Snyder will host future UIL meet; schedules firmed

Snyder public schools Superintendent Dalton Moseley today announced some key developments to come from a Wednesday district meeting in Lubbock, including the news that the 2-4A UIL literary and one-act play competition will be in Snyder.

The meeting was the first of several planned by representatives of the newly-formed District 2-4A, of which Snyder, Lubbock Estacado and Dunbar, Lamesa, Levelland and Frenship will be members next year.

Snyder currently competes in District 4-4A, which includes Sweetwater, San Angelo Lake View, Pecos, Monahans, Fort Stockton and Andrews. During its realignment process which occurs every two years, the UIL recently placed Snyder in with Lubbock area schools. Snyder will be in 2-4A for at least the 1990-91 and 1991-92 school years.

No filings in area board elections yet

Three places on the Ira public school board and two on the Hermleigh board are up for re-election but as yet, no one has filed as a candidate.

The filing period, which began Monday, extends through March 21, however. The elections are scheduled for May 5.

At Hermleigh, where all seven board members are chosen at-large, the places held by Jimmy Huggins and Brian Blair are up for re-election.

At Ira, Places 1, 2 and 3, held by Bo Robinson, Kirby Sterling and Jim Wilson, respectively, are open for filing.

School board members serve three-year terms.

Candidates should file for office at the respective schools.

BEN HIGH
...new Ira principal

High named Ira principal

Ben High of Sweetwater, who retired in 1989 after serving 29 years as an elementary principal, has been hired as principal of Ira Public Schools.

High, who assumed his new duties this week, will finish out the present school year. He will continue to commute daily from Sweetwater where his wife, Jaynell, teaches fifth grade, Chapter I reading.

High is completing the school year for former principal Larry Long, whose contract was terminated Feb. 12.

Prior to accepting the post at Ira, High worked part-time for the Winters School District doing teachers' evaluations.

High said his father worked for Gulf and they were transferred several times while he was growing up but he considers Clyde and Roscoe home.

He has a bachelor's degree from Texas Tech University and a masters degree from McMurry University.

The Highs have one son, Gary, who lives in Dallas.

Moseley said Western Texas College will host the 1990-91 UIL literary and one-act play competition for District 2-4A.

"This is a plus for us. WTC is very willing and very capable," said Moseley. "This is a good opportunity to bring a lot of people to Snyder, too."

Dates for the competitions will be formulated in a May district meeting.

Schedules were also drawn for (see DISTRICT, page 8)

More 'bee' winners are noted

Three more schools have conducted spelling bees during the past 24 hours, upping to 14 the number of spellers who will advance to the county bee set to begin at 9 a.m. on March 14 at the Western Texas College Fine Arts Theatre.

It's now two in a row for Andrea Corkran, a sixth grader at Stanfield Elementary, who emerged as the top speller at the conclusion of this morning's spelling bee. Corkran, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Corkran, was also the 1989 county spelling bee winner.

Runner-up at Stanfield is Katye Galloway, a fifth grader and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Galloway.

North Elementary also conducted its spelling bee this morning with Angelia Gonzalez finishing in first place and Chris Clifton as the runner-up. Third and fourth place honors went to Kathryn Robbins and Shane (see BEE, page 8)

BCD told prison key factor as sales receipts jump 20%

Board of County Development members were told Wednesday that the Price Daniel Unit has been the primary factor in a 20-percent improvement in sales and use tax receipts recently.

County Auditor Linda Franklin attended the noon meeting at Snyder Country Club at the board's invitation and said the figures compare receipts from December-January and the same period a year ago.

Payments from the State Comptroller of Public Accounts totaled $78,144 for the two-month period last year and $93,863 recently — a 20.11-percent increase.

"We are certainly beginning to see that the change is beginning to show," Franklin said.

Noting that the BCD's budget for calendar 1990 was set at $57,400, the same level as in 1989,

Local gets ten-year sentence

Jesse V. Medrano of 1900 Ave. I halted his 132nd District Court trial for aggravated kidnapping Wednesday by entering a guilty plea and receiving a 10-year sentence in the Texas Department of Criminal Justice.

The jury had been seated and testimony had begun when the trial reconvened after lunch and the 25-year-old Medrano's attorney, Randy Stout of San Angelo, announced that the defendant wished to change his "not guilty" plea.

Medrano had charged with abducting Patricia Sanchez of Snyder last Aug. 19.

The sentence was assessed by District Judge Gene L. Dulaney. The case was prosecuted by District Attorney Ernie B. Armstrong.

Snyder, area FFA members set for Houston stock show

A large group of Snyder and Ira FFA members will observe the rest of National FFA Week this week in Houston, where they will take part in the Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo.

They were ear-tagging and weighing animals Thursday afternoon at the Kinney Hart Ranch south of Snyder off the Colorado City Hwy., and they were going to leave here today with two tractor-trailer rigs just to haul the 63 commercial steers that 21 of them will show in Houston.

Show lambs, pigs and steers were going along in regular stock trailers.

"Between Snyder and Ira, we will have 20 to 25 percent of the cattle at the Houston stock show," said Snyder High School vocational agriculture teacher Coke Hopping.

The commercial steers have been a primary emphasis of the FFA members' preparations, with each youngster presenting a "pen of three" and records dating back to the Oct. 1 starting date of the projects.

"You have records of what they weighed at the beginning and end, computing the days on feed, the amount that has been fed, and arriving at the cost per pound of gain," Hopping said.

"It's based on how well the records are kept and how good the steers look. You take a written test and give an oral interview, and they combine all the aspects to compute a winner."

He said National FFA Week coincides with the Houston show somewhat coincidentally, but it is a happy circumstance because the national FFA president attends and FFA is tied in with the (see FFA, page 8)

ADN program one of several topics for Cogdell board

Cogdell Memorial Hospital board of managers will hear a report on the status of its Associate Degree in Nursing (ADN) program, approve a resolution of appreciation and support for hospital employees and set dates for new board member orientation when the board convenes at 6:30 p.m. today.

The ADN program was approved in October and is expected to be in place this June. The program is in conjunction with Howard College at Big Spring. In the agreement, Cogdell will provide clinical experience, classroom space, office space and secretarial support for the program.

The program is designed to compliment the Licensed Vocational Nurse (LVN) program at (see COGDELL, page 8)

The feller on Deep Creek says, "If the Ten Commandments went through Congress, there would be 10 million amendments."

A visit to the downtown sections of large towns causes one to question if there can be any redeeming values for pigeons who live there.

One quickly thinks of the stories of carrier pigeons and their heroic efforts in communications. But since a pigeon can't compete with a fax, a new use for pigeons is being developed.

The Coast Guard is experimenting with pigeons to find persons lost at sea. Despite sophisticated equipment, researchers say pigeons are hard to beat for search and rescue.

In addition Navy tests have supported Coast Guard claims that pigeons spot floating targets (orange life preservers) 90 percent of the time while humans average a 38 percent success rate even though they have prior knowledge of the test.

Pigeons are not sent out alone. Instead, they occupy a plexiglass bubble attached to the side of a helicopter. They sit on little perches and watch the water below. When a specially-trained pigeon spots a floating life vest, it pecks a button which turns on a light in the cockpit to alert the pilot to make a second pass and investigate further.

Training a pigeon takes approximately six months, and the life expectancy of pigeons is about 10 years which is considered a good return for a half-year training investment.

It may not be hi-tech, but it's more than a fowl idea.

The Dallas Cowboys are really America's team.

As a result of the Texas thrift problem and subsequent federal bailouts, the FDIC has wound up owning 12 percent of the Dallas Cowboys. It makes you want to punt on first down.

Q—How many indigent patients did the county care for in 1989, and how much did it cost the county?

A—A spokesman for Cogdell Memorial Hospital said the county spent $150,631 for indigent patients' care last year. The total number of patients was not immediately available.

Clarification

Jerry Vestal, local CPA, sought to clarify his question of the oil appraisal firm contained in a Wednesday SDN article.

The question was directed at how the firm assures the accuracy and professional integrity of the valuation process. Vestal said the intent of the question was not to imply "collusion" with any oil company, and certainly not Chevron USA.

Singer Bonnie Raitt captures four Grammys

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bonnie Raitt, whose whiskey voice and wicked guitar chops won her a loyal following but little fame over 20 years of bluesy rocking, won four Grammy awards including album of the year. Bette Midler's "Wind Beneath My Wings" won song and record of the year Wednesday at the recording industry's 32nd annual Grammy Awards, and Miles Davis won two jazz trophies and a lifetime achievement award. Milli Vanilli, the funky breakdancing duo, was best new artist, and the young British group Soul II Soul won a pair of Grammys in rock and rhythm and blues categories.

"I'm overwhelmed," Miss Raitt, 40, said backstage at the Shrine Auditorium. "I'm so honored I can barely stand it."

The LP "Nick of Time" brought Miss Raitt trophies for female rock vocal, best album and female pop vocal for the title single. Her fourth Grammy, for traditional blues performance, was shared with bluesman John Lee Hooker for the "I'm in the Mood" track on his "The Healer" album.

The song of the year award for "Wind Beneath My Wings" went to writers Larry Henley and Jeff Silbar, and the record trophy to singer Bette Midler and producer Arif Mardin.

Soul II Soul won the rhythm and blues group performance for the single "Back to Life," and the rhythm and blues instrumental performance Grammy for the "African Dance" track from their "Keep On Movin'" album.

"I definitely made room in my bag for these," said Soul II Soul's Caron Wheeler. "It's nice to go home with something."

Davis was honored for best jazz solo instrumental performance and big band jazz instrumental performance for his "Aura" LP.

Composer-arranger David Grusin also came out a big winner, with three awards for his theatrical movie music.

Grusin's Grammys were for the background score of the movie "The Fabulous Baker Boys," arrangement on an instrumental for the suite from "The Milagro Beanfield War," and instrumental arrangement with vocals for the "My Funny Valentine" track from "Baker Boys."

The movie "Batman" had seven nominations for the soundtrack, including four for rock star Prince. However, the only trophy went to composer Danny Elfman, for best instrumental composition for "The Batman Theme."

Michael Bolton's plaintive single "How Am I Supposed to Live Without You," won male pop vocal, and the tender love ballad "Don't Know Much," by Linda Ronstadt and Aaron Neville, won duo pop performance.

Don Henley, who started the evening with four nominations, won the male rock vocal performance for his lyrical, melancholy "The End of the Innocence" album.

Michael and Janet Jackson won back-to-back music video trophies, Michael the short form Grammy for his "Leave Me Alone" and Janet in the long form category for "Rhythm Nation 1814."

Astrograph

by Bernice Bede Osol

Your Birthday
Feb. 23, 1990

Your possibilities for real progress in the year ahead look extremely encouraging. However, you must be careful not to repeat the same types of mistakes you've made previously.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Honor agreements you make today, even though your second thoughts may indicate you could have improved your position had you bargained more adroitly. Get a jump on life by understanding the influences which are governing you in the year ahead. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions today by mailing $1.25 to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, OH 44101-3428. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) Render full service today regarding what you promised to do for others. You'll think more of yourself if you resist inclinations to shave edges.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) Do not operate against your better judgment today in matters that are meaningful to you careerwise. Taking foolish risks could cause you to trip and tumble.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) If you do something nice for a loved one today, don't make him/her feel under obligation to you. Behavior of this ilk will make your deed meaningless.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Guard against inclinations today to be either too possessive or too protective of someone you like very much. Restraints will hurt the relationship.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) There's a possibility things might not go all that smoothly for you today in several important arrangements. Be careful, however, not to blame others for things you do wrong.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Try not to make concessions under pressure today. If you think what's being asked of you is unreasonable, don't be bashful about standing up for your rights.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You might not have too good an eye for bargains today, so be careful if you're negotiating for something rather costly. You may believe only what you want to believe.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Evaluate thoroughly any propositions presented to you today and be doubly sure all of the key parts fit. If you don't have all the facts, don't act.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) Your insights could be very revealing today, but your procedures may leave a lot to be desired. Try to execute your thoughts as cleverly as you conceived them.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Be doubly certain there is justification for your material expectations. If they are unrealistic, you could have a disappointing day.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Your probabilities for achieving your objectives look rather "iffy" today. This is because you might become involved with people whose central interests could be in opposition to yours.

West chosen good citizen

The Martin Preuitt Jr. Chapter of Daughters of the American Revolution held its annual George Washington Tea Feb. 10 at Martha Ann Woman's Club and honored Jason West, son of Monte and Linda West, as the DAR Good Citizen.

The purpose of the DAR Good Citizen program is to stress the qualities of good citizenship among senior high school students. The student selected must have the qualities of LEADERSHIP — which includes personality, self-control and ability to assume responsibility; DEPENDABILITY — which includes truthfulness, loyalty and punctuality; SERVICE — which includes cooperation, courtesy and consideration of others; PATRIOTISM — which includes unselfish interest in family, school, community and nation, to an outstanding degree.

The recommended procedure is for the faculty to choose, by vote, a number of seniors having these qualifications, and from these, the senior class will select, by a vote, the one student to be the school's "DAR Good Citizen."

West ranks third in the senior class, and is a two-year member of the National Honor Society. He has been in the choir for four years, being named all-area junior boy in 1989. He is a choir officer, choir sweetheart and a member of the swingers. He is an all-district baseball player, having been a starter for two years in both baseball and basketball.

He is the girls basketball sweetheart and has been involved in honors classes. He and two other students won first place in an Abilene Computer Programming Contest in which some 15 to 20 schools participated. As a sophomore, he attended the Hugh O'Brien Youth Foundation in Dallas. He attended the Texas Governor's School in Austin during the summer between his sophomore and junior years. He has been named outstanding accounting student and is a member of two new clubs at the high school, Classmates in Action and Key Club. West has been accepted to attend Abilene Christian University.

hand is determined by declarer's perception of the location of the defenders' key cards. That perception is of course guided by the bidding as well as the early defense. In today's deal, the defenders, Matt and Pam Granovetter, distorted the declarer's view of the location of the cards, with devastating effect.

Matt Granovetter led his fourth-best club. That was a step ahead of this writer. (I would have led club ace, just in case I needed to attack a side-suit at trick two.) East won the jack of clubs, suggesting to declarer an original club holding of A-K-Q-J. Back came the jack of spades. South won in dummy and played ace and a heart. East won the king, and now West contributed to declarer's confusion by signaling with the 10 of diamonds. When East dutifully led a low diamond, declarer grabbed the ace, drew the last trump and then played spades. Declarer had to ruff the fourth spade and now led up to dummy's diamond queen. Needless to say, there was much gnashing of declarer teeth when East turned up with the K-J. But declarer's play was quite reasonable. East would have a normal opening bid with A-K-Q-J of clubs and king of hearts, and West's raise to two clubs might be based on five little clubs and the diamond king. If that were the case, declarer could not afford to play low on East's low diamond. (West could win the diamond king and give partner a spade ruff.) Kudos to the Granovetters for creating an illusion, causing declarer to fail.

LAFF-A-DAY

DENNIS THE MENACE

Tigers face Pampa in postseason game

Snyder basketball coach Larry Scott feels the Tigers have a pretty good shot at beating the Pampa Harvesters in the first round of the state playoffs.

"We have an excellent chance," he said. "They play up north, and nobody gets to see them play much so a lot of their ranking may be based on reputation and their record."

Pampa was ranked No. 4 in the last TABC poll, but the ranking was released prior to Levelland halting the PHS 13 game win streak at the end of the season.

The only common opponent the two teams have faced is Levelland.

The Lobos, in District 1 with Pampa, lost one to the Harvesters and defeated them once.

Snyder hosted Levelland in a non-district battle that LHS won, 64-63, on a last second bucket by the visitors.

The two teams face-off at 7:45 p.m. Friday in the Hutchinson Center gym on the campus of Wayland Baptist College in Plainview.

The Tigers, 19-12 on the year, are heading into the post-season as the second seed in District 4-A.

The Harvesters, 25-5, are a quick strike squad having scored over 100 points on three occasions in the 1989-90 season and relying on speed.

They are the current 1-4A title-holders.

According to the Texas Association of Basketball coaches the Pampa roster boasts three of the loop's top ten players.

Mark Wood, a second team all-district pick last year, is the tallest member of the squad playing forward at 6-3.

Guard Ryan Teague, a senior 6-0 guard, is the Harvesters' floor general and is a '88-89 honorable mention pick in the loop.

The third standout is Pampa's sixth man Cedrick Wilbon, a 5-9 sophomore who adds speed to the lineup off the bench.

"We really need the support of the people in Snyder," Scott said.

"Pampa is taking a band and buses, so we need a crowd there for us, too."

"There are only 32 4A basketball teams left playing," he said, "so it's really an honor to be here."

"It's not just another ball game."

SWC roundup...

'Hogs claim crown

by The Associated Press
The Arkansas Razorbacks have clinched at least a share of the Southwest Conference championship and the top-seed spot in the conference's post-season tournament, but they still have one goal and a game with Rice remaining.

Lenzie Howell, who missed several games earlier this month to be at the bedside of his ailing father in Dallas, scored 32 points Wednesday night to lead the No. 13 Razorbacks to a 114-108 victory over Texas A&M that clinched a share of the SWC title for Hogs.

In other SWC action Wednesday night, Houston whipped Texas Christian, 82-62, Southern Methodist edged Rice, 65-64, and Baylor defeated Texas Tech, 60-48.

Howell and the other Razorbacks, 22-4 overall and 13-2 in conference play, have at least one more goal in sight.

"I want the Southwest Conference championship," Howell said. "I'm dedicating this season to my dad. This was sort of a release game for me. I've kinda

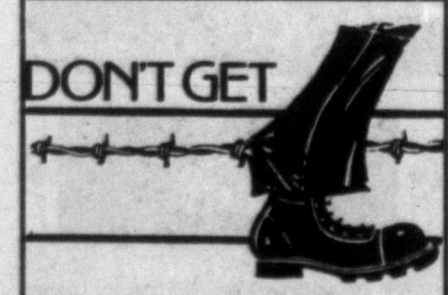

Bulldogs face WHS cagers

The Ira Bulldogs will face Westbrook in a bi-district basketball playoff game at 7:30 p.m. today in Colorado City's middle school gym.

Ira, 18-5 on the 1989-90 campaign, heads into post-season play as the District 25-A champion while Westbrook comes in as runners up in District 23-A.

The Bulldogs are led by Jason Withers, Shane Bearden and James Sturdivant who are all averaging in double figures per game.

Ira defeated Sands, 65-64 in overtime, in their last practice game in preparation for today's battle with Westbrook.

felt some pressure all through the season because I am a senior. After my teammates knew I was hot, they made a conscious effort to get me the ball."

The loss was the first ever for A&M, 12-15 overall and 5-8 in SWC play, in a game in which they scored 100 points or more.

"I would have taken 100 points to the house before the game," Aggie coach John Thornton said.

SHS golfers in 'Stockton

The boys' golf team of Snyder High School heads to Ft. Stockton Friday for an 11:00 a.m. tee-off as they begin play in the two-day Ft. Stockton Invitational Tournament.

The Tigers captured eighth place of 19 entrants in last weekend's Big Spring Tournament with a team total 699.

Snyder was led by the duo of Jay Parker and Chad Jacobi, each with two-round totals of 167.

Parker had the low score for the tournament for the Snyder crew with Friday's 81 followed by an 86 on Saturday.

Jacobi carded an 83 for the first day and came back with an 84 in the last round of play.

Shane Wade scored a 191 in Big Spring, trailed by Brian Fowler with a 191 and Ron Baker with a 193.

Coach Mackey Greene's charges will be in Andrews next weekend.

SPORTS

SPIKE—A team of Western Texas College faculty and staff hosted a squad of Snyder townspeople in a volleyball game Tuesday at the WTC gym in part of the school's observance of Community College Month. The WTC staffers dropped two of three games, 15-6, 15-9, before winning 4-15. WTC players were Gay Hickman, Bob Doty, Xan Harris, Vickie Harrison, Dr. Harry Krenek, Rick Nesmith, Mike Harrison, Kathy Duncan, Verta Hardegree and Jan McCathern. The town team was comprised of Jeffrey Martin, Mark Estes, Jeannie Duke, Paula McWilliams, Max Von Roeder, J.B. Tate Jr., Wade Hatter and Darla Floyd. (Photo by Howard Bigham)

WTC battles T-Birds Westerners, Dusters meet NMJC cage teams

The Westerners and Lady Dusters of Western Texas College travel to Hobbs, N.M. today to battle the Thunderbirds and Lady T-Birds of New Mexico Junior College in Western Junior College Athletic Conference basketball action.

The Westerners are coming off a 93-62 whipping at the hands of the league's second place team, South Plains College.

The loss dropped the WTC men's record to 7-6 in conference play.

With just three games left the Westerners are on shakey ground as far as being one of the four WJCAC squads to make the regional tournament.

"We still have an outside chance," said Westerners' coach Tony Mauldin.

"But we'll have to play well and win." Allen Smith was the WTC leading scorer in Monday's game against South Plains.

The 5-10 guard from Baton Rouge, La. scored 16 points for the Westerners in the losing effort.

Dominick Byrd and Kenneth Critton, with 11 and 10 points, respectively, were also in double figures on the night.

WTC nudged NMJC, 121-119, in Scurry County Coliseum Jan. 22.

Alfredo Porter scored 24 against the Thunderbirds to lead a group of six Westerners in double figures.

The two squads are fighting for what seems to be the lone remaining playoff spots as Howard College, South Plains College and Odessa seem, at this juncture, to have the inside track on the top three positions.

New Mexico JC is 8-3 within the conference and 15-12 overall.

The Lady Dusters are fresh off a good outing in a 70-68 loss to the Lady Texans of South Plains College.

Bobbie Brown playing with the flu tossed in 19 points to lead the WTC women.

Tami Wilson, still recovering from a deep thigh bruise, was able to work for three quarters and contribute 16 points.

Tracey Rome, filling in for Wilson, scored 13.

The loss drops Western Texas to 2-7 in WJCAC competition and ends their chances for a bid to the regional tournament set for the first week of March in Snyder.

They face an NMJC squad that has yet to win a conference game, losing Monday to previously winless Clarendon College, 77-58.

Western Texas claimed the win last time they played, 66-42 with Brown scoring a game-high 21 points.

Games begin today at 6 p.m. MST as the ladies tip-off followed by an 8 p.m. MST start for the men's game.

The Snyder Lady Tigers placed two players on the District 4-4A All-District first team.

Seniors Anne Osborn and Evette Housden were listed on the elite squad released by Snyder coach Kenneth Housden this morning.

Along with Osborn and Housden, Liz Grethouse and Teena Braziel were tabbed as honorable mention awardees.

Osborn center for the Lady Tigers, scored 31 points against Big Spring late in the season in one of her best performances of the season.

Housden was the team's defensive specialist and three-point shooter.

The rest of the squad is made up of three players off the loop champion Sweetwater Lady Mustangs, two each from Andrews, Pecos and Big Spring and one from San Angelo Lake View. Sweetwater honorees include Pam McNair, Nicky Heath and Michelle McCain.

Heath received the district's Most Valuable Player award, as well.

Christa Rogers drew the nod from Andrews as did teammate Nataya Maxey.

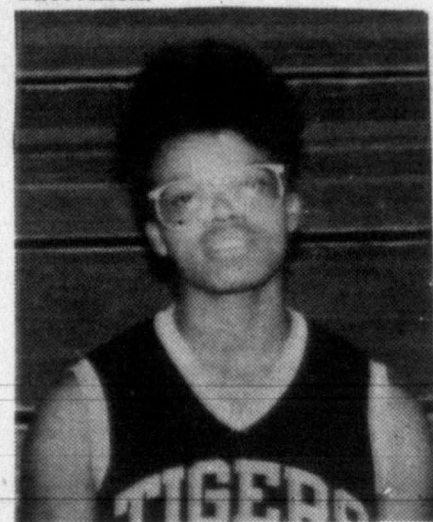

Maxey was also voted the circuit's sophomore of the year for the 1989-90 season.

The other team members include Tonya Jenkins and Sophia Terry of Pecos, Jennifer Hendeman and Gisilia Spears of Big Spring and Lake View's Vernetra Allen.

Four of the players tabbed for all-district honors were voted on to the squad unanimously.

They were Snyder's Osborn, Rogers of Andrews, Heath from Sweetwater and Lake View product Allen.

Snyder hosts B'field nine

Snyder will host Brownfield in a baseball scrimmage game at 5:30 p.m. today on the diamond at Moffett Field.

The contest had to be scratched because of bad weather Tuesday and was rescheduled for today.

The Brownfield game will be the Tigers' third scrimmage game as they prepare to defend their tri-champion status from last season in District 4-4A.

SHS, 1-1 in their scrimmage slate, begins the regular season next week as Lubbock Estacado comes to Snyder for a Feb. 27 meeting.

Snyder has one practice game remaining — a Saturday matchup with Midland Lee that begins at 1 p.m. on the Rebels home field.

The Tigers will play in the Abilene Tournament March 1-3 and are set to begin loop competition March 23 against the Pecos Eagles.

Dr. Gott
Peter Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I'm recovering from heart surgery and drink a lot of water. A friend indicated I should not drink tap water because of the bacteria in it, yet I always boil the water prior to drinking it. What are your feelings on this?

DEAR READER: I think you and your friend are overdoing it.

Tap water from municipal sources is carefully controlled; significant bacterial growth is prevented by treatment with chlorine and other agents. Tap water from private sources, such as springs or wells, can contain bacteria, but they're not the kind that cause disease in postoperative patients. If you are in doubt about the potability of your private drinking water, you can request a bacterial analysis by your local health department.

I believe you and your friend should realize that all of us take in uncounted trillions of bacteria each day—in the air we breathe and the food we eat. By and large, these bacteria are harmless; our bodies have marvelous natural mechanisms for identifying and destroying those that aren't. Therefore, there is little possibility that bacteria entering your mouth could cause infection, providing your water supply isn't grossly contaminated by human or animal waste matter.

A greater concern is that you could become infected by breathing in viruses and bacteria normally spread by the people in your environment—family, friends and acquaintances.

If you wish to boil your drinking water, OK. But this treatment probably isn't necessary for your continued good health. Nonetheless, because I am not familiar with your specific case (or the source of your water), I recommend you check with your doctor to confirm my general statements.

DEAR DR. GOTT: How can an individual find out what health insurance plans are available, which cover pre-existing illness and what the cost might be?

DEAR READER: You can obtain this information by talking to a licensed insurance agent or by writing to your state's insurance commissioner. Many different plans are available, some of which are offered through the work place and others by private subscription. To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Insuring Your Good Health." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Could dark circles under the eyes be caused by a vitamin deficiency? I currently take a one-a-day vitamin with iron but still look tired all the time.

DEAR READER: Dark circles under the eyes can reflect illness, allergies or fatigue. The extent of the discoloration appears to be genetic; that is, the tendency runs in families. Vitamin deficiency does not ordinarily cause dark circles under the eyes.

If you look haggard and feel tired, check in with your doctor to see if there is a medical cause for your circles and symptoms. For example, anemia and thyroid disorders can make people feel run down and look peaked. If you feel normal, I think you can disregard the circles and blame them on your inheritance.

Even tax accountants cannot figure it right

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ask 50 tax experts to calculate the federal taxes of a make-believe family and you'll get 50 different answers—most of them wrong.

"Money" magazine tried it and discovered:

—The 50 pros figured the $130,000-a-year family owed somewhere between $9,806 and $21,315. The correct answer, "Money" said, was $12,038.

—Although the family had some tax problems that most Americans will never face, some of the experts fumbled such basic items as the credit for child care expenses, the deduction for moving expenses and the Social Security tax owed by a self-employed person.

—The 35 certified public accountants, eight independent enrolled agents, two non-CPAs and five preparers from such chains as H&R Block charged fees ranging from $271 to $4,000.

—There was no logical connection between fees charged and performance. "Of the two preparers who fared best, one charged about $275 above average; the other around $260 below," the magazine said. Over the past three years, the average preparation fee for an upper-income return has risen by 30 percent, to $1,012 this year.

While the pros are still having their problems with the 1986 tax overhaul, "Money" found the people who answer questions by phone at the Internal Revenue Service are doing a little better this year. IRS personnel correctly answered the magazine's questions 72 percent of the time, compared with 59 percent a year ago.

Should the news about the tax experts scare you into preparing your own return, as only about one-half of taxpayers still do?

The magazine offers this advice: "If our insanely complicated tax code can trip up even highly trained CPAs, what hope would a mere layman have unless his return was relatively simple or he was an avid amateur accountant willing to put in long hours of study?"

This is the third straight year that "Money" has handed tax professionals the records of a hypothetical family and asked them to calculate what the family owes under the new tax law.

The first year, no two preparers computed the same tax due, and their answers ranged from $7,202 to $11,881. The second year, the range was from $12,599 to $35,812; only 10 experts managed to avoid significant errors.

"This year's results were even more depressing: our test stumped all but two of the 50 tax pros who were willing to grapple with it," the magazine reports in its March issue.

This year's test involved John and Jane, who had two preschool children and income of $132,000. Their finances put them in the top 2 percent of earners, and although some of their tax problems will never be encountered by most Americans, they should not pose a major problem for professional tax preparers.

In addition to several errors on the child care credit and self-employment tax, "Money" said, other major mistakes involved calculation of taxes on mutual fund shares; tax consequences of Jane's $8,000 loss on worthless stock; the handling of the couple's retirement accounts, and treatment of moving expenses.

In testing the IRS personnel who take tax questions by phone, "Money" found the answers were correct 90 percent of the time if they were to be found in the Form 1040 instruction booklet or in basic IRS information publications. But if the question-takers had to dig, the magazine said, they tended toward misleading advice.

"Money" said taxpayers who have to use professional preparers should invest in a commercial tax guide so they can take as much knowledge as possible to their tax lawyer or accountant.

Dear Abby

Tall Man Has Big Problem With Small-Minded People

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1990 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I am a U.S. Marine stationed in Okinawa and enjoy your column in the Stars and Stripes. Here's my problem: I'm too big. I'm 6 feet 5 inches and weigh 260. I have never lifted weights or worked out, but I look like a jock. The truth is, I'm lazy as a dog.

What's my complaint? I don't fit into small cars or airplane seats, and I have to have my clothes specially made. The average person assumes that I was a great football player. The truth is, I hated football but was forced to play. No matter where I go, some small guy wants to take me on because he has to prove something. If I fight him and lose, he's a hero and I'm a wimp. If I win, I'm a bully—even if he started it.

I'm sick of being told I resemble "The Hulk," "Frankenstein," "Herman Munster" or some other big lout. I could go on and on about how most people think all big guys are clumsy, insensitive and dumb—which they are not.

I'm big, but I'm human. I get thirsty, hungry and tired just like a smaller guy. I can't bench-press a bus, but I have feelings. I bleed when I'm cut. I love music, poetry, puppies and children. When I was 12 years old, the kids gave me a nickname that has stuck with me ever since. Sign this ...

TINY

DEAR TINY: Read on for a letter from a woman who shares your king-sized burden:

DEAR ABBY: I have a complaint that has bothered me for years. It's size discrimination. I am a tall, big woman. All my life I've suffered humiliation because of my size. When I'd go out with kids my age on Halloween, adults would say, "Aren't you a little too old to be out trick-or-treating?" (I'd go home in tears.) And when I was 10 years old, the cashier at the movie theater accused me of being more than 12 and trying to get in with a child's ticket.

The discrimination didn't stop when I became an adult. In my office job, I'm expected to lift heavy things, help move furniture, get supplies down from the top shelves and do chores only a man would be asked to do because I'm 5 feet 11 inches, broad-shouldered and husky. Because I'm big, people assume I'm strong as a horse and never get tired. Meanwhile, the petite women are constantly being helped and treated with courtesy and consideration.

Abby, please print this so others will realize that big women need as much consideration as smaller women. In fact, because big women have been discriminated against all their lives, they are even more sensitive and in need of kindness than their smaller sisters.

BIG AND BATTERED IN TULSA

DEAR BIG AND BATTERED AND TINY: Thank you for pointing out a form of discrimination practiced by many with no malice aforesaid. Freud was right when he said, "Anatomy is destiny!" Perhaps a few readers will reflect on this and act accordingly. I know I will. (Would I lie to you on George Washington's birthday?)

On Death Row...

High court ruling pleases inmates

HUNTSVILLE, Texas (AP) — Texas death row inmates said they are elated with a U.S. Supreme Court ruling concerning a retarded capital murderer, but a state prosecutor said the inmates' glee is premature.

The high court, in a unanimous ruling Wednesday, told the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals to restudy the case of John Henry Selva, a retarded Texas man sentenced to die for killing a deputy sheriff in Houston 11 years ago.

Selva's lawyers argue his death sentence is unconstitutional because jurors did not consider his retardation.

The inmates say further review could spare numerous inmates from lethal injection in Texas.

"All in all, this is very good news," said death row inmate Jim Vanderbilt, who closely follows capital punishment legal matters.

"If you can put yourself in a Selva-type situation ... now the question becomes will the Supreme Court say: 'Did somebody have evidence they could have introduced but didn't?'"

But Assistant Attorney General Bob Walt, who handles capital litigation for the state, said the inmates' elation "shows a certain lack of intelligence."

He also said he was upset that Selva's attorneys had raised the claim in a brief for a second time after the high court already had denied a similar motion.

"I see this as confusion in the courts and I see it as adding another year on a case that should have been resolved years ago," Walt said. "It takes the courts time to rule. And we're going to be back in the Supreme Court on this very issue in the future. I have no doubt we'll win before the Supreme Court."

Canadian country singer k.d. lang won best female country vocal performance for her LP "Absolute Torch and Twang."

"After All This Time" was best country song, earning a Grammy for singer-songwriter Rodney Crowell.

Former Beatle Paul McCartney was given a lengthy tribute before being presented a lifetime achievement award.

"I've got to take this opportunity now that I've got this award here to thank John, George and Ringo for being beautiful people," said McCartney, a five-time Grammy award winner.

Concord citizens may want to skip movie on Challenger

CONCORD, N.H. (AP) — Four years after the space shuttle Challenger blasted off on its ill-fated journey, a movie on the shuttle has touched raw nerves of those close to Christa McAuliffe, who was killed in the tragedy.

"The whole thing was very emotional to me," Concord Mayor James MacKay said after a screening of the movie "Challenger," scheduled to air Sunday on ABC-TV. "I started to cry at several points. ... Even though it's four years later, I think that people in Concord would not want to see this."

McAuliffe, a Concord High School social studies teacher who was the first private citizen chosen to fly in space, died along with six other crew members — Francis Scobee, Michael Smith, Gregory Jarvis, Ronald McNair, Ellison Onizuka and Judith Resnik.

MacKay said he believed the movie was an invasion of the McAuliffe family's privacy and that the portrayal of the former teacher by actress Karen Allen "in no way caught the depth" of McAuliffe's personality.

McAuliffe's mother, Grace Corrigan of Framingham, Mass., agreed. "I didn't feel it was Christa, but I didn't think it would be," she said.

Corrigan did not like the movie, but she was not upset that it was made. She and others said they want people to understand the movie is an adaptation of events, not a documentary.

"I think it was a good video," Mrs. Corrigan said, but added, "It didn't have any substance."

Bob Hohler, a reporter for The Boston Globe and author of "I Touch the Future: The Story of Christa McAuliffe," said the movie was "pretty bad."

"It just was a pretty powerful moment in history reduced to a dull docu-drama. It's real superficial," Hohler said. "It cheapens history when it becomes so superficial."

Writer-producer George Englund said he knew there would be mixed reactions to the film, but he believes the movie "is sensitive in almost every "Challenger," a two-hour, made-for-television movie, traces the six months leading up to the Jan. 28, 1986 launch. It ends with the blast-off, but does not show the explosion that was replayed countless times on news programs around the world.

"I was horrified they would play the explosion again," MacKay said. "I'm glad they didn't."

Mark Beauvais, Concord's superintendent of schools, said the movie will have a big impact on students and teachers at Concord High School. But because students will be on vacation next week there are no plans to discuss the program in class.

Meads will speak at NAACP banquet

The Scurry County chapter of NAACP will have its annual banquet Saturday at 7:30 p.m. at Scurry County Coliseum. Johnny Meads, linebacker for the Houston Oilers since 1984, will be the guest speaker.
