Panhandle Ag Leader Inducted
 Into Farm Credit Bank of Texas
 Academy of Honor

AUSTIN, Texas - Former Farm Credit Bank of Texas Director Jon "Mike" Garnett was inducted into the Farm Credit Bank of Texas Academy of Honor at the bank's 2018 annual stockholders meeting in San Antonio, Texas, on April 5. The award establishes a $10,000 scholarship that will be presented in Garnett's name to a student attending a university of his choice.

Established in 1968, the Academy of Honor recognizes outstanding individuals for their service and contributions to agriculture and to Farm Credit. To date, 60 people have been inducted into this prestigious group.

A farmer and rancher in Spearman, Texas, Garnett served the Farm Credit System for four decades, including 18 years as a Farm Credit Bank of Texas director. During his tenure, he represented the Texas Farm Credit District on the national Farm Credit Council Board of Directors and served as council chairman from 2011 to 2013. He also was a director of the Pampa-High Plains Federal Land Bank Association, now Plains Land Bank, for 23 years.

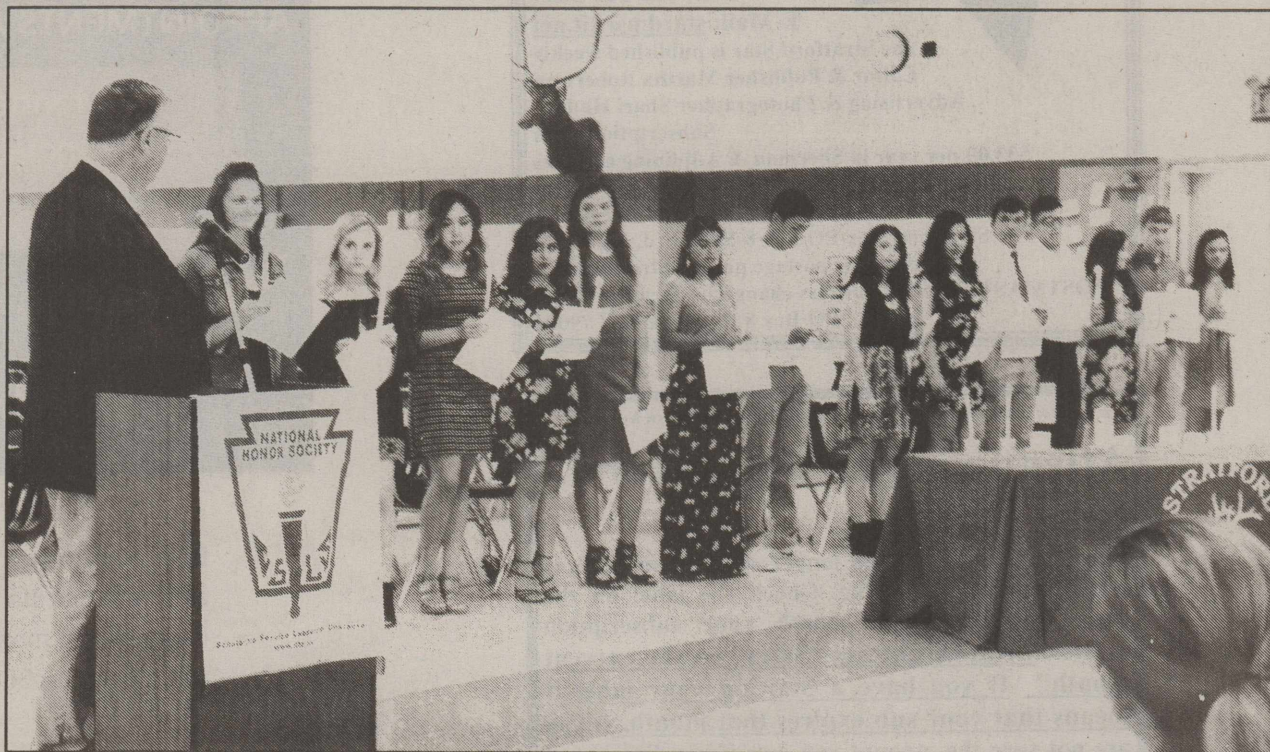

"Mike was always diligent and mindful of the needs of fellow agricultural producers," said Jimmy Dodson, Farm Credit Bank of Texas board chairman. "He was always willing to consider and support new policies, and with an open mind he welcomed our current business model, which has served our owners and our mission well."

The Austin-headquartered Farm Credit Bank of Texas is a $22.8 billion cooperatively owned wholesale bank. It provides funding and operational support to 14 rural lending cooperatives in Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi, New Mexico and Texas. The bank also participates with other lenders in large loans to agribusinesses and rural infrastructure providers.

Farm Credit Bank of Texas and its affiliated lenders are part of the Farm Credit System, a nationwide network of cooperatives established in 1916.

The National Honor Society Induction Ceremony was held on Thursday, April 19, 2018 in the High School Cafeteria with sponsor Tracey Ferguson welcoming everyone along with Kade McBryde - National Honor Society President.

New members were inducted into the National Honor Society induction ceremony on Thursday, April 19, 2018.

Legacy Residents Designing Hobby Shirts

By Paula Nusz

Legacy Assisted Living female residents are designing Hobby Shirts. There 1970's shirts are making a fashion comeback today! Hobby Shirts were chambray or denim shirt/jackets that were adorned with handwork. Typically the designs were either hand embroidery, decals, or appliques. Generally lace, rickrack and other decorative items were added to provide extra interest.

The shirt/jackets that the Legacy ladies are designing have the same concept and some of the same design elements. Four different area quilting groups have donated orphan quilt blocks for use. The community has donated lace, ribbon, ties, and other decorative items. The residents are preparing a theme for their shirts to help make designing simpler and easier. Legacy staff members will take the shirts and attach everything. All design elements are machine washable, so these shirts will provide many years of wear and enjoyment.

A big thank you is extended to the quilters for their blocks. The groups are: Trails of Thread- Boise City, Oklahoma; The Stitching Sisters-Dumas, Texas; Stratford Quilt Group; and Cheryl's Quilt Store- Guymon, Oklahoma. Their quilt blocks are beautiful and will make wonderful decorations on the shirts. A Thank you is extended to the community for their generous donations of other items for this project.

The finished garments will be worn in a fashion show at Legacy's Mother's Day Party. The celebration will take place on Friday, May 11th in Legacy's dining room at 2:00. The public is invited to attend the fashion show. The resident models will show great pride in their finished masterpieces. Refreshments will be served after the fashion show. Please come and enjoy an afternoon of fashion and fun with Legacy's residents! Legacy's address is 301 Texas Boulevard, Dalhart, Texas.

The Sherman County Depot Museum needs your help! We are mystified by this item. Come in and see it and tell us what it is!
