HUSKIES NEXT FOR INDIANS AS JET(ER) THRUST TRIMS MOGULS

Riding into the fifth game of the season on a 3-1 win-loss record after subduing Munday's Moguls 8-0 by the hardest last week, Haskell's up-and-coming Indians hope for a Homecoming scalping session against the Hirschi High Huskies of Wichita Falls on our own happy hunting grounds here, Indian Stadium, at 7:30 tomorrow night.

Substitute Quarterback Ronnie Jeter, replacing injured field general James Davis, sparked Haskell on a 66-yard scoring march in the third quarter to give the Indians an 8-0 victory against Munday there last Friday.

Pete Alcala, a ghost runner with all the trimmings, broke 52 yards to the Haskell 34, and it appeared as though Munday was going to draw first blood when wingback Larry Thompson fumbled on the next play and Charles Chapman recovered to give Haskell new life.

Haskell drove from that point in seven plays for the touchdown with wingback Joe Thigpen and crushing fullback James Ivy handling most of the load. Ivy got key yardage when he broke off left tackle for 19 yards, but Jeter was still the hero of the day. On a fourth and one play at Munday's 34, he hit right guard on a quarterback keeper, suddenly from out of nowhere burst into the clear and out-raced the last defender for the lone Haskell tally.

Jeter was playing under fire for the first time this season. He replaced Davis who had a knee twisted with only a minute and 40 seconds gone in the second half. The big 190-pounder never returned to the game.

Haskell threatened to score late in the first half when it marched 73 yards to the Mogul one foot line. However, Munday was up for the occasion and in fierce line action, recovered a fumble to stave off the march with 10 seconds left in the half.

Haskell has its ladder lined for a population explosion here Friday and Saturday. There will be 800 to 1,200 more mouths to feed in response to the warmest of invitations to "come put your feet under our table," but few, if any, new faces.

It's Homecoming in Haskell. Clay Smith, president, and Mrs. C. V. Payne, secretary, of the Haskell School Homecoming Association, and their co-hosts, which includes everyone in town, have the latchstring on the outside awaiting an influx of ex-students, former teachers and school board members, employees and patrons of Haskell schools expected here for a gain in two days.

Fellowship, food and football are the lure for the event, always a satisfying experience in the lives of the hundreds who mark the biennial pilgrimage.

Dr. Woodrow Adcock of Abilene, Haskell High School Class of 1932, will be the principal speaker at 2:30 p. m. Saturday in the high school gym.

The opening day's program begins with registration at the gymnasium Friday at 4 p. m. At 5:30, the Lions' Club of Haskell will sponsor a pancake supper at the high school lunch room, and the climax event of the first day will be the homecoming football game at 7:30 p. m. when Haskell's Indians meet the Hirschi High School Huskies of Wichita Falls at Indian Stadium here.

Registration will continue, and meetings will take place, beginning at 9 a. m. Saturday. The afternoon general assembly at which Dr. Adcock will speak will be followed by the final scheduled event, a chuck wagon dinner, starting at 5:00 p. m. in the high school lunch room.

Dr. William Kemp, well-known Haskell dentist, active in the civic and professional life of this area, has been named district chairman of the northern district, Chisholm Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, the council headquarters announced Saturday.

The new district chairman already has started recruiting new manpower to better serve the Scout units of the district, with the advice and counsel of Burr Russell, of Stamford, who continues as district chairman for the coming Scout year.

Dr. Kemp's jurisdiction is Haskell, Jones, Throckmorton, and Shackelford Counties, and together with men who have accepted the stimulating challenge of serving as Neighborhood Commissioners, participated last weekend in a training conference at Scout Camp Tonkawa, near Buffalo Gap.

Neighborhood chairmen in this district, and the community in which they are serving, include: Buddy Lane, assistant district commissioner in Haskell; Guy Weaver, assistant commissioner in Hamlin; Lytle McEwen and Carl Barton, Alpermont; Freddy Douglas, Alpermont; W. A. Dutton and Toby Yates, Weinert; Bill Wiseman, (See "Dr. Kemp," Page 8)

After considering what is believed to be the largest number and widest assortment of felony cases handled in Haskell County in one sitting, the September term grand jury in 39th District Court here late last Wednesday returned 31 indictments, "no-billed" two persons, and passed eight cases for further investigation.

Clay Smith, foreman, recessed the jury after reporting 41 cases to District Attorney Royce Adkins.

Vigilance and diligence in law enforcement by District Attorney Adkins and Haskell County Sheriff Garth Garrett were given by veteran Court-house observers here as the reason for the "heavy" grand jury report.

TWIN GRADS OF 52 YEARS AGO TO REUNITE AFTER 16 YEARS

DR. WOODROW ADCOCK

"Ol' Grad Who Made Good" To Speak Here

Climaxing the food, fellowship and football fare on the menu for Haskell's Homecoming this weekend will be the main "course," a keynote address by "an old grad who made good," Dr. Woodrow Adcock, of Abilene, district superintendent of the Methodist Church in North Central Texas.

Dr. Adcock, 50, a native of Haskell, born here March 3, 1913, will speak at the high school gymnasium at 2:30 p. m. Saturday.

Before being assigned to the Abilene district superintendent on June 1, 1961, Dr. Adcock was pastor of the First Methodist Church of Pampa for seven years.

The son of James Willis and Jessie Giddings Adcock, a farming couple in this area, Dr. Adcock is a graduate of the Class of 1932 from Haskell High School and obtained his BA degree from McMurry in 1937. He received his MD from the Perkins School of Theology, SMU, in 1939. The faculty and trustees of McMurry College conferred the Doctor of Divinity upon him August 24, 1961.

He married Grace Wylie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Wylie, at Howe, Texas, December 24, 1937. Rev. Wylie is a retired Presbyterian minister of Lubbock. The Adcocks have four children, Mrs. Frank Dugan Smith, of Pampa; Grace Ann Adcock, senior student at SMU; Woody Adcock, 18, freshman. (See "Ol' Grad," Page 8)

It has been 16 years since Mrs. Ruth Lewis Reid, former Haskell school teacher, has seen her twin brother, but she is coming half way around the world to hold a reunion with him and their many friends and relatives here at Haskell's Homecoming Friday and Saturday.

Ruth Lewis Reid, who lives in Sydney, Australia, and Raymond Lewis, her twin, who is coming from his home in Canada, graduated from Haskell High School 52 years ago, in 1911. A brother, Dr. A. J. Lewis, of Lubbock, will also be on hand. He is an HHS grad of the Class of 1904, almost 60 years ago.

The Lewises all were the children of an early day landowner in this area who came here from Collin County.

Mrs. Reid, who lived in Elberta many years, has made her home for the past two and a half years in Australia with a son, Allen Reid, who is vice president of the Eastern Asia division of Prentiss-Hall Publishing Company.

Raymond Lewis, who was a successful rancher and cattleman in Arizona, Colorado and New Mexico for a number of years, is presently manager of a motel at Vanderhoof, British Columbia, Canada.

Wives of the two brothers will accompany their husbands here. Mrs. Reid's husband has been dead several years.

Relatives in Haskell said on Monday Mrs. Reid arrived in this country a few days ago and is currently visiting an old friend in Arlington before coming here to await the arrival of her brothers Thursday.

Like many Haskell homecomers, the Lewis "children" will have a lot of "catching up" to do. It looks like two of them at least will earn hands down, the recognition for having come the farthest to catch up "the most."

Jo Helen Elliott Named President As Teens Tune Up

The Nine Teens, well-known and widely traveled choral group of Haskell High School, have begun practice for appearances booked for the fall and winter, one of the first of which will be at Haskell's Homecoming October 4-5.

At Homecoming, the Nine Teens will present their own program, then will be joined by former members of the select group in singing old favorites according to established tradition.

New officers of the Nine Teens recently elected are Jo Helen Elliott, president; Ruby Kaye Alvis, vice president; Karen Brown, secretary-treasurer; and Millie Holden.

Lions' Annual Pancake Supper Is Slated Friday From 5:00 to 7:15 p. m.

At the Tuesday noon-day luncheon meeting, Lions finalized plans for the big, annual pancake supper to be held in the high school lunch room from the hours of 5:00 to 7:15 p. m., tomorrow, Friday, October 4.

According to advance ticket sales, the pancake supper will again draw a large crowd as in previous years. Those persons who have not already done so may purchase tickets from the door at the time of the supper.

Residents are again reminded that money obtained from the project will be placed in the Goodfellows Fund to help less fortunate families at Christmastime.

School Board Members To Be On P-TA Panel

Members of Haskell's board of education will appear as a panel before the Elementary P-TA here next Monday night to discuss the role of the P-TA in bringing together parents and teachers in a working relationship for the welfare of the children. The meeting starts at 7:30 p. m.

Rev. Douglas Finch, president of the P-TA, also will direct a ceremony of dedication in which a flag will be presented to the school to honor the memory of Mrs. Pat Weaver, a dedicated second grade teacher here for many years, who died early this year.

In order not to conflict with a previously scheduled meeting of the school board, the Elementary P-TA October meeting was moved from this week to next Monday night.

Mrs. Bailey Toliver, vice-president and program chairman for the P-TA, said that Rev. Finch and Travis Smith, principal of the Elementary School, will appear on the panel with school board members who are: Jean Elliott, president; J. A. Bynum, vice-president; Howard Perry, secretary; Mrs. B. B. Gilmore, Lynn Pace, Jr., Dr. J. F. Cadenhead, Jr., and W. O. Holden.

Hosts and hostesses for Monday night's P-TA meeting at the Elementary School will be parents of sixth grade pupils.

Haskell Man Dead In Fight Over Gun

Christoval Villa, 32, a Haskell laborer, was dead on arrival at Haskell County Hospital shortly after 9:30 p. m. Saturday of a gunshot wound inflicted during a scuffle with a veteran Haskell County law enforcement officer who said his pistol went off as Villa tried to resist arrest.

Raymond Denson, 63, of Rule, Haskell County constable for 11 years and a deputy sheriff nine years previously, was charged with murder on a complaint signed by Haskell Police Chief Tom Paul Barnett before County Judge William P. Ratliff.

After his appearance before Ratliff, Denson immediately executed $2,500 bond in the court of Justice of the Peace Virgil Brown at the Haskell County courthouse.

Villa was struck once in the back of the right shoulder by a bullet which ranged downward, apparently piercing the heart. He was rushed to the Haskell hospital in a W. L. Pinkard ambulance from Rule, and pronounced dead on arrival.

Funeral services for Villa were held from the Catholic Church here Tuesday morning, with the Rev. James Muerre, of Stamford, officiating. Burial was in Willow Cemetery under direction of Holden Funeral Home.

Villa, a native of Haskell and member of the Catholic Church, is survived by his wife, the former Margaret Ozuna, whom he married May 20, 1962; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Villa, all of Haskell; seven sisters and five brothers.

Denson said of the arrest: "He got in the car with me all right, but when I got to the city hall, he got out and said he wasn't going in. He told me, 'You're not going to put me in.'"

31 Indictments Returned By Jury In Record Report

After considering what is believed to be the largest number and widest assortment of felony cases handled in Haskell County in one sitting, the September term grand jury in 39th District Court here late last Wednesday returned 31 indictments, "no-billed" two persons, and passed eight cases for further investigation.

Clay Smith, foreman, recessed the jury after reporting 41 cases to District Attorney Royce Adkins.

Jaycees Here Are Bronte Bound To Organize There

Haskell Jaycees, prosecuting an extension of inter-community service as a project of the organization here as a whole, will go to Bronte next Thursday to meet with young men of that town for the purpose of organizing a Jaycee group there.

All young men 35 and under are being urged by Jim Pitts, of the West Texas Utilities Company in Bronte, to meet with the extension-minded Haskell Jaycees at 7:30 next Thursday night in the WTU office in Bronte.

Mrs. Davis, 88, Is Dead; Mother Of Stella Trice

Mrs. George Elias (Mary Victoria) Davis, 88, died about 11 p. m. Saturday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. P. (Stella) Trice, here, where she had lived for the past six years.

Funeral was held at 3 p. m. Monday in First Baptist Church of Rule. The Rev. R. C. Dowdy, pastor, and the Rev. Ray Nobles, pastor of First Baptist Church, Haskell, officiated. Burial was in Rule Cemetery under direction of Pinkard Funeral Home.

Mrs. Davis, born July 14, 1875, at Dublin, lived in Rule for 34 years prior to moving to Haskell to live with her daughter, Mrs. Trice. Before moving to Rule, she lived for 48 years in Dublin, where she married Mr. Davis.

She is survived by four sons, C. O. of Rule, Lee E. of Dallas, Jack A. of Wilton, Maine, and Les P. Fulton; two daughters, Mrs. R. D. (Mae) Chambers of Jacksboro and Mrs. W. P. (Stella) Trice of Haskell; seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mrs. T. E. Hall Dies; Mother Of Christene Greene

Mrs. Myrtle Mae Hall, 67, mother of Christene Greene, died in her sleep early Wednesday at the home of a son, Bud Hall, in Wichita Falls.

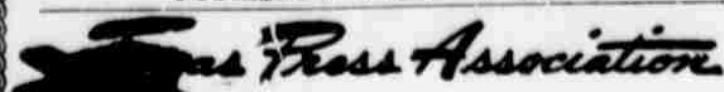

Mrs. Hall's death followed by just two weeks the death of her husband, T. E. Hall, who also died in Wichita Falls on August 19 after a lengthy illness. Mrs. Hall had been an invalid for 12 years.

What Price Dropouts?

Every year youths spend in high school can be worth an average of $17,500 to each of them.

A full four years can be worth $70,000. This is how much extra they will earn on an average over their working lives by going to school, according to the Chamber of Commerce of the United States.

Haskell High School's Senior Class started this year with twelve more prospective graduates than received their diplomas last Spring. We solicit the attention of all 51 Seniors to the foregoing figures before they consider the dropout route at a major crossroads in life.

Hello, Homecomers!

The years will roll back for lots of folks who converge on their home town of Haskell this weekend. They are coming from all over, and even "down under," for a biennial Homecoming that has become an institution in Haskell.

A lady who now makes her home with a son in faraway Australia, the land "down under," will be here to see her twin brother with whom she graduated from Haskell High School more than 52 years ago. And they haven't seen each other in 16 years!

This is the type situation that provides the warmth, the spirit, the "feel" of Homecoming, that defies description. There will be other situations just like the one reported above, and more thoroughly elsewhere in this edition of the Free Press. We hope word of them comes to our attention. We'd like to know.

To each and all of you returnees, we want to say, "We wish you'd stay." But if you can't, do the next best thing, will you? Say a good word, and do a good deed, for your old hometown, Haskell, wherever you go. And come back to see us, soon and often.

Are We Missing the Point?

It is said that when the Wright brothers, Orville and Wilbur, finally managed to make their heavier-than-air craft take off from the sand dunes of Kitty Hawk, N. C., in 1903, and fly a few feet, they were so elated they wired their sister, Katherine: "We have actually flown. Will be home for Christmas."

This first flight was a great moment in the history of the progress of the human race, the first powered flight in a heavier-than-air plane. It was the break-through that made the world a neighborhood.

When Katherine received the telegram, she ran down the street and showed it to the editor of the local paper. He glanced at it, the greatest scoop of the century, then murmured politely, "How nice that the boys will be home for Christmas." He missed the point.

So many of us are like that. A great opportunity is offered, but we never see it. Opportunities, lots of them, are going begging right here in Haskell. We miss the point. History is in the making before our eyes. The future of our town is at stake. How we react, what we do, may be the turning point.

But we never see it. Instead, we squabble over petty things. We are missing the point.

Thirty days hath September. Well, that took care of that. All except the bills. And here it is October. Homecoming. Hirsch. Winters. Ballinger. Then the spooks take over the night of the 31st. And we won't have to import any. We got lots of spooks here. Speaking of Hirsch, Winters and Ballinger, and of course, football, we seem to be setting some kind of record for supporting our Indians on the road. Anybody who doesn't get a real big charge out of seeing the way these Haskellites go in caravan to out-of-town football games "don't" even love his own Grandmother.

At Seymour, in the press box, Clyde Whiteside, an old Seymour boy, currently county attorney, who used to represent Haskell County in the State Legislature, said it was the biggest crowd from Haskell he ever saw there.

At Clyde, the press coop roosters there said it was the biggest crowd they ever saw at a football game there. Why? Haskell was there en masse.

And Munday. Their stadium holds 2,000, and we had it on good authority that 800 seats were sold to Haskellites AT THE GATE Friday night. Some already had been sold prior to.

It's really refreshing to see ALL OF HASKELL, pulling in one direction on ONE situation. It's too... ah... uh... cotton-pickin' bad they can't show the same togetherness, spirit, zip, zing, dedication on other matters of community interest. If they did, we'd have 15,000 people in this town in no time, and be on our way, singin' "pollywolly doodle all day." There may yet come that day.

We know somebody who goes to football games religiously, and seems to enjoy every bit of them, down to the finer points of the game. At least, this somebody howls to the heavens when a penalty goes against us, like as if she knew what she was howling about. The other day, after gettin' the same kind of card for a couple of days running in a game being played at a local grocery emporium, she queried, "How many right guards are there on a football team?" The Pencil Pusher went quietly.

Got in on the shank end of a commercial Hoss Cartwright was spiling the other night. He said something about "rugged enough to work all day Saturday and pretty enough to take to the dance that night." Thought he was talkin' about my wife, but it was a truck.

You can tell it's gettin' "fallish." The door to the Fire Hall ain't open until sunup these days.

Forgive us if we go back to football just once more. Can't get our minds off it, but we've got lots of company. Definitely a new departure for us is to see the referee take time out (on him) to help a player find his contact lens or lenses which popped out onto the turf on the preceding play. In the Clyde game, one of their boys lost a contact three times and found it every time. We hear our Eddie Hester wasn't so fortunate recently. How they ever find one or both is a miracle to us. We've a daughter who wears 'em, and our heart is in our mouth each and every time she puts one "on" or removes one. But contacts are a

Haskell County History

50 YEARS AGO (October 3, 1913)

Several cases of hijacking have been reported to the Sheriff's office this week, the incidents having occurred during the weekend. Most of the hold-ups have taken place near the Haskell-Knox County line. Most of the victims have been farmers on their way home from gins at night. Small amounts of cash have been taken in each of the robberies.

Mrs. P. D. Sanders who has been making her home with her son, Cedric, and grandson, of Detroit, Mich., is here for a few weeks' visit with relatives and friends.

Frank Welsh, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Welsh, is in Houston, where he is attending South Texas School of Law. The Fair Store at Rule was burglarized last Tuesday night and a large quantity of merchandise was taken, it was reported to the Sheriff's department. A 1928 Chevrolet coupe belonging to C. L. Baker, of Rule, also was stolen Wednesday night.

First beer license issued in Justice Precinct Number 4 following the recent beer election was issued to a Stamford man by Tax Collector Ed Fouts after application had been approved by County Judge Chas. M. Conner. The permit is for a location one half mile north of Stamford on Highway 30. A fee of $37.50 was paid for the license, covering the period from now until the end of this year.

An old boy came in from the southeast part of the county the other day and said he'd thought about gettin' an office job in town, but didn't think he could stand that much coffee.

When Ray Nobles came into the back shop last Wednesday afternoon, it was a pretty propitious visit. The press had been actin' up like we'd never seen it balk before. We needed all the help we could get, and were ready to get down on our knees. Among the rags around was a discarded petticoat that didn't look like it ever came out of Neiman Marcus in the first place. The preacher's comment was, "Looks like you're getting down to the bare facts in this situation."

We been meanin' to ask somebody about this: The government has been talkin' like it means to restrict the sale of remedies for the common cold. Does this mean the return of Prohibition?

Harold Spain said the other day that go-now-pay-later vacations have a good afterglow. This helps keep 'em fresh in your memory.

Overheard in a store on the Square: "Isn't there a smarter clerk around here to wait on me?" "Sorry, Ma'am. All the smart clerks ducked out the back door when they saw you come in."

Sign on a restaurant door: "Some girls may not know how to cook, but they know what's cookin'."

Oakescript: We've heard a lot about the fact that some planets can't support life. It's gettin' to where it's not so easy on this one either. For that reason, we're not so sure which worries us the most—the end time of the world or the end of the month. Which it just wuz

'64 Jet-smooth Luxury CHEVROLET

Besides looks, ride and power - what's so special about it (It's so reasonably priced)

Kind of leaves the high-priced cars some explaining to do, wouldn't you say? Long and luxurious—with a fresh-christened look. Richer roomy interiors with subtle new blendings of colors and fabrics. Like the ultra-soft vinyl upholstery in the new Chevrolet Impala Super Sport Series.

A choice of seven engines, no less, with output all the way up to 425 hp.* And a choice of four smooth transmissions to go with them. And underlying it all, the opulent feel of this '64 Chevrolet—jet-smooth ride.

Matter of fact, the most noticeable difference in this beautiful new 1964 Chevrolet and the priced cars is the price itself.

Let your dealer show you how much that reasonable Chevrolet price now buys.

they may, can not solve this problem alone, but with the cooperation of all it can be remedied.

I recently saw a mother scold a youngster from the path of an oncoming speeding car. Yes, it's true the little boy should not have been in the street, but this lesson of safety cannot always be pounded into the mind of a small child. So it's up to you and me to help stamp out fast and reckless driving. Most of us are hesitant, but it is our duty to report the name or names of every reckless and fast driver we see, so our officers can do something about the matter. In unity there is strength... let's do something about speedsters and reckless driving in our little city. NOW... as tomorrow may be too late.

Prattler's Prophecy: In my pre-game football predictions involving the Haskell Indians and teams in the Southwest Conference in games played last weekend, I picked five correct and missed three, out of eight predictions, thus hitting 63 per cent. Owing into the somewhat cloudy, mucky, and hazy crystal ball for this weekend contests, I see it like this:

Haskell Indians 19, Hirscht Huskies 7. Too much heap big Indians.

Rice over Penn State. The Owls are flying high.

TCU over Arkansas. Could be a toss-up, but I will have to string along with the Froggies.

SMU over Air Force. Ponies should bounce back after their defeat by Michigan.

Texas Tech over A&M. Because the Red Raiders are playing at home.

Texas over Oklahoma State. The Longhorns are stampeding.

Baylor over Oregon State. The Bears seem hungrier.

Yanks to take World Series.

Just a last minute reminder that the Lions Annual Pancake Supper is on tap for Friday, October 14, from 5:00 to 7:15 p. m. in the High School lunch room. This is one of the Lions Club's major projects and all money obtained from the Pancake Supper will be placed in the Goodfellows Fund to purchase and distribute Christmas baskets to less fortunate families here during the Yuletide season.

Ya'll Come! Enjoy the fellowship, the golden, brown pancakes, crisp bacon, and in turn promote a worthy cause.

Lucky you — or perhaps it isn't entirely luck. Maybe you are the driver who knows all the rules and obeys them to the letter. You may be the driver who is invariably courteous. You may be the driver who is always alert. If you answer this description, this statement is not for you... but if you fall short, then you, Mr. Haskellite, should take this message to heart.

Reckless and fast driving has been in the past and continues to be a number one problem in Haskell. Our officers, try as ground you can cover and how much stimulation you can get. Maybe it is not as easy to read as it used to be, but it is possible and may be good for anything that may all you. Even brief breaks in the road are helpful.

Flying of the flag upside-down is a signal of distress. Since the flag was flying in that position at the local post-office one day last week, Wallace Cox, Jr., wants to know if the postoffice is in distress. What about it, Spain?

That's all for now which reminds me of the little Polar bear, sitting on a cold slab of ice, quipped to the mother bear: "My tale is cold."

Directors' Meeting
Regular monthly meeting of officers and directors was held Tuesday morning, 7 o'clock, at the Highway Drive-In, with president, Wallace Cox Jr., in charge.

Last minute details were discussed for the pancake supper. The Do-Nut Sale was set for Friday and Saturday, Nov. 23, 24, with Hugh Ratliff and George Fouts, co-chairmen for the project.

Royce Adkins, who has served so faithfully and diligently in the past, was again named chairman of the Goodfellows Fund Drive in December.

The Homecoming speaker was recommended for a preacher's license by the Quarterly Conference of the Paint Creek Methodist Church in Haskell County in August, 1932, a few months after he finished high school. He received a license the next month from the Stamford District. He was a McMurry College supply pastor, preaching two years at Sugerton and O'Brien in this county before going to the Howe Circuit near Sherman. He served Valley View and Whitewright before enlisting as a chaplain in the Army during World War II.

After serving in combat in Europe, he returned to the ministry at Vera, then went to Hale Center for three years before becoming pastor of the First Methodist Church at Snyder. He has served as chairman of the Northwest Texas Conference Board of Evangelism, and as chairman for four years as chairman of the conference Board of Social Concerns. He was a delegate to the Methodist World Conference in 1956. In 1962, he and his wife visited 11 countries of Europe and the Holy Land.

Dr. Adcock is a private pilot and owns a small airplane which he uses extensively to participate in many church conferences. A 32nd degree Mason, he is a member of the Lions Club, Chamber of Commerce, and is most active in community and civic affairs.

Rainfall Here Still 4.5 Inches Above Normal

September rainfall in Haskell measured seven hundredths of an inch over normal, the temperature range during the month was an amazing 59 degrees and moisture to date here in 1963 is still running four and a half inches above normal, according to the report of Weatherman Sam Herren here.

Haskell had a 104 degree sizzler on September 7, and a 43-degree chiller early Monday morning, the last day of the month to record a thermometer range of almost 60 degrees.

It rained some on eight different days in September, and biggest total was 1.28 on the 12th, with 34 hundredths recorded on the 16th. The 2.53 inches of rain all month was 77 above the September normal of 2.26.

Haskell has received 23.13 inches of moisture since January 1, and the normal rainfall for the first nine months of the year here is 18.81.

Rural Schools---

(Continued from Page 1) of archives for the group under the general supervision of Mrs. Tom Barfield, whetted the historical appetites of the members present with colorful incidents of by-gone days in schools which early consolidated with other schools in Haskell County, and eventually became part of the city system here.

Names of many country schools, which were the focal point of the civic, religious and social activity of rural residents in other days, were mentioned here Tuesday night that many present had forgotten ever existed.

Principal item of business at the meeting was distribution by Couch of data gathering sheets to committeemen who were given the history of specific schools upon which to do research. Former teachers and patrons of these defunct schools are the object of contact by the historical survey committee for the purpose of compiling a more complete and colorful history of Haskell County, now being prosecuted full tilt under Mrs. Barfield's direction.

Twenty-one members of the full committee attended the meeting on Tuesday evening representing seven of the eight communities in Haskell County. Information obtained by R. C. Couch Sr., at the office of the County School Superintendent was used as a basis for assignments made to committee members to do additional research.

Mrs. Truett Alvis and Mrs. Bess Porter, of Rochester, reported the historical data compilation from their area nearing completion.

A number of the teachers in Haskell County's rural schools of year-year have gone on to make a prominent mark in their professions, and all due credit is to be given them in the completed history, Mrs. Barfield reported.

Mrs. Barfield and Jim Norman, chairman of the Civil War graves' location committee, were continuing their preparation of instruments for recording in Austin in order to procure appropriate markers from the Texas Historical Survey Committee to be placed at veterans' graves throughout the county. At last count, 51 such graves have been located in Haskell County, but much additional information is needed about them.

141 Teachers And "B" Team Rallies Administrators In Last Gasp To Here For Session Tie Hamlin, 14-14

A total of 141 teachers and administrators from 15 of the 24 units in Oilbelt District 7, Texas State Teachers Association, were in Haskell Saturday for an all-day workshop at which plans were made to hold the district convention in Sweetwater next March 6. The District 7 unit leaders meeting here endorsed the 1963-64 program of TSTA as laid out in the 15th annual leadership conference of the state association August 1-3 in Dallas.

Hooper T. Wilkinson, superintendent of Haskell Schools, opened the sessions with an address of welcome at the Haskell High School auditorium at 9:30 a. m.

Registration of the participants was accomplished by members of the Haskell Chapter, Future Teachers of America, under the supervision of Mrs. Luther Burkett, guidance counselor in the Haskell Schools. In addition to registering, the following HHS girls served coffee and served as guides: Betty Bruton, Sue Long, Rayna Trussell, Judy Whitfield, Debbie Wiseman, Charlottte Hise, Diane Summers, Vicki Burson and Bonnie Howard.

John W. White, principal of Newman High School, Sweetwater, district president, was in charge of the opening general session at which Mrs. Elizabeth Little, of Corpus Christi, TSTA vice president, keynoted the meeting.

Discussion group meetings preceded a noon luncheon in the cafeteria of the Haskell Elementary School. Sections and chairmen for the group discussions were local unit presidents, H. A. Dunn, Abilene; Sweetwater; legislative and public relations, Dr. Joe B. McNeil, Wichita Falls; membership, C. A. Jolley, Wichita Falls; and Robert Orr, Vernon; TEPS and FTA sponsors, Dr. Orvil Flibeck, Abilene Christian College; district convention, A. E. Wells, Abilene.

Workshop consultants here for the sessions were: Mrs. Mrs. Little, McNeil, Mrs. Grace

Haskell's and Hamlin's "B" elevens fought to a 14-14 deadlock in a see-saw game in Indian Stadium here last Thursday night.

The Young Indians of Haskell, coached by Dave Middleton and Bill Blakely, had to come from behind in a 65-yard sustained march in the last three minutes of play to gain the tie and preserve a victory skein which goes back to the start of the 1962 season. Prior to Thursday's scrap with the junior Pied Pipers, Haskell's Braves won 8 straight for a perfect record in 1962, and had won their first two games this season so far.

Haskell's prior victories this season have been a 42-0 thumping of the Albany "B" squad, and a 38-16 win over Anson's Tiger Cubs.

Simpson, a fleet scooter in the Hamlin backfield, provided the firepower and scoring punch for Hamlin, sending his team ahead 6 to 0 on a 50-yard scamper on the sixth play of the game. Haskell turned back the conversation try.

With two minutes left to go in the first quarter, Eddie Heister, hustling Haskell ball toter, crossed the double stripe from 8 yards out, and Bobby Watson slammed over for the 2-pointed to send the home team ahead 8 to 6.

The second quarter was scoreless, as well as the third, in the hard-played scrap.

Midway in the last stanza, Hamlin, led again by Simpson, marched 45 yards for a TD and 2-point conversion to send the visitors ahead 14-8 with 3:10 left in the ball game.

Haskell scored in two minutes flat on a drive that had the hometowners afoot and howling. Gary Druessedow was the point collector, racking up the six that tied the score. The conversion try was hurried back and that was the ball game.

With a minute left, Hamlin worked the ball back down to Haskell's 30 as time ran out.

2,637,949 children were paid 120,379,000 for July 1963 in social security benefits.

Mrs. Cadenhead, Jr. No Moderate Panel At Jr. High P-TA Sheriff, Ranger Pick Up Pair In Rule Burglary

Mrs. James F. Cadenhead, Jr., wife of a well-known Haskell physician, will moderate a panel on "The Family: A Firm Home Base?" when the Haskell Junior High School P-TA meets here Wednesday, October 9.

The P-TA will assemble in the junior high school library at 1 p. m.

The organization will accentuate membership enrollment and conduct a campaign for subscriptions to state and national P-TA periodicals during October, it was announced.

Two Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, brothers, ages 21 and 24, picked up in Fort Worth late Saturday by Haskell County Sheriff Garth Garrett and Texas Ranger Homer T. Meiton, of Benjamin, have been returned here for grand jury action in connection with the burglary of a house near Rule last Friday night, the Sheriff reported Monday.

Garrett said their names were being withheld pending filing of formal charges with

Gary Ivy Directs Bands, Choirs In Fort Stockton

Gary Ivy, 1955 graduate of Haskell High School and 1959 graduate of Abilene Christian College, has been named assistant band director at Fort Stockton High School, according to word received here.

Ivy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Ivy, of Haskell, also directs the junior high band, and the junior and high school choirs, the combined personnel of which totals 222 students.

The Haskellite is assistant to James Pollard, the Fort Stockton High School band director.

Ivy went to the Fort Stockton post from Roscoe. He is married to the former Juree Moose, of Port Lavaca and the couple has one daughter, Michelle.

District Attorney Royce Adkins

Taken in the burglary, the Sheriff said, was an undetermined amount of cash, several items of jewelry and a radio. Two watches have been recovered and an empty strongbox said to have contained the cash, was found three miles from the scene, Garrett reported.

Kimbrough Gift Goes On Display In Hall of Fame

The game football presented to Jarvin John Kimbrough after he scored the touchdown which enabled Texas A&M to beat UCLA in 1940 was on its way to Dallas Monday to take its place in the trophy cabinet of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

Responding to the Hall of Fame Committee's request for a memento from the playing days of those who have been admitted to this select sports "edifice," Kimbrough, the Aggie All-American who was one of the greatest of them all, chose the Aggie-UCLA game ball, which is painted with "A&M 7; UCLA 0, 1940," and bears the signatures, some now dim, of many who played in the game.

The ball, though dejected, looks like it still can go 60 minutes. Kimbrough, not a bit inflated from his playing weight of 29 plus years ago, looks like he can, too.

Everybody out of the rut ...the '64 Buicks are here!

New Wildcat: Wildest, sportiest yet. Three hefty engine choices (up to 360 hp). Not new Formula V wheels (optional at extra cost).

Buick Special: New longer wheelbase, safety box frame, roomier body. Still low priced.

Buick Skylark: A very personal car with a flair for action. Now in 3 models.

Buick LeSabre: Stunning new looks, new gas-saving engine. Probably 1964's best full-size value.

Electra 225: Most luxurious Buick. Splendidly contemporary in taste and performance.

Our happiest problem for '64 was: how to beat a winner? According to thousands of owners, the 1963 models just about had it made in all departments. But—when your name is Buick—you just don't rest on your laurels. You keep pushing to make a great car greater.

So... the '64 Buicks are new—but new. New engines, V-6 or V-8 (you'll like their new gas economy), new, smoother, extra-cost option, Super Turbine Transmissions (and who, but Buick, would build in an altitude compensator?). Youngest looking Fisher Bodies in town! Visit a showroom, sit in any one of the new Buicks, and practice this short easy line: "My Buick." Sounds good, doesn't it?

Settlement Made Out-of Court In Ivy Death Lawsuit

A $24,000 civil suit asking damages in connection with the motor vehicle death of former Haskell County Judge John Franklin Ivy last Christmas Eve at 7:45 p. m. was settled out of court after a jury had been sworn in as the September term of 39th District Court opened here last Monday. Terms of the settlement were not known pending filing of a judgment in the case with the presiding judge here, Judge Ben Charlie Chapman.

Dennis P. Ratliff, of Haskell, attorney for the plaintiff, Mrs. Pearle Warren Ivy, widow of the former Haskell County Judge, said settlement was made as the proceedings in the case were about to begin. Ronald Dean Anderson, about 23, of Abilene, the defendant, was represented by Attorneys Frank Smith, of Abilene, and Joe Williams, of Haskell. Judge Ivy was fatally injured when struck by a pickup truck while crossing the street near his home at the intersection of South Avenue E (U. S. Highway 277) and South 10th Street inside the city limits here. Police Chief Tom Paul Barnett said Anderson was the driver of the vehicle which struck Judge Ivy while the latter apparently was trying to dodge an unidentified vehicle. The Haskell police chief was reported as saying Anderson did not see Judge Ivy before he was struck.

Haskell Rotarians Hamlin-Bound In Fellowship Tie Giggle And Groan In Fitness Test

Haskell Rotarians, at a business session coincident with their weekly luncheon Thursday, voted unanimously to go en masse to Hamlin to visit the Rotary Club of that community on a Wednesday regular meeting day there, to be designated soon.

Ira Hester, president of Haskell Rotary, will work out arrangements for the mass convergence by Rotarians here on the Hamlin club, and hopes are that a "reciprocal visitation agreement" may be worked out for "soon and often," Hester said.

A "Rotarian - to - Rotarian, club-to-club, district-to-district relationship" throughout Rotary International, is a part of the worldwide policy of Rotary being prosecuted this year by the international president, Carl Miller.

The seed on the local level was planned recently during a visit to this area by Dr. J. Harold Farmer, district governor for District 579 of Rotary, comprising 41 clubs in North Central-Northwest Texas area.

Hamlin has been paired with Haskell in the Rotary fellowship pattern of club-to-club, and these two clubs have a "matching" club with which the aim and object is for them to get acquainted in a Rotary district just west of Mexico City in Mexico. The club with which Haskell and Hamlin are to get together to arrange exchanges of correspondence, information, and even personal visits is at Zacapa, Mexico.

Visitors at the weekly Rotary meeting held in the private dining room of the Texas Cafe here, were Mrs. Alvin Sherman, of Haskell; Rotarian

More than 200 parents and between 250 and 300 elementary school age children intermittently giggled and groaned together at the Haskell Elementary School's first P-TA meeting of the year, the principal "business" of which was a mass physical fitness test in Indian Stadium here.

Rev. Douglas Finch, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Haskell, and president of the P-TA, said results of the physical fitness exercises, as measured on an AAU score-card were "heartening," and that the scores were better than anticipated. The Elementary P-TA is including in its planning other such tests as the school year progresses. Rev. Finch reported.

The junior physical fitness enthusiasts took home with them their individual score sheets for future reference and comparison with later tests.

The kindergarten class won room count honors at the first P-TA meeting of the year with 16 parents present.

Concession stands at the stadium, operated by the P-TA to serve snack suppers on the grounds for P-TA meeting goers, cleared $55 for the organization. P-TA will be held at 7:30 p. m. Monday, October 7, in the school.

Rev. Burton Watkins, of Stamford; and Hobb Smith, of Knox City, who accompanied the speaker, Mrs. Paul Seicke, Knox City native, now living in Denmark, to the luncheon.

Ghost Hunter Might Have Ghost Of A Chance With 'Ghost' Varmint

Alton Harris, of Haskell, thinks it might be a momentous move to get his brother, Loyd (Red) Harris, back here to hunt this area's vanishing "thang." The two have a lot in common, he says.

The varmint, believed to be a carnivorous cougar, has been a ghostly type, seen and unseen, for four years now. Red Harris, who was raised in Haskell County, and now in his 21st year with the Arizona Forest Service, has had an intriguing background as a ghost hunter. And a cougar ghost hunter at that.

It's a ghostly tale, as Alton tells it. Since he is operator of a slaughter service here, he would like nothing better, come to think of it, than to carve a carcass of varmint steaks.

For several years, Red Harris, Knox County-born, Haskell County-raised West Texan, was a ghost hunter. What he hunted was real enough. There's nothing ethereal about an animal that can kill a calf with a single blow from a sharp-clawed paw. Nothing ghostly about it, except when you try to catch it, to which Haskell's cougar's at-large status will attest.

To Red Harris, according to his brother, the most frustrating part about his ghost hunting job was its anonymity. For, like a writer who ghost writes a book, Red Harris ghost hunted mountain lions.

The former Haskell Countian, who has been living near Tucson, Arizona for a number of years, hunted lions for a rancher for three years. The rancher is dead now, and until he died, Red Harris never told the story.

When he was employed, Harris had one cardinal instruction, he told his brother here: "I was to kill the lions, and he was to get the credit."

Harris' hunting prowess got him the job with the rancher. "All I had to do was to hunt lions full time. But he wanted to do the talking about the hunt," the veteran hunter reported. "He'd want to know everything about it from beginning to end. Everything. Then he'd take the lion carcass down to the bar in the Santa Rita Hotel (in the Box Canyon area of the Santa Rita Mountains of Arizona) and brag to everybody how he'd killed the lion."

Red Harris' brother here said the rancher got "quite a reputation as a lion hunter, and never shot a one." In fact, he didn't even want to see one killed. Red got one treed one time, and wanted his employer to shoot it, but he ran off and went to town.

Through the years, Red Harris has shot 32 mountain lions and a rare Mexican tiger, according to the tabulations of his brother here.

Hunting Haskell County's elusive varmint would be Red Harris' "meat," Alton thinks, as he told one more story attributed to his brother, who cowboied in this country, and in Arizona, too, before he went with the forestry service.

Red was on a roundup on an Arizona ranch when the hands got into an argument over which outfit had the fastest horses. One cowboy ended the argument by roping a deer. He was chasing a cow around a bush when a big, old mule deer shot out from the other side.

He was building a loop and it was just second nature to drop the rope on the buck. The other cowboys didn't have a thing to say when they saw the muley down and hog tied.

Red Harris may be just the person needed to corner Haskell County's "thang." The ghost hunter hunting the ghost.

Patton Springs Is New Member Of Pilot Schools

Representatives of Region 6, Texas Pilot Schools' program, met recently in Rule to plan their year's activity, with Charles Bitters, of Austin, present to counsel the group.

It was announced that Patton Springs has joined the group of schools in Region 6, making the following schools now included: Weinert, Newcastle, Valley View, Girard, Rule and Patton Springs.

First meeting of the pilot schools will be at Patton Springs on October 23, when representatives of each other pilot school in the district will spend the day assisting teachers there in initiating the new program.

Four evening meetings have been set, all at Rule, for December 2, February 6, March 10 and April 2.

These meetings will be in interest groups with sections in language arts, business, mathematics, social studies, vocational agriculture, science, two sections, 1 through 3 and 4 and 6.

Programs for each interest group will be planned for the year at the December 2 meeting.

IOOF - Rebekah Association To Meet Here Oct. 7

Plans are rapidly being completed for an all-day meeting of West Texas District 1, IOOF and Rebekah Association, to be held in Haskell on Monday, October 7, at the IOOF Hall here.

Starting with registration at 9 a. m., the morning program will include a call to order by Jim Alvis, invocation by Rev. W. T. Friddy, presentation of Bible by Baird Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, presentation of the Flag by Rotan Rebekahs, seating of association officers by Rule Odd Fellows and Rebekahs, introduction of Grand Lodge and Assembly officers and past presidents of the Association by Marshal Donna Mae Hurley, of Abilene.

A welcoming address will be delivered by Joe Williams, Haskell attorney, followed by response from Bernice Standard, of Tuscola. Adjournment for lunch will follow talks by Assembly and Grand Lodge officers.

The afternoon program is a business meeting over which President Jack Dozier, of Rule, will preside. Following reading of reports of lodges and committees, selection of the next meeting site and election of officers will take place.

On the night agenda will be installation of officers by a team from Rotan, a drape charter ceremony by Abilene Rebekahs No. 195 and drill by Abilene Rebekahs No. 89. Snyder and Rule Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will present a skit and drill, and Haskell Odd Fellows will entertain with quartet singing.

The Haskell High School Nine Teens, well-known choral group, also will perform.

Presentation of trophies by the President and Marshal and a memorial service with Haskell Rebekahs in charge will conclude the day-long series of activities.

In addition to Dozier, other district IOOF and Rebekah association officers are Treasa Dycus, Rotan, first vice president; C. E. May, Abilene, second vice president; Lorena Darden, Rotan, Secretary; Marie Loofbourrow, Abilene, treasurer; Tina Lou Scott, Tuscola, chaplain; Emma Pittman, Haskell, musician; W. A. Fetterly, Baird, counselor to the President; Mrs. S. T. Newsome,

The 1964 Comet, pioneer of the luxury compacts, undergoes its first complete since 1960. This Caliente hardtop is one of three models in a plush new top-of-the-line. ### For 1964... Comet announces a car that's every bit as hot as it looks...

Comet Caliente

This is the beginning of a new kind of Comet. Hot, husky, handsome—top series in Comet's '64 lineup. Engines range up to a 4-barrel Cyclone 289 cu. in. V-8 in all Comets.

"Caliente" means hot...

in Spanish. And this new Comet speaks the language. It looks hot. And it is! Your choice of four engines provides the punch. The topper is a big Cyclone 289 V-8—most responsive in Comet's field. More choice.

Now Comet offers 3 series...

the top-of-the-line Caliente, and the economical 202 and 404 series. Ten models... all bold and racy. A wide transmission choice, too, including a smooth, silent, new Multi-Drive Merc-O-Matic—unmatched at the price.

Elegance at a compact price

Prime example of Comet's new elegance is the Caliente, with the warm look of walnut on the interior trim... plus lavish biscuit-pattern upholstery.

Power steering... power brakes... AM-FM radio... air conditioning... every luxury option is available in the new Comets. You can even get... not Ask your Mercury dealer about it. Soon.

Ralph Melton, 63, Winter Legumes' Pioneer Resident, Value Pointed Up Dies In Oregon By SCS Man Here

Ralph Melton, 63, an early-day resident of Haskell, died Wednesday, Sept. 25, in Grants Pass, Oregon, after a long illness, according to word received here.

He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Melton, who lived in Haskell in the early 1900's.

Funeral was held last Friday in the Methodist Church at Grants Pass, with the Rev. L. A. Lolley officiating. Burial was in Hawthorne Memorial Park in that city, under direction of the L. B. Hull Funeral Home.

Mr. Melton had been a member of the Methodist Church since early manhood.

Survivors include several cousins in this area, Raymond, Bob and Millard Melton, Mrs. Shelby Taylor, and Mrs. Clarence Taylor, all of Haskell; and Edd Melton, of Abilene. Another cousin, Thurman Melton, lives in Corpus Christi.

A success story pointing up the value of planting winter legumes was told very graphically here Saturday by Harry G. Koehler, conservation technician for the Soil Conservation Service in Haskell.

Koehler, reminding area farmers that cost-share assistance is available through the Haskell County ASCS office, reports that recommended dates for winter peas, alfalfa and vetch still are within range and will be until Nov. 1.

"Growing winter legumes and rotating all crops to include high residue producing and soil improving crops can very well be the answer to bringing about better soil fertility, high yields, and more income per acre," Koehler pointed out.

The Haskell conservation technician cites the record of E. A. Baty of the Curry Chapel community north of town. He planted his first crop of winter peas following barley in the fall of 1959. Baty followed winter peas with cotton in the spring of 1960, and that fall, harvested an average yield of one-half bale per acre.

He planted winter peas again in September of 1960, plowed them under in March, 1961, planted his cotton on the same land in May, 1961, and that fall his average production was three-fourths of a bale per acre.

Baty had one 28-acre block that had been planted to winter peas two consecutive years which yielded one bale per acre.

In 1962, the same farmer had 116 acres of cotton planted on 171 acres of land, using the two-in, one-out pattern, planted on June 16, 17 and 18. This acreage lacked 278 pounds of lint, producing one-half bale to the acre average. Baty says he made 25 more bales on land which had been in winter peas and other soil improving practices for the past four years than he did on land having legumes on it but one year.

"With success stories such as Mr. Baty's it is hard to say that winter legumes do not pay rich dividends," Koehler concluded.

Mrs. Lola Beryl Stewart, a former resident of Haskell, and daughter of Mr. W. N. Viney here, died at her home in Cedar Hill, Texas, early Friday, September 27, of a heart attack, according to word received here. She is survived by her husband, Floyd Stewart, of Cedar Hill; four sons, Jimmy, Dan and Roy Stewart, of Denver; Emil and Roy Stewart of the home in Cedar Hill; one daughter, Annette, of the home; her father, of Haskell; a brother, C. M. Viney, Lubbock; and four sisters, Mrs. Ruby Overman, Wilson, Texas; Mrs. Patty Phelps, Kermit; Mrs. Lynn Steincamp, Otis AFB, Mass.;

New Dwarf Grain Sorghum Hybrids Are Developed

By F. W. MARTIN
County Agent

Four new smut and lodge resistant grain sorghum hybrids have been developed by the cooperative plant breeding programs of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station and the Crops Research Division, Agricultural Research Service. RS 616, RS 621, RS 622 and RS 623 are described as having red coleoptiles, yellow stigmas, red seed and no awns. Says L-589, a new publication of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, "They also have satisfactory head exertion but during droughts and high temperatures it may not be sufficient to avoid cutting undesirable amounts of ear material while combining."

The four new hybrids have shown to be equivalent to RS 619 and RS 608 in yields but are widely adapted as the older hybrids. In areas of short growing season and low rainfall, yields have been poor because of later maturing of the plants.

The publication reports that there has been no head smut found in the pollen parents or any of the four hybrids. The parents and the hybrids were also grown in sorghum disease nurseries and no symptoms of disease were found. The hybrids appear to have Kafir-type resistance to chinch bugs, as well.

Rule Service Man Undergoes Amphib Duty In Virginia

Army Specialist Five John R. Dunn, Jr., whose mother, Mrs. Anna P. Dunn, lives in Rule, participated with other members of the 2nd Infantry Division in a two-week training session recently at the Naval Amphibious Training School, Little Creek, Va., according to word received here from Fort Benning, Ga.

The amphibious instruction included classroom study that was tested when Specialist Dunn "hit the beach" as part of the beachhead operation which ended September 21.

Dunn, a tank gunner in Company A, 2nd Battalion of the division's 72nd Armor, regularly assigned to Fort Stewart, Ga., entered the Army in August, 1952. Specialist Dunn attended Rule High School and Midwest Business College of Commerce, Pueblo, Colo.

STYLE LEADER — Heading Pontiac's parade of 1964 cars is this Grand Prix sports coupe above. With its "over and under" headlamps and new rectangular front parking and turn signal lamps, the Grand Prix commands immediate attention. From every angle the Grand Prix uses its clean lines to suggest a longer, lower, wider look. The profile is highlighted by a thin roof line and large concave rear window. Floor console, bucket seats and special instrument panel treatment add a sports car finish. The 1964 Pontiac Catalina four-door sedan below is completely restyled while retaining a strong Pontiac identity. In addition to new styling, colors and interiors, the 1964 Pontiacs feature a wide range of high-performance V-8 engines, improved suspension system and a complete group of accessories for added safety and comfort. Other Catalina models are a two-door sedan, a two-door sports coupe, a four-door hardtop, a convertible and six and nine-passenger station wagons.

Area Bankers Are 'Going to School' To Tom Barfield

Fifteen representatives of banking institutions in Haskell, Rochester and Throckmorton, who were among a group of 150 from Abilene and the North Central-Northwest Texas area enrolling recently in special courses through the American Institute of Banking, began their course of study here on a recent Monday night in the Community Room of the Haskell National Bank.

A course in negotiable instruments, an integral part of a curriculum to acquaint the bankers with ways and means of better serving their communities, is being taught in Haskell by Tom Barfield, well-known attorney, businessman and civic leader.

The Haskell class is being conducted coincident with AIB-sponsored classes at three banks in Abilene. Here, there will be one three-hour class weekly, taught by Barfield, for the next 14 weeks, at the Haskell National Bank. Similar classes are being conducted in the Abilene banks.

The curriculum of the Institute contains 25 courses, and the Abilene chapter alternates five of these courses each year so that bankers in the area might have the opportunity to earn certificates in banking, even on a graduate level, by taking classes at night while working full time in their respective banks. The chapters of which banks in the Haskell, Throckmorton, Rochester areas are members, have 250 members and are active in many ways as well as classes and social functions as its calendar projects.

LONGEVITY OF RULE CITIZENS PROVING "STOP-STAY" SLOGAN

Rule of the thumb at Rule, a proud community of 1350 citizens, is "when you stop, you stay."

Chamber of Commerce signs on the approaches of Rule proclaim this in as many words, and Claude Norman, who is living testimony to the longevity of physical fitness in this territory, set out to prove it with facts. The success of this 66-year resident of Haskell County as an exponent of genealogy is measured by what appears hereinafter.

Norman himself, who has climbed the genealogical plateau to genius height, has out-lived compulsory retirement age of two public service positions of responsibility, those of Postmaster at Rule, and rural mail carrier in this area, is productively prosecuting a third occupation, and still looks like a man in his fifties. The Normans are a hardy lot. Claude, who first came to Haskell County when his father parked his covered wagon beside California Creek on Thanksgiving night, 1897, can't top his cousin, Jim Norman, though. Jim got here two years before that, in 1895.

Anyone with political aspirations around this area would do well to beat a path to the

Vets of World War I Start Fall Meetings Monday

After meeting at the American Legion Hall in Rule during the summer months, the fall and winter site for sessions of the Haskell County Barracks, Veterans of World War I, again will be in Haskell, Commander E. O. Morgan has announced.

Commander Morgan said the first fall meeting of the World War I veterans' organization and its Ladies' Auxiliary will be held at the Haskell American Legion Building at 7 p. m. on Monday, October 7.

The commander and Mrs. Martin Rueffer, president of the auxiliary, are urging a full attendance to participate in the fall and winter program planning.

O'Brien Girl To Set Saddle With H-SU Mounts

A Haskell County co-ed, Sandra Ellis, of O'Brien, has been chosen one of ten Hardin-Simmons University students to ride the University's Six White Horses at football shows and at other appearances of the famed mounts which carry the six flags which have flown over Texas.

The girls, to alternate in the six saddles, include seven Texans, two from Clyde. Beverly Cox and Mary Jane Reynolds, Savera, Ira Lea Innan, of Besshoe; Bobbie Powell, of Buffalo Gap; Suzanne Orr, of Abilene, and Joan Reynolds, of Morton. Also picked were Joy Powell, of Minneapolis, Minn.; Helen Callaway, of Ruidosa, N. M.; and Jane Bechtold, of Denver, Colo.

First appearance of the six white horses this school year will be October 5 during Hardin-Simmons homecoming festivities, according to word received here.

The riders were chosen on the basis of personal appearance, posture, general riding ability, and control of their mounts. The horses and their riders, dressed in all-white uniforms, have appeared with the H-SU Cowboy Band and in parades from coast to coast.

The late Will (Sherriff) Watson was organizer of the group and rode with the Six White Horses for many years.

These hardy Haskell Countians, defying most of the insurance company mortality tables, have lived in one small circumscribed area a total of approximately 1900 years.

That's a heap o' livin' by any yardstick. And speaking of yardsticks, the ride which has ruled in Rule to make for longevity and happiness, and more golden anniversaries per capita in this place than most, has been the Golden One, according to Norman.

Yes, in Rule, "When You Stop, You Stay" and stay

Troy Post Adds Another Star To Financial Crown

A former Haskell resident, who was reported to have said at the time he left here, "The only reason I'm leaving is because there just aren't enough people to sell," has become majority stockholder in the National Bank of Commerce in Dallas, where he is chairman of the board, according to word received here.

Troy Post, who started out his business career in Haskell as an insurance agent for a small stock company, disclosed in Dallas he had bought 99 per cent of the bank's 125,000 outstanding shares from James Ling, giving him 60 per cent. Other sources said the transaction involved about $2 million.

Post already is head of Greatamerica Corporation, a holding company which has control of Amicable and Franklin Insurance Companies, plus at least two other insurance operations.

As executive committee chairman of Banks Services and Trusts, Post announced not long ago the company is building a $10 million bank office and apartment tower in downtown Dallas. The 25-story building will have 252 apartments.
