgia was one of the few he carried this year, a strikingly similar pattern was evident there: He was down 13 percent among farmers, 10 percent in rural areas and 6 percent among Baptists.

Carter's 1980 rejection by those who backed him in his initial bid for the presidency was hardly limited to those demographic classifications. Some examples of losses among Americans of European extraction:

In Pennsylvania, he was down 11 percent among both the Germans and the Italians and 20 percent among the Irish. In Massachusetts, he was down 7 percent among the Irish and 14 percent among the Italians. In Wisconsin, he was down 15 percent among the Slavs. In Maine, he was down 12 percent among the French.

With only blacks generally remaining faithful to him, Carter's support was down 22 percent among retirees in Florida, down 30 percent among Jews in New York and down 11 percent among Hispanics in Texas.

Evidence that Carter didn't have to suffer that disgrace comes from Connecticut, and Ohio, where two Democratic candidates, both moderates, handily won contests for Senate seats by attracting the support of the same voters who rebuffed the party's president.

In Connecticut, Rep. Christopher J. Dodd captured a Senate seat by running 22 percent better than Carter in the small towns, 19 percent better in the suburbs and 16 percent better among blue-collar workers.

In Ohio, Sen. John H. Glenn Jr. won re-election and surpassed Carter by 30 percent in the suburbs and 26 percent among white- and blue-collar workers, middle-income voters, Protestants and big-city residents.

What happened to Carter? One statistic captures the mood that transcended all segments of the electorate: Two-thirds of the voters surveyed rated the president's overall performance only fair or poor — and more than three-fourths of those who felt that way voted for Reagan.

Your Birthday

November 18, 1980

There is a possibility that you will take on new responsibilities and duties where your work or career is concerned this coming year. Each burden, however, could add additional dollars to your paycheck.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You're likely to be very industrious today, and this is admirable, but you could also attempt to do so many things none will be finished properly. Romance, travel, luck, resources, possible pitfalls and career for the coming months are all discussed in your Astro-Graph which begins with your birthday. Mail $1 for each to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Strive to keep outside pressures from entering your home today. If you let them get the better of you, you may end up disturbing the whole family.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Your memory could be a trifle faulty today, so don't rely too heavily on it. Make notes or lists of things you have to do.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) This is not a good day to assume new financial obligations if you have old debts which need to be taken care of first. Keep your credit A-1.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Take what others promise you today with a grain of salt. Their intentions will be good, but they may not be able to deliver all that they pledge.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Unfortunately, you may start out doing things wrong today and make difficult tasks even harder. Plan that which you wish to accomplish with exceeding care.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Enjoy your day, but mind your p's and q's socially. Shout out your overindulge or behave poorly, it will hurt your image and reputation.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) In competitive situations today your adversary may be a bit more formidable than you think. Don't make the mistake of underestimating him or her.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) It's possible you'll feel your ideas are better than those of your peers today, and perhaps they are. You must still be very careful how you present them.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Be on your guard today where joint ventures are concerned, or things may get a bit out of balance and leave you holding the short end.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Normally you're fond of situations where partners are involved, but today you could fare better operating independently than as a team player.

lame duck session

A new Congress may have been elected Nov. 4, but we aren't quite finished with the old one.

It's back on the job in the special session scheduled when it became apparent some weeks back that the houses were not going to be able to dispose of all their priority business before the election recess.

It is a lame-duck session, that ornament of the American system that permits representatives of the people those same people have repudiated at the polls to continue to conduct the people's business.

As it has turned out with the unexpectedly large Republican gains in Congress, this duck is not merely lame — it's close to being a basket case. The familiar power brokers who have been running things for so long on Capitol Hill are still technically in charge, but won't be after the first of the year. Particularly in the case of the Senate, where the voters have sent an entire new team of Republican committee chairmen.

Some of these are already sounding as if they were in charge. Whether anything at all constructive comes out of this session may well depend upon the extent to which the Democrats they are supplanting are willing to play along.

While there is plenty on the agenda to test the cooperative will, the dominant issue is already apparent — tax legislation.

The new Republican leadership is pushing for enactment of the proposed $39 billion cut hammered out in the Senate Finance Committee before the recess. It differs in a number of respects from the president-elect's preferences, but has his endorsement as legislation he could live with.

There is some sentiment in the Republican ranks, however, for postponing action until next year and the convening of the new Congress. Which may be the result anyway if this session ends up working at cross purposes and stalemates itself. Whatever develops, neither old nor new Congress can afford to botch tax legislation. It is too vital to the long-term health of the economy.

Lame-duck sessions have a bad name because the situation permits defeated legislators to vote irresponsibly, disregarding the interests of constituents they no longer represent. It doesn't have to be that way, however. There is also the possibility that, relieved of conflicting political pressures, retiring but conscientious representatives may feel freer than ever before to act in what they truly perceive to be the public's best interest.

some changes needed

One last word on the subject of elections: It's not too soon to begin thinking about 1984.

Not about potential candidates, although some are undoubtedly already revving up their ambitions. But about the procedures by which we select a president.

The campaign just finished was, by most evaluations, too much. It started too early, ground on too long and, above all, involved too many primaries. That can be changed and various plans for doing so — such as regional primaries or a few fixed primary dates — have been under discussion for some time. It's time to move from discussion to action, possibly through the states working together to harmonize and rationalize their individual procedures or, if necessary, in Congress.

This election also dramatized another problem: The effect upon voting in the West of early returns in the East. Millions of voters in California, the Northwest and Hawaii had not even gone to the polls when the networks informed them that it was all over. It may have made no difference in the presidential race. But, by encouraging many late voters to stay home, it conceivably could have altered the outcomes of local races.

The networks, even in their at times unseemly competitive haste, are not at fault. The instantaneous nature of modern communications is.

A proposed solution would be to stagger polling hours across the nation so that all time zones were voting simultaneously. This would mean late voting in the East and early in the Far West, but it is feasible.

And, to repeat, it is not an election too soon to act.

NEW YORK (AP)—In your opinion, are these recent business decisions well advised?

—Beset by foreign competition, poor sales and enormous losses, the domestic automotive industry has decided it needs higher prices for its new, more fuel-efficient cars.

Though costing more, some of the new cars will be less fuel-efficient than some of the imported vehicles. They are less of a known quality than some of the imports, which now have established reputations.

The price increases come during one of the weakest recent recoveries from recession, when lenders and individuals seem more interested in correcting their finances than in expanding their responsibilities.

Moreover, and to the surprise of Detroit automakers, the International Trade Commission has declined to curb automobile imports from Japan.

Can Detroit make its price increases stick?

—Confronted with what appears to be almost constant inflation, the home-lending industry has concluded it will retire from the business of granting long-term, fixed-rate mortgage loans.

Simplified this is their explanation: We cannot continue to lend money far into the future at what might turn out to be relatively low rates, while spending more than that to obtain the funds to lend.

Almost no one disputes the argument, nor do they blame lenders for switching to the rollover mortgage, a loan written for a 20-year or 25-year period — even more — but with interest charges adjusted for the rate of inflation each year. The procedure protects the lender.

Question: What will protect the borrower? If interest rates rise faster than the borrower's wages, for example, will the borrower be able to continue meeting payments?

If not, and assuming the lender doesn't desire to keep extending the length of the mortgage, what option is available other than to repossess the house, something in which no lender likes to be involved?

—In an effort to overcome the energy shortage, the federal government is actively working toward development of a new industry — ethanol alcohol. Ethanol is a vital ingredient in the mixture called gasahol.

The chief source of ethanol is corn, a crop for which the United States is famous, since it produces and exports more at less cost than any other nation.

Ethanol, though, represents a relatively new demand for corn, and if plans by government and industry plans are carried out it will mean a tremendous new market for the crop. What will happen to prices?

Business Week magazine suggests the possibility it will spark a corn price explosion because demand for corn is already high, because of the export demand and the developing demand for corn as a sweetener.

If the price explosion happens, you can expect the shock to be felt round the world, because that corn for cars, you certainly will recognize, is the very same corn we have customarily used as food.

better at competing than cooperating, a better critic than follower.

He is quick to throw rascals out of office, sometimes less willing to support even good men in office.

Let's take President-elect Reagan at his word and see if we are prepared to put his words into action.

He will name constructionists to the Supreme Court, including a woman justice. His philosophical enemies will mobilize themselves mightily against any conservative on the High Court; the president will need help to get any such appointment confirmed.

As president, Reagan will want to increase our nation's military budget, convinced that we can negotiate equitably only from a position of strength.

There are still organized gimme-gimme factions in our country who will protest loudly that their wants should come first.

Can the president count on you to support him against them?

As president, Reagan will urge relaxation of government regulations which presently stifle the generation of more energy — including nuclear energy.

He will try to do something about the wasteful, self-defeating cross-tossing of school children.

He will oppose mandatory health insurance in favor of voluntary health insurance.

Opponents will try to make him sound callous, insensitive, cruel. Will you side with them — or him.

As president, Reagan will seek to return the jurisdiction of welfare programs to states and local communities. The entrenched Washington bureaucracy and the generation that has suckled at the breast of Big Government will holler like everything.

Will you be shouted down, intimidated by them? If you will, he will.

Or will you give the new administration a chance to try less dependence on government, more self-reliance and self-discipline?

As president, Reagan will be constantly badgered by the noisy Americans.

Unless the new president's good intentions are to abort, quiet Americans may have to become a little less quiet.

The shew-bread was twelve loaves of unleavened bread placed on a table in the sanctuary. They were probably an expression of gratitude to Jehovah and of dependence on him.

Tongues, Tails Wagging Over Doctor's Advice

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Who am I to refute your medical authority concerning whether psoriasis can be cured by dog-licking or not? (He said he wouldn't recommend it because a dog's saliva contains certain chemicals that could do more harm than good.)

All I know is this: Our dog had a nasty cut on his leg, and when I took him to the vet, he refused to bandage it, saying it would prevent the dog from licking the wound. The vet maintained that the dog's saliva contained certain healing properties that could do more for the dog than he could.

BARBARA IN WORCESTER

DEAR BARBARA: I have received a rash of letters attesting to the healing powers of the dog-licking treatment. The mail is running 20 to 1 against me, but I'm not licked yet.

WILL SMYLIE HONORED—A baby shower honoring Will Smylie, infant son of James and Julie Smylie, was given Nov. 13 in the home of Ethel Head. Pictured are Jonell Smylie, the honoree held by his mother, and Ann Hoover from Colorado City.

THANKSGIVING CHEER—Being sick in the hospital is never any fun, but it is especially unpleasant during the holidays. Second grade students of Mrs. Ray Courtney at East Elementary have been working to bring some cheer to local hospital patients by making tray favors in bright, cheerful Thanksgiving colors. Each member of the class has taken some time out to contribute his ideas for the tray favors. The class will turn the favors over to the hospital auxiliary for distribution. Showing some of the finished products are Rachael Pena (left), Alvin Torres, Michael Hammit, Randy Watkins and Dawn Higgins with auxiliary members Mrs. Ben Givens (standing) and Mrs. Billy Null. how well they played the hand."

Oswald: "The bidding in the box shows a three-notrump contract. How often was it reached?"

Alan: "Exactly twice. Somehow or other, the South players in this field were conservative."

Oswald: "I can see what happened. At both tables the ace of hearts took the first trick. One East played a high diamond and took four quick diamond tricks to set the contract. The other East underled his ace-king and South rose with the queen to romp off with eleven tricks and a top score."

Alan: "Not quite, one declarer did make five odd that way. The other three-notrump bidder did even better. East ducked the first heart. South was in with the king and proceeded to run his seven clubs."

Oswald: "So the defenders discarded badly and this South made six?"

Alan: "He was even luckier than that. Both East and West chucked spades. This declarer made all thirteen tricks."

Oswald: "In other words, the two declarers who should have been set made six overtricks between them."

To substitute honey for sugar in a recipe, remember 1 1/2 cups of sugar equals 1 cup of honey, says Rose Tindal Postel, a foods and nutrition specialist.

DEAR ABBY: I have a gentleman friend I've been going with for three years. He is 58 and I am 53.

On his birthday I gave him a friendship ring, which he accepted with much pleasure.

When my birthday rolled around, he completely forgot it. Naturally I was hurt, but reminded him (in a kidding way) toward the end of the day. He quickly bought a birthday card (one of those humorous ones), stuck a $20 bill in the envelope and handed it to me that evening.

The following day, I returned the $20 with a letter telling him it was demeaning to my character to accept money from a man.

He feels that I was wrong in returning the money. He said, "If it had been a diamond bracelet, you wouldn't have returned it."

I said, "A diamond bracelet is a gift, but money, regardless of the amount, is more of a 'payment.'"

Who is correct? Is it proper for a lady to accept a gift of money from a gentleman today? Or does it still carry the same connotation as years ago?

NEW YORK

DEAR NEW YORK: I see nothing improper about a gift of money. Not everyone has the knack of selecting appropriate gifts, so rather than risk spending hard-earned money on some useless doodad that must be exchanged (or worse yet, shelved), cash may seem brash, but it's practical. It's always the right color, the right size, and it fits — into all wallets.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 14-year-old girl, but I am very mature for my age. I have a boyfriend who is 21.

I have to sneak around behind my mother's back to meet him because she found out I lied about his age. I told her he was 17, then she found out he was 21. She told me she didn't want me to go near him again. She says there is only one thing a 21-year-old guy wants from a 14-year-old girl.

I just hate all this lying and sneaking around, but that's the only way I can see this guy. I love my mother, but I love him, too. Please tell me what to do.

ALL TORN UP

DEAR TORN: Take your mother's advice. A man who would encourage a 14-year-old girl to lie and sneak behind her mother's back to see him is bad news.

DEAR ABBY: I would like to get together with STYMIED IN BUFFALO. Her description of the gentleman who sees her only on Wednesday and Saturday nights fits the description perfectly of the man I'm dating. He told me from the start that he could see me any nights of the week except Wednesday and Saturday.

If you're letting your hair grow long, it's best to have it trimmed every six weeks to give it a good shape. For beautiful, glossy, healthy hair, make sure to eat a diet high in proteins, vegetable oils and the B vitamins. Remember, the longer hair is, the older it is and the more it needs regular conditioning to prevent breaking and split ends.

To have your hair look its prettiest, choose a style that takes advantage of its natural tendencies. If your hair grows forward from the crown, try wearing long bangs. Stubborn, wiry hair looks great cropped short because it can hold a crisp line. If your hair is curly, layers will give it flexibility and all-over shape. Accent the smooth line of straight hair with a blunt cut.

Church Members Mourn Victims Of Bus Wreck

LULING, Texas (AP) — Members of an Austin church today mourned the deaths of two church members killed when their bus began slipping across a rain-slicked highway and flipped over just outside this Central Texas town. Thirty-six others in the congregation were injured when the bus began hydroplaning and overturned on a curve of U.S. 183 Sunday morning, authorities said.

"I was almost asleep until the bus started to skid and then I woke up," said Herbert Patridge, 29, who was sitting behind the driver. "The bus just started hydroplaning, ... and flipped on its side when it hit the ditch. I remember a lot, but I'd love to forget." Patridge said he received several cuts and bruises when the bus flipped up and over. "When the bus went over, things kind of went black.

When I came to, I was lying on top of two men." Authorities said the church-owned bus was carrying 39 people from the East Side Church of Christ in Austin to Hillcrest Church of Christ in Corpus Christi for a singing worship service. The bus had traveled about 50 miles on the 200-mile trip when the accident occurred, said Larry Todd, a spokesman for the Texas Department of Public Safety. East Side church members held a special memorial service Sunday night in Austin for the victims, identified as Gireen Jones, 46, and Bessie Grant, 43. "They were both sitting right there in the third row behind the driver," said DPS Trooper Johnny Kuykendoll, glancing at the twisted wreckage. "They were the only ones killed. Why?"

Edward Jones said his wife, Gireen, was sitting just across the aisle from him. "I was just scratched on the leg, not really hurt at all," Jones said. "Everything was happening so fast, I'm not sure what happened. Before anyone knew what was going on, we were going off the road and then we were lying in a ditch. "I'm trying my best to hold up," he said. "With the help of the good Lord, I'll make it." Pat Reaves, head nurse at Davis General Hospital in Luling, said 38 people, including the two women who died, were brought to the hospital. She said four people were admitted for treatment, but none appeared seriously hurt. Seven others were transferred to hospitals in Seguin and Austin, she said. "The bus started swerving

— the road was slick — it did a turn and flipped over," said one passenger, Walter Shaw. "Everybody was trying to get out of the bus, screaming and hollering," said a 14-year-old passenger, Andrea Grant, who said the bus struck a sign before it turned over. Mrs. Grant's husband, Wayman, 42, said he was sitting behind the driver on the aisle side when the accident occurred. "The bus started hydroplaning and turned over on its side," he said. Grant and Patridge shared driving chores with Milton Dean, who was behind the wheel when the accident occurred, Patridge said. "It was raining, kind of drizzling," Patridge said. "It's not as easy to gain control of a bus when it starts hydroplaning as it is a car." Use Snyder Daily News Classified Ads 573-5486

Tigers Get Nipped In Season Opener

ABILENE—Snyder's Tigers burst out to a 10-0 lead here Saturday, but Abilene Cooper eventually got on track to edge the visitors in the opening basketball game of the season, 44-43.

The Cougars rallied to hold the Tigers at 12 first-period points and put up 10 for themselves, and take a 23-21 halftime lead. Snyder regained the advantage going into the fourth quarter, 33-31, but the Cougars eked out the victory in the final seconds of the contest.

Snyder's Kris Seale and Barry Blackmon got into foul trouble, which hurt the Tiger effort, and a series of late-moment miscues, including three turnovers, led to the teams' downfall.

Though Cooper went in front 40-37, Snyder rallied to make it 44-43 with 11 ticks on the clock. Cooper's Greg Dusckas could have put it away for the Cougars at that time from the foul line, but he missed his shot and Snyder rebounded.

The Tigers tried to set up the winning field goal, but Eric Arnold's try with two seconds left was off just a fraction enough to send the ball skittering off the rim.

Arnold paced the Tiger effort with 12 points. Seale and Blackmon added 8 each, as did John Wilson.

Barry McLeod led the Cougars with 14 points. Stephen Brazzel had 13.

Snyder junior varsity also lost, falling 51-49 in triple overtime.

The Tigers, ranked sixth in the state according to a coaches poll, are slated to play in San Angelo against Central at 4:30 (sophomore), 6:15 (JV) and 8 Tuesday.

IRVING (AP)—Not only does Drew Pearson now own the all-time Dallas Cowboys' receiving record, but he's not half bad at prophecy either.

Pearson surpassed Bob Hayes on Dallas' all-time list Sunday in a 31-21 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

He snared one of three touchdown passes off the arm of Danny White, who bounced back with an excellent outing after serving five interceptions in a 38-35 upset loss to the New York Giants a week ago.

"I felt all week that he would come out of this and have one of his best games ever," said Pearson, as the Cowboys ran their record to 8-3, two games behind Philadelphia in the National Conference Eastern Division.

White hurled touchdown passes of 18 yards to Preston Pearson, 58 yards to Tony Hill and a final 14-yarder to Drew Pearson.

Drew's touchdown catch tied Hayes' record for 365 catches and he caught another one to break it.

After the record catch, Pearson said, "My brother (Andre) ran out of the stands. He was one of the first to greet me."

Dallas' 8-3 record puts the Cowboys in excellent wild-card position should they fail to catch the Eagles.

The luckless Cardinals dipped to 3-8.

St. Louis jumped to a 14-0 lead behind Otis Anderson's 51-yard touchdown and Jim Hart's 69-yard scoring pass to Mel Gray, who had to leave the game with a sprained ankle.

White answered that salvo with the first of his scoring passes, but Hart wasn't through. He nailed Pat Tilley with a 60-yard pass for a touchdown.

A 58-yard White to Tony Hill connection cut the score to 21-17 St. Louis at halftime.

It was all Dallas in the second half as White flicked the 14-yarder to Drew Pearson for the score that gave the Cowboys a 24-21 lead.

Tony Dorsett, who rushed for 122 yards, dashed 11 yards for a fourth-period score. It was Dorsett's 17th 100-yard day as a Cowboy, tying Calvin Hill's club record.

St. Louis Coach Jim Hanifan, who sprang a four-man line defense on the Cowboys, said, "You've got to give Dallas credit. They just played better than we did."

Oilers Stop Bears

CHICAGO (AP)—You're trailing by six points, the first half is almost over and you're eight yards from the goal line on fourth down. So you try for a field goal, right?

Not necessarily.

The Houston Oilers had almost everybody in Soldier Field thinking they were going to attempt a 25-yard field goal as the first half of Sunday's game against the Chicago Bears neared the close.

But Houston Coach Bum Phillips called a special play, one that the Oilers last used two seasons ago in a game against New England.

Outplayed in the first half with the Bears leading 6-0 and seconds remaining on the clock, Toni Fritsch lined up for a 25-yard field goal attempt.

Holder Gifford Nielsen then took the snap from center and shoveled a pass to Tim Wilson, who went around right end for the touchdown and a 7-6 halftime lead. Houston went out to win 10-6.

"I felt like it was a perfect situation because they just knew we were going to go for it (the field goal)," Phillips said. "I thought it was an excellent strategic move."

"The Bears wanted to block the field goal so they were loaded on the left side," said Nielsen. "The right side was open a bit, and that's where we went."

Nielsen added that if the Bears hadn't lined up overloaded on one side, the Oilers could have taken a five-yard delay of game penalty and still have been within easy field goal range.

Earl Campbell rushed 31 times for a career-high 206 yards, with all but 68 yards coming in the second half when the Oilers controlled the ball and kept the Bears from scoring.

The win gave the Oilers sole possession of first place in the American Conference Central by improving their National Football League mark to 8-3.

Houston's other score came early in the second half when they took the opening kickoff and moved from their own 30 to the Chicago 12-yard line in the running of Campbell.

Fritsch then booted a 29-yard field goal.

Chicago's scoring came in the first half on field goals of 27 and 22 yards by Bob Thomas as the Bear record dropped to 4-7 in the National Conference Central.

The heralded running duel between Campbell and Chicago's Walter Payton was won by Campbell, who boosted his league-leading total to 1,300. Payton gained 60 yards in 18 carries and now has 959 for the season.

Yes! Another One Bites The Dust!

LUBBOCK-IT'S A title many successful sports teams are picking up on this year, but few can hold claim to it as well as Coach Joyce Elrod's Varsity Felines, who forced two more foes to "Bite The Dust" here Saturday enroute to a second Region 1 volleyball title.

The Felines defeated Cleburne 11-9 and 15-4, and Lubbock Dunbar 15-12 and 15-9 to wrap up the crown and a spot in the upcoming State Volleyball Tournament in Austin.

"There are posters and slogans stuck up all over in the dressing room," said Coach Elrod, before her Tigers left for Saturday's tournament. "It's unreal."

Most of the posters had variations of the now-famous motto "Another One Bites The Dust", taken from a song by a popular music group, Queen.

THE TITLE IS especially fitting for the Snyder girls, who can boast 31 wins against only one loss this season.

Snyder drew Cleburne in the first round here and struggled through the first match before eeking out the 11-9 win. Cleburne held a 4-1 advantage in the second match before the Tigers-Felines rallied to score 14 straight and put them away, 15-4.

The tough game of the day came against home-town Dunbar, which had a definite height advantage over the Felines. The first match was back and forth from the start, the lead changing hands with each sweep of the clock.

DUNBAR LED 2-4, then Snyder 6-5, Dunbar 6-9 and 7-9 before the Tigers began to get hot. At 10-10, Toni Elrod served up three points for a 13-10 Snyder advantage and it was all over.

"Dunbar came back and got 12, but we had command of the game at that point," recalled coach Elrod.

The second match was a near repeat of the first in the early-going, but thunderous spikes by Kathy Northcott, Lisa Cobb and Sherry Mayes began to tell, and when Snyder broke a 9-9 tie, Dunbar had scored its final point.

"ALL OF THE girls, were hitting well," praised Elrod. Mayes had 5 kills in the final game; Northcott had 7, (Sherril) Rich had 4 and Cobb had 7. (Shana) Koonsman had 3. They were all hitting pretty consistently."

Elrod also mentioned the defensive work of the girls, praising in particular Cobb's front-line blocking, and the setting of Toni Elrod, who graded out in the 90's both games.

"I've got to give some special praise to Mayes," said the coach. "She played with an awful lot of heart. She was playing with a stomach virus and early in the morning, we didn't even know if she'd be able to make the trip. I left it entirely up to her whether she thought she could play or not and she got out there and played and did a very commendable job under those conditions.

"GIVE HER A lot of heart and the rest of the team for that matter. They knew she was sick and they came through, too."

The illness probably kept the senior from making the all-region team along with Toni Elrod, Northcott and Cobb. She'll have a chance to shoot for all-state tournament honors and other post-season awards.

"She's too good to be overlooked," allowed the coach, who also praised the girls who did not get to play. "Both matches were won by 14 players, not six. The girls on the bench gave us, the kind of backing and support we had to have. This was a team effort and a team win. And..." she added, "I want to mention (Patty) Grimmitt. In the match with Dunbar she was continually feeding me information about areas not covered by Dunbar, their weak spots and things like that. I couldn't have done it without her. She's been a great help all year and she doesn't get nearly enough credit."

SNYDER LOADS UP for Austin on Thursday. The two-day State Tournament is slated to be held Friday and Saturday, with the first rounds of Class AAAA action to be held at 3:10 or 4:20 in Gregory Gym. Saturday's finals will be held at 3:15.

Tickets are $3 for adults and $2 for students, per session. Further information, including Snyder's exact playing time and opponent, were to be released late this morning.

Scoring serves for Snyder against Cleburne were: Northcott and Elrod, 6; Rich and Koonsman 5; Mayes 4; Cobb 1. Scoring serves for Snyder against Dunbar were: Koonsman and Cobb 6; Mayes and Northcott 5; Rich and Elrod 4.

WORKING HARD—Snyder's Sherril Rich sets up a shot for waiting teammate Sherry Mayes (background) as the Felines work their way to victory against Lubbock Dunbar in the final of the Region 1, Class AAAA Tournament Saturday. ## Dusters Stave Off Possible Upset, 65-61

Coach Joe Cushing's WTC Dusters stopped Weatherford College here Saturday night to sweep a three-game home stand and up their season record to a strong 7-0.

The Dusters, seemingly flat after Thursday's win over highly-touted Henderson County Junior College, struggled with Weatherford before eeking out a 65-61 victory in the final minutes.

Western Texas' girls will be in Cisco tonight for a double-header with the men, which begins at 6, and will compete in the Howard College Tournament this weekend, at Big Spring.

The Dusters took a 30-26 halftime lead here, though Weatherford overtook them with 5:17 left in the game, 52-51. Both teams regained the advantage, as the clock wore down, and with 2:02 left, Michelle Bailey hit on a pair of charity shots to give the visitors a 60-57 lead.

Shari Teal countered for the Dusters to make it 60-59 with 1:45 showing, but Weatherford's Kay Cole hit one freethrow to push her team to a 61-59 lead seconds later.

The timepiece showed 1:13 when Valorie Wells locked the game up at 61-61, and from there, WTC took the victory on in. Karen Washington put WTC in front to stay with a field goal - Linda Holubec pulled down a clutch rebound moments later - the Dusters minute - and Wells dumped in an easy two-pointer with only 11 seconds showing.

Wells' 18 points, nine rebounds, two steals and five dribbled away the final blocked shots paced the Duster effort. Teal had 12 points, 12 rebounds and four blocked shots, while Cindy Maddox notched 10 points and three steals.

Stella Bickley had four assists, three steals and four points, and Holubec added five points, six rebounds, three assists and two blocked shots.

Kermit Wins Region Also

Snyder High School was one of several schools which earned a trip to the state volleyball tournament over the weekend.

The Tigers defeated Cleburne and Lubbock Dunbar to win the trip to the Region 1 Tournament in Lubbock. The State Tournament, for all classes, will be held Friday and Saturday in Gregory Gym in Austin.

Arlington Bowie knocked off El Paso Bel Air to win the Region 1, Class 3A tournament held at McMurry in Abilene Saturday. Bowie slapped San Angelo Central to reach the finals.

In other area action, Kermit swamped Perryton and Colorado City (15-1, 15-7) to win the Region 1, Class 3A title.

Marfa outlasted Jim Ned and Crosbyton to claim the Region 1, Class 2A championship.

A list of game times and first-round opponents for the State Tournament was to be released late this morning.

Tickets will be $3 for adults and $2 for students, per session.

Back To Cisco Now...

Westerners Pound Rams

Western Texas College's Westerners rolled over Angelo State University junior varsity here Saturday night, 115-79, to extend their season record to 5-0.

The Westerners travel to Cisco for a date with Cisco Junior College tonight, trek to Tyler on Tuesday and wind up the week in the three-day Oklahoma City Tournament.

Saturday's game, the first of the season in Scurry County Coliseum, was a fair battle in the early-going, but ended in a mismatch as the Westerners dominated almost every phase of the game - especially early in the second half.

Coach Larry Dunaway's men worked their way to a xx-xx lead and intermission, then raced away with 14 straight points to open the final 20 minutes of play. ASU was unable to score in the final half until 4:35 had already elapsed from the clock.

The Rams came out in a zone, and it was no match for the Westerners, who simply found the open man and bucketed two points time after time. Behind by 20 points, ASU switched back into the man-to-man play they had run earlier in the game, but it, too, failed to bother the quicker, more aggressive Westerners.

A key figure for the Westerners was Ceaser Scott, who pulled-down a bundle of rebounds and sacked 23 points. Donald Warren slid in 20 more, while Keith Denis and Chuck North padded the total with 18 apiece. Darren Lee had 9.

Western Texas increased its lead to 38 points on several occasions mid-way through the final half and until the end of the game.

For the Rams, New Jersey product Jeff Jones scored 21 points and Jay Wilman bucketed 16. Scott Wisniewski added 10.

Local fans who went to the game to see former Snyder High School standouts Kyle Short and Randy Courtney had little to clap about. Though both played well, foul trouble besieged them early, and they spent much of the game sidelined. Courtney scored 8 points for the visitors, while Short notched four - all from the free throw line. Short also came up with several assists and steals in the game. Both were starters for the Rams, and would appear to have good futures with ASU.

Girls Tumble To 'Jackets

ROTAN—Snyder High School started out hot here Saturday but tripped up to Rotan's Yellowjackets and suffered a 64-48 defeat in their season opener.

Brenda Anderson led the Tigers with 12 points and Tracy O'Day and Michelle Townsel had nine rebounds each.

Duran Claims Spying Eyes

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The elder brother of welterweight challenger Sugar Ray Leonard denies allegations of trying to spy on champion Roberto Duran's training camp.

"I'm not trying to agitate anybody, and I'm not spying on anybody," Roger Leonard said in a statement Sunday.

In fact, my brother doesn't even want to hear anything about Duran or what's going on at his training camp."

On Saturday, Duran stopped his training when he saw Roger Leonard, Sugar Ray's older brother, standing among the spectators.

first quarter, but just went downhill from there, fast," said Coach Ken Housden. "We just didn't play ball at all. We had some girls in foul trouble and that sort of thing," he added.

Snyder held an 18-12 lead in the first half, but gave up 20 second-quarter points to go down 32-28 at halftime. Rotan made it 44-36 at the beginning of the fourth quarter, and blew out to the 18-point victory in the final three minutes of the game.

"We had done well in our scrimmages," noted Housden, who guided Snyder to a district title last year. "We'll have to study this one and see what happened."

Snyder managed to hit 64 percent from the charity stripe, but "missed a lot of layups, shots under the basket," said the coach.

Snyder junior varsity girls won, 47-28.

Landslides On Yosemite Park Trails

YOSEMITE NATIONAL PARK, Calif. (AP) — Boulders the size of pickup trucks crashed down on weekend hikers on the hairpin turns of a trail near Yosemite Falls, killing three and injuring seven, park officials said.

The rock slide, onto the 4.8-mile trail about a half-mile below the top of the famed 2,700-foot waterfall, left a "big blank space" on the face of the mountain, said Mary Niles, librarian at Yosemite National Park. Debris was scattered over a 600-yard section of the tortuous trail.

About two dozen hikers were on the trail when the slide rumbled down Sunday, said Linda Abbott, a National Parks Service spokeswoman.

Hiker John Weiss said he and a companion took refuge under an overhang and were protected from "rocks the size of RVs (recreational vehicles)."

"Big trees were broken right in half," said another hiker. "There's no more trail in that area."

Ms. Abbott said the slide stranded eight people at the top of the mountain for several hours. They and the injured were evacuated by helicopter, she said.

The body of one of the dead hikers was removed by nightfall Sunday, and the other two were to be removed today, park officials said.

Names of the victims were being withheld until relatives could be notified. Five of the injured were taken to hospitals in Modesto and Fresno, while two others were treated at Yosemite Hospital and released.

Mike Rover, a security officer for the park's concessionaire, said he heard a "big rumble" and rushed from his Yosemite Valley office.

"I looked over there and saw a boulder rolling down slowly. It seemed about the size of half a house," he said. "There was all kinds of dust. The dust cloud extended from the lower falls to almost the top of the upper falls," a distance of about a half-mile.

Edna DeCaro, who was working in the concession security office, described the rock slides as "awesome."

"To see a tree that stands 80 to 100 feet tall being bent by a huge boulder is really something," she said.

Ms. Abbott said the slide virtually obliterated the trail.

The slide occurred shortly after noon along a series of switchbacks — hairpin turns — on the scenic trail, one of the park's most popular.

A husband and wife were taken by helicopter to St. Agnes Hospital in Fresno, and a hospital spokesman said their conditions were "not critical."

A man underwent surgery for leg fractures at Modesto's Memorial Hospital Sunday night, and he was in stable condition. Two others were being treated at Valley Medical Center in Fresno, where they were listed in stable condition.

The park is located about 200 miles southeast of San Francisco.

thoroughfares and police said roads were "a mess."

Travelers in West Texas were urged to stay off the streets except when absolutely necessary.

It was cold and wet across most of the rest of the state, also creating hazardous driving conditions.

Two members of an Austin church were killed Sunday when a bus loaded with church members hydroplaned on a rain-slick road near Luling and flipped over. Thirty-six others were injured in the accident.

The dead were identified as Gireen Jones, 46, and Bessie Grant, 43.

Early morning temperatures ran from 26 in Amarillo, to 29 in Midland and Lubbock, a chilly, snowy 32 in Abilene. In McAllen, it was a relatively warm 47, and cloudy. Dallas had a 37-degree reading, with light drizzle.

2 Contracts Are Awarded By CRMWD

Two contracts have been awarded by the Colorado River Municipal Water District as part of a program to increase water delivery potential to the western end of the system in 1981.

The bid of Cain Electric Co. of Big Spring for a three-phase transformer was accepted in the amount of $26,127, as was a proposal by Water Industries, Inc., of Hereford for drilling two additional water wells in the Ward County field for $99,080.

The transformers will enable motors to handle larger pump impellers that will add 5,000,000 gallons of water a day to present 30,000,000 pipeline capacity west from Big Spring. There are 36-inch and 27-inch parallel lines from Big Spring through McWhorter station to the Martin County central station. From that point there is a 30-inch line to Midland and 33-inch and 27-inch lines to Odessa, with valve connections to divert water to Midland if needed. The two wells in Ward County will bring that field back up to its 25,000,000 pipeline capacity to Odessa.

Seminar On Shoplifting

A seminar on shoplifting and fraudulent check writing will be held Tuesday at 7 p. m. at Western Texas College.

Organizers for the event said reservations may be made by calling the college at 573-8511, extension 240. The registration fee is $5.

"We'll help them on what to look for, how a shoplifter operates, the different ways checks are passed, and how to cut down on this," said Larry Ball, a deputy sheriff, who will be teaching the portion of the seminar dealing with fraudulent check writing. The shoplifting portion of the seminar will be taught by Lt. Steve Warren of the Snyder Police Department.

5 Mishaps Here

During Weekend

Five minor traffic accidents were investigated during the weekend and one arrest was made.

The arrest netted a 16-year-old juvenile at Fletcher's 66 Station, reports show. Reports indicate the youth swiped the $5 bills from the station's cash register and was captured moments later in a foot pursuit. The incident occurred about 3:45 p. m. Saturday and was worked by Sgt. Clay Scogin and Don Whittenburg.

The first traffic accident was reported about 4:35 p. m. in the 3900 block of Denison. Involved in it were a 1973 Ford driven by Marvin Lee Butler and a 1975 Buick driven by Alisa Marie Wilson. Working it was Richard McCulley. Reports show, however, the wreck occurred the evening of Nov. 14.

The next traffic accident was reported at 5 p. m. Saturday at the intersection of 32nd St. and Ave. K and involved a 1980 Oldsmobile driven by Elida Bernal Pena and a 1962 GMC driven by Morris Wayne Anderson. It was worked by Scogin.

Snyder Lanes was the site of a hit and run reported at 7:50 p. m. Saturday. There, a parked 1973 Chevrolet owned by Robert Daryl Loper was struck by a vehicle which left the scene. It was worked by Whittenburg.

Two police patrol cars were involved in a minor wreck Sunday at 5:25 a. m. at 200 East Highway. Reports show a parked patrol car was struck by a patrol car driven by Sgt. Wade Norris.

The final accident was at 11:15 p. m. Sunday along Farm to Market Road 2763. Worked by Bobby Dean, the accident involved a 1979 Mercury owned by Gregorio Torres Jr. of Sweetwater and another vehicle which left the scene.

ment services for the poor, Reagan replied indirectly that the plan was not designed to "deprive people....We're still talking in the areas of extravagance" to find budget cuts.

Shultz said his panel, which includes three former directors of the federal Office of Management and Budget, did not attempt to produce new economic proposals.

Instead, he said, the panel's report is designed to be "a workable...comprehensive and coordinated strategy" to meet Reagan's tax and spending cut goals, control inflation and balance the budget.

Shultz would not say what the timetable for balancing the federal budget would be. He said he personally believes that it is "doubtful" the budget can be balanced by 1982 but that a balanced budget is "possible" by 1983.

Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

Antacids not his answer

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I think my husband has an ulcer. He complains between meals of burning in the pit of his stomach. He has been taking a lot of bicarbonate. I've told him that is not such a good idea but he won't listen to me. He has watched too many TV commercials and thinks that all he has to do is "plop, plop, fizz, fizz." Will he harm himself? What should he be taking?

DEAR READER — He should be taking himself to a doctor. Antacids for an occasional episode of indigestion are all right, but many of them are useless in even those circumstances. They should never be used on a long-term basis except upon the advice of a physician. Sodium bicarbonate, for instance, is completely absorbed and too much can upset the body chemistry. Most modern antacids are not completely absorbed from the digestive system and won't upset the body's blood chemistry.

It is also a mistake to think that your problem is just a little acidity and you can just take some antacids yourself. Treatment of ulcers is complicated and inadequate treatment can lead to scarring, or complications such as a perforation. As a rule, it helps to know what you are treating before you start.

There are many different antacids on the market and what they contain is listed in The Health Letter number 10-4, Use and Abuse of Antacids, which I am sending you. Others who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

Incidentally, doctors prefer for patients to use a liquid preparation if they need treatment with an antacid. Liquids work better than tablets.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I'm wondering if you have any information on vaginitis. I have been troubled with this ever since I went through the change of life. First I had trouble with my bladder for two-and-a-half years due to lack of hormones and now vaginitis for two years. What is the treatment for this? I'm taking Premarin cream vaginally but I don't like to use it so I only use it when I can't stand it.

DEAR READER — Your reaction amuses me. Your doctor has already given you the proper treatment but you don't like to use it. Inflammation of the vagina is frequent after the menopause. The lack of female hormones causes the tissues to dry out. This in itself can set up itching and irritation.

It also causes the linings to be more susceptible to infection. Vaginal creams that contain estrogen are very helpful in preventing this problem but, of course, for the benefit you do have to use the cream.

Incidentally, the complications that have been observed with the estrogen pills and shots have not been found to occur with vaginal creams. I believe that unless your doctor tells you otherwise that you could use such creams with complete safety and considerable relief.

You're also correct about lack of hormones causing bladder problems. Just as the lining of the vagina may degenerate if there's a lack of female hormones, there are changes in the cells in part of the bladder which predispose the bladder to infections.

September Rains Drop Water Use

The effects of heavy late September rains showed up in October delivery figures for the Colorado River Municipal Water District.

For the month, the district delivered 1,289,471,516 gallons of water, 76 million less than the same month a year ago, or down 5.6 percent. Of this, 60 million was in less municipal demand.

For the year, the district has delivered 14,627,376,732 gallons, 319 million more than for the first three quarters of 1979, or up 2.23 percent.

Deliveries for mining and industrial use slipped to 60,349,516 gallons in October, 19 million less than the same month in 1979, or down 11.45 percent. For the first nine months of this year, these deliveries have aggregated 1,516,370,232 gallons, or 825 million gallons less than for the same period a year ago. In contrast, municipal deliveries for the first nine months reached 13,111,007,300 gallons; up 1,205,000,000 gallons, or 9.57 percent.

In October, Odessa used 459,795,800 gallons, or 14.70 percent less than for October 1979; Big Spring 251,731,000, up 4.38 percent; Snyder 73,719,000 gallons, down 13.5 percent; Stanton 8,307,000 gallons, down 4.18 percent; Midland 345,570,000 gallons, up 7.16 percent.

Missing Infant Found In Auto

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A newborn infant who was snatched from her mother's arms two weeks ago was found in good condition in the front seat of an automobile, police said.

Police said they had filed child-stealing charges against Floretta Kerkulah, a former employee at St. Vincent's Hospital. Authorities said the woman was apprehended Saturday after going to a telephone booth she had used previously to call her husband during the two-week abduction.

Jo Juan Kyle, born Oct. 31, was found in good condition on the front seat of the woman's car. It was not known why the baby was abducted. She was taken from her mother's arms at the hospital on Nov. 1.
