Rotarians Hear Texas Facts and Fantasies

Dennis P. Ratliff, Haskell lawyer, mixed Texas facts and fantasy in a talk to members and guests of the Rotary Club Thursday at noon in the Highway Drive In, and closed his talk with an admonition of the responsibilities each citizen owes the State. Club President, R. A. Lane, presided. Bernard Bryant of the Stamford Rotary Club gave members an invitation to hear Dr. T. R. Timm, agriculture expert from A & M College speak in Stamford.

Gaston Hattox spoke on Rotary Information, reading a "Prayer for Peace" and Woodie Woodard led the club singing with Mrs. Henry Withers as pianist.

Thos. B. Robertson, program chairman, introduced the guest speaker. The long-time Haskell lawyer, a former district judge and ex-legislator, reviewed some humorous highlights of Texas along with historical facts. He pointed out that Texas could divide its area into five separate states by vote of its citizens. He cited the state's tremendous resources, and told of its contribution to national defense by furnishing 200,000 men for the armed forces in the first World War, while in the last global conflict, 780,000 Texans were in uniform.

In closing his talk, the speaker pointed out that the responsibilities of citizenship included willingness not only to defend the country in time of war, but to give time to public service on juries, to vote, to pay taxes, and to uphold the laws of the country. Guests and visitors at the meeting and luncheon included Rotarians Hollis Haynes, Bernard Bryant, J. E. Loveless and Burgin Watkins of Stamford; Victor Ortiz of Munday; and from Haskell, C. W. (Biggun) Drinnon and Dixie Maltsberger.

City Prepares Welcome For Homecoming Guests

Indian B Team Comes From Behind To Defeat Hamlin 22-14 Thursday

Haskell Indians "B" team came from behind to defeat the Hamlin "B" aggregation in that city last Thursday night, but the victory may prove costly for the Tribe. Halfback Sammy Larned, Indians' ace scorer, received an ankle injury in the third period which may keep him sidelined most of the remaining season. Larned, Indian halfback, scored in the first period on a 33-yard breakaway run to paydirt. Try for extra point failed. Hamlin struck back in the second, scoring two TDs and a 14-6 half time lead. It was Larned again in the third, when he duplicated his scoring feat with another 30-yard scamper, then swept end to add two extra points. Haskell's winning TD came in the fourth, when Ronnie Jeter connected with Joe Josselt on a 20-yard aerial, and Josselt raced 20 yards to score. Mike Bland added the two extra points. Next game for the B's is scheduled tonight, when they host the Albany B team on Indian Field.

Water Authority Case Postponed

Trial of a lawsuit challenging the legal right of the North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority to levy and collect taxes, tentatively set for hearing Monday, Oct. 9, in 39th District Court, has been postponed. The case, styled J. E. Walling et al vs. North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority, was filed more than a year ago. It was first dismissed by the trial court, but the Supreme Court sent it back for trial on its merits. Postponement of the Oct. 9 hearing was necessary because Texas Attorney General Will Wilson, who has entered the case at the request of the Texas Water Development Board, could not be here Monday, court officials said. District Judge Sterling Williams of Snyder will preside when the case is heard.

Fire Prevention Week To Be Observed October 8 Through 14

Fire killed more than 17,000 Americans last year, over half of them in their own homes, according to National Fire Protection Association estimates. Fire destroyed approximately $1.5 billion worth of property in the same period, including more than 600,000 pieces where people live, and about 100,000 stores, offices and factories where people work. The great tragedy of these statistics, Fire Chief Tom Watson points out, is that most of this waste of lives and property is avoidable. The record could be far different if everyone would assume personal responsibility for observing the simple rules of fire safety at home and on the job. Fire Prevention Week, which this year falls in the period of

Autumn Rainfall Of .93 Inch Is Received Sunday

An autumn rain and windstorm which struck this area on Sunday night, brought almost an inch of rain here, with a similar or heavier precipitation reported throughout this area. The downpour was accompanied by a severe electrical and thunderstorm which continued for about an hour. Precipitation here was measured at .93 inch by Sam Herren, U. S. Weather Bureau observer. The heavy rain halted gathering of the area's cotton crop which was just getting under way. However, resumption of the harvest was reported in some sections of the county on Tuesday afternoon.

visitors 113 yards rushing and a stingy 18 yards through the air. The Indians scored in every quarter, and controlled the Raiders throughout the game. The visitors managed to penetrate to the Haskell five on one series of downs, following an Indian fumble on the Tribe's 22, but a stubborn defense stopped the drive cold. The Indians marched 38 yards for the first score, three minutes deep in the initial period. Quarterback Jerry Hadaway powered through the Raider line from the 10 for a TD. Conversion attempt failed. Haskell's second TD came late in the first when the Raiders were forced to punt from their 30. Joe Thigpen, deep safety man for the Indians, took the kick at his 30, outmaneuvered the onrushing Raiders and raced 70 yards to paydirt. End Lonnie Sturdy's kick for extra point was good. In the second frame, it was Thigpen again when the Indians took over on the Raider 28. The fleet back plowed into the Raider secondary and out-ran his defenders 68 yards for his second TD of the game. Point after try failed. In the final minutes of the second, Hadaway recovered a Raider fumble on the Visitors' 24 and on the first play from scrimmage Indian Back Dwight Stone skirted right side and paced off 84 yards to the pay zone. Sturdy's kick was good. In the third, when the Raiders were forced to punt, Hadaway took the punt on his 20 and behind perfect interference raced down the sidelines for 80 yards and a TD. Sturdy's kick was good. In the final period, after taking over on the Rider 26, the Indians moved to the visitor's 38 in four downs. At that point, Quarterback Jerry Kregger bowled through to the Rider secondary, picked up blockers and scooted 84 yards for a TD. Kick for extra point was wide, to end the night's scoring.

Welcome to the Homecoming!

This week is being observed as Homecoming Week in Haskell, with special emphasis on two "red letter" days—Friday and Saturday, Oct. 6 and 7—which have been designated as official dates for this year's Homecoming.

These two days have been set apart for a reunion and get-together of all Ex-students, former teachers and patrons of Haskell Schools.

That they will be here in numbers is a foregone fact, judging from advance registrations, which include Exes ranging from Classes of the late '50s back to the '90s.

And as the Exes mingle in groups and class reunions the calendar will be turned back time and again in re-living school-day happenings spanning three-quarters of a century.

All Haskell joins in welcoming the Exes and in wishing for them the happiest Homecoming ever. Let your hair down and have fun as you recapture the youthful spirit of schooldays once again!

Fire Prevention Is Everybody's Job

Throughout the year, fire strikes an average of 800 American homes every day.

Every three-quarters of an hour, fire takes a life somewhere in the United States.

And, the tragic thing about these fires is that thousands of them could have been avoided. They should never have happened.

It is a reminder of this fact that the nation is observing Fire Prevention Week from October 8 to 14.

Nearly one-fourth of all fires in this country are caused by matches and smoking, according to the National Board of Fire Underwriters; another 20 per cent are the result of misuse of electrical equipment.

Simply by using care with matches and lighted cigarettes, cigars, and pipes, we can hold down our vast fire toll.

By keeping matches away from children we can prevent them from starting fires.

By making sure that all of our electric appliances are in good repair, we can reduce the possibility of fire still further.

That is one of the truths being stressed during Fire Prevention Week this year.

Fire Prevention Week always falls in the week containing October 9, for it was on that date in 1871 that the Great Chicago Fire broke out. The Chicago Fire took 250 lives and destroyed 17,530 buildings and other property worth $175,000,000. In terms of today's construction costs, the Chicago property damage would have run into billions.

The Great Chicago Fire, in addition to being tragic and costly, had one constructive facet—it made America fire conscious.

Fire last year took the lives of 11,350 persons. And fire losses in the United States have exceeded $1 billion for four years in a row.

It is to the interest of all to rededicate ourselves to care with fire at this time, during Fire Prevention Week and every week.

An informant from Abilene tells us that the administrator in charge of the district office handling unemployment compensation was "stumped" by an application filed recently.

Applicant for unemployment benefits listed his trade/profession as "Bank President," stated he was out of work, and unable to find employment in his chosen profession.

We are awaiting a further report from Abilene as to what action was taken on the application.

The people of O'Brien are to be commended for the care and attention they devote to the community cemetery, a Haskell couple said recently after visiting the small community in Northwest Haskell County.

The burial plot was as neat as the best-kept lawn in Haskell, with not a weed to be seen," the couple declared, asking that their names not be used.

We don't know who is due credit, but we're passing the verbal bouquet along to O'Brien Mayor Elvin Mathis.

Although they've been married 35 years, a stranger would come nearer judging Mr. and Mrs. James Kennedy of Seminole as being not too many years past that age themselves based on their actions and their always evident zest for life and their eagerness for helping others whether they be friend or stranger.

The Kennedys, who moved from Haskell to Rankin more than 10 years ago, still have a host of friends here who delight to have them back on their frequent visits. To illustrate the Kennedy's knack of making friends, they number among their acquaintances several people who have moved here since they left. The Kennedys simply make it a point to make friends of everyone they meet when they are back in Haskell for a visit.

Here Friday on business, the Kennedys were also observing their 35th wedding anniversary on Sept. 29. Parents of eight children, they now have 14 grandchildren. Six of their children are married. Two still at home are their twin daughters, now sophomores in Texas Tech at Lubbock.

Kennedy, a veteran employee of Shell Pipe Line Corporation, is one of the most active men we've ever known. Brimming over with energy, he is always on the go, and no matter what the job, "Jim" as he is known to friends, will get it done quickly.

Seemingly tireless, Jim thinks nothing of driving several hundred miles overnight if necessary, without any interference with his daily work schedule.

While living here, Jim had some land in Colorado planted in wheat. On weekends and when he had a day off, it was not unusual for Jim to drive to Colorado to see after his wheat crop and be back in town almost without being missed.

We recall once when Jim met a friend in Payne Drug Store one evening. As they talked, Jim mentioned his wheat crop in Colorado and remarked, "Why don't you go with me up there and see it?" The friend, thinking Jim had reference to some future time, replied, "I'd sure be glad to, and see some of that Colorado country."

Jim's car was parked in front of the drug store, and he invited his friend to get in. The friend, thinking Jim meant to take him home, got in the car.

They turned north on the highway and breezed along to the north city limits when the friend asked, "Say, Jim, you've passed my street, where are we headed?"

When Kennedy answered that he thought his friend was going to Colorado with him, some fast explanations were in order that left both men laughing. It turned out that Kennedy was starting to Colorado on one of his quick trips, while the friend had in mind accompanying him at some later date.

The town of Stamford, established in 1900, was on a "boom" in 1902 when a young dentist, Dr. J. H. Rutherford, moved there to begin practice. However, many settlers moving in to West Texas were not accustomed to "big town" conveniences and tooth-pulling was a do-it-yourself operation in most instances.

Being a versatile young man, Dr. Rutherford supplemented his income by taking the position of court reporter when the 38th Judicial District was created. The arrangement worked out nicely, since neither court business nor dental work was rushing, but combined, provided a good income.

As settlers continued to stream in, Stamford grew rapidly and by 1906 Dr. Rutherford's dental practice demanded almost all his time. Court business was increasing also to the point that the post of court reporter was practically a full time job.

So, in 1906, after having been court reporter four years, Dr. Rutherford reluctantly gave up the post in the legal profession to devote his time to the growing and more lucrative practice of dentistry.

"It was a hard decision to make, principally because of the close association and friendship with men like Judge H. R. Jones, Cullen Higgins, Jim Stinson as well as the lawyers throughout the district," Dr. Rutherford said.

He operated a dental office and clinic in Stamford for more than four decades until his retirement several years ago. He is proud of the progress this section has made during the 60 years he has lived in West Texas and considers it the "garden spot" of the state, inhabited by the best people to be found anywhere.

When fishermen started catching 20, 30 and 40-pound yellow catfish in Lake Stamford for a few years ago, we thought the big fish were some that had been in the deeper holes on Paint Creek when the stream was dammed to create the lake. Possibly a half dozen or so big "cats" would be the limit on the really large fish, we thought.

It didn't turn out that way, however, because the big fish are still being caught regularly.

Recently Lloyd Conner of Haskell showed up with a 54-pound yellow cat.

More recently, M. P. Todd and three other Lubbock men caught a 50-pound yellow cat and several "smaller" fish ranging from 37 pounds to 11 and 7 pounders.

And women have been catching their share of the big ones, too. Two weeks ago, Beatrice Watson and her sister, Thelma Howard, caught two whopping yellow cats, one weighing 51 pounds, the other 38, on a trot-line set out near Watson's Camp on the lake. Mrs. Watson and her husband operate the camp, and she occasionally finds time to do a little fishing.

Mention was made of the county's bumper cotton crop in 1914 recently which resulted in the first importation of Negroes to this section in large numbers.

Although they made a lot of cotton, Haskell County farmers realized very little money and practically no profit at all from the crop, due to the break in price.

With the start of World War I on Aug. 1, 1914, cotton markets of the world were demoralized, and the price of cotton dipped to 5 cents a pound just as the harvesting of the 1914 crop started here.

Movements were started throughout the South to bolster the price. One patriotic plea which caught fancy was for businessmen to "Buy a Bale at 10 Cents." Virtually every business

W. H. (Bill) Barnett, former resident of Haskell who is now employed in Houston, was a visitor in Haskell this week. He was getting around on crutches as the result of a serious injury to his left foot received in a fall recently.

Ralph E. Duncan, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce since its reorganization in 1936, has volunteered in the U. S. Air Force. He was inducted at Lubbock Tuesday, and was sent to Fort Sill, Okla., where he will be stationed for several days.

H. B. (Red) Leathers, manager of the Rita and Texas Theatres here, has enlisted in the U. S. Naval Reserve. He will report for active service Oct. 5 with a Seabees unit at Norfolk, Va.

First shipment was made from Haskell this week of an estimated 106 cars of 40-inch pipe, being taken up from the abandoned Magnolia pipeline through Haskell and Throckmorton Counties. The pipe is being shipped to Louisiana for use in a line under construction there.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Marrs and sons, Gary and Ronnie, of Dallas, are visiting relatives and friends here this week.

Up to noon Thursday, a total of 4,098 bales of cotton had been ginned by Haskell gins from the 1942 crop. The six local plants are running day and night. Farmers report a scarcity of workers and state at least 2,000 more persons could be used in the harvest.

At the meeting of the Local Board Friday, nine registrants were placed in Class 1-A, subject to immediate call for military service. Placed in 1-A were Wilmer Smith, Tommie Hulen Atchison, Asford Neal Proffitt, Durvin Raymond Green, George Marshal Gideon, Jack Melvin Mapes, Earl Eugene Mincey, Durward Elmo Livengood, Charlie Allen.

More than 100,000 pounds of scrap metal have been started on their way from Haskell County farms to the nation's war plants since the start of the Scrap Metal Salvage campaign three weeks ago. This was reported today by P. W. Warren, who is in charge of the PWA trucks gathering up the metal.

Mrs. J. L. Southern of this city assumed the position of acting Postmaster last Friday morning, succeeding H. C. Foote who has held the position since June 16, 1929. Mr. and Mrs. Foote and children have moved to Denton, where their son and daughters are attending school. Mrs. Southern will serve as postmaster until a permanent appointment is made through the Civil Service.

The six-room residence of Mrs. A. J. Norman a few blocks northeast of the square, was destroyed by fire around midnight Sunday. Mrs. Willie Norman and two children, only occupants of the house, barely awakened in time to escape from the burning structure.

Buick's New Electra 225 For 1962

The clean, uncluttered styling of Buick for 1962 is exemplified in the Electra 225 series with its sporty new roofline and its tailored rear decklid with the wind-split down the center. The long, sweeping lines of the front and rear fenders make the car look bigger without increasing its size. The new roofline with its wide, sloping rear pillars identify the Electra 225 series, one of the most luxurious cars in the fine car field. Passenger comfort has been improved for 1962 by the almost complete elimination of the transmission hump in the floor of the front passenger compartment. The Electra 225 is powered by a 401 cubic inch V-8 engine with four-barrel carburetor, coupled with Buick's smooth Turbine Drive transmission.

County Teachers Meet In Rule for First In-Service Training Session

In their first In-Service Training meeting of the year the teachers of Haskell County Schools met Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 27, at Rule. The program was on Guidance and Counseling, with C. D. Holmes, superintendent of Industrial Consolidated School at Vanderbilt, Texas, as consultant.

Mr. Holmes has developed an outstanding program of Guidance and Counseling in his own school system during recent years, and presented to his audience a discussion of his experiences in personal, academic and vocational counseling. Dwelling mainly on personal counseling, he presented a plan he uses for each student to select a faculty advisor, and have scheduled interview periods. He stressed his belief that the classroom teacher, who is better acquainted with the student, is the one who should be the counselor. The teachers were advised that in every instance the interview with the pupil should be kept strictly confidential.

Previous to the meeting with the teachers, a morning session was held with high school students during which time he acquainted them with the idea of each student having a faculty advisor, or counselor, on a regular scheduled counseling period with his chosen counselor at regular intervals. There are two kinds of problems, he stated, that his teachers are instructed not to discuss with the students—problems of sex and problems concerning religion. In such instances they direct the student to the school nurse, or to his pastor, when he prefers not to discuss it with his parents.

The schools participating in the In-Service Training Program include O'Brien, Weinert, Mattson, Paint Creek, Sager-ton, Rochester and Rule. With few exceptions, all the teachers from all the schools were present, and the high school students from the same schools were present for the morning session.

The next meeting in the In-Service Training program will be on the afternoon of Wednesday, Oct. 18, at Rule, with the subject of "Teaching Americanism" to be studied. Edward L. Kirk of Abilene Christian College will present the program.

Wichita-Brazos Soil Conservation District News

Carl Bailey, who farms five miles north of Haskell has just completed terracing his entire farm. Bailey started his terracing work two years ago. Bailey is a firm believer in terraces and contour farming. He says it increases the water holding ability of his land and aids in protecting it from erosion. He planted grain sorghums on the strips of land where terrace lines had previously been laid out so as not to interfere with his cotton acres.

M. W. Plemister of Weinert used this same method to bring about the completion of his terrace system just recently. A minimum of fifty feet is all that is needed to permit terrace construction. This allowed both Plemister and Bailey to build their terraces whenever the services of a contractor could be secured.

J. A. Hill Sr. of Munday, who farms east of Weinert about five miles, recently placed his farm under agreement with the District. SCS Technicians H. A. McGowen and Harry Koehler assisted Hill in developing a basic conservation plan and laying out a terrace system. The terraces have just been completed. R. C. Couch Jr. of Haskell, has recently completed terracing two fields, and plans to complete another soon.

L. W. Norman of Rule recently placed a new farm he purchased under agreement with the District. The farm lies west of the Brazos River. Norman was assisted in developing his basic plan by SCS Technician J. C. Yeary. Three farm ponds were constructed on the farm to supply needed livestock water. Assistance was furnished by SCS Technician Koehler, Claude Thompson and Don Holley.

Sam H. Smith of Haskell was assisted by SCS Technician McGowen in developing two new basic plans on farms he has recently purchased.

R. L. Edwards of Weinert developed a new basic plan on his farm northeast of Weinert, and revised a basic plan on his farm at Weinert. He was assisted by SCS Technician Yeary.

District Supervisors are urging all farmers and ranchers in the Wichita-Brazos Soil Conservation District to take full advantage of the opportunities that are being offered them through the combined services of the District and the Soil Conservation Service. Henry V. Smith of Mattson and Herman D. Gammill of Rochester serve that portion of the District as Supervisors that the Haskell Work Unit of SCS services.

Mr. and Mrs. Freddie Carl Middleton are making their home at 600 North 3rd St., Haskell, after their wedding Sept. 15. The bride is the former Judy Carol Wiseman, daughter of Mrs. Guy I. Turner and H. A. Wiseman of Freeport, Tex.

The double ring ceremony uniting the couple was solemnized in the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Middleton, 606 North Avenue G, in Haskell. Officiating was the Rev. Rogers L. Durham of the First Christian Church in this city. A profusion of gold chrysanthemums and tall candles in floor holders formed the background for the ceremony.

Questions and Answers About the 1962 Wheat Stabilization Plan

By F. W. MARTIN, County Agent

Q—Does a producer have to sign up for the W. S. P. even though a 10 percent mandatory cut has been made in the wheat allotment?

A—Yes, if he expects to collect payment for acreage diverted to conserving use.

Q—What is necessary in order to be eligible for price support on 1962 wheat crop?

A—To be eligible for price support, the allotment cannot be exceeded and the producer must have at least the minimum participation in the W. S. P. which includes the conserving use acceptable to county ASC committee. Price support is limited to cooperators in the designated commercial wheat producing areas (all of Texas included).

Q—On a small farm, is it possible to get payment for retained acreage but not be eligible for price support?

A—Yes, payments will be made for acreage retired as prescribed in the regulations. However, price supports will be available only to those who comply with their allotments.

Q—Is it possible for a farmer to receive a smaller acreage allotment than his highest wheat acreage of the last three years?

A—Yes, chiefly because the smaller farmer previously was permitted to exceed his acreage allotment and plant up to 15 acres if he did not want price support, and still not be subject to marketing quota penalty.

Q—If a producer has a 5-acre wheat allotment and has planted as much as 15 acres in one of the last three years, but now plants 13.5 acres (for 1962) can he sell the entire production of the 13.5 acres without a penalty?

A—Yes. He is not eligible for price support, but he can sell the entire production without penalty. The larger exemption is granted him, but the allotment comes into play on the penalty application in case of overplanting this exemption.

Q—If a producer has a five-acre wheat allotment but has been customarily planting 15 acres, must he reduce from the allotment or the 15 acres? And, what is the maximum amount he can reduce?

A—The producer is permitted to reduce from the 15 acres which is his highest planted acreage during the past three years. The maximum acreage eligible for payment is 10 acres.

NOTE: If the producer had planted more than 15 acres in any of the last three years, the diverted allowance must be taken on the allotment; which if less than 10 acres would be the maximum diversion permitted.

Q—What about the methods of determining amount of minimum and maximum diversion (participation)?

A—If the wheat acreage in any one of the years 1959, 1960 or 1961 is greater than 15 acres, the computation of the minimum 10 percent and additional 30 percent diversion is based on the allotment Option 2 only. If the farm has no allotment and a highest planted acreage of 15 acres or less, the diversion must be under Option 1.

NOTE: If the allotment is zero, and the highest planted acreage is over 15 acres, the farm is not eligible for participation in the W.S.P. nor diverted acres. A: yet there is no assurance that growers with new wheat allotments will receive price support. There is a possibility—watch for clarification on this point.

Minimum Participation: Option 1: 10 percent of highest actual acreage, provided acreage did not exceed 15 acres in either 1959, 1960 or 1961. Option 2: 11.1 percent of the 1962 allotment (includes anyone who exceeded 15 acres in any year).

NOTE: The 11.1 percent of 1962 allotment actually reflects 10 percent of an allotment computed for the farm on the basis of the "old" national allotment of at least 55 million acres.

Maximum Participation: The producer may voluntarily divert up to three times the minimum diversion under Option 1 or 2 (whichever applies) or enough to make a total of 10 acres. However, the total diversion may not exceed the larger of, (a) highest acreage planted for harvest in any one of the years 1959, 1960 or 1961 in excess of 10, (b) the 1962 wheat allotment.

Q—What is the penalty for exceeding the allotment or permitted acres on farms with

Haskell Soldier In 3rd Armored Unit in Germany

GRAFENWOHR, GERMANY (AHTNC)—Army Pvt. Julius D. Hunt, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence E. Hunt, 222 N. Avenue I, Haskell, Texas, recently participated with other personnel from the 3d Armored Division's 36th Infantry in a four-week field training exercise in Grafenwohr, Germany.

During the exercise, members of the "Spearhead" division participated in day and night tactical maneuvers and various types of range firing.

The 3d is one of five U. S. divisions in NATO's "Pyramid of Power" in Europe.

Hunt is a rifleman in the infantry's Company C, which is regularly located in Kirch Gorb.

The former Haskell High School student entered the Army in February 1961 and completed basic training at Ft. Hood before arriving overseas in July.

He attended Haskell High School.

Pvt. Edwin Neeley Now Stationed In Hawaii

HONOLULU (AHTNC)—Army Pvt. Edwin G. Neeley, son of Mrs. Mary B. Merchant, 502 South Avenue G, Haskell, Texas, arrived in Hawaii Sept. 18 and is now assigned as a supply clerk at Tripler General Hospital in Honolulu.

Neeley entered the Army last April and received basic training at Fort Hood, Texas.

The 17-year-old soldier attended Haskell High School.

Suffocation Now Takes Lives of Many Children

Disease, at one time, was the principal killer of children. But modern medicines and vaccines are so effective today that diseases don't kill nearly as many children as do accidents.

One of the greatest hazards, especially for children under four years, is suffocation, according to F. C. Hipp, Lone Star Gas Company Manager.

Lone Star and The Free Press are co-sponsors of the 1961 Home Safety Program in Haskell.

Approximately 1,400 Americans a year die from suffocation. Of this total, 1,250 are in the 0-4 age group.

Infections of the respiratory system cause some fatalities. Reports also show that babies have been smothered by becoming entangled in bed covering or their own clothing; that others have strangled in gagging after vomiting; some have been suffocated by smoke; and still others have choked to death after having swallowed loose objects.

"Babies and toddlers pop just about everything into their mouths," Hipp said. "Small items must be kept out of reach. These include pins, needles, buttons, beads, tiny toys, peanuts or peas or popcorn, doll's eyes that may be loosened and swallowed, rattles containing stones or shot which might be swallowed if the rattle is broken, and marbles and caps from bottles, cans and toothpaste.

"At bedtime, for protection against smothering, the child should have his own crib without a pillow. Soft bedding should be avoided. Do not let blankets cover his face. His sleeping clothes should not be tight around his neck. Beware of thin plastic mattress covers.

"Hold him when he is being fed. He may choke if left alone with his bottle propped.

"Do not give a small child anything to play with, such as plastic bags, blankets, sheets, etc., which might cause smothering.

"Teach the child to avoid kitchen appliances and electric cords. Keep knives and other sharp objects out of the reach of children," Hipp concluded.

From 1841 to 1876 the Declaration of Independence hung, unprotected, before a window on the wall of the Patent Office.

Weinert Pioneer To Observe 90th Birthday Oct. 6

C. T. Theodore Jones, pioneer rancher and farmer of Haskell County and longtime resident of the Weinert area, will celebrate his 90th birthday Friday, Oct. 6 at the family home northeast of Weinert.

October also brings another milestone for the pioneer rancher and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jones were married in 1916 and will observe their 45th wedding anniversary on Oct. 5.

No special observance is being planned for either occasion, but Mr. and Mrs. Jones are always happy to have friends and neighbors to come by for a visit.

Mr. Jones came to Haskell County with his parents in 1888 when he was 17 years old. His father established a ranch northeast of where the town of Weinert was later to be located.

Mr. and Mrs. Jones live today in the old ranch "homeplace," an early day landmark. One of the first permanent homes in that area, it was on the main road between Haskell and Seymour and was a frequent stopping place for the mail hack and stagecoach traveling between the two county seat towns.

K. H. Thornton to Assist TEC In Placing Workers

K. H. Thornton of this city has been employed by the Texas Employment Commission as interviewer in labor placement in the Haskell area during the cotton harvesting season.

Thornton's principal duties will be to contact migratory workers sent to this area by TEC and direct them to potential employers. His efforts will be to assist both farmers and workers in meeting labor and employment needs.

Since most of the workers sent here will be coming from the south, Thornton will station himself at Women's Station south of the square on Highway 277. However, he will make regular calls at area farms. He can also be contacted at his home in this city.

Introducing A New Column

(Editor's Note: This is the first in a series of weekly messages to appear in this space each week. We believe you will enjoy this brief column. Read it each week.)

Having lived my "Three score and ten years" and advancing far toward four score years, I have enjoyed many happy experiences and yet have had many bad days with my fear and HOME TAILOR-ED—troubles the most of which have never happened.

It is my hope in this column to ask you such questions as will fit into your daily living and help you solve your "knotty problems."

My prayer for today: "Oh, would some gift the Giffie get us to see ourselves as others see us"

Question for today: IS IT TRUE? "Every act of man, every move or motive, whether it be noble or ignoble, forward or backward, is limited and defined to fit the precision of his thinking."

Ford introduces for 1962 two distinguished new series: Galaxie & Galaxie/500 Enduring elegance... with the power to please With Thunderbird styling . . . Swift as a rumor, silent as a secret, Galaxie '62 has the timeless distinction and talent for travel of the Thunderbird that inspired it. Every quick quiet mile whispers: here is a new standard of quality. And every luxurious detail confirms it. This is the car that introduces twice-a-year maintenance. Routine service is reduced to 30,000 miles on many items such as major lubrications, twice a year or 6,000 miles on the rest. We suggest you see the new Galaxie and Galaxie/500 (shown above) for yourself. We are confident you will agree: it's pointless to pay more to settle for less.
