

Group Prods Action On Junior College

Four counties currently considering banding together as a joint junior college school district can qualify geographically and in the number of scholastics required for favorable consideration by the State Board of Education.

That was the word a high-ranking official of the Texas Education Agency gave an enthusiastic group of junior college supporters in an information session here Tuesday night.

B. W. Musgraves, of Austin, chairman of the junior college division of the Texas Education Agency, explained the mechanics of establishing a public junior college district to a group of 30 city and county officials, county school officials, and members of county school boards from Stonewall and Haskell counties, assembled in the Haskell National Bank here.

The TEA official "spelled out" the sequence of steps which need to be taken by a joint steering committee of citizens from Haskell, Stonewall, Knox and Throckmorton counties, if a petition for forming a junior college district is to receive favorable consideration in Austin.

He pointed out that while the combined 5,331 scholastics listed from the four counties is sufficient (by 331) and their location more than 50 miles away from the nearest junior college meets requirements, the State Board of Education usually favors location of junior colleges in areas where there have been at least a total of 300 high school graduates in the combined last classes of the area under study for a junior college.

There were but 232 in the four counties in 1964.

However, Musgraves declared, concrete evidence of the desire and intent on the part of graduates of previous years now living in the territory would help to meet this requirement as well.

Mrs. L. R. Burkett, supervisor of instruction in Haskell schools, "mother" of the plan to launch a junior college project in this area, introduced Musgraves, and announced following his presentation there will be a general session of all (See Group Prods, Page 12)

REV. ODIS CARRUTH

Rev. Carruth Accepts Call To Church At Trent

Rev. Odis Carruth, pastor of the South Side Baptist Chapel for the past 20 months, has accepted a call to the pulpit of the First Baptist Church in Trent.

The Baptist pastor will terminate his service here Saturday and begin his new tenure in Trent the following day.

A Knox County native, Rev. Carruth, in addition to his work with the South Side Chapel, performed a host of duties in the interest of Christian Service at the First Baptist Church of Haskell.

Leaving this area during childhood after having been born in Knox County, Rev. Carruth, 49, grew up at Lamesa, and lived in the Kermit and Snyder areas before enrolling in the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth. He graduated from seminary May 16, 1958.

He came to the Haskell pastorate from the Hobbs Baptist Church in Fisher County. He has occupied pulpits at Moffat, Bell County, and Wellman, Terry County.

His family includes his wife, the former Edith Clem, of Stamford, and a daughter, Judy, 14.

Bulletins

Have you seen the "Mystery Shopper" who gives away scrip "money" redeemable in merchandise in Haskell stores? You won't until the Christmas season is officially launched here a week from Saturday, Nov. 28. But he'll be a MAT (Man About Town) from then on.

He'll want to see YOU, so be a fellow Christmas shopper, will you? He just might be crossing your path with that "spendable stuff."

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving Day, and the Haskell National Bank, like most other establishments here, will observe the holiday. Abe Turner, Jr., cashier, reminds folks who will be needing funds that day to make the necessary pre-arrangements.

The Mary Jane Brown Fund to help a stricken neighbor suffering from lateral sclerosis, has benefited from thoughtful contributions recently. They came from Rev. Douglas Finch, Ora Stovall, Sheriff Garth Garrett and there were two anonymous donors. Other contributions would be welcomed for such a humanitarian cause.

Regular Fourth Sunday Singing Session will be held Sunday at the Calvary Baptist Church in Rule at 2 p. m. Clyde Williams, one of the singing stemwinders, advises lovers of that good old time gospel music to come early for a good seat. The public is welcome.

Haskell County Hospital Women's Auxiliary has honored and "capped" Mrs. Barney Frazier, first president of the Auxiliary after its formation last year, in recognition for her unselfish work and countless hours spent in helping to organize and launch this service organization.

The Auxiliary, through its president, Mrs. R. L. Foote, has announced that a bake sale, scheduled for Saturday, due to a conflict of such events, will be held at a later date.

Rolling Plains Cotton Growers Are "Tooling Up"

At a meeting in Stamford of the steering committee of the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers, Inc., an organization recently established to work for eradication of the boll weevil and other harmful cotton insects, Haskell County leaders of the effort were named this week to direct activities in this area. Cotton growers in 25 Texas counties and three in Oklahoma, Harmon, Jackson and Tillman, are banded together in the endeavor.

A. C. Pierson, president of the Haskell National Bank here, is a member of the steering committee representing this area. The following Haskell Countians have been named to coordinate the boll weevil control work in their county with the effort in 27 other counties in the association: Allen Strickland and Ira Hester, of Haskell; Clyde Grice, of Rule; and John Grindstaff Sr., of Rochester.

All county committees were named at the steering group's session at which Sam Reed, of Northern Star Seed Farms, O'Brien, the president, was in charge. Under Reed's leadership, the steering committee adopted an outline of objectives and purposes for the new association. These objectives are: to promote and protect the interests of Rolling Plains cotton producers (See Rolling Plains, Page 12)

Hardworking civic-minded residents of Haskell, starting with a pre-dawn breakfast session Monday, began putting together the elements of what promises to be one of the most picturesque Christmas season-heralding parades and programs ever seen in this area.

The Man Of The Year, Santa Claus, sleigh and all, will pace the 3 p. m. parade signalling start of the cheery season here at 3 p. m. Saturday, Nov. 28. Santa is coming to Haskell in the "World's Largest Sleigh," and every boy and girl in the area has a hearty invitation to come and visit with this jolly gentleman and ride in his sleigh from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. on November 28, a week from Saturday.

Haskell Chamber of Commerce's Christmas Committee, headed by Abe Turner, who also is president of the Chamber, Mrs. Opal Adkins, Mrs. Viars Felker, James Franklin, E. J. Stewart, and other co-workers here, also has announced a replacement display of Christmas lights, glittering in greater abundance than previous years, will be turned on coincident with the official unveiling of dazzling Christmas displays in store windows here at 5:45 p. m. Friday, Nov. 27. The Friday evening events, traditional in Haskell, serve as an appropriate prelude to the season-heralding activities of the following day.

Merchants here, generous contributors to the project arranging Santa's visit to Haskell in his 30-foot-long sleigh, have announced that 60 children can ride and talk with the celebrated Man In The Red Suit on each round of the pony-pulled sleigh makes on the square here. They invite all children of the area to take advantage of this memorable experience.

Not only will Santa Claus be in Haskell Saturday, Nov. 28, but he is returning here for specific visits to his headquarters on the west side of the square and will keep regular hours from 2 to 6 p. m. to talk with children who seek his "ear" on the following dates: December 3, 5, 10, 12, 17, 19, 21, 22, 23 and 24. These dates represent the Thursdays and Saturdays prior to, and the first four days of, Christmas Week.

On those same dates, most of Haskell's store, through mutual agreement, will be open Thursdays until 9 p. m., and on Saturdays until 8 p. m. They will keep late hours also on the four days preceding Christmas, the committee has reported.

All merchants entering a float in the spectacular parade have been urged to report their entries to the Chamber of Commerce office not later than Friday, Nov. 20, at 5 p. m., in order that elements of the parade may be properly placed, Turner pointed out.

One of the most intriguing aspects of the eventful program here this year will be the presence of a now-you-see-him, now-you-don't "Mystery Shopper," who, during frequent visits to Haskell stores, will pass out "scrip money," in varying amounts to fellow shoppers, and the scrip, carrying the names of participating merchants, will be redeemable in merchandise at any of the stores listed. As a steady crowd mingler, the "Mystery Shopper" will generously distribute the "scrip money" throughout the season.

With the Haskell Sheriff's Posse, Kenneth Felker, president, as host, and helping to line up the parade, all area riding clubs are being extended a red-carpet invitation to take part in the spectacle which will snake through Haskell on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 28.

LIONS CLUB ANNUAL DO-NUT SALE SET FRIDAY, SATURDAY

Haskell Lions annual Do-Nut Sale is slated Friday and Saturday, Nov. 21, 22, from 10:00 a. m. to 2:00 p. m. each day. George Fouts and Hugh Ratliff will head the project.

Lions will set-up barricades at the downtown light intersections, at which points incoming and outgoing traffic will be stopped.

This will be the fourth Do-Nut sale held by local Lions and it has met with such success that it was again placed on the project list this year by President Frank Martin, for the purpose of adding funds to "Goodfellows."

Mrs. Paul Cothron Woman of The Year

Mrs. Paul Cothron, of Haskell, a dedicated supporter of county home demonstration club activities and a leader in projects for more than 25 years, Wednesday was named "Woman Of The Year" for 1964 by the Haskell County Home Demonstration Council.

The surprised recipient of the cherished award and a pin symbolic of the title, was honored at a meeting of the Council and guests in the Haskell County Courthouse Wednesday afternoon. An annual "tour of homes" during which those of Messrs. and Mmes. Bud Turnbow, Carl Bailey, and Albert Hannaz were inspected, followed the "Woman Of The Year" presentation.

Mrs. Cothron, a native of Bluegrove, in Clay county, is president-elect of the Haskell County Home Demonstration Council for 1965. She is a member of the Josslet Home Demonstration Club, one of five such organizations in the county. Memberships of all 5 clubs voted in the "Woman Of The Year" selection.

A resident of Haskell County since 1949, the award recipient and her husband were a farming couple in this area for some 20 years before moving into Haskell eight years ago. Mr. Cothron is custodian of Haskell Elementary School. The Cothrons are members of First Baptist Church.

HHS Indian Band Is UIL High Stepper

Haskell High School's Indian Band, 72-strong, directed by Wendell Gideon, won a first-place in inspection and second place honors in marching in regional University Interscholastic League judging, in which some 50 bands participated at San Angelo last weekend. The band here was entered in Class AA competition.

In the annual event, held in San Angelo's Bobcat Stadium, the bands did not compete against each other, but did compete against a UIL point system and were judged on inspection and marching.

Homer A. Anderson, director of the Central High School Band, San Angelo, was contest chairman. During the day's activities, over 300 girls participated in baton twirling. The twirling corps from here achieved some second and third place recognition, but garnered no firsts.

COUNTY 4-H GOLD STAR AWARD RECIPIENTS—Mary Yates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Yates, of Weinert, and Ricky Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Perry, of Paint Creek, both 14 years old, are the recipients in Haskell County of the most cherished 1964 4-H Gold Star Awards. They will be presented their honors at the District 4-H Awards Banquet to be held in Vernon on Saturday night, Dec. 5.

EDUCATOR, Bill Cumbs

An assembly program begins at 10:30 a. m., highlighted by Morgan's address and homecoming queen announcement. A noon meal will be catered in the school cafeteria, and Rule's Bobcats meet the Rochester Steers in a gridiron classic at Bobcat Stadium at 2 p. m. The Senior Class will sponsor an open house "to stay as long as you like" after the ball game.

When Retired Machinist and Wily Writer and Salty Story Teller Mike Campbell, who appears elsewhere in this edition, gets going with some of his lyrical, he sounds almost to contribute something immortal to the legend of the railroad in song. ere he takes his writings to the roundhouse. Somewhere inside him is a "Stamford Switch," "Wichita Valley Valhalla," or some such, to take its place alongside "Chatanooga Choo Choo," various types of "Cannonballs," "Birmingham Mail," and the like.

Folks who don't believe all that Friday, the 13th, blarney just weren't at Ballinger. We shoulda stood in bed, the tasty, tummy-tempting post-mortems at Zentner's to the contrary notwithstanding. Despite all, we STILL say the 1964 Fightin' Indians were GREAT, win or lose. That goes for their coaching staff, too. It would have warmed the heart cookies of all loyal Haskellites, as it did the favored few who were there, to see and hear the plaudits given our fine looking, blazer-bedecked bunch of gridders as they filed into Zentner's to eat after the Ballinger ball game.

And now... anybody for basketball?
 Before leaving the Friday, the 13th kick, we must admit "seems as though" we heard more bad luck stories than usual on that superstition-saturated day last week. One of the "touchingest" was from our city contemporary, Bill Klozik, of the Abilene Reporter-News, who came down to cover the Ballinger game. He got his driving knuckles rapped to the tune of twenty-plus "little round men" by a State Highway Patrolman, who just couldn't understand Bill's urgency for getting to Bearcat Stadium in time for the kickoff.

Friday The 13th stories remind us of the seasoned paratrooper who jumped into the ozone only to find his chute hadn't opened. "Just my luck," he said, "and ten-to-one that jeep won't be down there either to pick me up, like the CO said it would!"

The other morning, at exactly 2:45 a. m., a sound, which was nothing like the fog coming in on little cats' feet, rent the opaqueness of the night at our domicile. It was a Little Green

Oakescript: Help us, Somebody! This new math has us puzzled. If we're told, "You're the 10th power," is that a compliment... or a slam? No savvy. Does that mean something like "eighth wonder?"

Giant of a Joe Maples' raised pecan, which fell off a tree, first lit at the loftiest slant of the roof, bounced a good ten times in its downward flight, sounding like the staccato bark of an air hammer going into granite, and then hit the top of our window air conditioner with a crash that sounded like the cymbal crescendo at the end of a Sousa March.

We fully expected to see a crater 2 feet wide and 10 deep where that pecan FINALLY got down to earth. But it just landed in a featherbed of fallen leaves. Ah, Autumn!

Not since we sat in the fourth row center and used to review the road shows which played at Ryman Auditorium in Nashville back before WWII have we set ourselves up as proficient in this specialized realm of reporting. We don't consider ourselves proficient now, but we do want to go on record as saying that "How The West Was Won," a motion picture appearing at Samuel Goldwyn Dulaney's local cinema this weekend is one of the GREATEST, and, by the very nature of its context and content, will provide "you are there" thrills for the hearts of the predominance of pioneering stock hereabouts. Our advice to the young, and not so young, both, is: Don't you DARE miss it!

If you saw "The Virginian" last week, you recall how the wind blew and the dust swirled through most of the show. When it was over, we fully expected a "change of weather" upon stepping outside here in Haskell. But all was calm and starry. Reminds us of when Noel Coward played in the show, "Rain," during the entire two hours of which torrents drenched every setting in the play.

A patron who saw the matinee of "Rain" knew how it affected him. He went out and bought every umbrella in town, stood in the foyer after the show that night, and sold every one of them to theater-leavers who stepped out into a cloudless night.

Last Thursday at Rotary, E. J. Stewart, after being his usual helpful self assisting in table-waiting at the luncheon, finally got to sit down. The festive board being crowded, he chose to place a table setting directly across from, and at eyeball level with Roy Johnson, president of Rotary. Mr. Johnson also is vice president of the local House of Finance, and it is assumed E. J. was "just practicing up" in a more relaxed situation for an imminent trip to the bank to eye, and hopefully, "snow" Moneybags Johnson.

 Battling for all they were worth, the Haskell Indians outplayed and outscored the Stamford Bulldogs here Friday night in defeating the Bulldogs 29-6. Rainfall amounting to 3.12 inches has fallen here during the past week, according to Fred Sanders, local weather observer. The rains have been general over the county.

At the meeting of the City Council this week, the problem of delinquent taxes was considered. Mayor A. F. Thurman has announced that a plan was being worked out to collect the back taxes which might involve legal action.

Dr. and Mrs. A. Q. Gentry have returned from Dallas, where the doctor underwent an operation. We are glad to report that he is showing some improvement.

Little Bruce Reynolds arrived at the Knox City Hospital on Nov. 21, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Reynolds. The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Reynolds and Judge and Mrs. Bruce W. Bryant.

Mrs. Clarence Perrin, and son, Don Alvin, of Archer City, and Mrs. H. W. Barton, of Wichita Falls, spent several days here this week with Mrs. Henrietta Perrin and Mrs. J. C. Freeman, and visited in the home of Mrs. Irene Ballard.

The Senior Class in Haskell High School is planning a reunion during the holiday season of all ex-students since the 1930 class. A date for the affair, sometime during Christmas week, is to be selected and announced.

Mary Frances Collier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Collier, is among the nominees for beauty queen of the 1935 Prickly Pear, yearbook of Abilene Christian College.

Miss Dixie and Alberta Orr have as their guest this week, Miss Juanita Condon, Throckmorton.

 Business men and the Board of City Development are working on plans to organize a luncheon club. At an early date, they plan to form a Lions' Club or Kiwanis Club, to be affiliated with the state and national organizations.

A tabulation by the State Highway Department shows Haskell County second in a 15-county area in number of automobiles registered during the first 10 months of this year.

Haskell is second, and Knox is third in this immediate vicinity. R. C. Couch, who lives on N. Main Street, reports gathering pecans this week from some young trees he planted as nursery stock. He is elated with his success with the trees.

The Gentry Brothers Store on the north side of the square has been purchased by Jesse and W. H. Collier and will be operated as Colliers' Grocery in the future. Jesse Collier, who has been with R. J. Reynolds' grocery store, will manage the new store, and W. H. (Bill) Collier will continue to operate his Elks Cafe on the east side of the square.

A group of Haskell businessmen have secured site for a modern hotel building, and plans are now being made to interest some live-wire hotel man in the venture. If necessary, it is proposed to form a stock company, and put up at least a 40-room building.

I. W. Kirkpatrick, game warden for this district, was home last weekend. He told of a recent incident in Fisher County, where a man paid $103.20 in fines and court costs for killing three quail before the season opened.

Mrs. Clarence Lewis went to Holiday last week to visit Mrs. Frank Reid. She returned home Tuesday, accompanied by Mrs. Reid, who will spend several days here visiting Mrs. Lewis and other relatives.

S. J. Shy filed his bond this week as Commissioner of Prec. 3, and is now a full-fledged county official. Also, Tom D. Whitford has filed his bond as Justice of the Peace in Prec. 5, and is now the court in the Cliff bailiwick.

Mrs. J. W. Collins and nephew, Mode Collins, visited friends in Stamford the early part of the week.

Walter McDaniel, J. P. Whiteside, and J. S. Morrow, of Stamford, were prospecting this section the first of the week.

Jack Glasgow, of Seymour,

To His Glory

It was one year ago this coming Sunday, on November 22, 1963, that this world lost, at the hands of a heinous assassin, a gallant spirit who was the champion of freedom, and of opportunity.

Now, one year later, he lives in the hearts of all of us who revere his memory as if he were one of our very own, even as do those with whom we share the deepest sorrow, for whom he was a husband, a father, a brother, a son.

No better tribute can be paid John Fitzgerald Kennedy than for us to carry on with the same spirit that characterized his every move and utterance. So... "Ask what you can do for your country."

The things for which John Fitzgerald Kennedy fought, and died, are our inheritance... and to his glory.

Accolade

This town last week had an exemplary experience of harmony at work in community affairs that should not go unheralded or unnoticed.

A melding of minds among the leadership of the City, the two Chambers of Commerce, Senior and Junior, plus a civic-minded assist from Mr. Jim Strain, a truly loyal citizen, paved the way, literally, for an airport here of which all of us may be justifiably proud.

Each and all of these groups, with Mr. Strain's tremendously generous offer to undertake the airport development job at less than cost, worked hand-in-glove to assure the addition of this vital asset to community development here.

The City of Haskell, the Chamber of Commerce, the Jaycees, and Mr. Strain, without whose thoughtfulness the project could not even have been contemplated, each and all, deserve the sincere appreciation of a grateful citizenship.

"If God Be For Us..."

Three Hundred Forty-Three years ago, a small number of grateful Pilgrims assembled in prayerful tribute to God for an abundant first harvest. That occasion marked the launching of a meaningful custom which is unique unto America... and it has become one of our nation's most cherished holidays—Thanksgiving Day.

In 1621, the Pilgrim Fathers were bound by spiritual unity and love of and faith in the Supreme Being. Their special observance of thanks was a testimonial to their belief that God, in His omnipotent wisdom, looked with favor on their quest for a land where freedom's blessings flow. In this humble... and devout... setting, the true meaning of Thanksgiving was born.

Today, America is strong and free... a monument to the hopes and ideals of the Pilgrims. It stands as the greatest fortress of brotherhood in the history of man. Conceived under God, our country represents a people whose progress has been blessed with Divine guidance and whose history is rich with multiple evidences of His power and glory.

We have emerged triumphant from devastating world wars. Our scientific achievements stagger the imagination. Our standard of living surpasses the loftiest of dreams. Truly, the goodness and mercy of God have been with us all the days of America's life.

Regrettably, too many Americans no longer care about religious ideals and heritage. To some, our country is a fantasyland filled with complimentary handouts of rights and freedoms, along with which go NO OBLIGATIONS. With patient indifference, they shirk at the mere suggestion of individual responsibility. Their purpose is lost in a quagmire of moral lethargy and decadence, self-indulgence and neglect of God-directed duty.

Time and experience have proved our Constitution to be the greatest document for freedom ever drawn by man. This instrument of self-government is a reality envisioned by our Founding Fathers who were dedicated to the ideal that man is superior to the State. It embodies the fundamental principle of liberty which is dearer than life (how many times have our flesh and blood exemplified that, these past almost 200 years) and the precept that men shall live as equals under government by law, not by men.

We Americans must never lose sight of the fact that our power... our wealth... and our happiness... come directly or indirectly from our belief in God.

Let us commemorate Thanksgiving by restimulating our religious ideals. And as we meet the forces throughout the world which seek to destroy our way of life, let us find strength from the Biblical quotation—"If God be for us, WHO can be against us?"

"Have A Care"

This time of year, there is from our area a mass exodus of eager young men and old "bucks", two-legged variety, headed into the hill country to bag their bucks, the four-legged kind.

Most of our hunters are the seasoned type, and we know the rules which must apply while handling a firearm, especially around other hunters. But even the most seasoned make mistakes we recall, regrettably, as a newspaperman whose unpleasant duty it has been to report hunting tragedies, all too frequently. These mistakes have been costly... in human lives.

Usually, it has been the spirit of the chase, momentary lapses of memory, or temporary relaxation of the rules, that have occasioned hunting mishaps. A hunting expedition is a joyful, change of pace, time. Don't mar it by letting your guard down. Keep your safety catch on that gun until you're ready to fire it.

And when you do fire it, be sure it's a DEER, not a DEAR FRIEND, as one of our respected fellow editorial scribes so aptly has put it.

There are rules aplenty of the "care and feeding" of hunters, and tools of the hunt. Most of us who have known the exhilaration of the hunt, and the inner satisfaction a brisk junket into the outdoors brings, know those rules by heart.

But the accidents STILL will happen. So, may we say here that over and above the rules, or with or without the rules, basic intelligence and good judgment exercised to the utmost by all hunters will do more than anything to eliminate the hazards of the hunt. And it will bring them all back to hunt again another day.

In our family is a standard expression we convey, one to the other, when imploring a "little extra" precaution during a given junket or mission.

That expression is, "Have a care!"

Do that, will you, this hunting season.

PAINT CREEK . . . COMMUNITY NEWS

BY MRS. GENE OVERTON

Paint Creek farmers are busy gathering the cotton crop. Most of the cotton seems to be better than first expected. Some of the late cotton is still filling out and since we still haven't had frost, some of these late cotton bales have had time to mature.

In case you haven't heard the latest news about Danny Isbell, he is slowly improving. Shirley and Willie Lee Medford went to Dallas over the weekend and stayed with Danny and his mother while Jiggs (Allen) came home to make some of the decisions about gathering his cotton. Jiggs said the doctor assures them Danny is regaining the use of his muscles, even though it seems so slow right now. He can move his right leg some now, and he has been able to move his left leg a little for almost two weeks. He has feeling all over, and can tell which toe Jiggs is pinching. His doctor, Dr. Cherry, is considered the best in the South for neck and back injuries and he perfected or rather invented the gadget that is on Danny's head and enables him to be turned with the traction on. His bed is one of those canvas beds like Sen. Ted Kennedy is on. Every so many hours the orderlies come in, place a blanket and another bed on top of him, strap his arms and both beds with straps, and turn the whole business like an old timey waffle iron. They take off the top bed, and he is on his stomach for a while. Then the next time they do the same thing, and turn him back on his back. Lyla Mary said when he is on his stomach, some of his visitors crawl under his bed, and look up at him while they visit. The Sunday I was there he was laughing about one gift. Washing his teeth was sort of a problem, either on his back, or on his stomach. Bob Earles heard about this when he visited him, so he sent Danny a bottle of Listerine and a water gun. Anyway, he is in good spirits, and really appreciates all the cards and letters you send. He now is in room 443, Baylor Hospital, Dallas, Texas.

Van Morrison, Paul Fischer, Dan LeFevre all went deer hunting this past weekend. I haven't heard whether the deer population is minus any of its members or not.

Mrs. Glen Sandefur and children of Fort Worth spent last weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louie Kuentler and her grandmother, Mrs. M. L. Middlebrook.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Griffith spent last weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Coleman and Phil, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Griffith and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Earles and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Walton attended the state convention of the Farm Bureau in Houston last week and visited their daughters, Judy Earles and Glenda Walton.

Paint Creek's Boy Scout Troop 48 did alright at the Chisholm Trail Council's Fall Camporee at Hubbard Creek Lake near Breckenridge this past weekend. They made a score of 741 points which gave them fourth or fifth place in 35 troops entered. The boys left the Scout hut at 7:30 Saturday morning, arrived at the Camporee site and set up camp before the competition that afternoon. The unusual thing about their good score was the fact that the ranking boy in the group was Mike Brazzel who is Second Class Scout. The others are all Tenderfoot Scouts. The Scoutmaster was an especially proud of one Tenderfoot, Ricky Brazzel who did the receiving in the Morse Code event and scored 75. All the boys worked hard, and in several events were given perfect scores. The event I wish I could have seen was the one where they built a fire, cooked a pancake, ran so many feet, tossed it over a string, caught it in the pan, and ate it. Our boys did that in six minutes, starting from the time they struck the match. One little boy in an Abilene troop flipped his pancake over in the grass twice before he got it over the string. . . Waller said the judge was laughing about the look on his face when he thought he would have to eat it.

At church Sunday morning they heard the traditional sermon of the Hatchet which has been an inspiration to Scouts over the years. They came home Sunday, a tired, but happy and proud bunch of little scouts. Sharing this camping experience were: Jim Bob Mueckler, Buddy Morrison, Ricky Brazzel, Donald Livengood, Mike Brazzel and Scoutmaster Waller Overton and Gene Overton.

Billie Cockrell was home over the weekend visiting her family, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cockrell and sons, from Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene.

Edwin Livengood of Texas Tech, Lubbock, spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Livengood and Steve.

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Cathey and Elizabeth of Grand Prairie, spent the weekend with Mrs. Cathey's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Montgomery. Elizabeth is doing her practice teaching at Grand Prairie this semester from North Texas State University.

Mother Middlebrook returned home from the hospital last Monday and is at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Louie Kuentler and Mr. Kuentler.

This is Girl's Auxiliary Focus Week at the Baptist Church and the girls will have some special event every day. They have charge of the Wednesday evening service at the church, Mrs. Morris Haynes and Mrs. Bill Griffith are sponsors of the G.A.S.

Paint Creek Pirates play the last game of the year at Leuders next Thursday night when they play the Leuders Pirates.

Last Thursday afternoon the Sagerton football team coached by Miss Irene Stewart, played their last game ever. They have consolidated with the Rule school and there will be no Sagerton school next year.

ATTEND FUNERAL
Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Adams, of Haskell, attended the funeral last Monday of Mr. Adams' brother-in-law, C. J. Horner, of San Angelo, who was well-known in Haskell. Also at the funeral for Mr. Horner were Mr. Adams' children, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Altum, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Wilson, all of Abilene.

FARMERS COULD BENEFIT BY THE 1964 INCOME TAX CHANGES

1964 income tax changes will benefit farmers if they meet certain prescribed qualifications, according to information received here this week concerning new regulations which will affect the taxable income of the farmer.

The payment rate of taxes in 1964 is less than the 1963 rate for any given level of income. This means that a person having the same income in 1964 as he did in 1963 will pay less taxes. When the rate deduction is fully effective in 1965, all taxpayers' rates will be down an average of 14 per cent, it is estimated.

The taxpayer has another option this year in declaring deductions. In 1964 a taxpayer may select to (1) itemize personal deductions; (2) use a standard deduction of ten per cent not to exceed $1,000 or (3) use the minimum standard deduction. The minimum standard deduction is $300 for a single tax payer or $400 for a married couple filing jointly. An additional $100 can be claimed for each dependent up to a maximum of $1,000. These deductions are in addition to the regular $500 personal exemption. Most of the benefits from this tax change will go to families with income less than $5,000 a year.

Several tax changes will benefit farm people over 65 years of age. A taxpayer over 65 years of age can exclude a portion of the gain on the sale of his residence if the sales price exceeds $20,000 and all of the gain if the sales price is less than $20,000. This exclusion can be applied only once to the sale of the residence and the home must have been used as a residence for at least five of the last eight years preceding the sale.

Two Weinert men were hospitalized, and a Rochester resident who teaches school at Weinert received minor injuries in a two-car crash two miles west of Weinert shortly before 10 a. m. last Wednesday.

Brought in a Holden ambulance to Haskell County Hospital here were W. B. Latham 33, and Glenn Caddell, occupants of one of the cars. They were admitted to the hospital with possible internal injuries. Mrs. W. S. Chambers, driver of the second vehicle, was released after treatment at Haskell Clinic.

State Highway Patrolman Tommy Wood, who investigated, said Caddell and Latham were sitting in the latter's car, which was stopped on the Rochester - Weinert highway, and that the car Mrs. Chambers was driving east toward Weinert "ploughed into the rear of the stopped car." Caddell's pickup truck was parked nearby, and he had climbed into Latham's automobile to talk with him, ambulance attendants were told.

O'Brien Bulldogs Champions Of District 5-B (6)

The O'Brien Bulldogs ended their District 5-B six-man schedule with an unblemished record of 4 wins, no losses, and captured the district championship hands down by making the Paint Creek Pirates walk the plank, 48-6, Thursday night, at O'Brien.

The Bulldogs, who have an 8-0 season record, and are now awaiting the outcome of District 6-B and will play its winner in a bi-district scrap on Thanksgiving week.

Paint Creek's lone TD came on a run by Larry Edwards in the second period.

James Duncan racked up 22 points for the winners, while Carlton Rhodes added 18, Jerry Thomas 6, and Jackie Cate had a 2-point safety to his credit.

Bill Duncan, Lynn Duncan and Roy Henry, all of O'Brien, were defensive standouts, as was Edwards for the Pirates. At halftime, Miss Connie Bryant and James Duncan were crowned football sweetheart and beau.

The Wood family moved to Haskell last month after he accepted the call to the pulpit here, coming from Texarkana, Texas, where Mr. Wood was minister at the Waterfall Christian Church for three years.

J. C. Yeary Explains Principles And Aims of Rural Area Development

"From PARM TO MAIN STREET, many areas of rural America are on the move, snapping out of the economic doldrums caused by rapid changes in agriculture.

"In these areas, economic decline is being reversed by new payrolls and other growth. More young people are finding jobs at home, rather than moving to the city. Cropland is being converted to income-making outdoor recreation, to grass, to trees, and to fish and wildlife production.

"In short, the forces of change that pushed these communities to the brink of disaster are being re-shaped to work for people—not against them.

"Behind this upswing in rural America is a new program—Rural Areas Development. RAD represents a new approach to solving the problems of rural areas; it places the emphasis on people and their communities, rather than on commodities."

The above paragraphs quoted from USDA Publication Revitalizing America Today, better explains the Rural Areas Development Program than any words that could be used, reported J. C. Yeary, Jr., Work Unit Conservationist for the local Soil Conservation Service.

More than half the Nation's poverty exists on the farms and in small towns that make up rural America. Nearly a third of the people of the United States live in our rural areas. Another quarter million people live in the small cities that are an integral part of rural America although by census definition they are urban.

"We read a lot and a lot has been said about city slums, but almost half the Nation's poverty is found in rural areas," Yeary declared. He also pointed out the following:

About 800 counties are in serious "low income rural areas." Nearly 31 million people live in the open country and small towns of these counties. Even the farmers who operate efficient family farms have lagged behind the rest of the country in income. Erosion and misuse of the land have lowered yields and increased production costs.

Yeary explains that the rural areas development effort is "a new dynamic force helping rural people to better their lot." It is a way of helping people who are working to help themselves. The ultimate object of the program is better living for rural people, both far and non-farm. The goals of the RAD, he summarized, are:

Prosperous family farms.

Area Traffic Toll Relatively Light During October

Haskell, and the two counties flanking this one, Throckmorton on the east, and Stonewall on the west, had relatively light traffic accident tolls in October, Sergeant Frank Jircik, state highway patrol supervisor headquartered here, reported Monday.

There were three rural traffic accidents in Haskell last month, resulting in one personal injury and property damage to vehicles totalling $1,900.

Throckmorton County had but two accidents and not a person hurt, while Stonewall County went accident-free with no crashes reported at all the entire month of October, Sgt. Jircik said.

Summarizing rural traffic accidents from January through October in Haskell County, Sgt. Jircik said 49 crashes have left two dead and caused injuries to 19 other persons, with a resultant $27,050 in property damage.

The state highway patrol supervisor reminded, as motorists head into the winter months, "Don't winterize your car alone. Winterize your driving, too."

Cub Scouts To Have Pie "A La Parents" Monday

Parents of all members of Cub Scout Pack 36 here have been invited to attend the group's meeting at Haskell Elementary School next Monday night at 7 o'clock.

Two From Here Attend School Leaders' Clinic

Two administrators in the Haskell public schools took part in a Texas Elementary Principals' and Supervisors' Association district workshop in Seymour all day Tuesday.

Going from here were Mrs. Luther Burkett, supervisor of instruction for Haskell schools, and Travis J. Smith, principal of Haskell Elementary School.

The workshop was held from 9:30 a. m. through 3:30 p. m. in the First Methodist Church at Seymour.

Speakers were Harold Massey, consultant of elementary principals and supervisors, who is with the Texas Education Agency in Austin, and Dr. Duane Kingery, professor of education, North Texas State University, Austin. Identifying the potential dropouts and how to curb them were the principal subjects discussed.

Bart Burnett, manager of the Seymour Chamber of Commerce gave an address of welcome.

David Frierson High Guns Yet Another One!

Shotgun slingers from Wichita Falls, Abilene, Childress and Haskell, divided honors at a registered trapshoot held last Sunday afternoon.

High gun trophy went to Haskell's up-and-coming David Frierson, who posted a 177x200 score.

Wichita Fall's Lloyd Taylor Jr., captured the 16-yard event, breaking 93 of 100 clay birds.

Arch rivals Wallace Wooten, president of the Haskell Gun Club, and Frierson finished in a deadlock, 88x100, in Class A singles, but Wooten prevailed in a shootoff.

Taylor was winner in Class B singles, with a 93x100 mark.

Marvin Sprain, of Abilene, was trophy taker in Class C singles, posting an 86x100 score.

In Class A doubles, Taylor triumphed over Frierson in a shootoff after the Wichita Falls and Haskell entries had fired identical records of 48x50.

W. J. Boykin, of Childress, was a clear winner in Class B doubles, but again, in Class C competition, Sprain and Wade Musgrove, of Childress, shot a "dead heat," and Musgrove broke the tie to win by one bird in yet another shootoff.

Don Austin, That Social Security Man, Is Coming

One of the hit songs in "My Fair Lady" is concerned with getting to the church on time. Don Austin, social security field representative of Abilene, who visits Haskell regularly, reminds Free Press readers that one can sing about his social security if he takes steps to get his checks received on time.

New claimants can make a hit in that direction by filing their claims a month or two before that first check will be due. Persons already receiving benefit checks can keep future checks coming on time by being prompt in reporting changes of address.

Austin's next trip to Haskell will be on Wednesday, Nov. 25, at the Chamber of Commerce office at 10:00. He invites all with social security questions to drop in and get them answered.

LVN "Shingles" Received By Two Candidates Here

Two Haskell licensed vocational nurse candidates have received their LVN "shingles" from the State Board of Examiners in Austin.

Mrs. Hortense Campbell and Mrs. Jessie Couch both have been notified they passed the examinations for their licenses.

Unable to accompany a larger group of area LVN candidates recently to Austin, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Couch took the all-day examinations individually at a later date.

"Spots Before The Eyes" Session At Goree Friday

Members of the 1965 Senior Class at Goree High School are not wishing anyone any bad luck, but it will be all right with them for everyone in the area to have a case of "spots before their eyes" Friday night only.

That is, Goree Seniors want everyone who can to come to their domino tourney at 7:30 p. m. Friday in the Memorial Building at Goree. The fee for participating is one dollar per player, and prizes will be given to the champion "spot" counter.

Funds obtained from the tournament will be used by Goree Seniors to help finance their senior trip to Washington, D. C. next spring.

Cancer Center Needs Supplies And Volunteers

An urgent need exists for old sheets, any color, with which to make supplies for cancer patients in this area. Mrs. Perry Spenny, supervisor of the Haskell Cancer Center in the Courthouse here, has announced.

More volunteer workers also are desired to help prepare bandages and other items for cancer patients' use. Mrs. Spenny said. Work sessions are held weekly on Thursday at the Cancer Center here from 2 p. m. to 4 p. m., and more help could be used due to the mounting requests for supplies, the supervisor reported.

Area citizens wishing to contribute old sheets may send or bring them to the Haskell Cancer Center, Haskell County Courthouse, or leave them at the Welfare Office in the Courthouse when no one is on duty at the Cancer Center.

The service chairman of the center, Mrs. Florence Darden, is continuing to fill requests for bandages, and may be reached by phoning 864-2713 in Haskell.

Volunteer workers at the Cancer Center recently have been Mmes. J. B. Edwards, Darden, Spenny, W. E. Brady, Alice Mayes, J. R. Davis, R. R. Overton, J. H. Montgomery, Floy McMeans, T. M. Patterson, O. W. Whiteker, and Eva M. Pearsey.

LETTERS . . .

Dear Mr. Oakes:

Every week, I look forward to reading "The Good Earth." I think the most inspirational was this Spring when Ruby (Mrs. B. F.) Cobb described her drive to South Texas and the beautiful hillsides.

FIRE DEPT. SPONSORS TURKEY CONTESTS—

"HONORARY TOWN MARSHAL" TITLE AT STAKE AT O'BRIEN

A "hip shoot" contest, the winner of which will be awarded the title of "Honorary Town Marshal of O'Brien," will be one of the many highlights of the First Annual Thanksgiving Turkey Shoot Saturday at O'Brien, sponsored by the Volunteer Fire Department here.

The all-day turkey shoot, to be staged at a spot between Gotha's Mobile Service Station and Barnard-Thomas Grocery in the O'Brien business district, begins at 8 a. m.

Fire Chief John P. Lippard has announced, in extending an invitation to all area residents to take part. An estimated 20 Thanksgiving turkeys will be given away during the shoot.

Joe Don Barnard, assistant fire chief, reported that in addition to normal rifle competition, a "hip shoot" contest will be featured, using .22 caliber pistols. For safety reasons, the volunteer firemen in O'Brien have ruled out any "fast draw" competition, but shades of the Old West will be seen as would-be Wyatt Earps test their skill by blasting away at targets with pistols at hip level.

Turkeys also will be awarded the high scores in this event, and the top individual will get the "town marshal" title.

Shooting in the turkey contests will be at standard 50-yard small bore targets at a distance of less than 25 yards. Shooters will establish brackets as the contest progresses, and the top shooter in each bracket will win a turkey.

Explaining the "bracket system" to be used, O'Brien Fire Department officials said the high score of the day would win first prize.

Thereafter, the brackets will be established on a basis of the numerical superiority of the scores, with every 10th contestant being judged a winner for his or her bracket. This liberal shooting system assures young and old, man, woman and child, an equal opportunity to become a winner.

Weapons for shooting in any of the events will be furnished by the Volunteer Firemen, but personal .22 rifles or pistols may be used. Telescopic sights will not be allowed. Only .22 short ammunition will be provided.

Approximately 25 enthusiastic men are now carried on the rolls of the new Fire Department at O'Brien. A truck was purchased recently from the Haskell Fire Department, and new hose has been ordered. The firemen meet on the first and third Thursdays of each month.

Proceeds of the turkey shoot will go to purchase much-needed individual fire-fighting equipment, such as water repellent clothing and rubber boots.

MONEY-WISE Three-fourths of the world is flat—it's no wonder we all feel so much at home.

Mrs. Pippin Presents Hilarious Review; B&PW Reveals School, Christmas Plans

Mrs. Jack Pippin presented a hilarious review of the book, "O Ye Jigs and Juleps," a humorous slice of Americana "written by a turn-of-the-century pixie, Aged 10," Virginia Cary Hudson, when the Business and Professional Women's Club of Haskell met recently in the Haskell National Bank's Community Room.

A first-person treatment of the review contributed to the humor of the presentation by Mrs. Pippin.

In a business session, the B&PW Club of Haskell voted to present to the Haskell High School Library a one-year subscription to "The London News," a magazine.

Mrs. W. A. Lyles, chairman, reported that the club here worked 500 per cent on the United Fund drive, and expressed appreciation for cooperation demonstrated.

A collection of toys will be given by the club to the Abilene State School, and deadline day for assembly of the toys is the December 8th meeting of B&PW, it was announced.

Nineteen members and six visitors were served refreshments by the hostesses, the Membership Committee, with Miss Nettie McCollum, chairman. Mrs. H. A. Sherman, chairman of the program sponsoring Legislative committee, introduced Mrs. Pippin.

Mrs. W. P. Trice, president, was in charge of the meeting.

Service Pipeline Salutes Coopers Upon Retirement

B. C. Cooper, pipeline maintenance foreman for Service Pipeline Company in this area, was honored last weekend with a retirement party by fellow employees with whom he has worked in the Haskell territory for the past 12 years.

Held at Service Pipeline's headquarters here, the party honored both Mr. and Mrs. Cooper and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Don Klose, who came here from their home in Arlington for the occasion.

Cooper has been with Service Pipeline Company almost 29 years, having come to Haskell from Ada, Oklahoma. He has been succeeded at the pipeline foreman's post by Joe Jackson, who moved here last week from Tomball, Texas.

Co-workers presented the Coopers with a portable TV set as a retirement gift.

Guests from Stamford, Albany and Lubbock, as well as Haskell, came to pay tribute to the Coopers, and to enjoy food and fellowship at the event.

Mrs. Virgil Wall and Mrs. Morris Jones coordinated the work of all wives of company employees in preparing food for the party. Mrs. Richard Riley, assisted by Mrs. Jimmy Owens, handled the decorations that provided a festive occasion.

The room was nostalgically decorated with kerosene lamps and other antiques, and beautiful autumn flowers. A scene showing Grandpa in his easy rocking chair and Grandma using an old butter churn was depicted on one side of the room.

A bountiful Thanksgiving meal of turkey, dressing, and all the trimmings was enjoyed by all present. Mrs. A. J. Foster welcomed guests and introduced a trio composed of Mrs. Wendell Gideon, Mrs. Leon Jones, and Mrs. Abe Turner, accompanied by Mrs. Carlos Berry, who presented special music.

Paint Creek Folks Want To Share Isbell Burden

A group of Paint Creek citizens have started a fund to help share some of the tremendous financial burden imposed upon a neighboring couple whose son lies paralyzed in a Dallas hospital from a football injury.

Abe Turner, Jr., cashier of the Haskell National Bank here, has been named custodian of the fund set up as a tangible gesture of regard for Mr. and Mrs. Allen Isbell, of Paint Creek, and their son, Danny, a Paint Creek High School junior, who was injured on the second play of the Paint Creek - Ira football game on October 15.

Rushed the night of the game to Baylor Hospital in Dallas, Danny has been almost completely paralyzed from the neck down with a compressed vertebra since the gridiron mishap. In recent days, some movement has been noted in his wrists, arms, and left leg. There is hope for his full recovery after much therapy and a lengthy stay in Dallas.

Establishing the fund entirely on their own initiative because of their desire to help and also accepting contributions to it, are the following Paint Creek citizens: Pat Morrison, Paint Creek School superintendent; Mrs. Ray Perry, R. V. Earles, H. B. Montgomery, Homer Livengood, Mrs. Vernay Howard, Ira Coleman, and Gene Overton.

drive propelled by Herren and Everett. The final TD also came after a real sustainer which was launched from Haskell's own 2, carrying 98 yards in a dozen plays. Derrel Davis punched the pigskin across, and the final whistle showed Haskell 36, Spur 0. Defensive standouts in this game were Josselet, Stanley Fancher and Derrel Davis. Scoring in the Anson game, won by Haskell, 6-6, went like this: Ray Herren hit paydirt first, and Tim Everett added the two-pointer. Haskell held, and Bill Stewart blocked an Anson punt, crashing to the 5-yard line. Josselet hustled the ball over for a TD. George Sherman bulled the two points. The score was 16-0, favor of Haskell, at the half. Thornton Gilmore intercepted a pass on the Haskell 35 to start a 65-yard march, ending when Gilmore crunched the last 3 yards for 6 points. Ronnie Wright racked up 2 more points. Tim Everett, rolling out beyond left end, sprinted 15 yards for a TD after Kenneth Glass had set up a scoring opportunity by intercepting a pass. Haskell's last counter came on a five-yard romp by Ray Herren. There were no PAT's after the last two TDs. Anson's only score was on a 40-yard march aided by a penalty against Haskell, in the 3rd stanza. A sterling defensive show was put on by Haskell late in the game which held for four downs inside their 10, depriving Anson of a TD. Everett knocked down the 4th down desperation pass. Stalwarts for Haskell on defense in this game were Everett, Sherman, Kenneth Glass, Mike Massey and Thornton Gilmore.

OF YESTERYEAR GIVE CE TO "THE VARMINT"

First frost in Haskell county undoubtedly is not far away, and this weatherman usually forecasts an imminent sighting of the Varmint, otherwise known as "The Thang," or Haskell Rascal. Why the notorious, beef-eating quadruped beats himself more in the cool, cool, cool, of winter is another of the mysteries surrounding the pattern of its prowls. But oldtimers here say the Varmint, believed to be a huge mountain lion, or cougar-type, will be getting hungry again soon. They opine "The Thang," glimpsed infrequently since calf-killing incidents cropped up in this area back in 1958, spends its summers in the Kiowa Peak vicinity west of here. There are those who don't believe the "varmint-sighting" stories "at all." "No such animal," they declare. "But this always has been game country, and big game has had its day right here, too, especially since Haskell County was the scene of several of the largest buffalo slaughters in West Texas in the 1870's and 1880's. Killing for buffalo hides was big business here in those days, and the meat and bones left behind lured strange, and wild animals from hundreds of miles away. A glance at one section of the History of Haskell County written by the late R. E. Sherrill, respected citizen and historian here, furnishes ample support for Varmint-believers. Mr. Sherrill, discussing cougars, mountain lions and panthers, relates an incident on September 15, 1888: "T. A. Caperton and William Callends found a 4-year-old mare killed across the breaks, and rolled a big stone down in the canyon, or gulch, where they supposed an animal might be lurking. When one ran out, they shot and killed it. It gave a most frightful scream. It measured eight feet from tip to tip and weighed about 300 pounds." "On another occasion in November, 1891, Mr. Jim Fields, his father and brothers were hunting on the Clear Fork of the Brazos, in rugged country southeast of here, when the dogs treed something. The boys called to Jim. While he was under the tree looking, the others shot, and the animal jumped down almost upon Fields, so close that he punched it off with his gun, and then shot it. Stepping back, Fields shot again and killed it. The animal proved to be a "large cougar," measuring nine feet from tip to tip. A third incident on Paint Creek, south of town, on the August Kleizer place, is vividly described, climaxing with a commentary on the habits of the huge prowlers. "They make a noise at night that is very much like a child crying, and this sometimes deceives the un-guarded." Putting "one and one" together, a glimpse at the "break-ey" country, particularly that which is south and east of the town of Haskell, and recalling the factual accounts of animals here in other days, the "believers" say, "Why couldn't a still ascendent" of one of those still lurking around here? Only bigger. It has had time to grow, you know." Only those few who have seen The Varmint really know—and THEY are believers.

The Good Earth

By MRS. B. F. COBB

While in Munday early last week, we drove by the store and visited a while with the A. C. Boggs. It had been several years since last we had visited this nice couple. Old friends are not easily forgotten. As we left to return home, we began to reminisce about our first year of marriage.

It was in Munday we first set up housekeeping and started the first help-yourself laundry in town. Before leaving for home, we drove through the residential district, drinking in the beauty of fall's panorama of color. Their chrysanthemums were about two weeks behind ours in blossoming. We were fortunate enough to see them at their peak of performance. It seemed there were mums in nearly every yard in Munday. There was every color one could imagine. Many homes were completely framed by beds of chrysanthemums. We came home feeling such a pretty picture was an extra bonus to our trip. Munday has really enriched the "Good Earth" this year.

Frost will soon be here, and there are several things to remember as we put our gardens away for the winter. Chrysanthemums coming from the green house, and planted in the yard, are only half hardy the first year. The plants should be given a light mulching of grass or leaves. Many fail to give this protection and lose prized plants. Buying mums in bloom in pots is a good way to start a bed. This way there is no doubt as to the colors and kind of flower one gets.

Andrew Josselot, if you do not dig your dahlia tubers, do not cut the stems, but bend them over and cover with soil. When the stems are severed, water penetrates through the hollow stalk and spoils the tubers. If I were you, though, with dahlias as pretty as yours, I'd dig every tuber and use them as though they were babies. Dusting wettable sulphur on the tubers prevents soft rot, or the invasion of insects.

My husband, wishing to establish a lawn, mowed our flower beds down, that were where the old house had stood. This was done in early September. As I write this the 14th day of November, the Sumburst dahlias has three beautiful blossoms on it. The stems had to come from the ground after September 1. Cannas, perennial petunias, and chrysanthemums, all blossomed after being mowed to the ground in September.

"Mum" Really Is The Word Here

Haskell has again produced an oddity. Mrs. Ed Fouts, who is a member of the Haskell Garden Club, raised a chrysanthemum that had one brown, one half brown and half yellow and one completely yellow mum, all on one stem. The flower that was half brown and half yellow looked as though it had been measured, so perfect was each half. The rest of this unusual plant had only yellow blossoms. If it is still lasting, this flower is on display at the Free Press. I persuaded Mrs. Fouts to exhibit this unusual novelty.

O'Brien Community Circle and the classes of the O'Brien Schools made more than $1,200 at their annual Harvest Festival held recently.

To climax the Festival, a high school king and queen and grade school prince and princess were crowned, chosen by a penny-a-vote.

Seniors Gloria Banner, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Banner, and Jerry Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Zolite Thomas, were crowned as high school royalty.

Fifth grade students Vicki Sue Hester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truett Hester, and Keith Rowan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Rowan, won in grade school competition.

Sagerton News

BY MRS. DELBERT LEFEVRE

Kay Whitley, 6th grade student and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Whitley, was crowned queen of the Sagerton School Carnival at the Sagerton School Thursday evening. Her escort, Clayton Stegemoeller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Stegemoeller, was crowned king and each was presented a trophy.

Debbie Whitley, escorted by Jimmy Macias, and Ruth Hertel, escorted by Lee Whitley, were the queen's attendants. The fairy tale of Cinderella was acted out with Mrs. Billie Kupatt, as the narrator. Characters in the play were: Rita Ramos, the ragged Cinderella, Diane Monse and Peggy Clark as her sisters; Lupe Soto as the fairy godmother, and Kent LeFevre as the coachman.

The attendance at the carnival was good, and approximately $220.00 was netted after expenses were paid.

The Sagerton Eagles grade school football team played two games last week. On Monday they scrimmaged the Rule 6th graders and the score was tied 14-14. On Wednesday they met the O'Brien team and were defeated. On Friday of this week they plan to play an inter-district game, weather permitting. This game will end the football coaching career of Miss Irene Stewart, who has worked with her boys faithfully for 20 years, when Sagerton no longer had a man to coach football. To show their appreciation, the boys and pep squad girls presented Miss Stewart with a corsage in the school colors at the halftime of Wednesday's game. During the halftime ceremonies, Peggy Clark was presented a bouquet of roses and named football sweetheart. Jesse Gailindo was proclaimed football hero of the pep squad.

Mrs. August Angerman won first place honors for her red Valentine rose at the Wolfe Nursery Flower Show in Abilene recently. Her sister, Mrs. Hilda Koch, won second prize with her white Saratoga rose, and third on her mixed roses. Both the sisters started their rose gardens this summer and have very beautiful roses that are unusually large for this part of the country.

Mr. and Mrs. August Angerman visited in Waco last week with Mr. Angerman's mother, who celebrated her birthday while they were down there.

Mrs. Tullie Herring and her daughter from Amarillo attended services at St. Paul's Lutheran Church here Sunday together with her mother, Mrs. Emma Lammert of Stamford, and Mrs. Annie Kainer. After church the group were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lewis in Aspermont. The Tullie Herrings are former residents of this community.

The town of Sagerton was nearly deserted or at least half deserted over the weekend when so many of the residents went deer hunting. Among those going were: Mr. and Mrs. Zenor Summers and Mike, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ray Baitz, Mr. and Mrs. Loll Young, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Swofford and children, Mr. and Mrs. Norvell Lehmann, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Spitzer and children, A. C. Knipping, Oscar Manke, Jerry and Tommy and others.

Mrs. Jimmy New and son, Charles, of Lubbock, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin New Wednesday night of last week. Mrs. John Letz of Old Glory visited with Mrs. Hilda Koch Sunday afternoon.

Guests in the home of Mrs. Annie Kainer Thursday of last week were: Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bradshaw and family, of Midland, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Kupatt

TORRID SHOOTER FRIERSON IS REAL "JOHNNY-COME-LATELY"

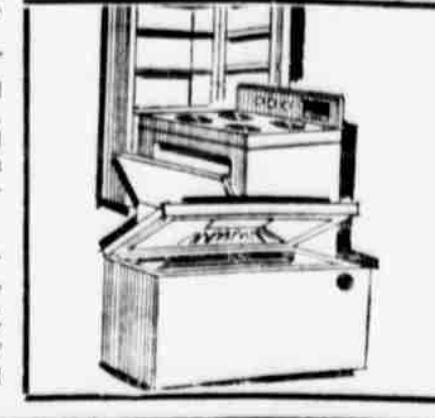

David Frierson, Haskell trap-shooting enthusiast, who Nov. 1 broke the club record held by his fellow townsman, Wallace Wooten, by cracking 100 straight clay pigeons, never shot at the traps until a year and a half ago. He strictly was a game hunter with a shotgun before that time.

He bested Wooten's record of 99x100 established last year, and it was the second 100 straight for Frierson, who performed the same feat at the Wichita Falls Gun Club layout earlier this year.

In both performances, Frierson used a Krieghoff, 30-inch full choke that puts over 70 per cent of the bb's in a 30-inch circle—so one has to be "on" the birds to hit them—as quickly as Frierson pulls the trigger.

Although a comparative neophyte at the game, the Haskellite already is most respected at traps throughout Texas and Oklahoma. He has popped over 12,000 clay pigeons already, and has more than 5,000 of them registered with A.T.A. His average is better than 94 per cent on the 16-yard line, which is a pretty fancy figure considering the fact Frierson doesn't mind shooting "up hill, agin' the wind, in the

Prattle

By AL HINDS

Robin Wheatley, 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wheatley, really tripped Ol' Prattle when she asked if I knew what was the biggest pencil in the world. When I replied I did not know, the smiling, lovable, pert little Miss America quipped: "Pennsylvania."

Prattler's Prophecy: Prattler's batting average for last weekend contests involving the Haskell Indians and teams in the Southwest Conference was 100%, as I hit every prediction.

For this weekend contests, I pick 'em like this:
Arkansas over Texas Tech; The big "Reds" from the high plains country will be playing on their home field, and it is also "homecoming" for Tech, so this one could go either way, but one from past performances I will have to go with the "Hogs."

Baylor over SMU: Bears will feast on "Pony" meat.
Rice over TCU: Just a hunch.
The "birds" look the best in my books.

Lions will stage their annual Do-Nut Sale Friday and Saturday for the purpose of raising funds for "Goodfellows." This is a well-publicized yearly project. Need we say more.

Prattler is indeed happy to have friend Mike Campbell, and former co-worker, as guest columnist this week.

By MIKE CAMPBELL

Through courtesy of Prattler, whose column appears in the Free Press each week, I have been invited to fill-in this week. . . and it is my wish that readers can go for a little corn for a change.

After the recent election debacle, the G.O.P. is desperately trying to re-group their scattered forces. However, there is quite a bit of bickering among the high echelons of the party. . . one accusing the other of being responsible for their blistering defeat at the polls. Reminds me of the fellow leaving a poker game mumbling his shirt.

Somewhere back in my school days I recall an old axiom: "A body set in motion will continue in motion until acted upon by some outside force." Reminds me of the Miller Creek proposition.

The late Will Rogers once ran into Huey Long at an airport. "Huey ain't you afraid some of these folks in Louisiana is liable to 'shot you'?" Rogers asked.

"Why, those good people wouldn't harm me," Long replied. "I ain't a-talking about the good folks—I am talking about the bad ones," said Rogers.

"Ah," Huey replied, with a grin, "they're all on my side."

With the people demanding higher-powered cars and increased speed limits, the death toll on the highways continues to mount.

The winning candidates in the November election weren't the only ones to come out on top. . . they received the most votes, but the TV networks gathered in the "long green."

Back in the 20's there was a popular song title, "Come Feather Your Nest." I have often wondered if the author had politicians in mind when he wrote the hit song.

The tone of the locomotive bell mounted in the foyer of the courthouse brings on a wave of nostalgia when I was riding the "high iron" on the Cotton Belt.

I recently heard somebody on the streets say that gambling was a thing of the past in Haskell.

When I remarked to Wallace Wooten that I had never seen a clay pigeon, he not only showed me one, but presented it to me for keeps. It is quite a souvenir and serves as an excellent ash tray.

To observe our genial sheriff, Garth Garrett, it wouldn't appear that he was very fleet on foot, but he is pretty fast when it comes to hauling in law violators.

The Haskell Free Press inadvertently omitted in the report of the funeral of Mrs. M. H. Quinn last week that she was preceded in death by a brother, Owen Fouts.

Enumerators Are Named For 1964 Census Of Farms

Enumerators have been named in Haskell County for the 1964 Census of Agriculture, Mrs. Elsie Dowden, of Throckmorton, crew leader for this area, has announced.

The following persons, with their areas of assignment in this county, have been announced: Giles M. Kemp, Haskell; Ladelle Opitz, Weinert; Dorris Bounds, Paint Creek; Dorothy Elmore, Rule; Una Hines, Rochester, and Bennie Mueller, Sagerton.

Haskell County enumerators belong to a force of 23,000 throughout the nation employed temporarily by the U. S. Bureau of the Census for this year's farm census.

Enumerators, Mrs. Dowden points out, are key workers in an agricultural census. It is their responsibility to locate every farm within an area assigned to him or her, determine if the operator of the farm has answered all questions on a form that will be mailed to the farmer by the Census Bureau, help the farmer complete any unanswered questions on the form, check answers for accuracy, and deliver the form to the Census Bureau.

A Census of Agriculture is taken every five years ending in "4" and "9" to gather needed information on the nation's agricultural resources and production.

The group named for Haskell County soon will be trained in a special 4-day home study course designed to prepare them for the farm census, Mrs. Dowden, their crew leader, said.

The conditions under which cotton is produced and sold, with special emphasis on the control of the boll weevil and other pests; to promote a coordinated program of sound information which will include management practices by the growers to assist in a better insect control program at reasonable cost; to do all things . . . that may seem reasonable and appropriate for improving conditions under which cotton and cottonseed are produced and sold. . . provided this Corporation will not engage in the business of buying or selling of cotton or cottonseed or their products.

Counties included in the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers area of interest and effort are: Baylor, Childress, Cottle, Fisher, Foard, Harteman, Haskell, Nolan, Howard, Jones, King, Knox, Mitchell, Runnels, Scurry, Taylor, Stonewall, Throckmorton, Wilbarger, Concho, Coke and Tom Green Counties in Texas, and Harmon, Jackson and Tillman counties in Oklahoma.

per dose would be an equitable contribution to make for the vaccine, instead of 25 cents as formerly. It was emphasized that payment is not a "must," and no one will be denied the vaccine for lack of payment, but contributions will be accepted to help defray the expense being borne by the Jaycees for vaccine procurement and for those recipients not able to pay.

Locations of the vaccine distribution stations, which will be open from 1 to 6 p. m. Sunday, Dec. 6, with the Jaycees in charge, are: Haskell County Courthouse, Haskell; Buddy Lane, Weinert Community Center, Jimmy Turner, Rochester School lunchroom, Alton Peiser, Rule School lunchroom, James Franklin, and O'Brien School lunchroom, Jesse Priest.

Group Prods . . .

interested citizens in centrally located Rochester High School at an early date.

Dr. Anthony Hunt, president of Howard County Junior College, in Big Spring, will be asked to address the Rochester meeting on his evaluation of the worth of a public junior college to the territory.

The group Tuesday night moved for and speedily endorsed similar meetings to be held at Throckmorton, Stonewall, and Knox County communities, "the very soonest."

Musgraves, in tracing the growth and development of the junior college trend in Texas and elsewhere, said this state, with 32 public colleges is among the leaders in the 27 states which have them. He cited his present trip as indicative of the "tremendous interest now building in initiating such projects as you have under consideration here." In his capacity as head of the junior college division of TEA, he began his current trip at Waco, went to Dallas, then Haskell, will be in Dumas Wednesday night, and Quanah on Thursday, all on the same mission, to explain how to start a junior college.

Attending here Tuesday night were elected and appointed officials from Haskell, Weinert, Rochester and Old Glory, as well as the presidents and members of the education committees of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce and Jaycees.

Hardwood Hysteria Hits Hoopsters Here

Steady thump of inflated leather against solid hardwood was heard, beginning Monday up Haskell High School way, as the roundball boys and girls took to the practice floor in preparation for what promises to be a tournament-punctuated, exciting season.

The moleskins already were in the mothballs here as Coach Sonny Everett's charges played their season's football finale, and were thrashed, 38 to 0, by potent Ballinger, which lost only to Stamford, the district winner, by two points in their 1964 season. Haskell's Fightin' Indians, tremendously outmanned, never got in the ball game, after the Bearcat's center, Gary Atkins, snared an Indian pass in the flat on the first play of the scrap and romped 30 yards for a TD.

At the same time, 15 Seniors playing their last grid game for the Indians never gave up, as penalty after penalty, 110 1/2 yards of them, four of the infractions called for half the distance to the goal line, aided and abetted the hometown Ballinger club in its victory march. It was just one of those nights, Friday, the 13th, and all.

Conner, Josselot, Ivy, Watson, Hester, Frierson, Kreger, Perry, Coston, et al, and even Pint-sized George Sherman in the waning moments, stayed in there and scrapped, Fightin' Indians that they are, until the final whistle.

So the curtain is down on the Indians' 1964 season, an unusual one which saw them win five straight, then drop the same number in a row, to finish the season with a .500 average overall, but only 1 and 5 just ahead of cellar-dwelling Colorado City in District 5-AA, easily the toughest AA league in Texas.

Haskell's girls' teams opened their basketball season against Wylie on the home court Tuesday night, and split a double-header.

The "A" girls were beaten 52-24 in the finale after the "B" team won against Wylie's "B" in the opener, 39-32.

High pointmakers for Haskell were Jennabeth Pittman 11, and Joy Beagstrom, 18.

Carlos Berry's boys' teams, both "A" and "B," and David Middleton's "Squaws" go to Clyde for a triple-header tomorrow night.

So now, Carlos Berry and David Middleton, the chief strategists for boys' and girls' basketball here, are starting the cage season right away. The Boys' "A" team has 16 scheduled games and will play in tournaments in Hamlin and Brownwood and host one here December 10-12. The Hamlin tourney is December 3-5, and the Brownwood tourney is December 17-19.

As in the past, District 5-AA teams will play a double-round robin, 12 games, for the championship.

Coach Everett will pilot the "B" basketball boys, who will play the preliminary game every time the "A" clubs play, with exception of two games with Rule.

Girls' Coach Middleton has a 13-game slate set up, plus hosting a tournament here on December 3-5. Haskell Squaws also will be entered in the Dyess AFB tourney Dec. 10-12, and the Hardin-Simmons University Invitational in February.

Berry's Boys will play two games each with Clyde and Rule and get some seasoning in tournaments at Hamlin and here before opening torrid district play here against the Angstroms on Dec. 15. Haskell's first home appearance is against Clyde on Dec. 1, with boys, girls, and "B" boys all playing games.

Out for basketball on the "A" club are Senior Lettermen Joe Josselot, Gary Druesedow, Jimmy Larned, Eddie Hester and Sophomore Letterman Perry Turnbow, as well as Freddie Kreger, David Wilson, Bill Perry, Frankie Don White, Bobby Watson, Ronnie Josselot, Charlie Gibson and Gail Crouch.

Middleton has back Forwards Carolyn Fischer, Darlene Bevel, Jennabeth Pittman, and Debbie Wiseman; also Guards Nancy Holian, Bonnie Howard, Vicki Burson, and Jerre Colbert. Brought up to play with the Squaws are Brenda Campbell, Sharon Crouch, Katherine Josselot and Kathy Burson.

Goree Wildcats Grab First Title In 18 Years

The undefeated Goree Wildcats clinched their first District 5-B championship since the school started playing football in 1946, when they stomped the Bryson Cowboys, 42-12, Friday night.

Goree quarterback Terry Patterson started off the touchdown parade early in the first quarter with a 5-yard run. Mike Hord ran across the bonus points.

Patterson had a hand in the next three tallies as he fired a 28-yard scoring aerial to James Allen for one marker and ran two more himself on 41 and 20 yard trips. He also fired a pass to Eddie Giles for the bonus points after the second tally.

Charles Kidd accounted for the final tallies, one on a 25-yard pass from Hord, and the other on a 25-yard gallop. He also ran the bonus points after the first one.

For Bryson, halfback Richard Tipten went two yards for the first marker and end Lewis Sartain got the final six points on a 15-yard end-around play.

For the Wildcats, linemen Dickie Green, Tom Cloud, Donnie Land and Giles were standouts.
