New City Council Seated Tues. Night

Haskell's newly-elected mayor and city council signed the oath of office prepared by outgoing city secretary, and proceeded with the business before them, Tuesday evening.

Ira Hester was appointed city secretary-treasurer to replace T. J. Arbuckle, who had submitted his resignation more than a month ago, due to stressing business matters. It was noted that Kenneth Thornton, former assistant city secretary-treasurer, had previously resigned his position. Mr. Hester was authorized to proceed to hire a part time office secretary to assist him and Mrs. Ora Stovall with their duties.

Economy Measures Taken By New City Council

Haskell's new city council voted unanimously on Tuesday night to reduce the salaries of all members to $1.00 per year. The mayor's salary has been $385.00 per year, and the councilmen $60.00 per year. This placed into effect a saving to the city of $679.00 per year.

Further action taken by the council reduced the expense of the city office personnel from $1010.00 per month to $635.00 per month, effecting a saving of $375.00 per month. It is the intention of the council to use such savings to supplement the income of certain city employees whose salary status will be reviewed in the near future.

He was the top Jaycee in his local club in 1959, the best state officer in 1961, and was named as one of the top five state presidents in the country in 1963. C of C Directors Have Busy Session At Early Morning Meeting, Tuesday

Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce held their regular meeting April 12, 7:00 a. m., at Felker's Restaurant, with Raja Hassen, president, presiding.

A report of the Airstrip paving was given by Raja Hassen. Thirteenth month dues have been slow since the $550.00 was paid on the note to Mr. Strain. A third letter will be mailed to those who have not responded to the two previous letters. It is necessary to raise another $263.00.

Douglas B. Finch, Industrial chairman, reported that he had talked to James Glenn of West Texas Utilities Industrial Dept. Mr. Glenn had contacted the firm from Tulsa interested in selecting a location site in Texas. The president of the firm and James Glenn will be in Haskell in the near future.

Mr. Finch stressed the importance of the citizens being proud of their town. Glenn is also working on another prospect for Haskell. The Industrial Foundation, which is separate from the Chamber of Commerce, will need an option on 10 acres of land. A meeting of the Industrial Foundation has been set for April 21, at 7:30 p. m., in the District Courtroom. Charles Swinson will serve as moderator.

James Franklin, Jaycee president, was introduced and he called attention to the Jaycee Installation Banquet, April 16. The Education and Recreation committee chairman, Mrs. Luther Burkett, gave a report of the meeting last week. Dr. David W. Hunt of the Co-ordinating committee, was here to discuss the steps necessary for a Junior College in this area. Dr. Hunt is touring West Texas and it is the purpose of the Co-ordinating Board to locate Junior College sites. The board now has petitions for nine Junior Colleges. He recommended five counties for this district which would include Jones County. Mrs. Burkett will ask a representative from all communities to make up a committee of board members. Dr. Hunt will then meet with this committee. A Junior College would be a great asset to Haskell. Courses would be available to train workers for industry. If a district is selected in this area it is the decision of the Co-ordinating board and not the board members to designate the location of a junior college.

Mrs. Byron Frazier, Retail chairman, urged all merchants to take part in the Flea Market.

TRADITION AND FUTURE MIX WITH CIRCUS HERE APRIL 19TH

The true American Circus, complete with Big Top, flying banners, sawdust and pink cotton candy will be on hand when Birmann Bros. Great 3-Ring Circus makes its appearance for one day only in Haskell, Tuesday, April 19, at the rodeo ground, with performances at 6:00 and 8:00 p. m.

General admission price for anyone, child or adult, will be only 75 cents and this price includes the entire main show and all advertised features.

The circus is under the sponsorship of the local American Legion Post and funds subscribed will be used by Legionnaires to sponsor Pony and Little League teams.

The show travels in a convoy of giant trucks and trailers and carries an administrative and working crew of over one hundred persons, in addition to scores of performers.

The first all-modern circus, the big show has been completely rebuilt and modernized to make possible the handling of such a huge project which exhibits seven days a week, in seven different towns each week, during the entire forty week circus season. However, all the true elements of the genuine old-fashioned tented circus have been preserved. The Big Top is all new this year, larger than any canvas arena to go on tour in recent years, and modern devices such as hydraulic stake drivers and mechanical canvas loaders are utilized to make possible the prompt "putting up" and "tearing down" essential to keeping the Circus on its busy schedule.

More than 30 feature acts will be presented in all three rings, with a full 90-minutes of arena and aerial entertainment; plus Birmann Bros. all new super-spectacles for 1964, "America the Beautiful," "Cinderella in Spangleland," "Oriental Fantasy," and "Circus Climax Colossal," which far outshine anything ever attempted by any traveling show and rival the productions of Broadway or Hollywood.

The circus exhibits as advertised rain or shine, and tickets are available on the circus grounds before each performance at new low prices.

ROTARY HEARS INFORMATIVE TALK ON NATIONAL SECURITY

Rotarian R. C. Couch, Jr., who is referred to when on temporary duty with the United States Army as Lieutenant Col. R. C. Couch, Jr., shared with the Rotary Club at its regular Thursday meeting on April 7 a summary of a Seminar which he attended at Camp Jaffee, Arkansas.

Rotarian Couch dealt with problems and conditions facing the nation and the world, derived from his "active duty" study.

The United States, the speaker said, occupies 7 percent of the world's land space, has 6 percent of its people, but uses 32 percent of the world's minerals. Americans use 32 percent of the world's oil, but does 34 percent of the work of the world.

In the area of fresh water resources and needs, the speaker informed the club that in 1965 the total industrial use of water by Americans was 192 billion gallons per day, while in 1980 we would be consuming 277 billion gallons per day. Domestic use of water in 1965 was 32 billion gallons per day, and in 1980 the use would be 40 billion gallons per day. For agricultural use (irrigation), 148 billion gallons per day were consumed in 1965, while the demand in 1980 would be 178 billion gallons per day. Of 1,200 billion gallons per day available now to the entire United States, we are scheduled to be using 495 billion gallons per day.

Couple this with the population explosion in the United States, which the speaker described as being "more dangerous than the hydrogen bomb," we are in for some rude awakenings in future years unless we gear ourselves for the future. The population of the United States is increasing at the rate of 160,000 people per day. The population of the United States is now doubling itself every 44 years. The world population by the year 2000 will be six billion people.

The freshly informed speaker further told his intensely interested listeners that 26 percent of the oil reserves were controlled by the Middle East, while the Soviet Bloc controlled 10 percent and the United States only 9 percent. This is a statistic difficult for Texans to realize. This is why the Middle East (the Asian countries) are so important to our foreign policy—

Representatives To Boys State Are Announced

Haskell High School teachers have nominated the following students to attend the American Legion Boys State to be held in Austin, June 11-18.

Fred Boon, Commander, announced today a list of boys and their sponsors:

Wayne Cadehead, sponsored by Toliver Chevrolet Co.

Keith Chapman, sponsored by Haskell Butane Co.

Thornton Gilmore, sponsored by the American Legion.

Riley Couch, sponsored by the Rotary Club.

Clinton Callaway, sponsored by the Lions Club.

Steve Munday, sponsored by the Haskell National Bank.

Kelly Adkins, sponsored by the Haskell Bar Association.

Paul Hiebert, sponsored by Carl Anderson.

The council expressed its desire to serve the city without compensation, because, the new mayor, Douglas B. Finch said, "Many citizens will be called upon to help the city administration in future projects and problems." It was the desire of the council to place themselves on equal footing remuneratively with all other citizens who will be called upon to serve the city without compensation.

Bids were authorized to be opened for a certified public accountant to completely audit the city records for the period of the previous city administration's tenure of office, in deference to the incoming secretary-treasurer's office.

A resolution was unanimously adopted to allow the city to participate in a regional economic planning commission with other area towns, the cost of which will be borne by federal funds.

Mayor Finch subsequently appointed Abe Turner and Jimmy Medley to represent the city on this commission.

The council voted to rescind the action of the prior city council making an appointment to the North Central Texas Municipal Water Authority, and requested Carl Anderson, the water commissioner, make recommendation at a future meeting.

The council instructed the city secretary to prepare an agenda in the city water office upon which citizens might enter any business to be brought before the council, which agenda will be typed and given to each council member by the secretary one day prior to each future council meeting.

It was noted that the date of the annual spring clean-up for the city would be designated as

T. J. Arbuckle Resigns As City Secretary

T. J. Arbuckle, Haskell city secretary for the past 18 years, has resigned that position. Mr. Arbuckle offered his resignation to the council more than a month ago, due to the fact he is administrator of his deceased brother's estate. Homer P. Arbuckle and had to spend so much time in San Antonio taking care of the business matters of the estate.

Mr. Arbuckle came to Haskell in 1908 from Taylor, Texas, and from that date until 1944 served as bookkeeper and funeral director for Jones-Cox Company.

In 1944 Mr. Arbuckle was solicited to run for city secretary as at that time it was an elective office. In 1950, the city secretary's post was changed from an elective to an appointive position and he was appointed to continue to serve.

Mr. Arbuckle has one son, C. F. Arbuckle, of Fort Worth, and one daughter, Mrs. J. D. Johnson, Abilene, and three grandchildren. His wife passed away in 1959. He will continue to make his home in Haskell.

Trav, as most everyone calls him, has served the city well as its secretary and he and his services will be greatly missed down city hall way.

PERSISTENCE

All preparations for industry has one objective in mind—that of actually putting before the prospect your community as a profitable location from which to operate.

When the survey team arrives, then simultaneously the moment of truth arrives. The community spokesman must then be at his best. It is too late to plant trees, paint the houses and shine up the parks. As with people, what communities are, speaks so loudly that one often cannot hear what they say. However, if the preceding steps have been diligently taken, the presentation should be straightforward and without pain.

Regardless of the outcome of such talks, the most important aspect of this last step is PERSISTENCE. Industrial development can never be a one-shot proposition. In a world of change even the prospect that said NO a year ago may change his mind. Keep at it. If we are solidly and sincerely behind a good story, full of facts, we should keep telling it to each and every one on our select list and then some. We cannot afford to take no for an answer, unless we wish to list ourselves as the most pleasant wide place in the road in Texas.

NATIONAL LIBRARY WEEK

National Library Week is to be observed from April 17 through 23. It symbolizes a service and a need that are of the utmost importance in this complex modern world.

A library is many things. It is, first of all, a repository of the thoughts, the wisdoms, the failures and successes, and events great and small which marred or brightened the centuries which have passed. It holds, within its confines, the history of man and nature.

A library exists to provide knowledge and understanding. It has no limits—everything ever known under the sun is within its province. A library is timeless, in the sense that it embraces all of time.

A library offers the reader amusement, relaxation, the opportunity to quietly contemplate himself and the world around him. It provides, from its many voices, comfort or challenge, relief from care or stirrings of ambition—whatever may be one's needs or desires.

It is impossible to conceive of a world without libraries. Never in the endless reach of history has knowledge been so important. That is true of the knowledge that lies behind the miracles of science and invention which are transforming life more swiftly than we realize. And it is true, above all, of the knowledge that comes out of the past and that deals with the principles and attitudes and values that transcend the material and give true meaning to the existence and perpetuation of mankind.

The Good Earth

by MRS. B. F. COBB

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Campbell have landscaped their yard with an eye to year around beauty.

A lovely red barberry is Mrs. Campbell's (Velma) pride and joy. Some years the plant really has to struggle to live through our ever-changing winters. So far it has survived its battle of the elements.

Their gardenia came near giving up the ghost last winter, but is putting out new foliage once more. Nandina, euonymus, waxleaf legustrum and pyracantha march around the west and north sides of the house. A large rose bed gives beauty to the east yard, as does a lovely honeysuckle.

An euonymous hedge and three large hackberry trees give privacy to an outdoor eating area, making holidays a real pleasure.

Mrs. Emmet Wyche and I drove over part of Haskell yesterday and we were really enchanted with so many spring flowers. It seems as if Mother Nature has used her paint brush to paint each yard in gay, vivid colors.

Lilac, photenia, tulips, iris and many other flowers are in full bloom throughout town.

Mr. and Mrs. Jetty Clare's yard is like a scenic postcard. Orchid lilacs make a background for purple and yellow iris. A deep pink flowering peach spreads its protecting limbs over the iris bed. Shrubs frame the house to complete the picture.

A visit to nurseries and seed houses this week left me with spring fever so great I could hardly keep from buying some of the many bedding plants they offer this year. I've never seen such an array of bedding plants that are displayed all over town this year.

We have still not become settled, so I can not plant a garden yet.

I have an amaryllis blooming in our house for Easter and another bulb has a flower stem (scape) about six inches high. At least we have had indoor pleasure this year from growing plants.

Do not forget to enter the best of your garden in the Haskell show case of the Haskell Garden Club. This section is open to the public.

The Rev. Caleb Hildebrand of Epworth Methodist Church of Lubbock performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. W. R. Weddington of Borger was organist and Larry Marshall of Lubbock was soloist. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Warren Henry of Lubbock.

Mrs. Don Haynes, sister of the groom, of Weatherford, Okla., was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Mack Sansing, cousin of the bride, of Higgins, Texas, and Miss Susanne Nance, cousin of the bride, from Stamford, Texas. Flower girl was Kim Haynes, niece of the groom.

Don Haynes, brother-in-law of the groom, of Weatherford, was best man. Serving as ushers and candlelighters were Travis Clifton of Haskell and Don Craig of Groom. Grooms-men were Steve Sisk and Neal Lowry of Lubbock.

The bride wore an Empire sheath gown of white peau-de-soie, with a redingote overskirt that fell to a chapel train. District "8" Governor Visits Rule Garden Club

The Rule Garden Club met Wednesday, April 6, at 12:15 for a salad luncheon. Mrs. Henry Cloud, Mrs. Lynn Martin and Mrs. C. O. Davis and Mrs. J. A. Hertel were hostesses for the luncheon.

Mrs. Harry Key of Albany, assisted by Mrs. Charles Jacobs of Albany, National Flower Show Judges, demonstrated to the Garden Club how to make their own flower arrangement containers. Mrs. Key used paper mache to cover bottles, glasses, bowls and many other household utensils. After the paper mache dried, the containers were painted or varnished. Mrs. Key had containers made of rocks, driftwood, old light fixtures, cog wheels and old phonograph records. She stated that one need not buy containers, that they can be made from odds and ends found around the home and garage.

Mrs. Key and Mrs. Jacobs also made beautiful flower arrangements for these containers. There were 21 members present. Guests were Mrs. Gene Overton, president of Haskell Garden Club, Mrs. Charles McBeath of Amarillo, Mrs. Key and Mrs. Jacobs.

Guest of honor was Mrs. Reaves Hickman, District 8 Governor from Albany.

The Governor's message to the Garden Club stressed Civic beautification and applying for the Sears Award.

This is the first time in the history of Rule Garden Club that it has been honored by the presence of the District 8 Governor.

Rainbow Sewing Club Installs New Officers

Stella Josselot was hostess to the Rainbow Sewing Club, April 5th. Her home was beautifully decorated with Easter motifs. Flossie Rogers led the group in singing and Florence Larned installed the following new officers: Annie Thomas, president; Sallie Patterson, vice president; Edna Fouts, secretary; Ethel Edwards, reporter and Flossie Rogers, song leader.

Sallie Patterson gave the thought for the day. Committee reports were given and cards sent to the sick and bereaved. Florence Larned won honors for the most sewing and was in charge of the recreation. A song, "Revelation", was sung by Anna Thomas, Stella Josselot and Flossie Rogers. A comical song was sung by Ethel Edwards that she had learned when a small girl.

Various games furnished diversion and May Larned gave a reading, "The Best Things of Life." Closing song was "Willing Workers."

Progressive Study Club Continues Study Of Year, "Headlines of World Affairs"

Continuing the study of the year, "Headlines of World Affairs," the Progressive Study Club met Thursday evening, April 7th, for a program on "Indonesia and Malaysia."

In discussing Indonesia, Mrs. W. E. Woodson said, "Indonesia not only looks like a puzzle... it is a puzzle to much of the world. Here's why: It brims with natural riches, yet those riches have only begun to be barely developed. Its soil is so rich that Indonesian farmers jokingly tell visitors, 'Don't lean too hard on your walking stick... it may take root.' Yet some of the people get barely enough to eat. It has the largest army in southeast Asia... equipped with the latest Soviet weapons, yet it claims to be threatened by the new nation of Malaysia, whose total population is a little more than one-tenth that of Indonesia. Her hope for the future lies in developing its own vast resources and establishing a free government that repeats the rights of its people."

Background of Malaysia was the topic discussed by Mrs. W. H. Pitman. Malaysia has many problems among its people. Of every five Malaysians, two are Chinese and one is a tribesman with little knowledge of the world outside his village. The people have different religions and different ways of life. United them so they can work together for the good of Malaysia will be a big job. Even more urgent is the need to get along somehow with next-door Indonesia. That country (population 100 million) has cut-off all trade with Malaysia (10 million). Also angry with Great Britain for helping create Malaysia, Indonesia has seized all British businesses and encouraged mobs to wreck many of them.

Mrs. W. O. Holden told of many of the recent conflicts with these two countries which has been in the news recently.

Mrs. Gerald McCoy, president, presided over the business meeting.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Howard Perry, Frank Martin and O. D. Pool.

The next meeting date will be April 21 when Mrs. Lee Roy O'Neal, O. D. Pool and M. B. Powell will present a panel on the Congo.

Haskell's New Mayor and Councilmen Issue Statement

Haskell's newly elected Mayor and Councilmen reaffirmed their position today in an interview with the Free Press. Douglas B. Finch, the Mayor, and Carl Anderson, Buster Gholson and Jim Sampson, Councilmen, all elected in the recent city election to two-year terms of office, made the following joint statement:

"We wish to express our deep appreciation for the confidence shown in us at the polls, and we approach our new duties on behalf of all the people of Haskell with humility. It is our desire to convey to our fellow citizens in our future action what we feel in our hearts, and that is that a public office is a public trust. We have refused in the past to be angry with anyone, and we refuse in the future to be angry with anyone. Even the people who voted against us have an equal voice in their city government. Your newly-elected officials will have an open mind toward all our problems and challenges, and will listen to what anyone and everyone has to say.

"We desire to reiterate that we are committed to no water project. It is our intention to close the door on the past animosities and to the extent that we are able, to begin anew in our deliberations—just as though we were starting for the first time. All of us, of course, can draw on our past experience, and it is necessary that we do so—so that all our trials and tribulations will not be entirely in vain. We must learn from our mistakes; for if we do not learn from them, we will only make some mistakes again that could be avoided.

"We earnestly urge all of our citizens to forget and forgive all past conflicts. It is obvious that much that is simply not true has been repeated so many times that many have come to accept even the most blatant falsehoods as the truth. This is one of the basic fallacies of human nature. Adolph Hitler taught us that 'if we repeat a lie long enough and loud enough people will begin to believe it.'"

"It is our tentative plan to appoint a Water Commission to study our problems in this regard. We will invite persons who have diverse feelings about the water situation to sit on the commission. It will be required that all commission members proceed rationally to face the problems before us. After the commission has met for a certain period of time, a vote will be taken on the simple proposition of whether or not something should be done, or nothing should be done. If the majority of the Commission votes that something should be done, then those members of the Commission who feel that nothing should be done will be dismissed from the Commission, and the reformed Commission will then be asked to proceed to recommendations to the City Council. The entire detailed records of the city income will be made available to the commission, together with a city budget—plus any other information they may desire. Mr. Carl Anderson, the newly appointed City Water and Sewer Commissioner, will be an ex-officio member of the Commission. All interested citizens will be invited to address the commission; but it will be expressly stipulated that such overtures must be devoid of references to personalities or past controversies, and must pertain to the issue of water supply. It will be the task of the Commission to indicate to the City Council that any program recommended must be financially feasible.

"The term, 'Miller's Creek' has become one that provokes strong feelings in the minds of some people. WE WISH TO ADVISE AGAIN THAT NOT A SINGLE ONE OF YOUR ELECTED OFFICIALS ARE IN ANY WAY ALLIED TO THE MILLER'S CREEK PROJECT. We are proceeding to become an integral part of the Economic Survey Commission, by the appointment of the same two men officially to represent the city who now are acting unofficially. These men are Abe Turner and Jimmy Medley. Mr. Turner is Secretary of the Commission.

"It is our express purpose to turn the city back to the people—to let them know that it is their city, and they must decide its destiny. We are public servants, elected to carry out the wishes of the majority of our citizens—and we hope, ALL of our citizens. We will not reimpose Ad Valorem taxes upon persons unless and until such time as this proves agreeable to all persons, in which case it will have to be a last resort. If we receive a federal grant for any water project, WE WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO UTILIZE AD VALORUM TAXES, BUT ONLY REVENUE BONDS. Even in this latter case, we will have to ascertain if Haskell can afford its participation in retiring any such incurred bonds, in view of the fact that the normal operation of our city depends importantly upon water income. All such figures will be made public...through our local newspaper.

Even if we proceed to establish a surface water supply for Haskell, we will do everything in our power to re-establish good relations with certain of our neighboring towns in order that the cost of the project will be distributed fairly and equitably. It always has been, and it still is, our unverified opinion that Haskell could not afford to undertake the proposed project with only Goree, Rule, Munday and Haskell in the project.

"Even in the eventuality of the ultimate development of a surface water supply, we will in no wise abandon or cease to use our well supply. The time might come when both sources will be flowing through the same water mains. The time might come when more irrigation will be required by our farmers, and we want plenty of water available for this use.

"Most importantly, we pledge our cooperation with the Chamber of Commerce. We are encouraging the completion of plans to organize an Industrial Foundation, for which organization the charter has already been received. The City Administration, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Industrial Foundation will be three separate and distinct organizations, but we pledge our support and cooperation to both of them.

"We earnestly urge all citizens to end once and for all any ideas of boycotting certain businesses because of political differences. We will have persons representing a small industry prospects coming into our town to investigate our civic climate and facilities. They normally, incognito, move around among our citizens to find out what people think about our town. WE MUST SPEAK HIGHLY OF OUR TOWN OR WE WILL BE INADVERTENTLY TURNING AWAY INDUSTRIAL PROSPECTS.

"However, it is not speaking against our town when we face our problems honestly and openly. Cotton is in trouble. A very competent source has informed us that cotton income this year may be down as much as 35 to 40 percent. We hope this is not the case, but we must prepare for the eventuality.

"We plan to arrange certain historical signs around Haskell in the hope of attracting and delaying tourists who might come through this area. Tourism is a tremendous source of income for other areas, but we have made no attempt to attract any of it. $750,000,000 (seven hundred and fifty million dollars) was spent in Texas last year by tourists. Even Haskell, believe it or not, is steeped in western lore, and this is the type of thing that 'back-easterners' are looking for when they come west. We must make a beginning in this area, even though it be a meagre beginning. We ask that our meagre efforts not be ridiculed, and that we all understand what we are about.

"We desire that certain political 'weapons' used in the past be retired once and for all. We want our elderly citizens to understand that they will not be taxed out of their homes. We want the persons who reside in the Federal Housing Authorities to understand that the local City Administration has absolutely NOTHING TO DO with the rent levels charged by that Administration...and that nothing we do locally has any effect whatsoever on the amount of rent paid by the occupants of federal housing. If the rent is raised, it will be because the Fort Worth office of that authority raises the rent. WE HAVE NOTHING TO DO WITH IT, AND NOTHING WE DO CAN AFFECT IT...ONE WAY OR THE OTHER. It is simply out of our jurisdiction and authority.

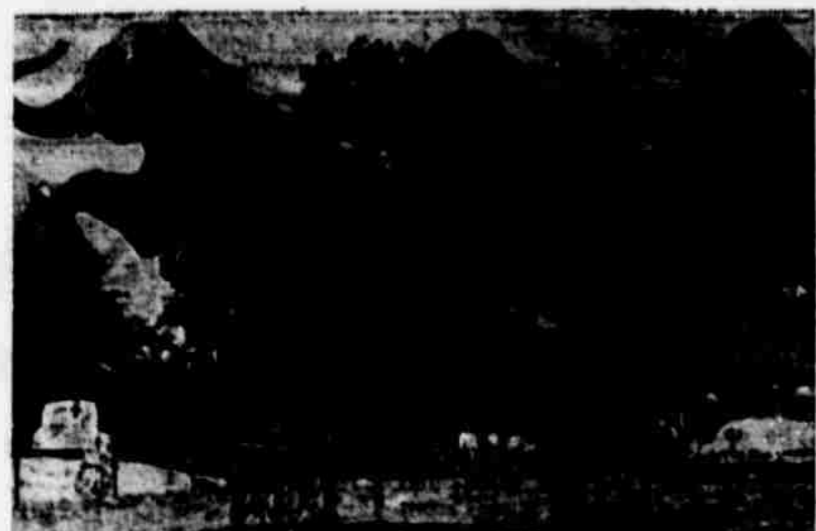

"Our dear friend and long public servant, Mr. Arbuckle, has long expressed a desire to retire from his office. He has submitted his resignation, and we have proceeded to replace him as City Secretary and Treasurer. This action was immediately necessary in order that the city tax forms might be imprinted with the proper name. We have requested that Mr. Arbuckle kindly remain with us long enough to familiarize the new City Secretary with office procedures. Mr. Arbuckle has pressing and lucrative duties awaiting him in San Antonio, and he leaves his of-rice with our deepest gratitude for long service rendered and sincere best wishes for continued good health and well-being.

"We said in our campaign material, we make no rash promises, except that we will do our best for all citizens of Haskell. We encourage each citizen to remain honestly informed about our procedures. We are happy to talk to anyone at any time. The City Hall will be open to any citizen who desires to make his views known. All council meetings will be open to the public, except, of course, where judicial action becomes necessary involving personalities in infraction of rules. Even then the results will be made public. "We pledge our support to all civic organizations, to our bank, and to our newspaper. "Most importantly, we reaffirm that fact that we view this public trust as our ministry to our community. We want the city employees to feel free to bring us their complaints without reprisal or vindictive action. We will do our job, and we will do it to the best of our ability. Action taken by us at its Tuesday meeting reported elsewhere in the Free Press.

BIRNAM BROS. ELEPHANT HERD will be on hand to entertain "children of all ages" when Birnam Bros. Great 3-Ring Circus comes to Haskell on Tuesday, April 19, and will erect its tented city at the Rodeo Grounds to give performances at 6:00 and 8:00 p. m. for the one day only. To Residents Of Haskell Co. And Prec. 2

I, Jiggs Edwards, am fifty-two years old and have been a resident of Haskell County for about fifty years. I believe strongly in the democratic way of life. I have never run for any county or precinct office before.

My family consists of my wife, Thelma; two daughters of the home, Anita, 17, and Bette, 14; and Mrs. Bill Cammack of Moses Lake, Washington. Her husband, Captain Cammack, is a pilot in the Strategic Air Command.

We, of the home, are active members of the Weichert Methodist Church. I have served the church in almost every capacity. I have served the city and school likewise. I served about fourteen years on the Weichert school board, having resigned to make this campaign for Commissioner of Precinct 2.

I feel that my experience in city and school affairs will help me to qualify for this office. If the people of Precinct 2 should elect me to this office, I will give my very best towards the improvement of roads and also the business affairs of the county, always being available for sincere discussion with anyone on any issue. I will devote full time to this office.

Due to circumstances beyond my control, I may fail to contact some of you. I wish to take this opportunity to solicit your vote and influence. I have tried and shall continue to try to see each of you personally. If I fail, please consider this a personal solicitation for your vote when you go to the polls on May 7. Thank you for your consideration, time and vote.

FU Asks Efforts Be Renewed To Farmers Reach The Goal Of Parity

In response to the announcement of Secretary Orville Freeman that farm prices and food costs are declining, the President of Farmers Union, Tony T. Dechant, called upon the Secretary of Agriculture "to renew his efforts to help farmers reach the goal of parity.

"This objective of Farmers Union is the objective of farm families everywhere. Parity is a realistic, attainable and necessary objective and in the longrun, consumers will benefit too, because of stable food prices and adequate supplies.

"There is no need for apology of food-price increases resulting from shortages," Dechant said, "but we would hope farm programs could be based on satisfactory income to farmers thus insuring adequate supplies.

"The fact is that price support increases announced for milk and soybeans are too low and came too late to prevent shortages of these commodities.

Shortages of these and other commodities will continue to occur along with boom and bust price cycles until farmers are assured adequate prices.

"The declining number of farmers generally, the exit of many dairy farmers, and the highly selective investments of farmers remaining in business, are all factors which must be reckoned with, if food shortages are to be avoided in the future.

Your Patronage Sincerely Appreciated

To The People Of Haskell County:

"I am a Democrat and I am a candidate for County Judge of Haskell County.

"First, I want to thank all the people of Haskell County for their fine support you gave me eight years ago when I ran for County Judge and I want to ask for your continued support.

And for those who did not vote for me, I want to ask you for your support.

"I have lived in Haskell for 56 years, having been in business for 27 years. I feel that my business experience has qualified me for the office of County Judge.

"I was administrator of the Haskell County Hospital for four years and operated the hospital these four years and I never asked the Commissioners Court for a dime. During those four years I purchased $25,000 worth of equipment and paid for it out of hospital funds.

Again, I think this qualifies me for the office of your County Judge.

"My opponent has been County Judge for eight years. I feel that this is long enough. If you will be kind enough to elect me your next County Judge for eight years, I will be glad to step down and let someone else have the office. I hope you will give this a lot of consideration when you vote May 7th.

"If elected I will devote my full time to the duties of the office.

"Thank you for your consideration,
Hallie Chapman." 15p

at least, one of the principle reasons.

The speaker pointed out that our gross national product, which is the amount of production per individual in the United States, is $3,000.00 per person. The nearest nation to us is England with less than $1,500.00 per person. The GNP for Egypt, Mr. Couch pointed out for comparison, is only $139.00 per person. Red China, the club heard, is able to instigate a war, but could not maintain a war for over one year because of her low productivity. The same condition was true of Russia in World War II, and it was the United States that salvaged that nation with her economic and material aid.

America is the richest and strongest country in the world, but she could not remain so in isolation. If communist forces took over certain Asian countries and developed their natural resources, America could not help but diminish as a world power. There are more things at stake in Viet Nam than many of us realize.

The American budget dollar is now divided as follows: 61 for interest and defense, 11 1/2 for security on the national debt, 04 1/2 for veterans, 04 for agriculture, 11 for health, education and welfare, and 08 for other miscellaneous items.

Guests for the day were Dr. David Hunt, with the Coordinating Committee of the Texas Education Agency; Tommy Davis, Haskell's new acting Postmaster; Mr. Howard Sloan; and student guests Jennabeth Pitman and Bill Perry.

President H. V. Woodard presided, while Rotarian Ira Hester led the group singing.
