Members of Lions Club See Film On Wyoming

An interesting and colorful film, "Wyoming Adventure" provided the program at the weekly meeting and luncheon of the Lions Club Tuesday at noon in the dining room of the Texas Cafe.

The film was brought by Lion Robt. R. King, program chair-man. Beginning with the capitol building, numerous scenic points in Wyoming were shown, togeth-er with scenes showing buffalo herds, antelopes, along with views of lakes and mountains, and a tour through Yellowstone Park. In Building Road To Stamford Park

Stamford Chamber of Commerce was pledged full cooperation in getting a road built to the nev state park on the south side of Lake Stamford, when they met with the Haskell County Commissioners' Court on Jan. 29.

The Stamford committee asked Haskell County to help in getting a road built from the southeast corner of the existing Paint Creek farm-to-market road, across the bridge over Paint Creek and on into the Stamford park.

It was proposed that the road turn east shortly after it crossed the bridge, rather than to follow the water pipe line because the distance would be shorter. Approximate distance of the shortest route would be three and one-half

An effort will be made to get right of way for the road donated since the road would greatly enhance the value of the surrounding land. Several miles of fence would have to be built and method of financing this is yet to be worked out.

As soon as details are completed, the state will be asked to construct the new road and designate Glacier National Park where he it a farm to market road. A delegation from Stamford will go to Austin for this purpose.

In the group from Stamford meeting with the Commissionrs Court were Warren Tayman, W. G. Swenson, Hollis Haynes, W. T. Stovall and Lee Walker, manager of the Stamford C. of C.

Hope Revived for Park-Plant Road

Action of the Commissioners Court in pledging full cooperation with the Stamford Chamber of Commerce in building a new road to the Stamford State Park, revives hope that the Court might be induced to extend the same cooperation on the long-pending project for an improved all-weather road to Scott Memorial Park and the Paint Creek County officials are to be commended for their cooperation on the Stamford project, which is needed primarily to make the newlydesignated Stamford State Park more accessible to people of this area. Sponsors believe that after right-of-way has been secured for the new section of roadway and fences have been moved back to widen present roads involved, that the State Highway Department will build the road. Method of financing the local phase is to be worked out, and no estimate is available concerning Haskell County's share of the cost.

Any method found practicable for the Stamford project should be equally applicable to the Scott Park-WTU Plant highway. An added advantage is the fact that very little, if any, new right-of-way would be involved in the local project.

Importance from a traffic standpoint is much greater, since the Scott Park-WTU Plant road would serve permanent heavy daily traffic to the WTU Plant in addition to the hundreds of visitors to Scott Memorial Park, as well as a large farming and ranching area in southeast Haskell County

Financing and building of the sorely-needed road presents no obstacle which cannot be overcome by whole-hearted cooperation of local business men working with the Commissioners Court.

New Industry for Haskell County?

The goal or many towns and cities throughout this section, including Haskell, is to attract new business and industries which in turn would mean more payrolls and more money in local trade channels.

While every effort possible should be made to secure additional industrial and business establishments for Haskell and this section, we should at the same time explore every possibility for expanding the business potentials already existing here.

For example, the development of a more diversified farm program which would include poultry and turkey raising, swine production and dairying could easily result in increasing farm income in a sum equivalent to a sizeable industry.

Improved farm practices to increase yields, and the use of the best seed available to assure the highest quality farm product Hinson, who has been spending possible, whether cotton or grain sorghum, could add more than one the week with the Montgomerys million dollars to the income of Haskell County farmers on an average

Many more opportunities exist for expanding our basic industries of agriculture and livestock raising which would add substantially to the county's income.

Also, from the retailer's or average business man's viewpoin the opportunities of increased business volume are just as great. By this, it is meant that if every dollar spent for merchandise by Haskell County families was spent with local merchants in Haskell, Rule, Rochester and Weinert, their volume of business would be increased approximately 50 per cent.

The development of a diversified farm program, along with improved quality of farm products, coupled with modern, attractive, well-stocked stores and alert merchandising policies constitutes one "industry" which is ours if we want it.

A Worthy Good Turn

The Boy Scouts of America observes its 48th anniversary during Boy Scout Week, February 7 to 13, by launching a yearlong nationwide Good Turn. The Safety Good Turn, undertaken at the in the City Hall Saturday aftersuggesetion of President Dwight D. Eisenhower, will find 4,700,000 boys and leaders engaged in promoting traffic safety, outdoor safety

We are accustomed to great achievements from our Boy Scouts. Their outstanding work in the 1952 and 1956 Get-Out-the-Vote campaigns, their Conservation Good Turn in 1954, their collection of nearly two million items of clothing, foodstuffs, and supplies for the needy in 1934, and other activities in behalf of their fellow Americans have given us approximately twenty million past and present Boy Scouts who have learned the real meaning of service.

Calling the Safety Good Turn "an opportunity for service to your country in the highest tradition of the Boy Scouts of America," President Eisenhower said. "We must seek new ways to save the basic resources of our Nation: its people.

He told the Boy Scouts that he was encouraged by the splendid results of their Conservation Good Turn. People, Places, and Things

Now that we are assured at least six more weeks of winter as a result of the bright sunshine which greeted the Ground Hog Sunday, there'll be no necessity of rushing the matter of getting fishing gear in readiness for the spring months. We're assuming of course, that you share our confidence in Mr. Ground Hog's weather forecasting ability. We had our doubts about this Ground Hog tradition, and was pretty hard-headed about it, too, until we learned by experience about 22 years ago. Sharing our hard-headed skepticism-and experience-were "Dobber" Dodson. Sr., and Giles Kemp, who was Sheriff at the time.

A spell of spring-like weather in mid-February meant only one thing-a fishing trip to Wolf Creek Ranch on the Clear Fork. Everything was fine until about o'clock that night when an oldtime blue blizzard hit, so cold that a bucket of water would freeze carrying it the short distance from the river to camp. Getting colder every minute, three half-frozen and unhappy fishermen bundled up together in Awakening, warm and morning comortable, they found the reason in three inches of snow which erra Blanco, Texas, are visiting had covered them, tarp and all relatives here this week. Judge Jas. P. Kinnard of this off ice to free their canvas boat ity and Judge Chastain of Abilene which had been left in the water, declared "If I ever come fishing with you guys in ousiness trip to Routon City. > A few weeks more before Spring, on the other hand, will allow those who are a little more realistic than fishermen, added time to prepare their storm cellars for the tornado season which generally sweeps in sometime in March.

We note that one of these convenient shelters is a new addition being made at Kennedy Tourist Court just south of the square Chances are that the tornado shelter will seldom be used. But to patrons of the court it will be reassuring to know it's there for use, just in case.

On the subject of tornadoes, the Fire Department is still desirous reports that he has issued 2.514 of having suggestions as to some poll tax receipts and about 50 ex- method to be used as a storm warning system locally, other than crease of about 10 per cent over the regular fire sirens.

Waste oil on shallow water-filled pit was being burned off near a tank battery on the Sam Herren farm northwest of Haskell. As water in the pit heated, it caused oil which had seeped into the ground to rise to the surface, feeding more fuel to the blaze.

When it appeared the flames might endanger the storage tanks and installations, Mitchell called the fire department. Then with a shovel, he began throwing water form the edge of the pit onto the flames. Resultant steam, aided by France, has been torpedoed and a brisk wind, drove the flames further and further away as Mitchell waded into the water. When the firemen arrived, Mitchell had the fire out-but he was tired, and somewhat a wet. scorched person.

Stage Curtains Stress Mattson School Colors

Under the direction of Supt. Wm, R. Baker assisted by music master Jim Trimble, a group of high school boys spent their lunch hour putting up the newly unpacked curtains for the stage in the auditorium at Mattson school

In the group were Loyd Klose, Wallace Johnson, Charles Prater Fred Smith, Thomas Walker, Gene Leonard, W. L. Holt, Carl Rueffer, Jerry Alexander, Winford Seelig, Burlle Peiser, George Petrich, Jerry Don Klose, Larry Campbell.

Replacing the twenty-five year old faded purple velvet, the new curtain of fresh, bright red velwet with white fringe and soft white monogram "M" for Mattson shone right into the hearts of faculty and student body and wisitors at the school Tuesday.

The $770 raised at the Harvest Festival in November, 1957, helped to get this gorgeous new thrill for Mattson, and installed in time for the Senior Play next week.

C-C DIRECTORS---

son, interim manager of the C.

of C. since Dec. 1, and voted unanimously to elect her as fulltime manager for the year 1958. Possibility for securing a sub-district colton classing office in Haskell was explained by C. of C. President Gaston Hattox. Establishment of a sub-district office had been discussed at a meeting in Munday with a representative of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Location of the office here would bring a staff of five persons to Haskell, Hattox stated. If a suitable building is available and a sufficient number of cotton farmers are interested, Haskell will make a bid for the office, Hattox said. Named on a committee to investigate the proposal were A. M. Turner, Hallie Chapman, Ira Hester, Myron Biard.

In addition to Hattox, who preaided at the breakfast-meeting, officers and directors present were: Bill Holter, Dr. J. G. Vaughter, Charles Swinson, Harper, A. M. Turner, Ira Hester, Lon Pate, Mrs. Byron Frazier, Wallace Cox Jr., Myron Biard, Dr. T. W. Williams, Hallie Chapman, Bill Holden, Don Roberts, Jay Weaver.

Publisher, Staff Members, Attend Press Meeting

The mid-winter meeting of the Texas Press Association held in Austin, Jan. 25 was attended by three Haskell Free Press representatives, Jetty V. Clare, Lon Pate and Charlene White.

Leo Aikman of the Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution told publishers and editors at the banquet in the Commodore Perry, concluding the meeting, that our nation must have a balance between technology and the humanitites. "Men need 'know how,' but they also must obtain the where and how of education," he said. Texas publishers and editors were called upon to protect freedom of speech and speak out against House Bill 5 in an an address by Tom Reavley, Austin atand former secretary of state, at a morning session of the ass mat on Reavley said the bill would empower the county judge each county to require an organ zation to put the names of its members on public record Governor Price Daniel urged the editors to lead a crusade for traffic safety and for better law enforcement in another address. FORT WORTH-Average farm prices, as reported here today by the Department of Agriculture, as of January 15 reveal that major livestock prices are still well below effective parity prices.

Average farm price of beef cat-tle was recorded at $19.70, while parity was figured at $22.90, leaving the value at 86 per cent of parity. Calves stood at 88 per cent of parity as current values averaged $22.20, against effective parity of $25.20.

Hogs were 85 per cent of $18.-with average farm prices of $18.-$21.70.

Lambs brought 84 per cent of parity as average values were $21.60 against effective parity of

The value of wool was figured at only 65 per cent of parity, as average farm price was figured at 45.2 cents per pound, against effective parity of 65.5 cents (these figures did not include any incenlive payments on wool.)
