No. 12

Watch for the Red Marks on your paper.

As a recorder of the countless events crossing the stage of this community, we find it hard at times to be impressed by the monotonous march of the seasons.

But Christmas captures us long before it is here. A study of the coming of Christmas is one of pleasure of which we never tire. Christmas in our community is not just the occurrence of a holiday. It is a gradual quickening of the heart and spirit, the heightening of a happy drama.

We who visit you all year around through these columns may pass the season partially unnoticed in favor of kin and friends seen or heard from only at Christmas. It is but fitting that loved ones gather with you upon the day of Jesus' birth and that those faraway who cannot come receive special remembrance.

We wish to take advantage of the congregation of your friends and family members from other neighborhoods to extend by them through you, a heaping measure of yuletide goodwill to every nook and corner of America.

Our first interest is this community, but it's welfare is interlaced with the good of other communities. This city and county have a just store of the Christian and humane spirit that sustains man thru daily life. They have enough left over for export.

Think how many distant hearts you may fill with a joyous holiday feeling if you give unto your Christmas guests to carry back to their home towns this, our special wish: "Merry Christmas."

Your special attention is called to the holiday greeting ads in this issue of the Register. In each ad you will find a heart warming greeting from your neighbors and friends, which expresses their true sentiments at this season of the year. They have spent good money to send their Christmas Greeting, and we urge that you read each one as a personal message. The Register appreciates the co-operation of the business firms of Newcastle, Graham and Olney, and say thank you. May this be a joyous Christmas for you and yours.

Negro man fatally wounded in shooting affray

Wednesday night between 9:30 and 10 p. m. a negro man, named Eddy Jackson, was shot and killed with a .22 rifle in a house located near the gin.

We understand the shooting occurred after a quarrel between the two men throughout the evening.

Lunn ambulance was called and the victim was pronounced dead on arrival at hospital.

Sheriff John Edwards was called to the scene and it is said he arrested another negro man by the name of Oldham for the shooting and placed him in the county jail to await action of the Grand Jury.

We understand Constable Weems was called in to quieten a disturbance at this place earlier in the evening. Both men were pulling cotton in this vicinity.

Jack is one of our fine young men, and honest in every respect. He thinks he is qualified for the job, and has the ability to dispose of the duties of this important office in a manner that will meet with the approval of all. Jack states he will make a statement to the voters at a later date.

A CHRISTMAS PRAYER

He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.

In his day shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.

The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.

He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the needy.

His name shall endure forever: his name shall be continued as long as the sun: and men shall be blessed in him: all nations shall call him blessed.

And blessed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory:

Amen, and Amen.

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God,

And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. John 1:14

was lost. 19:19

WHAT DID HE DO?

And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures. I Corinthians 15:3-4

HOW CAN WE RECEIVE HIS ETERNAL LIFE?

There continues to be much talk about livestock disease prevention on farms and today's profit squeeze is likely to make farmers think more than ever about this as a means of conserving their profits.

Actually, such a program becomes more and more vital as profit margins get tighter and tighter.

Take cattle, for example. Once a serious disease gets started in a herd of cattle, at least some and maybe all of the owner's profit already has been lost.

A disease prevention program is based on the idea that a smaller amount spent regularly for prevention will eliminate the possibility of a disease outbreak and thereby save the profit for a whole year or maybe longer.

Calf scours is one of the most costly diseases now cutting farmers' profits.

A good example is a program designed to prevent calf scours, one of the most costly of all diseases. Such a program is based on sanitation, nutrition and immunization.

Sanitation means clean quarters for calving. A clean pasture is fine during good weather, but in bad weather clean barns or sheds should be used and the buildings should be dry, well-ventilated and free of drafts.

Nutrition means a well-nourished cow which will pass along adequate nutrition and disease-fighting antibodies to her calf.

Immunization means having a veterinarian administer preventive biologicals to the cow one or two months before calving. This may enable the cow to pass some protection on to her calf through the colostrum. A preventive biological may also be given the calf immediately after birth.

Surprisingly, the cost of this calf scours preventive program is only about one-fifth of the price of a day-old grade calf. That's a small price to pay to insure against the loss of a year's profit.

MEET THE FOLKS

By Jewel Whatley

KEEPING CHRISTMAS
Henry Van Dyke so aptly expresses the meaning of Christmas we are passing it on to you as our Christmas wish.

But there is a thing better than observance of Christmas Day, and that is, Keeping Christmas.

Are you willing to stoop down and consider the needs and desires of little children to remember the weakness and loneliness of people who are growing old;

to stop asking how much your friends love you, and yourself whether you love them enough to bear in mind the things that other people have to bear in their hearts;

to try to understand what those who lived in the same house with really want, without waiting for them to tell you; to trim your lamp so that it will give more light and less smoke, and to carry it ahead of you so that your shadow will fall behind you; to make a grave for your ugly thoughts, and a garden for your kindly feelings, with the gate open—are you willing to do these things even for a day? Then you can keep Christmas.

"Are you willing to believe that love is the strongest thing in the world—stronger than hate, stronger than evil, stronger than death—and that the blessed life which began in Bethlehem 1900 years ago is the image and brightness of Eternal love? Then you can keep Christmas."

"And if you can keep it for a day, why not always?"

May God's richest blessings be with you all this holiday season and throughout the coming year. —Jewel and Joe Whatley.

HD club Christmas Luncheon

Mrs. H. W. Creel and Mrs. R. I. Gilmore were hostesses for the annual Christmas luncheon and Christmas tree Dec. 11.

The table was covered with white linen centered with an arrangement of red and green, with tall candles. A Christmas corsage at each place completed the holiday table arrangement. Mrs. Horace Blanton offered the invocation.

Mrs. Whatley presented a program of Christmas carols with Mrs. Mabel Wells at the piano. Mrs. B. C. Wooldridge read Luke 2 of the birth of Jesus, with such reality, and closed with prayer.

Mrs. Myrtle Holbert and Mrs. Fay Wells distributed the many gifts from the Christmas tree. Many money gifts were sent to the Cemetery Assn.

Mrs. W. P. Burch Sr. was hostess for the Profit HD club Nov. 20 in her home. The house was called to order and a short business session conducted by the president, Mrs. Joe Whatley.

Mrs. Burch introduced Mrs. John R. Bullock, who in turn introduced her 4-H girls, Connie Wilkinson, Gwen Owens, Sheila and Becky Camp. These girls presented a program on Foods for Fitness and Nutrition. We are very fortunate to have women like Mrs. Bullock and Mrs. Burch who give so much time to the 4-H girls club. Mrs. Burch presented each girl with a gift of ceramic which she had made. Mrs. Bullock was also presented with a gift.

The club sent a box of gifts to State Hospital in Wichita Falls.

Refreshments of cookies, party sandwiches, coffee and cocoa was served to eight members four visitors, who were Mms. Camp, Bill Williams, McFayden and Marvia Dent.

Christmas Party

The Friendship Club held its annual Christmas party Tuesday night, Dec. 10 in the Community Center. The food was served buffet style from attractively arranged tables covered with a floral table cloth of Pansettas and Christmas greetings.

Blessings were asked by Roy Coop, Turkey and dressing and all the traditional salads, vegetables, cookies and pies were furnished by each club member.

The turkey and dressing was prepared by Mmes. R. C. Parish and Maud Morgan and was delicious. Cakes were brought by Mmes. Johnnie Hughes, DeLong Bowen, Rogers, Hulse, Ivie and Irene Jordan brought pies. Mom Harrell brought her famous rainbow salad. The other members brought bread, pickles, etc.

Presents were beautifully arranged around a silver tree with colored bulbs and changing lights. Secret pals were revealed in the exchange of gifts. A lovely gift was presented to the outgoing president, Mrs. John Ford.

Those present for this joyous occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Fayette Proffitt, Horace Blanton, Earl Blankenship, John Ford, R. C. Parish, J. J. Hulse, Roy Coop; Mrs. Bowen, DeLong, Harrell, Ivie, Gladys Musgraves, and Miss Irene Jordan. Fannie Routon and Mrs. W. L. Pevehouse were unable to attend. We had one guest, Mrs. Rogers from Seymour. —Reported.
