Alleys Need Attention

From time in the past, proposals have been advanced for paving of alleys in the business section. However, because of the financial obligation involved on both the part of the city and the property owner, no progress has been made toward the needed improvement.

The alleys are an important part in the business economy and they handle more traffic than the average person realizes. Also, they provide additional parking areas that help relieve the more congested streets in the business section.

We believe it would be time and money well spent if the city street department could do more work on the alleys in grading them up, filling and leveling the numerous "chug holes" and otherwise making the alleys more passable.

A work program of this nature, continued over a period of several months, would be a temporary solution for a growing city need.

The 55th Legislature

Texas 55th Legislature started off the searching part this week at Austin.
Predictions are that it will be orbiting around the capital for many months to come—certainly long enough to put it good use the air conditioners newly installed in the Legislature chambers.

Many have suggested the 56th will have one or more special sessions before it can solve all its pressing problems. Certainly before they can leave, the lawmakers will have to perform the business task of levying many more millions in state taxes.

Additionally there will be clamor of all sides for new spending programs which would call for even more taxes. After several months of this, our space may look extravagantly calm compared to the Texas Capitol.

The Need For Tax Equalization

It will not soon be allowed any taxable property to stand assessed on the tax rolls at any sum which I believe to be less than its true market value.

In general substance this statement, or oath, is subscribed to by members of a board of equalization before reviewing and assessing taxes on real estate and personal property on the rolls of county, city, school or other taxing agency.

Under our present and tax assessment policy being followed today, no assessor or official of a taxing agency can sign his tax rolls without perjuring himself, and no taxpayer can make an honest rendering without subjecting himself to gross discrimination by assuming an unfair share of the tax burden.

The tax laws contemplate providing a tax structure that permits fair and uniform treatment of all taxpayers. The law says that everything of value—land, buildings, money, machinery, livestock, equipment—everything—must be rendered or assessed at its actual market worth and taxed at a uniform rate.

In practice, however, it is estimated that only about one-third of the taxable property is ever listed on the tax rolls at a rate ranging from 50 per cent to 75 per cent of value for county, city, or school purposes.

As an illustration, a piece of property which has been assessed on the county tax rolls at the same unchanged figure for years is listed on the rolls of another taxing agency with an improvement value of $10,000. Many similar inequities can be found on the various tax rolls in Haskell County.

The only solution would be the adoption of a policy of straight-forward, businesslike appraisal and listing of all taxable property on which a uniform rate could be based.

Such a policy would provide the various taxing agencies revenue sufficient for all needs.

Further, it is conceivable that such a realistic approach to the tax problem might make possible a reduction in tax rates!

PEOPLE, PLACES AND THINGS

Harold again is the type of fellow who can always find a bright side in anything that happens.

During a coffee break the other morning, Harold was talking about a friend in Colorado who bought a new Cadillac. The man had had the car only three days when an accident happened and the Cadillac was smashed into a total wreck.

The guy's mother-in-law backed it over a cliff, Harold explained.

Two members of the fire department, Covell Adams and "Bull" Barnett, were as busy as a one-armed paperhanger with the hoses for a brief period last Thursday evening.

Just as the fire alarm sounded, Covell received an emergency ambulance call to the business section and he had to get a patient to the hospital before he could report at the fire.

In the meantime Chief of Police Barnett had almost reached the scene of the fire when he was called by short-wave to check a two-car traffic crash west of the square.

Luckily, the fire was of a minor nature, and no one was even so much as scratched in the traffic mishap, while the patient rushed to the hospital is recovering satisfactorily.

Those eye-catching table decorations at the football banquet Friday night were executed by the Spanish Class of Mrs. Jim Byrd in Junior High, a group of youngsters who have set as their goal this spring a trip to Old Mexico.

To raise funds for the trip, the students intend to work at odd jobs during the weekends and in their leisure hours. They will undertake any type of work within their ability that you need done.

When you need an extra helper in your store, office, or home, get in touch with Mrs. Byrd and give these deserving students a boost toward reaching their goal.

Counting the duck, geese and quail hunting seasons this week emphasizes the fact that sportsmen in this section have enjoyed the best hunting in years.

Particularly dove and quail were plentiful, but ducks and geese were not as numerous as they have been at times in the past.

And if rumors are correct, several deer have been taken during the season, all of which proves that wild game of most all types is staging a good comeback in this area.

Raccoons, possums and skunks are more numerous than in a long time, as evidenced by the number you'll see along most any road where they have come out second best with an automobile.

Field rats, too, have just about taken over the country and have caused heavy damage not only to feedstuffs, but to pasture grass as well.

One of the most unusual hunting stories comes from Faint Creek. While out in a pasture in that area, Ray Overton and Allen Isbell spied a fox which had taken over for his den a crow's nest in the forks of a tree some 10 or 12 feet from the ground. They killed the animal for profit.

A similar instance was reported a few years ago, when two boys shot a fox out of a nest in a tree while hunting north of town.

Looks like some of these West Texas foxes have gone in for penthouses.

As for field rats, the farmers

Cattle Raisers Assn. Honors "Dub" Drace

James William (Dub) Drace, field inspector for Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers Association in 22 counties in the South Plains and Cap Rock region, has been honored as December "Inspector of the Month" by the ranchers' organization. Norman Moser, DeKalb, president, made the announcement in the Association's monthly newsletter, The Cattle Raiser.

Drace, a resident of Lubbock, was cited for his 17 years of outstanding service to TSCRA members in Bailey, Castro, Cochran, Cottle, Crosby, Dickson, Fisher, Floyd, Foard, Hale, Haskell, Hockley, Jones, King, Lamb, Lubbock, Motley, Nolan, Farmer, Stonewall and Swisher counties.

He was described as the "personal envoy" of the more than 85 per cent of all cattlemen in the area who are Association members. "To the rancher residing in Lubbock but operating around the perimeter of his territory," the citation read, "he is a reliable substitute for a personal visit to the ranch. Drace gives them a first hand and knowledgeable report on range conditions and operational problems on their own ranches."

Drace was also pictured as a competent personnel consultant for his members, recommending ranch foremen and workers or investigating the employment records of applicants from outside his area.

A third-generation cattleman, he was born on the Matador Ranch, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie J. Drace. Prior to his employment with the Association in 1941, he worked on the Matador Ranch, the VVN Ranch in Farwell and the U Bar Ranch in Hachita, N. M. With his father as a partner, he operated his own ranch before the war.

His wife is the former Corne Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Russell. Mr. Russell also served the Association as brand inspector for 29 years until his death in 1953.

Each year, the 62 field and market inspectors of the 10,169 member Association validates the brands on 2,000,000 cattle to recover strayed or stolen beef on the hoof for rightful owners. This year, according to Moser, the corps of inspectors recovered $148,116.40 worth of stolen cattle. Charges were brought against 131 offenders, with 54 cases brought to trial and 51 offenders convicted.

"Most stealing today is limited to unbranded stock, especially unbranded calves," Drace says, warning that ranchers should brand their calves by weaning time, keep fences in good repair, gates locked and guard against carelessness.

In 1704 Indians attacked Deerfield, Mass., killing 40 settlers and abducting 100.

State Has Duty to Help Solve Own Highway Needs

AUSTIN—"Texans must not feel that Uncle Sam is going to solve all our highway needs with federal money. Texans still have a tremendous responsibility in solving their own traffic needs."

These words of warning came from Marshall Formby, chairman of the State Highway Commission.

Formby stated that too many people in Texas, after reading about the huge amount of money which the federal government is going to spend on the interstate system of highways, believe that all Texas highway needs are solved.

"The 3,033 miles of interstate highway in Texas, when completed, will carry only about 18 per cent, certainly never more than 20 per cent of our Texas traffic. It is up to Texans to work out own solution for this other 80 to 84 per cent of traffic."

Formby explained that the biggest problem in Texas highways is the 26,000-mile "primary" system which links most of the state's major cities and towns.

"Two out of three autos travel this system," Formby stated. "Yet at the present rate of improvement it will take us 22 years to put the primary roads in top conditions. By that time, these roads will need further improvement."

Chairman Formby stated that 1,000 miles of the busy primary system are built with four lanes, and that another 5,500 miles should be four-laned within the next five years.

"Thousands of miles need shoulders paved, and 4,200 bridges need to be widened. It would cost more than $2 billion to put the primary roads in first class condition for safe travel under the present traffic load."

Formby predicted that 500 lives and $50 million property damage from accidents could be saved annually if the primary system were built to proper standards.

"We are proud of the progress made on our 32,000 mile farm-to-market road system," Chairman Formby said. "These paved rural roads are of much benefit to the farming and ranching areas and school bus and mail routes. We have added nearly nine thousand miles to the farm-to-market system since I joined the Highway in 1953."

Formby stated that the 50-50 right-of-way purchase law enacted by the last session of the Texas Legislature has been a great aid to the primary system and to the counties and cities desiring highway improvement.

"However, right of way is exceeding the estimated cost. When more money is required for right of way, it has to come out of the construction money, and so less road-miles can be built," Formby said.

Formby, 47, was born in Hopkins County, but moved to McAdoo in Dickens County when a small boy. He is a former county judge of Dickens County, former state senator, and served with the army engineers in World War II, spending 20 months in the European theatre. He is married and has a young son and young daughter. He is a graduate of Texas Tech, received his Masters degree from the University of Texas, and studied law at Baylor University.

NEWLYWEDS MOVE TO SNYDER

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Thompson, who were married recently at Weibert, moved to Snyder during the weekend, where they will make their home. Mrs. Thompson, the former Louise Hix is a senior in Weibert high school. She transferred her credits from the Weibert school to Snyder. She plans to return to Weibert and graduate with the class there.

In the heart of Paris there is a late-night place called The Crazy Horse. It is a French version of an American Wild West saloon.

Last Minute Rush In Prospect For Safety Stickers

The Texas Department of Public Safety warned motorists of the inconveniences of a last-minute rush at safety inspection stations before the deadline, April 15.

More than 3,000,000 of the 4,000,000 Texas motor vehicles have yet to receive their 1959 safety inspection sticker.

In urging motorists to "do their safety shopping early" and avoid the rush at the 4,400 inspection stations, the safety department warned that those who fail to do so will be subject to traffic summons after April 15. The average cost of the safety inspection since the program began six years ago is $1.19 for needed repairs and $1 for inspection fee.

The inspection stations check such items as brakes, lights, horns, mirrors and windshield wipers and have found that 39 per cent of the vehicles have needed some adjustment or repair.

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the safety department, said this is an improvement over the general condition of motor vehicles six years ago when the inspection program began. At that time more than 50 per cent needed repairs.

"We hope that owners of motor vehicles will take advantage of the inspection facilities now and avoid the inconveniences of waiting in line as the April 15 deadline approaches," Col. Garrison said. "This safety factor is important to safe driving on our streets and highways—and that is our goal."

In and Out The Tee-Pees

BY SUZANNE LANE

Did you make any New Year's resolutions? Many of the Indians around HHS have made theirs. This week the library has been closed to do some more work on the books. The librarians have resolved to get the library opened again as soon as possible and get all of the needed work done.

Many of the maidens and braves have resolved to make some changes in their classes this year. Some have decided to study harder and bring up their grades; some have made resolutions to behave in classes; and others are going to start fulfilling their certain obligations in their respective jobs and organizations around HHS.

The annual staff is a little behind meeting the deadline on sending in parts of the 1959 edition of the Chieftain, so I hardly think it necessary to tell you that their New Year's resolution was to meet all deadlines on the annual.

The Quill and Scroll Society and the Owl Club thought their resolutions were real smart. Since both organizations made prize-winning floats for the Christmas parade last year, they decided to resolve to make prize-winning floats for the 1959 Christmas parade.

The Christmas holidays seemed to be quite a success. Everyone was having such a wonderful time they hated to come back, but, since school has started again all of the Indians are really enjoying it. The best part of it is the Christmas smiles haven't worn off. Everyone is still cheerful and happy. Personally, I think this is going to be a wonderful year for everyone. I truly hope it will be for you.

See you in seven moons. Oh

NEWS OF INTEREST WOMEN

Election Of Officers Marks Annual Business Meet Of Harmony Club

The Haskell Harmony Club met Jan. 8 in the Homemakers Cottage for a business meeting and election of officers.

Mrs. Tommy Hawkins, president, had charge of the meeting and presided for the election of officers.

Minutes of previous meetings were read and approved and correspondence was read by the recording secretary.

The Club Collect was given in unison by members, and Mrs. Hawkins read the constitution and by-laws.

Mrs. Guy Harris sang the beloved spiritual "Crucifixion" with Mrs. Al C. Williams at the piano, and Mrs. Henry Withers and Mrs. Harris sang a duet, "Deep River."

The club sang three spirituals, "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," "Steal Away," and "Nobody Knows de Trouble I See" with Mrs. Robert Middleton as director, assisted at the piano by Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. J. F. Cadenhead gave the first of a series of chapters on the study course, "What to Listen For in Music," by Aaron Copeland. She related the "Four Elements of Music" were rhythm, melody, harmony, and tone color.

Most historians agree that if music started anywhere it started in the beating of a rhythm. Rhythm is so immediate and direct in its effect upon us that we instinctively feel its primal origin. Many thousands of years were to pass before man learned how to write down the rhythms that he played or sang in later ages.

By listening more intently and not resisting the rhythmic pull in any way, the greater complexities of modern rhythm and subtle interplay will add new interest to your music listening.

"Melody is only second in importance in the musical firmament, it is associated with mental emotion. A beautiful melody, like a piece of music in its entirety, must give us a sense of completion and of inevitability." Most melodies are accompanied by more or less elaborate material of secondary interest. The melody should follow like a continuous thread which leads through a piece from the very beginning to the very end.

Harmony is the most sophisticated of the three musical elements of rhythm and melody. The entire history of harmonic development shows us a continually changing picture, very slowly but inevitably, our ears are able to assimilate chords of greater complexity and modulation too far for the off keys.

Now comes tone color, in which tone in music is similar to color in painting. It is that quality of sound produced by a particular medium of musical tone production.

Most of us are born with the innate sense of recognition of difference in tone color as most mortals know the difference between pink or green. The tonal color that an instrument can produce that are uniquely its own are the ones sought after by the composer.

The club sang the Song of the Month, "Amazing Grace," as the dismissal number.

New officers elected for the 1959-60 club year are as follows:

- President, Mrs. J. M. Littlefield.
- First Vice President, Miss Beryl Boone.
- Second Vice President, Mrs. A. C. Foster.
- Recording Secretary, Mrs. Tanny Squyres.
- Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Tommy Hawkins.
- Treasurer, Mrs. A. C. Williams.
- Historian, Mrs. C. L. Lewis.

Mrs. Woodson Is Program Director For Study Club

On January 8, the Progressive Study Club, in its Treasure Hunt for Gerontology, found the priceless jewel "Participation." Under the leadership of Mrs. W. E. Woodson, members took time to evaluate a jewel.

Taxes. As a precious stone can not become a thing of beauty until it is cut and polished, so it was seen that in our complaints about taxes to be paid we oftentimes overlook the advantages derived.

"It should be remembered that by means of taxation we are privileged to enjoy public benefits which would otherwise not be available to the entire population, such as schools, highways, public parks and National Shrines, security in old age, and welfare to those in need."

All these and many additional salient factors were brought to the surface in the panel discussion moderated by Mrs. Woodson.

Topics discussed in general were "Taxes and Fair Play" by Mrs. Ed Hester, "Taxes and Your Future" by Mrs. S. W. Flournoy, and "Taxes and You" by Mrs. W. C. Johnston. Taxes and Freedom, although dissimilar in meaning add up to the sum total of our democratic American way of life.

Reports of officers and committees were heard in the bi-annual business meeting and members were reminded of the Pirates' Den Smorgasbord to be held January 22.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. R. A. Lane and Mrs. Austin Coburn.

"Winterizing" Of Farm Machinery Adds To Life

Up to 30 per cent can be added to the life of farm machinery by giving it proper winter care. And, too, points out W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer, time will be saved in getting the machinery back on the job when it is needed.

Ulich says machinery should be kept under a shelter, if possible, when it is not in use. All bright metal parts such as mower sickles, plow wings, cultivator and other plow points as well as all working parts of the machine should be coated with grease or a rust inhibitor. Rubber tires should be blocked up to take the weight of the machine off of them while in storage.

Gasoline should be drained from auxiliary motors. Spark plugs should be removed and three or four ounces of cylinder oil dropped into each cylinder. The motor should be turned a few times to distribute the oil and the plugs replaced.

Cooling systems on all motors not used during the winter season should be drained. A cover should be placed over the engine exhaust pipe to keep out moisture. All machinery should get a thorough lubrication job when it goes into storage and batteries removed and checked regularly to see that they remain fully charged.

While the machines are in storage, Ulich suggests that they be thoroughly checked for worn and broken parts. Repairs can be made during the slack season and no time will be lost when the machines are again needed in the field.

Since spraying machines are precision equipment, Ulich says they need special care at storage time. The sprayer should be flushed with warm, soapy water and rinsed with clear water. Dismantle the equipment and drain the tank, pump, valves, hoses, pipes and nozzles. All water should be removed to prevent possible damage from freezing, says the engineer.

A light coating of oil should be applied to the inside of the tank after it has dried and metal piston and gear pumps should be filled with oil. Nozzles should be cleaned and stored where they will not be damaged. Farm costs can be cut and machinery life lengthened by proper winter care, concludes Ulich.

VISITORS FROM LUBBOCK

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Patterson of Lubbock were visitors during the weekend in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Patterson and with friends here.

The Federal Housing Administration reports about 30 per cent of the houses sold annually in the U. S. are new homes.

Elizabeth Taylor At The Texas Sunday In "Cat On Hot Tin Roof"

MGM presents a distinguished attraction in "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," filmization of the Tennessee Williams stage hit, showing Sunday and Monday at the Texas Theatre.

Elizabeth Taylor in her first role since her Academy Award nomination for "Raintree County," and Paul Newman, one of the screen's most popular younger stars, portrays the wife and husband on the verge of marital crack-up, with the ace cast also starring Burl Ives, Jack Carson and Judith Anderson, with Madeline Sherwood.

Both Ives and Miss Sherwood recreate their original

Broadway stage roles of the Williams drama; Ives as Big Daddy, the rich Delta plantation owner, Miss Sherwood as Mae, the avaricious daughter-in-law married to Carson. Judith Anderson, one of the stage and screen's outstanding actresses, plays Big Mama, whose love for the domineering patriarch of the family never wavers.

"Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" tells the story of a divided family and the conflict between its members when they are faced with the impending death of the father. The crisis brings to the surface the innate character of the two sons and their wives, revealing in one instance greed opportunism; in the other unselfishness and devotion.

It is also the story of one of these couples, Brick Pollitt (Paul Newman) who takes refuge in alcohol in an effort to escape adult responsibility, and Maggie (Miss Taylor), obsessed with a passion for her disturbed husband and as determined as a cat on a hot tin roof to break down his resistance to her love. An Avon Production for MGM, filmed in color, "Cat on a Hot Tin Roof" was produced by Lawrence Weingarten and was directed by Richard Brooks.

In Achievement Program
Weinert Baptist Church has entered the 1958 Texas Baptist Church Achievement program, pastor Carter Tucker announced this week.

Sponsored by the Baptist General Convention of Texas, the program is designed to stimulate interest in small-church work. Outstanding achievements by pastors, and churches in areas of church, community, and world improvement are recognized.

More than 354 Baptist churches of Texas entered the program last year. Participating churches in a recent year recorded twice as many baptisms per members as the Southern Baptist Convention average.

Records and scrapbooks of program progress are made under direction of special committees. The scrapbooks are the basis for judging on the associational, district and statewide levels.

The primary value of the program is the "enlistment of a church's total membership in active service."

Spencer Lumber Yard Closes

The R. B. Spencer & Co. lumber yard closed Jan. 1. The stock was taken to a Spencer yard at Hamlin and the manager and his family, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Cass, are now residing in Haskell where he will be employed at the Spencer yard.

The Cass family came to Weinert in 1955 and have a daughter Barbara in elementary school, and a son, Bobby, a sophomore at NTSC, Denton. Another member of the Cass family for a while is Mrs. Cass' nephew, Jerry McNulty, also a student at NTSC.

The building vacated by the lumber yard was purchased by Kelley Grain Co., and will be used to store grain. It was erected in 1931.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Monke, Mr. and Mrs. O. O. McMinn, Mr. and Mrs. Jim McKennon, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Winches, and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Guess were guests at the Golden Wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bartel Sunday in Wichita Falls at the Bartel home.

"Talking" Atlas Outweighs All Red Satellites

The air force's talking satellite has proved that the United States can match—and even excel—Russia in throwing its weight around.

According to the research department of the World Book Encyclopedia, the Atlas has boosted the total weight of American satellites launched to more than 8,900 pounds—more than twice the weight of Russia's three Sputniks put together.

The four-ton Atlas, which blasted off Cape Canaveral on Dec. 18, is a far cry from America's first satellites, which Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev dubbed "oranges."

The army's Explorer I, which was launched last January, weighed 30.8 pounds. The tiny Vanguard I, which followed in March, weighed a mere 3½ pounds.

The United States now has 8,870 pounds of earth satellites whirling around the globe, including Explorer I and IV and Vanguard and Explorer II never orbited and Explorer III burned up after three months.

Russia has only Sputnik III, which tips the scales at a little less than 1½ tons, or 2,925 pounds.

The Atlas is the longest as well as the fattest baby moon of the space age. It is 85 feet long, compared with Sputnik III's 11½ feet.

Rabbit Hunts Back In Style

Rabbit hunts are back in style in the Panhandle, according to an article appearing in the December issue of Texas Game and Fish.

Public hunts have been held on the Gene Howe Wildlife Management area near Canadian for two years. This was the idea biologists had in trying to cope with high rabbit populations in the area.

Being a modern refinement of the "drives" of 25 years ago, the hunts are controlled and strictly supervised by Commission personnel. During the first hunt in 1957, 63 hunters bagged 846 cottontails in three days of hunting.

Although cottontails were not so abundant in 1958 the hunt went ahead, but the 38 hunters that showed up got only 71 rabbits due to high weed cover.

The upcoming hunt in January and February should be very good, the article states, since the rabbit population is high again. Gene Howe Area personnel recommend that participants bring beagles to flush rabbits from the high weed growth.

Feeding Small Number Of Steers Unprofitable

Cattlemen in the High Plains of Texas who feed less than 100 steers at a time are not likely to get much "extra" income for their work.

Based on a 20-year study at the Big Spring Field Station a margin of profit of at least 4 cents a pound is required to give an income equal to the average price paid for farm labor. And that doesn't include the risk in feeding steers.

From the study the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture has prepared a guide for cattlemen in the high plains to use in determining whether feeding steers is a profitable alternative to the cash market for grain sorghum under various feed-livestock, cost-price situations.

"A cowman goes into the feeding season knowing the feed cost and the cost of steers for the feed lot, and he can assume the rate of gain to determine the amount of beef he will produce," says Agricultural Economist Wm. F. Hughes. "What he doesn't know is how much he will get per pound on the market when he sells his steers."

So with various situations recorded from actual tests, a cowman can use the guide in making comparisons of cost of steers, feed prices and market prices during the 20 year period to determine whether or not he should feed.

The studies are based on feeding 100 steers for 180 days. The publication which is available from the Agricultural Information office at Texas A&M College is "Economic Returns From Grain Sorghum Fed to Steer Calves on Dryland Farms of the High Plains," Miscellaneous Publication 295.

TAX ASSESSOR-COLLECTOR Haskell County

These specific common sense features are the big reasons why Ford is the best seller:

1. Six passengers, not just four, ride in comfort even the man in the middle. Because full-depth seats are extra thick all the way across—there's no hard spot in the center or some cars.
2. The doors are wider for easier entry. Compared with Ford's major competitor, they open 4 inches wider and have two-stage front door check.
3. Ford's styling is sensible. It's clean and simple like the Thunderbird. No useless wings that are easy to dent.
4. Ford's frame is safer. In its field, only Ford's wide-base frame that seats all passengers with the protection of its husky side rails.
5. Ford's spacious luggage compartment is easy to load and unload. High rear trunk wall on the nearest competitor makes loading difficult.
6. Ford's got the most sound and weather insulation everywhere. No other low-priced car compares.
7. Ford is economical. You save up to a dollar a tankful with Ford's standard Six or Thunderbird V-8 engines—for they thrive on regular gas. You need change oil only after each 4000 miles. The muffler is aluminumized to last twice as long as ever. And Ford's new Diamond Lustre paint never—ever—needs waxing.
