WHAT AMERICA NEEDS

David Lawrence is one of the many thoughtful writers who are gravely concerned with the government's continued deficit spending. This, for a time, may help to create and maintain economic booms. But in the long run, it can be the source of runaway inflation and fiscal disaster.

In a U. S. News & World Report column, Mr. Lawrence said: "What America needs is a comprehensive program of expense cutting, along with a stimulus to business which will produce more tax receipts. Such a plan cannot be confined to a single year. There ought to be at least a five-year look ahead, with a program for a balanced budget which would be accepted as the reasonable reflection of a sound trend in Government finance."

"The American people would welcome an end to the deficit era—a total of $40.8 billion in the last 10 years, with $30 billion of this piling up in the last five years. The official figure for the public debt now is close to $317 billion. It's the biggest debt that any nation has ever faced in the history of the world."

BEYOND ALL REASON

Public rebellion against further increases in gasoline taxes—which are always being advocated at the state and federal levels—has reached high pitch. And a few figures explain why. These taxes cost motorists almost $20 million a day—$19.7 million to be precise.

During 1965, total gasoline tax collections will be approximately $7.2 billion, or more than twice the amount collected as recently as 1955. And that isn't just due to the fact there are many more cars on the road. Since that latter year, the average tax rate on each gallon of gas has increased about 36 per cent. And here's another striking comparison: Collections for only two months of 1956 equal the amount paid in the entire year of 1945.

Few out-and-out luxuries bear a tax remotely comparable to that levied on gas, which is a basic, down-to-earth necessity in this nation-on-wheels of ours. Regular-grade gasoline sells for around 20 cents per gallon, plus more than 10 cents in state and federal taxes, along with local taxes in some areas. In other words, it carries a sales tax passing 50 per cent.

The tax has grown beyond all reason. Further increases would simply compound a gross injustice.

SHARING THE CAKE

It can't be too often repeated that, according to all the available evidence, the average American has a woefully distorted opinion of the size of the profits earned by business, and particularly big business. He thinks that they represent a far larger proportion of the selling price of goods and services than they actually do.

A publication of The American Economic Foundation tells a significant story. It begins with the fact that in 1963—the last year for which the figures are available—the 100 largest manufacturers in the United States sold $157 billion worth of goods. What happened to all that money? This happened: The cost of goods and services bought by these manufacturers from other businesses, most of which were comparatively small, was $81.4 billion. Payroll and labor benefits came to $42.3 billion. Obsolescence and depreciation of equipment accounted for $7.6 billion. Taxes took $14.9 billion.

This left $10.8 billion as profit. But not all of that was paid to the owners in dividends. They received $6 billion. The remaining $4.8 billion was ploughed back into the business.

To sum up, the owner's share of the business' financial cake is a modest one—less than half of the government's take in taxes.

The wild stock for the Texas Cowboy Reunion, Stamford, Texas on July 1-2-3, is furnished by the Ratjen Brothers of Happy and Mansfield, Texas. They are the owners of a Scottish Highlander Bull called "Texas Beetle" which is the only one of his kind in the Southwest, as well as the dangerous bulls, "Boot Hill" and "Thunder Mountain". Their horses include "Bad Bruce, Power Glide, Texas Tornado," and many others.

Haskell County History

30 YEARS AGO
(June 20, 1935)

Funeral services for James Luther Merriman, four-year-old Haskell boy who was fatally injured when struck by an automobile late Monday, were held from the Kinney Funeral Home at 4:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, with the Rev. Orion W. Carter officiating.

Hundreds of people from this section witnessed an aerial circus, parachute leaps and other stunts, staged at the Haskell airport last Sunday afternoon.

Miss Sue Couch is spending the week in Dallas, the guest of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Couch Sr., were greatly surprised last Friday night by their children, Misses Eloise, Ethel Reba and Alva Jr., with a party, this being the eve of their 25th wedding anniversary. Only a few close friends and neighbors were invited to surprise the honorees. Games of "42" were enjoyed, after which delicious ice cream and cake were served to the honor guests, and Misses and Messrs. W. C. Pratt of Stamford, John Fouts, Leon Gilliam, Sam A. Roberts, J. J. Tucker, M. D. Crow and W. A. Duncan.

Rainfall of 13.99 inches fell in Haskell from January 1st until June 18, according to Fred Sanders, Jr., government observer. Almost half of that amount fell in May, records show. Mrs. J. C. Lewellen spent a part of last week in Temple with her daughter, Miss Dorothy, who is a student nurse at Scott & White Sanitarium.

On last Saturday, Judge H. G. McConnell, Judge H. R. Jones and Messrs. G. W. Williams and C. D. Long loaded up supplies and camp equipment for a week's outing, and with their families pulled out for the Clear Fork, where it is presumed they have been feasting on fish, game and wild honey during the past week.

This promises to be a record year for corn in Haskell county. The crop is very promising at this time.

The rains during the past week have interfered to some extent with the work of harvesting wheat and oats. It is also feared that some grain cut before the rains set in, will be damaged.

Mr. T. L. Montgomery, father of our townsman and banker, Mr. R. C. Montgomery, left on Tuesday for Chicago and will spend the summer on the lake shores.

County Judge J. W. Pierson and wife and Miss Lillie Pierson of Emory, are visiting relatives here.

The groom also attended Aspermont high school and Draughon's Business School in Abilene.

They are at home in Levelland, where he owns and operates the Levelland Coffee Shoppe.

Launching Pad for The 45th Annual State Convention of B&PW Put In Orbit

The launching pad for the Forty-Fifth Annual State Convention of the Texas B&PW Federation was put in orbit on June 11, 12 and 13th, at the Rice Hotel, Houston. "Project Participation" was the theme of the convention.

Friday's highlights included personal development tea and style lecture. Sarah Jane Cunningham, second vice-president of National Federation of B&PW Clubs, of McCook, Nebraska, was the speaker for the opening session Friday evening, and used as her subject: "Our Role as Business and Professional Women in Our Government Today."

PATTERNS FOR PROGRESS IN COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

How can we attract new business and industry to our town?
First, a town must have an active community development program.
Recent WTU ads have told the story of exceptional community development activities in Stamford, Childress, Robert Lee and Ballington. These towns, among others served by WTU, are engaged in continuing local development programs, which make them better places to live, work and play. Of more importance, these towns know that community development is the vital and basic first step in attracting tourists and industry for further economic development. They are all PAT-TERNS FOR PROGRESS. WTU is proud to be a part of these growth conscious towns.
Your local WTU manager can obtain additional assistance for your towns.

Laymen Urged To Learn First Aid
To Stem High Water Fatality Rate

Laymen were urged to learn practical first aid as to the means of helping stem the current high water fatality rate, in a Texas Parks and Wildlife department statement.

J. B. Phillips, coordinator for law enforcement whose field force has studied modern resuscitation methods, said the commonly favored treatment for a rescued person is the mouth-to-mouth or mouth-to-nose technique.

He pointed out that where proper equipment is not immediately available some form of artificial respiration should be started at the earliest possible moment. The urgent necessity, he said, is to maintain an open passageway from the lungs to the mouth and provide for an alternate increase and decrease in the size of the chest, internally or externally to move the air in and out of a non-breathing person.

Phillips noted first aid literature concerning the more commonly accepted methods and the reasons therefor:

"When a person is unconscious and not breathing, the base of the tongue tends to press against and block the upper air passageway. These procedures should provide for an open air passageway when a lone rescuer must perform mouth-to-mouth or mouth-to-nose artificial respiration:
"If there is foreign matter visible in the mouth, wipe it out quickly with your fingers or a cloth around your fingers. Tilt the head back so the chin is pointing upward. Pull or push the jaw into a jutting-out position.

get air exchange, quickly turn the victim on his side and administer several sharp blows between the shoulder blades in the hope of dislodging foreign matter.
"Again sweep your fingers through the victim's mouth to remove foreign matter.
"Those who do not wish to come in contact with the person may hold a cloth over the victim's mouth or nose and breathe through it. The cloth does not greatly effect the exchange of air.

"Rescuers who cannot, or will not, use mouth-to-mouth or mouth-to-nose methods, should use a manual method. The rescuer should not be limited to the use of a single method for all cases, since the nature of the injury in any given case may prevent the use of one method, while favoring another.
"It has already been pointed out that the base of the tongue tends to press against and block the air passage when a person is unconscious and not breathing. This action of the tongue can occur whether the victim is in a face-down or face-up position."

PAINT CREEK . . . COMMUNITY NEWS

BY MRS. GENE OVERTON

The rain Monday afternoon was just what the doctor ordered. I guess there wasn't a single Paint Creek farmer who wasn't ready for a good, soaking rain. Everyone had finished cutting grain, and the cotton was about to need a good shower. The rain fell so gently and washed all the dusty plants off, and all the dusty farm machinery. It watered the lawns and gave the little cotton a good drink. The tired farmers can rest a day or two and get a haircut and fix the machinery before it is dry enough to get back in the fields.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Morrison and daughters have gone to Houston this week to see the Astros play a ball game under the new domed stadium. John Carlos Montgomery of Midland spent Saturday night and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Montgomery. He was on his way to Dallas where he will have a 7 week course at the TBM school there.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Overton Jr. of Abilene, spent Sunday with his parents and attended church and Sunday School at the Paint Creek Methodist Church.

The oldest father at the Methodist Church Sunday was Mr. Jim Dean. The youngest was John Carlos Montgomery.

William Overton returned to Garland Sunday from two weeks of training with the 36th Infantry Division at Fort Hood. His battery, Battery C, commanded by Capt. Arnold J. H. Wedeking, of Stamford, received the highest rating of any artillery battery taking the artillery Army Train Tests this year. Bobby Sego of Haskell also is a member of this battery. William resumed his studies at North Texas State University Tuesday. He is working on a Master's degree in speech.

Randy Deutch of Houston, who is working for the entomology department at Texas A&M and the Texas Agriculture department this summer, visited the Gene Overtons last Friday night. He really came to see Mike with whom he was in the same battalion, but Mike had gone to ROTC camp at Fort Sill Wednesday.

We all grieve with Mr. John R. Watson, Mrs. Norman Nanny and family, and the family of the late John R. Watson Jr. family in the passing of Mrs. John R. Watson. I don't suppose anyone in the community has ever had poor health as long as Mrs. Watson, but she never complained, and always looked as pretty as a picture. She and Mr. Watson have been our senior citizen couple for so many years, and she has lived in Paint Creek area almost as long as anyone because her family, the Howards, helped settle this community when the land was first cleared for farming.

Mrs. V. P. Morrison of Mineral Wells is spending the week with her son, Van, and family.

Mrs. Gene Overton is taking a public school music workshop at McMurry this week.

Scout Troop 48 had an investiture of Tenderfoot Scouts at their meeting last Saturday morning. Senior Patrol Leader Wayne Cadenhead conducted the ceremony. Scouts receiving their Tenderfoot badge were Buddy Morrison and Jim Bob Miekler. Patrol Leader Bill Jones, of Tule, examined and passed the boys. They will be ready now to work on Second Class at Camp Tonkawa.

Mrs. Gene Overton spent Sunday afternoon in Rule visiting her daddy and mother and Mr. and Mrs. Lennis Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kuenstler are following the Rule Little League teams on which their grandsons play. Last Tuesday night they went to Throckmorton where one of the teams played. They visited some former neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Harris, whose son, Gary, played on the Throckmorton team.

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Bergstrom and Joy have gone to visit their son, Dr. Arvie Bergstrom. Dr. Bergstrom completes his internship this week and enters the Air Force. He will be stationed in Alabama, and will be Captain Arvie Bergstrom. Dora and Eric will visit other relatives while they are up north. Eric has a sister in Kansas and other relatives in Ohio. They plan to be gone about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buerger recently returned from a month's stay in Germany where they visited Mr. Buerger's sister and brothers. They all live in the English sector of Germany. Mr. Buerger said it rained and was very cold all the while they were there, but his folks had time to visit with them because the rains kept them out of the fields. He said they wore all the warm clothes they had and still it seemed cold. They were gone about two months.

Ricky Perry began to think he should have stood in bed all last week. One day he cut his hand badly, and the next he fell off the tractor he was riding (another person driving). He only hurt his shoulder in the fall, but he could have been killed. His grandmother phoned the following day and asked if they were keeping him in the closet that day. His mother said she was tempted to do just that.

Haskell Indians To Play Double Header Tonight

The Haskell Indians will play Anson here tonight, Thursday, June 24, in a double-header, which will get underway at 6:30 p. m. Sgt. Jirek announced just prior to press time. The Indians continued their winning ways the past week, as they downed Rule 14-to-4 last Thursday night, with Andrew Swearingen the winning pitcher.

Saturday night, June 19, the Indians played a semi-pro team from Stamford and won that game 3-to-1. Perry Turnbow, the winning pitcher, also homered.

Sgt. Jirek said the game with the semi-pro team was to test the Indians' strength.

The Good Earth

By MRS. B. F. COBB
Mrs. O. W. Cox brought to life a picture she saw in a magazine. White, pink and purple petunias planted in that order borders the front walk. So outstanding is this color combination, many stop and drink in the beauty of her yard.

Mrs. Cox purchased her plants from a local nursery. Every plant is growing and blooming. The flowers are large and ruffled.

A west flower bed is filled with red yucca, day lilies, red carnations and chrysanthemums.

Trees and shrubs make a shady nook of the east side of the house. Rows of Gloriosa daisies of gold and brown add color to the picture.

Red oxalis with large brown arrow marked leaves border all flower beds in the back.

Ornamental pepper, coleous, two colors of lantana, periwinkles, hibiscus and asters are a few of the flowers gracing the Cox's yard.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boone will have to re-do their yard, as they are the proud owners of a beautiful new trailer home. Most of Janie's day lilies and cannas can remain where they are. They lost a few plants in moving the old home away.

Mr. Andrew Josselot has staked his dahlias inside circles of sheep wire this year. This is a very ingenious method for keeping dahlias from blowing over or splitting.

Mr. Josselot had gladiola this year that would give hot house plants real competition in a flower show.

Mrs. Lester Ford's pride and joy is her large dwarf cannas with huge orange flower heads.

Mrs. Drey Lowe, the acidifiers I have been experimenting with, works well for restoring color to roses and hibiscus. If plants are pale yellow, with dark green veins, soil acidifier will definitely help restore their color.

Trees are slower to respond to acid than are roses and hibiscus. Apricots show improvement in two weeks, peaches in three weeks, pecans in one week. They are now green and luxuriant.

If leaves turn bright yellow with no green veins or scorch around the edge, use lye on the plant.

Acid breaks down the sweetness of alkali that locks up iron in the soil. Soil acidifier can be purchased at local nurseries and seed houses.

In 1965, of every ten veterans in civilian life, one has served in World War I, seven in World War II, and two in the Korean Conflict, according to the Veterans Administration.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ: When people are paying their income tax there's always a lot of fussin' about taxes being too high. The Internal Revenue Service carefully shows taxpayers how the tax dollars are spent in the publication "Your Federal Income Tax" and in the Teaching Taxes course. The big cartwheel is divided up into pie slices as follows: National Defense, 43c; Health, Labor and Welfare, 23c; Agriculture, 6c; Veterans, 5c; Fixed Interest Charges, 7c; Space, 3c; Interest national, 2c; and other, 9c. Internal Revenue also points out that it costs less than 1/4c on the dollar to collect this tax.

Planning Details Insures Happier Vacation Driving

Where is your family vacationing this summer? Somewhere you've never been? Your favorite lake? A cabin in the mountains? A special resort?

Wherever your plans take you, you probably will travel by car. Here are some hints for a pleasant trip:

If you're driving somewhere, your family has never been before, read in advance about places of interest along the route. You'll find this makes your trip seem shorter and more pleasant because it gives youngsters something to look forward to as you travel.

Learn something about your destination before you go, too. You'll have a better idea of what you want to see and you won't waste precious vacation time deciding "what to do next."

Keep your camera handy. You'll enjoy looking at your own record of your family vacation.

Keep tissue handy in the car for quick clean-ups, sticky fingers, fogged glasses, dirty windshield, and hay fever sniffles. Attach a junior size box to your car visor with two rubber bands to keep these indispensable but disposable traveling companions within arm's reach.

Carry a bottle of ice water in the car. This cuts down on the number of stops you have to make because someone is thirsty. It also is handy for dampening a tissue to clean sticky fingers.

Airman Villarreal is a vehicle operator in a unit that supports the Air Defense Command mission of defending the continental U. S. against enemy air attack.

The airman attended Mattson High School.

State Draft Quota For July Is Up

The state draft quota for July is 908, the highest in nearly four years, Col. Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said Tuesday.

In November, 1961, 923 Texans were directed to report for military service. The July call of 908 compares with 695 in June.

The July call is the Texas share of a national quota for 17,100 men, all for the Army.

The state Selective Service director also announced that state draft boards will forward 4820 males for Army mental-physical examinations in July.

The July quotas already have been figured and sent to the state's 137 local boards.

The July quota will be filled mostly with men who are volunteers under 26 years of age and non-volunteers ages 19

This scribe has been thinking seriously about purchasing a pair of two of shorts to wear during the hot summer months, but I changed my mind after I saw friend Perry Spenny downtown Saturday morning wearing a pair.

Mrs. Prattler and Larry had the family car for a trip to Stephenville last week to visit her father, J. E. Davis, who has not been in too good of health lately, and they left Larry's automobile with this scribe. Friday afternoon I raised the hood to check the oil, and along came Stanley Furrh. He pulled over to the curb and said: "Need any help, Al?" That was real neighborly of Stanley.

At the Lions Ladies' Night banquet Travis Smith said: "Al if I can be of any assistance in helping to move your family to Haskell, just let me know. That, too, was very thoughtful of Travis—but that is the way of Haskellites... friendly, courteous, thoughtful and always willing to lend a helping hand."

Gene Shackelford, local agent for the Fort Worth & Denver Railroad, closed his office on Tuesday, June 15. It was the first time in his 21 years with the company that he had been off-duty on his birthday. Instead of designating certain holidays for the year, the agents were given a choice of "closing shop" on their birthday. Gene typed a notice and posted it on his office door at the depot, the words: "Closed due to the birthday of agent." You just can't beat that.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Monke, of Weimert, had a nice surprise for their daughter, Mrs. Ramon Liles, president of Mesquite District on her birthday in April. A check for $100 was sent to the Headquarters Office of Texas Federation, asking that Mrs. Liles' name be placed on the Loyalty Scroll.

Definition of a Farmer: A farmer is a man who starts out with nothing, loses on everything he grows and comes out even at the end of the year. Nobody knows how he does it. He doesn't even know himself.

Anyone looking over his farm would think the smartest man in the world would starve trying to tend it. That would be right. The smartest man would starve, but not the farmer. His wife wouldn't let him starve. She has a basic menu she serves whatever she has. In good years she serves a half dozen vegetables at a meal; in lean years she jumps from poke salad to blackeyedpeas.

The farmer is the world's greatest optimist. He believes that the fact that he has come this far is proof that he can continue to the end. He buries last year's disappointments with the spring plowing and lives for the future. His faith is not in himself alone.

Jokeysters say the farmer consults the almanac before he

Haskell Warriors Are Untied And Undefeated

The Haskell Warriors, Haskell's representative in the Northern Cotton Belt Junior League, which is composed of teams from Haskell, Throckmorton, Rule, and Rochester, have completed eight of a 12-game league schedule.

The Warriors have scored a total of 69 runs, while holding their opponents to a total of 13 runs and lead the league with an 8-0 record.

Rule, having lost only to the Warriors, is second in league standing. The Warriors have four more games to play—two with Throckmorton and one each with Rule and Rochester.

The Warriors are managed by Kenneth Felker and T. C. Patterson, with Keith Everett as bat boy. The players are as follows: Gary Felker, Randy Foster, Tim Everett, Doug Bartley, Joe Greer, Roy Pittman, Tommy Patterson, Tommy Perry, Jim Kemp, James Wall, Lon Barnett, Donald Love, Brian Dulaney, Johnny Stark and Lanny Ivey.

The Warriors and their managers invite the people of this area to support their teams by attending the Junior League games.

plants his crops—perhaps he does sometimes. He must have worn out two pair of overalls growing enough cotton for one; he must regularly do half a day's work before the sun comes up and another half day's work after the sun goes down; he must have the heart to plant in hope, cultivate in faith and end in failure, and then start all over with greater hope and stronger faith.

This is a farmer. Heaven helps the family that depends on him for support. Heaven help the nation that does not have him to depend upon for its support.

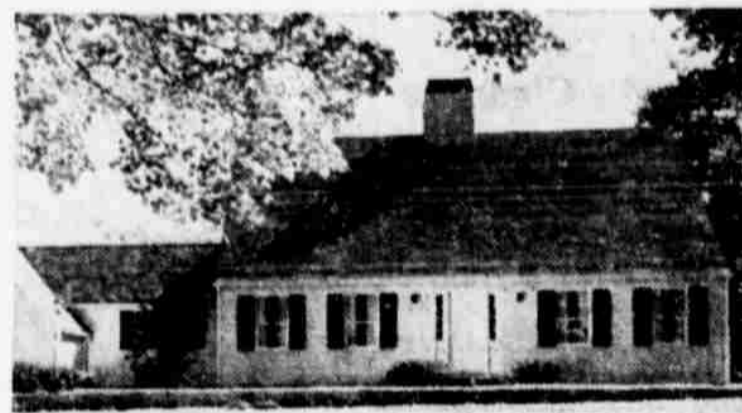

But after a hard week's work, he attends church because his heart still holds the eternal truths that worldly, wiser men have lost. If any man aspires to the title of farmer—let him measure himself by this standard.

THINGS WORK OUT

Because it rains when we wish it wouldn't.
Because men do what they often shouldn't.
Because crops fail and plans go wrong.
Some of us grumble the whole day long.
But somehow, in spite of the care and doubt
It seems at last that things work out.
Because we lose where we hoped to gain.
Because we suffer a little pain.
Because we must work when we'd like to play.
Some of us whimper along life's way.
But somehow as day will follow night,
Most of our troubles work out all right.
So tend to your troubles and meet your care,
For the clouds must break and the sky grow fair.
Let the rain come down as it must and will,
But keep on working and hoping still.
For in spite of the grumblers who stand about,
Somehow, it seems all things work out.

If you "shutter" at the thought of tossing louver shutters to the wind, you may be passing up a novel decorating idea. Passersby in front of this real estate sales office are attracted by the "windmill," made simply by fastening four stock louver shutters of ponderosa pine to crossbars.

Pre-finished siding, heavyweight asphalt shingles and pressure-treated wood windows with insulating glass and "snap-in" grills give this house an authentic Colonial look together with carefree maintenance.

Stock Your Pond With Whatever Kinds of Fish You Like To Catch

By F. W. Martin, County Agent
Stock your pond with whatever kind or kinds of fish you like to catch.

If you are a catfisherman only, there is no reason to stock other species; the same goes for bass or sunfish.

Many sources recommend stocking a forage fish along with large mouth bass. This practice is not necessary in Texas and is even detrimental in some cases. The female bluegill, a forage fish, can spawn as many as four times a year in Texas, resulting in thousands of small bluegills that never reach edible size.

If a pond owner desires sunfish in his pond, the most suitable species is the redear. The redear spawns only once a year and thereby lengthens the time before overcrowding occurs.

The pond should always be stocked with fingerlings that are approximately the same size such as those obtained from the state or federal hatcheries.

Fingerlings should never be taken from a nearby stream or pond and adult fish should not be left in ponds to be stocked with fingerlings. The adults should be removed and the pond stocked with a balanced number of fingerlings.

Applications for stock fish may be made at any time. However, fish are delivered only once each year: during the summer or early fall.

Pond owners should never "bedge" on the size of the pond in an effort to get more fish. Just as range land has a certain capacity for a specific number of animals, a pond can only support a certain number of pounds of desirable fish.

For more information concerning your pond, come by the County Agent's office and he will discuss the subject with you.

President's Daughter, Luci, Visits Granddaughter of Louis Murfee

On Saturday, June 12, Luci, daughter of President Lyndon Johnson, left Austin by car, accompanied by secret service men. She traveled all across West Texas to make a visit to the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Ray whom she had entertained at the White House, as a guest during inauguration days.

The Ray's live northeast of Abertnathy, only 10 miles from where the tornado struck in Hale Center recently. The evening was spent quietly, mostly talking about good times they formerly spent together in Washington.

The next morning, Luci and her secret service men were escorted to Lubbock for breakfast with Mrs. Ray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Murfee, 1808 Broadway. After breakfast they went to church, but at Luci's request she was not introduced, and no one in the congregation recognized her.

Following a hurried lunch, Luci and attendants boarded cars for Austin to join the President and party for a flight to Washington on Sunday night.

Mrs. Ray is the granddaughter of Louis Murfee, who was born in Haskell and attended school here.
