Highlight of the affair will be an address by Hon. Jim Wright of Fort Worth, Congressman from that district who is a candidate to succeed Vice President Lyndon Johnson as U. S. Senator from Texas. Other features will be the installation of new officers and directors, a review of community progress and plans for the future, and an excellent entertainment program featuring The Nine Teens, widely known Haskell High School choral group,

Attendance at the affair is expected to tax the capacity of the school cafetorium, based on the number of banquet tickets that had been sold at weekend. A larger than usual number of out-of-town ticket requests have been received, indicating that guests and delegations will be present from a dozen or more neighboring towns.

Presiding as master of ceremonies will be C. of C. President Tom Barfield, who will be ending a successful administration as head of the organization during the past year. The speaker will be introduc-ed by Robt. R. King, superin-tendent of Haskell Schools. District Attorney Royce Ad-kins will give the welcome and kins will give the welcome and introduce guests.

Incoming president who will be introduced at the banquetmeeting is Ira Hester, farmer and banker and former Mayor of Haskell. Hester will be no stranger to the CC role, having strved the organization as pres ident in 1956

Carl Anderson Is Speaker at Rotary Meeting

"Fishing" was the subject of an interesting talk by Carl Anderson, oil field contractor, at the meeting and luncheon o the Rotary Club Thursday a noon in the Highway Drive-In Cafe.

Instead of the generally ac-cepted version of fishing, Anderson's talk dealt with the in genious methods used by oil well drllers in recovering bro ken pieces of drilling equipment from wells being drilled. He explained the different types of recovery or "fishing" tools used in picking up broken drill stems, casing, etc. Pic-tures of some of the most com monly used devices were pass ed around among club mem-bers.

Bill Ratliff spoke briefly on Rotary Information, dealing with the subject of rural-urban relations and using material from the January issue of The Rotarian.

A report on Haskell's Youth Center project was given by Robt. R. King, superintendent of city schools, who said the Center was almost complete and would be in operation at an early date. He also served as song leader in the absence of Bob Herren, and led the group in two songs, with Mrs. Ruth Withers pianist. Two new members, Gaston Hattox and John Darnell, were given special introduction and welcome.

A committee composed of Robt. R. King, Hooper Wilkin-son and Desmond Dulaney was appointed to draft any resolu-tions the Haskell club might want to submit at the District Conference. A visiting Rotarian, Hollis Haynes of Stamford, was intro-duced by Bob Wheatley.

From all indications, fewer than 2,000 Haskell County citizens will qualify as voters this year by paying their poll tax.

Because there is no primary or general election held in "odd" years, many people attach little importance to paying their poll tax and becoming eligible to vote. Their trend of thinking seems to be that "There'll be nothing to vote on this year."

The exact opposite is true. Elections could develop this year more important than any primary, insofar as they affect the average citizen and taxpayer.

Three elections are definitely scheduled this year. First will be the annual school trustee elections, to be held in each school district in the county on April 1.

Next will be the city elections in each incorporated town in the county on Tuesday, April 4.

Also, on April 4, voters will ballot state wide to elect a U.S. Senator to fill the post vacated by Vice-President Lyndon B. Johnson.

In addition to these three elections, there is the possibility of special bond elections being called, as well as the likelihood that beer elections might be held in some precinct or town in the county.

Just to be on the safe side, we suggest that you plunk down $1.75 for a poll tax receipt, or $3.50 for yourself and your wife,

It will be the best investment in citizenship that you are privileged to make. But do it before Feb. 1.

Martin Arend of the northeast side was in town Monday. Mr. Arend said he had 120 acres of land prepared and that farmers in his community were ready for the new crop. G. E. Ballew and son, Lee, who recently moved to Roches ter, were back in town several days this week. L. W. Stephens of Cleburne, an old friend of Ed Thornton's. is prospecting in Haskell this week. The last ginner's report show ed Haskell County produced 15, 779 bales. As Stamford ginned a lot of Haskell County cotton it is probable that 1,000 bales of good Haskell County cotton helped swell the Jones County report. Mrs. Mary Collins of Guymon. Okla., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. B. Williams of the Foster community.

We made a trip last Saturday from Haskell to Mr. Reichel's on Paint Creek. All the farmers were busy killing fine pork ers and from the view we had from the road the hogs would weigh from 300 pounds up. Farmers were also busy listing their lands and are well along with their work. Rev. R. W. Thompson will preach at the Baptist Church in this city Sunday at 11 a. m. and also that night.

They did not take the time or trouble to provide the addi tional revenue necessary to pay the sizable new salaries and expenses, simply transferring $1.05 million from the cigaret tax fund and another $1.6 million from the driver license fee into their pay pocket.

The lawmakers were acting judiciously in getting the legislative expense bill out of the way. That is customary procedure. But their action, concerned with a nice increase in their pay, confronts them with the challenge of equitable decisions in problems that are far more pressing and affecting far more people than those who serve in the legislature. Among them are the aged, the student, the teacher, other state employes, the host of institutions dependent upon state funds and all the unspayers who in the final analysis foot the bill.

Simulated Tour of Austria Theme Of Progressive Study Club Meeting

sive Study Club entered the ing was repaired, meeting place they found themselves in an Austrian rest- gay to reflective melancholy aurant. Tables with candles Austria's golden age of music burning, and waiters dressed in has spanned two centuries with authentic costumes served flaming cake and coffee.

Coffee was served in many ways as they serve it in Austria. If you wanted it mixed with milk you asked for "melange. If you wanted whipped cream in it you asked for "kaffee mit schlag." If you wanted a lot of whipped cream you asked for. 'sin doppelschlag.

While the members were be ing served and were enjoying the atmosphere, Mrs. H. V Woodard, travel guide for the evening, described the beautiful mountainous country of Austria.

Hitler's troops occupied Aus tria in 1938 and there was no Austria from 1938 to 1945. Austria was wiped from the map and integrated into German economy.

Occupied by the troops of the four big powers after her liberation in 1945, Austria had to struggle for ten years to regain her full sovereignity. Finally in 1955 the Austrian State Treaty which guaranteed Austrian independence was signed in Vienna. Today Austria is a member of the United Nations, of the Council of Europe and of other international organizations.

Somewhat larger than the State of Maine, Austria's population is more than 7 million. Vienna, the capitol of Austria, is one of the loveliest cities in the world. You will agree when you see the modern schools, hospitals and apartments rising beside the Gothic and baroque memorials of Austria's past.

Schools of Austria are fa mous for their high standards. The University of Vienna is a world famous center of medical and scientific research. Austria is especially noted for its inventors and medical scientists Twelve Nobel prizes, the highest per capita quota of any country have been awarded Austrians.

Austria has long been one of the great centers in Europe renowned for music, drama and other arts. Music is the soul of Vienna as anyone will agree who saw Austrians shivering through concerts in 1945, huddled up in ragged overcoats and

You can ride in this rich-looking '61 Fairlane ... with radio, heater and automatic transmission . . . for less than the price of any other full-size, 6-passenger car in the U.S.A. In fact, this car is priced nearly $100 below

And mind you, this amazing low price brings you a car that's Beautifully Built to Take Care of Itself. That means you'll save plenty in operating costs-save more than with other 1961 full-size cars.

Figure it out for yourself with our FREE fact-filled folder, "Here's Proof -." At the same time, get our unbeatable SAVE-MOST DEAL on a '61 Ford Fairlane-for a limited time only. Don't waste another day or another dollar. Come test-drive a cost-cutting, new '61 Fairlane today!

> Based on comparison of manufacturers' sur retail delivered prices, including radio, heat n and white

Lubricates Itself-You'll normally go 30,000 miles between chassis lubrications (which cost only about $4.00 and take about 20 minutes) because Ford has replaced conventional grease fittings with a scaled-in lubrication

Cleans Its Own Oil—You'll go 4,000 miles between oil changes because Ford's Full-Flow oil filter gives you fil-tration through fibres . . . trapping more dirt than any other type of filter made.

Adjusts Its Own Brakes-New Truck Size brakes adjust themselves-automatically. Guards Its Own Muffler-Ford mufflers are double-wrapped and aluminized-to last three times as long as ordinary mufflers.

Protects Its Own Body-All vital underbody parts are specially processed to resist rust and corrosion, even to galvanizing the body panels beneath the doors. Takes Care of Its Own Finish-New Diamond Lustre never needs waxing
