WEINERT RIPS GOREE 44-18 FOR DISTRICT 3-B CROWN

Weinert's hard-hitting ground game, led by J. W. Swanner who ripped off five touchdowns rolled to a convincing district win over the Goree Wildcats 44-18 Thursday night at Goree.

The game iced up the six-man district 3-B and was also Weinert's 20th game without defeat. Weinert by outclassing a game and fighting crew of Wildcats before the largest crowd to squeeze in Goree's stadium, earned a play-off berth opposite the District 4 Six-Man winner. Well over 1,000 persons witnessed the championship game.

Weinert still has one game to play, but the outcome is immaterial to the championship of District 3-B Six-Man. Goree faces two opponents before closing the season.

The Bulldogs by routing a once-beaten crew of Goree Wildcats won the loop title for their second straight year. Their only blemish in the last two years was a tie with Jayton in Bi-district playoffs.

Swanner's five TD runs total 137 yards, the longest a 50-yard jaunt after he had picked off a Goree fumble in mid-air in the third quarter by Stach Mathis after he was hit by a bruising tackle by Elmer Adams, who played a great game on defense for Weinert.

along with Bob Raynes, Chesley Forehand, and David Earles.

The two plays that broke the game open after 14-9 first quarter, were a 45-yard run by Swanner and a 15-yard scoring pass that went from Swanner to the end David Boykin to Jerry Walker in the end zone.

Swanner opened scoring with a seven yard payoff blast on the first series of Weinert plays. Swanner also scored on a 20-yard junket in the first quarter with Bob Raynes kicking the extra points.

Goree scored in the first period as Waymon Edwards, who was responsible for two of the Goree markers, took off on a 26 yard TD run.

Stacy Mathis capped another Wildcat march in the second with a half-time score of 20-12.

In the fourth quarter Swanner ran 20 yards with Raynes' lead, providing a 44-12 edge and Edwards ended Goree scoring with a five yard scamper.

Weinert will play host to the Paint Creek Pirates at Weinert this Thursday night for the last game of the district play for both with Weinert meeting their Bi-district at an undecided place next week.

Good Sportsmanship Important (An Editorial)

Friday evening will mark the close of the scheduled high school football season in Haskell, a season which has been a singularly successful one in many important respects, regardless of the outcome of the final contest Friday.

The entire HHS Indian football squad, from team manager to head coach, has earned unstinted admiration not only of their own loyal supporters, but officials and partisan fans as well, for the clean, wholesome sportsmanship displayed in every game they have played.

At times, at a crucial point in an important game, the enthusiasm of fans tends to get the upper hand to the extent that we sometimes overlook rules of good sportsmanship.

Lake-Plant Road Approved

Announcement by the Texas Highway Commission from Austin last week that a hard-surfaced road to the West Texas Utilities Paint Creek Power plant and Lake Stamford would be included in the 1959-60 road building program comes as welcome news to Haskell and the people of this section.

Need for the road has been apparent since building of the lake and power plant, while additions at the power plant and increased traffic to Scott Memorial Park on the lake has emphasized need for the road.

Completion of the road will be of immeasurable benefit to between 20 and 25 employees at the WTU plant who make a daily trip from Haskell.

The new road will also enhance the recreational facilities at Scott Memorial Park and increase the year-round travel of fishermen and tourists to the lake area.

Securing the road has been the No. 1 project of the Chamber of Commerce and Haskell Jaycees, who have been joined by other civic leaders in promoting the program.

Battle of the Budget

As Texas' "Battle of the Budget" roars on toward its 1959 climax, almost every week brings a new statement on the probable size of the state deficit. Usually worse than the last one.

State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert and Legislative Budget Director Vernon A. McGee combined to present a frankly pessimistic picture for the Texas Research League meeting in Austin recently.

McGee said the general revenue fund will need $279 million during the next two years to keep things going as they are. Calvert estimated that the present tax structure would put $125 million into general revenue during this period.

This leaves a gap of $154 million between estimated income and outgo. In addition, Calvert estimated the general revenue fund will be $55,600,000 in arrears by the end of the present fiscal year in August, 1959.

The meaning of all this is perfectly clear. Taxpayers will have to dig deeper in meeting an increased tax bill that is certain to result.

The Biggest Thing of All

There is plenty of serious news to hold the attention of the American people—the integration problems, the troubles in the Middle and Far East, to mention a few. But the biggest thing of all in the minds of most people, according to a recent poll, is the cost of living.

And with good reason! We face a $12 billion-plus Federal deficit. The wage-price spiral is starting another climb. The dollar, measured in purchasing power, gets smaller and smaller. So, to millions, plain bread-and-butter is the gravest problem.

PEOPLE, PLACES AND THINGS

By A. PATE

Clarence Burson was sorely tempted and came very near "jumping the gun" in opening the deer shooting season on a recent hunting trip to Colorado.

After Clarence and his wife had arrived at their camp, he took his rifle and sauntered off to look the country over. Stopping to rest about 30 minutes later, he heard a slight noise glanced around and saw "one of the biggest bucks I've ever seen." Grabbing his rifle, he aimed, pulled the trigger—but he'd forgotten to load the firing chamber, and the big deer raced away.

Chagrined, he was tramping back to camp when a thought hit him like a bolt of lightning. The season wouldn't open until the next day! To cap it off, he jumped another easy shot before reaching camp, but this time he held his fire, willingly.

Haskell, although a small place as cities go, is still pretty widely known, principally because of some of its outstanding citizens, former All-American John Kimbrough among others.

Witt Springer, relief pharmacist at Oates Drug Store, native Haskellite who left here about 50 years ago tells an incident which occurred back in 1940 when he owned a drug store in New Mexico. A 14-year-old boy worked in the store after school, sweeping out and doing other chores. One day the lad asked, "Mr. Springer, were you born in this town?" Thinking he'd let the boy do some guessing, he replied, "No, sonny, I was born in a town where a lot of famous men are from. Jarrin' John Kimbrough, for one."

Quick as a flash, the lad replied, "Oh, I know then. You were born in Haskell, Texas."

We are fortunate in having fairly dependable insurance against rats and mice in the form of a household pet, a big tomcat whose color tagged him with the name of "Old Yaller."

Because he grew up, you might say in the country—or on the outskirts of town—Old Yaller learned the hard way about protecting himself against dogs, and also a general knowledge of other pesky wildlife, including snakes, gophers, hawks and ravens.

When he was moved to town a few months ago, Old Yaller probably reasoned, if cats have that ability, that he wouldn't be bothered by some of his pesky country enemies.

Evidently, it didn't turn out that way. The other morning, Old Yaller was sitting at his accustomed place in the back yard where he ordinarily stretches his night's kill of rats. Instead of rats, however, he was contentedly snoring over the remains of a raven. A few scattered feathers and signs on the ground nearby indicated where the battle must have taken place. Evidence showed it must have been quite a contest.

Old Yaller, as usual, was close-mouthed about the incident. We figure the unfortunate raven must have landed in the early dawn to snatch some of the scraps left in the yard for the cat.

Speaking of ravens, we've learned that the sleek, black scyriders are notorious peccan thieves. Some of our neighbors,

Virgil Hudson and Clarence Norton, in particular, have a number of huge pecan trees. Each year about this time the ravens snatch a part of the yield from the trees, carrying off a great many of the edible nuts over a period of several weeks.

Persons who have pecan trees around their homes are due to harvest a record yield this year. The trees, where given any care at all, are literally loaded down with nuts.

Clarence Norton has one tree so heavily loaded that he's had to prop up some of the limbs. Even at that one large limb split partly away from the trunk as a result of the heavy load of pecans.

Haskell people have become fairly well accustomed to those explosive-like "sonic booms" caused, we are told, when a jet plane breaks the sound barrier.

But one heard here about 5:15 last Friday was the "granddaddy" of them all, in our opinion and that of others we talked to. Sounding like a tremendous thunder-clap, the big boom rattled doors, shook furniture, and left plate glass show windows vibrating.

Furthermore, the nerve-shattering noise almost resulted in a serious accident on an oil well clean-out machine northwest of town, according to a friend of ours.

A workman on the mast of the machine, some 20-odd feet above the ground, was preparing to close the clamps on a length of casing. The tremendous "boom" came just as he reached for the clamp, causing him to lose his balance. Fortunately, he was able to grab hold of the clamp with one hand, and swung on until he could be lowered to the ground.

"I thought lightning had hit the rig," he said shakily, after reaching safety on the ground. The larger than usual number of Mexican nationals, or braceros brought to this section for the cotton harvest, has created an unusual demand for used bicycles and second-hand sewing machines. Seems that every bracero now that he's worked a few weeks and accumulated wealth, wants either a bicycle or sewing machine.

And many of the younger braceros are eager to buy "pistoles" but officers have let firearms know that the sale of firearms, especially revolvers, is frowned upon.

The braceros and their bicycles reminded Oscar Oates that during his boyhood many bicycles for a Fair in Dallas twirling at all times. He had other two, however. He made it with their bikes. But ed by rail, bicycles as baggage.

He recalls the time, around 1908 or thereabouts, when three Haskell men set out on their

Light Supplies Bring Firmer Cattle Prices

BY TED GOULDY

Fort Worth—Movement of all classes of livestock around the major marketing circle was light on the opening session this week and generally firm prices resulted. At Fort Worth there was a reduction in salable cattle and calves and a small increase in sheep. Swine numbers followed the national pattern.

Cattle and calves ruled mostly steady at Fort Worth Monday. Fat cows were again rather slow and bulls were steady to weak, but price changes were so narrow that the tone of the trade was about the only concrete evidence of any change. Stockers were active at firm prices with numerous farmer and rancher buyers in the alleys setting a fast pace. Packer calves and fed cattle moved at firm rates.

Good to choice yearlings and heifers sold from $24 to $27 and some good grade steers sold from $25 downward. Common to medium steers and yearlings cashed at $17 to $23. Fat cows drew $18 to $20 and canners and cutters sold from $12 to $18. Bulls returned $18 to $23.

Good and choice slaughter calves bulked at $24 to $26.50, a few odd head to $27. Medium and plain butchers sold from $18 to $23 and cull sorts sold from $15 to $18. Stocker steer calves of good and choice grades cashed at $27 to $33, some Angus calves weighing 455 pounds at $33 and numerous sales of steer calves were reported from $30 to $31.50. Heifer calves sold mainly from $28 downward. Stocker steer yearlings ranged from $22 to $27 and a few stocker cows cashed at $18 to $20, and were medium or plain kinds.

Hogs were unevenly 26 to 75 cents higher at Fort Worth

Monday, mostly 50 cents higher. Sows were steady to 25 cents higher. Choice hogs ranged from $19 to $19.50 in most sales, with medium and good butchers from $17.50 to $18.50. Some heavies scaling over 280 pounds sold at the top of $19.50 and reflected the full advance. Sows were reported from $17 to $17.75.

September Bond Sales In County Total $46,438

During the month of September citizens of Haskell County purchased $46,438 in Series E and H Savings Bonds.

This announcement was made by J. M. Crawford, chairman of the county's Savings Bonds Committee.

"Sales for the first nine months of this year totaled $226,474," Chairman Crawford reported. "We have now achieved 72.1 per cent of our 1958 goal of $114,000."

Sales in Texas during the first nine months of 1958 were $132,257,457 which represents 75.6 per cent of the 1948 goal of $175,000,000.

"Under a recent change in Treasury regulations, individuals who hold F and G Bonds that mature after Sept. 1, 1958, may invest the proceeds from the maturing bonds in E and H Bonds without regard to annual purchase limits," Crawford announced. "This information should be of interest to hundreds of people in this area who hold maturing F and G Bonds," Crawford concluded.

TV Series Filmed On Bandera Ranch Of Gene Dunlaps

The following article concerning Mr. and Mrs. Gene Dunlap, former Haskell residents, is from a recent issue of the Bandera Bulletin:

"The beautiful Santa Maria Ranch located on the new Hondo Road in the East Verde community and owned by Mr. and Mrs. Gene Dunlap, has been the scene for the shooting of a new television series by the Big 4 Television Company of San Antonio. The group was out in force last Sunday where the filming of "Silent Smith," a new series, was being made. "Silent Smith," a real character back in Kansas, will be portrayed by John Herring. Production is under the direction of Jack Vance of Hollywood and San Antonio; cameraman is Mack Reynolds of San Antonio; and Jay Arnold of San Antonio is in charge of advertising.

"Mr. and Mrs. Dunlap and their three children came to Bandera from Haskell about a year and one-half ago to make their home on the Santa Maria Ranch and have become well known here. The ranch is one of the most beautiful spreads in the county. It is composed of 600 acres, with tall mountains and deep valleys. Located on the new Hondo road, it is easily accessible and is a picturesque and ideal place to make movies and television scenes."

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kregger of Black Springs, Ark., spent last week here visiting in the home of their parents, Mrs. May Larned and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Kregger and other relatives. They went from Haskell to Arlington where they will visit a daughter, Mrs. Johnnie Burnam, before returning to Arkansas.

Church Now Out Of Debt

The Hopewell Baptist Church's 38th Anniversary which was November 2, was very successful. Rev. L. T. Jackson of Tyler, Texas delivered the anniversary sermon. He is also the brother of Pastor Odie Jackson. Most of the members paid their pledge of $10.00.

We take this method of saying "Thanks" to Pastor Rexrode and members of the First Baptist Church of this city for aiding us in our services. With your help it enabled us to pay off the indebtedness of our church. We have planned to complete our church as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made.—Pastor Odie Jackson. 45p

Study Reveals No Decline In Number Of Children Being Infected With TB

The fact that there is no drop in the rate at which young school children are being infected with tuberculosis germs despite a sharp drop in the TB death rate, has been revealed in a recent study made in Kansas City, Mo.

stated. "We hope some day that those Christmas Seals can make possible research which will point to a way to keep any child from being infected with tuberculosis.

"Also, Christmas Seals made it possible for skin tests to be given school children in Haskell County, as well as providing X-rays for some of the children," Mrs. Hicks added.

AN APPRECIATION

We would like to take this method to express our heartfelt thanks to each of you, for each and every thing you did for us while we were in the hospital. We do appreciate everything that was done for us from the depths of our hearts. We want to especially thank Mr. Ray Perry for his interest and kindness in coming to the hospital on that Monday night and giving the blood. And too, we want to thank others for this same offer. We want to say "thanks" to all the doctors and to all the nurses, well, just the entire hospital staff for all the nice things they did for us in their gracious way. Naturally, we were glad and felt grateful that we were able to be leaving the hospital last Friday morning, but through all this kindness and lovely friendship for us the parting was very touching. It seemed we could not have gone through all of this had it not been for our precious loved ones and sweet friends that stood by us so faithfully. Also we want to say thank you for every prayer that went up for us, for we felt there were many and we appreciate this sincerely. Thank you for the beautiful flowers and for each lovely card. We appreciate every word of sympathy, for we knew they came from a heart of love. Each visit you made at the hospital, whether or not you came into our room, we appreciated that too. There were no little deeds of kindness, they were all big ones. We are at home now and would love a visit from you. We thank God for friends like you and again.—The Daniels Family. 45p

Mrs. M. H. Hicks of Rochester, president of the Haskell County Tuberculosis Association, announced findings of the study, financed by Christmas Seal funds, to local association members this week. Kindergarten children were given tuberculin tests. This showed presence of tuberculosis germs within some of their bodies. Adults with whom these children had been in contact were also tested. Active tuberculosis among these adults was found at a rate 12 times as high as is found in X-ray surveys of the general population. The study revealed that there is a connection between the severity of a child's reaction to the tuberculin test and the closeness of his association with persons with active tuberculosis.

Sponsored by the Heart of America Tuberculosis Association and the U. S. Public Health Service, study results are reported in the November issue of the American Review of Tuberculosis and Pulmonary Diseases.

"During the period of the study, from 1947 to 1957, 35,995 kindergarten children were given the tuberculin test," Mrs. Hicks commented. "The youngest of school children were selected for the test so that any infection could be found early, and because they had come in contact with fewer people and therefore it would be easier to trace all contacts," she added.

"Despite the falling death rate from tuberculosis in this area—from 31.3 deaths per 100,000 people in 1947 to 11.7 in 1957—the percentage of children infected with the TB germ was the same in 1957 as in 1947. And the percentage of children who became infected during their first year in school showed no decline during the survey."

"Christmas Seals sold in this county last year helped with that research," Mrs. Hicks the winter months after the food reserve in the roots have been restored and the seed crop has matured and fallen to the ground. Good grass forage on the ground for winter use is the feed reserve needed for cutting overhead ranching costs. Too, points out Ragsdale, deferred grazing is one of the practices eligible for ACP payments in certain areas of Texas. Details on the practice may be obtained from local county agents or county ASC offices.

People who like to be waited on are the hardest ones to be cured of their ailments.

Unless a man is doing all he can he is doing less than he should.

A straight tip on a sure thing usually demonstrates the uncertainties of life.

While some men battle their way to the top others bottle their way to the bottom.

Failure demonstrates the fact that there is also plenty of room at the bottom.

Most people pay too much for the things they get for nothing.

Tech Exhibit Hall Traces History Of Earth Through One Billion Years

A "Hall of Earth and Man" tracing the earth's history from creation until a 15th century "dust bowl" drove the first farmers from the Outh Plains, is open in the West Texas Museum on the Texas Tech campus at Lubbock.

The story is told and illustrated in terms a seventh grader can understand. Four years were required in planning and developing the permanent hall. Exhibits trace the history of the earth through more than one billion years of geologic time. They tell the story of man and his accumulation of culture, showing how he gradually improved his mastery over conditions around him until he invented agriculture.

They show how nature wrote its own history of the world, and how man has learned to read that history and lay it out in a museum hall for all to see.

These exhibits will be seen by an estimated 150,000 persons who will visit the hall annually. Dr. William C. Holden, museum director, headed a research team which drew on years of study and all that man has learned about his world through the millenniums to prepare the new exhibit. The result is a gallery which cost only $18,000. It normally would have cost $70,000 if many authorities had not donated their services.

Included in the exhibits is the "progression of life" mural done by nationally known sculptor Paul Wright of New Mexico. His mural frieze stretches for 156 feet above the exhibit cases depicting 135 different forms of life of the seas and lands.

The mural itself starts the progression of life with the seaweeds, corals, sponges, star fish and other life of the sea which covered the world from pre-Cambrian into early Mississippian times and ends with Lubbock's "first family" which hunted bison here at least 10,000 years ago.

It shows the great periods of dinosaurs and how life became more abundant as the earth moved toward modern times, concluding with a scene of an elephant, a bison and a man, woman and child beside early forms of wheat and corn.

A man who knows his own imperfections is just about as perfect as it is possible for anyone to be.

Haskell County's first court house was a two-story frame building, erected in the summer of 1885.
