Big Spring ISD Press Release

FROM: Jay McWilliams, Big Spring ISD Superintendent
As the designated spokesperson and superintendent for the Big Spring Independent School District, I am issuing the following statement:
On Sunday, April 17, 2022, the Big Spring Police Department reported to the Big Spring ISD Administration that a District employee may have engaged in educator misconduct, specifically improper communications and an improper relationship with a Big Spring High School student. The Administration has now learned that this educator was taken into custody by the Big Spring Police Department.
Upon learning of these events, the District placed the employee on administrative leave, reported this educator's alleged misconduct to the State Board for Educator Certification, and other authorities as required by law and District policies. The school administration is grateful for the cooperation we received from local law enforcement so that interim corrective actions could be immediately implemented with the employee while investigations are pending. The District will continue to cooperate with these agencies to the fullest extent permitted by law.
Student safety and proper professional relationships between staff and students are top priorities to Big Spring ISD. Romantic relationships between District employees and students are never tolerated. The District strictly enforces its student anti-harassment policies. Employees receive regular training regarding proper professional relationships, communications, and boundaries with students.

The ultimate cure that could heal any disease? Crazy. That's exactly what research scientist Marian Creighton has always believed about her father's quest in Come Back to Me-Waters of Time Series Bk 1 (F HED J) by Jody Hedlund. A quest that stems from a desire to save her sister Ellen from the genetic disease that stole their mother from them. But when her father falls into a coma after drinking a vial of holy water believed to contain traces of residue from the Tree of Life, Marian must question all of her assumptions. He's left behind tantalizing clues that suggest he's crossed back in time. Insane. Until Marian tests his theories and finds herself in the Middle Ages during a dangerous peasant uprising. William Durham, a valiant knight comes to Marian's rescue and offers her protection as his wife. The longer Marian stays in the past, the more she cares about William. Can she ever find her father and make it back to the present to heal her sister? And when the time comes to leave, will she want to?

Restless with the familiarity of her Alabama home, Ellie Fields accepts a teaching job in a tiny Louisiana town deep in bayou country in Under the Bayou Moon (F LUE V) by Valerie Fraser Luesse. Though rightfully suspicious of outsiders, who have threatened both their language and their culture, most of the people in tiny Bernadette, Louisiana, come to appreciate the young and idealistic schoolteacher as a boon to the town. She's soon teaching just about everyone and coming up against opposition from both the school board and a politician with ulterior motives. Acclimating to a whole new world, Ellie meets a lonely but intriguing Cajun fisherman named Raphe who introduces her to the legendary white alligator that haunts these waters. Raphe and Ellie have barely found their way to each other when a huge bounty is offered for the elusive gator, bringing about a shocking turn of events that will test their love and their will to right a terrible wrong.

After years of estrangement, the lives of Zara Mahoney and her twin sister, Eve, are suddenly and completely intertwined again in The Way It Should Be (F NEL C) by Christina Suzann Nelson. Eve's troubled lifestyle causes the state to take custody of her two children and contact Zara and her husband, asking them to consider foster care. Newlywed Zara thought she'd finally been given a fresh start and feels wholly unprepared to care for a niece and nephew whose existence she wasn't even aware of. Meanwhile, Eve may have a real chance to start over this time with the help of Tiff Bradley, who's dedicated to helping women everyone else has given up on after facing a heartbreaking tragedy in her own family.

Fifteen years ago, Shelby Pearce confessed to murdering her brother-in-law and was sent to prison in Trace of Doubt (F MIL D) by Diann Mills. Now she's out on parole and looking for a fresh start in the small town of Vallesburg, Texas. But starting over won't be easy for an ex-con. FBI Special Agent Denton McClure was a rookie fresh out of Quantico when he was first assigned the Pearce case. He's always believed Shelby embezzled five hundred thousand dollars from her brother-in-law's account. So he's going undercover to befriend Shelby, track down the missing money, and finally crack this case. But as Denton gets closer to Shelby, he begins to have a trace of doubt about her guilt. Someone has Shelby in their crosshairs. It's up to Denton to stop them before they silence Shelby and the truth forever.

Sheriff: Texas Guardsman missing after border rescue attempt EAGLE PASS, Texas (AP) — A Texas National Guard member was missing Friday after going into the river along the U.S.-Mexico border to help a migrant who was struggling to swim across, according to a local sheriff.

A woman trying to cross the Rio Grande from Mexico made it about halfway to the other side when she appeared to begin going under the water, Maverick County Sheriff Tom Schmerber said. The rescue attempt happened near Eagle Pass at a section of the river known for strong currents.

"He jumped in the river," Schmerber said. "They never saw him come out."

He said the Guard member, who has not been identified, took off his jacket and left his radio before going into the water. The woman made it across and was placed in the custody of Border Patrol, said Schmerber, whose department was involved early in the search.

The Texas National Guard said in a statement that state troopers and Border Patrol agents were also helping. The department said the Guard member was assigned to Republican Gov. Greg Abbott's sprawling border security mission, known as Operation Lone Star.

DPS reminds drivers, passengers to wear aeatbelts

By Sgt. FREDERICK BIDDLE

Texas Department of Public Safety

As the school year winds down, it's a great time to remind travelers of the importance of wearing a seat belt and keeping others in their care safely secured from the unexpected. Please share the below information with your viewers, listeners, and readers.

The law regarding safety belts can be found in Section 545.413 of the Texas Transportation Code. The child safety seat law can be found in Section 545.412.

-Wearing a seat belt can reduce the risk of serious injury or death by 45% in the front seat of a passenger vehicle and by 60% in a pickup truck since they are more likely to roll over.

-All passengers should be belted in, both in the front and back seat of the vehicle.

-Children under the age of 8 must be secured in a car or booster seat unless the child is taller than 4 foot 9 inches.

- Correctly installed safety seats can reduce the risk of serious injury by 71% for infants and 54% for toddlers.

- Stages of child passenger seating (CDC):

1. Rear-Facing until two to four years old and until they reach the highest weight and height allowed by the seat manufacturer. It's best to keep a child rear-facing as long as possible, provided they are within the recommended weight and height limits. Never place a rear-facing car seat in the front seat.

2. Forward-Facing seat with a harness up to the highest weight and height allowed by the seat manufacturer.

3. Belt positioned booster seat until the seat belt fits properly without a booster. Typically this is when the child is between 9 and 12 years of age.

4. Use the vehicle's lap and shoulder belt. It's best to keep the child in the back seat until 13 years old.

-The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) says that 2 out of 3 safety seats are not used correctly.

- For more information, contact Safe Riders at 800 525-8255 or email at saferriders@dshs.texas.gov.

Steers Boys Track overcomes Dumas, 128-126 for Area win Girls take 2nd, overshadowed by powerful Canyon team

By STEVE BELVIN

Contributing Sports Writer

LUBBOCK - It just keeps getting better and better for the Big Spring Steers track team. Thursday the Steers won their seventh track meet of the season by capturing the Area track meet at Lowery Field. It was Brandon Clemmons' squad seventh track meet win in eight outings. But it was so ever so close as Dumas was nipping at the Steers' heels. After Roman Perez won the 1600 meters for Big Spring, a Dumas runner finished third in the event; Big Spring led Dumas 124-106 going into the final event, the 1600 relay. Dumas won the event scoring 20 points, setting an area record in the event, but the Steers hung on to get fifth place, giving them four valuable points. That was enough to get the Steers a 128-126 win. The Big Spring Lady Steers performed well, but Canyon dominated the women's field by scoring 228 points. Big Spring was second with 87 points. The top four finishers in each event qualified for the regional meet Friday and Saturday at Lowery Field.

US-Grenada World Cup warmup to be played in Austin

CHICAGO (AP) — The United States will play its June 10 World Cup warmup match against 170th-ranked Grenada at Q2 Stadium in Austin, Texas.

The game, part of the CONCACAF Nations League, will be the third of six World Cup warmups for the Americans.

The No. 15 U.S. plays No. 24 Morocco on June 1 in an exhibition at Cincinnati. The U.S. also is planning a friendly for June 5, possibly against 13th-ranked Uruguay, and is at No. 74 El Salvador on June 14 in the Nations League. Exhibitions are intended for Sept. 23 and 27.

Back in the World Cup for the first time since 2014, the U.S. opens Group B against Scotland, Wales or Ukraine on Nov. 21. The Americans face No. 5 England four days later and meet 21st-ranked Iran on Nov. 29.

The Grenada match venue, announced Friday, is where the U.S. beat Jamaica 2-0 in a World Cup qualifier in October.

Barring another draft surprise, Cowboys could start with OL

By SCHUYLER DIXON

AP Pro Football Writer

Jerry Jones likes the idea of the Dallas Cowboys drafting an offensive lineman since the owner and general manager knows that's one area his club hasn't addressed its personnel losses in the offseason.

"Famous last words," Jones said. "We'll get one unless Lamb or Parsons is there."

Indeed, the past two drafts didn't go as planned for the Cowboys, who were shocked two years ago when receiver CeeDee Lamb was still there at No. 17.

Last year, they had to "settle" for linebacker Micah Parsons, even trading back two spots to 12th for the eventual NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year when the cornerbacks they wanted were gone.

The difference this year is the Cowboys, after winning the NFC East, are drafting lower than recent years at No. 24 in the first round. And that's low enough for Jones not to dismiss the idea of moving up Thursday night.

"I would trade up in this draft," Jones said. "As much as you can say about it, until you see what's there and who is on the other line, but yeah, I would trade up since we're down as low as we are in those first two or three rounds."

Executive vice president of personnel Stephen Jones suggested otherwise, saying on his radio show a little more than a week before the draft that its depth because of the extra season created by COVID-19 makes staying put attractive.

"You're going one player for two, so it's got to be worth it," Stephen Jones said on his radio show. "A lot of players stayed in school and made the most of it and have gotten themselves from a late or undraftable player to very much a draftable player."

Dallas released right tackle La'el Collins in a cost-cutting move and didn't resign left guard Connor Williams, the club's second-round pick in 2018. Boston College's Zion Johnson and Kenyon Green of Texas A&M are among potential targets.

Russian swimmer Rylov banned for appearing at Putin rally

LAUSANNE, Switzerland (AP) — Russian Olympic medalist swimmer Evgeny Rylov has been banned from the sport for nine months for appearing at a rally in support of President Vladimir Putin and Russia's invasion of Ukraine.

Rylov stood on stage with medalists from other Olympic sports at the event last month and wore a jacket with a "Z" on the chest. The letter isn't part of the Russian alphabet but has become a symbol of support for Russian troops after it was used as a marker on Russian armored vehicles operating in Ukraine.

A brief statement from swimming's world governing body, FINA, on Thursday said it "acknowledged" an earlier, as yet unpublished ruling from a disciplinary panel to ban Rylov "following Mr. Rylov's attendance and conduct at an event held at the Luzhniki Stadium in Moscow."

Rylov was the star of Russia's swim team at the Olympics in Tokyo last year with two gold medals.

His ban began on Wednesday and covers any international competition.

The effect on Rylov is likely to be mostly symbolic since FINA also extended its decision to exclude competitors from Russia and its ally Belarus from all international events for the remainder of 2022.

He also lost a sponsorship deal with Speedo last month.

Opening lead — ten of clubs.
Today's deal arose in a high-level team contest in 1999. It features a play that would occur to very few players.
At both tables, the contract was four spades. It might seem, in looking at all four hands, that declarer must go down one, losing two diamonds, a heart and a spade — and that is exactly what happened when the deal was first played.
South won the opening club lead with dummy's ace and led a spade. When East showed out, declarer put up the ace and, for lack of anything better to do, led another spade. West won and shifted to a diamond, whereupon the defenders collected their two diamond tricks and played a third diamond, ruffed by South. East later scored a heart trick to sink the contract.

At the other table, after the same opening lead, the declarer, Margaret Williams, found an elegant way to give herself an extra chance if she had to lose a spade trick. Instead of leading a spade at trick two, she led a diamond!
At first blush, one might wonder what possible difference this could make, but the answer was soon forthcoming. In practice, East won the diamond with the ace and continued with the queen and another diamond, ruffed by South.
Williams now played the ace of spades and, upon learning that she had a trump loser, cashed the A-K of hearts before conceding a spade to West's king. West then had to return a diamond or a club, allowing South to discard her remaining heart as she ruffed in dummy, and the contract was home.
Observe that once declarer led a diamond at trick two, there was nothing the defenders could do to defeat her. If they shifted to a heart after taking the first diamond, Williams would win, play a second diamond, win the heart return and ruff a diamond to achieve the same thing better to do, led another

Today in History

Today is Monday, April 25, the 115th day of 2022. There are 250 days left in the year.

Today's Highlights in History:

On April 25, 1945, during World War II, U.S. and Soviet forces linked up on the Elbe (EL'-beh) River, a meeting that dramatized the collapse of Nazi Germany's defenses.

On this date:

In 404 B.C., the Peloponnesian War ended as Athens surrendered to Sparta.

In 1507, a world map produced by German cartographer Martin Waldseemueller contained the first recorded use of the term "America," in honor of Italian navigator Amerigo Vespucci (veh-SPOO'-chee).

In 1859, ground was broken for the Suez Canal.

In 1862, during the Civil War, a Union fleet commanded by Flag Officer David G. Farragut captured the city of New Orleans.

In 1898, the United States Congress declared war on Spain; the 10-week conflict resulted in an American victory.

In 1901, New York Gov. Benjamin Barker Odell, Jr. signed an automobile registration bill which imposed a 15 mph speed limit on highways.

In 1915, during World War I, Allied soldiers invaded the Gallipoli (guh-LIH'-puh-lee) Peninsula in an unsuccessful attempt to take the Ottoman Empire out of the war.

In 1945, delegates from some 50 countries gathered in San Francisco to organize the United Nations.

In 1990, the Hubble Space Telescope was deployed in orbit from the space shuttle Discovery. (It was later discovered that the telescope's primary mirror was flawed, requiring the installation of corrective components to achieve optimal focus.)

In 1992, Islamic forces in Afghanistan took control of most of the capital of Kabul following the collapse of the Communist government.

In 2002, Lisa "Left Eye" Lopes of the Grammy-winning trio TLC died in an SUV crash in Honduras; she was 30.

In 1919, former Vice President Joe Biden entered the Democratic presidential race, declaring the fight against Donald Trump to be a "battle for the soul of this nation."

Ten years ago: The U.S. Supreme Court heard arguments on Arizona's tough immigration law. (A divided court later threw out major parts of the law.)

Five years ago: A federal judge blocked President Donald Trump's attempt to withhold funding from "sanctuary cities" that did not cooperate with U.S. immigration officials, saying the president had no authority to attach new conditions to federal spending. Ivanka Trump drew groans and hisses from an audience in Berlin while defending her father's attitude toward women, but brushed the negative reaction aside as "politics" during her first overseas trip as a White House adviser.

One year ago: America's top general in Afghanistan said the U.S. military had begun closing down operations in the country and that Afghanistan's security forces "must be ready" to take over. "Nomadland," Chloë Zhao's portrait of itinerant lives on open roads across the American West, won Best Picture at the 93rd Academy Awards; Zhao was honored as best director.

The Spider

During Mark Twain's days as a newspaperman, he was the editor of a small Missouri paper.
One day, he received a letter from a subscriber stating that he had found a spider in his paper and asked if this was an omen of good or bad luck.
Twain replied, "Finding a spider in your paper is neither good nor bad luck. The spider was merely looking over our paper to see which merchant was not advertising so that he could go to that store, spin his web across the door and lead a life of undisturbed peace ever after."

Advertise to keep the spider away from your door.

Taurus Solar Check-In

These early days of the Taurus solar journey ask, "What would you go to great effort to obtain?" Taurus is the sign associated with money, luxury and material belongings. While the mantra of Aries is "I am," the mantra of Taurus is "I have." The Taurus sun reveals our values through what we acquire and how well we maintain those possessions.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). If you do not know which way is north, the map's usefulness is limited. Start out by orienting yourself and it will become much easier to find what you're looking for.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Do you mind if someone orbits you? An admirer exists in your realm and is looking for even the slightest indication that you are open to accepting some flattering attention.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). It is only natural for newcomers to feel uncomfortable in a group, but you have a way of putting everyone at ease. Your inclusive warmth will help people relax and be themselves.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). The silence doesn't have to be awkward; the pause doesn't have to be weird. Think of it as an absence of distraction and use stillness as an opportunity for understanding.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Casual situations will suit you best today. Avoid formality whenever you can. If you have to participate in an official arrangement, learn the rules first and follow them well.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). The qualities you are looking for in a partner have changed over time and they will continue to do so. The ideal partnership is not an unchanging one, rather it's a partnership built around changing together.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). The Greek word philosophia describes a "love of knowledge, pursuit of wisdom; systematic investigation." It coincides perfectly with your current focus on developing, honing and living your personal philosophy.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). Your modesty can make it difficult for you to receive praise. However you feel initially, deep inside you know that you are worthy of this, so smile and take it all in.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). This is a time to do full disclosure, be totally transparent and to show your work. You will create bonds as you fascinate others. You'll improve quickly when they point out your strengths and help you see mistakes.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). You are coming to the point in a venture when there's nothing more you can do, or are willing to do, to influence the outcome. So, with a mix of relief and apprehension, you leave it to the fates.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb.

18). When was the last time you made a decision solely based on your personal needs and preferences? Making a seemingly selfish choice now is overdue, and it isn't just you who is going to benefit from this.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). The thing you want isn't on a shelf waiting for you to grab it; it's a moving target. The way to reach the goal is not by aiming at it but by aiming (SET ITAL) beyond (END ITAL) it. This will take more than you thought but it will be worth it.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (April 25). The fates fall in love with your moxie. You've learned from the things that didn't quite work in the past, so new ventures have a much higher probability of success. Nothing you've done has been a loss. Developments in your personal life will inspire a move or travel. New purchases have you getting around in style. Pisces and Capricorn adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 30, 7, 18, 3 and 40.

CELEBRITY PROFILES: In "The Thing About Pam," Renee Zellweger shape-shifts to play someone very different from herself, as she did with the characterization of Judy Garland that won her second Oscar. Zellweger is a down-to-earth Taurus with a strong Leo current in her chart. Leo is the energy of entertainment.

Here's How It Works:

Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
