Tom Watson, Wayne Wainwright, Huey Bledsoe Honored—

Jaycees Pay Tribute To Past Presidents, 3 Others

Haskell Jaycees, at an awards banquet here Tuesday night, honored seven past presidents, bestowed honorary life memberships on four of them who have passed the maximum age requirement, and tapped three other Haskell citizens with similar certificates for service above self in behalf of civic development.

Two members of the organization also were named co-holders of Jaycees Of The Month Awards, as Gorman Wiseman, Fort Stockton, state vice president, witnessed the presentations.

Recipients of the honorary life memberships were Past Presidents Dee Larned, Roy (Buck) Everett, Billy Jack Ray and Virgil Cobb. Joining them in receiving the same award were Tom Watson, Wayne Wainwright and Huey Bledsoe, whose outstanding work in behalf of the Jaycee program "merits this recognition," Jesse Priest, president declared.

As President Priest revealed the identity of the honorees, Allen Reeves, past president himself, made the presentations. Reeves, Buddy Lane, and Abe Turner, Jr., also past presidents of the Jaycees here, were honored along with the life membership group for dedicated efforts in behalf of the organization. They still have not come "of age," life-membership-wise, President Priest explained.

Bobby Druessedow, a farmer-stockman, and Don Muenzler, local druggist, were honored with Jaycee Of The Month titles for their efforts in Jaycee sponsored community projects, principally the Rice Springs Roundup, Christmas decorations for the town, and educational activities. Alfons Peiser, secretary, made the presentations.

Past President Everett, spokesman for the honored group, thanked Jaycees for the privilege of leadership training (See Jaycees Pay, Page 10)

Bulletins

Staff personnel for the Haskell County Tax Assessor-Collector's Office, who will assume their duties on January 1, 1965, were certified for service by the Haskell County Commissioners' Court in session Tuesday, County Judge James C. Alvis reported.

The new personnel, as presented for approval by Tax Assessor-Collector—Eliet Mrs. Norma Jean Chidmore, will be Mrs. Miller Montgomery, chief deputy; and Mrs. Jimmy Bledsoe, both of Haskell. A third staff member is yet to be named.

Haskell United Fund contributions, as of Wednesday morning, totaled $6,524.05, or 68.6 per cent of the $9500.00 goal set for the 1964 fund drive.

Allen Reeves, president, and Dede Mercer, drive chairman, said mopping up efforts are continuing among dedicated workers. Citizens who have not participated are urged to open their hearts and pocketbooks to this worthwhile charitable program.

The "Mystery Shopper" just may tap you on the shoulder and cross your path with the long green any day now, starting Saturday. Make yourself available by shopping Haskell stores soon.

Carlos Berry's roundball boys made it two in a row in the young basketball season, downing Stubburn Rule 52-45 in the Bobcat Gym Tuesday night. Scoring by the Indians was as follows: Ronnie Josselot, 14; Perry Turnbow, 11; Joe Josselot, 10; David Wilson and Gary Druessedow, 8 each; and Freddie Kreger, 1.

Top bucket-makers for Rule were Jerry Cannon, 15, and L. LeFevre, 14.

David Middleton's Squaws upped their record to 2-1, with a win over the Rules, 47-32. Carolyn Fischer, with 18, and Jenabeth Pitman, 13, led the victors' scoring. Beth Simpson paced the Rule girls with 14 points. Middleton's monumental guards held Rule to three field goals the entire first half.

Letters To Santa Will Be Published By The Free Press

Merry, Merry Christmas! Merry, Merry Christmas! It's coming! April Christmas is the time to bring into being, and focus, the things that bring joy to the world!

Writing letters to Santa Claus is just as much a part of Christmas as the Jolly Round Man himself. And, as in the past, in keeping with a spine-tingling project that is synonymous with Christmas to this newspaper and its personnel, the Haskell Free Press will publish in its special Christmas Edition the letters it receives written to Santa Claus.

That edition, chock-full of letters to Santa and Christmas greetings from "all of us to all of you" is now being prepared. So, now is the time, Lads and Lassies, for all you "chillun" to get your letters in to the Free Press, that they may be set up in print. There isn't too much time. All the letters should be in by two weeks from today.

So take 'pen (or pencil) in hand" and write today to Santa Claus, in care of The Free Press, Haskell, Texas, saying what is in your heart to say to an understanding fellow like Santa . . . at a time like this . . . Christmas!

And, God Bless You, Every One!

Mayor, County Judge Named To Chamber Board

The Mayor of Haskell and County Judge of Haskell County were named voting members of the board of directors of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce in action by the board at a breakfast session here Tuesday morning.

The board also voted $100.00 as the Chamber of Commerce's contribution to support the Rolling Plains Cotton Growers' Association, an organization recently formed to operate in 25 Texas and three Oklahoma counties to eradicate the increasing menace of the boll weevil.

Abe Turner, Jr., president of the chamber, said Mayor J. E. Walling, Jr., of Haskell, and County Judge James C. Alvis, will be invited to join in all forthcoming board meetings. The action making the Haskell Mayor and County Judge members of the board was initiated by Clay Smith and seconded by Wallace Cox, Jr.

Turner announced that the Chamber here still is in the process of sifting applicants for the post of manager, and anyone interested should contact him at the Haskell National Bank here. The board has directed that a new full-time manager be employed at a salary of not less than $600 per month (See Mayor, Page 10)

Personality (Plus) Shoppe Has Gala Event Next Week

Haskell's atmospheric Personality Shoppe, recently completely renovated with a dreamy decor that has added both "plus" and "plush" to its serviceable facilities, as denoted elsewhere in this edition of the Free Press, will have a grand opening next Monday and Tuesday.

Its owners, Opal Adkins and Veta Furrh, have spared no expense to install the "last word" in appointments breathing femininity and satisfying to the most discerning eyes. Mark down on your "must" list a trip to the Personality Shoppe to see for yourself the wonders that have been wrought there.

BY REV. FINCH AT UNION SERVICES— "GRATITUDE TO GOD" IS TOPIC OF THANKSGIVING EVE SERVICE

"Gratitude To God" was the Thanksgiving sermon topic of Rev. Douglas B. Finch, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here when he delivered the message at Union Thanksgiving services sponsored by the Haskell Ministerial Alliance in the sanctuary of the First Christian Church here at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday, Thanksgiving Eve.

The order of worship following a prelude of spiritual music included: Call to worship, Dr. Ray Nobes, pastor of the First Baptist Church; invocation, Rev. L. D. Regeon, pastor of the East Side Baptist Church; responsive readings, Leroy Havlerah, lay leader, Trinity Lutheran Church; prayer, Royce E. Wood, minister, First Christian Church; special music, scripture reading, Rev. J. V. Patterson, pastor of the First Methodist Church; sermon, Rev. Finch; and benediction, Rev. Douglas Vaughn, pastor of the Pinkerton Baptist Church.

Special music was offered by Mrs. Royce E. Wood, wife of the minister of the host Christian Church, with Mrs. Lynn Pace, Jr., Christian Church organist, accompanying.

Contributions placed in collection plates at this service are traditionally used to support a joint fund for member churches of the Haskell Ministerial Alliance to help needy transients obtain food, clothing, shelter, transportation or medication.

The fund is handled under direction of George Neely, Haskell civic, religious and business leader.

WINDOW UNVEILING, LIGHTING SWITCH-ON TRADITIONAL HERE

Traditional Christmas lighting of Haskell's Courthouse Square at 5:45 p. m. Friday, coincident with the simultaneous unveiling of gaily decorated store windows by merchants here, will prelude with pomp the start of the Christmas season, signalled by a Santa Claus-parade at 3 p. m. Saturday.

Abe Turner, president of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce, which coordinated a project among civic clubs expanding the Courthouse lighting display last Christmas season, has announced this year's exhibition on the square here has "more candlepower than ever."

Key workers on making ready the lighting system for Friday night's switch-on have been E. J. Stewart, Desmond Dulaney, Turner, Wayne Wainwright, F. W. (Pluto) Pruett, Alf Smith, Jaycee Co-Chairmen Don Muenzler and James Franklin, and a host of other Haskell Jaycees.

TO PRISCILLA, THANKSGIVING MEANS MORE THAN TO MOST

A heart-warming sequel to an odyssey which began with the Hungarian revolution in the fall of 1956, chapters of which were written here in the summers of 1957-59, came to a Haskell family in the form of a letter of true Thanksgiving this week.

"I have an awful lot to thank you folks for," was the straightforward-from-the-heart message received from a 22-year-old Hungarian refugee, Mrs. Marvin McWilliams, formerly Priscilla Williams, who now lives in El Monte, Calif.

JOE JOSSELET NAMED TO ALL-DISTRICT; 4 MORE NOMINATED

Offensive and defensive all-district football teams in District 5-AA were selected by the coaches of the seven-school district at a recent meeting in Abilene.

Haskell placed one man, Joe Josselot, on the defensive all-district team as halfback. Josselot, who made the all-district offensive team as an end last year, almost made it as quarterback this season, but bowed to Ronnie Smith, of Ballinger, for the position. Only he and Danny Aldridge, Winters' great field general, were in contention with Smith for the post, but the Ballinger fireball got the nod.

The Fightin' Indians had four players named for honorable mention on the offensive all-district team. They were: Gary Conner, right halfback; James Ivy, at fullback; Joe Josselot, at quarterback; and Dickie Frierson, at center. Ivy and Conner were honorably mentioned last year.

Honorably mentioned on the defensive team were Frankie White, at tackle, and Conner, as inside linebacker, in addition to Josselot, who was all-district defensively as halfback.

Ballinger, which tied Stamford for the district championship, dominated both offensive and defensive district teams for numbers of individual honors, although Stamford, with a two-point win over the Bearcats in administering their only loss of the season, earned the right to go into the playoffs.

The Bearcats had five men on the offensive all-district team, Anson and Winters two each, Stamford and Hamlin, one each.

The defensive choices of 5AA coaches included four from Ballinger, three from Colorado City, two from Stamford, and one each from Haskell and Winters.

J. H. Swinney, 92, A Texan Almost 88 Years, Dies

Joseph H. Swinney, a Texan for almost 88 of his 92 years, and a resident of Haskell since 1943, died in Haven Nursing Home in Stamford at 10:15 a. m. Sunday. He had been at the care home six days, but in failing health for the past 15 years.

Funeral services were held at the East Side Baptist Church here at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday, with Rev. Kenneth Blair, pastor of Trinity Baptist Church, Rev. J. V. Patterson, pastor of the First Methodist Church, and Rev. L. D. Regeon, pastor of the East Side Baptist Church, officiating. Burial was in Willow Cemetery under the direction of Holden Funeral Home.

Mr. Swinney, a retired farmer, came to Haskell from Van Zandt County in 1943. The son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Orlando Swinney, he was born Dec. 4, 1872, and came to East Texas with his parents when he was four years old, settling in Van Zandt County, where he grew up and farmed more than 40 years.

He married a resident of Merkel in 1904, and his wife died two years later. On Jan. 29, 1939, he married Bessie May Huggins near Wintersboro, Texas, and they came to Haskell four years later. He was a longtime member of the Baptist Church. Survivors include the wife, of Haskell; one daughter, Mrs. Carol Wade Thompson, of Loveland, Colo.; one son, Billy Joe Swinney, of Haskell; five stepdaughters, Mrs. Lindon Caddell, Haskell, Mrs. Frank Cerdiano, Longview, Mrs. Pauline Terry, Pampa, Mrs. Lester Patterson, Gilmer, and Mrs. Faye Moon, Tyler; a stepson, Preston Wallace, Pampa; one sister, Mrs. Georgia Ham, Bridgeport, Texas; 18 grand-children, and one great-grandchild.

Haskell is primed for one of the most picturesque parades ever assembled in this area, a scintillating spectacle in every respect, which will snake through the streets of the town beginning at 3 p. m. Saturday to herald the opening of the Glorious Season, the Yuletide. Santa Claus, in the "World's Largest Sleigh," and some of the members of the Maskat Temple's Clown Patrol, from Wichita Falls, formidable funny men capable of stimulating the spirit of festivity, will pace a 31-element mobile extravaganza here, Abe Turner, Jr., president of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce, and chairman of the Christmas parade planning committee, has announced.

Store Hours

At a meeting of Haskell merchants Tuesday afternoon, it was mutually agreed that all stores will remain open until 8 p. m. on three Thursdays in December, the 3rd, 10th and 17th, and also on three Saturdays, 5th, 12th and 19th. Stores also will remain open until 8 p. m. on Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 21 and 22. This schedule replaces one for evening store hours announced last week.

Posse, winners of trophies galore in riding club competitions throughout the Southwest, will direct formation of the parade elements at Rice Springs Rodeo grounds, and will lend their scarlet-shirted, palomino-mounted conformation to the parade as the last element in the line of march themselves.

City, chamber, and law enforcement officials will head the column, which will be cadenced by the 72-piece Haskell High School Indian Band directed by Wendell Gideon, and fronted by its high-stepping twirling corps.

Roy Johnson, president of Rotary here, has announced that on the "institutions" of this community's annual Yuletide parade again this year will be the Rotary Club-sponsored Pet Parade, in which the patron organization will accept for entry any individual accompanied by any type of pet to compete for three cash prizes for originality and uniqueness of appearance in the parade.

Coupons are available at most stores in town for a ride on Santa's Sleigh Saturday from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m. Be sure to pick up your coupons.

Tom Barfield is chairman of the Pet Parade, and those desiring to enter should contact him at his place of business, the Barfield Agency on the northeast corner of the square here, to be officially entered and receive a number. The pet element of the parade overall line of march will form on Avenue D and South 2nd Street, one block south of the southeast corner of the Courthouse Square, Chairman Barfield said.

All elements of the parade are expected to be in their places by 2 p. m. in order to line up and move off promptly, Turner reported. Kenneth Felker, Sheriff's Posse president, and his cohorts will line up the parade. The 31-element colorful column will include: Haskell County Sheriff Garth Garrett, leading dignitary-filled cars, including Mayor J. E. Walling and official party. Chamber President Turner and official party, Haskell Indian Band, kindergarten children's float, Young Homemakers', B&P Club, First Graders, Boy Scouts, Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club, Lions' Club, Jaycees, Elsie's Hi-Lander, Dairy Cream. A Thanksgiving Prayer

Oh Lord, the Master of our destinies, we give Thee thanks, And praise Thee for Thy goodness unto us. Thou has kept us in the foremost of the ranks; We are grateful for being treated thus.

Our crops are bountiful, our barns are well-filled, With our fair land's richest season's goods: From all our fields by all our good farmers tilled, And from our hills, our dales, and all our woods.

We are grateful unto Thee for life and health, For courage when misfortune falls our lot; Be with us, lest when blinded by our wealth, The Giver of it all be then forgot.

We thank Thee, Father, for this, our great Thanksgiving Day, The time to show our gratitude to Thee; Help us all, both great and small, in a becoming way, For all good gifts, sincerely thankful be.

And now, Oh Lord of Hosts, be with us another year, Continue Thy blessings on us all, we pray; In all our struggles, may we feel that Thou art near, And keep us until next Thanksgiving Day.

—Arthur Porter Oakes

(Editor's Note: This simple, timeless Thanksgiving prayer was written when he was a promising young journalist-news-paperman but 19 years old by the late father of your editor.)

Worthy of Cognizance And Commendation

Our legislators in Texas should be congratulated for their intelligent actions by the enactment of laws which provide for the State Board of Insurance to promulgate standard automobile policy contracts and forms and make rates which are fair. These laws provide for the State Board of Insurance to do this, and not individual companies.

Texas rates are among the lowest in the nation. There are THIRTY-SIX other states which have higher average premiums for automobile liability insurance, even though Texas ranks SIXTH in number of licensed drivers in the nation; FIFTH in population; THIRD in the number of private passenger automobile registrations; and FIRST in miles of highway.

The State Board of Insurance requires that all companies use uniform policy contracts and forms so that the public can know exactly what they are buying regardless of which company sells it. This guarantees the public a uniform interpretation of their policy and that is not possible, we are informed, in most other states.

There are no "gimmick contracts" and the more than 350 companies writing automobile insurance in Texas must use the state approved forms—not one drawn up by certain individual companies to suit their purposes.

There is intense competition between insurance companies. This competition takes the form of servicing facilities or as dividends which may be paid policyholders. The only difference in Texas and other states, we are told, is that the Texas statutes provide that a company must earn a profit before it can pay a dividend. This type of law protects the public by preventing companies from becoming insolvent because of unjustified rate-cutting practices.

The Texas rating law provides a system whereby an average set of rates are established, based on the loss experience of all insurance companies, big or small, writing business in Texas. Rates in each county and territory, we understand, are made on losses paid in that particular area.

Texas is divided into twenty-six different rating territories for the purpose of reporting and analyzing the experience of each of various types of automobile coverages. The rates for private passenger automobiles are further divided into eight classifications of drivers. This makes at least 208 divisions of experience for the liability classes.

For collision coverages, the number is increased greatly by having four different age groups, twelve different price groups, and eleven different types of collision coverages producing something in excess of 16,500 rates for collision coverages alone.

All the foregoing strongly indicates that Texas rates, controlled by actual losses paid to, or on behalf of, Texans, provide a healthy situation worthy of all Texans' cognizance and commendation.

Oakescripts A Pencil Pusher's Potpourri
 By PORTER

This is Thanksgiving. It also is three days before my daughter, Janie, comes "of age" on her 18th birthday Sunday. I am thankful for many things, not the least of which, because she is "the most," I am thankful for her.

Though I'll never be able to dispense and administer the proper dosage of verbal vitamins like my cosmopolitan cohort, Glenn Shelton, I want to purloin one of his literary devices. I want to write an "open letter" to my daughter, Janie.

So this column is addressed to Janie, and I know she won't mind the rest of you, if you like, reading it over her shoulder.

Whoever wrote that song, "Thank Heavens . . . For Little Girls" kicked me right in the heart. I think Heavens for little girls who have grown up into Big Girls, like Janie. I wonder whatever "became of Baby Jane." But what she has become, I like, admire, respect, love. This is not only to her, but to all soon-to-be 18 year olds. God bless you, and keep you, wherever you are.

I write this because there are but a few days left before my license as an old Dad to give advice expires. When a daughter is 18, she really is "of age," according to the statute books. I also write this because I can't catch her long enough to tell her in person. She is a senior at St. Mary's Hall, an Episcopalian - backgrounded, tradition-steeped, preparatory school, where she is yearbook editor (wonder where she got THAT leavin'?), and that gal goes with so many guys named Robert. I keep 'em straight by dubbing them Robert I, Robert II, etc. In other words she is a normal, red-blooded, pure-D, (again, I'm thankful on Thanksgiving), American girl filled with le joie d'vivre, which, in Teen-Age Texanese, means she is a hep, real gone cat, and Man, the Greatest, a Livin', Breathin' Captivat'ion' Charmer and Swivelin' Swooner.

Dear Janie Boo: (That has been my name for her since, as a blonde, brown and oval-eyed baby, she and I played peek-a-boo, and I guess the "boo" just worked itself into my nickname for her.)

Soon you will be 18, and on that day there will be opened unto you new vistas in life. This birthday will be one that will inaugurate a beautiful . . .

but perilous, period in your life. Though I think you have enough stuff between your ears and up not to need it, may I bend your ear momentarily, just, on account of, I'm your Dad, have worn out a lot of tread traveling down the road before you, and, besides, it's a Dad's prerogative.

Since you ARE normal, you will spend considerably more and more time in the company of young men. Repeat, they have grown up, too, and they are now men, also normal. And in that fact lies much happiness for you, and if you aren't careful, much sorrow.

Back in '02, I was a boy. For that reason, I feel somewhat qualified to offer a few tips on how to act in their company. In the first place, have a good time when you are out on a date. A male likes nothing more than to have a pleasant, happy companion. It kind of serves as a "governor" on his conduct, too.

But don't stand on your blonde head to please him. Let him do the chasing. If he does not call you for a date, it's because you don't "send" him. Accept the fact. There are other fish in the sea. When he does call, and you accept, remember it is you who will set the standards. A boy will go only as far as you will let him, and believe me, NO BOY or MAN will blame you, or dislike you, for drawing a line. Quite the contrary. Any man you will want for a life partner will respect you MORE for it.

Take your date to church with you. If he won't be seen with you in church, don't be seen with him elsewhere. Remember, the best ones are found in God's House. This is the type boy, moreover, who is not impressed with smoking or drinking. So don't take up those habits because you think they will make you popular. They might, but only with boys you wouldn't want. You already know that, I'm sure.

When a suitor spends his money on you, you have certain responsibilities, principal among which are tack-sharp appearance, pleasant demeanor, and mannerliness. And if you would be "of a mind" to ingratiate yourself with him, compliment what he does, be intensely interested in his interests, and root for him in whatever his undertaking. Don't just root. Root with vim.

Just keep your powder dry, "have a care," keep a tight rein, but have a GOOD TIME when you are out on a date. No man likes a sourpuss. He will have a good time IF YOU DO, and, if he's normal, ONLY if you do. Don't try to make him jealous. Concentrate on him when you're with him, and he,

 (November 29, 1934)

In appreciation of the excellent record made by the Haskell Indians during the current football season, Haskell Lions Club will honor the team with a banquet on Tuesday evening, Dec. 11. It will be held in the Tonkawa Coffee Shop.

Mrs. Virgil Reynolds and little son, Robert Bruce, were returned to their home here Wednesday from the Knox City Hospital.

Fire caused by the explosion of an oil stove resulted in destruction of a residence occupied by the family of A. Dunn, Sunday afternoon about 2:30 o'clock. Located one and one-half miles from town, local firemen were able to be of little assistance in fighting the blaze.

Tommy Davis, nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Davis, was slightly injured late Monday when he was struck by a car while crossing the street near his home on an errand for his mother. Driver of the car stopped and carried Tommy to the home of a neighbor and summoned a physician, who said the lad suffered only bruises and scratches.

The census bureau reports that 10,033 bales of cotton from the 1934 crop had been ginned in Haskell County prior to November 15.

Chester Carrigan, of Boulder, Nevada, arrived this week for a visit with his father, Will Carrigan, and other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brannan and family have returned from Kilgore, where they spent several days in the home of his sister, who has been ill.

Congressman-elect George Mahon will be a visitor in Haskell Monday, according to word received by the Free Press. Mr. Mahon was recently elected Congressman of the 19th District receiving the largest number of popular votes ever accorded a new man for office.

Mrs. Willie Chapman, and all the other boys, will want to be YOUR date.

Capsuling my comments, Janie, and all the soon-to-be 18s like you, just stay as sweet as you are . . . and your parents' hearts will go on singing . . . a song supported by our pride and our trust . . . justified by your conduct. Have a Blessed Thanksgiving . . . and Happy Birthday!

MISS GEORGE ERNEST TAYLOR

Temple Lewis, pastor, was the officiant.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Taylor, of Hugo. Presented in marriage by her father, the winsome bride wore a white gown of satin with modified sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. Appliques of alenon lace enhanced with seed pearls encircled the front and accented the chapel train. Her veil of silk English illusion was attached to a rose of peau satin with alenon lace orchid and tiny seed pearls.

Maid of honor, Mertie Lewis, a Hardin-Simmons University senior, of Stamford, wore a pink peau de soie street length dress, with matching shoes, and carried one long stemmed red rose. Junior bridesmaid Miss Anna Lou Allen, sister of the bride, wore a dress identical to that of the maid of honor, and carried a single long stemmed rose.

Best man was Joe Webb, of Hugo, Oklahoma. Ushers were Jimmy Poteet, of Duncan, Oklahoma; Skipper Driver, of Big Spring; and Johnny Lewis, of Stamford.

For the wedding reception in Fellowship Hall at the church, the wedding cake was centered on a white lace and satin cloth covered table with pink accessories, complemented with crystal and silver appointments and monogrammed napkins.

Reception assistants were: Misses Mertie Lewis, Stamford; Barbara Nelson, Houston; Ira Lee Inman, Muleshoe; Linda Hinson, Spur; and De Anna Carpenter, Hobbs, New Mexico. 1964 Farm Census Questionnaires Are Being Mailed

Questionnaires for the 1964 Census of Agriculture are now being mailed out to farmers and ranchers in Haskell County. Mrs. Elsie M. Dowden, crew leader in charge of the census in this county, announced Tuesday.

The questionnaires are expected to reach farmers during the next few days. This will allow farmers time to consult their 1964 farm business records in order to answer questions on the form accurately before enumerators begin calling on individual farmers to collect the questionnaires. These visits are scheduled to start next Monday, Nov. 30, in this county.

An enumerator will call on every farmer in the district under his supervision, the crew leader said. At the time of the call, the enumerator will help the farmer complete answers to any questions that prove difficult to understand, and will check the form for accuracy.

PRESBYTERIAN MISSIONARY DESCRIBES FORMOSA EFFORTS

Experiences of working for Christianity on Formosa among the poor aborigines who formerly were head hunters were graphically described here last weekend by Rev. Don McCall, son of a former Presbyterian pastor here. Rev. McCall has been a missionary in Japan for 11 years and on Formosa for 1 year as a representative of the Presbyterian Church in the United States.

Son of the late Rev. R. C. McCall, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Haskell for many years, the missionary addressed a family night gathering at the church here.

After 11 years in Japan, Rev. McCall was assigned by the Board of World Missions of his church to help development of a young Presbyterian Church at Taiwan. Of 220,000 aborigines on Formosa, about one-third are now Presbyterians, he said. The church with which he is working had its start "underground" in the 1920s, and remained in that situation until recognized for what it is after World War II, in 1945," Rev. McCall recounted.

On furlough in this country for one year, after which he will return to Formosa for at least three more years, and two additional years in Japan, Rev. McCall is on tour of churches in this country "to thank them for the support of our work and let their members know of the personal ties that exist among us." Rev. McCall, already in the process of obtaining his formal education for the ministry at the time his father was in Haskell, lived here intermittently principally in summer, from 1949 to 1958, the year his father died while still pastor here.

Rev. McCall's wife, the former Virginia Montgomery, was the daughter of Presbyterian missionaries for 40 years, Dr. and Mrs. James N. Montgomery. The McCall met and married while each was on separate mission assignments in Japan. They have three children, Bobby 10, Roy 9, and Frances 6.

Business Has Kept Pace With Growth of Haskell

In January 1946, Mrs. Opal Adkins and Mrs. Veta Furrh formed an owner-partnership company and purchased The Personality Shoppe from Mrs. Elma H. Guest. Mrs. Adkins had been employed by the former owner, but retired in 1938. She purchased the Service Cleaners and continued to operate it until 1945. Mrs. Furrh, a veteran first grade teacher of Haskell, taught school in the County for many years. At the time of this business venture, she was employed as teacher in the Haskell Public Schools.

Mrs. Adkins is the mother of one son, Royce Adkins, who has been attorney for the 39th Judicial District for the past 12 years. Mr. and Mrs. Furrh are the parents of one daughter, Mrs. Davis Porterfield, who resides with her family in Victoria, Texas. Both have been active members of the First Baptist Church since early childhood. They are charter members of the Business and Professional Women's Club in which each has held various offices through the years. Both are very active in civic affairs. Mrs. Adkins served on the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce from 1960 to 1963 and served as vice president the last year of her term.

They continued to operate The Personality Shoppe at 409 South First for three years. Realizing the need for more space and larger stock to take care of the steady growing clientele, they moved to the present location—413 South First which is owned by Mrs. Adkins. Through the years various programs of expansion became necessary. In 1958 the old ceiling was replaced and lowered by a new and very modern acoustical tile. To keep abreast of the modern times and with the customer's comfort and convenience always in mind, central cooling and heating was installed. Fitting rooms were enlarged and modernized. Stock and storage rooms were more conveniently located and utilized. Extra display and window facilities were added.

Again in a few years it was apparent the present facilities were still inadequate to meet the growing demands of their clientele. In the early spring of 1964 Mr. E. C. Rutledge, a commercial building designer of Lubbock, was engaged to draw up plans for a complete remodeling and redecorating job. In early September the work was started and business continued despite the hustle and bustle of carpenters and the noise of the saws and hammers. In late October, the newly remodeled and redecorated Personality Shoppe took on a new and exciting appearance.

We truly realize, had it not been for the loyal support of our faithful friends and customers this new venture could have never materialized. So to you, our Friends and Customers, we extend a cordial invitation to our Formal Opening, Monday, Nov. 30, and Tuesday, Dec. 1.

The spacious 30x100 ft. building completely remodeled and redecorated, is attractively designed in antique white and gold decor. The curved cornice which tops the fixtures throughout are scalloped and tipped with touches of gold. This gives a very pleasing and attractive appearance to the spacious interior. A luscious gold carpeting which covers the Ready-to-Wear and Millinery departments, gives a striking contrast to the white tile used in the Sportswear area.

The fitting rooms are conveniently located near the department which they serve. Each one is carpeted and equipped with three-way mirrors topped by fluorescent lights set in leaf scrolled fixtures. Good lighting is extremely important since the fashion minded woman must see herself as others see her. Entrance into the fitting rooms is made by louvered doors which allows proper air circulation as well as complete privacy for the customer. Louvered doors are used elsewhere throughout the Shoppe where needed. Many are decked with full length mirrors which add to the spaciousness of the shopping area.

The newly remodeled Personality Shoppe was designed especially with the customer's comfort, convenience and ease of shopping in mind. This was achieved through departmentalized arrangement. We, at The Personality Shoppe, sincerely believe that merchandise attractively displayed and conveniently located encourages impulse buying and leisure shopping.

The Personality Shoppe is justly proud of the Sportswear department which occupies a choice space in the store. Since this section requires sizes and colors in multiple pieces, a large stock is very necessary. To adequately take care of this, large gondolas are provided. They are attractively designed with marble type formica and decked with antique mirror on each end. With hang rods on one side and glass shelves on the other, which are interchangeable as stock varies, it can still be attractively displayed. This suggests multiple pieces and ease-of-selection for the customer.

The versatility of the attractive gondolas can be used in other departments when needed.

The Lingerie Department was given top priority in the designing of the new, exciting Personality Shoppe. Beautiful lingerie is always admired and desired by the fashion minded woman. The marble-type formica back-bar and display is supported by antique white turneries circled with touches of gold. Pendant lights of same decor overhang the large display cases and add a look of elegance on entering the Shoppe. Entrance into the lingerie fitting room is made by double-action Dutch type doors.

The Personality Shoppe prides themselves in featuring only top name brands in lingerie such as Henson-Kicker-nick, Laros, Formit-Rogers and Marja.

The nationally famous Hanes seamless hose has always made its home at The Personality Shoppe in Haskell. Claasner, the hose with the fine hair-line seam, is featured also.

The Ready-to-Wear Department features coats, suits and dresses in open-type cases that are attractively decked with antique overlays and fleur-de-lis. Each case has a special type light which brings out the true color of the garment. This is highly approved by women shoppers as color and type of fabric are very important.

The Personality Shoppe proudly boast of featuring only famous name brands exclusively, such as De De Johnson of California, Georgia Bullock, Miss Georgia, Justin McCarty, Jon McCauley, Nelly Don, Donovan-Galivan of Dallas, Betty Rose, Fashionbilt, Dalton of American, Don Sophisticates, Savoia-de-Italia, Carlye, Ed-will, Miss Pat, Bobbie Brooks, Catalina, Mixx Modes, Lillian Russell, and Vance.

The Millinery department is conveniently located near the Ready-to-Wear. In this way the customer has a choice in the selection of the hat that complements her costume. A huge mirror which decks the marble-type formica back-bar and display is supported by antique white turneries circled with gold. Pendant lights overhanging the millinery bar add to the attractiveness of the department. For distinctive styling and quality of fabric, we feature Benson hats exclusively. Mr. Benson spends many months abroad each season selecting the finest of fabrics for his hats. Other lines featured are Sue Lee, Doris, Mr. John, Sharon.

The steadily growing demand of our clientele prompted us to enlarge our Salon Room of which we are justly proud. The antique white walls form an attractive setting for the antique chest finished in jade with brass trimmings. The old-fashioned boudoir high back chair with lip-stick red velvet cushion adds a beautiful but striking contrast to the gold carpeting. A brass chandelier with hurricane type lamps lends beauty. Two walls completely mirrored add to the spaciousness of the attractive salon. Exclusive merchandise is featured for Special Occasions such as Formals, Semi Formals, After-Five Creations, Banquet, Mother-of-the-Bride.

The Personality Shoppe Keeps Abreast of All Fashion Trends

The Personality Shoppe's greatest challenge is to live up to their slogan—"SMART WEAR FOR WOMEN." Many weeks are spent each season in purchasing merchandise for the fashion-minded woman. We attend Seminars and Fashion Shows at the markets in order to keep abreast of Fashion Trends of the day. It is essential that we keep our clientele ever aware of the latest in fashion and style.

In featuring Smart Wear for Women, name brands are important in reflecting the image of the Shoppe. This has been achieved through outstanding lines such as De De Johnson of California, Justin McCarty, Fashionbilt, Betty Rose, Miss Georgia, Don Sophisticates, Carlye, Dalton, Bobby Brooks, Jan McCauley, Miss Pat and others.

Friendly service has always been of major importance at The Personality Shoppe. Whether you are shopping or on a leisure visit, you are always welcome and treated with courteous, friendly service.

Mrs. Bill Fouts Versatile Person

MRS. BILL FOUTS

Mrs. Bill Fouts, better known to her friends and customers as Lorene, is a very versatile person. She is a member of the sales staff, but when the need arises, she is very efficient in the alteration department. She and Mr. Fouts have two daughters, Mrs. Clarence Presswood, who is a former teacher in Abilene Public Schools, and Mrs. Alton Peiser, of Haskell.

Mrs. Fouts is a member of the First Baptist Church of Haskell. She and Mr. Fouts reside at 705 N. 11th Street.

WITH JUNIORS IN MIND

The newly decorated Shoppe features a Special Junior Department designed with the needs of the Junior in mind. Whether it's a coat, suit, dress or sportswear, all are conveniently located to save time for the busy Miss Juniors, you are welcome to come, browse and try on any time. Bring us your Christmas suggestions. We'll be sure Santa receives them.

Make HER Christmas one she will always remember—Shop at the Personality Shoppe.

The advent of the Christmas Season pictured above is quite a striking contrast to the old favorite of Santa and his sleigh drawn by reindeer. It's the red surry with the glittery fringe on top drawn by the little black ponies from the Buster Shelton Rice Spring Shetland Pony Farm. This entry was sponsored by The Personality Shoppe in the Christmas Parade of 1963 and was witnessed by half the population of the county.

Member of Sales Staff Six Years

MRS. J. W. MULLINS

Mrs. J. W. Mullins is a native of Haskell County and has been a member of the sales staff for six years. She and her husband have five children—two boys and three girls—three of whom taught in the Lubbock Public Schools for a time. She is a member of the Pinkerton Baptist Church. She and Mr. Mullins reside at 1307 N. Ave. E.

On Sales Staff Past Two Years

MRS. H. C. (RUBY) SULLIVAN

Mrs. H. C. (Ruby) Sullivan has been associated with the Shoppe as saleslady for two years. Before moving to Haskell, she was employed at Olney, Bowie and Vernon in the same capacity. She and her husband are ardent sports fans and reside at 416 N. Ave. E. She is a member of the First Baptist Church.

Good Grooming Takes Care

The well-groomed woman can never afford to be careless. She's the woman who is always conscious of the fashion trends depending upon a reputable cleaner for meticulous care, with clothes properly fitted and shoes well groomed.

Welcome! Men And Boys

The "Welcome Mat" is always set for the men and boys at The Personality Shoppe. Special attention is given them by our very capable sales staff in helping with their selections. A special lounge is provided where they can relax and enjoy a smoke while waiting for their purchases. Men and Boys. It's better than you think. Christmas is just around the corner. Bring us your Christmas list. You'll be glad you did.

YESTER - YEAR YEN

The experience as salesladies of the proud owners of The Personality Shoppe is a striking contrast to their experience of yester-year. In early childhood, their late grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Weaver, owned and operated a general country store. It was located along with the country post office at Vontress, Texas. They stocked groceries, candies, piece goods, shoes, hats and toiletries. It was here they received their first experience as salesladies and a "yen" to someday enter the retail field. It was the joy of their lives to help out when needed.

Even after their family moved to Haskell for better schools, they looked forward to spending their vacation "clerking in the country store."

Gifts With Extra Touch of Luxury

The Personality Shoppe is all aglow with Gifts for Her Christmas—Gifts with an extra touch of luxury. To mention only a few...

Window Displays Well Groomed At Personality

The Personality Shoppe has always taken pride in their window display. They strongly believe that attractive displays sell merchandise even after closing hours. Extra caution is taken in keeping them well-groomed at all times. Neatness, cleanliness and regular change is very essential. A background with seasonal setting adds to the attractiveness.

Each year the Christmas season is heralded by huge parade accompanied by bands from the adjacent communities. We have enjoyed the compliments of our attractive and unique entries from our customers. Santa is brought to town in various ways. The window unveiling is the highlight of the program and attracts Christmas shoppers for miles around. The Personality Shoppe has had the honor over the years of winning special recognition for the most attractive window depicting the Holiday Spirit.

At the Personality Shoppe, a Wonderland of Fashion, you'll find the lovely, the unusual and the very special. You'll be charmed with our selections ranging from the most casual to the more dressier. Visit Us Today.

ROTARY HEARS FOUNDATION'S ROLE IN WORLD PEACE EFFORT

Keynoting an observance of Rotary International's "Foundation Week," Ray McKelvain, of Abilene, vice president of Abilene Savings Association, Thursday encouraged Haskell Rotarians "to be ever mindful of what Rotary Foundation is doing to create better understanding in this world."

McKelvain, a member of the district committee on Foundation activities, cited as examples the support of the Abilene, Rochester, Crowell and Graham Rotary clubs in over-subscribing their Foundation quotas from 500 to 1,000 per cent. The Haskell club is a 300 per cent one, having paid three times its $10 per member quota to help underwrite the work of the Foundation.

The Rotary International Foundation, activated in 1947, principally as a result of memorials to its founder, the late

Paul Harris, of Chicago, has provided funds for fellowships for 1853 graduate students from 69 different nations studying in 54 different languages in foreign fields. The entire project is aimed at better understanding and more direct exchanges of information and communication, person to person, throughout the world.

McKelvain, introduced by Program Chairman Tom Barfield, told Haskell Rotarians of the inspiration and stimulation provided Abilene Rotarians by the Foundation work of the late H. W. McDade. He also described the productive effort as "an ambassador of goodwill" in New Zealand turned out by Joe Arden, former Hardin-Simmons University basketball star, who was a Rotary fellow in the country "down under" for 16 months.

Support of the Rotary Foundation, McKelvain said, "is one specific way we can be of service internationally as an individual."

Carolyn Fischer, talented Haskell High School senior, who has been the honorary high school Rotarian of the month here, presented a special solo entitled, "My Heart Will Go On Singing." She was accompanied by Rotary's Sweetheart, Mrs. Henry Withers.

Visitors at the meeting included Rotarians Frank Campbell and Clyde Grice, of Rule, R. A. Shaver Jr., and Tommy Herring, Rochester, and Garland Lewis, of Rule, guest of Clyde Grice.

Rotary Here 4th In Attendance Of 40 District Clubs

Haskell Rotary Club climbed from ninth to fourth place in attendance standings among the 40 Rotary Clubs of District 579 in Northwest-North Central Texas on the strength of three 100 per cent meetings in October, Roy Johnson, president, announced to the membership here Thursday noon.

The October 97.04 average compiled last month earned the club here the fourth slot behind Rochester, which led all 40 clubs with four 100 per cent meetings last month, Graham, with a 97.72 average, and Dublin, with 97.41.

Haskell had risen from 13th to ninth place in the district attendance contest in September.

Others in the top 10 among Rotary Clubs of the territory as announced by District Governor C. J. Dodsworth, of Bowie, were Cisco, 96.66; Stamford, 95.28; Ranger, 93.33; Coleman, 93.33; Electra, 93.08; and Quanah, 92.90.

Among Rotary Clubs, South, west Wichita Falls, with 91.47 per cent, Downtown Abilene, with 91.33, and Downtown Wichita Falls, with 90.88, were in 14th, 15th and 16th places, respectively. Southwest Abilene Rotary, with 89.62, in 22nd place, was above the district average in attendance. This average was 89.25 for October.

The Good Earth

by MRS. B. F. COBB

Dr. Gertrude Robinson's garden has been an eye-catcher all summer. Flowers of many colors and kinds, are planted there. Her office callers often forget the cares of the day, as they drink in the beauty of the flowers surrounding the building. There is one very outstanding celocia (coxcumb) of dark maroon, growing on a stem 2 1/2 to 3 feet tall. The crest (flower head) is nearly as large as a basketball.

Dr. Robinson has done many an unsung act of goodness for the needy and deserving of Haskell. I have heard so much of her kind deeds. Dr. Robinson never expects any praise for her benevolent work. But it is women like her that help to enrich the "Good Earth" both by their good deeds, and by planting flowers, so everyone may enjoy their beauty. Thanks, Dr. Robinson, for helping to make Haskell a brighter spot in which to live.

November and early December are really months of work in the garden. There is a great need to get plants into the ground before the earth freezes too solid to dig.

Here are a few things to be done in the next few weeks. Set out roses, shrubs, peony crowns and iris. Divide and replant dahlias; dahlias may be dug, dried and stored for winter.

Be sure to keep plants moist enough, to survive this winter. Asparagus crowns may be planted now. They should be planted in rows or beds, 18 to 24 inches apart, in rich porous soil. A heavy mulching of established beds helps enrich the soil and preserve winter moisture. It also prevents the heaving soil from damaging the crowns.

Set strawberry beds now and mulch well before freezing weather. Mulch established beds also.

Check garden tools for rust. oil wooden handles to prevent cracking. Store all tools in a dry place. Oil will also cut down on rust.

November and early December are the best times to set out fruit trees. Nuts, berries, and grapes can also be transplanted from now to freezing weather.

Grape vines should be pruned during the next few weeks. If more plants are desired, simply dip the pruned vines in Rootone, and put into the soil. Compost or well rotted manure, added to the rooting soil helps to promote the growth of roots. Train grapes on a fence or trellis.

Cut off all dead limbs from trees and shrubs. Burn all rose leaves, to prevent the invasion of black spot to the plant. Spray rose bushes at least twice this winter with lime sulphur or wettable sulphur. This is also a good practice for fruit trees. Sulphur kills brown rot in apples and peach.

Don't forget the Haskell Garden Club bazaar December 5.

Plenty of "Dough" In Doughnuts, Say Lions Clubbers

There's plenty of "dough" in doughnuts, enterprising members of the Lions' Clubs proved in Haskell Friday and Saturday.

Demonstrating a "they shall not pass" demeanor, some 30 persevering Lions braved bracing weather, working in shifts, and roared their sales pitch at passing motorists while standing in the middle of the street at Haskell's four main downtown intersections.

In about four hours Friday, they sold 500 dozen doughnuts, and came back Saturday to sell 300 dozen more, all they ordered, because they figured the saturation point might be near.

That made 9000 doughnuts the Lions Club sold, or almost two and a half doughnuts for every man, woman, child and dog (they like doughnuts, too). Haskell citizens found out in this town.

That also made $350 for the Haskell Lions' Goodfellows Fund for Christmas, according to President Frank Martin. So, Saturday afternoon, the Lions went home happy. Everyone else was already home—up to here in doughnuts.

Weinert Comes From Behind To Down Mattson

Tailback Larry Cunningham booted 65 yards for a touchdown in the third period to lead the Weinert Bulldogs to a come-from-behind 28-14 victory over the Mattson Mustangs last Thursday night in the season finale in District 5 six-man.

Jim Hackney's eight-yard TD pass to Larry Caddell in the first period, and Ronny Moody's one-yard plunge in the second, had given Weinert a 12-0 lead before Dennis Opitz and Jim Aycock scored for the Mustangs in the second period to give Mattson a 14-12 lead. Moody added a touchdown in the third period, and Weinert added a couple for the final score. Mattson 14, Weinert 28.

Two Haskell Legionnaires have been named members of the National Americanism Council of the American Legion, they were notified Saturday by Donald E. Johnson, national commander of the Legion.

R. V. Black, immediate past commander, and Porter Oakes, the present commander, of Rogers-Cox American Legion Post 221 here, are the appointees to the national council.

In letters to Black and Oakes, National Commander Johnson said, "I am pleased to advise you that the National Executive Committee, at its October 21-22, 1964, meeting, confirmed your appointment as a member of the National Americanism Council of the American Legion.

Your term on the Council will run until the close of the 1965 fall meeting of the National Executive Committee."

Prattler's Prophecy: For the second week in a row Prattler batted 100 per cent in pre-game predictions. For "Turkey Day," and this weekend contests, I pick 'em like this:

Rice over Baylor—The feathered flock from Houston will skin the Bears.

SMU over TCU—This is a tough one, but I will ride the ponies.

Texas over A&M, Thanksgiving Day—The Aggies will be up for this one as usual, but the horns hides are too tough.

O'Brien-Talpa In Title Tilt At Coleman Tonight

Officials representing O'Brien of District 5-B(6) and Talpa-Centennial of 6-B(6) selected Coleman on Thanksgiving Night at 7:30 o'clock as the site and time of their bi-district championship football game.

The northwestern Haskell county football capital, O'Brien, closed out its regular season with an 8-0 record, including a 4-0 mark in the district. Its final game was a 48-6 decision over Paint Creek.

Talpa's Rams, 8-0 for the season, and 3-0 in the district, clinched the playoff berth with a 41-16 rout over Lawn last week. The Rams will finish their regular season Friday night by hosting Novice.

O'Brien and Talpa are the only two remaining undefeated six-man football teams in a five-district area in Northwest-Central Texas.

To Priscilla . . .

Through the efforts of the National Catholic Welfare Conference and the Hungarian Freedom Committee, at the national level, and Father Forgo and the thoughtful Kierepka family in Haskell, Priscilla Mori began a new life in this country, and she is showing Thanksgiving through "thanks living."

But for the half hour's head start back in 1956, the Mori's might be living today as an aunt, whose existence in Hungary was described in Priscilla's message to the Kierepkas here this week.

The letter also detailed how Priscilla and her husband, Marvin, a Houston native, who already have a son, Shannon, 3, have taken in another child, Johnnie, 4, a ward of the State of California, who they are helping to raise. Priscilla still remembers, and will never forget, how the Kierepka home here, and others in this area, were opened to her when she came to this country as a refugee from Hungary.

Priscilla's parents, the Moris, left Dallas in 1960 and also now live in California. Her younger brother, Joseph, is a senior in a parochial school in Los Angeles.

In her Thanksgiving message to the Kierepkas, Priscilla no doubt felt the depth of meaning of this uniquely American observance, which is taken so matter-of-factly by so many native-born, when she wrote, "I got a letter from my aunt in Hungary. It made me cry. Things are very bad there. She said there was no food. They haven't seen potatoes or meat in three years. She said last Christmas she stood in line for one pound of frozen meat that wasn't fit to eat. They get this once a year. They get two eggs no matter how big a family you got. The farmers refused to work because any thing they produced, the Russians took it away to feed their people with. So the poor Hungarian farmer didn't have any food anyway. She said they arrested most of the men and women both. I wonder what those poor people have to live for. She said they have no coal to keep their homes warm. Remember I told you they have nine months of winter there with snow that comes up to your waist. She said they lay in their beds with their coats on to try to keep from freezing. She said they didn't have to get up to eat, because they didn't have anything to eat. That's a enough to make anyone cry."

Priscilla said the Russians limit how much money relatives can send with which to buy food "so they have those poor people trapped on all sides."

Concluding a letter which said, "I wish there were more people like you in the world," Priscilla asked to be remembered to many others who took her into their homes and hearts during three summers here, wishing "all of you a very happy and a Blessed Thanksgiving."

She, of all people, knows what Thanksgiving really means.

loved ones, health, freedom, friends, and for all of the many, many blessings bestowed upon us.

So... happy "Turkey Day" to one and all, and may this Thanksgiving, 1964, be a really happy and joyous one for you and yours.

Let's pause long enough this Thanksgiving Day to give thanks to God for our crops.

Clarence Callaway Has Narrow Escape In Car Accident

A "Mystery Shopper" will mingle with shopping crowds from Saturday throughout the season passing out "scrip" money redeemable in merchandise at a number of Haskell stores.

Santa Claus not only is coming to town Saturday. That Man Of The Year has arranged his schedule so he will be back in Haskell on weekends in December and he'll log some hours here the last four days before Christmas, too. Santa Claus will be headquartered on the north side of the square here, and mingling with the shopping crowd, too, to inquire about folks' "druthers" from 2 to 6 p. m. on the following days: Dec. 3, 4, 5, 10, 11, 12, 17, 18, 19 and 21, 22, 23, 24. Lions Club Nets $288.20 From Doughnut Sale

Secretary Harold Spain announced at the Tuesday noon, day luncheon meeting of Lions, that the Do-Nut sale held last Friday and Saturday grossed $288.20, and $288.20 was netted by the club. This money will be placed in the "Goodfellows" fund.

Co-chairmen of the project, Hugh Rathoff and George Fouts expressed their thanks to club members who turned-out strong for the sale, and also to Mrs. Baird's Bakery for furnishing the Do-Nuts.

This is the fourth year local Lions have staged the Do-Nut sale, and this year's sale topped all others.

Goodfellows Royce Adkins, chairman of the Goodfellows project told club members that around $1100.00 would be needed to take care of some 85 baskets which will be distributed to less fortunate families at Christmas, time.

Bud Pogue, of Pogue Grocery, will again furnish the groceries at cost and will assist with packing of the baskets.

Elsewhere in today's issue of the Free Press will be found a more detailed story concerning the Goodfellow Drive.

Give Thanks President Frank Martin, Dr. Frank Cadenhead, W. L. Henry, J. V. Patterson and Royce Wood, gave short "Thanksgiving Messages" at Tuesday's meeting.

Royalty Reigns At Mattson's Harvest Festival

High and grade school queens and kings reigned last Friday night over the annual Harvest Festival at Mattson Rural School, an event which netted $640 for school projects, H. L. Guess, superintendent, reported.

Reigning as high school royalty were two seniors, Kathy Moeller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Moeller, and Jimmy Aycock, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Aycock.

Plenty of home-made food, a style show of male models, which left the Festival crowd "in stitches," and a special song skit, in addition to the coronation, were the highlights of the Harvest Festival.

The style show principals, all fathers of seventh and eighth graders, included: J. W. Aycock, Leonard Weise, Jack Chapman, Bob Guess and Joe Davis.

Clifford A. Thomas, Jr., of Haskell, repeated a feat of two years ago when he made the first kill of the deer season on opening day in the Menard area, and earned a $50 award for the "first."

Ira P-TA Sends $50 Check For Isbell Fund

Members of the Ira Parent-Teachers' Association have sent a check for $50 to the recently established fund to provide financial assistance for Danny Isbell, Paint Creek High School junior seriously injured on the second play of a football game with Ira on October 15.

Young Isbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Isbell, of Paint Creek, Dallas, since the night of the mishap, suffering with a pressed fourth vertebra in the neck which left him paralyzed from the neck down. He is beginning to respond to therapy, his parents report. He is in Room 443 at Baylor Hospital.

In a letter to Abe Turner, cashier of the Haskell National Bank here and custodian of the fund voluntarily begun by Paint Creek citizens, Mrs. Howard Sterling, treasurer of the Ira P-TA, called attention to the fact that it was the Ira team which was Paint Creek's opponent the night of the accident to young Isbell, and that citizens of their community had read in the newspapers of the establishment of the fund. "We would like to do our bit, small though it may be, to help him," wrote Mrs. Sterling.

Turner has turned over Mrs. Sterling's letter and the check to Danny's parents, and has written the Ira P-TA in gratitude for that group's thoughtfulness.
