Annual Enlisted Awards Banquet scheduled

by MSgt. Wilson
Security Police Squadron

Three Reese members will take another step toward becoming one of the Air Force's 12 Outstanding Senior NCO, NCO and Airman of the Year at the Annual Enlisted Awards Banquet on Nov. 22, 1986.

The Noncommissioned Officers Academy Graduates Association will host the banquet at the Officer's Open Mess.

Social hour begins at 6 p.m. and dinner at 6:30 p.m. Formal dress is required. This year's speaker is the Chief Master Sergeant of the Air Force James C. Binnicker. The winners announced at the banquet will represent the Wing in Air Training Command competition; Command winners will be nominated for Air Force honors.

The 27 nominees have already been selected as their unit's best. Nominees are judged on leadership and job performance, significant self improvement, leadership qualities, other accomplishments, Air Force or civilian awards, prizes, titles, and as articulate and positive representatives of the Air Force. Each nominee was also interviewed by a board of Senior NCO's and Officers.

The nominees for Airman of the Year are: SrA. Donald C. Danford of the 1958 Communications Squadron; A1C Randall W. Hart of the 64th Supply Squadron; SrA. Timothy N. Kepsel of the USAF Hospital; SrA. John A. Micek of the 64th Organizational Maintenance Squadron; A1C Gregory M. Monahan of the 3500 Mission Support Squadron; A1C Kevin D. Renner of the 64th Civil Engineering Squadron; A1C Felix R. Saenz of the 64th Security Police Squadron; SrA. Robert J. Scott of the 64th Field Maintenance Squadron; and A1C Amanda R. Williams of the 35th Flying Training Squadron.

Nominees for NCO of the Year are: TSgt. Ronald E. Brownell Jr. of the Field Training Detachment 429; TSgt. Michael G. Burns of the 64th Civil Engineering Squadron; SSgt. Gordon D. Couffer of the 64th Security Police Squadron; Sgt. Mark A. Diels of the 3500 Mission Support Squadron; TSgt. Todd A. Koch of the 64th Field Maintenance Squadron; Sgt. John C. Owens of the USAF Hospital; Sgt. Mark D. Payne of the 64th Student Squadron; SSgt. Donald E. Pierce of the 1958th Communications Squadron; TSgt. Bruce A. Williams of the 64th Organizational Maintenance Squadron; TSgt. James B. Williams of the 64th Supply Squadron; and Sgt. Marc A. Lopez of the 64th Supply Squadron-Resource Management.

Nominees for the Senior NCO of the Year are: MSgt. Terry D. Boyd of the USAF Hospital-Reese; MSgt. Willie B. Davis of the 64th Supply Squadron; MSgt. Jerry D. Gray of the 3500 Mission Support Squadron; MSgt. Jimmy W. Jones of the 64th Organizational Maintenance Squadron; MSgt. Norman R. Mecham of the 64th Civil Engineering Squadron; MSgt. Raymond R. Moore of the 64th Field Maintenance Squadron; and MSgt. Christopher A. Pillifant of the 1958th Communications Squadron.

Nominees for the Wing First Sergeant of the Year are: MSgt. Charles R. Baldwin of the 64th Civil Engineering Squad-

Bow Wow!

Tam, a white German Sheppard owned by CWO2 George E. Reder II of the 20th Air Force Mobilization Augmentation Force attached to Ft. Bliss, Texas, was recently donated to the Air Force for possible use with the Security Police. Tam was shipped to Lackland AFB, Texas Nov. 5, to train as a field service military working dog.

Awards presented to Class 87-01

by A1C Robin Reams
Staff Writer, Roundup

Twenty-eight United States Air Force officers have completed a year of pilot training and have earned the right to wear the coveted wings of an Air Force pilot.

Members of the Undergraduate Pilot Training class 87-01 were honored in the ceremony held Nov. 7, 1986. The guest speaker at the ceremony was Brigadier General Ronald R. Fogleman, from the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, Programs, and Resources, Headquarters U.S. Air Force, Washington, D.C.

Second Lieutenant James L. Gregoire, of Whitefish, Montana was awarded the Air Training Command Commander's Trophy as the class's overall top graduate. He was also awarded the Distinguished Graduate Award.

Lieutenant Gregoire will begin his flying career in the F-16 "Falcon" at Luke Air Force Base, Arizona.

Capt. Russell L. Carraway and 2nd Lt. William T. Chaulk were also awarded the Distinguished Graduate Award. Capt. Carraway also received the Leadership Award along with Capt. Ira D. Williams. Lt. Chaulk was also awarded the Flying Training Award along with 2nd Lt. Carl A. Lude.

Five members of the graduating class will remain at Reese as instructor pilots. These pilots include: 2nd Lts. Gary A. Mausolf, William T. Chaulk, Christopher L. Parker, David W. Wilson and Robert J. Wittmann.

Outstanding Unit Award corrections

In last week's issue of the Roundup the story concerning the Outstanding Unit Award left out two squadrons that will also share the award.

The 64th Field Maintenance Squadron will share the award for the period of May 1, 85-March 31, 86.

The 64th Supply Squadron will share the award for the period of Oct. 1, 84-March 31, 86.

Cold weather reminder

With the freezing temperatures moving in, base personnel should disconnect all hoses from water faucets both on base and in the housing areas to prevent pipe damage.

10th ANNIVERSARY
TAKE A DAY OFF...

... from smoking. Join the 10th Annual Great American Smokeout on Thursday, November 20. Millions of Americans across the country will make a fresh start and try not to smoke for 24 hours. How about you? Or, if you don't smoke, adapt a smoker for the day and promise to help that friend get through the 24 hours without a cigarette!

A few "quit tips"

Hide all ashtrays, matches, etc.
Lay in a supply of sugarless gum, carrot sticks, etc.
Drink lots of liquids, but pass up coffee & alcohol.
Tell everyone you're quitting for the day.
When the urge to smoke hits, take a deep breath, hold it for 10 seconds, & release it slowly.
Exercise to relieve the tension.
Try the "buddy system," and ask a friend to quit too.

As of Nov. 12, Reese has donated $144,424 towards its $127,500 1986 CFC goal. This gives Reese 116 percent of its goal.

Customer Service—Reese style

One is encouraged to watch the Reese team at work implementing our "Customer Service" mindset across several functional areas. Just recently I have noted one area in particular—the 64th Student Squadron.

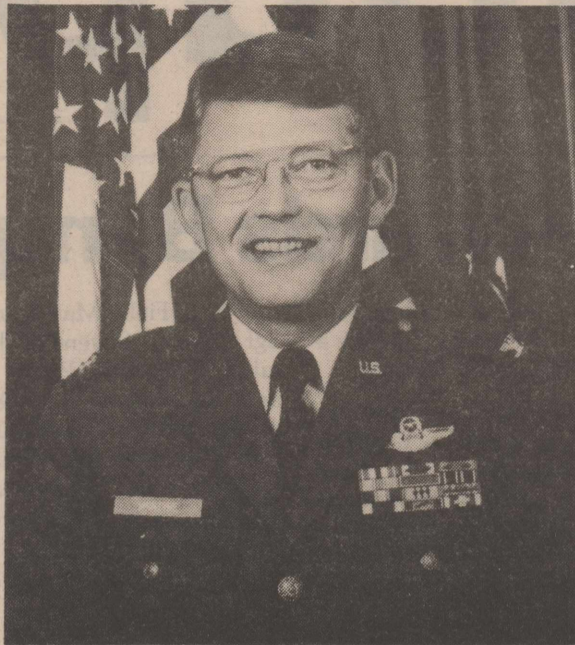

Take Lt. Col. Steve Maddox's STURON troops for example. Capt. Scott Barber, and Major Greg Jolda briefed me yesterday on several new initiatives aimed at improving student training which spawned from their close analysis of the last year's worth of student end-of-course critiques. In other words, these operators are "reading the mail" and listening to the customer. Here's what resulted:

- Improved physical training for student pilots—better tailored to busy flying schedules, but providing more individual choice and flexibility.

- An initiative aimed at providing our students better information about potential aircraft assignments and MAJCOM and career opportunities. We will work closely with the MAJCOMs and identify resident Reese "experts" from our talented IP force to give our budding pilots more timely and indepth information before they are asked to put down their assignment preferences.

- Project Warrior enhancement. Officer development during the UPT curriculum will be enhanced by the STURON's new initiative to provide additional opportunities for discussion with experienced Air Force members in the formal classroom as well as in informal sessions. That's what they intend to do.

Also, just look at the subtle but important changes recently implemented for our UPT graduations. Brig. Gen. Ron Fogleman, AF/PRP, our guest speaker for Class 87-01, was quick to notice the "class act" that is a Reese graduation. He was particularly supportive of the luncheon following the theater ceremony during which we focus recognition on the wives of our new aviators. Additionally there has been a subtle shift at the evening banquet towards more graduate involvement. It's their day, after all. Last Friday night's "class act" included a special 10 minute violin solo by UPT graduate and virtuoso by Capt. Kal Lude. Frankly, Karen and I will never tire of graduation day. It is the celebration of our mission—one that takes everyone in the wing to accomplish—producing the best pilots in the world.

I applaud these efforts. The STURON, representative of Reese as a whole, is moving forward and on track in our pursuit of excellence. It definitely pays off.

Visitors—The Word Is Out

The "Visitors to Reese" chart shown every Wednesday morning at the Wing staff meeting is beginning to look like a listing of a "Who's Who in the AF." Apparently the word is out—come to Reese and see how it's done. As I write this, we have with us Col. Hugh Barber, Commander, AFOSI District 10, and Col. Nick Keck ATC/SP, and CMSgt. Steve Kinne, the top security policemen in the command. On the agenda for next month are Col. Philip Roberts, ATC/DA, Brig. Gen. Daniel Taylor, ATC/LG, and both the Chief Master Sergeant of the AF, SMSgt. Jim Binniker and our command Senior Enlisted Advisor CMSgt. Bobby Renfro. The latter two chiefs have agreed to attend our Annual Enlisted Awards Banquet on Nov. 22, 86. I want you all to know that I never take for granted, and I very much appreciate, your unflinching efforts to show all our visitors the special Reese pride. Thanks.

Three-liners Of Some Significance

1. Our 54th Flying Training Squadron Ops officer, Lt. Col. Tom Nesmith, and his wife Cissi, are concluding their superb tour at Reese and will be departing for an A-10 assignment in early December. Upon Tom's departure, Lt. Col. (select) Lennie Day, the current Wing IG, will become the 54th Flying Training Squadron Ops officer, and Lt. Col. Luddy Faris, the current ADO, will join me in Building 800 as the new Wing IG. "Bon Voyage" to Tom and Cissi, and a hearty congrats to Lennie and Luddy.

2. We have five NCOs back after successfully completing the ATC NCO Academy at Lackland. Congrats and welcome home to: TSgt. Harry Carter, 64 STUS, TSgt. Ronnie Coates, 64 FMS, TSgt. Cliffordean Washington, 3500 MSS, TSgt. John Butts, 64 OMS, TSgt. Joseph Ward, 429 FTD.

3. Karen and I enjoyed the Security Police reception for Col. Keck and CMSgt. Kinne at the Enlisted Open Mess last evening. A proud point of discussion for me was the community minded spirit of our Reese defenders, and in this case their wives, who organized and put on the most appreciated "Haunted House" the children of Reese have ever seen. Congratulations to each and every member of the Security Police Womens Club for orchestrating such a super event—and a special thanks to key organizers Ellie Towe, Dolly Holz, and Helene Lechuga.

AS I SEE IT, it's team efforts like these that typify our Reese family spirit.

Count your blessings

by Chaplain (Lt. Col.) Bill McGraw

The calendar says it is time to "Count Your Blessings" and thank God for them. That at any rate seems to be what most folks believe is appropriate during the approaching season of Thanksgiving. I would be the last person to deny the validity and necessity of such stock-taking and such thanks-giving.

There are many Biblical texts which admonish us to be thankful for the good things of life: "O give thanks to the Lord for He is good." "Enter into His gates with thanksgiving and into His courts with praise." "Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all His benefits."

"Thanks be to God for His unspeakable gift."

President Abraham Lincoln issued the first general Presidential Thanksgiving Proclamation, October 3, 1863. He urged the nation to express gratitude for our "singular deliverance and blessings."

When we stop to count our blessings we become acutely aware that a Presidential Proclamation is not really necessary. There should be a spontaneous thanksgiving to God for every expression of His love. Each individual in his or her own way, says "thank you God" for being aware of my needs and meeting them.

May I share a few stanzas of one of my favorite hymns? Very appropriate for this season, the words go like this:

"Now thank we all our God with heart and hands and voices,
Who wondrous things hath done, In whom His world rejoices;
Who from our mothers arms, hath blessed us on our way,
With countless gifts of love, and still is ours today."

Commander's Column

Our Military — past and present

by Col. Ramon Broerman
Deputy Commander for Maintenance

In this column, I have variously commented on the Reese drive for excellence—how lucky we are to have the things we have in the military—and the awesome talent of our young folks. At this point I think a comment on how we got here is warranted—and timely. We've just observed Veteran's Day—one of the rare ones that hasn't been moved to a Monday to accommodate our desires for three-day weekends. This was an important one because the folks we honored are those who bought us our freedom and our options to be the one remaining truly free nation in the world.

A couple of weeks ago, I had the opportunity to speak to a fair sized group of those folks whose efforts got us here. Interesting—those folks didn't really care all that much who was speaking to them, what they really cared about was that I wore the suit—in this case the blue suit—of the active military, and they treated me and my bride as if we were the king and queen. No exotica—we had fried chicken and chicken fried steak, green beans, total Americana. But I couldn't buy a drink—much as I would have liked to—those folks wouldn't hear of it. And they hung on my every word, both before and after dinner, and before and after my speech. You want to feel proud? Get around some of those folks whose outward emblem is a service cap hung with service pins and awards, and whose inner emblem is an abiding faith in our nation and those of us currently charged with defending her.

I gave them a bit of a good news story about our young folks who work so hard—who give more than their fair share every day. And I passed along a thank you to them for establishing some of the traditions of our profession. Know what? Most of them don't really think what they did was that earth-shattering, nor that their sacrifices were all that significant. A lot of them are fairly old—a large number of them were shot at in anger—and hit—defending this country.

There aren't a lot of folks in the military today who have faced the privations and the desperation some of them faced—in the mud and muck of yesterday's wars. I said in one of my previous articles—my pride knows no bounds. I didn't even know how proud I was. I'll repeat a few lines of my speech to them which somehow mean a great deal more to me now that I've met that group of veterans.

...You—you people are the true patriots. Few of the younger people in the military today have been exposed to blood and iron. God willing—they never will be. But the ultimate fact is that the example set by those who served before and fought and died is the seed of the current generation's patriotism—nurtured by the blood of those fallen—watered by the tears of those left behind." The things they did and the legacy they left, are vital—to tradition—to commitment—they provided those things to all of us in the military today and I thank God that they did.

Who needs smoke screen

by Capt. Deb Clark
Air Force Military Personnel Center
Randolph AFB, Texas

"Cigarette smoking causes everything but flat feet and dandruff."

That was my dad's way of telling me smoking was an unhealthy practice I should avoid. But his on-target advice didn't sink in and I puffed away for 14 years.

I finally quit smoking nine months ago and since then I've tried to analyze why I smoked and why I quit. I hope that some readers may see a bit of themselves in my experiences—and maybe decide to quit.

I started smoking in high school. There was just no comparison to the "cool" way puffing on a cigarette made me feel. I also enjoyed the nicotine stimulation and physiological reaction from smoking. During those years I had no intention of getting hooked on cigarettes—I'd seen adults climbing the walls as they tried to quit, or worse, had run out of cigarettes. I couldn't imagine myself like one of them.

In college, I continued to smoke, and still saw it as a temporary habit. I knew I'd probably miss smoking once I stopped, but didn't think it would be a big problem. I felt that once I got married and had children, I'd quit for good. I did get married but, unfortunately, I married a man who smoked and we puffed away together. Children came but the cigarettes didn't go.

I started having the nagging feeling that the time to quit was way overdue. A few times, my husband and I decided to quit and we'd last for a few days or a week. Then one of us would give in and the other would quickly follow. The desire to quit was simply not as great as the desire to smoke.

In 1982, during a permanent-change-of-station move, I decided not to smoke at work. And I stuck with it. The number of cigarettes I smoked a day decreased dramatically—from a pack a day to between five and 10 cigarettes a day. Then I decided not to smoke around my children. The only time I could smoke was when I wasn't at my desk or with my children and that left very few opportunities to smoke.

But I still smoked—not many cigarettes a day, granted, but I really enjoyed and depended on those few cigarettes. A few times I tried to quit totally. I'd last a few days, then think, "Oh, it won't hurt to smoke just one." Soon I was smoking every chance I could get.

Eventually, for many reasons, my desire to quit became greater than my desire to smoke. I'm a single parent now. How could I jeopardize my health and my ability to take care of my kids? My parents, now in their 70s, were worried about my smoking and I felt guilty for causing them anxiety. Cigarette smoking, deliberately harming my body, was in direct conflict with my religious beliefs, and that also made me feel guilty. Additionally, I got tired of the consistently negative reactions I got from people I smoked around. I didn't enjoy being told my smoking smelled terrible.

So, on New Year's Day 1986, I began a tobacco-free life. It was not fun. It was like having an itch in the middle of my back and not being able to scratch it. It didn't seem fair. I shouldn't have to be so miserable. I worked hard. I tried to be a kind, pleasant person; why couldn't I reward myself with just one cigarette? But I didn't give in. And gradually, over the weeks and months, the craving subsided until it was almost completely gone. There are still times I'd love to have a cigarette, but if I start, I'll want to stop, and frankly, I don't want to go through the agony of quitting again.

I feel better physically since I quit, but more importantly, I feel greater self-confidence and self-esteem. I really enjoyed smoking and it was not easy quitting. In fact, it was one of the most difficult things I've ever done. But I did it. And if I quit smoking, I can do about anything. Isn't that a feeling you'd like to have?

Care line

Housing Maintenance staff cares

I would like to compliment the housing maintenance staff. We have had a lot of things go wrong with our house and they have always showed up early and tried to fix the problem as soon as possible.

Thanks so much for your call. Our maintenance employees are dedicated to serving our Family Housing occupants—and it sure shows. Winning ATC Family Housing Branch of the Year for 1986 was quite an honor, but earning praise from Reese Villagers like yourself is what really counts. Super job folks!

Timely computer support?

I'd like to know what we can do to get the data automation system working better. Around 2:30 p.m. every afternoon, the response time from the main frame computer completely and totally degrades. Today, we had a wait situation of approximately 45 minutes. I called data automation to indicate the system was hung up on too many transactions and response times were not coming back. What I would really like to know is: What can be done to alleviate this recurring situation?

I know that can be frustrating, but data automation's track record really indicates they have done a good job meeting the needs of all users most of the time. Statistics obtained from the internal log of the Sperry 1100/60 computer reflect average response times for your area of interest during "busy," "less busy" and "busiest" periods of use that are less than what Air Force standards consider "normal" transaction time.

Occasionally, the data automation folks tell me, when a bad transaction is input by some user, it will appear to all users that the response time is unreasonably slow when in fact, the computer has simply hung a bad transaction. If that should happen, contact your system monitor and try to work the problem through your chain of command. Thanks for the call.

New car wash is great, but needs "change"

I'm really pleased with the base's new car wash, the old one was hard to use. I do have a suggested improvement though. How about putting in a dollar bill changer for five and one dollar bills? Last week I had to drive off with soap all over my car and go some place else so I could finish the job.

Sorry about the soapy car but I am glad you like the new car wash facility. Our MWR folks are looking into the possibility of installing a bill changer but we might have to wait a while. You seek, modifications to the structure to hang or install a changer would require a waiver from the contractor who built the facility. But while we're exploring that option, why not stack up some change—and thanks for your patience.

Good hospital service; cures bad feeling

I came to work with an ear ache and the chills the other day. I just felt bad all over so I called the hospital appointment desk. The lady on duty asked me to explain my problem to her, then suggested I visit the emergency room since there were no appointments open that day.

At the emergency room, I was treated very professionally. The people there showed me they really cared about me. In just a few minutes, Lieutenant Pelfree examined me, determined I had an ear infection, and prescribed some medication. I left the hospital feeling that everybody I dealt with really cared. Please pass on my appreciation to them.

It's really great to hear that our people are treated with "customer service" foremost in mind!

News Briefs

Banquet scheduled

The Noncommissioned Officer Academy Graduate Association will host the Annual Enlisted Awards Banquet Nov. 22, 1986 at the Officer's Open Mess.

CMSgt. James C. Binnicker, Chief Master Sergeant of the Air Force, will be the guest speaker for the banquet. The Wing's Outstanding First Sergeant, Senior NCO, NCO and Airman of the Year will be announced at the banquet. Those selected will then go to compete at the ATC and possibly become one of the Air Force's 12 Outstanding Airman of the Year. The NCOAGA sponsors this event annually through fundraising events. The project coordinator for this year's event is CMSgt. Leonard Minzer, Ext. 3446. If you would like to assist, contact one of these key personnel: MSgt. Frank Berg, co-chairman and entertainment, ext. 3474; MSgt. Roy Wilson, publicity chairman, Ext. 3615; TSgt. Lafayette Butler, seating chairman, Ext. 3028; and TSgt. Art Rennels, decorations chairman, Ext. 3951. Contact your First Sergeant for reservations.

Fingerprinting held

On Dec. 6, the Security Police and the Noncommissioned Officers Association will be fingerprinting children in the BX Mall for future identifications, in case the child is lost, a runaway or kidnapped. If you have a blank or partially blank VHS tape, bring it with you. A video camera and recorder will be provided for you to have a video recording of your child.

Officers meeting promotion boards through the end of the year and affected by the new criteria for wear of the overseas ribbon will not be required to update their official photographs. Official photographs need not reflect the new criteria until January.

Bake sale held

The Nursing Service Welfare Group will hold a bake sale in the Main Exchange lobby tomorrow, beginning at 10 a.m.

Children invited

Library Story Hour is Wednesday, 10-11 a.m., and 12:30-1:30 p.m. The hour is free and includes reading aloud, movies, activities and games and other fun things to do. All children are invited to share in the fun.

Property lost

The Security Police Investigations Section has the following lost or abandoned items: one female's wristwatch and one key ring containing two keys and two tags. If this property belongs to you, please call the Investigations Section, Ext. 3999.

We need your help

The Smoking Cessation course at Reese is expanding to meet public demand for the class. Any Air Force member who has accomplished the feat of 'breaking the habit' and would like to help others to do so can volunteer as an instructor. Prefer people with instructor, NCO Academy, or other public speaking training. We are trying to expand the program to use two teams of instructor-facilitators. If you volunteer, you will be working with a hospital officer, who will cover the medical aspect of smoking. If you use to smoke and would like to help others to stop, call Ext. 3536.

Theater discounts

The Mathis Recreation Center has discount theater tickets to the following:

United Artists tickets for the cinema at the South Plains Mall—$3.75

Fox-Mann tickets—$3.25

Tickets may be purchased at the Mathis Recreation Center Monday-Friday, 10 a.m. to 9:30 p.m., and Saturday, Sunday and Holidays, noon to 9:30 p.m.

Allowance changed

The Variable Housing Allowance offset change has been in effect since March and we still have new personnel arriving at Reese who have not been briefed on the procedures of the new change. Supervisors should instruct all new personnel to report to Housing Referral after they have selected off-base housing. They should bring a copy of the lease, mortgage or rental agreement for Housing Referral to keep in their file. Singles, single parents and military married to military must report to Base Billeting Office, Bldg. 1142, to process their paperwork to be eligible for VHA.

Luncheon ahead

This month, the Company Grade Officer's Council Quarterly Award Luncheon will be held Monday in the Davis Room of the Officer's Open Mess, 11:30 a.m. Those nominated for IP and Support Officer of the Quarter are:

IP; 1st Lts. Brian Gerrity, 64th Student Squadron, Richard Bresette, 35th Flying Training Squadron and Capt. David Bellamy, 54th Flying Training Squadron

Support Officer: 1st Lts. Linda McMillan, DO, Brian Babin, MA, and 2nd Lts. David Deloach, ABG, and Ronald Taylor, RM.

Films shown

Project Warrior films will be shown during the lunch hour from 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the following locations: Monday, Nov. 24, officer's club; Tuesday, Nov. 25, NCO club; Wednesday, Nov. 26, Caprock Cafe.

This month's Warrior films are "Pacific Pattern" and "Advance the Bomb-erline." Both films are part of the Air Power film series and were filmed in the 1950s.

Automobiles recalled

Ford Motor Co. is recalling approximately 250,000 cars and 162,000 trucks. Included are about 162,000 1985 and 1986 gasoline-fueled, long-wheel base Ranger light trucks for possible correction of excessive evaporation emissions. Ford said the fuel tank vapor line may require re-routing.

The company will also recall approximately 258,000 Ford Tempo and Mercury Topaz vehicles to replace bolts in the seat assembly. Ford said the two bolts that attach the driver's seat-back assembly to the seat-cushion frame may fracture during vehicle use. That could cause the seat-back to recline. The condition is alleged to have caused minor accident and five minor injuries.

Activities planned

The Youth Center is holding activities classes different days of the week for everyone.

Dance classes for tumbling, ballet, tap will be held Tuesday and Thursday, 4:30-6 p.m. at a cost of $14 per person. All ages welcome.

Martial Arts, Jujutso, will be held Mondays and Thursdays, 4:30-6 p.m. at a cost of $15 per person. Boys and girls of all ages welcome.

Candy Bar Bingo, Sundays and Wednesdays, 2-4 p.m. at the Arts and Crafts Center and the Youth Center.

Marathon held

A Dance Marathon will be held at the Mathis Recreation Center tomorrow from midnight to 4 a.m. Sunday. Admission is $1. Bring a canned good. Certificates for all participants. For more information, call Ext. 3787.

NCOA needs help

The Noncommissioned Officers' Association is looking for old, used or unwanted trophies, in any condition. We will be able to use part of the trophies for fund raisers. If you have any that you wish to donate, please contact SSgt. Jimmy Bourns, Ext. 3121/3122.

Housing wanted

The Housing Referral Service has a continuous need for non-discriminatory housing for military and DoD civilian personnel. If you have a house, apartment or mobile home you would like to rent or sell, take advantage of our listing service. This is a free service available to all personnel. Call Paul Young at Housing Referral Service, Ext. 3601, or go by the Housing Referral Office, Bldg. 6100. Providing a photograph of your property may aid in the sale or rental of the property.

Examinations held

Persons wishing to schedule occupational physical examinations or audiograms—hearing tests—should call the Physical Exams Section of the hospital, Ext. 3406. An Environmental Health technician has been assigned there to coordinate the program. Ear plugs will be available at the Environmental Health trailer.

Worship held

A Church of Christ worship service is held at the Base Chapel every Sunday evening from 7-8 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

Results are in

The results of the 1986 price survey showed AAFES customers save an average of 17.8 percent by shopping at AAFES, with the greatest savings in clothing—29.2 percent, stationary—27.3 percent, and jewelry—23 percent. This does not include sales tax. AAFES has also increased its personal check cashing limit. Starting Oct. 1, customers check cashing limit is up to $150 daily, subject to the availability of funds.

Story told

The Broadway Gospel Singers and an ex-Marine and Vietnam veteran will sing about one who cares and tell the story of the most important event in human history. Hear Pat King discuss 'What happened at the Cross?' Sunday, 7-8 p.m. in the Base Chapel. There will be free snacks and refreshments afterwards.

CCAF awards degrees

The Community College of the Air Force graduation ceremony was held recently at the Enlisted Open Mess. Ranks of the Reese graduates ranged from Senior Airman to Senior Master Sergeant. Chaplain Winburg opened the ceremony with the invocation followed by the welcome address given by SMSgt. Robinson.

Colonel Edwards, Commander, 64th Air Base Group, and guest speaker, mentioned the hard work these graduates endured, on and off duty, to complete their degrees. "By investing the time and effort required to earn a degree from the 'Enlisted Person's College,' they have indicated to their leaders and co-workers that they are capable of increased responsibility and recognition."

MSgt. Washington followed the presentation of degrees with a few words of wisdom from a graduate's point of view. Mr. Wilbur concluded, saying that advanced education does improve promotion opportunities, and it can also dramatically affect other areas of your life. Although this was the largest graduating class from Reese, he encouraged everyone's support to pass the word about CCAF. If you would like more information on how to obtain your Associate in Applied Science degree, contact the Education Center, Bldg. 920, room 139.

Tanning salons could be dangerous

by 2nd Lt. Gregory Zigulis
Chief, Bioenvironmental Engineering

She looks marvelous! Her figure is fantastic and her dark tan is terrific. She exercises at a health club to keep herself fit and uses the club's tanning bed to keep her skin bronze. Maybe she is your idea of someone who really takes care of herself. Unfortunately for her, she may be paying for her tan with more than money. The light rays emitted from her tanning bed may be injuring her body and damaging her health.

Could this be you?

Air Force personnel may be considering tanning bed use now that winter is here. But before you decide to utilize such a device, consider the risks versus the benefits.

First, let's look at some of the risks. Tanning beds use two kinds of ultraviolet (UV) light to tan the skin, called UVA and UVB. In the past, tanning salons used beds emitting primarily UVB, until UVB was found to cause problems. Now salons use those beds emitting 96-98 percent UVA and 2-4 percent UVB, with the hope that UVA is safer than UVB. However, the American Academy of Dermatology and the Center for Devices and Radiological Health agree that cosmetic tanning with beds utilizing UVA is not without its dangers. UVA use may lead to long-term eye damage, edema, vascular system damage and suppression of the immune system, and also contains the risk of skin cancer and premature aging.

Now, the benefits. Perhaps you will feel better psychologically...But is it worth the risks?

Smokers lay off Thursday

by Capt. Charles Sinclair
Health Promotions Coordinator

Thursday, November 20 is the date of the Great American Smokeout (GASO). This is a nationwide effort to stop smoking. Sponsored by the American Cancer Society, the GASO is a day when we ask smokers to stop for a day.

At Reese, activities involve smokers, fellow workers who don't smoke, and school-age children.

SMOKERS: Please leave your cigarettes at home this Thursday. See what a day is like without them. Bring gum, straws, or something to chew on as a substitute. NON-SMOKERS: Help the smokers in your shop get through the day. Nicotine is an addictive drug. The smoker may have a tough day. Help him out. CHILDREN: The children in grades 3 and 4 at Reese Elementary and grades 5 and 6 at Wolfforth Intermediate School are getting the facts about smoking. Some of them will "adopt a smoker" on Thursday. That may be mom or dad.

The Lubbock community recognized GASO with a balloon lift at the Texas Tech-SMU game last Saturday. You've probably already heard about GASO through the local media blitz.

WHY QUIT?

1. You'll feel better. When you get rid of the carbon dioxide, carbon monoxide, tar, nicotine, heat, and replace it with oxygen, you'll feel better. When you get the scum off your teeth and get rid of cigarette breath, you'll feel better.

2. You'll live longer. Most smokers who quit heal completely. Their health risks gradually return to the level of one who has never smoked! Risks? Not just lung cancer. What about chronic bronchitis, bladder cancer, dental problems, cigarette burns, fires, cardiovascular disease, throat cancer, cancer of the tongue, and decreased endurance in an emergency?

3. Others will appreciate it. The "passive smoker" is the guy who has to smell your smoke. He doesn't like it. The cigarette smell on your clothing is noticed by non-smokers. Isn't that a form of

"B.O.?" Do you like to see cigarette butts in an ashtray when you are eating? Studies show that smoking is no longer accepted as a sophisticated activity. It turns a lot of people off.

We just finished another round of stop-smoking classes. Several graduates broke 20 year smoking habits! We will offer our next course in January—after all the "New Year's" resolutions are made.

Handicapped employee recognized

by A1C Robin Reams
Staff Writer

During National Handicapped Week, the Reese Base Exchange recognized two outstanding handicapped employees.

Ricardo Nanez has been working at the BX as a Custodial Worker since July 28, 1986. Barbara Winslow has been employed as a Food Service Worker with the exchange since July 8, 1986.

Mr. Nacianceno Rodela, the Handicapped Individuals Program Manager, assigned to the Human Resources Branch with AAFES in San Antonio spoke to the supervisors at the Base Exchange on employment of the handicapped as a part of the AAFES awareness program.

He advised employers to take a look at their facility and determine if it would be accessible to a handicapped employee. Many times only minor adjustments are needed in the work place he said. "Handicapped employees can be a valuable asset in the workforce and will give 200 percent to the job if given a chance," stated Mr. Rodela.

It will be expected that _____ will assist me by adhering to the following suggestions:

1. Hide cigarettes, ashtrays, lighters and matches.
2. Tell all your friends that you have been adopted and will not smoke on the day of the Great American Smokeout (GAS), the third Thursday in November.
3. Call on your foster nonsmoker (me!) in times of weakness.
4. Refrain from frequenting smoke filled rooms.
5. Repeat to yourself over and over "not smoking is a GAS."

I, _____, the foster nonsmoker will try to cajole the aforementioned smoker to continue on the road to smokelessness following the Great American Smokeout, but this formal arrangement will conclude 24 hours after it began.

Air Force supports American Smokeout

BROOKS AFB, Texas—On Thursday, Nov. 20—Great American Smokeout day—Air Force leaders want everyone to kick the habit for at least 24 hours, if not forever.

"Every year an estimated 350,000 Americans die from smoking-related diseases," said Maj. Wanda Sutterer, assistant chief for health promotion at Brooks AFB, Texas. "The Air Force has a goal to reduce smoking by 5 percent by July 1987," she added.

Posters supplied by the American Cancer Society, sponsor of the smokeout, have been distributed to all stateside bases, while selected literature was sent to overseas installations. The Great American Smokeout 1986 promotion guide has been given to all health promotion coordinators.

One of the events highlighted by the society this year is the "adopt-a-smoker" program, which gets non-smokers involved. A non-smoker gets adoption papers on a smoker and issues a survival kit to help the smoker get through the day.

A new promotion in recognition of the 10th year of the smokeout is the Star Quest, which honors those individuals who have successfully stopped smoking during the past 10 years.

The Air Force is urging everyone to get involved in the Great American Smokeout. "We are taking a light-hearted approach to a program that has a serious purpose," Major Sutterer said.

During the 1985 Great American Smokeout, a record of 39.8 percent of the nation's female smokers and 33.4 percent of its male smokers participated.

American Cancer Society statistics show that cigarette smokers, who represent less than a third of the adult population, account for about 83 percent of all cases of lung cancer. Lung cancer is the leading cause of cancer death among both men and women.

Stopping smoking reduces the risk of lung cancer mortality compared to that of the continuing smoker, according to the society. Smokers who quit 15 or more years ago have lung cancer mortality rates only slightly above those for non-smokers. (AFNS)

The longest line

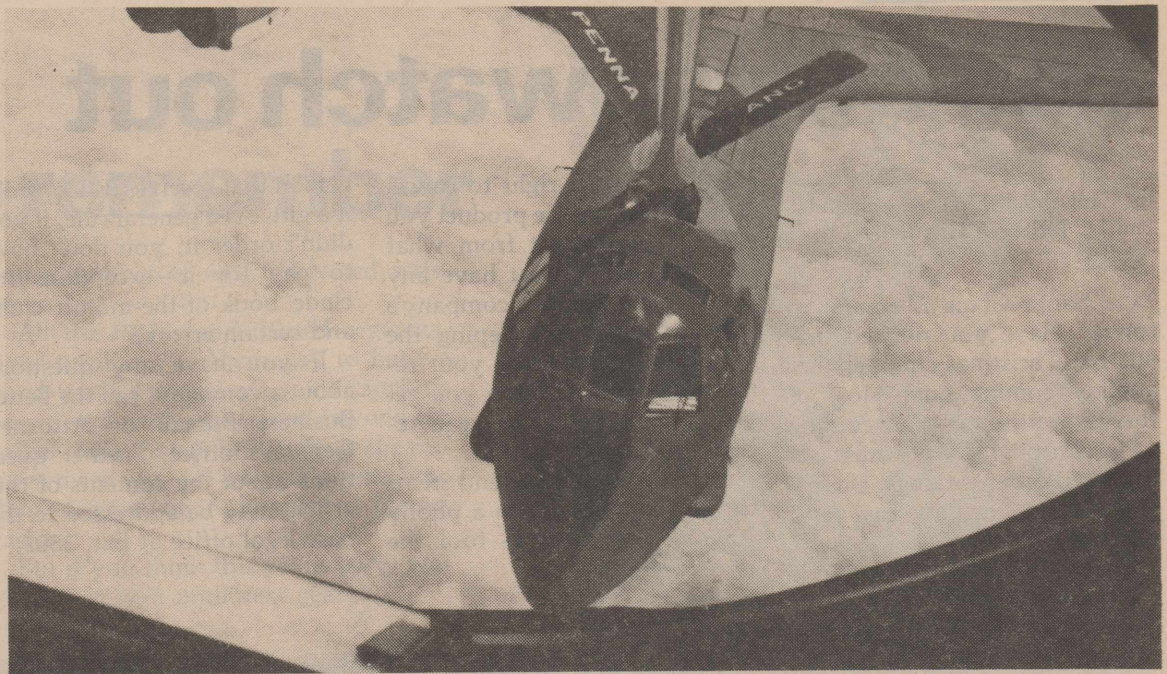

by TSgt. Larry Moss
1958th ISS

We all know what the mission of the 1958th Communications Squadron Center (IPC)/Data, usually called Data Automation, is. Among other things, they supply all the computer runs of Reese AFB that we try to figure out how to read.

But did you know that they also support the Air National Guard and Air Force Reserve at Pittsburgh International Airport, Pittsburgh, Pa.? Reese AFB and Pittsburgh are connected by the longest land line between a Sperry 1100/60 computer and a remote site in the Air Force. The IPC at Reese supports the 171st Air Refueling Wing, the 911th Tactical Airlift Group, and the 112th Tactical Fighter Group at Pittsburgh. They provide data processing support for Accounting and Finance, Personnel, Supply, etc... the same as here at Reese AFB.

The Air National Guard and Air Force Reserve each have a Sperry System 11 connected to the Reese Sperry 110/60. The Reserve System 11 was hooked up in April, 1986 and the Guard came on line in Oct., 1986.

You better watch out by Capt. Michael D. Russell and 2nd Lt. J. Steven Fuss

"...Santa Claus is comin' to town." Have you noticed that ads for Christmas shoppers are already coming out? Most of these advertisements are coming to you through TV commercials and mail order catalogs. Understand what the law says and protect your self.

If you decide to order goods from a catalog, realize that the "Mail Order Rule" requires the company to do a couple of things for you. The company must ship your order within the advertised time period or 30 days, if no time is stated. If the order isn't sent within the promised time, the seller is required to notify you of the delay and give you the option of cancelling the order.

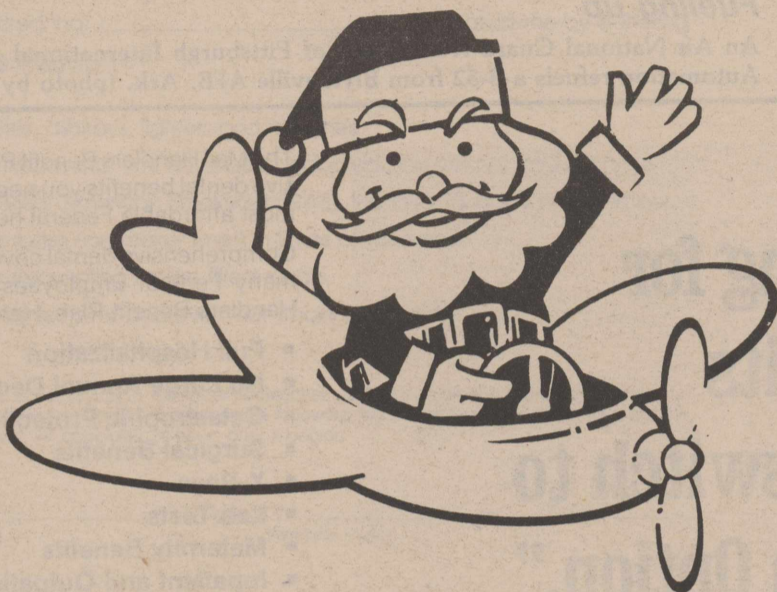

The telephone shopper has less protection. You could place your order today and receive the item in March—and still owe for the order. The requirement to ship your goods by the advertised time doesn't exist. If ordering by phone you should make a note of the date, and copy down the name, address and phone number of the company you ordered from. A detailed description of your order should also be included on this memo.

You have the right to cancel your contract if the product you receive is different from what you ordered. If you have any doubts about the company's honesty, consider keeping the item as evidence until your refund is received. Once you get your money back you can return the goods.

Sometimes sellers send items through the mail with a phony "invoice," hoping to fool the person that receives it. Consider it a gift. As a general rule, if you didn't order it, you don't have to pay for it—exceptions include book-of-the-month clubs and certain errors.

If you have any questions about a company, call the Better Business Bureau or Attorney General's office. Further questions about the contents of this article may be addressed to the base legal office at Ext. 3505.

The alternative for complaints

by Maj. Robert S. Schwartz and 2nd Lt. William T. Huffman

If you are involved in a dispute and are considering going to court with a complaint or calling the police, an alternative is now available. Your complaint could be settled quickly through the Regional Center for Dispute Resolution.

The center for Dispute Resolution is a service provided through the South Plains Association of Governments that help people resolve minor conflicts before they develop into more serious problems. Through mediation the center helps people resolve disputes on their own.

During mediation both parties have an opportunity to explain their side of a problem. With the help of a trained neutral third party, groups or individuals can take an active part in resolving their differences and reaching lasting settlement.

Mediation is an efficient means of solving a problem. The cost is five dollars for filing a dispute, and is only collected when the situation is resolved. Nothing goes on file at the courthouse or police station. For convenience, sessions are generally held at night. Most important, mediation is effective. Nearly 75 percent of mediations result in settled agreements. The center not only handles consumer problems, but they've settled family disputes, neighborhood conflicts, landlord/tenant problems, property damage claims, and other conflicts. If a dispute is not suitable for mediation, the center will assist in contacting an appropriate resource for the solution you need.

ate resource for the solution you need.

If you are interested in finding out more about the Regional Center for Dispute Resolution or you wish to initiate a case simply go to the South Plains

Association of Governments office at 1323 58th Street, or call (806)762-8721. Mediation is a valuable tool that can work for you. The legal office (3505) will be glad to answer questions you may have about this process.

Oktoberfest— an evening to remember

by Lt. Scott Shankland
35FTS Public Affairs Representative

ACHTUNG!!! The 35th Oktoberfest is a Smashing Success! Great food, great drink, and over 200 great people made for an amazingly successful first 35FTS OKTOBERFEST. The night long celebration featured a fabulous German feast, games and dancing, all planned and organized by 1st Lt. Frank Fields and a number of well motivated assistants.

All the flights and related organizations went out of their way to have a good time, demonstrate some esprit de corps, and party above and beyond the call of duty. As can be seen from the pictures there was not a single person who didn't seem to be in the spirit of the occasion.

But if you think this year's party was great, just wait until next year.

CHAMPUS — know your benefits

by Bob Gregorio
USAF Hospital-Reese

During your assignment at Reese, there will be occasions when routine and/or emergency care required by your dependents will not be available at this hospital.

The reason is by law, Military Medical Facilities provide medical care to Retirees and dependents on a space available basis (if space and facilities are available, and capabilities of the professional staff permit). Depending on the seriousness of the medical problem when this happens, you will have to make a choice of using another military medical facility or a civilian physician or hospital in the local area.

If you decide to use another military facility, let your provider know and we will assist your dependents in making an appointment at that facility, and in some cases we may be able to assist with aero-medical transportation. Keep in mind that the nearest military medical facility is around 200 miles from Reese and in an emergency situation your only choice will be to obtain care from a civilian provider/hospital.

The Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniformed Services (CHAMPUS) was devised just for that purpose. It is a program of medical benefits provided by the Federal Government under public law to certain individuals who, by virtue of their relationship to a member of one of the seven Uniformed Services is eligible for those benefits. Generally, this program will cost-share most health care that is medically necessary. If you use the program, the CHAMPUS claims processor will pay 80 percent of the allowable charges for dependents of active duty and 75 percent of the allowable charges for retirees and dependents of retired/deceased military personnel for out-patient care, after an initial $50 deductible per fiscal year is met (maximum of $100 per family).

For hospitalization at a civilian hospital the cost for an active duty dependent is $7.55 per day or $25.00, which ever is greater. For Retiree's and their dependents the cost is 25 percent of the bill. Also, remember to check with the Health Benefits Advisor to see if the care is available at the base hospital. If it is not, you are issued a nonavailability statement. This is not a guarantee of payment, it is only a statement that you cannot get the required in-patient care in the military hospital. Without this statement, a claims processor cannot pay for non-emergency hospitalizations.

Because you are referred for care by the base hospital, don't assume that the civilian provider/hospital will accept assignment under the CHAMPUS program. It is your responsibility to ask if they will accept you as a patient under the program and accept your cost-share plus the fees the program allows as full payment.

If your civilian provider/hospital does not participate in the program and you choose to have them provide your care, you will be responsible for paying the difference between the allowable charges and the actual charges, in addition to your CHAMPUS cost-share.

As you can see, the CHAMPUS program is not free. Because of this fact, you may want to purchase other health insurance to supplement CHAMPUS. We can provide you with a list of organizations you can write for information about supplemental insurance.

There are many special benefits and certain limits under the CHAMPUS program. Some of you may have your parents or parents-in-law as dependents. You may also have a child living in your home prior to adoption, and the child may be designated by the Secretary of the Air Force as eligible for care in a military medical facility while the adoption is being finalized. These individuals can obtain care at a military facility on a space available basis. If that care is not available at a military facility, they cannot use the CHAMPUS program. There are also claim filing and appeal procedures.

If you have any questions concerning the CHAMPUS program or the base hospital, you may contact me at 885-3581 or stop by the Patient Affairs Office in the hospital.

AF hospitals to tap private companies

WASHINGTON—The Air Force, along with other military services, began billing private insurance companies Oct. 1 for in-patient care given to military retirees and dependents at Air Force hospitals.

Only in-patient care for retirees, dependents and other non-active duty patients will be billed. Active-duty people and out-patient care are not affected.

Health officials said the Air Force will charge a flat rate, set by the Department of Defense, for each day of hospitalization. Presently, that rate is a little more than $400 a day. The defense department will reset that daily rate later this month.

Even if private insurance companies pay only part of the bill, patients will not be charged for the remainder, officials said.

Patients will continue to pay daily subsistence rates while hospitalized. Those rates are $7.55 for dependents and $3.60 for retired officers. Retired enlisted members are not charged.

The Fiscal 1985 Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act authorized the defense department to begin collecting in-patient charges from dependents and retirees with private medical insurance. Officials said Congress will review the program after one year and may extend collections to include out-patient services.

Health plans with federal hospital exclusions included before April 7, 1986, will not be affected.

Health officials said admitting clerks will ask all patients for private health insurance information. (AF News Service)

Children eligible for monthly benefits

Under the provision of a recent public law enacted by congress, certain children of military retired personnel may be eligible for monthly benefit payments, providing an application for such benefits is made prior to Oct. 1, 1988.

Prior to the passage of Public Law 99-145, children of an active duty member of the Armed Forces of the United States who were retirement eligible but who died on active duty were not given Survivor Benefit Program benefits. Now, in certain cases, these benefits may be provided and the case involved are those in which both parents died as a result of a common accident.

Initial contact by the custodian or guardian of the child or children should be forwarded to the following addresses respectively:

Air Force: Air Force Accounting and Finance Center, Denver, Colorado 80279.

Army: U.S. Army Finance and Accounting Center, Indianapolis, Indiana 46259.

Navy: U.S. Navy Finance Center, Cleveland, Ohio 44199. Marine Corps: U.S. Marine Corps Finance Center, Kansas City, Kansas 64197.

Coast Guard: U.S. Coast Guard Pay Center, 444 S.E. Quincy St., Topeka, Kansas 66683.

The law makes no provision for retroactive benefits, but will be effective only from the date the request is received by the appropriate military service. When a person is shown to be eligible, payments will commence the month after the application is received.

Children are eligible to receive SBP annuities until age 18, or age 22 if they are proven to be permanently and totally disabled prior to age 18, or age 22 if a student.

Selling your VA home?

Before selling a VA home, contact the VA regional office at 747-5256 to secure a release of liability.

A release of liability relieves the veteran of all further liability to the VA on account of the loan, including the liability for any loss resulting from a default of the transferee, or any purchaser.

The veteran needs to make this contact to the VA where his loan was processed before signing a contract to sell.

The VA will send a "release of liability package" which contains the VA pamphlet entitled "Selling your GI Home?"

Members get chance to enroll

WASHINGTON (AFNS)—Service members left without educational benefits when the new GI Bill began last summer have until March 31, 1987, to salvage those benefits. They must enroll in the Veterans Educational Assistance Program by that date.

Service members who joined the military from Jan. 1, 1977, to June 30, 1985, who have not enrolled in the VEAP are affected. They joined the military too late for the Vietnam-Era GI Bill and too early for the new GI Bill. VEAP is their only alternative.

Service members are presently eligible for one of three educational benefit plans depending on when they joined the military. Service members who joined in 1976 or earlier fall under the Vietnam-Era GI Bill. Those who entered the military from Jan. 1, 1977 to June 30, 1985, must use VEAP. Anyone who joined the military in July 1985 or later falls under the new GI Bill.

The new GI Bill began July 1, 1985. Because the Administration opposed the new GI Bill as too expensive, it was okayed only as a three-year test program.

Members eligible for VEAP were given until June 30, 1985 to enroll in VEAP or lose the VEAP benefit. Pentagon officials said that many did not enroll, believing they could enroll in VEAP in July, 1988, when the three-year test of the new GI Bill ended.

Congress passed legislation Oct. 28 giving those VEAP eligible service members one last chance to enroll. The military will not accept VEAP enrollments after March 31, 1987. The Veterans Benefits Improvement and Health Care Authorization Act of 1986 includes that provision.

Under VEAP, service members can contribute up to $2,700 toward their educational fund. Those contributions can be in monthly allotments or lump-sum payment. The government will double those contributions, adding $2 to the fund for every $1 contributed by the member.

Weather

by TSgt. Mark J. Campbell
Det 11 24 Weather Squadron

Are we cold enough yet? The coldness of winter has been felt pretty strongly this week through the central portion of the United States. A series of cold fronts began pulsating through the Reese area beginning on Saturday that was expected to bring colder air and a chance to some type of precipitation. Well the cold air did arrive on time but the moisture was well spent in the northern states and there was only cold dry air left.

As seen in earlier issues of this article, the jet stream is the steering factor to all of the weather phenomenon and this time was no exception. A jet stream is a column of high speed winds that rotate similar to a corkscrew, through the atmosphere at speeds of 90 to 100 knots in the winter time. In the center of the jetstream often occurs a situation called a jet maximum where the winds exceed the surrounding winds. This week, the jet maxes have been 150 to 160 knots. It is when these jet maxes enter the area such as Reese that the fronts can come from as far north as Canada with such speed that the front has no time to modify and warm up and the temperatures begin to plummet. This is what happened this week. Is this going to continue through the weekend?

The area will be in for a warming trend beginning Friday. After a overnight low of twenty-three degrees on Tuesday and a forecasted low of twenty degrees on Thursday

Movies

The Mathis Recreation Center offers free movies every Friday at 7 p.m., Sunday at 3 p.m. and Tuesday at 7 p.m.

This weeks movies are:

Friday, Blue City, starring Judd Nelson and Ally Sheedy. When occurrences of petty theft and graffiti at a secluded, affluent high school rise, a student security enforcement group known as The Sentinels is formed. Very quickly, though, they adopt Nazi-type tactics, sadistically punishing all those who rebel against them.—R

Sunday, Space Camp. A group of kids come to NASA's Space Center to learn all about astronauting. During their training they are, without warning, inadvertently hurled off into space.—PG

Tuesday, Dream Scape. An intriguing sci-fi thriller that centers on dreamlinking—the psychic projection on one person's subconscious into a sleeping person's subconscious. Quite an unusual idea, with terrifying results!—PG-13

(Movie synopsis by AAFES)

Next week—due to the Kris Kringle Karnival at the Mathis Recreation Center, Nov. 21-23 the Friday and Sunday movies have been rescheduled.

Thursday, Nov. 20, at 7 p.m.—Getting Even—R

Monday, Nov. 24, at 7 p.m.—Raw Deal—R

Tuesday, Nov. 25—Fire Starter—R

with highs reaching into the low thirties on Wednesday, a warming trend would be a welcome sight. The temperatures were not, believe it or not, record breaking for the area. The temperature dropped down to one degree during this month one year. By Friday, there should be improving weather conditions by the introduction of warmer temperatures. The day time high should climb into the upper fifties but the overnight lows will still be in the thirties as they should be during the whole weekend. The temperatures on Saturday and Sunday are expected to climb into the upper sixties with southwesterly winds gusting to twenty knots occasionally. Precipitation chances will decrease on Friday also. The weather is going to get better now that Reese has survived this last surge of bad weather. This is only the beginning!

Rattlers 'flag' Goodfellow

by AIC Greg Spraggins
Editor, Roundup

The Reese Rattlers Varsity Flag Football team tuned up for the next week's ATC Flag Football Championship by defeating Goodfellow AFB, Texas 19-0 in the opening contest and 26-0 in the second game.

In the first game, Reese relied on a ball-control offense and an opportunistic defense. Reese' first score came in the second quarter as Rattler quarterback Patrick Barnes hooked up with Leonardo Jones for a 12 yard touchdown. Mark Diels took a pitch-out and rushed three yards for the extra point. Reese struck again in the second quarter as Barnes again found Jones wide open for a 30 yard TD pass to close out the first half. Half-time score—Reese 13, Goodfellow 0.

The second half was highlighted by Reese's tough defense which did not allow a touch-down. The defensive charge was led by Jones' one interception and Tom Steres' three pass deflections.

Mark Diels caught a one-yard touchdown to round out the scoring for the game.

In game two, Reese began where they had left off in game one. Barnes threw a three yard scoring strike to a wide open Tim Sell for the games first points. In the second quarter.

Barnes and Sell connected again for a 40-yard pass play as Sell made a diving catch in the end zone.

In the second half, Benny Thomas caught a swing pass and avoided two Goodfellow defenders en route to a 15 yard scoring play. At the end of the third quarter, the score was 20-0. Barnes ended the scoring with a 15 yard scamper on a quarterback keeper for the final tally.

Gym to close

The Physical Fitness Center basketball court will be closed Dec. 4-8 due to floor renovations. On Dec. 11 the entire gym will be closed from 1-5 p.m. for a hospital exercise. Intramural basketball will begin Tuesday.

Rod and Gun Club events scheduled

The Nov. 1 quail hunt at Matador Wildlife Management area was a success.

All hunters got birds with a few getting their limit of 12 quail. Club members reported seeing deer, turkey, coyote, pheasant and antelope during the hunt.

Quail hunting is open until Feb. Interested hunters wanting some quick shooting should give Matador a try.

The Rod and Gun Club cancelled its planned fishing tournament at White River on Nov. 15, due to high water. The past rains have left White River with water going over its spillway.

In place of the fishing tournament, a club member only on base rabbit hunt and turkey shoot on Sunday.

Sign up for the hunt will begin at 6:30 a.m. the morning of the hunt at the skeet range. The Hunt will begin promptly at 7 a.m. and end at 9:45 a.m. Late comers will not be permitted to hunt.

The turkey shoot will begin at 10:30 a.m. with each hunter getting one shot at a cardboard target. The closest BB to the center of the target wins a turkey. The cost of the hunt and turkey shoot is $2.

If you are not a member of the Rod and Gun Club and would like to participate in the hunt and turkey shoot, then join the club and come on out.

For more information on joining the club or any Rod and Gun Club activities, contact Rick Covolt at Ext. 3500 or Dan Wagner at Ext. 3451.

Basketball officials to meet

A basketball official's meeting will be held today, 1 p.m., at Mathis Recreation Center. Timers and scorekeepers are also needed for the season. For more information, call SSgt. Gary Grant, Ext. 3783.

The next meeting of the Rod and Gun Club will be held on Dec. 9 at 7 p.m. at the NCO Club dining room.

Reese takes Goodfellow

The Reese Men's Varsity Basketball team beat Goodfellow AFB 102-75 Nov. 8. The team's high scorers were Ken Kirk with 29 points and Rick Walton with 21 points. The two teams met again Nov. 9 which resulted in a Reese win of 90-81. Top scorers were Ken Kirk with 35 points and Tony Chatmon with 24 points. Both games were dominated by Reese's fast pace and precision passing. The team's base record after these two games stands at 8 wins and no losses.
