It all began on the hardened turf of Giants Stadium on November 29, 1992, when Dennis Byrd rocketed around the Kansas City Chiefs' offensive line. In the midst of sacking the quarterback, Lollipop Junction Dennis's 6'5", 270 pound body Renews Food collided with that of a 280 pound teammate, and his neck shattered.

Rise and Walk takes us from Dennis's dirt-poor beginnings in Oklahoma, through his years of football glory with Tulsa University and the New York Jets, to the grueling rehab that severely tested his spirit. Along the way there are a host of dramatic moments.

Ultimately Rise and Walk is not just the story of life in the NFL's trenches or of one athletes triumph over injury. Rather, it is a deeply affecting testament to the power of love and faith.

Dennis Byrd played four seasons of professional football for the New York Jets. He was a second-team All-American at Tulsa University, where he studied communications. Currently he lives in Owasso, Oklahoma, where he is at work establishing the Dennis Byrd Foundation, which will send children with disabilities to summer camp.

What is An Emergency Medical Technician?

by Wayne Jones, Cypress Creek EMS Association

An EMT is the man or woman who lives next door and is the one called when you have a medical problem.

An EMT is a woman that puts her family's dinner on hold when she is called to help a person in need.

An EMT is a person who leaves their dinner or party guests to render aid. An EMT is a person who leaves the comfort of their home at any time day or night, in all kinds of weather to help oth-

An EMT is a neighbor who is called to your house when your child has overdosed and the other neighbors never hear of your child's problem. An EMT is a person who risks their own life in the middle of the street during a driving rainstorm trying to save a life.

An EMT is a person that stands waist deep in a drainage ditch full of water trying to stabilize a broken body.

An EMT is a person who carries all sorts of medical equipment, in the August heat, for a quarter of a mile or more to help someone and knowing, all the while, that they will have to carry both the patient and the equipment back to the ambulance.

An EMT is a person who is called out of their home in the middle of the night and cannot go back to sleep because of the trauma they have seen, knowing that they will have to go to work or take care of their own family the next day with little or no sleep and there being no guarantee that the same thing will not happen again the next night.

An EMT is a person who runs into a storm door in the dark of night and wonders what the heck happened.

An EMT is a person who carries stomach sedatives and mouthwash so they can settle their stomach and get the foul taste out of their mouth after giving CPR to a person who has thrown up in a full beard.

An EMT is a person who gets kicked in the face while trying to help a drunk or an overdose victim.

An EMT is a person who remains calm and renders lifesaving aid when all they can see are broken and torn bodies.

An EMT is a person who frantically tries to wash the blood off of their hands and face while enroute to another emergency so that they will not frighten the patient or the patient's family when they arrive to render aid.

An EMT is a person who continues to walk toward the scene when all they want to do is to turn around and run in the other direction.

An EMT is a person who has seen more suffering and death than any person should ever have to experience.

An EMT is a person who cries when they are unable to save a patient.

An EMT is a person who laughs with joy when they deliver a baby and goes to the hospital on a day off to see "their" baby.

An EMT is a person who risks their life driving in rush hour traffic to find out that it was only a prank call.

An EMT is a person who goes home and gives their own child a little extra loving after seeing a child die.

An EMT is a person who cannot get the smell of a horribly burned victim out of their nose, hair, and clothes.

An EMT is a person who gets mad at a suicide victim because they were not given a chance to help.

An EMT is a person who knows that they will probably be injured enroute or on a scene at some point in

An EMT is a person who pulls a fever thermometer out of their own mouth when a call comes in and runs out into a cold rain to help someone. When they return home with a chill and pick up their thermometer they see 101° on it.

An EMT is a person who goes into a pit of raw sewage to help a trapped vic-

An EMT is a person who cares. So, when you are awakened in the middle of the night by the sound of thunder, the flash of lightning, and the pounding of rain on your roof and hear a siren scream in the night you know that EMTs will be risking their lives trying to help some unknown stranger. Will you, then, take a moment to offer a prayer and silently give them a "thank you" before turning over in your warm bed and falling back to sleep?

I will. I'll thank the dedicated women and men at Austin EMS Aid 8.
