Doctors and Hospital Officials Warn Against Worthless Health Insurance

Because many people in Haskell and vicinity have paid out good money for so-called "hospitalization insurance" that is virtually worthless, local physicians and hospital officials have expressed concern. They urge prospective purchasers of health insurance to make certain they are dealing with responsible agents.

Hallie Chapman, administrator of the Haskell County Hospital, and as spokesman for the Baylor-Knox-Haskell County Medical Society, released the following statement Wednesday:

"It has come to our attention so frequently in the past several months that a great many people are buying hospitalization insurance from door-to-door salesmen which is often entirely worthless that we felt obligated to call the matter to the attention of the general public.

"There are plenty of honest insurance agents in our local communities who live here and are available in case a policy does not turn out as represented. We therefore, urge you to buy your insurance from people you know and can trust."

Biblical Film, Day of Triumph, Showing Today

Brought to Haskell under auspices of the Progressive Study Club, an outstanding Biblical film, "Day of Triumph" is showing today at the Texas Theatre.

The women's club is to be congratulated for bringing this film to Haskell. It is all too seldom that our local public is afforded an opportunity to view such a magnificent work.

County schools saw the film at a matinee yesterday. Haskell schools are to be let out to see it this afternoon.

Indicating the excellence of the film are the following comments:

"Beautiful, powerful."—United Church Women.

"A production rich in artistic and dramatic values!"—Protestant Motion Picture Council.

"Tremendously moving and inspiring."—National Council of Women of the U. S.

"It has rare beauty, great value, magnificently directed and presented... don't miss it!"—General Federation of Women's Clubs.

"Inspiring motion picture!"—American Weekly.

"Handsomely produced, reverent depiction of Our Lord's last two years on earth... visually appealing... technically fine!"—The Sign.

"Robert Wilson combines an extraordinary likeness to Christ with an uncanny blend of simplicity and sincerity which makes his characterization altogether imposing."—Joanne Dru is seen to great effect as Mary Magdalene.

"Day of Triumph" strikes exactly the proper note of respect and reverence!"—The Catholic World.

Life Magazine gave "Day of Triumph" honor with a three-page layout. American Weekly Sunday supplement devoted a two-page center spread in full color. The picture received the Christian Herald "Picture of the Month" award. Showings are at 2:45 p. m., 7 p. m. and 9:30 p. m. today. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

Rotarians Shown Film of Stored Hospital Unit

Members of the Rotary Club were given a better realization of the steps being taken to provide medical and hospital care for people of this area in the event of disaster or enemy attack when they were shown a film of the prepositioned emergency hospitals provided by the U. S. Government.

The film was shown by Chas. Swinson, who was instrumental in securing one of the emergency units for storage in Haskell.

The film showed how the 200-bed emergency hospital could be set up, complete with laboratory and operating room, in event of national emergency.

The entire hospital unit is self-contained, and includes a generator to provide electricity, together with water pumps, filters, etc.

Mr. Swinson explained that plans were being made at this time to organize a local Civilian Defense unit in connection with the emergency hospital project.

MARGARET FISCHER

Candidates will have their opening, and an awakening interest in county and state politics is expected to be evident as a result of the season's first Political Rally, scheduled Friday night, April 22, in Weinert.

The event is being sponsored by the Weinert Study Club and will be held in the Weinert School Auditorium, beginning at 7:30 p. m.

Candidates for office, from Governor to Precinct Constable, have been invited to speak during the evening, and the program is expected to attract the largest gathering of voters of the current campaign.

Mrs. Wanda Vojkufka will emcee the evening's program and introduce the speakers.

Entertainment features will include musical numbers by Weinert young people, and there will be an auction sale of pies and cakes with Thos. B. Robertson of Haskell as auctioneer. Coffee will be served in the Home Ec room of Weinert High School.

In addition to talks by candidates, County Clerk Horace Oneal will give a brief outline of changes in the election law. Highlight of the evening will come at the conclusion of the speaking program, when the Study Club will present two World Atlas books to the Weinert Schools, one to the grade school and another to the high school department. Proceeds from the political rally will help pay for the books.

Gov. Price Daniel and his opponent, Jack Cox, both have written the Weinert club expressing regret that previous engagements prevented them attending the rally. However, Cox indicated he would try to have a representative speak in his behalf.

Headlining the list of speakers already booked are State Senator George Moffett and the three candidates for State Representative, Bill Sans of Knox County, Herman K. Henry and J. C. (Carl) Wheatley both of Haskell.

All county and precinct candidates have been allotted time on the program, including candidates whose precinct does not include Weinert.

Haskell Will Host All-Day Singing Convention Sunday

Plans have been completed and everything is in readiness for the 37th annual program of the Haskell County Singing Convention, to be held Sunday, April 24, at the American Legion Building in this city.

The all-day program is expected to attract a record crowd of singers and music lovers, and plans are being made to accommodate 1,000 or more singers and visitors, convention president Hallie Chapman said.

Among quartets which have accepted invitations to the program are the Tankersley Quartet of Knox City, Stamps-Baxter Quartet of Dallas, and others. Many outstanding and well known quartets, trios, and soloists will be on hand.

The program will begin at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, and will continue throughout the afternoon.

A brief business session will be held at 1 p. m., for the election of officers and any other business coming before the convention.

Plenty of parking space will be available on grounds around the Legion Building, while picnic tables and other facilities in nearby Rice Springs Park will be available for family groups attending the singing.

The county convention was organized in 1923, and annual programs have been held on the fourth Sunday in April since then. Hallie Chapman of this city has served as president of the convention since 1938. Truett Cobb is vice president, and Mrs. Troy Ash is secretary.

Film on Cancer Will Be Shown Free Monday

An educational film on cancer will be shown free, to adults only, Monday evening, April 25 at the High School Auditorium, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Title of the film is "Never Alone" and it presents in an interesting and educational manner numerous little known facts about cancer, its treatment and the progress being made against the disease.

Showing of the film in Haskell is sponsored by the American Cancer Society.

Local sponsors arranging the program urge all adults in the community to see the film. "Come, see, learn. It may help save your life or that of a loved one," sponsors said.

Life is longer for most people, and the longer it lasts the more cancer becomes a problem, Dr. R. A. Middleton of this city points out.

"This is not to say that the disease is one of old age," he continued, "but the longer the years the greater the chance for cancer occurring."

The great battle of polio is over; victory has been won over the staphylococcus and streptococcus, but the forces of medicine are just now being marshaled against the "wild cell." These forces must be supplied, reinforced, and encouraged if the battle of health is to be won. This is your battle of peace. Thirty-seven of your neighbors will die from cancer this year in Haskell County. Help save their lives and yours by learning the seven danger signals—then join the fight against cancer with a check-up and a check."

Farmers Receive G-P Contracts

James C. Alvis of Haskell and Felton Jackson of Goree, cooperating with the Wichita-Brazos Soil Conservation District in Haskell County have recently received their approved Great Plains Conservation Program Contracts.

Judge Alvis is reorganizing his entire farming operation, converting from crop farming to livestock farming with small grains. Jackson is improving his pasture and native ranges. Both producers plan to do brush control and construct livestock water ponds. Alvis will convert several acres of cropland to native range grasses.

According to J. C. Yeary Jr., Soil Conservation Service, these two contracts bring the total of Great Plains contracts in Haskell County to 23. Total Federal funds obligated for the cost-sharing practices planned on the 23 contracts amounts to $58,260.

Residents are again reminded that members of the club will canvass the city, Friday, and those in need of mops, brooms, clothes brushes and clothes hangers, are to purchase the items, as funds obtained from the project will not only help support local worthwhile Lions Club projects, but in turn will benefit the Texas Lighthouse for the Blind.

Council Approves Ordinance Granting Gas Rate Increase

The City Council, at a special meeting Monday night, approved an ordinance granting Lone Star Gas Company an increase of 5.4 cents per thousand cubic feet in each step of its rates for residential and commercial gas service.

District Manager Smith explained that the increase to the average residential user of natural gas would amount to slightly more than one cent per day.

On Feb. 15, 1960, the Railroad Commission of Texas issued an order authorizing an increase in the city gas rate of 5.4 cents per MCF. The rate revision requested by Lone Star is the exact amount of the increased charge at the city gate ordered by the railroad commission.

The gas company representatives emphasized that the requested increase will only offset the increased cost of gas to the distribution division at the city gate. The rate now in effect in Haskell was based on our 1951 cost of service, yet the costs of serving

C. of C. Directors Approve Plans For Downtown Sign

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce, at their monthly breakfast meeting Tuesday, approved a plan to install a changeable neon type sign at a downtown location to help publicize local events.

Cost of the proposed sign was estimated at approximately $1,500. It will be similar to ones that have been installed at Stamford and Seymour. Easily read in the daytime and illuminated in neon color at night, the sign would publicize coming events and activities. Messages could be easily changed, it was explained.

If a satisfactory method for financing the project can be worked out, the sign will be installed at an early date. Location will probably be on the northwest corner of the court house lawn.

The problem of solicitors, after being discussed by several businessmen present, was referred to the Merchants Planning Committee, composed of Wallace Cox Jr., George Fouts, Mrs. Olen Dotson, Mrs. Viars Felker, Mrs. Barney Frazier, Mrs. W. A. Lyles.

Spring Clean-Up Week

Across the country homeowners are in the midst of Spring house-cleaning, throwing out rubbish and waste that accumulated during the winter, and sprucing up their yards.

This will be the pattern in Haskell during the coming week, which has been officially designated as Spring Clean-Up Week. Records show that making things spic and span in the Spring has become an American tradition.

It was nearly a half century ago that the first organized community campaigns for Spring Clean-Up were conducted in the Middle West. Their original purpose was to rid homes and yards of litter, but many also undertook programs of fire prevention education and home and community beautification.

Targets of the Clean-Up were cellars, attics, backyards, vacant lots, alleys, streets, and parks.

Some communities in fact were so pleased with the Spring Clean-Up results that they made civic neatness a continuing year-round campaign.

Homeowners also have learned that throwing out waste and rubbish not only makes a home more attractive but also contributes to home fire safety. And since three out of every four fires is the result of human carelessness or forgetfulness, Spring Clean-Up Week provides an opportunity for householders to throw out combustible trash on which fires can feed.

Be a good citizen: Don't forget to do your part in promoting fire safety by cleaning up your home and premises during Clean-Up Week.

High-Priced Door-Knobs

First it was $100,000 homes for college presidents. Now it's $36 door-knobs for the State Office Building that have cost-conscious legislators blowing their tops.

Legislation went through an arduous seven-months tax raising session last year to scrape up enough money to keep state services going. Despite all the problems and criticisms they weathered, it wasn't enough. Now they are face to face with the prospect of another deficit next year and the need to raise more taxes.

It is in this not-so-rosy setting that the House Committee on Saving Taxes is checking into how state money has, and is being spent. When they heard that the terrazzo floors in the brand new State Office Building has cracked, committee members decided to investigate further into the $3,793,000 building.

They learned that the air conditioning system vibrated excessively; that the building had 1,000 elaborate door knobs, costing $36 apiece; and that there were telephone booths in the hallways lined with expensive marble. Some offices had no doors.

They noted that the Texas Employment Commission Building, just across the street and to the casual observer equally as handsome, cost only $14.33 per square foot compared to $17.40 for the State Office Building.

Cracked floors now are being removed and replaced by the contractor, at no cost to the state. Efforts are under way to smooth out the knocks in the air conditioning. Legislators are unhappy at the lack of supervision and inspection while the building was under construction.

PEOPLE, PLACES AND THINGS

By A. PATE

Scores of estimates on Haskell's population have been received, and the winner will be announced as soon as the first preliminary report is available from the Census Bureau.
Some are predicting a sizeable gain over the 1950 figure, while others forecast a decline in population of the town as well as the county.

Oldtimers claim that Haskell's peak population was around 1909 or 1910 when it was estimated at more than 5,000.

Settlers flocked to the area with the completion of the Wichita Valley Railway in 1907-08 and the town was experiencing its biggest boom.

Although the 1910 census gave Haskell's population as 2,346, the local Board of Trade supported its claim of 5,000-plus by citing that the city had a chartered Elks Club, national fraternal organization which would not grant a charter in a town under 5,000. That was solid proof, claimed the Board of Trade, regardless of what the Census Bureau said.

Clean-Up Week scheduled for observance April 23-30 has not always been an entirely voluntary program in Haskell and many other towns.

When the town was first incorporated, back around 1908, city tax levies authorized by the Council included a City Poll Tax and a Street Tax. The Poll Tax was levied against all persons subject to the State Poll Tax. The Street Tax was an annual obligation on all able-bodied men between 21 and 60 years old.

Persons failing to pay the Street Tax were called out for one day's work on city streets. Enforcement was in the hands of the City Marshal, and the officer usually waited until Clean-Up Week, then "cracked down" on the delinquent taxpayers.

Levying of the city poll and the street tax was discontinued around the mid-20's, although the city more than likely still has authority to assess and collect the tax.
In neighboring Seymour, we understand that payment of a city poll tax is an eligibility requirement for voting in city elections.

If you're superstitious, better circle next Sunday on your calendar and keep a weather-eye open on that date.
For years, the fourth Sunday in April has been date for the annual Haskell County Singing Convention.

And almost every year, the date of the singer's gathering coincides with one or two tornadoes in this immediate area. None have been too disastrous in recent years, but one or two minor "cyclones" can be expected to arrive on the day of the singing.

Some twenty-odd years ago, in 1936 or '38, seven "cyclones" were spotted during a single Sunday afternoon—and it was the date of the singing convention, too.
The worst tornado of the lot struck between Haskell and Rule and caused considerable destruction. Luckily, no persons were injured, but houses and barns were wrecked. At one farmhouse, where sheds and other small buildings had been demolished, several chickens were walking around, minus most of their feathers that had been plucked by the cyclone! That's a fact.

Commenting last week on the passing of the traditional Easter Egg hunt, it appears now that we just haven't kept abreast of the times. The hunts are still popular, they still have them for today's kiddies, and if anything on a larger scale than in olden times.
We know for a fact that Principal Hooper Wilkinson of Elementary School had to cut short his attendance at Rotary Club last week in order to get on with plans for the school's Easter Egg hunt, prior to dismissing for the Easter holidays.

And, we were advised of several children's parties during the weekend centering around the traditional Easter Egg hunt. Early Sunday morning, Mrs. Bill Holden and Mrs. Bob Herren were busily engaged in hiding candy Easter eggs for a group of little folks, an annual custom of the two women.

All of which proves we were off base in thinking Easter Egg hunts had been abandoned.

It points up the fact that Bob Herren was on target when he told us: "You'd better update your thinking, old boy, about Easter Egg hunts as well as a lot of other activities. There are plenty of things going on, just a younger bunch doing them."

Incidentally, Bob may be the grandfather of a future world's champion prizefighter. Bob was displaying a slightly swollen lower lip to friends Saturday with the proud explanation: "Grandson of mine did it. The little rascal just hauled off and slugged me in the kisser."

Deputy Sheriff Moreland Glass pulled one of those delayed fuse remarks on a group the other evening, reminiscent of some of Thos. B. Roberson's classical remarks.
The group was discussing the passing of a friend, and one fellow remarked: "He was one of the finest men I ever knew, never complained and was always ready to help. You don't see too many like that."

Deputy Glass chimed in: "You're right; there's not many of us like that left." Everybody nodded in agreement—except R. T. Landess, who looked startled for an instant and then exploded: "Where in the h--- do you get the US stuff? Why, you... you..." he sputtered as the crowd guffawed.

Nine times out of ten, Tom Roberson, being introduced to someone, will tell the stranger, "I am certainly glad you made my acquaintance."
To someone leaving his office after a visit: "Come back some day when you think I have time to talk to you."
Or, "Hope you have an opportunity to talk to me again some time."

THE SUPREME COURT OF TEXAS

to succeed Chief Justice Johnson who is retiring.

Judge Calvert has been Justice of the Supreme Court since 1950. He is the only member of the Court running for Chief Justice and is the only Candidate to have served on the COURT.

To my knowledge, Judge Calvert has the proven qualities of leadership and training to preside over the Court and its work. I am hoping you will vote for him for Chief Justice.

This Is Little League

Player Selection System

The purpose of any system of making up Little League teams, is to try out boys within the approved League boundaries—and this means all of the boys—so that eventually they may be selected on their ability to play base ball at any given position for which they are candidates.

There must be no discrimination in giving the boys a chance to try out. Viewed in its entirety, Little League has three dimensions: height, depth, and breadth. In its height, it aspires upward to a practical idealism and takes on a definite measure of what is good and true. In its depth, it penetrates to the best instincts—the very heart—of warm, red-blooded men and women, stimulating them,
holding their motives right,
and unselfish. In breadth, it embraces man and boy in every station and condition of life and establishes mutual rights and respect for each other.

The formation of leagues on any basis which would group boys into cliques, is to be avoided. One of the principles of Little League selection is to disrupt such cliques so that the boys may have an entirely new incentive in the team and the league in which they are playing. This idea means that no team should be composed of the students of a given school or the members of a certain church or any other organization. Every boy in the age bracket and residing within the league boundaries where Little League is must be given an equal chance to try out for the league.

1960 Little League Age
Chart For Regular Season Play: Boys born between these dates:
(Both inclusive) Are League
Age.

1948—12.
August 1, 1948 and July 31,

August 1, 1950 and July 31,
1951—9.
August 1, 1951 and July 31,
1952—8.

When the League is organized each manager is allowed 36,000 credits for the purchase of players. At the beginning of each subsequent season each manager shall receive 10,000 credits in addition to his unexpended credits from the previous season. Immediately preceding the auction, each manager shall receive an additional 2,000 credits for each player to whom he holds title and who can not play during the coming season, as a result of injuries, illness or moving beyond the boundaries of the League.

Any boy failing to attend at least 50 per cent of the spring training sessions will lose his status as a candidate unless he presents an excuse acceptable to all managers. During the spring training, each boy will be given an opportunity to bat and field in the position of his choice in competition with boys having the same league age.
These tryout periods will be conducted in the presence of all managers who may observe the ability of each boy. Each player purchased shall for the duration of his Little League career be the property of the team making the purchase, unless subsequently sold or released.

Haskell Little League has four major teams. These four team managers automatically become members of the governing body of the league. The object of this is to keep them league-minded, instead of exclusively team minded. Wallace Stark is the Manager of the Cubs; Jack Medford, Manager of the Hawks; Joe Harper, Manager of the Rams; and Volly Ivy is the Manager of the Tigers.

In cowboy terminology the box panner is a flat, narrow wooden box, usually covered with green rawhide with the hair on and lashed to the pack-saddle to carry camp equipment.

RESOLUTION
Whereas, It so pleased God, in His mercy and love, to take from our midst our beloved brother, Jake Stewart;
Be It Resolved:
That the Mattson community has lost a man who was always searching for ways and means to produce the highest type of morals, and better living conditions.

That he will be missed in the school system as a trustee, and by neighbors and friends.
Be It Further Resolved:
That we will greatly miss him in the Mattson Baptist Church. We will miss his counsel; also will be missed his talents, such as song leader, teacher of the Junior boys;
and also his wonderful spirit.

Be It Further Resolved:
That a copy of these resolutions be given to the family;
they be printed in The Haskell Free Press; and that they be put in the church record book.
Done by order of the Church in conference, this the 10th day of April, 1960.

Road Construction Started on Three Projects In County

On March 16, 1960, bids were taken and a contract was let by the Texas Highway Department in Austin for the construction of three Farm-to-Market roads in this area. This contract included 3.04 miles from FM 617 to State 283 to be designated as FM 2407, 5 miles from FM 617 to FM 2229 to be designated as FM 2163, and 3.65 miles from FM 618 to 3.65 miles east to be designated as FM 2082. The contract was awarded to the low bidder, Younger Construction Company, Inc., of Houston, with a regional office in Midland.

On April 13, 1960, a Pre-Construction Conference was held at the Texas Highway Department Maintenance Warehouse in Haskell, with representatives from Younger Construction Company, Inc., the Texas Department of Public Safety, and the Texas Highway Department present.

The purpose of this conference was to secure cooperation between the contractor, the Department of Public Safety, and the Texas Highway Department Engineering and Maintenance Engineering personnel concerning the handling of traffic safety through the limits of construction on these projects. Traffic will be carried continuously through these projects while under construction with minimum inconvenience to the traveling public. T. O. Keen, Supt., for the Younger Construction Company, Inc., will have his field office in Haskell. Mr. Keen stated that his construction plans called for an immediate beginning on these projects and estimated it will require approximately 100 working days to complete the contract. A review of all the required signs and barricades called for by the governing plans and specifications was held. The jobs will be visited periodically by a representative of the Department of Public Safety, noting safety and respect of the traveling public. The public is requested to cooperate in obeying all warning signs and barricades. These projects will be supervised from the Resident Engineer's office in Anson.

Auction Sale of Lots at Lake Well Attended

Despite an "Easter spell" of chill temperatures, the auction sale of lakeshore lots adjacent to Lake Stamford, conducted by the Edgewater Beach Club, was held on schedule Sunday afternoon.

The auction attracted considerable interest, and several lots were sold, reports O. L. (Jack) Johnson of this city, who is developer of the properties.

The auctioneer is Col. "Tex" Herring of Wichita Falls. Last Sunday's sale was the first held. Another will be held Sunday, April 24, starting at 2 p. m. on the development site at the lake.

Mr. Johnson said that 20 choice lake shore lots were being offered for sale, and that they are ideal for permanent residence or fishing lodge.

Persons interested in a site for a summer home or lodge are invited to attend the sale Sunday afternoon.

Qualified voters in the Haskell County Water Improvement District No. 1 will ballot Tuesday, May 3, in electing two directors for the district, each serving for two years.

The election will be held in the Community Center in Weinert, with polls opening at 8 a. m. and closing at 7 p. m. Only named filed for the ballot are Harlan Weinert for re-election, and Hugh A. Miller.

The water improvement district includes the town of Weinert, and was formed to provide a source of municipal water for that city.

Historic Lutheran Merger This Week

The Constituting Convention of three Lutheran Synods will open tomorrow, April 22 in Minneapolis, Minn. It will be the first time Lutherans in this country have united into one church from different national backgrounds, and marks an important step forward in Lutheran unity.

Men from this area are in Minneapolis representing the churches of this precinct, consisting of about 18 congregations. They are Pastor Henry K. Flathmann of St. Johns Lutheran Church in Winters, and Dan Rinn, layman from Christ Lutheran Church in Stamford.

Special Stamp to Recognize Water Conservation

This is a black and white reproduction of the 4-cent water conservation stamp that went on sale April 19 at the post office here. The stamp, printed in three colors, goes on sale Monday, April 18 in Washington, D. C., at the Seventh National Watershed Congress, according to J. C. Yearly Jr., Soil Conservation Service, Haskell.

The unique two-part stamp portrays a close-up view of a drop of water falling from a leaf, which symbolizes the influence of land and vegetation upon water supply. This design leads the eye into a right panel depicting an actual small watershed panorama. People and industries in the foreground are dependent for their water upon the watershed above, which ideally includes conservation-managed farm and forest lands and small dams for flood prevention and water storage.

Haskell Rebekahs Attend District Meet in Abilene

The Haskell Rebekah Lodge No. 43 attended the all-day District Association meeting in Abilene Tuesday, April 11. The district is comprised of 16 Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodges from Abilene, Baird, Tuscola, Sweetwater, Snyder, Rotan, Aspermont, Rule and Haskell.

The Haskell Lodge's drill team presented a calendar planned for the year's work on the evening program. Members of the staff carrying emblems of the degree and dressed in formal wear were most attractive. The team was Calbe Robison, Avis Pennington, Leone Pearsey, Viola Tidwell, Virginia Pitman, Pat Robison, Annie Mae Houston, Mildred Collins, Middle Lees, Eva Speer and Mary Honea. Mrs. Emma Pitman was pianist for the group, and was also introduced during the program and presented with a yellow rose corsage as the Haskell Lodge Mother. The program was written and directed by Bertie May Dumas, degree team captain.

The Lodge won a very special honor with the presentation. Sister Sadie Patterson, president of the Rebekah Assembly IOOF of Texas, requested them back on the floor and asked them to put on her part of the program for the State Convolve in Wichita Falls on June 4. Texas is the host state, with five other states in drill competition. The Haskell team will not be in competition but will appear for the president and the Grand Master on their program at the beginning of the contest. The team is very honored and is looking forward to this trip.

This brings the total for the year in Haskell County to none killed, two injured, and property damage of $2,185.00. The Highway Patrol Supervisor pointed out that the motoring public can improve a traffic record by doing two things—drive defensively and always be alert.
