Indians B-Team Lowers Boom On Anson, 22-8

The Haskell "B" team, showing a fine team effort, downed Anson "B" team 22-8 Thursday night, Sept. 20, in that city.

Haskell struck pay dirt first when James Perkins smashed off right tackle for a 65-yard run. The try for extra point was no good. Haskell's defense was tremendous for the entire ball game with Gary Conner, Dicky Frierson, David Wilson, Bill Perry and Troy Burson leading the way.

Haskell again crossed the goal line when end Jimmy Larned took a 10-yard pass from Quarterback Ronnie Jeter on Haskell's 20-yard line and raced 80 yards for the TD. End Freddy Kreger threw a fine kick to help his teammate to score. Tailback Eddie Hester went around his own left end to make the score 14-0 at the end of the first quarter. During the second quarter, James Perkins scored from around his left end on a 45 yard run and Quarterback Ronnie Jeter made the extra point. Score at the half was Haskell 22, Anson 0.

Anson scored on a pass play in the 4th quarter. After getting three tries for the extra point, Anson finally made it. That's the way it ended, 22-8, in favor of Haskell. The Indians play Albany at Albany this Thursday, Sept. 27, at 5:00 p. m.

Sheriff Nabs Bogus Check Artist Soon After First Check Bounces

A forger, credited by officers with leaving a string of "hot" checks from Victoria to Haskell, was nabbed in Goree early last Saturday by Sheriff Garth Garrett and Knox County officers.

The arrest was made within a few hours after the forger's activities had been reported.

The 31-year-old man, who gave his address as Devine, Texas, came to Haskell about 16 days ago and started "papering" the area with worthless checks.

With a supply of blank checks on San Antonio and Robstown banks among others, and using a check protector to add authenticity, the operator had out several hundred dollars in "hot" checks before his first forgery rebounded and was reported to Sheriff Garrett.

The forger was accompanied by a "crew" of colored men who purported to be farm workers, and they were used in cashing the forged checks, the Haskell officer said.

When the first checks were reported to officers Friday, Sheriff Garrett found that the forger had left Haskell. However, with the help of State

Two Explorer Scouts Speak at Rotary Luncheon

A report on the first national conference of Explorer Scouts, held recently at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, was given members of the Rotary Club at the meeting and luncheon Thursday.

Making the interesting report were two Haskell Explorer Scouts, Eddie Hester and Barry O'Neal. They, with Brent Davis of Rule, attended as delegates from the Chisholm Trails Council.

Explorer Scout Hester introduced the report, telling of the trip by the Texas delegation from Austin to Ann Arbor, and the points of interest in many of the cities where they made brief stops.

Explorer Scout O'Neal talked principally on the "Explorador" staged at the conference, where various groups had exhibits. He also told of excursions and visits to historical places, including Henry Ford Museum at Dearborn, and numerous other points including a trip to Windsor, Ontario. Other interesting places were visited on the return trip, he related.

Club President E. J. Stewart told members that according to the District Governor's letter, Haskell had attendance of 92.54 per cent last month to rate 14th place in the district. Club sing-song was led by Bob Herren.

Parents of the two Explorer Scouts were special guests of the club. They were Rotarian and Mrs. Ed Hester, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy O'Neal.

Out-of-town visitors were Rotarians Tom Gault of New Salem, Pa., L. B. Taylor and Aubrey Simpkins of Rule.

Council's View Sought On $1,900,000 NCTWA Grant

An outright grant of $1,900,000 from the Community Facilities Administration may be available for the North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority, provided local divergent factions can reconcile their differences and work together.

This was brought out at a meeting of the City Council on Tuesday night when R. W. (Bob) Herren, former president of NCTMWA, appeared before the Council and briefly reviewed the program.

"I believe that Haskell and Knox Counties can qualify for this grant, and it would amount to one-half the estimated cost ($3,800,000) of the NCTMWA project," Herren stated.

The main requirement is that both factions quit their "feuding and fussing" and work together, he stated frankly.

"It won't cost anything if we want to try to get the grant of almost two million dollars, but we will have to show unity and work together," he pointed out.

Council members present, along with Mayor J. E. Walling, agreed that they would study the information left by Herren, and make their decision known as soon as possible.

The former Water Authority official made it clear that he was not on a "selling mission." The program is a new one, he said, under which the towns in the water district can benefit to the extent of $1,900,000. "I thought you folks would be interested in this kind of deal," he concluded.

The man was arrested by Sheriff Garrett and State Ranger H. T. Melton of Benjamin, after the Haskell Sheriff had become suspicious of the young Mexican who came here recently from Alice, Texas.

After questioning, the suspect gave officers a statement detailing his activities on the night of the burglaries. He also admitted breaking into a Butane concern at Seymour where he took a small amount of money and a radio.

The Haskell burglaries were "pulled" later, along with break-in of the Party Port liquor store south of Haskell.

The suspect has been held in county jail while the case is being investigated by the Grand Jury.

Sheriff Garrett said the Mexican admitted being an ex-convict, having been released from State Prison last July 28 after serving a five-year term from Jim Wells County.

Polio Vaccine Available To All Area Residents Sunday

Ruling Pending In Suit Alleging Unauthorized City Expenditures

Judge Sterling Williams of Snyder presided in 39th District Court here Friday, in hearing a suit in which a group of citizens seek to restrain city officials of Haskell from expenditure of city funds for legal fees in fighting the North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority, and for other alleged unauthorized purposes.

The case was originally filed Aug. 7. At that time Judge Williams issued a temporary restraining order against city officials prohibiting further expenditures as listed by plaintiffs, and set the case for hearing Aug. 15. Continuances had been granted several times until Friday's hearing.

Testifying during Friday's hearing were Kenneth Thornton, assistant in the city secretary's office; Councilmen Raymond Davis and R. L. Stephenson; Bob Herren, Harry Howard, Woodley Davis, E. J. Stewart, City Secretary T. J. Ar buckle.

Citing city records, illegal expenditures made by city officials were alleged in part as follows: Disbursement of approximately $82 this year to Mayor J. E. Walling for expenses of trip to Austin in 1961; donation to Pony and Little League without a City Recreation Program set up in the budget; donation of $1,000 to a Chamber of Commerce committee for Christmas decorations; and payment of more than $4,800 in fees to lawyers employed to defeat and destroy the North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority.

At the conclusion of the hearing, Judge Williams took the case under advisement, with his ruling to be made later. Attorneys for both sides in the case were given two weeks in which to submit their written briefs in the case.

In Friday's hearing, plaintiffs were represented by T. R. Odell of Lubbock, and the city officials by Jas. W. Wilson of the Austin law firm of Powell, Rauhut, McGinnis, Reavley & Lockridge.

Mexican Man, 22, Admits Recent Burglaries

Burglary of a cafe here, a liquor store south of town, and attempted looting of a safe in Junior High School here about 10 days ago, has been cleared up with the arrest of a 22-year-old Latin who has admitted the thefts, Sheriff Garth Garrett said this week.

Also, Sheriff Garrett said that men's clothing valued at more than $100 which had been stolen from an automobile in this city was recovered after the young Mexican had admitted the theft. Most of the money taken in the cafe burglary also was recovered.

The man was arrested by Sheriff Garrett and State Ranger H. T. Melton of Benjamin, after the Haskell Sheriff had become suspicious of the young Mexican who came here recently from Alice, Texas.

After questioning, the suspect gave officers a statement detailing his activities on the night of the burglaries. He also admitted breaking into a Butane concern at Seymour where he took a small amount of money and a radio.

The Haskell burglaries were "pulled" later, along with break-in of the Party Port liquor store south of Haskell.

The suspect has been held in county jail while the case is being investigated by the Grand Jury.

Sheriff Garrett said the Mexican admitted being an ex-convict, having been released from State Prison last July 28 after serving a five-year term from Jim Wells County.

This date has also been set for the program in Taylor and Jones Counties, and in several other cities, according to a joint statement issued by area medical coordinators.

The program had originally been scheduled Sunday, Sept. 16, but was postponed because of adverse publicity from Canada.

The joint statement by medical authorities, including Dr. Williams and Dr. George Pryor of Stamford, said, "After a careful review of the Sabin vaccine program, we are convinced that it is completely safe to proceed with Type I and II vaccines. The Surgeon General of the U. S. In Haskell, the dispensing station will be in the courthouse corridor, with entrance through the east door.

In Rule, Rochester and O'Brien, the stations will be located in the school lunchroom at each place, and in Weinert at the community center.

Transportation

Persons desiring transportation to and from the dispensing centers should call the Sheriff's office in Haskell, and the High School in Rule, Rochester, O'Brien and Weinert. This service will be furnished without cost.

HHS Indians To Meet Munday Here Friday

The Haskell Indians, after a week's respite following their tough engagement with the Olney Cubs, prepared this week to hit the war trail again Friday night when they host the strong Munday Moguls in a non-conference tilt on Indian Field.

The game will get underway at 8 o'clock.

The Moguls are expected to field a strong aggregation following their 12-0 defeat of Knox City last week.

Although the contest is not a district game, the Indians will be striving for a win to get back into the victory column after being edged by Olney two weeks ago.

The game is expected to attract a large turn-out of fans.

By A. PATE

The people who pioneered in developing Haskell County were of the hardy type, especially those who organized and built our first churches.

A Rev. Boen preached here in January 1888 during a severe cold spell, and as a result of his services the first Christian Church in the county was organized.

Some 20 or 25 men and women joined the church. To baptize the group, ice an inch or more thick in Spring Branch had to be chopped through, the County History relates.

Pam Klose, 7, attends Sunday School and church services at the air conditioned First Methodist Church.

Recently Pam accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Klose, to a funeral held in a small rural church.

After they were seated and Pam had observed the size of the one-room structure she whispered to her mother, "Why is the church so small, Mother?"

"They don't have many members, dear, and don't need a large church," Mrs. Klose told her daughter.

Quiet for a few moments, Pam observed, "Mother, I know why they don't have many members."

"Why, dear?" her mother asked.

"It's too hot in the church," was the quick reply.

Principal Hooper T. Wilkinson of Haskell's Elementary School has been as busy as a one-armed paperhanger with the hives since start of the current school term.

And it looks like there'll be no respite at least until mid-term, when re-building of the elementary school building is completed.

As a result of damage to the building in the May tornado, classes are being held in temporary quarters, and this keeps Principal Wilkinson on the run.

Some of the classes meet in the Student Center, a quarter mile east of the elementary school and principal's office. Three classes meet in as many churches located a quarter mile or more north of the school, and other classes are being held in the high school building.

Principal Wilkinson says he has not had time to figure out the mileage he travels each day in checking on the various classes, handling discipline problems, and the numerous other chores involved.

He is certain of one thing, at least. His job now requires a "Go-Go-program" during every hour of the school day.

Finding by Paducah and Cottle County officers of a patch of marihuana being cultivated in that area recently, recalls that several stalks of the weed which yields a narcotic, were found in the garden of a Haskell home a good many years ago.

Unlike the Cottle County deal, the Haskell couple cultivating the garden did not know what the strange looking plant was, but had given it careful attention in the hope that it would yield heavily of whatever fruit it was supposed to produce.

Imagine their embarrassment when officers came and confiscated plants out of their garden! No satisfactory explanation was ever figured out how the plants got their start in the garden.

A note signed "Old Timer," mailed at Fort Worth, relates that recent mention of the amateur boxing matches held here prompts him to ask if PP&T recalls the wrestling shows of an earlier era, held in the Elks Club in the mid-20's.

The events mentioned proved popular, and as I recall were well attended throughout the fall and winter season when the matches were staged.

Most vivid recollection is that wrestling then and now is the same—more of a show than a contest.

Because it was new in Haskell at that time, fans were quick to pick their favorites, and sometimes considerable money would change hands on a night's match.

One of the first favorites was a wrestler named Gus Pappas, a Greek who lost about as many matches as he won, but always had the crowd on his side.

Showing up one night when two particularly rough wrestlers were in the main event was a clean-cut young man accompanied by several friends from Knox City.

Giving his name as Mervin Barrackman, he told the referee he wanted to challenge the winner of the main event for a match the following week.

Presumably an unknown in the wrestling world, the odds were against Barrackman when he climbed into the ring the next week against an opponent at least 50 pounds heavier.

But size didn't matter, and after one fall each, Barrackman pinned his man after a "flying mare" had rendered the opponent groggy, and won the match.

Whether the match was framed or not didn't matter, because the wagers were in earnest, and Barrackman's backers cleaned up that night. That point is easily recalled.

Barrackman's reign as top dog on the mat and local favorite was broken about two months later by a personable young wrestler of the Dizzy Dean type. His name was Routh, he said, in introducing himself to the Elks Club wrestling promoter. His nickname was "Railroad."

He readily admitted he could beat any man they could get in the ring with him and was anxious for a match so he "could start eating regular again."

"Railroad" stayed around for several matches, and he was just as good as he claimed. He won every contest he was in. However, he failed to show up for a match one night and was never seen again.

Strange as it may sound, "Railroad" didn't owe a penny for the rain, which he numerous lakes in northwest of town. At one time, he to waste water about to get to one of the was jumping. Daring them in a jeep was impossible. "My, How Our Town Has Changed"

Sleep may, as Shakespeare once wrote, knit up the ravelled sleeve of care—but when indulged in too much, as in the classic case of Rip Van Winkle, sleep can become ruinous and destructive.

Permit the traffic policeman to sleep at his post, and you'll have the damndest traffic mess on Main Street.

Let the garbage man doze off for forty or more winks when he should be doing his job of collecting, and you'll have a mountain of refuse in no time on every alley in town.

Tell the telephone man to stop building new lines and installing new phones... the light and power man to hold his power generating equipment to its present size... the water man to be satisfied with the job he's doing today with no thought of tomorrow and its problems... and you'll have acquired a whole town of Rip Van Winkles who will sleep while others toil and the rest of the world rolls by.

Towns must plan their futures, not a year or two in advance, but twenty, forty, even fifty years from now, says The National Water Institute. Water is one of our most vital resources, and the U. S. A. has many times our needs today, and twice the supply our requirements indicate for the foreseeable future. Nevertheless, we find towns in short supply because they didn't plan their needs ahead of time.

In recent years, more than one thousand communities have found themselves with water problems that result in rationing of one kind or another; no watering of lawns in summer; limited use periods; low pressure that brings a trickle instead of a gush; and complete shut-offs in emergency periods.

Careful planning and alert citizen action in time can prevent such a catastrophe overtaking our town.

Homecoming of their installation of formal initiation of Thursday evening. Vice-President Secretary, treasurer, reporter, historian, parliamentarian, song leader, and pianist.

Guests and refreshments were served. Dated were Jan. Dote Earles, Eadella Perry, Nelda Bergstrom, and Nancy Jones Mrs. Dorothy Did-

Teams played at night and won. We have seen a long time. Our much better than.

G. W. Roberts and foster grand-baby boy. Little was born on Sept 26, in Las Cruces, N. M., and weighed 7 pounds and 1 ounce. His mother is the former Linda Bass who made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Roberts for 12 of her 15 years. Little Mark was born on his foster great-grandmother Banks' birthday and that pleased everybody.

Little Brent Bolding, who was diagnosed a polio patient last week is getting along nicely. He is six and in the first grade in Stamford, and he had had all three Salk shots and one booster, so more than likely he won't have any crippling at all. Brent is the son of the former Margaret Houston, and the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Houston.

Mr. Lynn Carlton underwent surgery for the removal of two-thirds of his stomach at Haskell Hospital last week. He is at home now and doing fine. I had Mr. Kenneth's name on the group leaving for college, but he plans to stay home this first semester and gather Mr. Carleton's crop. He will go back to Midwestern at mid-term.

Mrs. Marie Kohout was a patient in the Stamford Hospital all last week after suffering a slight stroke. She is recuperating nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Brazzel and children were in Munday Friday afternoon for the funeral of Buddy's grandfather Brazzel.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Bergstrom were in El Paso last Monday where they were Haskell County delegates to the state Democratic convention. They reported a wonderful time, and they especially enjoyed seeing that western part of Texas for the first time.

Mrs. Allen Overton and Jonell spent last weekend in Wichita Falls with Mrs. Overton's brother, Delmon Bailey. Mrs. Overton also visited a throat specialist.

Margaret Fischer who works as a secretary in the office of Mr. Hudson in Abilene, and Judy Medford and Belva Jones who are students in Draught's Business College spent the weekend at home with their parents.

A large majority of the high school students had flu shots at the Haskell Clinic Saturday morning. Maybe that will keep a flu epidemic from ever starting this year. There surely were a lot of grumpy young people in the community over Sunday though.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Mont-romery have received word from Wayne Dilbeck in California that he plans to make his home out there. His brother is in poor health and needs him to help take care of his ranch. Wayne will have a nice little cabin of his own.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fischer and daughters were in Abilene Saturday night where they had supper in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bobby McGary. Mrs. McGary had all the Peiser families to celebrate several birthdays in the family. Mrs. McGary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Peiser of Matador, and a niece of Mrs. Fischer.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Roberts spent the weekend in Mesquite visiting Mrs. Roberts' brother, Vernon Banks.

Durward Miekler of Snyder spent the weekend with his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Miekler.

Coach Ray Overton Jr., and daughter Mary Margaret were Sunday guests of his parents. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Overton. They attended Sunday School at the Methodist Church.

Several families attended the services honoring Mrs. O. E. Patterson and Mrs. Ethel Irby at the Methodist Church in Haskell Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton were in College Station and Bryan last Thursday and Friday at the bedside of their son Mike who underwent an emergency appendectomy at the St. Joseph Hospital in Bryan early Thursday morning. He returned to the A&M College Hospital Saturday where he is recuperating. He will return to classes this week but will have to live at the hospital for a week or two. For those who have asked for his address, it is Box 1063, A.M.C., College Station, Texas.

The Junior 2 class of the Baptist Church enjoyed a hayride last Saturday night. They invited guests and all had a wonderful time. Rev. and Mrs. Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Middlebrooks sponsored the ride.

One of the nicest things to happen in a long time is that the Jesse Deans have taken into their home three little children: one little girl, 4, one little girl, 2, and a little boy, 9 months. They are from Snyder and lived with their grandmother. That is all I know about them, but that they are very lucky little folks to have such fine new parents, and we are all so very glad for the Deans.

Young Woman to Demonstrate New Sealy Mattress

A young woman who devotes her days to sleeping in store windows across the country will be in Haskell Saturday. She is Miss June Leach, who has the enviable title of the Sealy Mattress Company Posture Princess.

Miss Leach is scheduled to appear in Bynum's store window between 10 a. m. and 6:00 p. m. Saturday, Sept. 29.

She will be performing a pantomime skit, "The Posture Princess" in which Miss Leach spends most of her time emulating luxury sleep before the public eye with a few brief moments out of each hour devoted to demonstrating the effect of bedding on posture, health, appearance and sleeping comfort.

Each visitor to the showing will be given an opportunity to register for a free Posturepedic innerspring mattress to be given away at the close of the show.

FROM LITTLE GIRL'S FATHER ...

LETTER TO A DRIVER

Schools have opened again, and we see more of our youngsters on city streets. That fact, and because we see too many drivers ignoring stop signs and other traffic rules, prompts printing of the following "Letter To A Driver," author unknown, which is clipped from the Matador Tribune. Read it as a reminder to use extra caution.

"A few weeks ago, I saw a little girl struck by a car as she tried to cross the street. I saw a father race toward her and hold her to him as she struggled in the agony of death. I saw all the plans that had been made crumble and I saw the look of complete despair that came over his face. I could only offer a prayer that such a thing might never happen again.

"Today my daughter, who is six years old, started off to school. Her cocker spaniel, whose name is Scott, watched her leave and whined his belief in the folly of education.

"Tonight we talked about school. She told me about the girl who sits in front of her, the girl with yellow curls, about the boy across the aisle who makes faces, about the teacher who has eyes in the back of her head, about the trees in the school yard, and about the big girl who does not believe in Santa Claus.

"We talked about a lot of things, some important, some unimportant.

"When her doll gets broken, or her finger gets cut, or her head gets bumped, I can fix them. But when she starts across the street, then Mr. Driver, she is in your hands.

"Much as I wish I could, it's not possible for me to be with her all the time. I have to work to pay for her home, her ### clothes and her education.

"So, Mr. Driver, please help me to look out for her. Please drive carefully. Please drive slowly past schools and intersections. And please remember that sometimes children run from behind parked cars.

"Please don't run over my little girl."

RETURN FROM VISIT IN TENNESSEE

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Edwards of Haskell and son, Elder E. L. Edwards and wife Lela from Plainview, Texas, have returned home from a visit with relatives and friends in Wayne County, Tenn. They attended a homecoming meeting at the Old Salem Church, and Elder Edwards preached the homecoming sermon where his great-grandfather was pastor there for 30 years. The old Primitive Baptist Church was organized in 1821. All enjoyed the homecoming and the opportunity for meeting old friends, relatives, and former schoolmates of years past.

Barbecue Marks 288-Day Safety Record of Carl J. Anderson Co.

In recognition of a record of 288 days in oil field construction work without a loss-of-time accident, Anderson Construction Company of this city entertained their employees and families at a barbecue dinner Saturday, Sept. 22, at 5 p. m.

About 100 persons were present for the affair, held on the lawn at the construction company's yard, where pit barbecue was cooked on a specially built grill.

Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were host and hostess for the affair.

The gathering was in the form of an informal safety meeting, with the highlight being a film on "Artificial Respiration" shown by Jim Knorrp of Abilene, a safety engineer with Texas Employers Insurance Association. The method of reviving persons overcome by accident is applicable around the home as well as in oil field mishaps, Mr. Knorrp explained. He was accompanied to the barbecue and meeting by his wife.

Carl Anderson, owner and manager of the construction firm, praised workers for their safety accomplishment.

The concern employs from 12 to 18 men daily in oil field construction work, for an average of 13 workers employed daily the year around.

In addition to Anderson company employees and their families, representatives of several oil companies were present. These included Crown Central Petroleum Co., The Superior Oil Co., Sid Katz Oil Co., Continental Oil Co., Phillips Petroleum Co., and others.

MRS. O. E. PATTERSON

MRS. ETHEL IRBY

First Methodist Church Dedicates Special Day to Longtime Members

Sunday, Sept. 22nd, was set aside by members of the First Methodist Church in Haskell to honor and show their appreciation to two longtime members, Mrs. O. E. Patterson and Mrs. Ethel Alexander Irby, for their many years of service and loyalty to the church.

Mrs. Irby's parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Alexander, were the founders of the local Methodist Church in 1885. The meetings were held in the home of the Alexanders with only four charter members. Mrs. Irby, of course, was present for the meetings as a child and when she became a teenager, she was a member of the Epworth League, then when she became of age and maturity she taught in the Sunday School, and has been active through the years in the women's W.S.C.S. In 1942 she became church secretary and her services could not be excelled, until her retirement in July of this year.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson came to Haskell as a young married couple, stayed three years, moved back to Lubbock for a brief period, then returned to Haskell where Mrs. Patterson has been church organist during all the years. Members state that no one could have been more faithful or played more efficiently than she. She was always ready and willing to go to the church and play for any occasion, whether a church service, wedding, funeral, or any other service that might arise, and she continues to do that until this day. It is the sincere wish and hope of every member of the church that she may continue many years more in this capacity.

Mrs. Patterson too, was and is, a member of the W.S.C.S. She taught many years in the Junior Department of the Sunday School and was loved by all the children.

Rev. R. N. Huckabee of Lubbock, retired Methodist minister and former pastor of the church here, brought the message for the 10:55 a. m. service. It was an enjoyable occasion for those of the congregation who were here during his pastorate to see him and have the privilege of hearing him speak. He brought an inspirational message which was enjoyed by everyone present.

For the "Special Service" which was begun at 3:00 p. m., Dr. Jordan Grooms, pastor of Folk Street Methodist Church, Amarillo, was to have been the speaker, but was called out of town at the last moment. The ever faithful Rev. Oscar Bruce of Post, Texas, also a former pastor here, was contacted and asked to "pinch hit" for the occasion. He accepted and it was certainly more than a "pinch hit" — it was a "home run." The message he brought could not have been more fitting or effective had he had months in which to have planned his sermon. It is always a pleasure to have Rev. Bruce, his wife, Irene, and their three children return to Haskell and to the church.

Out-of-town guests in the home of Mrs. Irby who attended the services were Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Irby, Santa Fe, N. M., Mr. and Mrs. Ted Alexander, Odessa, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bickley, Abilene, Mrs. Mary A. Hults and Mrs. J. B. Kenny, Stephenville.

Guests in the home of Mrs. Patterson were her youngest son, David, his wife Kathryn, and their children, Pamela and David Jr., of Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. Christian of Vera, Miss Melissa Patterson, a granddaughter of Houston, Mrs. Gordon Haynes and Mrs. Hugh Aston of Stamford.

The ladies of the church had carefully planned these services and the lovely tea which followed the afternoon service.

Members of the congregation were unanimous in declaring that it was a treat to meet with old friends and enjoy the fellowship which helped to make the day one to be remembered by all.

Children Honor J. E. Solomon Birthday Dinner in Snyder

JOHN E. SOLOMON

John E. Solomon, one of Haskell's pioneer citizens, was honored by his children at his 90th birthday dinner in Snyder, Texas.

His children recall that the family always spoke Italian in their home until the girls started to school and learned English.

Even today, Mr. Solomon will sometimes still ask for food at the table in Italian just for fun to see the look on the faces of his great grandchildren.

Reared Daughters His wife died when their last daughter was born, and Mr. Solomon reared all four daughters by himself.

He is a member of the First Presbyterian Church, and resides at 506 North Ave. D in Haskell. Despite his age, he is quite active and enjoys long walks daily.

Mr. Solomon moved to Haskell in 1908 and has since then owned and operated a farm north of Haskell. He has four daughters and several grandchildren.

Topographical surveys were made and everything necessary to determine the feasibility of the project. The report was favorable, so Mr. Ed Cloud, our State Representative at that time, introduced a bill creating a Water District of Haskell, Knox and Baylor Counties. This bill, known as H. B. 494 passed through the House of Representatives, the Senate, and was signed into law by Governor Price Daniel.

A confirmation election was called in all seven towns to form the Water Authority. Two towns dropped out, namely Rochester and Knox City. Another election was called to vote bonds and water contracts with the five remaining towns. In this election Seymour failed to vote the bonds and water contract.

Relocation of the Dam site and other changes were made to supply the needs of the four remaining towns of the Authority, being Munday, Goree, Rule and Haskell and another election was called in each of these respective towns to determine if they wanted the lake on this basis. This election carried in all four towns, but in Goree and Rule it was by a small majority vote, so a land owner where the lake was to be built contested the election at Goree and Rule. This suit held up the procedure for several months, but the plaintiff failed to post Bond for the cost of Court so the Judge dismissed the suit.

Everything concerning the Water Authority went well for a period of approximately 12 months. During this period Pritchard and Abbott, a firm of valuation Engineers, were employed to make a valuation survey on all property within the city limits of each of the four towns. When their report was released, the opposition started. The first step was to circulate a petition asking the Directors to dissolve the Water Authority. We as directors, had been appointed to build a lake. We had been put under bond to faithfully perform our duties in so doing, and we, like all succeeding Directors, have taken an oath, in the name of the Supreme Being, to protect, preserve, and defend the Constitution and Laws of the United States and this State. Directors would not deny their pledge. The opposition then requested the Commissioners Courts of Knox and Haskell Counties to call an election of each of the four towns to see if either wanted to drop out. This being out of the jurisdiction of the Commissioners Courts, they refused.

The opposition then formed an organization to be known as the Haskell and Knox Dissolvers Association and filed a law suit against the North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority. It was alleged that the statute is unconstitutional because the Directors were appointed instead of elected by a vote of the people. They further alleged that it was invalid because we were not trying to assess and collect taxes from Knox City and Rochester. Their claim was that these two towns could not get out without failing to vote bonds. But the truth was that these two towns never did vote themselves into the Water Authority.

ADD OPEN LETTER The Haskell and Knox Dissolvers Association then went to Mr. J. C. Wheatley, our State Representative, and requested him to introduce a bill for amendment of the present law so they could force the Directors to call an election in the four towns, within 60 days from the time it was passed to see if any of the four towns wanted out. This was defeated in the Committee Room in Austin.

We then defeated the suit contesting the validity of the law in District Court in Haskell. It was appealed to the Court of Civil Appeals in Eastland, and again we defeated it there. Then they appealed to the Supreme Court in Austin. The Supreme Court ruled that anyone paying taxes had a right for a day in Court, so the case was brought back to Haskell to be tried on its merits. We have again won the decision in the District Court. We have won the decision again on their appeal to the Court of Civil Appeals at Eastland. At this time they are in the process of appealing again to the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court will either hear or refuse the case. We had, before we were sued, made application to the Federal and State governments for a loan of funds to build the Lake. The Federal Government approved $2,000,000.00 and the State $1,200,000.00 respectively. $150,000.00 of bonds were sold to defray expenses up to the point of letting the contract and beginning actual construction. $100,000.00 of these bonds have been paid, leaving a balance of $50,000.00 to be paid on June 1, 1963. We have paid Freese, Nichols and Endress $40,000.00 to date for Engineering services but still owe them $20,000.00. We have partly paid the Fiscal Agent. We still owe the towns the amounts each put into the planning of the project.

Our Books have been audited the last two years by a firm of Certified Public Accountants. The statements have been published in each of the three newspapers in the Counties. Anyone interested can contact the auditing firm or inspect our books. We are confident we will win the Law suits and will build a lake in the future. We deeply regret that continuous litigation has created such delay and waste of taxpayers money, but we do not feel it is the fault of the Directors that the lake is not already built and supplying water to the four towns which own the Authority, as well as to the potential water users that have inquired about the purchase of water. We ask your patience until we can clear the litigation in Court. L. B. Patterson, Pres., Board of Directors.

Sagerton News

BY MRS. DELBERT LEFEVRE

There will be a meeting at the Sagerton School Thursday evening, Sept. 27, at 7:30 p. m. to discuss the possibilities of water being piped into the city of Sagerton. Men will be present to answer any and all questions. The city water will extend a radius of one and a half miles from the center of the city. Everyone that is interested is asked to be present.

Linda Perez was elected as cheerleader of the Sagerton Grade School Pep Squad with Yvonne Ross as her assistant. Phyllis Stanhope will be the drummer. Carla Hertel was selected for their mascot. The girls will wear white blouses with the name "Eagles" on their backs and maroon skirts with white socks with an "S" on them. The other girls in the Pep Squad are: Irene Elias, Dore Macias, Frances Perez, Vickie Tiechelmann, Kay Whittley, Peggy Clark, Debbie Plunk, Rita Ramez, Hope Ramez, Ruth Hertel, Diane Monse, Rarilla Ramez, Nomy Villarreal.

Bob Bell LeFevre of San Angelo visited with Mr. and Mrs. Cliff LeFevre the first of last week.

Mrs. John Clark is in Midland with her daughter, Mrs. Leslie Cobb, Mr. Cobb, and their sons. Mrs. Cobb was slightly shaken up last week when she was in a traffic accident, but she was not hurt seriously.

Mrs. Georgia Strickland of Anadarko, Okla., is visiting with Mrs. B. Hess. She is a niece of Mrs. Hess.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff LeFevre visited with Mr. and Mrs. Van Laughlin and Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Davis in Rule Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Y. Benton went to Big Spring last week to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Cook and daughters. Their smallest daughter, Lisa, had surgery last Friday, but she is doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Ross entertained with an outdoor barbecue Saturday night in honor of their son, B. L., Jr., on his birthday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marshall and daughter of Stamford. They also have their grandsons, Chad, Bobby and Mike Arnold, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Arnold of Abilene, this week.

The Golden Age Club of the St. Paul's Lutheran Church met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Einn in Rule Sunday afternoon. The meeting is for the old timers, who do not usually get to see one another very often. They are entertained in the home of one of the church members once a month and transportation is provided by other church members.

Jay Swofford of Irving visited here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lois Young, part of last week.

Mrs. Al Clark, the former Terry Gholson, of Fort Worth was here last weekend visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Gholson and family.

FROM A PASTOR'S STUDY

By DOUGLAS B. FINCH
Pastor, First Presbyterian Church
Haskell, Texas

If we really want to have a picture of the life and problems of the primitive Christian Church, we should read the Book of Acts. I would suggest the Revised Standard Version of the Bible, for it is the OLD-EST Bible that we have. It is based on manuscripts of the original languages older than any that were available to any of the previous translators of the Bible. Though not a "perfect" translation, it is the most accurate, by far, that is available to us today.

The man who is often called the first missionary, a man by name of Phillip (one of the original Deacons of the Jerusalem Church) went forth to preach the Good News of Jesus Christ to a "city of Samaria." Phillip evidently baptized many of the new converts to Christianity but Peter and John were disturbed that they had not been baptized by the Holy Spirit. Acts 8:17 tells us that Peter and John "laid their hands on them and they received the Holy Spirit."

In the 19th Chapter of Acts, we find Paul confronted with the same problem. He found that some of the new converts of Apollous had been baptized into "John's baptism," and this was not sufficient. Paul explained to them that John's baptism was a preparation for the coming of Jesus Christ... but that now Christ has come! And we are told that Paul "laid his hands upon them, and the Holy Spirit came upon them."

What Paul is telling these people is that John's baptism has been fulfilled in Christ... to fulfill meaning to "fill full," i. e. the incomplete teaching and imperfect ideals involved therein now have been given a complete and perfect teaching in Jesus Christ.

This clearest picture of "baptismal method" in the New Testament serves only to show us that the "method" of baptism means nothing except as the Holy Spirit be present. The symbolism of "dying with Christ" should, above all else, teach us that if Christ died for us all, then He was surely baptized for us all, too. And surely Christ did not experience salvation at the time of his baptism... He who is salvation.

Dr. Cecil Asbury Thompson, Professor of Evangelism at the Presbyterian Columbia Seminary in Decatur, Georgia, said in a revival meeting once in my hearing that he could remember no time in his life that he had not been a Christian. He was born of Christian parents, was called of God to be a minister of the Gospel, and publicly confessed Christ everyday of his life as he sought to be Christ's servant in this world. He can remember no "conversion experience." His whole life, he said, was a conversion experience... his whole public ministry was a public profession. His life has been one of constant repentance, of new commitment and renewed dedication to Christ... of commitment following commitment in a never ending process. On the other hand, he said, those who cannot make this profession, need to be "converted", to be "born again" into a new life in Christ. The inference being that he was not born "right" the first time. The first condition is preferable... the latter condition is just as valid as Christ deems it so.

The question that is posed by our consideration of the Acts stories is: "Do we today still have to choose between the baptism of John and the baptism of Jesus?" Obviously we do!

By AL HINDS

A self-made millionaire was addressing a group of young college graduates. "My success in life," he stated pompously, "I owe to one thing—pluck." "That's fine, sir," interrupted a realistic young fellow down in front, "but could you tell us something about whom to pluck, and how to go about it?"

Food for Thought: God gave us two ends—one to sit on and the other to think. A man's success depends on which end he uses most. It is a case of heads you win, and tails you lose.

Servant and Master am I: Servant of those dead, and Master of those living. Through my spirit, immortals speak the message that makes the world weep and laugh, and wonder and worship. For I am Music. Music is no longer a luxury—it is a necessity. Music is the most human of all arts—an art that enters into our every day life. We use it in our homes, schools, churches. Expressing our emotions, joy, grief, love, loyalty, patriotism. Music portrays our way of life, and it is woven into the pattern of our nation's history.

Music should be in our plans for peace. Music soothes—it inspires and faces a challenge unequalled in any former period in history. Far too many of our musical themes have been marches and destructions. What nobler medium for the healing of the nations, than the administering hand of God's gift to man—MUSIC.

We must, and should have good music in our homes. Perhaps not the "You Ain't Nothin' but a Hound Dog" type—but we should give our children musical advantages—let them hear and let them play good music. We should sing together, as nothing can tie a family closer together than hymn singing. What expresses our thanks to God more effectively than singing? Music is of great importance in our schools—in fact it is just as important as football as more students can participate. It does much for the morale and it does much for the school spirit—but, above all, musical knowledge and appreciation acquired in public school, is something that will not only broaden and brighten an individual life, but will show its influence on an entire community.

And of course music is very important in our churches. Music inspires and creates in us a love for the House of God. It enables us to participate in the religious services and makes us one of the church rather than an observer.

While vacationing or traveling, have you ever taken time to notice the little towns. We often admire the beauty and the bigness of the larger towns—and merely "buzz" through the smaller communities, without much thought about them. Each little town has its trials, its tribulations, its disappointments, its sorrows and its happiness. As Gabriel Heater once said: "From the little towns come the men and women who till the soil, who leave the country to seek careers that make this country great. These are the towns from whence come the backbone and core of the nation. These towns are America—the past, present and the future of the country. As long as man can be friend to his neighbor, there is still hope that he can be a neighbor to a friend in the next town...the man in the city...and the man across the sea. That way lies a brighter tomorrow."

Speaking of small towns reminds me of this little story: "Little do we know the trials and tribulations of others, Mrs. Smith," observed the visitor from the city. "Truly, one-half of the world is ignorant of how the other half lives." "Humph!" sniffed Mrs. Smith. "Not in this village."

Things I can not understand—such as residents of small towns who jump in their cars and go to the larger cities to purchase things that could be bought at home, then try to count the pennies they save, all the while breaking the backbone of their community when they do so.

Six mistakes of life: The delusion that individual advancement is made by crushing others down... the tendency to worry about a thing that can not be corrected... Insisting that a thing is impossible because we ourselves have not accomplished it... refusing to set aside trivial preferences in order that important things may be accomplished... attempting to others believe as tempting to make others believe as we do... the failure to establish the habit of saving money.

FHA Chapter at Weinert Starts Busy Schedule

The Weinert Chapter of Future Homemakers of America has been busy with a schedule of activities since beginning of the current school term.

On August 28 chapter members were guests of their advisor, Mrs. Bill Chambers, at a slumber party held in her home in Rochester. The group attended prayer service at the local First Baptist Church.

The September meeting was to assist members in their knowledge of other countries. Miss Judy Howard, a student at Howard Payne College in Brownwood, whose parents are missionaries to the Philippines, discussed her "adopted" country with us. Judy was a house guest of Sherry Crawford of Rochester. She has been in the United States since 1960 and hopes to return to the Philippines as a kindergarten teacher in 1965. Teenage life, according to Judy, is quite different there. She had taken six years of Homemaking but did not have an active FHA chapter.

The program was presented by Linda Adams and the meeting conducted by Shirley Sanders, Chapter president.

The executive council has met and planned the year's activities and a yearbook committee has been named, consisting of Linda Adams, chairman; Sandra Dutton, Linda Davis and Wanda Miller.

Chapter officers for the coming year are: Shirley Sanders, president; Linda Adams, first vice president; Sandra Dutton, second vice president; Wanda Miller, third vice president; Linda Davis, fourth vice president; Sue White, secretary; Dorothy Raynes, treasurer; Delores Raynes, parliamentarian.

The following Weinert FHA members had entries in the culinary department of the West Texas Fair in Abilene: Shirley Sanders won two red ribbons, second place, on Orange Bread and Brownies; and Linda Adams won a white ribbon, or third place, on Chocolate Fudge.

Girl Scout Troop 463 Has Camp-Out At Boothe Oaks

Haskell Girl Scout Troop 463 journeyed to Camp Boothe Oaks at Sweetwater and camped out Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 22, 23. They hiked in the woods and gathered rocks and fossils for collections Saturday afternoon. Night time was spent singing out in the open, performing skits and watching pictures shown from a small projector. Getting to sleep out was exciting especially with curious cows or (bears?) stalking through the bushes near by.

After breakfast next morning, the group started fires for Sunday lunch and the Greenhorn Patrol, a group of younger sisters who are Brownie Scouts, were very proud of starting their fire with only one match! Then up into the hills they hiked to a secluded spot for their Scouts Own, a reverent service planned and carried out by the girls themselves.

Lunch was prepared on the open fires, and after a busy clean-up time, the tired, but happy group returned home.

Those enjoying this outing were: Linda Steele, Sheila and Susan Gilleland, Deanna Robertson, Brenda and Vivian Buerger, Pam and Pat Harris, Debbie and Katie Darnell, Dana Bland, Jeanette Glass, Mrs. Burrell Gilleland, Mrs. Henry Harris and Mrs. John Darnell.

Because the space age we live in is a fast moving period of business and industrial expansion, we are working hard to see that this area gets its share.

We advertise the area's industrial advantages in national publications, and send factual mailing pieces to selected lists of business leaders. The Wall Street Journal advertisement and the colorful area folder shown above are current examples of this material.

In addition, our Area Development Representatives make periodical trips to the North and East for personal contacts with these business executives.

WTU is enthusiastically engaged in this continuing program because we are convinced the Center of the Southwest faces GROWTH UNLIMITED.

We are backing this belief with a multi-million dollar expansion program of our own to serve more people, more business, more industries.

Patrol Checks 3 Rural Accidents During August

The Highway Patrol investigated three rural accidents in Haskell County during the month of August, according to Sergeant Frank Jirek, Patrol Supervisor of this area. These wrecks accounted for five persons injured and an estimated property damage of $1,300.00. The rural traffic accident summary for Haskell County from January through August of 1962 shows a total of 40 crashes. As a result of these crashes there were no persons killed and 19 persons injured. The estimated property damage amounted to $28,730.00. The veteran patrol supervisor stated, "With fall and winter approaching, now is the time to have vehicles checked in preparation for the cold winter ahead." The Vehicle Inspection Program in Texas has proved itself to be a valuable tool in reducing accidents on Texas streets and highways. All vehicles registered in this state are required to be inspected once a year, he added. The new motor vehicle inspection year began Sept. 1st. However, the only thing new about the inspection this year is the sticker itself. The Sergeant pointed out, that this new sticker is a dry mount decal which he believes will adhere regardless of weather conditions. HERE FROM MR. Midland spent here with relatives.
