Steers Kick Bobcats 20 - 8

Nell's Notes

This beautiful month of October is almost gone. Leaves are crimson and gold, frost is on the pumpkin, and there's such a lovely harvest moon hanging in our sky these nights. A full moon (Oct. 29th) is so pretty at this time of year, it's almost as if you could reach up and touch it.

Halloween is just around the corner. Little ones, with their "Trick or Treat" bags will be scampering about. You may open the door to a tiny ghost or a middle-sized skeleton, could even be a large black cat or a "little old witch", but no matter what your eyes behold, you can be sure it's Halloween. So be well supplied with goodies for these little spooks and goblins.

The sweetest sight to see is a small child empty out their "Trick or Treat" bags, with eyes so wide, with love and amazement and feeling so happy about it all and saying "Oh boy"! wonder who gave me this.

Halloween means hallowed or holy evening because it takes place the day before All Saint's Day. Many superstitions are connected with Halloween, like spirits and ghost. The cat was scared long ago and many people believed that people were turned into cats for their evil deeds.

Speaking of cats - - Has anyone noticed Butch Myer's cat lately? It is wearing its tail the new "short look" style. Since everything (except boys hair) is shorter these days, it decided to join the trend.

See Betty Camp has finally talked Buddy into building that extra room. They are enlarging their home and it's sure looking nice.

The Bobcats go to Chillicothe to de-feather the Eagles and the Kittens meet Olney here in the home field Thursday night.

Let's go out and give these boys our support. If you want to see another good game of football, go to Burkburnett Saturday at 8 p.m. The Kings meet the Sherman-Denison Jets. My brother, Jerry Bishop is a quarterback for the Jets.

Carr Rutherford from Jean paid us a nice visit the other day leaving with us his subscription.

Frank Hart, assistant football coach here in days gone by, visited with Lee Otis Clayborn and others the other day.

Do you ever answer the phone and there's no one there? It happens. If you dial a number and for some reason you can't talk or have a wrong number, please explain and hang up. These people that haven't a thing to do except play with the CAUGHT AT LINE - John Bullock (44) was at the line of scrimmage on this play by an unidentified Rochester Steer in action last Saturday afternoon. Others in the picture are (29) Preston Pitts of the Bobcats and (60) Tommie Casillas and (25) Olson LeFevre of the Steers. The Steers won 20-8.

Newcastle's Bobcats fought from behind in the second half only to see their effort fall short as the Rochester Steers won the Saturday afternoon contest 20-8.

The Bobcats trailed 8 - 0, at the half, but tied up the score early in the third quarter. The Steers bounced right back and scored the next time they had the ball. Late in the fourth quarter, the Cats fumbled setting the stage for the final Rochester score.

Newcastle took the opening kickoff and quickly moved for three first downs to the Steer 40 where the drive was stopped and Newcastle was forced to kick.

The Steers took possession of the 20 and marched all the way for a score early in the second quarter. The drive took 15 plays with Olson LeFevre scoring the touchdown from 16 yards out through right guard. John Hudspeth scored the two point conversion around right end and the Steers led 8-0.

Newcastle kicked to the Steers to start the second half.

Rochester was stopped cold as Hudspeth attempted to kick, but tried a run instead giving the Bobcats the ball on the 20 yard line.

From there Mike Mitchell, picked up three, Preston Pitts got 10, Mitchell picked up three moving down to the seven. From there Kent Creel gained two; John Bullock got three and Mitchell went around right end for the final two yards and the score. Pitts went around right end for the two extra points and the score was tied at 8-8.

The Steers took the kickoff on the 30 and marched the distance in nine plays before Hudspeth turned right end for 15 yards and the score. The extra point was no good as the Steers led 14-8.

Later in the fourth quarter, the Bobcats fumbled on their own 25 yard line and played tough defense before the Steers scored eight plays later. Hudspeth kept for five yards on a fourth down play for the score. Again the extra point was no good and the game ended 20-8.

Bobcats Try Chilicothe Friday Night

Newcastle's Bobcats will travel to Chillicothe Friday night where they will take on the number four ranked Class B team in the state in a district football game set for 7:30.

The Bobcats, now 1-1-1 in district play, will be without the services of Leon Parsons, who suffered a knee injury in Saturday's game at Rochester. Parsons has been in the Olney hospital since Sunday but was released late this week.

Coach Charles Hibbitts said the loss of Parsons was a hard blow since he has been a vital asset to the team all season.

Church Homecoming Deemed A Success

The Newcastle Methodist Church held its 11th annual homecoming on Sunday, Oct. 23. The service was opened by song led by Frank Beard of Rockwell, Dr. S. Wayne Reynolds, guest speaker for the occasion delivered an appropriate and forceful homecoming sermon. Rev. Jerden Davis served as Master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Cecil Larimore was in charge of general arrangements. Floral offerings in memory of departed loved ones were furnished by members of the congregation. At the close of the services the crowd went to Ft. Belknap where a picnic lunch was served. The lunch was followed by visiting and a sing-song with Beard as leader with singers from the entire community joining.

Visitors were registered from the states of Oklahoma and Connecticut, as well as Ft. Worth, Wichita Falls, Dallas, Odessa, Dublin, Seymour, Graham and Olney.

At The Newcastle Register

Former Olney Minister Edits Graham Book

Dr. and Mrs. Cort R. Flint of Anderson, S. Carolina, are in Olney for a few days visit with friends. Dr. Flint is a former pastor of the First Baptist Church and spoke at services Sunday evening.

Dr. Flint has been editing religious books for the past few years and recently edited "The Quotable Billy Graham". He is presently working on a new book which will be published in January.

The thoughts, wisdom humor and advice of one of the most quoted persons in world history - Dr. Billy Graham, who has conducted major evangelistic crusades in almost every state and in more than 60 foreign countries - appear in "The Quotable Billy Graham," with Droke House of Anderson, as the publisher.

The invaluable volume contains more than 1,000 quotations by the nation's foremost evangelist, a native of Charlotte, N. C. It was edited by Dr. Cort R. Flint, former pastor of the First Baptist Church of Anderson, and by the staff of Quote Magazine, the Weekly Digest, which is published in Anderson. Wilton E. Hall, Jr., is the publisher of both the magazine and Droke House.

Dr. Flint observes that although tens of millions of people have heard Dr. Graham preach personally and that his radio and television sermons have attracted hundreds of millions of hearers and viewers, not to mention the sale of millions of copies of his books, "The Quotable Billy Graham," selling at $5.95, is the first volume containing what he said or thought or had written on all subjects.

As a book to aid, to give ideas and understanding, and to bring the reader closer to God, it shows where Dr. Graham stands on all the vital issues confronting Christians, and the quotations are arranged alphabetically for quick reference, in addition to a complete index. The book's jacket design is by Sue G. Hall.

The subjects range from the Bible, the "God Is Dead," movement, and juvenile delinquency to marriage, love and sex, and politics. He also deals with birth control and makes the statement, "I am in favor of birth control to stop the population explosion."

Dr. Flint who first knew Dr. Graham when the religious leader was beginning his career as a young evangelist, includes numerous quotations about sports, such as: "I have read many books on golf, but none of them improves my game. I must get out on the course and play. You may study theology and religion but there comes a time when you must experience Christ for yourself."

On the subject of courtship, Dr. Graham reported: "If couples would put half the effort into marriage that they put into courtship they would be surprised how things will brighten up."

In the group of "Women" quotations, Dr. Graham, who married Ruth McCue Bell in 1943 notes: "Women have tremendous influence on a man. You young women who are thinking about getting married, remember this—physical attraction is part of it, mental affinity is part of it, spiritual oneness is part of it."

Many of the quotations in "The Quotable Billy Graham," are published for the first time and were obtained by Dr. Flint from Dr. Graham, the files of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association and the Billy Graham Room of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville Ky.

"Throughout the years I have participated in as many of Billy Graham's crusades as possible and have had the privilege to call him my friend," Dr. Flint writes.

One feature of "The Quotable Billy Graham" is a chronological history of the Graham crusades, including the one in Los Angeles in 1949 that brought the Carolinian to national prominence. Among others were one in Columbia in 1950, one in Atlanta, Ga., the same year, one at Charlotte in 1952, and one in Greenville last spring which was notable for concentrating on youth.

"In the seventeen years since the first crusade in the canvas lot in Los Angeles, through the Greater London Crusade more than one million persons by actual count have 'come forward' at Billy Graham Crusades to make their decision for Christ." It is chronicled in "The Quotable Billy Graham," which is available at Droke House, 309 South Main Street, Anderson.

To make the book even more complete, it concludes with a biographical sketch of Dr. Graham, who was ordained in the Southern Baptist Church in 1940 ten years before he founded the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association of Minneapolis, Minn. He has written four books and is the author of a syndicated newspaper column, "My Answer," which is carried by 123 newspapers.

Dr. Flint, vice - chairman of the trustees of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, took an instrumental role in raising funds to establish the Billy Graham Chair of Evangelism and the Billy Graham Room in the Boyce Centennial Library at the seminary.

Upon meeting Dr. Graham as a beginning evangelist, Dr. Flint cites, "I realized even then that he had God's hands on him in a very unique way."

Former Olneyite Is Co-Author Of Book

Agnes Thornton Bird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Thornton of Olney, is the co-author of a book released recently by the Citizens' Research Foundation.

The book, entitled "Money as a Campaign Resource: Tennessee Democratic Senatorial Primaries, 1948 - 1964" studies some of the most hotly contested campaigns ever held in a one-party state.

Mrs. Bird and her co-author Dr. William Buchanan, were granted $9,000 in funds from the Ford Foundation for the study. Both Mrs. Bird and Dr. Buchanan were teachers at the University of Tennessee at the time the grant was made.

The studies, of which there are eight, are to be a source of recommendations to Congress for legislation in the area of campaign expenses.

Mrs. Bird was born in Wichita Falls, but came to Olney as a child. She graduated from Olney High School in 1937 and from Texas State Teachers' College in Denton.

She traveled to New York, where she studied at the New York School of Interior Decoration before meeting Frank Bird.

Bird is an attorney in Maryville, Tenn. and during their residence in that state, Mrs. Bird has been an active political figure. She is a member of the Tenn. Democratic Executive Committee at the present.

In their study, Mrs. Bird and Dr. Buchanan found that money, in and of itself, is an important campaign resource, and that personal attractiveness appears to be an effective substitute for it.

Mrs. Bird also said that the study indicates how much a statewide campaign costs in Tennessee and estimated that it takes about $122,000 more than the law allows to finance a campaign for the U. S. Senate.

Some states do not set limits, but do demand accurate accounting of the source of campaign funds. In this way, Mrs. Bird said, the public may learn the supporters of a candidate.

The public is entitled to know where a candidate obtains his financial support, for this indicates the interests to which he is largely devoted, she added.

Mrs. Bird received her Master's Degree in Political Science from the University of Tennessee and is in the final stages of work for her doctorate.

TO THE VOTERS OF YOUNG COUNTY

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for the votes you have given me in past elections and request your support in the November 8th General Election. I hope that I have never given you any reason to regret your support for me. It has always been my desire to make the office of County Judge truly an office of the people of Young County. I have tried to be of service to all of the people of Young County in every way possible.

I hope to see all the voters in the county prior to the November 8th election. However, the duties of the office require that I stay at the office most of the time. If I fail to see you, I hope you will consider this a personal request for your vote in the General Election.

I have at all times tried to conduct the affairs of Young County in a prudent manner being conservative in every way possible. Young County is in excellent financial condition and has no outstanding bonds or warrants and owes nothing except the current monthly bills. Such has been true for the past eight years I have served as your County Judge and we have no plans to alter this condition.

Tax Payers in Young County know that tax values on property are very low in comparison with the actual value of the property assessed. Our tax rate is also low. It has ever been the desire of the Commissioners Court to keep both the assessed value and tax rates as low as possible. I do not believe Young County's business could be operated efficiently at a much lower rate of expense.

I have lived in Young County almost 59 years and I believe I know the needs of the people. I worked hard for the improvement of all the roads and bridges in the county and for the designation of new highways and the improvement of the existing highways. We have expended many thousands of dollars for right-of-ways and have tried to see that every section of the county was served by good roads and highways. To the best of my knowledge no favoritism has ever been shown through this office.

As County Judge I have worked for and received the cooperation of all the officers of the county, as well as, the city and state officers throughout the county. As County Judge I preside over the Commissioners Court, Probate Court and Juvenile Court, as well as the trial of cases in the county criminal and civil Courts. I invite your inspection of the record I have made. I do not contend that no mistakes have been made, however, I believe the record I have made is good and it is on this record I ask your support on November 8th.

If re-elected I shall continue to work for all the people of Young County with prejudice toward none but with fairness to all.

I shall appreciate your support and pledge to devote my time and best effort toward conducting the affairs of Young County in a prudent, sound, business-like manner.

County Farm Number Drops In New Report

A total of 762 farms was counted in Young county during the 1964 Census of Agriculture, the U. S. Department of Commerce's Bureau of the Census reports.

In the last previous Census of Agriculture (1959), the total counted in the county was 772 farms.

The 1964 total is published in a preliminary report on the county just issued. The report also shows that average farm size in the county was 675.7 acres and that the average value of the county's farms (land and buildings) in 1964 was $72,646.

Other important county statistics in the report are:

1. Value of all farm products sold by farms in the county in 1964, $4,854,904; in 1959, $3,787,956.
2. Value of all crops sold by county farms in 1964, $1,820,322; in 1959, $1,062,522.
3. Value of all livestock and livestock products sold by county farms in 1964, $3,023,921; in 1959, $2,725,434.

Information obtained for the first time in an agriculture census included the amount of income received by the county's farmers ($10,661) from recreational services as well as data on the use of pest control chemicals in the county in 1964.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ:

Now is a good time for you to look at your 1966 income tax situation. The good tax folks point out that some wage earners may still owe additional tax, especially those who have income other than their wages.

If you owe additional tax and have not filed an estimated tax return, it is not too late to have your employer take out additional withholding before the end of the year. It is better to look now than to be surprised on April 15.

County 4-H'ers Win State Awards

Young County 4-H Club members have been named winners in three 1966 statewide 4-H award programs and the county electric program has won top honors.

A state 4-H Club office announcement listed Kathryn Ramsey as winner in girl's citizenship; Jack Stuteville, turkey production and Sharon Jo McCarroll, fire prevention. Kathryn will receive a wrist watch from Transcontinental Gas Pipeline Corp., Houston and a certificate of recognition provided from a fund which honors the memory of Tnos. E. Wilson. Her record will be submitted for national judging.

Jack will receive from the Texas Turkey Federation, donor for the junior turkey awards program, a $50 cash award, a beautiful trophy and a trip to the next annual meeting of the Federation for the winner and a chaperon.

Sharon Jo, will receive a $50 bond, a plaque and a trip for herself and a chaperon to the November 14 - 15 annual meeting of the Texas Association of Mutual Fire and Storm Insurance Companies to be held in Temple. Donors for the awards program are the Association and President Paul Schwenke, Germania Farm Mutual Aid Association of Brenham. He provides the bond and trophy for the state winning boy and girl while the Association provides the trips to the state meeting.

For its outstanding electric program, Young County will receive a plaque from Westinghouse Electric Corporation, Pittsburgh, Pa. The Young County program was judged the best in Texas for 1966, the state 4-H office said.

Kathryn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ramsey of Graham; an 8-year 4-H member and a freshman at Texas Woman's University where she will major in library science. Her completed demonstrations have included many in both home economics and agriculture and she has participated three times in state Roundup contests, community improvement, public speaking and dairy demonstration.

Kathryn says she feels that citizenship and leadership are closely related. She has extended her activities in these two fields beyond 4-H in community, school, church and other club affiliations. She has participated in the Attorney General's Youth Conference on Crime and was awarded a trophy as the best county correspondent in Texas. Hre community of Flat Rock named her its outstanding citizen and leader for 1966 and presented her with a trophy.

She holds many awards for her work in citizenship, leadership and all-round achievements in 4-H.

The state turkey winner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Stuteville of Olney. He is a student in Olney High School and has completed six years of 4-H work which has featured livestock both fat and breeding animals with beef, swine and sheep. His animals have won numerous awards in local, district and state shows.

working with his father in a large commercial turkey production enterprise. He kept records on the enterprise which involved the brooding, feeding, managing and marketing of 90,000 turkeys. For his work, his father gave him a flock of his own, and would like to brood 1,000 poult of his own for next year.

Jack says his three years of experience have taught him the value of a strict sanitation program; proper brooding and feeding programs; the value of good and efficient labor and the importance of a good marketing program. "I've learned an awful lot about turkeys during the past three years and we do things differently now to overcome the problems that caused many losses during our first year. I have enjoyed my work with turkeys and expect to keep expanding this part of my 4-H program."

The fire prevention winner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. McCarroll, Bunker Rt. Graham; a student in Graham High School and in 1965 was Texas' top 4-H etomologist, winning a trip to National 4-H Club Congress.

Sharon Jo has excelled in many fields in both agriculture and home economics but fire prevention was one of her earliest projects and she has always maintained a strong interest in trying to help others prevent fires in and around their homes and farms. She has conducted surveys which covered farm and homes in her own communities and has visited fire departments in order to learn more about fire prevention and control.

The highly successful work of the state winners has been supervised by Young County's Extension Service staff with a great deal of assistance from a strong and dedicated group of both adult and junior 4-H leaders.

VIET NAM VETERAN — Kenneth Revell, 19-year-old Marine, is recovering from wounds he received in Viet Nam fighting at the home of the grandmother in Olney. Revell is in a cast from his waist down.

Young Viet Nam GI Recovering From War

Kenneth Revell, a 19-year-old veteran of Viet Nam, is recovering from wounds he received in the war at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Fronie Revell here in Olney.

Revell, a graduate of Weatherford High School, was wounded September 6 while on patrol with the U. S. Marines. A bullet from an automatic rifle hit the young man in the left thigh, ripping out a piece of the leg and bone and lodging bone fragments in his right thigh.

He was taken from the battle scene by helicopter to Danang to the naval hospital there and then flown to the Philippines and subsequently to the hospital in Corpus Christi.

Revell joined the Marines in August 1965 and had been in Viet Nam since the last of March this year. He is a member of Company M, 3rd Battalion, 1st Marine Division.

"I never heard the report from the rifle," Revell said, "I just remember stepping out of a wooded area and the next thing I knew I was on the ground." Others on the patrol told Revell that the shot came from an American M-14 rifle, apparently captured by the Viet Cong.

Revell is in a cast from his waist down to his foot on the left leg and to the knee on his right leg.

He will be honored tonight at a meeting of the Gray - Barr Post of the American Legion. He will return to a military hospital in about two weeks following his 30 days leave.

Revell is the son of Kenneth (Cotton) Revell of Mineral Wells and a former Olney resident.

 system is signed. After the contract is signed the price for each new connection will be $200.00. This action was taken as an inducement for prospective patrons who have delayed signing. Also the tenure of office as proposed for the present board of Directors was adopted.

As stated by Williamson the estimated cost of the proposed water system which extends from five miles north of Newcastle to Eliasville is $724,000.00 to be financed by 50% loan and a 50% federal grant. The cost to be repaid by the sale of water.

This project is the most far reaching of anything ever proposed in Young County and will add tremendously to the value of all property served.

Weekend Guest (Or Pest)

As living quarters shrink, they squeeze out that delightful custom of The Weekend Guest. Yet, many people who have the space haven't the savoir faire; they think it's a real project—when actually a good guest stirs few waves and jumps right into the family swim.

The first duty of the hostess is to see that the guest room is well-appointed with thoughtful extras: light reading material, additional linens and pillows, cigarettes and candy. Not everyone brings bedclothes so provide some—as well as little rattan slippers from the five-and-dime, and new toothbrushes and combs.

Be prepared for personal idiosyncrasies. If a guest must have tepid water with avocado juice, try to accommodate his whim. Be sure, too, to prepare a bedtime snack of fruits, cheese-and-crackers, and a chilled pitcher of Pepsi-Cola; this will keep him from foraging in the kitchen late at night.

Guests, too, have duties; the hostess gift, for one. A candy box or bunch of flowers is a pretty lean offering. But a set of hostess towels—they make such beautiful paper towels now, if you can't afford linens—an unusual den antique, or an assortment of exotic jams is more like it. If breakfast is at 10, a guest must make a showing, even if he's a sleep-till-nooner. And since many a warm friendship has vanished with the sight of rumpled pyjamas, a guest should always be dressed although the hostess may appear in an attractive morning coat.

You never really know anyone till you've "lived" with them and some guests can be pests. In that case, as the saying goes, they will have been invited twice—once and never again!
