FORT BELKNAP NEWS OF THE WEEK

It was a busy week at the Fort, with four family reunions. The Stewart reunion, Tankersley family reunion, Welch and Mays family reunion and the Oliver family reunion. A large number of relatives and friends visited all four reunions and enjoyed the wonderful food and meeting relatives and friends.

Out of state visitors registering were from Roswell, N. M.; Casper, Wyo.; Clovis, N. M.; Shreveport, La.; Spokane, Wash.; Portland, Oregon; Eldorado Spring, Mo.; Lawton, Okla.; Oklahoma City; Warwick, R. I.; Walters, Okla.; Altadena, Calif.; Oakland, Calif.; Indio, Calif.; Canton, Ga.; Lexington, N. M.

46 Texas cities and towns were represented.

Mrs. Emma Ward, who is a medical patient in the Olney hospital and has been for weeks, enjoyed the privilege of riding around Tuesday with the assistance of her daughter, Mrs. Claude Burkett. Mrs. Ward visited with her son, R. P. and on over to her home north of Newcastle, where she and her dog had a happy greeting for each other. They rode around over the country and on to Newcastle. She came by the Register office for a visit with us, but we regret that we happened to be "out of pocket" at that time. We always enjoy a visit from this kind and gracious lady. We hope she is soon able to be up and about again. See you next time around.

Attend Church Sunday.

Miss Benita Williams receives school honors

Principal of Neville High School, Monroe, La., has reported that leading the list of honor roll students of 1100 in High School are 15 who made all A's. Among the 15 is Miss Benita Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benoit Williams. Also recently, Benita placed fourth in the National Merit Scholarship test.

Miss Zell Williams, sister of Benita, received the Good Citizen award given a student in Junior High each year by the Kiwanis Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams, known in these parts as Benoit and Joyce, were reared and finished High School in Newcastle. They moved to Monroe, La., about 15 years ago, where Benoit is employed by United Gas Co., and Joyce owns and operates a Sheet Music House.

George Quisenberry called us out to his Jeep the other morning and showed us some Spuds in the floor of his Jeep which we supposed were from Idaho, Maine or some other place. They were large, clean white. George told us they were home grown on his place without fertilizer or anything. George told us he only had a few rows, and when he plowed them up, he couldn't believe his eyes. He told us how many potatoes they picked up—but we have forgotten. It was an enormous amount. It only goes to show what you can raise in this vicinity when you have plenty of rain. There is no way of knowing the limits of our productive and rich soil—unless we had plenty of water. George gave us the potatoes, and when cooked are as good or better as you can raise anywhere.

SOCIAL SECURITY REPRESENTATIVE

A representative of the Social Security Administration will be in Graham at the old library room, east entrance, Memorial Auditorium on Tuesday, June 22, 1965, from 9:30 a. m. until noon. You are invited to meet with the representative to file your claim or to obtain information or assistance concerning social security.

A 1960 Oldsmobile belonging to David Routon of Olney, was badly damaged by fire here Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Routon had parked in front of the city hall, when the motor seemed to backfire and the front end exploded in flames. The fire department extinguished the flame after getting the hood raised. The motor was probably damaged beyond repair in addition to other damages. Mrs. Routon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Herring of this city.

The rural traffic accident summary for this county for the first five months of 1965 shows a total of 51 accidents resulting in two persons killed, 31 persons injured, and an estimated property damage of $31,234.00.

Jean Community Club holds regular meeting

The Jean Community Improvement Club met Thursday evening, June 10, in their regular monthly meeting. According to the county agent, this group has done an outstanding job in many phases of community work, including improvement to the community center. They placed high in district competition in 1963 and again in 1964. They were recognized for these accomplishments by the Graham Chamber of Commerce with engraved plaques, and by the Electric Service Co. of Texas with cash awards and framed certificates.

Hal Hayes, manager, Community Public Service Co. of Olney, presented the 1965 certificate to Blanton Loftin, club president. Hayes expressed his appreciation for having been invited to represent the Electric Utility companies of Texas in the Jean Club presentation.

Other club officers include Hubert Williams, vice-pres., Mrs. Edsel Simmons, secretary, Mrs. Hubert Williams, reporter.

Joe Garrison, division sales manager from Breckenridge was a special guest of the club.

Murray Methodist Church, landmark of that community

The Murray community, 18 miles southwest of Newcastle, has one of the historical churches in Young county. The Murray Methodist Church was built in 1907 and the building was deeded by Street Chandler, and for a period was called "Chandler Chapel."

The church withstood the wind and hail storm that hit Murray in 1964, and the exterior has been completely restored.

The Murray Methodist Church was organized in a log cabin of an unknown settler on the Thomas Price place. Later a group of families restored the cabin for a place to worship in 1876.

There were 16 original charter members of the Methodist church in 1876.

William R. Atwood is serving as superintendent of the school. The beautiful white church is a landmark in Murray.

Persons interested in the church hope to have the building listed among historical structures in Young County, and secure a state historical marker.

To the Newcastle School faculty, senior class of 1965-66, sophomores, Bobcats and the FFA, we will always be grateful for the expression of love shown us in the loss of our loved one. May God go with each one of you.—The family of Danny Casteel.

SPRING TACKLE "TRAINING"
Anglers can take a tip from the pre-season warmups and training now underway in the baseball camps. Seeing that equipment functions perfectly is just as important to a fisherman as good physical condition is to a touted 20-game winner or the team's "big stick."

Getting gear in shape after a winter's layoff is vital to the success of early trips afloat, state the folks at Mercury outdoors. If you don't, you're likely to discover all sorts of problems . . . and all at the wrong time.

While most of us were admonished to prepare our gear last fall, such good advice has a strange habit of falling on closed ears . . . particularly if the gear were flying. So haul out the tackle box NOW, while you have the time.

Thoroughly clean reels, re-lubricating according to the maker's specs . . . but use grease sparingly. Check line for signs of weakness; snip off 10 feet of monofilament, if you haven't already done so. Remove that fly line from the spool and hang in loose coils, if only for a short period.

Lures should be touched up with paint if needed. Hone hooks to needle sharpness. Polish spoons and spinners like fine silver — if they don't take a bright shine, replace them.

Though reels are the most critical elements in tackle, inspect rods carefully. Look for loose wrappings, ferrules and reel seats. Observe carefully the condition of the tip where the line rubs against the guide; any indication of fraying calls for immediate replacement.

Plenty of soap and water, mixed with a generous portion of old-fashioned "elbow grease," will do the job on most other items, say the Mercury folks.

Spring conditioning prevents excuses. Get started now!

Dear Mr. Gaspard:

Try these two frog hides on the red marks. I'll bet the will disappear. Sorry I am so late.

(Sure enough, they did, Mr. Jim. Thanks)

Dear Friend Gaspard.

Thanks,

Mrs. Janie Sostrieh,

Fort Worth, Tex.

(Thanks, Mrs. Sostrieh, we'll try to get this "religious weekly" to you on time.)

Dear Mr. Neal:

Seems like we are always late with our check for your good paper. Sorry. Hope we don't miss a copy, but if we do I know its my fault for being so neglectful.

Sincerely,

Mr & Mrs. Fred Talburt.

1021 Wetmore Ave
Everett, Wash.

(Thanks for the renewal, and if you miss a copy it will be the fault of the postal service.)

Dear Gaspard and Lillian:

Think I saw a couple of red marks on the paper a week or so ago, and therefore am enclosing my check for $3.00. Hope this finds all well in Newcastle. Don't seem to know as many people any more. Looks like more and more "old timers" are fading out. Guess we are all getting as old as "Metheulasm." Know this is misspelled, never could spell as you can remember.

Bud and his wife, Iola, were in Carlsbad last week with Ethel and Harry Understand he is down in his back again and also has a little heart trouble. Have been noticing the homecoming of Exes in the paper. I think now that I may try and come down for a few days and make the reunion, if possible.

Best personal regards,
