1960 Mattson Homecoming Is Attracting Wide Interest

Widespread interest is being evidenced in the 1960 Homecoming for ex-students, patrons and former teachers of Mattson Rural High School, to be held Saturday, Sept. 17.

The Homecoming, inaugurated several years ago, is for all ex-students and patrons of the eight rural schools that were combined to form the present Mattson school.

Some of these were among the first schools established in the county with the result that the alumnus now represents scores of families throughout this section.

Invitations have been mailed to more than 400 different families, and the response indicates a record attendance at the 1960 affair. Homecoming officers said this week.

The Homecoming program calls for registration to begin at 10 o'clock Saturday morning, Sept. 17 in the Mattson School Building. At 2 p. m. there will be a special Homecoming program in the gym. Then at 5:30 p. m. Underwood's Catering Service will serve barbecue. The cost will be $1.25 per plate.

Highlight of the day will be a pep rally and football game Saturday night between the Mattson Mustangs and Paint Creek Pirates, traditional foes in 64-man football.

The HHS Pep Club has scheduled the season's first pep rally, to be held this evening (Thursday) beginning at 7:15 under the Community Sign on the northwest corner of the courthouse lawn.

Everyone is invited to attend and take part in the rally, and sponsors hope that a record crowd will turn out for the affair.

Girls who plan to join the Pep Club are asked to wear white blouses and black skirts.

Regular meeting of Haskell County Barracks of World War I veterans and the ladies auxiliary of the organization will be held in Sagerton, Sunday, Sept. 4, at 3 p. m. The meeting will be held in the Sagerton school building.

Negro Nabbed Minutes After Watch Stolen

A 29-year-old Negro man was arrested minutes after he had brazenly entered a residence a few blocks northwest of the square and taken a man's watch from a bathroom in the house.

Sheriff Bill Pennington arrested the Negro less than two blocks from the residence after the occurrence had been reported to his office.

A man's Waltham watch taken from the house was in the Negro's possession, Sheriff Pennington said. The Negro had been drinking, the officer added.

The culprit admitted entering the house, officers said. He was questioned in connection with other recent thefts and burglaries in this section. Officers are checking information that the Negro is now under probation sentence.

Competition is open to everyone, both men and women. Valuable prizes will be awarded the best marksmen, as determined in the afternoon events. Prizes will include hams, coffee, sugar and bacon.

Charter members are still being enrolled in the Gun Club, and persons desiring to join may do so at Sunday's trap shoot. However, participation in the shoot will not be restricted to members. Membership fee is $5.00, and among other benefits, gun club members are able to purchase their ammunition at wholesale.

They attended a reunion of the Price family in Seymour, and after returning home Sunday night they had a very pleasant surprise when their son Doyle called by trans-Atlantic telephone from Warrington, England.

The call came at 9:30 p. m., and Doyle told his parents that it was 2 a. m. in Warrington at that time. Naturally, he asked about West Texas weather, and said the temperature in England was 80 degrees at the time he was talking. He and his family are enjoying their stay in Britain, he said.

Mr. Price went to England last January to supervise a construction job for the firm with which he is associated, Brown & Root of Houston. His family joined him in May.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Robison are moving to Tye, where Mr. Robison has accepted a place on the faculty of Tye High School. He will coach basketball and teach in the seventh and eighth grades.

Meeting Slated On Cotton Defoliation

Cotton defoliation and mechanical harvesting of cotton will be the subject of discussion at a farm meeting in Haskell Wednesday, Sept. 7, according to F. W. Martin, county agent.

The meeting will start at 2 p. m. in the Community Room of the Haskell National Bank.

Fred Elliott, Cotton Specialist with the Extension Service of Texas A&M College will be here to help present the program.

Since the "Cranberry Scare" last year the government has regulated the chemicals that can be used on defoliation of cotton. Up to date information on this will be given.

What chemicals to use, rates and time of application will be discussed. Since more farmers will be mechanically harvesting cotton this year, this meeting will give farmers an opportunity to get the latest and best information on this subject.

The Haskell High School Indians are gearing for battle this week, in preparation for their opening game Friday night which sends them against one of the top-rated 2-A teams in the area, the Seymour Panthers.

Although a non-conference affair, the game is an important one for the Tribe as it will give the lighter, inexperienced team its first battle test against one of the toughest opponents they will face this season.

Game time is 8 o'clock in Indian Stadium, and local fans are being urged to turn out 100 per cent behind the 1960 squad of Indians.

Barring last-minute injuries, Coaches Ray Overton and Jimmy Browning will have most of their "A" squad available for duty, although some of the regulars may see only limited action.

End Joel Nanny, Tackle David Honea and Fullback Jimmy Wolf, all on the injured list, are expected to be available for limited duty Friday.

With only one regular starter returning from last year's squad, the Indians are definite underdogs in the contest with the Panthers. However, spirit and determination of the Tribe shown in pre-season scrimmage indicates that the visitors will be furnished plenty of opposition in Friday's tilt.

Motorcycle-Car Crash Sends Two To Hospital

Collision of a motorcycle and an automobile in Rule Saturday afternoon resulted in a severe leg fracture and other injuries for a 23-year-old Lubbock man, while his companion, a young woman also of Lubbock, suffered extensive bruises and slight cuts but was not badly injured.

Most seriously injured was William Frank Kirkland of Lubbock, operator of the motorcycle which belonged to a friend. Passenger on the motorcycle with him was Shirley Ann Thomas, 23, and also of Lubbock.

The accident happened in the business section of Rule, a block east of the traffic light. The motorcycle on which Kirkland and his companion were riding was traveling east on Highway 24 when the machine was involved in collision with an automobile driven by Joe W. Davis of Rule, as the vehicle entered the highway from a city street.

Investigating officers said the motorcycle appeared to have hit the front bumper of the car. The impact threw the young couple a considerable distance. Officers said, while the motorcycle was badly wrecked, Kirkland and Miss Thomas were brought to the Haskell Hospital in a Pinkard Funeral Home ambulance. Later, Kirkland was transferred to a Wichita Falls hospital. Miss Thomas, less seriously injured, was able to leave the hospital Tuesday and is convalescing at the home of friend here.

Investigating the accident were Highway Patrolmen Jesse Priest and Tommy Wood, Constable Raymond Denson of Rule, and Deputy Sheriff Moreland Glass. No charges had been filed Tuesday in connection with the wreck.

Labor Sunday

While Labor Day has been observed in the United States since 1882, it is interesting to note that Labor Sunday has been marked since 1917. Thus for 42 years there has been specific recognition by the churches that "the laborer is worthy of his hire."

Labor Sunday encourages the wholehearted co-operation of labor and all other groups engaged in production, distribution and use of goods and services in meeting the paramount needs of national life.

George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO, and a sponsor of the Religion in American Life movement, has pointed out that "the labor movement stands for all that is finest in American life." In keeping with this, he urges a "rededication to those spiritual values upon which our nation was founded"—through supporting the church or synagogue of our choice.

It's 'Back to School' Time

Summer weeds are being mowed down on the school yards over Texas this week. Classrooms are being aired, and teachers are mapping lesson plans.

Some teenagers—probably thousands—are ignoring all these tax-paid preparations being made for their benefit. Deliberately or unknowingly, they're getting ready to make one of the worst mistakes of their lives—not finishing high school.

Gov. Price Daniel has issued a special plea to youngsters to "go back to school and remain there until graduation."

To drop out of school, the governor reminded, is to cheat yourself out of a probable $50,000 in future income. This is the average difference between what a high school graduate and an eighth grade graduate will earn in a lifetime.

At the peak of his earning power, the average high school graduate will earn 27 per cent more than the average eighth grade graduate, said the governor.

Public concern is based on statistics showing that between the 1955-56 school year and graduation of the 1958-59 class, more than one-third of Texas high school students dropped out.

In 1955 a total of 118,272 students enrolled in the ninth grade in Texas public schools. When that class graduated in 1959, only 71,855 still were there. About 39 per cent had dropped out.

Governor Daniel reminded that in an age of swift technical advancement, it is harder and harder for an unskilled worker to find a job. He called on public and private organizations to join in encouraging young people to stay in school. Both the individual and the community enjoy a better life, he said, where more people have good educations.

People, Places & Things

By A. PATE

As the result of a rare coincidence, Gail and Ann Ratliff, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ratliff of this city recently shared one of those "once in a lifetime" experiences.

Each young lady was named attendant in separate weddings in two different towns but on the same date and at the same hour!

At 8 o'clock Saturday evening, Aug. 20, Gail served as maid of honor in the wedding of her cousin, Leah Margaret Ratliff and Bobby Neil Wheatley in this city. At the same hour, Gail's sister, Ann, was maid of honor in the wedding of a former college roommate, in a ceremony solemnized in San Angelo.

Have you noticed the grins and happy expressions on the faces of workers at WTU's Paint Creek plant lately?

From Chief C. O. Holt down these boys are wearing ear-to-ear smiles over completion of the stretch of all-weather road connecting the plant with F.M. Road 618. It is fulfillment of a badly-needed project on which plant employees, company, and local civic groups and county officials have been working for years.

Completion of the road is cause for celebration, and that is now being planned.

It will be in the form of a barbecue, with a few speeches, but mostly food and fellowship.

Date, time and other details will be announced shortly—possibly this week or next.

It's football season again, with the Indians hosting the highly-touted Seymour Panthers here tomorrow night in the season's opener.

You'll want to be there, and at every other home game of the Indians as well as all the out-of-town games you can attend.

Then, our neighboring communities of Weinert, O'Brien, Paint Creek, Matton and Sagerton will be playing some good schedules in 6-Man football, while Rule and Rochester will have top teams in Class B football.

Some good games are in store in all divisions of football. See as many of the contests you can.

The next few weeks should reveal whether last year's rattlesnake migration is to be repeated when autumn weather sets in.

Starting around mid-September of last year, hundreds of rattlers were killed along the highways, principally Highway 24 between Haskell and Throckmorton. Where so many snakes came from was a mystery, and no one could explain the mass migration which sent the reptiles crawling, generally in a northward direction.

The phenomenon of the migrating rattlers came up the other evening in a bull session at the City Hall.

Someone wondered if many snakes were being seen? If there were as many as last year?

Dude Montgomery, rancher east of town, remarked that rattlers didn't seem to be too numerous. "Don't imagine I've killed a dozen all told, this year," he said casually.

"A dozen! Man, I hope I never see a dozen rattlesnakes in my lifetime!" exclaimed "Satch" Lusk, whose aversion to any kind of snake is well known. Friends say "Satch" had rather tackle an oil well fire singlehanded than to get within 20 feet of a rattler.

All of which recalls the time Highway Patrolmen Arthur Mason and Tommy Wood captured a two-foot chickensnake and presented to the boys at the fire station.

In some unexplainable manner, the captive reptile wound up in a brief case of fire-department Secretary George Neely, unknown of course, to him and a majority of the firemen gathering for a regular meeting.

When George unzipped the briefcase and the snake tumbled out there was plenty of action. So much so in fact that to this day, no one can say for sure whether George threw the briefcase from him, or jumped away from it—while firemen scattered in all directions.

From Ryan, Okla., by way of the Wichita Falls Daily Times, we learn that a former manager of the now defunct Haskell County Fair and one of the best rodeo promoters ever to hit this section is still in the game although his pace has slowed somewhat.

In the Sunday Wichita Falls newspaper, a brief comment from the Ryan, Okla., newspaper was reprinted, telling of an Austin man, Hackberry Johnson, advertising for terrapins and offering $1 a dozen for the critters.

The terrapins were to be used, the newspaper said, in some sort of event Hackberry was staging as a benefit for crippled children.

In his rodeo promotion days, "Hackberry Slim" was acknowledged one of the best bronc riders and steer bull-drogers in the business. The fact that he wore an artificial leg was no handicap—he could ride and bulldog with the best of 'em.

In his peak days back in the 20s, Hackberry Slim promoted some of the biggest rodeos held in the state and always came up with some new angle.

He once brought a group of Comanche Indians here in connection with a rodeo, and as part of their pay furnished them a calf daily which the redskins butchered and ate at their tent quarters on the fairgrounds.

Another time, Hackberry planned to have an authentic bullfight and had contacted rodeadors in Old Mexico inviting them to take part in the affair. Since Texas laws prohibit bullfights, local sponsors of the rodeo turned thumbs down on Hackberry's planned bullfight.

One of Hackberry's pet ambitions was to someday own a herd of buffalo rodeo stock. But in his only experience along that line, an unpleasant one, the buffalo turned out to be too tough for even Hackberry Slim.

He had managed to acquire three head of buffalo, a bull and two cows. Then his troubles began. He couldn't keep the trio penned. Those buffalo would lower their head and just walk through any kind of fence he could build. After a hectic trial period, he concluded he'd have to spend all his time riding herd on his three buffalo so he reluctantly gave up his ambition and disposed of the shaggy beasts to the first buyer that came along.

From bucking horses and wild buffalo to terrapins is quite a change of pace. It points up the remorseless fact that time moves endlessly on no matter whether the check point is the rodeo pen or a galaxy of stars in the dim reaches of the Milky Way.

Of one thing we're sure: Whatever "Hackberry" promotes with his terrapins, he'll provide plenty of entertainment for all the spectators at a serving basis.

All 11 of the lived, and were opened to the food like a quart of which bits of soaked in might be called nine pabulum.

"Scotch" is a economics of the rate the apples puppies and food astronomical.

However, the adoption of "Scotch" and he's thinking them out on a serving basis.

Better Prices For Hogs Seen In Future

The price outlook for hogs for the next few months is considerably brighter. John McHaney, extension economist, says that prices received by farmers in the last half of 1960 will be higher than those received in the last half of 1959. He says they will not, however, reach the peak prices of 1958, and the usual fall price decline can be expected.

McHaney explains this forecasted price rise by pointing out that the 1960 spring pig crop was down 16 per cent from the 1959 spring crop. This decrease was brought about mainly because fewer sows farrowed and fewer pigs were produced per sow.

Spring prices in 1961 will be largely determined by the size of the 1960 fall crop. McHaney continues. According to the present fall crop, the 1960 fall crop should be smaller than the 1959 crop, thus the prices received in the spring of 1961 should be higher than those received this year.

The specialist concludes with a word of warning for swine producers. He says there are indications that this downward trend in production may be the shortest on record, and just because prices may be better in the last half of 1960 and in the first few months of 1961 is no reason to believe that prices will bring satisfactory returns to all producers in the last half of 1961.

Price Jr., and their daughter Mrs. Sonny Hosteller, all of Corpus Christi; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Reynolds and sons Johnny and Bill of Bowie; and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dick of Big Spring.

Children Spend Month Visiting Mother Here

Children and grandchildren of Mrs. Mildred Kennamer recently spent several weeks here visiting in her home. Occasion of the gathering was the fact that one of Mrs. Kennamer's daughters, Mrs. Travis Burson was leaving soon with her husband and two children for Spain.

Visiting Mrs. Kennamer were Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Free and boys Lynn and Larry of Lamesa, Sgt. and Mrs. Burson and children, Janie and Bruce—formerly of Jacksonville, Ark., Mrs. James Ray Camp and son James Ray Jr. of Abilene, and Mr. and Mrs. LaDell Driver and daughter Deborah of Knox City. They all spent almost a month with their mother and grandmother.

Sgt. Burson and family left August 28 for Spain, where he will be stationed for three years. They were to drive their car to New Jersey, then go from there by plane to Spain, with their car to be shipped by boat. The Bursons also visited in the C. E. Tidwell home while here.

Trinity Lutheran Church Changes Worship Hour

The services of Sunday Worship at Trinity Lutheran Church in Haskell will be changed from 8:30 a. m. to 11:00 a. m. beginning next Sunday, Sept. 4.

The Parish Mission Builder Team, which served the local congregation and community in doing Evangelistic survey work this summer, left leaflets with many residents in and around Haskell stating the hour of morning worship at 8:30 a. m. This was correct at that time, but Sept. 4, 1960 it will be changed to the regular worship hour. The church would like to inform everyone of this change so that people are not disappointed by coming at 8:30 a. m.

The reason for this change is due to the fact that the pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, Robert C. Berry, regularly serves the American Lutheran congregation in Olney also, and during the months of June, July and August, the Olney congregation met for worship at 11:00 a. m. This made the change of time in Haskell necessary. But now the services here will be on regular schedule again, 11:00 a. m. They invite all to worship with them at that hour. Sunday School for all ages will continue to be held beginning at 9:45 a. m. To which also all are welcome. This arrangement will be continued until further notice.

Hester Family Reunion Held Here August 26-27

Descendants of the late Samuel E. and Mary Anne Hester held their seventh family reunion in Haskell on Saturday and Sunday August 26 and 27. About 100 relatives enjoyed a fish fry on the lawn of Mrs. Joe Hester on Saturday night, and then visited and saw movie films of some of the families.

Sunday morning the group started gathering about 9 o'clock in the American Legion Hall, and by 11 o'clock, near one hundred and fifty had arrived. At this time the kinship were spiritually uplifted by a devotional given by J. Lenol Hester of Childress.

About 12:30 p. m., 143 plates were served to the crowd by Mack Eple's catering service. Soon afterward the group enjoyed a short program, planned by local families. The reunion came to a close when it was decided to have the next year's meeting at Round Rock, Texas.

Mrs. Joe Hester was recognized as being the oldest woman and Claude Hester oldest man descendant present.

Community Service by Lone Star Gas Co.

The Lone Star president emphasized that Lone Star people are the foundation of the promotion program. "Our people," he said, "are encouraged to earn even greater respect, confidence and trust from the people we serve."

Mr. Potter explained that a 10-point guide has been adopted for Lone Star people to use in their everyday, regular work. "The guide," he said, "will aid us in reaching objectives of our Promotion Program."

Examples of some of the 10 points are: To support the American system of competitive enterprise as the foundation of Democracy, freedom and prosperity and a higher standard of living for all.

To conduct business in such a way to remain financially stable, sound and healthy so that successful operations may be continued.

To place Lone Star people in a position to work in such a manner that the best possible results will accrue to them, their communities and their company.

To render service of such high type as to earn general approval, appreciation and good will of the customers and communities Lone Star serves.

The enlarged promotion program was developed under the supervision of Charles G. Barndt, Lone Star promotion

1961 Inspection Stickers To Be Available Sept. 1

Lubbock—The new 1961 Motor Vehicle Inspection stickers will be available to Texas motorists at approved inspection stations beginning September 1. Captain Alan Johnson of the Texas Department of Public Safety, recommended that Texans have their vehicles inspected early in the new inspection period which extends from September 1 to April 15, 1961. Vehicles not displaying the new stickers April 15 will be operating in violation of the law.

"In the vast majority of cases," Johnson said, "this program has become a very minor inconvenience and expense to the motor vehicle owner — provided he moves early to comply with the law."

"The more than 4,500 authorized inspection stations over the state are capable of handling the inspection of Texas vehicles without delay if owners will not wait until just a few days before the deadline."

"With hard summer driving coming to an end, fall is an excellent time to have vehicles safety checked in preparation for the winter months."

Johnson called attention to the fact that since the beginning of the inspection program vehicles having a defect that was a causative factor in fatal accidents decreased from 11 per cent to 5 per cent last year.

Yard Grouping Of Cotton At Gin Advised

The practice of ginning cotton in the order of arrival at the gin needs revision. The reason, says B. G. Reeves, extension cotton ginning and mechanization specialist, is the ever-increasing number of machines used to harvest the fleecy staple.

Machine harvested cotton, he says, usually has a higher moisture and trash content than hand-picked cotton and different settings of gin machinery and drying equipment are required for each type. A modern gin can turn out a bale of cotton every 6 to 10 minutes and there isn't time to make the needed adjustments on an individual bale basis. The result, points out Reeves, somebody loses and it is usually both the grower and ginner.

The answer to the problem is the grouping of seed cotton on the gin yard according to the method of harvesting or moisture content. Reeves says that a number of gins in Texas have been using this plan and both the ginner and grower have profited. The grower has received a better selling price for his cotton and the ginner has been able to do a better ginning job.

Reeves suggests that farmers and ginner get together and agree on a procedure for solving the problem locally. In some instances, hand-picked cotton has been ginned during the day and machine harvested cotton during the night. If machine harvested bales are in the majority, then ginning hours can be adjusted to take care of the local situation.

Experience has shown, says the specialist, that trucks and trailers are usually back in the field, under the grouping plan, as soon as they were under the old system of ginning on a first-come basis. The best ginning job is done when the lint moisture is 5 to 7 percent. Drying to this level, says Reeves, gives a smooth sample and allows proper cleaning. He advises farmers and ginner to get together on the problem before the heavy harvesting season begins.

Fourth of July weekend, Broadcasters urged motorists to drive with their car lights burning in the daylight hours as a signal that they were driving safely and legally. Reports from various sections of Texas indicated the idea got widespread cooperation from drivers.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS

By VERN SANFORD

Newest and by far the best method of life saving—in case of drownings, heart attacks, shock or suffocation—is mouth to mouth resuscitation.

We've just seen a short film on the subject—which everyone in the state should view. It tells how, in a graphic way, to apply this greatly improved method of artificial respiration.

We can't explain it as clearly as the film portrays, but we'd like to relay this message to you until the time comes when you too can view the picture.

First step is to free the victim's mouth of any obstructions—food, if the victim is choking, water if drowning—then lay the person on his back, sit beside him, tilt the head far back, lift the chin high, grasp the nose to close it tightly, then take a deep breath (bring enough air into your own lungs to serve two persons), open the victim's mouth wide and force all the air you can from your own lungs into his.

Then rest a second or two, take another deep breath, open the victim's mouth wide and again force all the air you can into his lungs.

Keep his nose closed all the time you are breathing into his lungs.

Here's hoping this film will be shown before every sportsman's organization in Texas, in the youth camps, before every civic group, women's club, the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, school groups, groups everywhere, including of course the Red Cross, Junior Red Cross, and the military.

Many a life, lost from drowning, suffocation and the like, could have been saved had knowledge of this revival process been widely known.

There is one important fact about this method of revival—the only equipment needed to do the job is always with you. It's you.

The film, entitled "That They May Live," is available for any and all gatherings, free of charge, from the film library of the State Department of Health, 100 West 49th St., Austin, Texas. The telephone number is GL 3-6631. If you want to make an LD call, ask for the division of health and education.

Whether you're an outdoorsman or an indoorman for that matter, you need to view this film. You need to learn this method—for your own good and your family's good, if for no other reason.

While deaths by accidents outdoors—on our lakes and streams and our hunting grounds—are many, fatal accidents in the home occur even more frequently. So, whoever you are, there is a good possibility that you or those dear to you may find this lifesaving method useful. We urge you to re-read, again and again, the simple procedure outline above, learn the steps by heart so that you can perform them quickly. Then, if at all possible, see the film!

It was our good fortune to witness the showing at the recent Austin meeting of the Sportsmen's Clubs of Texas. It received a tremendous ovation. Everyone agreed that it should be circulated throughout the length and breadth of Texas.

Regardless of your station in life, it is important that you have knowledge of the methods of performing artificial respiration. In fact, your own life may some day be in the hands of someone you taught how to do an efficient job of artificial respiration.

We repeat, at your first opportunity, see the film "That They May Live."

Community Sign Widely Used In Displaying Timely Messages

The attractive neon sign recently installed on the north-west corner of the courthouse lawn has attracted much favorable comment and is being widely used by local groups.

Central theme of the sign of a flashing "Welcome to Haskell," while changeable letters enable brief notices to be placed on display.

Use of the sign is free to everyone, and can also be used by all other communities in the county. Registration book along with the changeable letters for the sign are at the Chamber of Commerce office, 106 North Ave. D.

Use of the sign is governed by the following rules:

No person or persons may use sign for advertising for personal gain or profit.

No organization may place sign on board which will result in financial gain without respect to public interest.

Sign is not to be used as billboard or bulletin for any group or organization.

Sign may not be used as bulletin board for churches. This would result in continued use as a bulletin for the church since all would have to be given equal opportunity to post their announcements. This ruling is necessary despite the fact that the churches are not using board for financial gain.

Proclamations or notices such as, Holy Week, Attend the Church of Your Choice, Go To your Community Thanksgiving Service, will be used since they are meant for all Christian people in every community.

Weekly notices of ball games without special significance and interest to more than one group cannot be posted.

Class notices or clubs promoting affairs to raise funds for some cause and not in the public interest, cannot be posted.

Any project, activity or event that involves the general public or that of an observance of state or national interest will be used.

Notices must be brief and self-explanatory.

Notices posted shall not be discriminating.

Notify person in charge of sign equipment well in advance if sign will be used, thus avoiding conflicts. Register must be signed by party to use sign, slogan or subject matter to be put on sign must be written on register and length of time slogan will be displayed on sign.

If letters are broken these responsible for breaking must replace same.

No slogan or subject matter placed on sign is to remain longer than two weeks, other than that placed on sign by Marquee Sign Committee.

Person taking down letters must store them in Registrar's office. Persons who place letters on sign are responsible for removal of same.

If any conflict arises concerning sign a decision of the Marquee Sign Committee will be final.

Death Toll of 29 Forecast On Labor Day

Col. Homer Garrison Jr., director of the Texas Department of Public Safety today announced the official prediction that 29 persons will be killed next weekend in Labor Day holiday traffic in Texas.

Garrison said some 125 extra patrolmen from the department's other uniformed services will join the regular Highway Patrol force in attempting to halt traffic law violations—which figure in most fatal accidents.

"We hope the driving public will help Labor Day weekend to prove that we have overestimated the number of traffic fatalities that will occur in the three-day period," he said.

"Department patrolmen and all other law-enforcement officers in our state will do everything possible to make the streets and highways safer by removing lawless drivers—but the statistics prove the main job is up to the individual behind the wheel."

"It is significant to note that in each of the 14 fatal accidents which occurred outside city limits last Labor Day weekend at least one law violation was involved."

N. K. Woerner, manager of the department's statistical services, reported that excessive speed over the posted limits was involved in 10 of the 14 fatal accidents during the holiday last year and that drinking was involved in seven of the 14.

In recent years, the highest statewide traffic toll for the three-day Labor Day holiday was 43 killed in 32 accidents in 1955. Thirty died in 1958, and 27 motorcyclists occurred during the Labor Day holiday in 1959.

"Labor Days is a yearly turning point in our lives—a time of year when activities, dress and behavior of Texans make a definite change. It is a time for many of us to take that last big outing before settling down to the routine of fall and the school season," Garrison said.

"Therefore, we can expect Texans to be on the move on our streets and highways—and we should be alert for the extra hazards presented by unusually crowded conditions."

July Bond Sales In County Total $20,442

Savings Bonds sales in Haskell County for the first seven months of 1960 totaled $177,777. J. M. Crawford, chairman of Haskell County's Bond Committee reported today. The county has now reached 65.8 per cent of its 1960 goal of $270,000, the chairman said. July sales were $20,442.

Sales in Texas for July 1960 were $12,204,662, which was 6 per cent greater than the same period in 1959, Chairman Crawford said.

The price outlook for hogs during the next few months is considerably brighter, says John G. McHaney, extension economist. The smaller pig crop last spring and the expected smaller 1960 fall crop are primary factors in the better price outlook.

Thomas Columbus Jetton, 90, resident of Haskell for almost 20 years, died at 7:50 p. m. Friday, Aug. 26 in the Fielding-Bartley Convalescent Home where he had been living for some time. His health had been gradually failing for several years.

Funeral service for Mr. Jetton was held Sunday, Aug. 28 at 4 p. m. in the Trinity Lutheran Church, with the Rev. Robert C. Berry, pastor officiating.

He came to Haskell in 1900 and lived in Kansas and joined the Lutheran Church in Alma, Kansas in April, 1938. "Uncle Tom" as he was known to scores of friends, was a brother of the late Charles and Will Jetton of Haskell.

He is survived by several nephews and nieces, including Ted Jetton of Weir, T. W. Jetton of Haskell, Cecil Jetton of Rochester; Mrs. Joe Hix of Weir; and Mrs. Jap Wheeler of Haskell.

Funeral services were held at the residence of Mrs. Jetton, 1001 North Avenue, on Wednesday morning to attend the funeral of Jesse Glover.

Burial was in Rule Cemetery, where Masonic rites were held at graveside. Funeral arrangements were in charge of Mansell-Smith Funeral Home of Rochester.

Mr. Glover was born Sept. 19, 1903, in Erath County. He married Miss Gladys Love on April 22, 1931 in Rochester. He was a deacon in the Pinkerton Baptist Church and a member of the Rule Masonic Lodge.

Retired Farmer Of Raymondville Dies Here

George Samuel Tate, 84, retired farmer of Raymondville, Texas, who came here about three weeks ago to make his home with a daughter, Mrs. H. R. Webster and family, died at 9:30 p. m. Saturday, Aug. 27, in the Haskell Hospital after suffering a heart attack.

Mr. Tate was a native of Tennessee, born Jan. 18, 1876. He came to Texas when a young man and married the former Miss Bell Zora Kelly in Limestone County, Texas. She preceded him in death. Mr. Tate was a member of the Baptist Church.

Body of Mr. Tate was returned to Raymondville, his former home, where funeral services were held Wednesday, August 31, with burial in the Raymondville Cemetery.

Local funeral arrangements were handled by Holden Funeral Home.

Mr. Tate is survived by three daughters, Mrs. H. C. Tacker of Pasadena, Mrs. H. R. Webster of Haskell and Mrs. Oneda Campbell of Houston; a son, George Tate of Raymondville; 17 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Della Adams of Kosse, Mrs. Meter Davis of Houston, Mrs. Mable Peoples of Kennedy; and one brother, Claude Tate of Thornton, Texas.

Under conditions of good management, feeding aureomycin to milking cows at a low level apparently has no advantages, reports A. M. Meekma, extension dairy husbandman. On the other hand, the dairyman may run the risk of having his milk condemned because of faulty feed mixing or may create antibody resistance disease organisms in his herd and is sure to increase feed costs if the antibiotic is fed.

Estimated 4,700 Cotton Pullers To Be Needed

Texas Employment Commission estimates that Haskell County will be short 4,740 cotton pullers during the peak period of the cotton harvest. This shortage will be met by the importation of Mexican National Bracero workers.

This information was given the Haskell County Farm Labor Committee at a meeting last Thursday by Billy Lynch, manager of the Vernon office of the county committee. Members of the county committee present were Judge J. C. Alvia, Jetty V. Clare, Courtney Hunt and W. M. Reid. Two members of the county committee unable to be present are Roy Johnson and Joe Harper. Also at the meeting were Curtis Cox and Verna Teague.

The County Farm Labor Committee will function under Public Law 78, obtaining facts relevant to the supply of domestic farm workers existing in Haskell County and the shortage of workers, if any, which must be met by importing Mexican Nationals to harvest the cotton crop. Under Public Law 78, the TEC must supply this information to the Secretary of Labor who must limit the number of Mexican Nationals to be used in this county by granting a "ceiling."

The committee consults with the Local Office Manager to assist him in estimating the number of workers who will be needed, based on current local conditions affecting the cotton crop.

"Ceilings" granted by the Secretary of Labor limiting the importation of Mexican Nationals into this area will be posted in Post Offices in Haskell, Rule, Rochester, O'Brien, Weir, Sagerton, and in the County Agent's office, and in the courthouse.

Former Resident Buried Monday at Pleasant Valley

Rites were held at the graveside in Pleasant Valley Cemetery northeast of Haskell Monday for Rudolph Schwartz, 62, former resident who died Sunday morning in a Wichita Falls hospital.

Officiating for the service was the Rev. W. C. Kimbler, Baptist minister of this city. Local funeral arrangements were under the direction of Holden Funeral Home.

Prior to the graveside rites, funeral services for Mr. Schwartz had been held at 1 p. m. from the Owens & Brumley Funeral Home Chapel in Wichita Falls.

Mr. Schwartz had lived in Haskell County from around 1915 until 1928. For the past 39 years he had lived in Wichita Falls. His parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Schwartz, well known early day farm couple here.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Barbara Schwartz; two sons, J. C. Schwartz and Raymond Schwartz, both of Snyder; one daughter, Mrs. Vera Brawley of Abilene; four brothers, Bill Schwartz of Clyde, Jimmie Schwartz of Plainview, C. V. Schwartz of Haskell and Albert Schwartz of Slaton, and two grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Royce Adkins and little daughter Bonnie Lou, spent last weekend in Ruidoso, N. M. and visited other points.

Mother, Teacher Completes Work For Degree

Mrs. Paul Pearson of Orange, Texas, was awarded the degree of Bachelor of Science in Elementary Education, on Aug. 27, by the Lamar State College of Technology, Beaumont, Texas. Mrs. Pearson is the former Frances Ratliff and a graduate of Haskell High School. She is the daughter of the late Judge L. D. Ratliff and Mrs. Ratliff of Haskell. Her husband is the Principal of the Orange High School and director of Secondary Education.

Mrs. Pearson has taught the second grade of the Jones Elementary School of Orange for the past six years, kept house, and commuted in the summer from Orange to Beaumont while completing the required work for the degree. She also took extension courses. Mr. and Mrs. Pearson are the parents of three children, Dan, Joe McClelland of Orange, and Mrs. Pearson, a student at Texas A&M, and Wesley Pearson, a student in the Orange schools. They also have two grandchildren, Myra and Annelly McClelland.

National Lottery Finances Mexico Hospitals

Profits on the Mexican Lottery, first authorized by King Charles III of Spain in 1770, are building modern hospitals and underwriting medical research in Mexico. Murray Teigh Bloom explains the lottery, which is much bigger than the Irish Sweepstakes, in September Reader's Digest article entitled, "Mexico Spins the Wheel of Fortune."

The Lottery is an official agency of the government and by Mexican law all profits must be used for public health projects. The Lottery's president, Dr. Jose Alvarez Amezcua, is Minister of Public Health and Social Welfare.

Last year the Lottery took in more than a billion pesos, $80,000,000. Out of this, 65 per cent was paid out in prizes—a generous slice when compared to a pay-off of 50 per cent of the Irish Sweepstakes, and the 60 per cent of the French National Lottery. Since 1920 it is estimated nearly $500,000,000 has been paid in prizes and about $125,000,000 given to public-health projects.

In celebration this September of the 150th anniversary of Mexico's independence, the largest medical center in Latin America will be inaugurated. The estimated $40,000,000 cost will be paid by the National Lottery.

There are drawings about three times a week for prizes of $16,000 to $160,000. Three times a year there is a drawing for the top prize—usually ten million pesos, $800,000,000. Even Dr. Alvarez's wife is, in his words, "an insatiable ticket buyer." She buys three times a week.

"She never won anything of importance," he explains, "but I encourage her. In the States you have your many special health drives—cancer, heart, mental health, and so on. Here the Lottery is our own painless equivalent."

But it has not been painless for the farmer whose winning ticket blew out a bus window for an airline executive who bought the same number for 10 years and saw it win three days after he quit doing so. Bloom lives in Great Neck, Long Island, and is president of the Society of Magazine Writers.

A cowboy who is completely disgusted was described as "lookin' for a dog to kick."

USDA Lists Six Plentiful Foods For September

Grocery shoppers will find a lot of broiler-fryers available in Texas food markets this September. They are featured among the six items listed as plentiful for the month, reports the Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M College.

Turkeys are another poultry plentiful, Lamb, melons, peanut butter, and a wide array of late-summer vegetables complete the list.

The foods were selected by the U. S. Department of Agriculture for special emphasis in this area because the supply of each is expected to exceed normal demand. Homemakers can take advantage of the abundance by serving these foods often.

September broiler-fryer marketings are expected to run about 5 per cent more than a year ago. Look for meaty, tender, flavorful young chickens, from 2 to 3½ pounds. The number of turkeys expected to be marketed in September is about the same as last year, but total weight may be higher because there will be more of the heavy breeds. Both chicken and turkey provide ideal fall weather entrees for family fare.

There'll be lots of lamb for National Lamb Week, Sept. 15-20. Slaughter has been averaging about 6 per cent more than a year ago.

Plentiful melons include watermelons, cantaloupes, honeydews, Cranshaws and Casabas. The late summer watermelon crop is expected to be especially huge.

Choice of late-summer vegetables will vary in different localities but good supplies of onions, carrots, squash, cabbage, eggplant, potatoes, sweet corn and many others will be available.

Free Booklet Is Available for Rock Collectors

How much does the earth weigh? Which continents float? What's the most valuable rock in the world? How much gold is there in an average sample of earth? What's the cohenite and why is it so special? Why is this sentence useful: "The girls can flirt and other queer things they can do..."

The answers to these questions and other interesting information can be found in a 17-page, illustrated booklet called "Let's Collect Rocks" just published by Shell Oil Co. The booklet is a general introduction to rock and mineral collecting. Written by beginners, it defines rocks and minerals, tells what fossils are and how they were formed, has tips on starting a collection, doing field work, displaying samples, identifying specimens, and turning rough gems into jewelry.

"Let's Collect Rocks" is the second "Let's Collect" booklet put out by Shell. The first is "Let's Collect Shells." Written more or less in self-defense to answer the constant question "How did Shell Oil Company get its name?" the booklet has been so popular that the company produced the follow-up "Let's Collect Rocks." The foreword explains how knowledge of rocks is essential to finding oil and tells something about the "rock-hounds" that work for Shell.

P. S. If you can't wait, here are the answers: 6.6 sextillion tons; all of them; 0.0000006%; a mineral, found only in meteorites; it's a key to the hardness of minerals.

Area Farmers Benefit From Soil Program

The applying of conservation practices in the Wichita, Brazos and California Creek Soil Conservation Districts has shown good progress. Agricultural Conservation Program cost share assistance was obtained to establish these conservation practices.

The following cooperators who have completed level ridge blocked end terrace systems on their farms are: J. P. Dunnam, Wallace Boone, Vernon Derr, Jack Chapman and Wayne Josselet.

Recent livestock water ponds that have been built by Wichita, Brazos cooperators are: Floyd McGuire, Dr. J. G. Vaughter and C. W. Atchison, W. L. Holt cooperating with the California Creek Soil Conservation District has recently constructed two diversion terraces and a pit-type pond. Cost share assistance was obtained through the Great Plains conservation program. The two diversion terraces increase the watershed drainage area for the pit-type pond.

Now is the time to plan ahead on seeding winter legumes. Cost share assistance is available from the Haskell County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, for planting winter legume crops. Why not plant a winter legume crop this fall for increased production and improved soil condition.

A horse which will stay anchored when the reins are dropped on the ground is said to be "tied to the ground." A horse so trained will stay in place as surely as if he were actually tied.

DEPTH OF PENETRATION

UNLESS you are using your local newspaper as a regular part of your advertising program, you are very likely doing little more than scratching the surface of the important and rich market which it covers. Your newspaper commands the attention and respect of the community and will carry your sales message with force and dignity.

Your local newspaper has the "depth of penetration" that gets beneath the surface interest of its readers, down to where the sales action really starts. Your business will profit from a program of planned newspaper advertising.
