Voting locations open until 7 p.m.

Registered voters in Scurry County have until 7 o'clock this evening to cast their ballots in the statewide constitutional amendments election.

Polls opened at four locations at 7 a.m.

The location of the precincts are as follows:

- Precinct 1, Boxes 14, 15 and 16: Scurry County Health Unit.
- Precinct 2, Boxes 5, 6, 17 and 18: Scurry County Library.
- Precinct 3, Boxes 7, 8, 9 and 19: Towle Park Barn.
- Precinct 4, Boxes 10, 11, 12 and 13: Senior Citizens Center.

The election date is nation-wide in scope, but the only decisions pertaining to Scurry County voters will be the 21 proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution.

Council honors employee, accepts bid for police cars

City Councilmen Monday night approved a low bid of $45,992 from Wilson Motors for the purchase of four new police cars and recognized city finance director Jeanne B. Johnson, who received a national award for the third straight year.

The Wilson Motors bid included total trade-ins of $10,600 and is for the delivery of four new Fords, with City Manager John Gayle saying service has been "very satisfactory" on the Ford patrol cars the police department has been using.

Three police cars have been heavily damaged in two emergency situations in recent months, and the purchases were needed in part to replace damaged vehicles.

Other action in the 45-minute meeting included approval of two other bids, one for $5,501 from West Texas Service Station of Abilene for a Gasboy Series 1000 computerized fuel system for the city barn and one for $1,000 from Southwestern Equipment Co. of Lubbock for the sale of two used trash truck compaction bodies.

For the third straight year, Johnson was awarded the Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting from the Government Finance Officers Association of Chicago, Ill. — the organization's highest award.

Local files postal suit

A former United States Postal Service employee in Snyder filed suit in federal district court in Lubbock to seek reinstatement to the job from which she was fired last year.

Laura G. Powell, 37, of Snyder is seeking reinstatement, back pay and compensatory and punitive damages, claiming that she was fired on Aug. 25, 1988, on the 58th day of her 90-day probationary employment period because she was overweight.

Lubbock attorney Kevin Glasheen filed the suit, alleging harassment on the basis of Powell's sex, because no such standards were applied to male employees.

Named as defendants are Postmaster Charles Thornton, supervisor Bobby McLeod and the national postmaster general.

Miss Snyder candidate...

Jodie Kay Brownd

Jodie Kay Brownd, 17, is one of six candidates currently entered in the Miss Snyder Pageant, scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 11, at Worsham Auditorium.

Brownd is the daughter of Jackie and Judy Brownd of Monahans. Jodie is the sister of 20-year-old Julie Brownd, who is also entered in the pageant.

Jodie is a graduate of Monahans High School and freshman at Texas Tech University, majoring in communications.

Her hobbies include gymnastics, cheerleading, singing, dancing and modeling.

Brownd was "Miss Congeniality" at the 1989 Miss West Texas Pageant. She was a first place winner in a city talent show, and in a regional modeling competition as well as a second place winner in an area talent competition. She was first place talent winner in the Kids of America Pageant.

Other accolades include being a UIL poetry and prose award winner and being named Girl of the Year by ATPE, a teacher's

One for attempted murder...

Grand jury indicts 12

County grand jurors returned 12 indictments against eight people Monday, including true bills against a Roscoe man in the shooting of three people here Oct. 22 and a Snyder woman in the Oct. 21 death of a 6-year-old girl who was hit by a car.

Einesio R. "Pete" Rivera, 26, was indicted for two counts of attempted murder in the .22-caliber rifle shootings of James and Melody Middleton of Pampa and one count of aggravated assault in the shooting of Larry Barkley of 1301 23rd St.

All three victims were wounded in Barkley's front yard in the early morning hours of Oct. 22, and Melody Middleton and Barkley were hospitalized in serious condition at a Lubbock hospital for several days afterward.

Tammy L. Cordova, 23, of 513 32nd St. was indicted for criminally negligent homicide in connection with an Oct. 20 accident in the 800 Block of 23rd St. in which the 1976 Oldsmobile she was driving hit and fatally injured 6-year-old Melissa A. Kenner of 2301 Ave. H, who died early the next morning at a Lubbock hospital.

Police had impounded the car to determine if its brakes were faulty.

Criminally negligent homicide is a Class A misdemeanor, carrying maximum penalties of a year in jail and a $2,000 fine, and the case will be adjudicated in county court.

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Lying about people annoys people. But telling the truth sometimes irritates 'em a lot more."

Jim Wadleigh, retired owner of Wadleigh Construction Co., currently is battling health problems. Jim spends most of his time at home, but he still has that energy that was so evident in his building construction business.

Jim now reads a lot and watches a bunch of TV. When we saw him recently, he had just watched Jim Bakker and ZaZa Gabor get sentenced, and Jim mused that the worst punishment might be locking the pair up in the same cell.

Jim also told us about how he got to Snyder. A native of Denver, Jim had worked a while in Indiana and headed out for Amarillo. Starting out with $12 in his pocket, he ended up with $4 when he reached Scurry County.

We were repeating that story to Wadleigh's long-time friend, E.D. Walton, who panned, "Yep, and Jim's still got three of those dollars."

Thrift as a way of life was natural for Wadleigh, whose mother participated in the war effort by patriotic service at home.

Wadleigh recently was going through the personal things of his mother, Mrs. C.A. Wadleigh of Aurora, Colo., and ran across a government pamphlet entitled "War Cook Book," printed in 1917. The effort was aimed at saving food and eliminating waste to assist in the war effort. The book reminded that women controlled "nineteenths of the consumption of food."

It directed, in the spring when the stock of potatoes runs low, to eat rice. "When the potato crop is harvested, eat potatoes, the rice is wanted for the army."

Other suggestions included two wheatless days each week and one wheatless meal per day. It also suggested one meatless day per week and one meatless meal each day.

"Be contented with simple food, simple pleasures, simple clothes. Work hard, pray hard, play word. Work, eat, recreate and sleep...we all have a victory to win."

In addition to chapters on food saving schedules, there were sections on the use of leftovers. Jim plans to give the book to the museum unless somebody has a better idea.

Q—What is the absentee voting period for the upcoming roll-back election?

A—Absentee voting will take place Jan. 1 through Jan. 16. The roll-back election is set for Jan. 20.

Appraisal

Scurry County Appraisal District Board of Directors are expected to appoint an agricultural advisory board at a 7 p.m. meeting today.

Also, the district is required to solicit bank depository bids every two years, and directors will discuss the action to be taken on this matter. Another mandatory requirement for the district is an audit. Reports on the audit performed on Hermligh and Ira collections will be available at the meeting.

A report explaining October's collections and dispersals will also be available for directors to discuss. They will also discuss accounts payable for the month.

Grid contest

David Hinojos of 1301 Ave. R won the first place $50 in last week's SDN Football Contest. Both he and the second place winner had two misses. The third place winner missed three games and was determined using the tie-breaker score.

Jeff Reed of 3412 44th won the second place $25, and Nell Kidd of 2901 Denison won the third place $15.

Another contest appears on page 10 of today's issue.

Union, Lantos assail Phillip's use of cheaper contract labor

WASHINGTON (AP) — The chairman of a House committee investigating a deadly explosion at the Phillips Petroleum Co.'s petrochemical complex on the Houston Ship Channel is questioning the use of sub-contractor maintenance crews instead of regular employees.

Rep. Tom Lantos, the chairman of the House Government Operations subcommittee on employment and housing, said use of cheaper contract labor may involve safety tradeoffs and lead to tragedy.

"We are dealing with complexities of enormous potential danger ... and instead of trying to build a stable workforce under one management, providing them with uniform procedures of training, evacuation, safety, etc., you're sort of pulling in people through contracting outfits at a dollar savings, but potentially at a very high cost in human lives," Lantos said Monday.

"You're not dealing here with a catering operation," said Lantos, D-Calif. "We are dealing with life-threatening materials in enormous quantities."

Lantos' committee is investigating the Oct. 23 explosion at Phillips' Pasadena plant, which left 19 dead and four missing and presumed dead. More than 100 others were injured, and six remain hospitalized.

Officials of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers International Union blamed the explosion in part on Phillips' practice of using sub-contractor maintenance crews.

"We believe the evidence will show that this catastrophe was a disaster waiting to happen," said union vice president Robert E. Wages.

Wages told the panel that the fire and explosion, which sent debris hurtling as far as six miles and broke thousands of windows throughout the community, portends even greater disasters to come.

"On the day of the catastrophic release (of a cloud of gas ignited by an unknown source) it has been reported that the subcontractor crew was 'unfamiliar' to a regular employee. Another regular employee reported that one member of the Fish crew was unable to speak English," Wages testified.

Wages said Fish Engineering and Construction has been the primary maintenance sub-contractor at Phillips' Houston Chemical Complex for several years, employing 225 workers to supplement about 145 maintenance craftsmen employed directly by Phillips.

Wages said the Fish sub-contract workers earn about 65 percent of a Phillips worker's wages.

Glenn A. Cox, president and chief operating officer of the Bartlesville, Okla.-based company, said the facts of the accident "speak very clearly" to the question of how Phillips staffs its plants.

"One of the key questions we have to address is how in fact work is assigned — who does work — to make certain there is not a compromise in safety in these facilities," Cox said.

Cox said qualified contractors, however, do have a role in the chemical plants. He said the company's review of the accident would include an examination of the labor mix.

Wages said a preliminary investigation has identified two other primary factors in the Phillips' explosion — an inadequate maintenance "lock-out" policy during work on live systems, and an "inherently flawed reactor design."

Other factors, he said, include pressure to keep up production rates, a flawed alarm and evacuation program, and inadequate enforcement by the Occupational Safety and Health Administration.

Fed, state officials seize private records

BEAUMONT, Texas (AP) — The records of private home health care services in four Texas cities have been seized as part of a Medicaid and Medicare investigation, an FBI spokesman says.

Ron Kelly, FBI special agent in charge at Beaumont said Monday records of Beaumont Home Health Care Services Inc., Port Arthur Home Health Care Services, Crossroads Home Health Care Services Inc. of Victoria and Wichita Home Health Care Services Inc. of Wichita Falls were seized.

Agents also seized records of Ruth Constant, owner of the four services, at her office in Victoria last Thursday.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Debra Carr said records seized last Thursday will be reviewed to determine whether "there is evidence of fraud."

The health care service provides visiting nurses to home-bound patients. Ms. Constant said the seizure of records will not affect services.

"We have never had any problems with the Medicare program," Ms. Constant said. "We have nothing to hide. In fact, we welcome the investigation."

Investigators with the state Attorney General's office of Medicaid and Medicare fraud and the U.S. Department of Human Services' Inspector General office assisted in confiscating the records, Kelly said.

The case will be handled in the Eastern District of Texas in Beaumont, but Kelly said he could not give specifics.

Ms. Constant told the Beaumont Enterprise Monday that the FBI investigation may part of another investigation by the Beaumont Police Department's criminal fraud division.

A worker with Beaumont Home Health Care was terminated in July after a large amount of money could not be accounted for, Ms. Constant said.

"I reported the missing funds to the proper authorities ... police, the Medicare and Medicaid officials, but I didn't know about the FBI," Ms. Constant said.

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Why is it necessary to have blood liver testing every six weeks for the first year of taking Mevacor, and every six months thereafter? Is there an exception to this?

DEAR READER: Mevacor (Lovastatin) is a drug that lowers serum cholesterol. It is very useful in patients whose high cholesterol levels do not respond to a low-cholesterol diet.

In some patients, Mevacor causes liver inflammation. This does not produce symptoms and is diagnosed only by a blood test for liver enzymes. Although no studies have shown permanent liver damage from this reaction, the manufacturer recommends discontinuing Mevacor if the blood tests indicate liver inflammation.

The reaction tends to appear during the first year of therapy; therefore, blood tests are advised every six weeks for the first year of treatment, and "periodically" thereafter. (The manufacturer does not specify every six months. This leaves the precise frequency to the discretion of the patient's private physician.)

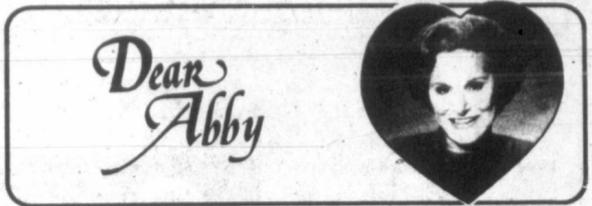

Since the manufacturer reports that liver inflammation occurs in only 2 percent of patients on Mevacor, the blood test recommendation is clearly conservative. Your doctor can best judge if your blood tests can be omitted.

To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report "Understanding Cholesterol." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1.25 with their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I get an upset stomach, dizzy spells and headaches when I read in a moving car. Can you explain why?

DEAR READER: You are experiencing motion sickness. This is due to stimulation of the balance mechanisms in your inner ears by the car's motion. Don't read in a moving vehicle; concentrating on close objects while you are in motion will make matters worse.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I'm experiencing light flashes in one eye, and my ophthalmologist says the vitreous is pulling away from the retina. What are the long-term problems? I was told this is part of the aging process, yet I'm 61 and don't feel old at all. I've

Truth About Drinking Wine Is Subject to Different Opinions

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1989 Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: I was very disappointed in your reply to "Cherie Morrison" regarding the benefits of moderate wine consumption. What you presented in your reply was not "the truth" (as you claimed), but rather a selected opinion of the results of some study.

For every expert opinion or study that you can cite to support your "truth," I can provide an opinion of a respected medical professional or a "study" asserting the opposite view.

The truth, Abby, is that there is substantial medical evidence that wine is healthful if taken in moderation. Even the most pessimistic interpretation of what is known about the consumption of wine would conclude that wine in moderation is not harmful to most individuals, and may indeed be beneficial.

You commit a grave journalistic sin, Miss Van Buren, when you confuse "opinion" with "the truth."

woman who had a scar on her wrist from having a ganglion tumor surgically removed: She became angry when, during a routine physical, a new doctor asked her if she had attempted suicide. Instead of being angry, she should have thanked that doctor for his loving concern.

During my entire junior year in high school, I had fresh gashes on my wrists. I was depressed over the loss of a friend and confused about my identity. Having been adopted, I wondered why my birth mother had thrown me away.

My band teacher, who positioned my hands on the flute, pretended not to notice the cuts on my wrists. My mother accused me of injecting drugs. My English teacher never asked me why all my compositions were about death and suicide. My chemistry teacher never noticed that I had lists of poisons on my notebooks.

Finally, some good, caring friends took me to a counselor who backed me into a corner and yelled, "What is wrong with you?"

To make a long story short, I was sent to an adolescent psychiatric facility, put in a padded cell and tested. They found that I had a biochemical imbalance. I was treated with anti-depressant drugs and psychotherapy, which partially solved my problem.

The point I really want to make is this: All the signs were there to read, but nobody wanted to read them.

Thanks, Abby, for letting me "talk" to you. I feel better now. Sign me ...

DEAR MR. KRONMAN: I have no problem with the consumption of wine if used in moderation. It's the abuse of wine I take exception to.

DEAR ABBY: Regarding the wishes of the woman who wanted to be buried next to her mother: She should put her wishes in writing in her will, so when the time comes, there will be no question about it.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) Conditions continue to look hopeful regarding the arrangements you have with others for mutual material interests. Keep moving along your present courses.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Lady Luck will be doing her best today to see that everything lives up to your expectations. Don't lower your standards, even if persons with whom you're involved advise you to do so.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) When you least expect it today something advantageous may develop that will please you. It could result in adding to your possessions a collectible of value.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) It doesn't look like you'll be bored by today's events. Friends with whom you are presently involved may come up with some exciting ideas in which you'll take an active participation.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Your ingenuity and resourcefulness can be put to advantageous uses today, especially where your work or career are concerned. Don't be afraid to take a calculated risk if necessary.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Situations where you can exercise your leadership will be the ones to which you'll be best suited today. Your peers will recognize this as well and let you have your way.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Things you do for or with your family could turn out to be extremely gratifying today. Let the desires of your loved ones supersede your own.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) The more people with whom you come in contact today, the better you're apt to like it. If you don't have any plans that correspond to this, make some that will enable you to share time with others.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Competition will serve to stimulate your more ingenious qualities today, especially if you're competing for something of material value. The power of positive thinking will give you an edge.

By James Jacoby

British expert Sally Horton and her husband Mark defended carefully to defeat today's part-score contract of two hearts. Some players might have bid two diamonds over one heart with the West cards, but Sally took a conservative approach because of unfavorable vulnerability. On a different auction, North might have bid more, but South would have jumped in hearts with 9 or 10 points after a takeout double, and the queen of diamonds was likely a worthless card, so North simply raised to the two-level.

After K-A of diamonds, with East signaling a doubleton, West continued with the diamond jack. South made a sensible play, discarding a low club from dummy. East played the jack of clubs, showing strength. Sally knew that the jack of clubs denied the queen. (With Q-J-10, East would play the queen.) So East must hold the club king. Armed with that knowledge, West led the nine of clubs. East won the king of clubs and returned a club. Sally took the ace of clubs. The defenders had five tricks. A fourth diamond was now played. Declarer discarded a spade from dummy, East ruffed with the 10 of hearts, and West's holding of J-8-6 was promoted to the setting trick. A nice defense, but it would not have been possible without the underlead of the ace of clubs.

Vivace music club begins season

Vivace Jr. Music Club had a "Back in the Saddle Barbecue" at its first meeting Sept. 23 in the home of Karomy Drum of Fluvanna.

Programs and activities for the year were highlighted with the evening entertainment by Ken Gartmen. Parents and club members were introduced.

Vivace will co-sponsor some activities with Musical Coterie this year. Both clubs are affiliated with Texas and National Federation of Music Club, which sponsors the TFMC Festival at Texas Tech in the spring. Sponsors of the club are Wayne and Lynn Bethel.

Robin and Sterling Cave will host the Nov. 19 program entitled "Best of Disney." Vivace Club has participated in White Buffalo Days and a joint piano concert with Musical Coterie.

Laura Hamby represented the club Oct. 29 in Seminole at the District 2 TFMC Convention playing a piano solo entitled "New Orleans Blues," by Gillock.

Officers of the club are Andrea Helm, president; Jason Warren, vice president; Brooke Kubena, secretary; Kasi Campbell, treasurer; Emily Zeck, spirit leader; Karomy Drum, song leader; and Alicia Kubena, parliamentarian.

Henley family meets

Descendants of J.S. and Ellen Riley Henley met for their annual family reunion Oct. 7 and 8 at Tole Park Barn.

Family members attending from Snyder were David and Andrea Lunsford; Randy, Deborah, Scott, Bobbie and A.C. Rodgers; Jim and Jimmie Sue Mosely; Kerry and Adam Rodgers; Joe Chavez; Emmett, Lana and Jared Hataway; Brad Rodgers; Jayci, Harley and Davison Burnett; and Jackie Adams.

Other family members attending were Judy and Jaybo Webb of O'Donnell; Louise and Virgil Poston of Alba; Donna and Doug Nehring of Ira; Joan and Harold Henley of Stanton; Dana and Kylan Douglass of Ira; Andrew, Katherine, Glenn, Gilana and Mike Minnick of Lubbock; and Ronald C. Chandler of Bedford. Also attending were Patricia and Bobby Collins of Abilene; Jeff McGuire of San Angelo; Edith and Lenard Lankford of Roby; and, Danny Lunsford of Fort Worth.

Plans were made to meet during the last weekend of September, 1990.

French President Charles de Gaulle caused a controversy in 1967 during a visit to Montreal, Canada, when he declared, "Vive le Quebec libre! (Long live free Quebec!)"

WTC cagers home against RJC teams

Fans of WTC basketball will get to see the Dusters and the Westerners as they open at home tonight against Ranger Junior College with the women beginning at 6 p.m. and the men starting at 8 p.m. at the Scurry County Coliseum.

The Westerners have been idle since Oct. 20 when they whipped Southwest Christian 118-81 in a non-conference tilt played in Reunion Arena in Dallas.

The Lady Dusters are 3-0 on the year, winning all three games at the South Plains College Lady Texan Classic last weekend.

Wtc defeated Western Oklahoma College, 58-47, Thursday, then pounded out a 71-48 win over Panhandle State University JV Friday and finally coming from behind to capture the win against Northern Oklahoma College, 68-57.

Both teams will be in action this week as the WTC Women's Classic and the WTC-McDonald's Men's Basketball Tournament will be held Thursday through Saturday at the Coliseum.

Montana and San Francisco roll over New Orleans, 31-13

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — After two months of grumbling about sloppy victories, the perfection-minded San Francisco 49ers finally got one that both team and fans could enjoy.

Now the team of the '80s may have to wait until the '90s —

Ranked no. 23... Tech makes Top 25

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) — The last time Texas Tech's football team was ranked nationally, some of this year's squad was reading Dick and Jane books and playing in pee-wee leagues.

The Red Raiders climbed to No. 23 Monday after beating 22nd-ranked Texas in Austin over the weekend, 24-17. Tech last appeared in the rankings Nov. 14, 1977. Later that week, 16th-ranked Tech lost to Houston and dropped out of the rankings for the rest of the Carter and all of the Reagan administrations.

"I'm glad to be ranked for our players' sake," coach Spike Dykes said Monday.

But Dykes added a caveat: he doesn't want his team to dwell too long on the upset in Austin because Texas Christian awaits Saturday in Lubbock.

"If we don't play like gangbusters we won't be ranked long — it'll be the shortest ranking ever," Dykes said. "The big thing is going to be to convince people that TCU is for real, and that we've got to play our tail off to play them, to beat them. I think our players understand that. I hope they do. They'll hear it more than once, I promise you that."

He said the best way to celebrate the national ranking is to remain there awhile by playing well against the TCU Horned Frogs, who beat then-15th-ranked Air Force last month.

"We don't need to get kicked out of the big black-tie ball the first chance we get to go," Dykes said. "We need to dance a little bit."

Tech (6-2 overall and 3-2 in the Southwest Conference) beat a ranked opponent for the third time this season by defeating Texas, which fell from the Top 25. Tech also beat Arizona and Texas A&M.

Dykes did not want to speculate whether Tech will receive a bowl bid when invitations go out later this month. And he didn't want to talk about Southwest Conference championship, which Tech conceivably could still attain. Tech has thrown the Cotton Bowl race into turmoil by beating A&M and Texas.

"I think we better worry about TCU," Dykes said. "I don't know who to pull for on Saturdays. Boy, I was pulling for A&M to beat playoff time — for its next truly meaningful game. A Joe Montana-led 31-13 pummeling of New Orleans Monday night turned the Saints and the rest of the NFC West into also-rans with seven games remaining.

"We feel particularly good about this game," George Seifert said after winning his first game at Candlestick Park as the 49ers' coach. "I would think that up to this point it's our best game of the season."

It couldn't have come at a worse time for the Saints (4-5), who were riding a three-game winning streak and harbored hopes of getting back into the divisional race.

"That was a pretty good butt-kicking tonight," New Orleans coach Jim Mora said. "It was a combination of them being on their game and us not playing well at all."

"We didn't cover. We didn't tackle. We looked like we were in a daze on defense."

Tackled a few of its season-long concerns head-on.

The inconsistent offensive line played its best game of the year. The puzzling home-field "disadvantage" — the 49ers have been better on the road than at home every year but one (1986) in the last eight — never materialized. Most of all, Montana passed and scrambled like anything but a 33-year-old quarterback recovering from a left knee sprain and an injured elbow.

The last time he played, he left the field on a stretcher during an Oct. 22 victory over New England at Stanford. This time he left the Saints' defense staggering, picking it apart with mostly short passes as he completed his first 11 throws in a 223-yard, three-touchdown first half.

Former 49ers receiver and close friend Dwight Clark said later that Montana is still hurting but has decided to keep his ailments to himself so he can play. Some of his teammates, however, aren't fooled.

"Joe was playing with a sore knee," running back Roger Craig said. "It's not the first time he's played hurt."

SHS JV net unit slips past Sweetwater, 10-8

Snyder's JV tennis team edged Sweetwater, 10-8, in action Saturday.

SHS netters took five of six in boys' singles matches, two of six in girls' singles, two of three in boys' doubles and one of three in girls' doubles.

For the boys Kiron Kemp was a 6-1, 6-1 winner over Sweetwater's Adam Geron, Andy Weaver of SHS whipped Adam Hilliard, 6-2, 6-0, Chris Winter ran past Jared Reeves, 6-3, 6-0, and Dane Farley pounded Adrian Galarza of the Mustangs, 6-1, 6-2.

Kemp-Weaver teamed up to beat Sweetwater's Geron and Hilliard team, 6-1, 6-1, and Winter-Farley got by Reeves-Galarza, 6-4, 6-2.

Jaycie Wright and Melanie Carpenter led the way for the Snyder girls, Wright taking a 5-7, 6-4, 7-5, three-set win over Jenny Bates and Carpenter winning over Sweetwater netter Lori McKenzie in twin 6-3 sets.

Wright and Tammy Voss teamed up to claim a doubles victory for the Snyder girls, defeating Bates and Rhonda Thompson, 5-7, 6-4, 7-5.

The rest of the Snyder JV tennis results are as follows with Snyder players listed first.

- Boys' singles-Jason Warren lost to Chris Boyd, 6-0, 6-2.
- Girls' singles-Tammy Voss lost to Rhonda Thompson, 6-4, 6-1; Denise Blythe forfeited to Amber McKelvey; Michelle Brooks lost to Erin Henson, 6-1, 6-1; Angie Davidson lost to Pam O'Brian, 6-1, 6-4.
- Boys' doubles-Warren and Gayle lost to Boyd and Wilkinson, 5-7, 6-3, 6-2.
- Girls' doubles-Carpenter and Blythe forfeited to McKenzie and McKelvey; Brooks and Davidson lost to Henson and O'Brian, 7-6, 6-2.

ALL-TOURNAMENT — Bobbie Brown, left, and Tami Wilson were both named to the All-Tournament squad as a result of their play in the South Plains College Lady Texan Classic in Levelland last weekend. Brown was 11 of 11 from the free throw line and Wilson was, "outstanding on the boards" in the words of coach Kelly Chadwick. Both honorees are tri-captains for the Dusters and each shot about 50 percent from the floor during the event. (Contributed Photos)

Bush has news conference

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Bush said today he hoped the U.S. decision to return $567 million in frozen assets to Iran will help get "underbrush cleaned out" and lead to the eventual release of hostages.

"I carry the fate of the hostages with me every single day," Bush told a news conference at the White House a day before the first anniversary of his election. "He said he knew of no reason to be encouraged at this time, however."

Bush convened reporters on the anniversary of his election victory and he used an introductory statement to sum up with satisfaction his first 10 months in office.

"I enjoy it; I like the challenge," he said.

One of the first questions was based on statements by former President Carter who said Bush had reacted too cautiously to changes in the Communist world. His questioner pointed out that Bush had said he would go to next month's meeting with Mikhail Gorbachev with no initiatives to offer. "I'd like to hear some specific suggestions," Bush said, "besides triple the spending." He said he has no perception that European allies are unhappy with the pace of his U.S.-Soviet policies.

Bush said leaders in Western Europe "don't seem to agree with some of the political criticism I get from Capitol Hill" on dealing with the nations that have been in the Soviet sphere since World War II.

Bush said that despite the impact of his veto of appropriations bills, including abortion funding, he is not going to budge on the issue. He said abortion is not the most important issue on his agenda, but that he will not approve measures that compel the use of tax dollars for abortion.

"It supports compulsory abortion," he said. "I am not going to do that."

In his opening statement, Bush, elected last Nov. 8, looked back at his term so far and cited both foreign-policy and domestic initiatives.

He said he was pleased he had kept his pledge not to raise taxes and said neither he nor Congress "must flinch from our obligation" to reduce the nation's deficit.

Bush was asked whether the U.S. action on Iran, freeing money that had been held in a fund to back up claims by American banks against Iran, could help lead to release of the hostages — even though the administration claims the issues are separate.

"I don't know the answer to that ... I'd like to get this underbrush cleaned out now," Bush said.

He said he hoped the current government of Iran "will do what they can to influence those who hold those hostages." Meanwhile, Bush said, "We're continuing behind the scenes to follow rabbit trails."

Visit ends

HOUSTON (AP) — The Duchess of York ended a five-day visit to Texas with a visit to an inner-city school, where she took part in a day filled with anti-drug messages.

The 30-year-old former Sarah Ferguson also was serenaded by more than 600 pupils at Blackshear Elementary School.

The duchess, who is married to Britain's Prince Andrew, came to Houston on Thursday at the invitation of the Houston Grand Opera, which is saluting 300 years of British opera.

Mayor Troy Williamson.

The council voted to divide its 315 votes for the election of a new Scurry County Appraisal District board equally among the six candidates who live inside the city limits; Lance Autry, Wayne Eubank, Doug Flynn, Stanley Martin, Mairi McFaul and John Reed.

There are four other candidates who live outside the city — Julius Roemisch, Mickey Sterling, Tommy Sterling and Billy Voss — and the new board will be constituted on the basis of weighted balloting among the taxing entities the appraisal district serves.

A split vote had to be resolved by Mayor Williamson on the approval of updated service credits for Snyder municipal employees who have retirement plans with the Texas Municipal Retirement System.

Councilman Ralph Williamson moved to accept the TMRS proposals and Councilman Mike Thornton seconded, after which Councilwoman Ernest Tippens voted with Williamson and Thornton and Councilmen Paul Zeck, Joe Coronado and Jack Greene Jr. voted "no."

Mayor Williamson then broke the tie with a "yes" vote for the TMRS changes, which provide for increased prior and current service annuities for retirees and beneficiaries of deceased retirees of the city.

A resolution was passed to congratulate KSNY Radio for its 40th anniversary on Friday, which was proclaimed KSNY Radio Day. The radio station is having an open house from 3 to 5 p.m. Friday to celebrate the anniversary.

Williamson said the proposed expansion of the municipal water treatment plant and the construction of a new wastewater treatment plant will be discussed in a 6:30 p.m. Nov. 20 public meeting with financial and engineering consultants.

Volunteers' honors set on Thursday

Scurry County Museum will honor its volunteer workers at a luncheon Thursday.

The luncheon will be held in the museum, beginning at 11:45 a.m.

Anyone interested in volunteering their time to the museum is invited to attend, along with volunteers already working. There is no charge for the luncheon but those planning to attend are asked to make reservations by calling the museum at 573-6107.

The museum will host the 11th annual Christmas Happening on Dec. 3 and volunteers are needed to help trim the Christmas tree and put up other decorations.

Fires are controlled

A child playing with matches touched off a fire that damaged a camper trailer and a storage shed Monday morning off the 900 Block of North Ave. M., according to local firemen.

Firemen were at the scene from 10:10 to 11:25 a.m., and they said later that the camper trailer had minor damage and the storage shed, both owned by D.D. Chandler, had moderate damage.

Firefighters were at the scene of a grass fire from 2:30 to 3:45 p.m. Monday on Santa Fe Railway property 14 miles east of Snyder.

Two arrested

Police arrested two people Monday, a 19-year-old man for not having liability insurance at 4:13 p.m. in the 900 Block of 25th St. and a 17-year-old boy at 11:56 p.m. in the 2500 Block of Ave. C for public intoxication.

Post office is vandalized

Sheriff's deputies are investigating a vandalism case that was reported Monday at the Hermleigh Post Office.

Doug Vineyard told officers at 6 a.m. Monday that someone had broken the front door glass at the post office.

Mary Villa told city police at 8:36 a.m. Monday a window had been broken out of a vehicle parked in front of her residence, and Opal Eades at 1:37 p.m. Monday reported that someone had vandalized a rental house she owns at 2803 College Ave.

Tractor towed from wreck site

A Snyder man was unhurt when his tractor hit a bridge and guardrail at 9:02 a.m. Monday at Ave. E and U.S. 84.

Police said a 1962 John Deere driven by Faxon R. Williams of Rt. 2 did no damage to the bridge but caused an estimated $600 in damages to a guardrail owned by the state highway department.

The tractor had to be towed from the scene, they said.

At 4:45 p.m. Tuesday in the 900 Block of 25th St., a 1969 Ambassador driven by Billy Scott of 505 30th St. was in collision with a 1978 Dodge driven by Chiva Jenkins of Andrews.

Diabetic dies while in custody of police

LEWISVILLE, Texas (AP) — Police say they had no way of knowing a woman was a diabetic when they arrested her because symptoms from her condition resembled intoxication.

The woman, Lena Wells, died Sunday in a Lewisville hospital, where she was taken hours after her Oct. 16 arrest. Her family has filed a complaint and said it wants to collect $10 million in damages because she did not receive proper medical attention. "We had no warning signs, no bracelet or anything identifying her as a diabetic," said Richard Douglas, spokesman for the Lewisville police department. "It was a very regretful situation and I wish we had had more information on hand."

Court will not intercede in 'strange little' custody case

WASHINGTON (AP) — Now that the Supreme Court refuses to help, Carla Parrillo risks up to a year in jail and a $500 fine if she lets her boyfriend stay overnight while her children are home.

The Johnston, R.I., woman, as a result of a custody quarrel with her ex-husband, is under a judge's order restricting her having overnight male guests. One lawyer says the order has a sexist overtone.

"I would be surprised if judges were as willing to serve as moral guardians of a family where a man is involved," said Steven Brown, executive director of the American Civil Liberties Union's Rhode Island chapter.

The ACLU handled Mrs. Parrillo's appeal to the Supreme Court, which denied review of the case Monday.

Thomas DeSimone, an attorney for Mrs. Parrillo's former husband, Justin, said he is not surprised by the court's action. The dispute, he said, is "simply a strange little case from Rhode Island that didn't deserve the court's attention."

The Parrillos were divorced in 1986. Under a joint custody agreement, their three children live with her and their father has visitation privileges.

Mrs. Parrillo, 33, said her ex-husband began to harass her when he learned she was dating Joseph DiPippo. She asked for a court order limiting Parrillo's visitation rights, requiring him to see the children at specific times away from the home.

Parrillo countered by asking a judge to prevent Mrs. Parrillo from having overnight male guests.

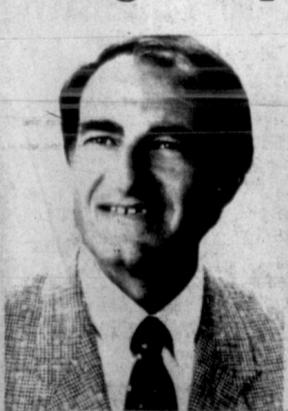

Judge William Goldberg, who has since retired, barred Mrs. Parrillo "from allowing any unrelated males to stay overnight" when the children are home. The judge said having such guests is not "a suitable arrangement for the children to be put into."

The children were 8, 10 and 13 when the judge issued his order in late 1986.

The Rhode Island Supreme Court upheld Goldberg's order in March, saying "We cannot fault (Goldberg's) actions. We see no great constitutional issue in this controversy."

Neither side had sought experts to testify about the psychological effect of the visits on the children.

Production technology manager to speak here

HOSSEIN KAZEMI
Production technology manager Hossein Kazemi will speak on the subject "How to Waterflood a Fractured Reservoir Effectively" before the area chapter of the Society of Petroleum Engineers from 11:30-1 p.m. Wednesday at Snyder Country Club.

Kazemi is an SPE Distinguished Lecturer for 1989-90. Cost to attend the lecture is $7 per person.

Kazemi is associate director of production technology at the Marathon Oil Co. E&P Technology facility in Littleton, Colo. He holds a Ph.D. in petroleum engineering from the University of Texas. A SPE Distinguished Member, Kazemi received the 1987 John Franklin Carl Award. He was chairman of the 1985 Naturally Fractured Reservoirs Forum Series and Monograph Committee from 1981-83, was executive editor of SPE Formation Evaluation during 1986-87 and was chairman of the 1989 Forum Series Committee. He is also program chairman for the 1990 Enhanced Oil Recovery Symposium in Tulsa.

The Distinguished Lecturer Series provides speakers who cover a broad range of petroleum engineering interests. Kazemi and 20 other Distinguished Lecturers will make more than 300 presentations throughout the world to 106 sections and many student chapters.

In his talk Wednesday, Kazemi will examine methods for achieving a successful waterflood design in complex reservoirs.

Benefit dance slated for injured gridder

A benefit dance for Manuel Castillo, Hermleigh senior who was seriously injured in a football game Sept. 30 in Paint Creek, is planned Saturday from 8-11:30 p.m. in the Hermleigh gym.

The Shade Tree Band will perform and tickets are $5 per person.

Door prizes, such as a $50 savings bond from Olney Savings, will also be given away throughout the evening. All ticket purchasers will be eligible for the drawings, but no one has to be present to win. Tickets can also be purchased by persons wishing to help, but who do not want to attend the dance.

Tickets are available in advance.

Castillo was knocked unconscious by a knee blow to the back of his helmet. He was taken by private vehicle to the hospital in nearby Haskell where they "stabilized" him before transferring him to Humana Hospital in Abilene. He has been in ICU since Sept. 30.

Castillo has been undergoing therapy in Abilene, and is presently waiting to be transferred to a rehabilitation center in Dallas where he will undergo even more intensive therapy.

The latest word on Castillo's condition is that he is making "slow progress."

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Magealeno Castillo.

Anthony Quinn leaves production

SYRACUSE, N.Y. (AP) — Actor Anthony Quinn withdrew from a production of "A Walk in the Woods" after experiencing chest pains, organizers said.

"It became clear he could not handle the show," said coproducer Barry Weisler. "He ... won't be permitted to travel until he is out of pain and the doctor gives his approval."

Quinn's withdrawal Saturday forced cancellation of previews scheduled for Sunday, today and Wednesday at Syracuse Stage.

Stage officials said Monday the 74-year-old actor was under the care of his personal physician in New York City. They said there was no diagnosis.

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Cash-starved Braniff Inc. suspended all regular passenger flights overnight, jeopardizing some 1,800 jobs and angering employees who had stuck with the airline through two bankruptcy proceedings.

"These people that bought Braniff, they need to be put on trial by Braniff employees and taken out for a public flogging," Leo Bailey, a laid-off customer service agent, said when he heard the news in Kansas City, Mo.

In a statement issued at midnight, Braniff said the action was taken to preserve assets while a reorganization plan is developed and a sale of the airline is considered.

There were no immediate reports of passengers being stranded by the suspension of Braniff's 46 daily passenger flights.

The company advised ticketholders to check if other airlines would honor the tickets. People who bought tickets with a credit card were told to consult with the card company, and those who purchased tickets with cash or a check after Sept. 28 were given a toll-free number to call for a refund.

The suspension of flights came as a surprise to many of the employees who remained with the airline after it filed for protection from its creditors under Chapter 11 of the U.S. bankruptcy code Sept. 28 for the second time.

Braniff didn't address the possibility of layoffs other than to say employees would be notified of their status, a prospect that left union officials frustrated.

"What a mess," said V.O. Delle-Femine, executive director of the Aircraft Mechanics Fraternal Association, upon hearing the news in Rhode Island.

"Ever since the bankruptcy, upper management has given no response, no answer to the employees of the company," said Charlie Stitz of Gladstone, Mo., a Braniff flight attendant who was called back to work Nov. 1.

BIA Acquisitions, an investor group formed by PaineWebber Inc., bought Braniff in June for about $100 million and became the airline's third owner since its 1982 bankruptcy reorganization.

Braniff had 4,800 employees when it filed for bankruptcy again in September. At the time, it said it was cutting the number of cities served from 36 to 11: San Diego; Los Angeles; San Francisco; Phoenix; Dallas; Chicago; Kansas City; Orlando; New York; Newark, N.J., and Washington.

The airline had a workforce of about 1,800 before the suspension of service.

Under a court-administered reorganization plan, the company had put 46 of its 256 pre-Sept. 28 flights back in the air by Friday, said Sandy Smith, a spokeswoman at Braniff headquarters in Orlando. But the effort was doomed by a cash shortage, she said.

"We didn't come up with any other alternative financing and options like that. There just wasn't any more cash," Smith said.

The last flights were arriving at about the time of the announcement and the planes would remain at their destinations indefinitely, Smith said.

Braniff will try to expand its charter service while studying its options, including sale of the company, said William G. McGee, chairman, president and chief executive officer.

The airline lost $31.8 million during the first six months of this year on sales of $293 million.

On Friday, Braniff laid off about 100 mostly administrative employees.

Jaelyn Smith gets own star

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Jaelyn Smith, one of the original "Charlie's Angels" TV sleuths who moved on to serious roles in such dramas as "Windmills of the Gods," now has a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame.

More than 200 fans and friends, including actors Mel Ferrer and Ralph Bellamy, cheered during Monday's unveiling of the sidewalk star, the 1,903rd dedicated along Hollywood Boulevard and Vine Street.

Universal Studios sponsored the star and paid the $3,500 cost.

In each advertisement on this page you will find the contestants in a prominent football game being played around the country this weekend. On the entry blank at the bottom of the page, fill in your selection of the WINNING TEAM only...opposite the name of the business firm on the entry blank. Then clip out the entry blank and send it to FOOTBALL CONTEST EDITOR, Snyder Daily News, Box 949, or bring it by the news office at 3600 College Ave. Entries must be in the hands of the editor by 5:00 p.m. Friday. Games ending in a tie must be specified as a tie or else it will be considered a miss.

To avoid splitting the prize money a TIE-BREAKER slot will be provided on each entry blank. Pick the total points of the score for that game and in case of a tie the one who picks the winner and the nearest number of total points will receive the prize money. The same formula will apply to second and third place winners. In the case of a perfect score, the formula would apply for that cash prize.

There will be fun for the entire family. Only one entry blank will be permitted for any one person. More than one will disqualify all that person's entries. Entries must be on the official entry blank (No Copies Please). Scores listed on the entry blank will have no bearing except in the case of the tie-breaker. Sign your entry blank and list your address and phone number and watch for the winner's story in next Tuesday's SDN. Employees of the SDN and their families are not eligible to enter.
