FORT BELKNAP: DID YOU KNOW that on Sunday, Oct. 24, 1858, a very severe sandstorm rolled into Fort Belknap. On one side of the road from Fish Creek to Fort Belknap, the heavy winds blew off a couple of wagon beds and killed several oxen.—BNL.

Memorial Fund For NEGRO BRITT JOHNSON

The Young County Historical Survey Committee with Mrs. J. W. Bullock as chairman, has adopted as one of its projects the belated marking of the grave of Negro Britt Johnson and the erection of a monument to his memory. This intrepid slave assisted in the defense of the Young County frontier and single handedly recovered some of the white captives of the Elm Raid of Civil War days, as well as members of his own family from the wild Indians. Britt and two of his negro companions were later slain east of Newcastle just off the old Butterfield road by the wild Indians.

First to contribute to the subscription fund for this monument was Mr. George Allen of Austin, Texas, on October 19, at the annual meeting of the Fort Belknap Society. Others contributing that day were Messrs. George Terrell, whose father knew Negro Britt; Ted Clark and Kenneth Neighbours. Others wishing to contribute to this worthy cause may send their remittances to Kenneth F. Neighbours, 207 East Church Street, Olney, Texas; Mrs. J. W. Bullock, Newcastle; or to the Britt Johnson Memorial Fund, Farmers National Bank, Newcastle, Texas.

Mrs. Bullock and girls planned a meeting on food and nutrition for Nov. 16 at 9:00.

The meeting adjourned, and refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. John R. Bullock to thirty.

The Hounds scored two touchdowns in the first quarter, and one in the second to hold a half time lead of 21-0.

The Cats came close to scoring in the second quarter when Donnie Hulse broke for two long runs and pass to Jim Brown to the Throckmorton 15 yard line, but the drive died.

The Hounds didn't score in third quarter but the Cats drove to the Hound 23 yard line before they were stopped. The Hounds scored in the fourth twice on an end sweep and an intercepted pass.

Historical committee meets in Fort Worth

Mrs. J. W. Bullock, chairman of the Young County Historical Survey Committee and Mrs. Barbara Ledbetter, secretary, attended the regional meeting of county historical survey committee in the Longhorn Room of the Texas Hotel in Fort Worth on Nov. 3 at 2:30 p. m.

This meeting was sponsored by the Tarrant County Historical Survey Committee and the Texas Historical Survey Committee.

Mrs. Bullock made a report on what this county has been doing to preserve the history of Texas.

Principal activities of the County Historical Survey Committee have been to restore and preserve ancient landmarks, to locate and mark all civil war veterans graves, to obtain old letters, documents, diaries of historical value for archives at Fort Belknap.

Mr. W. R. Beaumier of Lufkin, member of the Texas Historical Survey Committee explained "The Program of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee and Progress in Its Achievement."

This regional meeting is one of eight fall regional meetings held over the State and sponsored by the THSC. The meeting affords the opportunity to exchange ideas, get the latest on the state program, and to answer the individual questions from the counties.

"We urge everyone interested in Texas history to attend the meetings," said Mr. George Hill, executive director. "You do not have to be a member of the Young County Historical Survey Committee to participate."

Burglars hit Newcastle firms

Two Newcastle business firms were hit by burglars Sunday afternoon.

Tate's Gulf Station was entered from the back. They reported nothing missing, but the burglars put out a little labor to tear into a small combination safe. They used a large pick to rip into one side and the bottom, only to find nothing of value.

The other firm entered was the Zero Locker where we understand they obtained some $10 or $12 in cash. The same evening several business houses were entered at Olney, including Daily's Pharmacy where $50 in cash was taken. Richmond's Jewelry was also entered, but did not learn extent of loss. We learned later the Sinclair Station was entered and a small amount of cash taken!

PTA meets November 14

The Newcastle PTA will meet at 2:30 Thursday afternoon, Nov. 14, in the school auditorium.

The topic will be: "The Family—Is Education Our Affair?"

The invocation will be given by Mrs. John R. Bullock, followed by the business meeting. The guest speaker for the afternoon will be Mr. Don McClatchey of Olney. We think we have an interesting program and urge your attendance.

The executive committee will meet in school library at 1:30 p. m.—Mrs. N. D. Graham.

Clarence Daniels, president of the Farmers National Bank, underwent surgery in the Olney hospital Tuesday morning. We understand he is coming along nicely.

Funeral services for Mrs. Emley Henderson, Sunday

Mrs. Emley Elizabeth Henderson, 84, a resident of Newcastle for the past 20 years, passed away in the Hamilton Hospital at Olney, Friday, November 1, 1963, from cancer. She had been ill about four months.

Funeral services were held at the Newcastle Methodist Church Sunday at 2 p. m., with Rev. Edis Sluder of Springtown, former pastor of the Methodist Church here, officiating. He was assisted by Rev. E. C. Hewitt, local pastor, and Rev. R. D. Williams, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Burial was in the Newcastle Cemetery under direction of Lunn Funeral Home of Olney.

Mrs. Henderson was born July 17, 1879, in the Indian Territory, Cherokee Nation, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wetzel. In 1896 she was married to Tol Henderson at Muskogee, Okla. To this union was born two sons, Thomas and Allen. Thomas went to war in WWI and was never heard from again; and Allen died at the age of 11 months.

This good woman lived a life of service to others, and endeared herself into the hearts of many people, by her devotion and love. She was a friend to all who needed her help. A devout christian, loyal wife mother and friend, she was held in high esteem by all. She was a member of the Methodist Church.

She is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Alice McJimsey, Merced, Calif.; Mrs. Lillie Coker, Sapulpa, Okla.; Mrs. Nannie Tullis, Oakley, Calif.; Mrs. George Ann Disney, Claremore, Okla.

WANTED BY THE FBI.

EDWARD HOWARD MAPS

Edward Howard Maps, "bentnik," firearms expert, college graduate, artist and sculptor, who is charged with brutally slaying his wife and four-month-old daughter, is one of the FBI's "Ten Most Wanted Fugitives."

Firemen attempting to extinguish a blaze in Maps' Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania, home on January 21, 1962, found the infant dead of smoke inhalation, and Maps' young wife dying of a fractured skull and cerebral hemorrhage. At least ten fires had been set in the home and the gas oven was turned on.

Maps was missing but allegedly telephoned two neighbors shortly after the crimes were discovered, threatening one with being "next." A Federal warrant charging Maps with unlawful interstate flight to avoid prosecution for murder and arson was issued on January 23, 1962, at Scranton, Pennsylvania.

Generally known as an artist and sculptor, he is a nonconformist who shuns ordinary footwear, going barefoot in the summer and wearing sandals without socks during the winter. A sloppy dresser of unkempt and untidy appearance, he was discharged from the Marine Corps as a schizophrenic.

A white American, born on June 29, 1922, at Passaic, New Jersey, Maps is 5' 8" tall, weighs 170 pounds, has a ruddy complexion, broad shoulders, a barrel-chested build and is unusually strong. His eyes are brown, he has bushy, curly graying-black hair and sometimes wears a full beard and mustache.

Edward Maps armed and extremely dangerous. Please immediately notify the nearest FBI office of any information concerning his whereabouts.

TEXAS MASONS DEDICATE HIGH SCHOOL FACILITY

Under the leadership of the Grand Master, the Masonic Home and School administrative board, John G. Kemmerer, past grand master, Jim W. Weatherby, of Kerrville, second from right, high ranking officials of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Texas meet in Fort Worth to dedicate the new Masonic Home and School High School Building.

Prepared by American Foundation for Animal Health

The alarming thing about the mastitis problem in dairy cattle today is that some farmers seem to be developing a "live with it" attitude toward it.

Mastitis now drains $250 million a year out of the pockets of cattle owners—a staggering sum!

A three-part program, which recognizes the complicated nature of mastitis could do a lot toward reducing these losses.

The program consists of (1) prevention, (2) diagnosis, (3) treatment.

The preventive phase of the program should include a review of housing, milking equipment, sanitation and milking practices at regular intervals. The inspection should be made by a team including a qualified milking machine service man and a veterinarian.

Mastitis now costs herd owners $250 million a year.

The diagnosis part of the program is the "watch dog" which provides methods for detecting mastitis early. The plan might include a screening test of all cows in the milking line once a month. Cows showing trouble should be segregated. A veterinarian can conduct diagnostic tests which will spot the exact organism and enable him to set up proper treatment.

In the treatment phase of the program it is well to recognize that there is no easy "sure shot" remedy for mastitis. Since there are so many organisms which can cause the disease, successful treatment depends on properly determining the treatment for the organism responsible. This is the reason it is wise to leave the decision on how to treat mastitis to a veterinarian. He knows the organisms. He knows what to do. Success in controlling mastitis depends on a vigorous and continuous program, but diligence will pay off in a reduction of the heavy losses this problem now causes.

Show down week in the making

The area football teams are getting to the showdown, and this week is a big one. With the state playoff less than a month away. The remaining games are for all the glory.

In 3A-4 Graham entertains Brownwood at home. Brownwood was a victim of Wichita Falls Raiders tough multiple offense last week. If the Graham Steers get by Brownwood, the showdown comes Nov. 22 when the Raiders play Graham. Graham is undefeated and Raider has lost one, and Brownwood two.

In Class B, Throckmorton has Lockett at home in a game that should decide the 9B championship. St. Jo and Sanger, both undefeated, meet to decide the 10B title.

Class A is a real mess, with Crowell already out of the picture by losing three games. Munday, the co-favorite with Crowell, has already lost one. Archer City and Henrietta are undefeated, but Henrietta must play Crowell before they play Archer City, and Archer City must play Munday. As you can see the picture is not clear yet. But it looks like the big one will be when Archer City meets Henrietta.

In 2A the only team left to stop Hirschi is Quanah. The Indians have lost one but could be in the playoff if they beat Hirschi this week. Jacksboro won its district by beating Nocona last week. With only Bridgeport and Bowie to play, the Tigers are a shoo in.

The Quanah Indians or the Hirschi Huskies should play the Winters Buzzards in bi-district and Jacksboro the Azle Hornets.

Regardless of your pick or favorite—the showdown is here.

Dr. Kenneth Neighbours, history teacher at Midwestern University, informs us that he is in Asheville, N. C. this week to attend the Southern Historical Association meeting. He stated that his great great grandfather lived in that area during the Revolution. We know this will be a very enjoyable trip for Dr. Neighbours.

The first frost of the season arrived November 2nd. Everything was white and the temperature was down to freezing, but vegetation did not suffer too much.
