Teen-Age Baseball Tourney Opens Here Next Monday

HASKELL LL ALL-STARS FACE RULE-MUNDAY GAME WINNERS

Fourteen eager Little League All-Stars from Haskell comprising the All-Star roster representing this town, prancing like thoroughbreds at the starting gate, will journey to Munday at 8 p. m. Friday to do diamond battle with the winner of the Rule-Munday Thursday night scrap to determine the Area II Little League champion in this territory.

Haskell's aggregation, managed by Volley Ivy and Bill Reeves, drew a bye in the first round of its area playoffs.

Friday and Saturday, July 31 and August 1, Haskell will be the site of a Little League District 6 playoff tournament among four area winners—its own Area II, the Area I champion, which will be either Crowell or Knox City; Area III, which embraces Seymour, Olney and Graham, one of which will be champ in that geographic area; and Area IV, in which Sheppard AFB, Iowa Park, and Electra will be vying for supremacy to see which team comes to Haskell for the district tournament.

The District 6 Little League playoffs here, originally scheduled for July 30 and 31, were moved back one day to Friday and Saturday, July 31 and August 1 in order not to conflict with the climax of a Texas Teen-Age Baseball league senior tournament being reeled off here July 27-30 it was announced early this week.

The team which emerges winner in the District 6 playoffs in Haskell will go to Lubbock to the sectional playoffs at dates to be set between August 3 and 8. The Divisional of Texas Little League Championship playoffs are set for Breckenridge between Aug. 10 and 15.

"Hard at" the practicing the past few days here in preparation for entering playoff competition Friday night in Munday have been the following Haskell Little League All-Stars picked to wear this town's colors: Billy Wiseman, Eddie Stewart, Lanny Ivy, Gary Felker, Roy Pitman, Donald Love, Clifford Campbell, Riley Middleton, Gary Mayfield, Lee Pippin, Wayne Davis, Darrel Crouch, Hal Spain and Randy Stone.

Haskell's starting lineup on Friday night was not certain at press time.

Champions of three West Texas leagues in the Texas Teen-Age Baseball Association will square off in a double elimination tournament to determine the District 2 champion in the 16-18 age bracket at Indian Field beginning here at 8 p. m. next Monday night. The tournament games will be held nightly Monday through Thursday, and possibly Friday, July 31, if that one is necessary, starting at 8:00 each night.

R. C. Couch Jr., well-known sports enthusiast, is tournament director.

Participating will be Lorenzo, representing the Tri-County League; Matador, the Caprock League entry; and Haskell Indians, winner of the Cottonbelt League race in this area, including teams from O'Brien, Stamford, Hamlin, Anson and Rule, in the six-team league.

Haskell's Indians, managed by Sgt. Frank Jirek, coordinator of Teen-Age baseball activities in this territory, won 14 straight ball games and were not beaten down the stretch of the season. They were slated to play a pre-tourney warmup game with a crack Baird aggregation here Tuesday night.

The senior boys' Teen-Age district tournament opens here at 8 p. m. next Monday with Lorenzo meeting Matador. The Haskell Indians drew a bye and play the winner of the Monday night game next Tuesday night, July 28.

Losers of the Monday and Tuesday night games will play Wednesday night, and the winner of that tussle takes on the Tuesday night winner the following night, Thursday, July 30.

Should an additional game be necessary to determine the champion, that class will be played Friday night, July 31, at 8:00. All games are at the well-manicured Indian Field near Rice Springs Park and the Roundup grounds in Haskell.

The champion here will go to the state teen-age senior tournament in San Angelo the following week.

Tournament Director Couch is in charge of all arrangements here.

HEATHER POUNDIN' HER AS RULE'S VERY OWN

Citizens of Rule put the big pot in the little one, then gave them both to their new Scottish doctor and his bride, just arrived from Edinburgh, in what amounted to a combination old-fashioned "pounding" and the social event of the season in the west Haskell County community Tuesday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. George Orr were honored with a town-wide miscellaneous shower at the Philadelphia Club Building in Rule from 5 to 7 p. m. Tuesday.

The fair-haired Scot doctor, 29, and his diminutive and demure bride of April 4, were deluged with staples, bed linens, pots and pans, everything but the proverbial "kitchen sink," which probably will come later.

All the gifts were tokens from a grateful Rule citizen-ship for Dr. Orr's having made a choice half-a-hemisphere away in his native Scotland to come to this area in response to an ad inserted in a British medical journal by Mordant McKinney, Rule pharmacist, and Mrs. McKinney.

Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. McKinney, justifiably proudest of all, stood in the receiving line to greet hundreds of well-wishers, whose automobiles caused a traffic jam on one of Rule's two main, and normally trafficless thoroughfares, and introduced them to Moreg and George Orr, Rule's newest citizens.

The Orrs, laden with gifts, were speechlessly, understandably, overwhelmed.

And for Rule citizens, obviously, also understandably, pleased with their new doctor and his wife, "it was the biggest social function here in a spell."

Parents and friends hungry for news of Haskell-Paint Creek area Scouts and their adult leaders, 18 of them, attending the 6th National Jamboree at Valley Forge, Pa., have received a well-balanced "meal" of digestible "morsels" from their very own the past few days.

Among some of the choice "side dishes" have been the report that two of this area's Scouts have been "taking in ironing," utilizing a novel, to say the least, laundering process at the campsite.

Another report has been that the Jamboree participants, 32,000 of them, instead of sight-seeing, have been the "sight-sees" at Valley Forge. Last Sunday, visitors numbering three times the Boy Scout contingent surged through the Jamboree grounds to see the tremendous Scout camp pitched there, according to Edd Smart, scoutmaster of Haskell Troop 36, in a report back home.

Wayne Cadenhead, son of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Cadenhead, Jr. and Thurman Howeth, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Howeth, by means of heated rocks dropped into their cooking skillets, have been taking in ironing at the Jamboree and are said to be doing a landoffice business.

The number of mishaps has been miraculously low, and none of consequence has occurred to any area Scout at Valley Forge. The nearest thing to one has been a "bug in the ear" outbreak on the Jamboree grounds. Some Scouts have been attacked by some small Japanese-beetle type insect, which has resulted in some ear probing on the part of Dr. Frank Cadenhead, Jr. of Haskell and other attending physicians to extricate the "bug in the ear," according to reports.

The "swap" tents, where some "tail trading" is done by Scouts exhibiting items peculiar to their own sections of the country have been visited often by this area's Scouts, who have fared well with their rattlesnake rattlers and western-wear items, they have informed their parents.

Ricky Perry, scribe of the troop, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Perry of Paint Creek, was one of the most recent callers and summed up the situation among Haskell-Paint Creek Jamborees Tuesday with an "all is well" summary to date.

The Scout group from here will return by plane Saturday.

Grateful Town In Salute To Overton

With the dinning applause of a grateful citizenship ringing in his ears, Ray Overton Jr., popular and respected head coach of the Haskell High School Indians for the past seven years and a member of the athletic department for 15, was presented a handsome silver service at a community-wide farewell event in his honor here Saturday night.

More than 150 Haskellites, at least 50 of whom had played ball under Overton during his long tenure here, assembled in Rice Springs Park in mid-town Haskell to pay tribute to their departing coach. Overton and his family are moving to Abilene, where he has accepted the position of head coach of the Junior Varsity and assistant track mentor of Cooper High School.

Lyndon Harris, president of Haskell Booster Club, high school sports supporting organization, made the presentation to Overton mid-way in a town-wide ice cream supper at which his friends and neighbors gathered to salute him.

Mary Jo Leverett Leaving HD Post Here August 1

Mrs. V. R. (Mary Jo) Leverett, Haskell County home demonstration agent for the past year, and well known throughout Texas as a dedicated veteran in this realm of endeavor, has resigned her position effective August 1, she announced Thursday.

The tireless and popular home demonstration agent said mounting responsibilities which demand more time with her family in Old Glory prompted her decision. She is the wife of V. R. Leverett, the superintendent of schools at Old Glory.

County Judge James C. Alvis said Thursday the Commission-er's Court of Haskell County "has reluctantly accepted" Mrs. Leverett's resignation.

"She has performed tirelessly, done a splendid job, and compiled an exemplary record," (See Mary Jo Leverett, P. 10)

Format For Future To Be Laid Out In Spirited Town Hall Session Here

Haskell, "standing at a crossroads in community effort," its Chamber of Commerce president, Abe Turner, Jr., has declared, will have a "Town Hall-type, community-wide meeting on Tuesday, August 4, to which every last out citizen is being invited to lay out a format for the future," according to the Chamber president here.

Coincident with this citizens' session, Rex Jennings, executive vice president and general manager of the Wichita Falls Chamber of Commerce, will speak to the assembly. Jennings, a professional in the field, well-versed in all facets of community development programs, will provide his audience with information pertinent to problems here, and share with them the benefits of his long training in the realm of master planning for a town Haskell's size.

The research committee that has performed the data gathering work here on Chamber budgets and attendant matters, is comprised of Don Muenzler, chairman; Howard Perry, Mrs. Roy Johnson, Mrs. Opal Adkins and Raja Hassen.

Named to co-chair a campaign to stimulate community-wide interest in the Town Hall program were Mrs. Viara Felker, well known Haskell business woman and civic leader, and Dr. T. W. Williams, prominent physician, Haskell County health doctor, and the director from this area on the West Texas Chamber of Commerce board.

The group of which Mrs. Felker and Dr. Williams are co-chairmen, is meeting each Monday at 7 a. m. to further crystallize interest in the Town Hall gathering.

Turner said the aim and object of the initial meeting is to "get and keep interest town-wide so the Town Hall-type session will replace stereotyped Chamber of Commerce board meetings, giving all the people a voice in community planning for progress."

ABUNDANT BEAUTY—will be the fortunate "viewing pleasure" of the out-of-town panel which judges the Pageant of Pulchritude Thursday night, August 6, to pick a reigning queen and two ladies-in-waiting for the Second Annual Hey Day celebration Saturday, August 8. Here are 15 of the merchant-sponsored entries in the county-wide contest. Many more are entered. Their identities, pictures and sponsors' names will appear in subsequent editions of the Free Press prior to Hey Day. (See Story, Page 5)

We're Trying To Make The Team

A dynamic five-year program of historical Recordation, Appreciation, Marking, Preservation, and Surveys, known as the RAMPS, recently has been put into action by the Texas State Historical Survey Committee under the sterling leadership of a statewide sparkplug, John Ben Sheppard.

The program, tied into the tremendous potentialities of tourism, a "See Texas First" type of thing, is beginning to have a terrific impact statewide.

Haskell's Hey Day, and the basic concept of its effort to restore our archaic depot here for use as a museum and tourist attraction, goes hand-in-glove with the work of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee in this stimulating program. It amounts, among other things, to helping Haskellites, and Texans, help themselves to an economic bonanza that is right under our very noses if we'll just harness it.

The RAMPS plan is designed to bring about an awareness of the unique history of Texas by visitors and by Texans themselves through state and local efforts.

Our Hey Day celebration, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, joined by our Haskell County Historical Survey Committee, does precisely this in our effort to preserve the heritage-rich background of our area. And, in so doing, we're trying to make the RAMPS team.

It seems propitious here, on the eve of Hey Day, to point out that we, by our wholehearted support of this event in our own backyard, are becoming a part of the overall plan to make tourism one of the great industries of Texas.

Our depot restoration project when it was begun, was so unique, and so "measured up" in the evaluation of its worth as a tourist lure and as a history-preserving endeavor, drew wide editorial praise for its inauguration. We cannot but complete successfully a job initiated with such blanket approval. The eyes of the entire Southwest have been focused on this project of ours for some time, and the culmination of it, thereby offering the tourist an intriguing stopover to inspect something that has all but departed the American scene, will reward us all MOST TANGIBLY here in Haskell.

In connection with similar projects, in which Haskell really has taken the lead, which is all the more reason why Hey Day, particularly the next one, MUST be successful, workshops in 31 Texas centers are being set up for members of County Historical Survey Committees, Commissioners Court, City Councils, and Chambers of Commerce, to put the RAMPS plan into action.

A major goal of the RAMPS program is the erection of 5,000 official Texas Historical Markers and Texas Historical Building Medallions in the next five years.

These markers will cover Texas history from the archaeological finds, old Spanish and French explorer routes and Indian culture, through the days of the Texas Ranger, the cattle drives AND THE RAILROAD MOVEMENT to the history of industries, educational institutions, and famous Texans. This is exactly the description of RAMPS by John Ben Sheppard, Governor John Connally, and its other leaders.

So Haskell, in its Hey Day efforts, is in step. In fact, it is a pace setter with its project. And it is imperative we stay OUT IN FRONT with it.

It says here that the Boy Scouts at the Jamboree, among them 18 of ours, ate 33 miles of hot dogs, 25,000 chickens, 416,000 eggs, 25,000 quarts of ice cream, 600,000 quarts of milk, 10,000 sweet rolls, 55,000 donuts, and 13 TONS of steak while they were at Valley Forge.

And you know what each of them is going to say when he gets off the airplane Saturday night, even before "howdy" to the homefolks? Yep, that's right: "I'M HUNGRY!"

Betty McBroom was peeking, peering and pouring over maps at Odus Matthews' Itchy Foot Emporium, the bus station, the other day. "by the numbers." She "peared" to be making like a one-gal travel agency, and was propelling lotsa inquiries about bus schedules and prices to certain New Mexican points.

Now, we happen to know that her parents, the Ed Heaters, were in Ruidoso at the time. They had gone down there in a new car, we understand.

The conjecture was they might be returning to Haskell in a bigger vehicle than that in which they left. The races, you know. They're at Ruidoso.

Fellow who was in Louise Green's class last semester in school, commenting on a recent experience in which he reportedly jumped for dear life to escape being hit by a car allegedly driven by said teacher: "She's still thinking of me."

Understand the David Josselets have amended the spelling of their last name to JOSSELAY. It all came about when they got their new poodle and named him "Pierre" ... what else. He's a French poodle, isn't he? JosseLET sounded too harsh to go with Pierre, so it's now Pierre JOSSELAY, and he probably eats French doughnuts, drinks champagne, spins his cane, cooks his straw hat, and winks at the ladies, too. You know ... Pierre Josselet, Maurice ChevalYAY, and that gang!

A certain postmaster in a certain county seat town, that has the same name as the county, and a certain pipeline company employe, initials R. V. ... went to Camp Tonkawa on a recent weekend, there to undergo, or undertake the ordeal of the Order of The Arrow.

It's said, reliably that these fellows, after the undertaking, were ready for the undertaker. Or, in other words, after they got the OA, they returned here ... almost DOA.

Sure is good to have Bill Tomlinson back from vacation. It was gettin' kinda tryin' on our ol' torso and cranium tryin' to do the chores of those three people it took to replace him in the back shop while he was away.

If you see Don Alley or Gene Henderson, our amiable advocates of the lay-away plan, in any of the snazzier dress shops this week, dispel your fears. No one has passed. They are the conscientious type, and are lookin' for just the right 'thing' for their candidate to wear in the Hey-Day beauty pageant.

Well, the circus in San Francisco's Cow Palace, which could well have been changed to "Bull Barn" during the GOP convention, has folded its tent, and stolen away ... but not too silently. Like all national political conventions, it ran the gamut, and the gauntlet, from absurdia to sublimia. There were many moments of both—and it took both the absurd and the sublime, to make it the picturesque portrayal of Americana under one roof that it was.

And now ... on to AC (that's for Atlantic City) to see how much fire those Democratic sparkplugs have in 'em!

We may already have been asleep each night when it came,

HOW I QUIT SMOKING:

I've been a heavy smoker now for the past 20 years. Smoked so much everyone near me noticed it. I was almost to the point of being "Junky." Then I met a cute little hardtop who told me about a place where she received special treatment. She suggested I do the same thing. Well, I did and never felt better. Since my ring and valve job at Bailey Toliver Chevrolet Company, I've quit smoking, and my car performs so well, my owner is going to buy me a new one.

The Hey Day Beauty Parade Bandwagon Rolls On and On

Beauty was bustin' out all over Haskell County this week as a steady stream of enticing entries was received at Haskell Chamber of Commerce headquarters for the Pulchritude Pageant attendant to the second annual Hey Day celebration here on August 8.

No less than 22 captivating contestants had been entered by merchant sponsors of the competition to select a reigning Queen of Hey Day here, Mrs. R. A. Lane and Mrs. Viars Felker, co-chairmen of this intriguing phase of the Hey Day festivities, reported.

"The way we have been deluged with entries, it looks like we may have as many as forty girls vying for the honor," Mrs. Lane said Wednesday. Identities and pictures of 15 of the contestants appear in this edition of the Free Press. All other entries will be revealed and pictured in the July 30 and August 6 editions prior to the judging Thursday night, August 6.

Judging of the beauty pageant by an out-of-town panel will be held at 8 p. m. Thursday night, August 6, in the Texas Theater here at which time the Hey Day Queen and two ladies-in-waiting will be selected to reign over a full day's events the following Saturday.

To be eligible to enter the beauty parade here, the contestant must have been registered in the spring semester of high school, 1963-64, and must be single.

First entry received was that of sponsoring Cahill - Duncan Insurance Agency here. She is Diane Hester, Haskell High School junior, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hester, of Haskell.

Each of Haskell County's seven communities has a Pulchritude Pageant coordinator and entries are expected from all seven towns. Mrs. Lane and Mrs. Felker announced the following entries, their parents and their sponsors, in addition to Miss Hester: Gerre Colbert, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Colbert; Haskell, Haskell Pharmacy; Shirley Ann Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Sanders, Weinert, W. B. Guess Oil Co. Weinert; Donna Jossilet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jossilet, Haskell, Bynum's Hardware Co., Haskell; Carolyn Fischer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Fischer, Paint Creek, Hassen's Department Store, Haskell; Judy Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Anderson, Haskell, Blohm Studio, Haskell; Jerre Sue Couch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Store; Diani Cadenhead, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Cadenhead, Jr., Haskell, Dad 'N' Lad Men's Store; Tom Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Groterson, Haskell, Renfro Grocery; and Evelyn Mayfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Mayfield, Weinert, Mayfield's Grocery, Weinert.

The second annual Hey Day in Haskell, in addition to the Pulchritude Pageant, will feature the start of a museum of "railroada" heralding the heritage of the railroad and its arrival here in 1906. The start of the museum and tourist attraction, which will be housed in Haskell's old depot, will be tied into a fandangle type production, depicting the history of Haskell County, script for which was written by Mrs. Frank Cadenhead Jr. Dr. Cadenhead and Mrs. Tom Barfield are general co-chairmen of the event. The Jaycees will sponsor a carnival in Rice Springs Park all afternoon on Hey Day, and a bountiful barbecue will be served beginning at 5:30 p. m. August 8, at the park, where folks countywide will meet to greet and eat. With money obtained from the first Hey Day last year, the 1906 depot was moved from downtown Haskell to a spot overlooking Rice Springs Park. The Fort Worth & Denver RR sold the archaic structure to Haskell for one dollar.

Curtis Cox 'Goes To School' On IH Georgia 'Spread'

Curtis Cox, member of the A. C. Richardson Truck and Tractor Company "family" in Haskell, is in Tifton, Ga., attending a farm equipment training school on 2,000 acres of land purchased and operated by the International Harvester Company for the express purpose of educating IH personnel with "on the ground" operations, A. C. Richardson, owner-operator of the firm here, has announced.

One of only two operations of this kind maintained by farm equipment manufacturers, there is not only International Harvester, but competitive equipment on the Georgia farm as well, Richardson reported, to enable dealers to "see just what our salesmen will be vying with in the field." More than $260,000 worth of new IH equipment is kept at Tifton for demonstration purposes, he said.

Cox, who is being provided this training "to better serve our patrons in this territory," Richardson declared, will enter the selling field for the IH dealer here upon his return.

While in Georgia, Cox is following a 17-hour day regimen of meticulous training in IH operations.

Retired taxpayers over 65 years of age get several breaks under the law. They have an extra $600 exemption provided for age. Retirement Income Credit is also a very important benefit. The Internal Revenue folks report that some taxpayers who appear to be eligible for Retirement Income Credit don't claim the credit. They also point out that the Texas Community Property Law gives Retirement Income Credit to both the husband and the wife in many cases.

PITCHING PHENOMENON—While his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Volley Ivy, look on with justifiable pride, Lanny Ivy, 12-year-old Haskell Little League hurler of four no-hitters this season, receives Sports Illustrated Magazine's "Award of Merit" from Porter Oakes, Free Press editor, in ceremony at Rotary Club here last Thursday.

ACCENT IS ON YOUTH ROTARIANS SEE LANNY IVY AWARDED HONOR, HEAR MRS. JACK PIPPIN ON GIRL SCOUTING

Lanny Ivy, Haskell Little League pitching phenomenon, was presented Sports Illustrated Magazine's "Award of Merit," a silver bowl, before an appreciative and enthusiastic hometown assembly, including his admiring parents, Mr. and Mrs. Volley Ivy, at a Rotary Club luncheon here last Thursday.

The presentation was made by Porter Oakes, editor of the Haskell Free Press, representing the national sports publication on this occasion.

Accent on youth was the order of the day as Rotarians here, after the accolade given 12-year-old Lanny, heard Mrs. Jack Pippin, civic leader in Haskell, trace the growth of the Girl Scout movement, particularly its 4-year history in Haskell, and declare its principal aim as "working for the maturity of the child, and training her how to be an adult," or how to cope with the challenges of life.

In his presentation of the sterling silver trophy to young Ivy, who was recognized in "Faces in The Crowd," in the June 22 issue of SPORTS ILLUSTRATED, Oakes said Thursday's event "is a forecast of things to come, or a small edition of what probably will happen in the life of this young man ten years from now before an All-Star game in Yankee or some other major league stadium."

Lanny was labeled as "destined for great things in baseball" on the basis of his record, which, during the 16-game Little League season just ended in Haskell, included four no-hit games pitched by Ivy among the eight he won for his team, the champion Tigers, seven of them shutouts. In compiling this record, young Ivy pitched 45 innings, faced 196 batters, struck out 119 of them, and gave up but seven hits in all games hurled, and but one lone run, a homer by opposing pitcher, Hal Spain. He walked but six men all season.

Ivy, it was pointed out in the award presentation ceremony, also excelled as a shortstop, making 11 unassisted putouts and 12 assists. Capping such a record, he set a new home run record for the Little League here, cracking off 12 round-trippers, besting by 3 homers a 7-year record, and swatted the horsehide at .553 clip per season.

In addition to the Rotary audience, several of the "small fry" were present to see young Ivy receive the award here. Mrs. Pippin, in her Girl Scout discussion, cited the need for a program of training for girls "who are too young to be interested in boys and too old to play dolls any more." She credited a former Haskell adult leader, now of Abilene, Mrs. Calvin (Ruth) Smithie, with the leadership and providing the incentive for getting the Girl Scout program "off the ground" here.

Hooper T. Wilkinson, superintendent of schools here, was program chairman.

Among guests present were Rotarian R. E. Hall of Stamford; Courtney Smith, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Withers; and Riley Middleton, son of Rotarian Brooks Middleton.

The Rotary Club here moved acceptance of an audit and budget report submitted by a committee composed of Ira Hester, chairman, W. P. Ratliff and Eldon Anderson.

President Roy Johnson had charge of the meeting.

SPIRITUAL FOOD PROVIDED, TOO, AT BAPTIST FISH FRY

Some 300 Baptist men representing 20 churches in Haskell and Knox Counties partook of food, fellowship and Christian witnessing all abundantly, at the annual Haskell-Knox Baptist Brotherhood fish fry at the rear of the First Baptist Church here last Thursday night.

Officers who have served the two-county brotherhood for the past year were re-elected for a second term. They include Tommy Harper, Munday implement dealer, president; J. C. Yeary, Haskell soil conservation service supervisor, vice president; and Walter Counts, Rule bread salesman, secretary.

Claude Norman, longtime

TOMMY HARPER

Rule choral director, was re-elected song leader. Other key committee assignments for the coming year will be announced soon by the officers of the associational brotherhood.

Ned Burch, young Baptist ministerial student from California, a music and educational director in the church before undertaking the challenge of the evening, serving up an ample "helping" of spiritual food for thought to supplement the sumptuous supper of fish prepared by men of the churches.

Burch who has been in Haskell on special assignment and soon will return to California, set the mood for his remarks which followed with a stirring solo before the outdoor audience. "How Great Thou Art."

Dr. Ray Nobles, pastor of the First Baptist Church here, served as official host to the gathering of laymen.

PAINT CREEK ... COMMUNITY NEWS

BY MRS. GENE OVERTON

It has been so long since we have had any community news, this may be more like Paint Creek history than news. But if you other Paint Creekers are like we are, it has been a very busy summer. First we have had practically wall-to-wall company all summer, and then the big rain (we really did have one in early June) put farming all out of kilter. First we drained the fields, then we planted over, then we plowed around where it was dry enough, then we planted over, then we have hoed ever since. Most Paint Creek farmers are still hoeing, although some have laid by, and are ready to go fishing.

It has been such a good summer though, and nobody in the community has been real sick, and so we can't complain.

Mrs. Lee Medford moved from her home in front of the Paint Creek school to make her home at the Stamford Inn. She has not been very well and her children felt she should be where she could have professional care. Her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Moody and her husband have moved to her home.

Attending the "Ray Overton Appreciation" ice cream supper at the Haskell Park were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Overton Sr., Mr. and Mrs. George Free, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Overton, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Overton, Mr. and Mrs. James Raughton and children, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Isbell.

Attending summer church camps this summer have been Kay and Marcia Overton, to Camp Butman Junior Methodist camp the 4th week in June; Janice and Jeannine Isbell to Camp Butman Methodist Intermediate camp the 3rd week of June; Linda and Brenda Griffith, Phyllis Middlebrook, Janay Morrison, Shirley Gibbs and Vicki Morrison were in G. A. Camp at Leuders June 29th to July 3rd. Terri Walton and Wanda Griffith attended G. A. Camp at Leuders the following week. Mrs. Morris Haynes went as sponsor and Mrs. Dale Middlebrook, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Mickler had as houseguests their son, Robert Mickler, his wife and daughters of the W. S. Cole Ranch at Vincent, their daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Williams and daughters of Lubbock.

William Overton completed his basic training in National Guard at Fort Polk July 9, and spent the weekend at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton, Mike and Wallar. He left for North Texas State University in Denton to continue his work on his M. A. degree on Monday, July 13th.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Haynes over the 4th were their sons, Airman 1st Class William Haynes and his bride, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Haynes Jr. and children of Fort Worth. Also the parents of Mrs. William Haynes. They all attended the Stamford Cowboy Reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Coleman had as their guests their son, Sonny Coleman, Mrs. Coleman and their three sons.

Danny Isbell, Danny Ivy, Curtis Bittner and Mr. Willie Lee Medford are in San Antonio this week attending the State FFA Convention.

Mrs. Paul Fischer and Mrs. Gene Overton attended the meeting of the Haskell County Hospital Auxiliary last Wednesday at the Community Room of the Haskell National Bank.

Paulette Fischer left Friday for Crane where she will join Mr. and Mrs. Chaffin and go to Lake Buchanan for a week's fishing and skiing. Mrs. Fischer and Clara Ann took her to the bus in Abilene.

Mrs. Ira Coleman has been a patient in the Stamford Memorial Hospital this past week where she underwent minor surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Griffith of Benjamin spent several days visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Coleman and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Griffith and daughters.

Soon fall gardens will be planted. There are several precautions one can take to prevent the invasion of insects on the new plants.

Sabadilla dust used at two-week intervals will prove very effective against squash bugs. Mr. Walter Childress used to sell great quantities of squash each year. His one and only insecticide was Sabadilla dust. He says to start dusting when

Milla Perry is spending this week at Glorieta, N. M., in camp. She made the trip with Mrs. Frank Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Brazzel and family have returned from their vacation to Carlsbad Caverns, Six Flags of Texas, and Fort Worth Mike and Ricky stayed in Fort Worth for a week's visit, and Mrs. Brazzel's sister's children, Shirley and Linda Grey, came home with the Brazzels for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Gibson of Itasca spent a few days last week with Mr. Gibson's cousin, Howard Montgomery and Mrs. Montgomery.

Johnny Paul, April and Scottie Montgomery of Midland are spending the week with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Howard Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. Woodroe Smith.

the plant is two to four inches high, then regularly every two weeks.

Nicotine in several forms may be used to keep plant lice from turning, mustard, or cantaloupe. Tobacco dust or snuff dusted on wet leaves discourages aphids and army worms. These dusts can usually be found at nurseries and seed houses, or the grocery store. Black Leaf 40 is another form of nicotine, and can be sprayed on vegetables up to a week or two before they are ready to eat.

There is one precaution in using any insecticide; be sure to wash vegetables thoroughly through several waters before cooking them.

Nicotine is good to use on flowers and discourages dogs from sleeping in the flower beds.

If snuff or tobacco dust is used, either sprinkle it on the plants when the dew is still sparkling, or spray the plants with water before dusting.

Spider mites that invade so many flowers all year through, can be controlled by dusting the ground under the plants with sulphur. Then use a strong spray of water washing the tiny pests off onto the sulphur.

It is better to put the sulphur on the ground, than on the plants, for spider mites usually make their appearance during very hot weather, and sulphur dusted on the foliage has a tendency to burn and curl the leaves.

The presence of spider mites can be detected by dusting the ground under the plants with sulphur. Then use a strong spray of water washing the tiny pests off onto the sulphur.

Hand picking is an effective method of control. If the infestation is large methoxychlor is large methoxychlor. There are no market that control

Their offer vs. Our offer

If their tire fails when it's this worn, all other major tire brands will only allow you a few dollars toward a new tire. (You still have to pay about $15 more.)

Don't take our word for it. Read the small print in the guarantee at the bottom of practically every tire ad. You'll find a paragraph that says something like this: "In the event of tire failure covered by the guarantee, tire will be pro-rated, based on the amount of original tread remaining."

English translation: If the tire fails, you'll get a partial allowance toward a new tire, depending on how much tread is left. For instance, the tire in the picture has 1/4" of tread left.

If it should fail at this point (which means you'd already have gotten about 80% of the wear out of the tire), you'd only be entitled to a small allowance. On a major-brand first line tire, in Chevrolet, Ford or Plymouth sizes, you'd still have to pay an additional $15 or so.

This is the standard "life of the tire" guarantee made by practically every manufacturer in the industry, including U.S. Royal.

Now compare this with the Special Introductory Offer described at the right.

If our tire fails when it's this worn, U.S. Royal will replace it with a brand new tire free.

U.S. Royal has developed a tire construction that's so strong, and so unlikely to fail, they can make this unheard-of Special Introductory Offer: If the tire fails for any reason, except a repairable puncture or deliberate abuse, U.S. Royal will replace it with a brand new tire, free of charge.

This offer applies all the way down to the last 1/4" of original tread. (And if you want to see just how far down 1/4" of tread is, look at the picture.)

It doesn't matter how long you own the tire. And it doesn't matter how many miles you've driven. What's more, road hazards such as chuck holes or broken glass are included in the offer. It covers these tires: The U.S. Royal first-line tire (Safety 800) The tiger's paw (Red-circle Super Safety 800) The U.S. Royal premium tire (Red-circle Royal Master)

This Special Introductory Offer applies to passenger car replacement tires purchased and registered between now and August 15th. And there's no catch.

Prices start as low as $14.88
6.50x13 Black Tubeless Safety 800, plus tax, exchange

By AL HINDS

Had you ever thought how necessary, essential and important it is to "Consider the Opinions of Others?" The great John Wesley long, long ago had this to say about this matter: "Suffer not one thought of separation from your brethren, whether their opinions agree with yours or not. Do not dream that any man sins in not taking your word, or that this, or that opinion, is essential to the work and both must stand, or fall together. Beware of impatience of contradiction. Do not condemn or think hardly of those who cannot see just as you see, or who judge it their duty to contradict you, whether in a great thing or a small. I fear some of us have thought hardly of others merely because they contradict what we affirmed. All this tends to division, and, by everything of this kind, we are teaching them an evil lesson against ourselves."

From the Jaycee Jumble: "It's not my job to run the train, the whistle I can't blow. It's not my job to say how far the train is allowed to go. It's not my job to shoot off steam, or even ring the bell. But just let the train jump the track, then see who catches hell!"

This new sign adorns the office of Steve Stephens at M-System: "Sympathy is never wasted, except on yourself."

Despite educational programs, it appears Texans are the greatest litterbugs of all. If you doubt this, the next time you take a trip... just notice the empty beer cans and bottles alongside the highways.

The topless bathing suits have brought quite a bit of comment from a number of columnists... but not much has been said about Britain's new shock frock... the chestless dress which is selling at a fast pace in England. With the new topless bathing suits and chestless dress... it looks as if the women will have to grin and bear it.

"Ingenu" magazine reports that two teen-agers can have a great time at the New York Worlds Fair. The money will buy two admissions, and hot dogs and soft drinks. For the exciting time, it is suggested that the teens take in all the free things. This sounds like good publicity, but I had still rather rely on what Dr. William Kemp said at Lions club recently... "If you are going to the World's Fair you had better get a world loan." "Doc" oughta' know, 'cause he's been there.

From the way "Doc" talked, after attending the World's Fair, his pocketbook was flatter than some of the flap-jacks he cooked at the Lions Pancake supper.

One thing for sure... this 'ol country boy, Prattle, ain't a-goin' to drive his jalopy in that eastern traffic again. A few years back the Prattle family was involved in a wreck near Baltimore, Maryland, and found out then that them dem Easterners will run slap-dab over you. Anyway, I still prefer "Six Flags."

This one comes from Victor Sanchez Jr., out at Woodard Farms Supply. "The reason Adam and Eve thought they were Russians was because they had nothing to wear, no place to go, and only one apple to eat."

Just for the Records: Uncle Sam's nieces and nephews consumed 30 million hot dogs July 4th, so it must have been a grand and glorious Fourth of July.

Sounds as if someone besides this scribbler might be "cracking up." The other day down at the Personality Shoppe, Opal Adkins was talking over the telephone, and at the end of the conversation I heard her say: "You come back." See what force of habit will do.

To scratch, or not to scratch...

... that is the question. It is ill mannered to scratch... I have been told, so I was glad to learn about a meeting of the American Medical Association's section of dermatology in California recently at which Dr. Samuel Ayres Jr. presented the latest facts for advanced scratching.

Dr. Ayres said there still remain a few situations in which scratching, when properly carried out, constitutes an effective ready-to-hand modality for securing proper relief from itching which the patient must be permitted to do for himself, at least until the doctor arrives. Dr. Ayres went on to say that science doesn't know why yet, but there's a difference between itching skin (a mosquito bite or a histamine wheal) and itchy skin surrounding it. In this sort of situation, one may obtain a pleasurable relief by scratching without painful consequences, or the setting up of a vicious cycle.

In other words to make a long story short... the next time you itch... go ahead and scratch!

Vance Abeldt was telling me about an undertaker who bought a new hearse and people were just dying to ride in it.

Mary Jo Leverett

Judge Alvis declared Fern Holde, of Vernon, district home demonstration agent, is expected to confer soon with Judge Alvis and the Commissioner's Court on the naming of a successor to Mrs. Leverett's vacated post.

Mrs. Leverett literally "came out of retirement" to accept the challenge of the position here a year ago when Barbara McAnelly, the previous Haskell County HD agent, left to take a similar post at Breckenridge. The Old Glory school superintendent's wife had wide experience as an agent in former years.

New Four-H girls' clubs, some 14 of them, were organized under Mrs. Leverett's supervision and a new peak of interest among adult leaders in the program, and in home demonstration work in general, has been kindled under her direction.

Participation in both the 4-H and home demonstration programs has reached new heights in the past 10 months in Haskell County, according to records furnished officials here.

The membership of the Haskell County Home Demonstration Council, comprised of representatives from each home demonstration club in the county, also expressed regret over Mrs. Leverett's departure.

piece silver service was inscribed: "To Ray Overton Jr., from the Haskell Booster Club in Appreciation for 15 Years of Dedicated Service." To which Harris added, "in the realm of producing fine athletes and good sports, being one himself and building character among young men."

Overton, who was visibly overwhelmed by the outward display of affection demonstrated by his fellow townsmen, said the decision to leave Haskell (he is a native) was "the toughest of my life." He declared he'd rather play District 6AA arch-rival Stamford in the torrid "little Southwest Conference," which this district has been nicknamed, "every Friday night than go through what I have lately in getting ready to leave."

Lions Club Views Film, "Mission Of Discovery"

Hugh Ratliff, program chairman for the day, showed a very timely film, "A Mission of Discovery," at a Tuesday noon luncheon meeting of Lions. The film presented by "The Peace Corps" showed volunteer Peace Corps workers in action, and pointed out the importance and need of this type of service.

Peace Corps workers "ask not what their country can do for them, but what they can do for their country," thus emphasizing in action those famous words of the late president of these United States, John F. Kennedy.

Vice President Rogers Durham, presided at the meeting, in the absence of the president, Frank Martin.

ferred until other interested parties, among them J. H. Strain, Haskell resident and prominent roadbuilder, might be present to counsel with city officials here on the most feasible means of accomplishing the job.

The airstrip matter will be called to the Council's attention again more thoroughly at an early date. Mayor Walling declared.

The Haskell Mayor also said City Secretary T. J. Arbuclle is expected to present the annual audit for the evaluation of the City Council here, probably at its next meeting, Tuesday, July 28.

Orrs In Heather

Clubhouse from 5 to 7 p. m.

A week from now, about August 1st, after all the proper credentials and licensing are completed, George Orr, M. D., native of Arden, Scotland, will hang out his shingle as a practicing physician at the Rule, Texas Clinic.

Orr, friendly, freckled, and fastidious, and his dainty, diminutive, and demure wife, both of unmistakable Scotch-weave, already have won their ways into the hearts of area residents who will be their neighbors.

One of the first to espouse their arrival was Rev. Douglas Finch, who serves not only the First Presbyterian Church of Haskell, but also the First Presbyterian Church of Rule. Rev. Finch's Rule church membership soared some 10 per cent with the Orrs' placing of their letter, both of them being Scotch Presbyterians. They had him imitating their Scottish brogue in no time at all. But the odds are it will be they who will pick up a West Texas twang ere long.

Presbyterian backgrounds of Moreg Christi and George Orr are deeply ingrained in both. Her father is Clerk of Sessions in her home church in Scotland. The Orrs had the marital knot tied on April 4 of this year in the Presbyterian church at Moulton, Kirk, Scotland.

After attending what he termed "junior schools," in his native Arden, Scotland, Rule's new doctor did undergraduate work at George Watson College, in Edinburgh, and obtained his medical degree at the University of Edinburgh. He also studied at Lycee V. Henri Quatre, in Paris. He served internships in this country at Franklin Square Hospital, Baltimore, Md., and specialized in obstetrics and pediatrics in Edinburgh, practicing there for a time before making his decision in favor of West Texas.

Dr. Orr's experience, at the age of 29, also includes two years in the national service of Great Britain, in which he was on detached duty as a medical officer with the Sultan's Army in Arabia at the city of Muscat in the state of Oman. He served during "the conflagration" involving the Yemens and protecting the oil rights and properties of Great Britain.

Moreg, asked long about tea time, if she missed this pause that refreshes all Britons, her answer was, "Not really. The coffee is briak."

This seemed to sum up the "conforming" attitude, even to independent West Texan style, of Rule's Scotland-born newest citizens.

Evidently referring to the "American cousin" relationship, the smile-wreathed countenances of Moreg and George Orr appeared to punctuate with an exclamation point the expression, "We're birds of a feather, and we are 'reaaly' in the heather here."

ANOTHER LAUREL ADDED AT SNYDER NEXT STOP ARCHER CITY FOR TROPHY WINNING 'POSSE' HERE

Haskell's colorful Sheriff's Posse, renowned riding club, winners of seven trophies in rodeo parade rides this season, the last one the top award at Scurry County's 28th annual rodeo parade in Snyder last Wednesday, has been busy this week grooming mounts and polishing gear for an appearance at the Archer City Rodeo's opening festivities this afternoon.

The scarlet-shirted, palomino perched, self-styled "Saddle Tramps" here, whose head wranglers are Jetty V. Clare, president, and C. O. Holt, secretary, accumulated more hardware to add to their collection now totaling more than 30 cups and plaques, by receiving the nod of the judges over eight other entries for first-place honors at Snyder. The Fisher and Lynn County Sheriff's Posse were second and third place winners, respectively.

The Snyder win was the Haskell riding club's fourth first-place trophy this rodeo season. It has finished "in the money" three other times, with two seconds and a third. The Haskell Sheriff's Posse, which captured two trophies last year at the New Mexico State Fair in Albuquerque, one of them, for being the riding club which traveled the farthest distance to compete, has voted to make the New Mexico junket again this year, President Clare announced Thursday.

Date of the mass overland movement of the Haskellites via automobile and horse-laden trailer to Albuquerque will be September 19.

The riding club here hopes to be at peak strength, with some 25 horses and riders, for the New Mexico appearance. Coincident with activities of the famed riding club here, some 35 people, including members and their wives and guests, were feted by the immediate past president of the Sheriff's Posse, Gene Hunter, and wife, with a bountiful buffet supper here Monday night. The enjoyable event was held on the patio and lawn of the Hunter home.

AT BALL PARK EXHIBITION—FLO ZIEGFELD WOULD CALL IT FOLLY... BUT NEVER "FOLLIES"

In the most "route order" and riotous exhibition (plus) ever held in Little League Park here, one team, it was difficult to determine which, was ahead of another 9-7 after a four inning affray that at times resembled a baseball game last Friday night.

The "incident," "brawl," "fracas," "melée," "scrap" or by any other name would smell as odorous, was the match between the major and minor Little League managers, garbed as gals, and actual fractious with the Little League Auxiliary members "calling" (oh, brother!) the "game."

Feminine charm in men's torsos ran amok all over the diamond, and the obvious outcome, a free-for-all, ensued.

It was all part of the act, hilariously unrehearsed, which sent at least 750 fans, a tremendous turnout, into stitches of glee.

For security (our own) reasons, no attempt will be made here to single out the "stars" of this exhibition to end all exhibitions. There was an entire firmament of them, all candidates for Ziegfeld's Follies, no less.

Little League officialdom, both the men and the ladies auxiliary, has asked that the citizenship of Haskell be thanked most sincerely for the unprecedented support of the venture, which added an appreciable quantity of shekels to the league coffers.

Cub Scout Pack Schedules A Campout Aug. 22

August 22, a date late in the waning vacation season for schoolboys, will be a banner one for the Cub Scouts of Haskell. Pack 36 when a swim-and supper session for the pack members and their families will be followed by an all-night campout for the boys and their Dads. Cubmaster E. W. (Pluto) Pruett has announced.

The activity that evening and night will be centered around Rice Springs Park here. Taking part in the mid-summer Cub Scout family night supper and awards ceremony at the park here last Saturday night were Cub Scouts Vernon Pruett, Danny Smith, Mike Warren, Brent Clifton, James McCoy, David Dodson, Forrest Mayfield, Gary Black, and Terry Hutson, and members of their families.

CARD OF THANKS

We want to take this opportunity to thank our many friends, relatives and dear, sweet neighbors for the beautiful flowers, the gifts and the many messages of encouragement and best wishes for my recovery, and the bountiful bowls of deliciously prepared food that friends and neighbors have brought to our home, and may we express appreciation for the thoughtful attention of the ladies of the First Baptist Church and our minister Dr. Ray Nobles. Our gratitude also is expressed to our many friends and relatives in Fort Worth who took such good care of me while Alvis returned home to his job, to our son, Gerald Bird, who is stationed at the missile base in Denton for his many visits to see us while in the hospital. ## Witnesses Here Plan To Attend Austin Sessions

Wallace Wright, minister of Jehovah's Witnesses here, will lead a group of Haskell residents to a four-day "Fruitage of the Spirit" district assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Austin beginning July 23.

Wright will be one of some 1800 volunteer workers at the Austin session. As presiding minister here, Wright has appealed to the Haskell congregation for help specifically needed in some 30 different skills and trades to operate the Austin assembly. These range from cafeteria workers and lift-hoist operators to doctors and sound technicians. The 1800 volunteers, he said, will comprise the "working nucleus" for an assembly of some 10,000 persons expected to throng Austin's Municipal Auditorium.

There will be a total of 22 convention departments serving Jehovah's Witnesses from 15 states, Canada, and Mexico in the Austin meeting.

Wayne Reeves Is At Baseball Camp In Dallas

Wayne Reeves, 11-year-old son of Haskell County Clerk and Mrs. W. W. (Bill) Reeves, has been accepted for admission to the Big State Baseball Training Camp now being taught on the campus of the University of Dallas at Irving.

Young Reeves has reported to the three-week baseball camp along with 85 other young hopefuls from all over the nation, plus one Canadian youth. The school is being taught by long-time baseball coach and scout, Johnny Carrigan.

An interesting sidelight to Wayne's baseball activity was related here Monday. When he hit his first home run in the Haskell Little League season just ended, young Reeves carefully packaged the cherished horseshoe and sent it to a favorite uncle and known baseball fan, Truett Reeves, a Haskell native, now of Pomona, Calif.

So impressed was the uncle with his nephew's generosity, he took the same ball to Los Angeles Angel - Chicago White Sox American League ball game in L.A., obtained 10 autographs on it, and returned the revered souvenir to Wayne in Haskell.
