3787th Squadron Donates 59 Pints Of Blood In Dec.

SHEPPARD AFB, Texas — Fifty-nine pints of blood were donated by members of Sheppard Air Force Base's 3787th Technical Training Squadron at the Naval Air Station, Point Mugu, Calif., recently to help save the life of a 15-year-old Ventura girl who had used 68 pints of blood since she was injured last December.

These men are part of the 450-man squadron which was activated on paper last Dec. 17, and put into operation Jan. 6, 1967 at Point Mugu. The airmen assigned are undergoing training at Construction Battalion Center, Port Hueneroe, and are billeted at Point Mugu because of the shortage of barracks space at Port Hueneroe. The Onxard Odd Fellows Lodge 89 initiated the campaign to collect the 50 pints needed to repay the blood the young lady had used after only 18 pints had been repaid by local citizens there.

The victim was Joan Shankle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Shankle of 257 West Flint Street in Ventura. She was injured in a motorcycle crash in December and had used the blood while undergoing three major operations. Her family was unable to pay for or replace the blood used from the Ventura County Blood Bank.

This squadron, a part of the 3751st Field Training Department at Sheppard (Air Training Command), provides technical and military training for their personnel. The airmen receive training in all phases of heavy equipment operation and the utilitiesman course conducted at the CBC, Port Hueneroe. The Navy provides instructors for the equipment operator courses and the Air Force supplies their own instructors for the utilitiesman course.

Thirty-eight pints of blood were given the first day and 21 pints of blood the second day after the squadron answered the call for blood.

BITS OF THIS-N-THAT

By BETTY BOYD

Somebody figured it out—we have 35 million laws trying to enforce ten commandments!—Earl Wilson.

Well, we should be able to understand the ten commandments with that many other laws spelling them out for us!

In my recent article, Local Families Find Weekend Shanghaila at Lake Nocona, I neglected to mention the many fishermen who, though they are not lot-owners, fish there weekends. My apologies. Please consider yourselves mentioned, and happy fishing.

Remember Charles (Lucky) Lindbergh? He is still around and flying.

It was 40 years ago this month, when he made the first solo flight across the Atlantic. Now he travels as a technical consultant for Pan American World Airways.

Today I learned the origin of the potato chip. It began with an accident.

An Indian lady was paring potatoes, while at the same time frying crullers and a pare fell into the hot lard. Her brother saw it, tasted it, liked it and experimented until he made some to sell. And sell they did. It all took place in 1853 in Saratoga Springs, New York.

While walking 3rd Street recently, I noticed that the new planter boxes are making very handy trash receptacles. That is one way of keeping the street clean, but what is the Community Development Committee going to plant those trees in?

Hurry, Lions Club, with those trash cans you are painting!

Picasso, now 85, did a painting when he was 20, called Mother and Child. He gave it to a doctor to settle a bill. Almost entirely blue, except for a single red flower, it recently sold at an auction in London, for the highest price ever paid for a work by a living artist — $532,000!

That would certainly feed a lot of hungry people!

Memo to City Hall — Is it really necessary to keep every parking space on the City Hall side of Ave. C? Couldn't you fellows relent a bit and allow a few laboring citizens who share this street with you, to also share a few spaces in which to tie up our steeds?

Here is a tip, from Heloise, for you gals who use creme rinses to soften dry hair. Try a couple of tablespoons of Mayonaise. That's what I said—MAYONAISE!

Some people take egg shampoos, so why not mayonaise?

Benjamin Franklin had only two years of formal education, but in spite of that, he invented bifocals, was one of the first to harness electricity, a founder of the Ivy League universities, founder of the first subscription library, rather of the U. S. mail, started the first fire department, designed a heating stove still in use and invented the lighting rod. He continued to do things for the benefit of others until the age of 84.

What will you have contributed to the human race? Congratulations to all the young people who are about to graduate from school this year. May you go on to enjoy fine, fruitful futures.

LAUGH, IT'S GOOD FOR YOU — A little old lady being examined for jury duty in a small country town was asked if she knew the defense lawyer.

"Yes," she snapped, "he's a crook."

"And the plaintiff's lawyer?" "Yes—he's a crook, too."

With that the judge called both lawyers over for a conference. He whispered, "If you ask her if she knows me, I'll fine you for contempt of court."

Checkerboard Receives Cake

J. T. Gillis, better known as Checkerboard, receives a checkerboard designed cake from his employer, Paul Avrit, co-owner of Farmers Feed Supply, to congratulate him on his retirement.

J. T. Gillis Ends 30-Years Service With Purina Co.

J. T. Gillis, longtime resident of Burkburnett, ended 30 years of service for Purina products, Friday, when he retired from Farmers Feed and Supply.

Paul Avrit, co-owner of the business, surprised Gillis, better known as Checkerboard, with a cake bearing the message, "Congratulations on your retirement." Appropriately enough, the cake was decorated with a checkerboard design.

Checkerboard, 61, plans to spend his time attending Burkburnett sports events, working in his yard and plain relaxing.

When he said he may return to give a hand during rush seasons at the store, friends teased, asking if he felt the business couldn't get along without him. He replied, "The store is in good hands and Paul will treat the customers right."

Mr. Avrit expressed his appreciation for Gillis' fine services and wished him luck and many years of pleasure ahead.

"CAN'T YOU STOP THIS THING?"

WHO PAYS WHOM?

In order for business to survive it must have earning power, and for it to grow it must have a plentiful supply of risk capital. Business also must produce things people want and are willing to pay for — voluntarily.

The federal government, in contrast, doesn't have to make sure what the people really want, or how much they are willing to pay for its services. Since it has the power to tax, it can force-finance, and force-feed its own growth.

Although public opinion polls indicate that the American people want to decrease public spending, some members of Congress continue to introduce vote-bait bills. Many of these would add billions to federal deficit spending as the states, counties, and municipalities side-stepped their responsibilities and let the federal government foot the bills.

It's your money they are spending — the money you pay, and pay, in taxes. When the community or state obtains federal rather than local funds, costly bureaucratic paperwork and controls result in less value received.

Has the Administration created a perpetual motion juggernaut in non-defense spending? Can it be stopped? Is this heavy moving vehicle beyond the control of the Administration and Congress? If so, have the people, the voters, the taxpayers — lost their grip on government?

Federal spending is no longer a topic reserved for discussion by professors, economists, public officials and politicians — its becoming street corner conversation today as the average man begins to realize the enormity of the $135 billion federal budget. It would be wise for Congress to avoid passing new legislation and to do everything within its power to curtail non-military spending before the public hits the ceiling in angry protest.

Stewart L. Udall, Secretary of the U. S. Department of Interior, recently commented, "Let us work together to retain the beauty of our natural environment for generations to come while, at the same time, we utilize the resources with which nature has endowed this continent to widen the horizons of the civilization we enjoy for the betterment of man."

Nearly one million dollars have been contributed by prescription drug manufacturers — member firms of the Pharmaceutical Manufacturers Association — during the past two years in a united industry program aimed at promoting "the betterment of public health" through support of scientific and medical research.

Regulation of wellhead natural gas prices by the Federal Power Commission will cause a shortage of natural gas in the United States, and even if price levels were to be raised immediately, it is already too late to totally avert this shortage.

QUICK TIPS for Smooth Trips

By Paula Johnson, Women's Representative American Oil Company

A tote bag is ideal on automobile trips. It can pass for a hand-bag, yet it's roomy enough to hold extra shoes, overnight gear—even a change of clothes. Carried in tote bags, en route essentials are far easier to get to than if they were packed away in the luggage.

On a trip, a large brush-type hair curler is a good emergency clothes brush and lint remover. The best device for combatting lint, though, is a new roller gadget tailor-made for the job and tailor-made for travelers.

Out on the road early in the morning or late in the afternoon, you might frequently spot the lumbering form of a school bus. As you drive in and around cities—particularly in areas where there are a number of hills and turns—it's certainly wise to watch for school buses.

When approaching a school bus from the front or from behind on the same roadway, reduce your speed, to determine if conditions are right to pass. If the bus is stopping, loading children, or letting them off, come to a complete stop at least 10 feet away. Move ahead only after the bus does or after the driver has signaled an "all clear."

Inattention is one of the biggest causes of highway mishaps. Little things like lighting a cigarette, fussing with the radio, or glancing at the road map can divert a driver's eye just long enough to place him in a hazardous situation.

County Agent News From The

The date of May 12 through June 30 has been set by the ASCS County Committee as the period in which controlling mesquite by aerial spraying should be done in Wichita County.

Wichita County farmers that have excess wheat are reminded that May 1, 1967 is the final date in which you may destroy the excess and notify the ASCS office in Iowa Park.

President Johnson has proclaimed July 23-29, 1967, as National Farm Safety Week. It will be the 24th annual observance. It is sponsored jointly by the National Safety Council and the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Texas led all states in the Nation in 1966 in the number of community facilities—water or waste disposal system—financed by the Farmers Home Administration. In the state, loans and grants were made for the purpose of developing 156 water and waste disposal systems.

The USDA has announced that shorn wool payments will be made at the rate of 24.8 per cent of the dollar returns each grower received from the sale of shorn wool in 1966. The mohair payment rate will be 41.2 per cent of returns each grower received from the sale of mohair.

The nation's capacity to produce beef for the remainder of 1967 and in 1968 is expected to show little change from 1965 and 1966 levels. The current year's total production is expected to continue around 1966 high level.

The revised data on beef cow numbers a steady climb since 1958, a 43 per cent increase over the 9 year period. Beef cows two years and older on January 1, 1967 totaled 34.6 million head, up from 24.2 million head on January 1, 1958. The increase from January 1, 1967 was very slight.

The failure to provide adequate drainage for a home site can create many problems for home owners. They include, according to county agent B. T. Haws, flooded basements, wet crawl-space under the house, soil erosion, collapsed retaining walls, the heaving of plants, a patio or driveway or standing water following period of rain fall.

Providing for adequate drainage within a site is a basic and important part of landscaping, points out the county agent.

Areas of open turf should have a minimum slope of one per cent and should never exceed 25 per cent. Slopes away from a building foundation should be at least two per cent for a distance of five to six feet. Minimum slope of approach walks in one-half of one per cent while maximum is about 10 per cent. Entrance walks, however, should slope at least one per cent. Drives and parking areas can slope from one-half of one per cent to a minimum of about eight per cent.

Steep banks with slopes from 25 per cent up to nearly 50 per cent can often be retained by plantings. Ornamental plants such as day lilies, iris, Purple Japanese Honeysuckle and winter creeper have good potential for preventing erosion on south and west facing banks.

Yard drainage should never be left to chance. Plan for it and make it a part of your building plans, advises Haws.

Friendship Class of First Baptist Church Has Monthly Social

The Friendship Class of First Baptist Church met in Fellowship Hall last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. J. G. Cheney led the opening prayer and brought a very inspiring Devotional. Mrs. Earl Vanderen, President, conducted the business session and Mrs. Frank Hewell read the minutes.

Mrs. Wylie Browning had charge of the social hour and conducted several Biblical contests and one humorous contest. She also read the life history of one of the members of the class and had the class write on a slip of paper who they thought it was. It was not difficult to determine, for it was none other than Mrs. Carl Miller.

Mrs. Preston Johnson dismissed with prayer. Group Three served refreshments to the following. Mesdames: Clau de Bowman, H. A. Goodwin, Frank Hewell, Charles Morris, J. D. Kennedy, J. G. Cheney, Jim Ady, R. P. Thaxton, Will Teal, Wylie Browning, H. S. Butts, Earl VanDeren, Dick Chambers, Carl Miller, Lena Hinkle, Preston Johnson, Verta Stevens and Clara Palmer.

Women IN THE KNOW

By Jean Kinkead, Women's Consultant, The Travelers Insurance Companies Poison-Prevention Week

Accidental poisoning is the most common of all threats to childhood health and safety, and women in the know take drastic steps to safeguard their households.

Here are some helpful hints: 1. Keep all medicines and cosmetic products completely out of high-climbing toddlers' reach.

2. Keep laundry, dry cleaning, and household cleaning products inaccessible to children, no matter how inconvenient this makes it for you.

3. Throw out all old medicines and boldly label all look-alike drugs. 4. Keep cigarettes and old butts out of reach. (The nicotine can be deadly.)

In spite of all these precautions, accidents sometimes happen. Someone leaves aspirin on the dining-room table, or Mom runs to answer the phone—leaving the laundry bleach untended for just an instant, and presto! the damage is done.

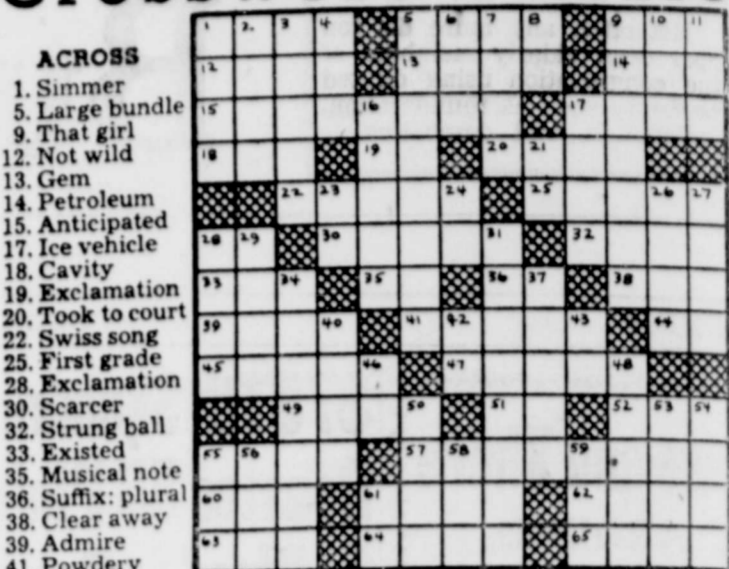

Women in the know post a special emergency poison control center telephone number near every phone. They will give you antidote information about any product your child may have swallowed and advice to help you until you get him to a doctor.

Some further tips: Keep a supply of syrup of ipecac (a standard emetic) and powdered activated charcoal (a neutralizing substance which is not an emetic, but a basic antidote.) Carefully read the invaluable advice on this in baby and child care books.

And while your child's health is on your mind, do check your health insurance program or nearby "First Aid" center can help you plan a route out.

When Conversation Lags

Silence may be golden—but at a party it becomes pretty leader. The hostess is the one trusted with keeping the conversational ball afloat, bridging the gaps when happily wagging tongues suddenly fall silent.

Compliments and questions that lead somewhere are good opening plays. "What a lovely dress!" expects a "thank you" and little else. But a more perceptive compliment like "what an unusual charm bracelet you're wearing" might lead to a whole discussion of jewelry, heirlooms, collective mementoes, and so on. The hostess can inject a little healthy controversy—often by taking the Devil's Advocate role. "Well, I was a little disappointed in Albee's last play" is sure to get some response, positive or negative. Or "I wonder where Ronald Reagan's political future lies" might trigger an interesting political discussion.

Sometimes, arguments started in calm end up in verbal collision, and as the hostess you are expected to come between the combatants. Remember at this time that hard drinks reinforce hard-words, while soft drinks can have a cooling and leveling effect. A large chilled pitcher of Pepsi-Cola is always a must at my parties to quench thirst—and arguments.

When you are making up a guest list, be sure to include some sparkling conversationalists, because good talk is the "secret ingredient" of a successful party.

Study Club Met At Casa Manana Tuesday, May 2

The Contemporary Study Club met at the Casa Manana restaurant in Wichita Falls, Tuesday, May 2, for their installation dinner and program.

A short business meeting was held and various committee reports heard. The Club also voted to decorate a downtown window for the rodeo.

Mrs. Robert Norris, outgoing president, installed new officers. She used a theme of a Key to Your Office.

New officers installed were: Mmes. M. D. Cheney, president; Lee Soper, vice president; H. S. Thaxton, secretary; Harry Elliott, treasurer; Mrs. Edwin Hancock, corresponding secretary; Cliff Wampler, historian; Robert Norris, reporter and Albert Bellaccio, parliamentarian.

Awards for perfect attendance were presented to Mrs. Joe Crowley, Mrs. Cliff Wampler, Mrs. Harry Elliott and Mrs. Robert Norris.

Mrs. Harry Elliott won the award for the best member, and Mrs. Robert Norris received a silver president's charm.

A new member, Mrs. John O'Dell, Jr., was welcomed into the club.

Avoid the glare from the driver who is getting a glare from his mirror when you drive too closely to the car ahead of you with your high beams on. The Institute for Safer Living reports that low beams should always be used when overtaking or meeting another car.

Switch to low beams early enough to be on low beams when the car ahead or the oncoming car is 500 feet away. Even though the oncoming driver may not lower his lights, don't retaliate by switching on high beams.

Olive trees are slow-growing, but long lived. Some specimens reportedly are more than 2,000 years old.

Ask any boy and he will tell you ...
IT'S A WONDERFUL FEELING

When winter is past and most of the spring rains have come and gone, what a joy it is for a boy to go barefoot and feel the warm moist earth oozing up between his toes and the hot sun on his back... It's a wonderful feeling—remember?

If it has been some time since you were in the warm company of like-minded Christians and basked in the warmth and love of God's glory and grace as manifested in His Church, attend this coming Sunday. It's a wonderful feeling to sense that you are in tune with God, your fellow man, and the universe.

*"I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the House of the Lord."
Psalm 122:1.*

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

WOOD-WATSON VOWS ARE READ IN FIRST METHODIST CHURCH, BURK

Miss Linda Gay Wood became the bride of Virgil Lee Watson, Jr., Saturday, May 6, at the First Methodist Church. Rev. Carrol Copeland, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Enham, Texas, officiated assisted by Rev. Don Youngblood.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wood, 705 Reagan and the parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Watson, Sr., Rt. 1, Davidson, Okla.

The double ring ceremony was performed in front of an arch of greenery flanked by baskets of white gladioli and daisies and seven branch candelabras, which were backed by an arch of candles with a white satin kneeling bench centering the setting. Dwayne Dark was the vocalist, accompanied by Maxine Creel at the organ.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white rose-print lace over satin, featuring an A-line skirt and long bell-shaped sleeves. Her cathedral length veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of flowers and seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white daisies and lily of the valley, centered by a white orchid atop a white lace covered Bible.

Miss Jime Eastman, maid of honor, Burkburnett, and the bridesmaids wore floor length gowns of pink coral with short puffed sleeves and matching trim of velvet ribbon surrounding the empire bodice centered in the front with a bow. The headpieces were of pink coral velvet with a large bow. They carried nosegays of pink daisies.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Danny Mulligan and Miss Teri Whelan of Wichita Falls; Mrs. Gary Moore, Burkburnett; Miss Judy Fine, Dallas.

Debby Wood, sister of the bride, Burkburnett, and Janna McGee, cousin of the bride, also of Burkburnett, were candlelighters.

Kimberly Whittington, niece of the groom, Grandfield, Okla., was flower girl; Jona Young, nephew of the groom, Tulsa, Okla., was ring bearer and Bill Watson, brother of the groom, Arlington, was best man.

Groomsmen were Keith Bailey, Lawton, Okla.; Jerry Potts, Durant, Okla.; Ashley, Durant; and David Johnson, Lawton, Okla.; Gary Wood, brother of the bride, New York City, N.Y.; Robert Hamilton, cousin of the bride, Springfield, Mo.; Bob Dudenhoeffer and Larry Dean, Grandfield, Okla., were the ushers.

The bride graduated from Burkburnett High School. Throughout high school, she was an active member of the High School and Stage Dance Band, serving as majorette and featured twirler. She attended Oklahoma University at Norman and is now studying at Midwestern University. She is presently employed by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

The groom graduated from Grandfield High School. He was football captain for three years and president of FFA four years. He attends Southeastern State College at Durant, Okla., where he is a member of Phi Sigma Epsilon Fraternity. He is attached to the Reserve Unit of the National Guard at Durant and is presently employed by Wichita National Linen Service.

The bride's parents were hosts for a reception in the National Room of the First National Bank, following the wedding. A garden basket of white daisies centered the bride's table, which was covered with white net over white satin. A three-tiered wedding cake and gold punch bowl completed the table decorations.

Assistants at the reception were Genie D'Hoostelaire, Debbie Davis, Rita Lacy and Jan Robertson.

Karen Whittington, niece of the bridegroom, attended the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Watson, Jr., went to Dallas and Six Flags for their honeymoon. After completion of the school year, they will reside at Lawton, Okla.

PRESIDENT LYNDON B. JOHNSON (here displaying the first one of the presses) calls the Treasury's new Freedom Share "a cheerful companion to the popular Series E Savings Bonds... It is creative, it is attractive and it is critically important... Buying Bonds, regularly, is as important to this nation in the long reach of history as almost anything we can do..."

Blankenship Rites Geography Class Are Held In Burk Hears Peruvian

Services for Mrs. Minnie L. Blankenship, 90, of Antioch, Calif., were held from Owens & Brumley Funeral Home of Burkburnett at 2 p.m. Saturday. Dwyane Dennis, Church of Christ, officiating. Burial was in Burkburnett Cemetery.

Mrs. Blankenship is survived by six daughters, Mrs. Willie Brown, Mesquite, Tex.; Mrs. J. C. McCurry, Fort Worth; Mrs. Myrtle M. McCurry, Sacramento; Mrs. Lee Paslay, Mrs. Edna Beck and Mrs. Faye Borden, all of Antioch; 29 grandchildren; 82 great-grandchildren; 88 great-great-grandchildren; and 34 great-great-great-grandchildren.

Recognizing the exceptional value of training aids in the classroom, Mrs. Selma Ryan, teacher in the Shepard-Burkburnett School, introduced her 5th Grade Geography classes to the best aid of all—a live representative from a foreign land, Miss Dora Valencia from Lima, Peru.

Miss Valencia is a student at Midwestern University. She talked to the classes about her country and her home. She exhibited jewelry made in Peru and a stuffed llama, the beast of burden from her homeland. Miss Valencia discussed the Indians of Peru and their ancient culture and then described the many modern developments in Peru with their similarity to the United States. Miss Valencia's reaction to the question-answer period reflects the value of this teaching technique. "I never realized the deep interest these young children have in foreign lands."

Mrs. Lebeau's Funeral Slated

Local Man Is 10,000th Visitor To Museum

A Burkburnett man, Russell Duvall, was the 10,000th visitor to the Wichita Falls Museum and Art Center Sunday afternoon.

Actually, the total number of visitors to the new museum, located at No. 2 Eureka Circle, just off Archer, reached 10,269 Sunday. More than 1,000 persons toured the facility Friday through Sunday.

Officials are delighted with the enthusiastic reception the museum has received during its first month of operation. The facility opened April 1.

The three halls—art, history and science—are open to the public at no charge. There is an admittance fee for the planetarium. Membership is not necessary for persons wanting to view the exhibits.

Hours of the museum are 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Monday through Friday, 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and 2 to 5 p.m. Sunday. A planetarium showing for the public is held at 8 p.m. Thursdays.

The art gallery is closed this week while a new display—of Mexican folk art—is set up. It will open to the public Saturday.

Den 6, Pack 155 Rites Are Held For Mrs. Kaiser

By KERMIT OLSON
Keeper of the Buckskin

On May 2, at 4 p.m., Den 6 met in their regular meeting. The meeting was held at the home of our Den Mother, Mrs. Ramon Scruggs on West Third Street.

We received one new member today, Chris McClure. Welcome to our Den, Chris. We hope you enjoy working with us and we're happy to have you in our Den.

Relay races were led by Den Chief Darrel Rivard at the beginning of the meeting. Most of our meeting time was spent working on our Mother's Day presents.

We are looking forward to the Scout-O-Rama this weekend.

Drumsticks were served to Den Chief Darrel Rivard and the following Cubs: Wade Harris, Wade Meadows, Donny Roe, Mike McKinley, Chris McClure, Joe Scruggs and Kermit Olson.

Favorite feeding spots of black bears are dense second-growth forests and thick patches of high brush. When you locate an oak grove where fresh broken limbs and bent-over trees show that a bear was feeding the night before, the odds are high that he will return at sundown.

Services for Mrs. Marguerite Kaiser, 75, a native of Wellsville, N. Y. and Burk Burnett resident 50 years were held from Grace Lutheran Church at 10 a.m. Wednesday with Rev. Phillip Otten, pastor, and Rev. J. A. Birbaum of Vernon and Rev. J. H. Kollmeyer, retired Lutheran minister of Burk Burnett, officiating. Burial was in Burk Burnett Cemetery under direction of Owens & Brumley Funeral Home. She was a charter member of Grace Lutheran Church. She is survived by two sons, Kenneth of Burk Burnett, and Donald of Madison, Wis.; a daughter, Mrs. Sylvia Rosenblatt of Dallas; a brother, Waldemar Gallman with the Asian Foundation in Vietnam; a sister, Mrs. J. B. Klotz, Eatrice, Neb.; three grandchildren and one great-grandchild. The family requested memorials be made to the Grace Lutheran Church building fund in honor of the first pastor and his wife.
