Editor's Viewpoint

Raymond Greenwood

For those of you who are wondering what I got from the deer hunt last week end, I received the same thing that everyone receives when he sits in a tree at 5:30 a.m. with sub-30 degree temperatures and a plus-30 m.p.h. wind with a light rain added in--I got COLD! That's about all, too. I never fired a shot the entire trip. You would think a man would have better sense than to sit out in something like that. I guess I'm a glutton for punishment, though, 'cause I'm heading back down that way as soon as I can find another Saturday free.

What about those Bulldogs? They really socked it to ol' Hirschi last Friday, didn't they. I heard several people say that we would just barely beat them if we did at all. The Bulldogs assured me of a victory and possibly a shut out, and that's just what they did. It would have been great to have won the game by any score, but 16-0 is just wonderful.

I guess I'll have to travel to Brownwood tomorrow night and watch the mighty Bulldogs put up a big battle. The word from our boys is that if Brownwood wins, they are going to have to work and fight for it. I believe them too. Never have our boys just lain down and quit and especially when the chips are down. If you want to see some extra fine football, then travel to Brownwood tomorrow night--you'll not be sorry that you did.

Thanksgiving is just around the corner. W. T. Zimmerman, local postmaster notified me today that the post office would be observing the national holiday. Regular holiday schedules and services will be in effect next Thursday, he said.

Also, if you're planning to mail Christmas packages or mail overseas, it would be a good idea to do it now in order to insure its getting there by Christmas.

You have heard me say time and time again that there are still concerned youth in the world today, and as a whole they are probably the best yet. The following is just another "for instance" to prove my point.

William Snipes, Jr., a 17-year old Senior at Francis Scott Key High School in Westminster, Maryland, recently wrote an essay entitled "To A Boy Who Won't Be Back." He sent a copy to Steve Bennett, Editor of the Carroll County Times, who printed it--and here it is.

A boy died for me in Vietnam today.

I didn't know him and he didn't know me, but he died for me just the same.

I learned about it when the seven o'clock news showed his buddies carrying him off the battlefield. He is going home at last--but not the way he had dreamed.

I watched the news as I ate a good hot meal and relaxed in my safe, warm, comfortable home. The news was pretty much the same; the war, college kids demonstrating, screaming, throwing rocks, mugging for the television cameras; more teachers on strike.

After dinner, I turned to another channel. Come comedian made wisecracks about the war and probably got more money for it than the boy in Vietnam got the whole time he was in the service.

Then I went to bed, free from any danger of my home being blown up by the enemy. The enemy was busy in Vietnam; but I couldn't get this boy off my mind. I wondered if he had been frightened. Sure, he must have. Who wouldn't be? Had he hated this war as I hate it? Probably more, because he was IN it.

How did he feel about the characters who are defying the government, calling our leaders murderers, tearing up draft cards, pulling down the American flag? However he felt, he fought for that flag and

Burk Bulldogs To Travel To Brownwood For Share Of District 4-AAA Crown

For the first time in over a decade the Burk Burnett Bulldogs will be contending for a share of the District crown and the right to represent the district when they take the field Friday night. The Bulldogs will take on the defending state champions, Brownwood Lions at Brownwood tomorrow night.

The Bulldogs are currently 4-1 for conference competition and the Lions 5-0. Burk's only conference game defeat came three weeks ago against Stephenville. The Lions have lost only one game this season and that was to the powerhouse AAAA Abilene Cooper, 32-6, at the first of the season.

Regardless of the outcome of the game, Brownwood will have a share of the district crown. If the Bulldogs come out on top then they will represent the district in the next game toward the state championship. The winner of Friday night's game will play the winner of the Lubbock Estacado vs. Sweetwater game which will also be played Friday night.

One can expect some great football to come from the Brownwood team. They have won the district championship five of the last six years and have gone on and won the state championship three of the last five years. Although, not as heavy as the usual Brownwood Team, they are one of the quickest and fastest teams ever fielded by Brownwood. They are also a young team; they have six juniors starting on the offensive team. The Lions have an outstanding southpaw quarterback who is said to be one of the best in the state. They are equally as explosive on the ground as in the air. They were ahead of Vernon only 7-0 at halftime and then ended the game with an impressive 53-6 score. They defeated Stephenville in the rain by the score of 41-7. Other wins for the Lions were Temple, 14-7; Abilene High, 22-20; South Grand Prairie, 28-7; Hirschi 37-0; Graham, 42-0; and Weatherford 28-0.

Brownwood plays much the same type football as does Iowa Park. They have a strong offense but possibly an even stronger defense. They are reported to live a lot on tradition and winning spirit and to always play everyone a tough football game.

The Bulldogs are indeed anxious to travel Friday and come back with a win. The Bulldogs last won the district crown in 1958, so they are hungry for a piece of the crown and the right to represent District 4-AAA.

The Bulldogs set the Hirschi Huskies on their haunches last Friday night with a 16-0 defeat. This was the first time that the Bulldogs have ever beaten Hirschi in their seven years of competition. It was a typical Bulldog-Hirschi game, with mutual respect on both sides. "Our boys played hard, possibly the best this year both offensively and defensively," stated Coach Bill Froman.

The mighty Bulldogs allowed Hirschi only one first down in the entire last half. The Huskies had a total of only 6 first downs, 83 yards rushing and 25 yards passing, compared to the Bulldogs' 15 first downs, 217 yards rushing and 7 yards passing.

At the beginning of the football season the Bulldogs were supposed to win only one or two games all year. They currently have won all but one of their conference games and that one defeat was only by a score of 14-7. The Bulldogs are the underdog team and they are providing the upsets this season. Vernon was heavily picked over Burk, but the final outcome saw Burk ahead 30-0. Iowa Park was heavily picked over Burk, but Burk was only defeated by the score of 7-0 and that score came with less than two minutes of the game left to play. Burk was only supposed to stay even with Hirschi, but instead they handed them a 16-0 defeat. By the Harris Rating System, Brownwood may be picked by as much as 14-20 points over Burk in the upcoming game. This seems to be the way the Bulldogs like to be placed; that way when they completely shut out the opposing team it is really an upset--and this has been the case more than once this year.

"Not one of our boys quit in last week's game," stated coach Carpenter. "We'll not predict a win or loss Friday night, but we will predict that our boys will fight hard for Burk Burnett as well as for our school," he continued. The Bulldogs were told by the Vernon players that the Bulldogs hit much harder than the Brownwood Lions. This has been one of the Bulldogs' finest assets all season--their ability and willingness to hit their opponent and to hit him hard. Brownwood hasn't been hit really hard since the Abilene Cooper game, according to the Bulldog coaches. This could really be a deciding factor in the contest when the Bulldogs really get down to the skull cracking.

This is a must game for the Bulldogs. They can't stand a tie; they must have a clean victory in order to represent District 4-AAA. (Look on the sports page to find the probable starting line-up for the Bulldogs Friday night.)

Those interested in taking a chartered bus to the Brownwood game should contact Randy Clement. Tickets for the trip must be picked up no later than Thursday afternoon.

Burkburnett Police Issues Plea To Parents

The Burk Burnett Police issued a plea to the parents of school age children today. It seems that many of the younger children are either bringing their dogs to school or the dogs are following them to school. Because of this, police reported, there have been a large number of dogs on the playgrounds at school, and a great rise in the number of dog bites. The police department urges parents of school-age children to help keep the dogs at home and thus save some child from being bitten.

Police investigated a shooting incident at 505 Freeman St. Saturday. It was reported that Mary Sims fired at William Smith, hitting him in the foot, and she then emptied the gun by firing into the floor. The incident followed a family argument. No charges were filed.

Police investigated the theft of a television from the Garland Rankin home at 600 E. 3rd St. last Sunday. Police report that they do have a suspect.

In other action, police investigated a traffic accident at the intersection of Sheppard Rd. and So. East exit--United Super Market. The accident which occurred Thursday involved a Chevrolet station wagon driven by Donald Caldwell of 102 Rose, and a 1967 Ford driven by Clifford A. Beavers Jr., of 206 Linden. Estimated damages were $50 to the Caldwell vehicle and $250 to the Beavers automobile.

Three Local Women Place In Contest

Three Burk Burnett writers were among writers winning or placing in the 61st annual contest sponsored by the Poetry Society of Texas this year. The announcement was made in Dallas Saturday night at the society's awards banquet in the Statler Hilton Hotel.

Joy Greshman Hagstrom, 506 Magnolia St., won three awards and placed second in another contest. Her "Drama at Noon" received the $30 Youth Award for the best poem about a child, her poem "Morning Dove" the Globe Peace Award of $25, and her "Beware the Everglades" the Julia H. Ricker prize for the best nature poem.

Mrs. Clark Gresham of Burk Burnett placed second in the New World, Confederate Research and Houston Chapter contests and third in the Menorah and Cynthia Ann Parker competitions.

Florence Stripling Jeffers of Burk Burnett was third in the Hugh L. Smith contest for the best poem on a Southwest-ern topic.

Top winner for the night was Marcella Siegel of Irving, who won six contests. See LOCAL WOMEN Page Two

City Of Burk Burnett Receives $31,040

The office of Sen. John Tower Thursday announced in Washington a $31,040 land and water conservation grant from the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation to the City of Burk Burnett to acquire 185 acres of land for a city park.

City manager Gary Bean said applications for funds had been made through NORTEX Regional Planning Commission to acquire land on the Red River, three miles north of Burk Burnett.

Bean said the land was selected for its natural habitat. He said first development would be 50 acres of tree-studded river bottom land for a picnic area. The land, in addition to wooded areas and river bank frontage, also includes some farm land.

The biggest Burk Burnett city park at present is about 20 acres.

The Burk Burnett City Council, at its regular meeting Monday night passed an ordinance that prohibits the sale of non-certified meat in Burk Burnett.

According to provisions of the ordinance, all meat must bear the certification, "Texas State Approved Meat for Human Food." This ordinance is the same as that in force in other Wichita County towns.

Tax revenue of $37,161, including $419 in delinquent taxes, was reported by Tom Colley, city tax collector.

The Corporation Court report showed fines totaling $625, including 57 traffic and six liquor violations.

The council also approved revenue and budget reports and payment of $3,911 current accounts.

Guidelines Of Life

We sometimes hear the criticism that Christian people like nice things too much. Most of us put on our best clothes to go to church, and we worship in sanctuaries that are beautifully designed and wonderfully kept. We have our hair fixed, and some of the ladies brighten their cheeks and lips, and even our homes and automobiles are beautiful and lovely.

I guess we are products of our time, for they tell us that manufacturers spend millions of dollars on advertising, using the most beautiful and striking scenes and personalities to attract attention to their products. They know that to present their product in such ways increases their chance for sales enormously. There just seems to be something within the human breast that seeks lovely things. We might ask, where does this desire come from? Well, to those of us who recognize God as the creator, we must conclude that it comes from him. And as we look at the beauty of his creation, we are reminded over and over again, that God is the God of beauty. We see beauty in the loveliness of the sunrise and the glory of the sunset, in the beauty of the hills and valleys, of the trees and flowers. What is more lovely than a baby's smile, or the tenderness of a mother, no matter what lines age may have placed in her face. Yes, all around us we see the loveliness of God and his creation.

Jesus appreciated lovely things. You will remember that at his crucifixion the Roman centurians cast lots to see who would get his lovely seamless robe. And we remember that when in the house of Simon the leper, a woman anointed his head with very expensive ointment and was rebuked by the disciples, Jesus said to them, "Why do you trouble this woman? She has done a beautiful thing for me." He had much to say about the beauty of God's creation. He spoke of the "lilies of the field," and the "birds of the air," and said of the little children, "Let the little children come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

We all know that there is loveliness of the soul as well as of the physical things around us. As the saying goes, "Beauty is more than skin deep." So many of the lovely things we know and want have little to do with things, but are qualities of life, like truth and love and kindness.

This is a lovely time of the year, what with the many colors of green and red and brown and gold all around us. It reminds us of the loveliness of God, and of the words of Paul in Philippians 4:8, "Finally brethren, whatever is true, whatever is honorable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is gracious, if there is any excellence, if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things." William W. Penn, Pastor, First United Methodist Church.

Mrs Fred Hunt Reviews Book

A deep devotion lightened by an irrepressible sense of humor carried Liz Carpenter through nine years association with the White House, according to a review of "Ruffles and Flourishes" given by Mrs. Fred Hunt for members of the Current Literature Club Thursday at the Community Room.

The former press secretary to Lady Bird Johnson termed the President "the long arm" because of his ability to reach out at any hour and in to any place to command the instant endeavors of his staff.

She found him disdainful of status and its symbols, impulsive in entertaining, as on the occasion when the staff had six hours to prepare for 1,000 guests, and secretive as to his personal plans, for Mrs. Carpenter was one of the many surprised by his decision not to seek reelection.

Mrs. Carpenter records in "Ruffles and Flourishes" that the 1964 whistle-stop campaign in the South was her most exhilarating experience, and the White House weddings her most exhausting.

A native of Salado in central Texas, Mrs. Carpenter found a community of understanding with both the President and Mrs. Johnson based on their similar roots in rural Texas.

In addition to the book review, the program included a report on the West Texas State University Music Camp and a demonstration of baton twirling by Joyce Lambert, of Burkburnett High School.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mmes. C.M. Archer and J.S. Vandenburg.

Long Time Burk Resident Succumbs

Funeral rites were held Nov. 5, in the First United Methodist Church for Alice E. Gloger, 78, a resident of Burkburnett since 1920. Rev. Wm. E. Penn officiated. Burial was in the Burkburnett Cemetery under the direction of Owens and Brumley.

Mrs. Gloger was born July 2, 1892, in Bruen, Pa., and was a member of the Methodist Church. She married Joseph W. Gloger in Houston in 1909.

Survivors include her husband; four daughters, Madell Ellis of Burkburnett, Marguerite Funderberg of Fort Worth, Helen Boone of Odessa, and Mary Hammack of Wichita Falls; two brothers; one sister; seven grandchildren; and seven great grandchildren.

Mrs. Al Lohofener was initiated into the Order of the Eastern Star on Oct. 6, 1920, in the Oberlin Chapter #106 in Oberlin, Kansas. She was presented her 50 year pin and life membership from her chapter by the Burkburnett Chapter #655 on Nov. 10. Virginia Vaughn, Worthy Matron (left) gave the presentation and Al Lohofener (right) pinned Mrs. Lohofener. The presentation was made during an Eastern Star salad supper honoring the Masons.

Footnotes

by Robert Sturges

We finally beat Hirschi!!!! After years and years of rivalry we beat 'em. Of course I say we because it was rightfully the whole town of Burk that defeated the Huskies. Our team was great; our spirit fantastic. Well, so much for patting ourselves on the back. Now we must face the facts.

The Burk Bulldogs now stand with a 4-1 season. Brownwood has 5-0 in district play. That means we have to beat Brownwood in order to take the District 4-AAA crown this year. Most of us know that already, especially the football team.

As it stands now the team is taking a very positive attitude toward the game. They realize that Brownwood is a tough team--the toughest in the state according to the Harris ratings. Coach Froman is of the general opinion that Brownwood is much like Iowa Park--tough but not unbeatable! The team, as always, is practicing to get in top shape. They will have to be in top condition for the game.

The fans certainly are spirited after the game Friday. Their support here and at Brownwood will be an important factor in the game. Those who do make it to the game Friday will need to be ready to cheer the team on as they meet the Lions. Since the game is there, you fans will play a vital part in adding moral support to the team.

The Bulldogs, of course, will probably be considered the underdog in the game. This has not hampered us this year as we have upset many "underdog" games such as the Vernon game.

We can beat Brownwood if we try. If we try as a team: the players, the fans, the band and the coaching staff all working to take the crown from the jaws of the Lions.

The critics may put us down. But always remember this--They said no one could beat Vernon, no one could hold Iowa Park to seven points, no one could beat a long-time rival--no one but the Burk Burnett Bulldogs did.

Bulldogs Shut Out Hirschi Huskies 16-0

The Burk Burnett Bulldogs took a shut out victory over their long-time rivals, the Hirschi Huskies in the District 4-AAA contest of Friday night.

The first quarter saw the ball exchange hands several times with no major gains by either team until late in the period when Burk started a 60 yard drive down the field. A pitch-out to Joe Karstetter, who carried the ball 23 yards, was the prime play of the drive. The drive ended with Bill O'Rourke diving into the end zone from one yard out during the second period for the first TD for the Bulldogs. O'Rourke's kick for the extra point was wide but the TD gave Burk a 6-0 lead at the half.

The third period was totally dominated by the Burk offense as Hirschi had possession only once in the quarter. A 38 yard punt by Hirschi put the ball on the seven yard line of Burk. With their backs to the goal posts the Bulldogs toughened up and began a 95 yard drive which ended in an O'Rourke field goal.

The Bulldogs capitalized on a Hirschi error as Hines of the Huskies dropped an intended punt play down the drain as the ball slipped through his fingers. With the ball placed conveniently on the 25 yard line, it took the Burk offense only a few plays to break out of the grasp of Hirschi's defense. O'Rourke scored the final TD of the game, giving Burk a clean 16-0 margin. The game gave Burk a 4-1 record for the season, only a half game behind #1 Brownwood.

Houston Astros Sell Okla. City Baseball Club

The Houston Astros have sold the Oklahoma City baseball club of the American Association, but will retain a working agreement with the 89'ers, Astros' General Manager H.B. (Spec) Richardson announced Tuesday.

P.C. Dixon of Tulsa, Okla., bought the team Tuesday and will keep the 89'ers in Oklahoma City.

The Astros immediately signed a two-year working agreement with Dixon, Richardson said.

"We feel that more Oklahoma City interest will be developed by Oklahoma ownership," Richardson said. "Mr. Dixon has indicated that a number of Oklahoma City citizens will be involved with him in running the ball club."

The Astros have operated in Oklahoma City ever since Houston joined the National League in 1962.

"C.C.C. & G" Title Of Talk Given To Optimist Club

"C, C, C, and G" was the title of Joe Singer's talk to the Burk Burnett Optimist Club at last Thursday's meeting.

Joe Singer, a pharmaceutical salesman, Member of the Wichita Mental Health Association and active teacher and church leader in discussing youth today, emphasized the importance of Concern, Communication, and God in dealing with youth today.

"We as adults must not only be concerned about our own children, but our neighbor's children and the children across town, for our children must associate with them in their daily school activities.

"We cannot be complacent because it was someone else's child that is in trouble. What happens in the next town, on the next street or next door can happen to you and your children.

"Communication, the third C, if there is no communication, you have problems. Too many parents do not really listen to what their children say, and we do not talk with our children, but down to them!

"Too many parents make a big fuss about seeing that their children are in church every Sunday, but seldom go themselves. Parents who go and take their children to church and worship God together have very few of the problems encountered elsewhere," said Singer.

In summing up Mr. Singer stated that children learn far more from what we adults do, than from what we say.

Optimist T.C. Hampton reported at Thursday's meeting that the club had secured the Clements building next door to Henry's Bakery for selling flocked Christmas trees. Green tree sales will be in Harlin Park as in the past.

President Charles Horsley presided at Thursday's meeting and introduced a new member, Merian Greenway. Horsley also announced that a Thanksgiving Ladies night would be held in his home on the 19th.

The meeting adjourned with the Optimist Creed.

NEW LAWS FOR DUCK, GEESFE

AUSTIN -- Duck and goose hunters now in the field are expected to obey some laws which are new and others which have been around for quite a few years.

The new laws have to do with the point system for determining the bag limit for ducks. Hunters may bag from two to 10 ducks in the aggregate based on 100 plus point system.

Ducks are awarded different values, and duck hunters are expected to know enough about their sport to be able to identify their ducks they kill.

Ninety point ducks include mallard hens, New Mexican ducks, black ducks wood ducks, canvasback ducks, red-head ducks and hooded merganser ducks.

Twenty point ducks are mallard drakes, mottled ducks, pintail hens and ring-necked ducks.

All other species, except black-bellied tree ducks and fulvous tree ducks on which the season is closed, are ten-point ducks.

The daily bag limit is reached when the point value of any duck taken added to the total point value of all ducks already taken that day reaches or exceeds 100 points.

The possession limit is the maximum number of ducks or sex and species that could be taken in two days.

Duck hunters should be familiar with other regulations which govern their action.

Shooting hours for geese are one-half hour before sunrise to sunset and for ducks are sunrise to sunset. Sunrise and sunset are announced daily by the United States Weather Bureau.

One fully feathered wing must remain attached to dressed migratory game birds while being transported between the place taken and the personal abode of the possessor or between the place taken and a commercial preservation facility.

The law requires the hunter to make a reasonable effort to retrieve a migratory game bird after killing or wounding it.

Every migratory game bird wounded by hunting and retrieved by the hunter must be immediately killed and become a part of the bag limit.

Lawful means for taking birds include shotguns no larger than 10 gauge which are plugged permanently to a three shell capacity and fired from the shoulder; long bow and arrows; falconry; manual or mouth operated birdcalls; dogs and artificial decoys; blinds or other forms of concealment (except a sink box or livestock); and floating craft (except a sink box) which is beached, anchored or tied within or alongside of a fixed blind.

Rails may be taken from floating craft when the only source of propulsion is paddle, oars or pole.

Power boats, sail boats or other craft may be used only as a means of picking up dead or injured birds. Open since Wednesday (Nov. 4) the duck season will close January 12 and the goose season ends at sundown on Jan. 17.

Recently Bill Helps Veterans

Millions of veterans will get a renewed opportunity to use their GI loan benefits whenever conditions are favorable to them as a result of the bill the President signed recently, Jack Coker, Director of the Veterans Administration Regional Office in Waco explained today.

The new law (PL 91-506) resotres unused, expired loan benefits to 8.9 million World War II and Korean Conflict veterans, and extends these same benefits indefinitely for approximately 7.5 million other veterans who served after January 31, 1955. Coker noted that before the law was enacted, veterans had to use their loan benefits before an expiration date.

Another provision of PL 91-506, which became effective October 23, eliminates a VA funding fee of .5 percent on guaranteed and direct loans to Post Korean veterans.

Another provision authorizes VA to make direct loans anywhere in the country to an eligible veteran who has a service-connected permanent and total disability and who has received a grant for specially adapted housing.

A provision authorizing VA to finance moldlehomes for veterans and servicemen becomes effective December 22.

The period from Nov. 20-26 has been officially proclaimed by President Nixon as Farm-City Week in the U.S. Chas. K. Baker, Extension economist, says we all have a stake in the observance. Nowhere else in the world, he points out, do so many depend upon so few for their food and fiber needs. The 5 percent of our population engaged in production agriculture gives the other 95 percent benefits unsurpassed anywhere. And food, Baker adds, is still the number one bargain in this country.

Joe & Joe Barber Shop Is The Place For You

The Joe & Joe Barber Shop is one of the oldest barber shops in this area under its original name. Joe M. Nichols and Joe B. Bryant founded the shop in 1941. Thus began the name Joe & Joe.

Joe Bryant, who passed away in 1964, had 36 years of barbering in Burkburnett. Joe M. Nichols at the time of his death in 1967 had been barbering in Burkburnett for 39 years.

The business operated as a partnership for over twenty years. Joe Nichols became the sole owner, purchasing his partner's interest, shortly before Bryant's death.

County H D Agent

Thelma Wirges
County Home
Demo Agent

Wild, warm fake fur is the target for big sewing ventures this winter, announces Thelma Wirges, county home demonstration agent. To hit the bull's eye in style when sewing fake fur, follow these tips.

Choose a design with few styling details. Eased seams are difficult to handle.

Since fake fur is a pile fabric with a nap, check the pattern envelope under "with nap" for yardage requirements. If not listed, add three-eighths to three-fourths yard for cutting pattern pieces one way.

When cutting the fur fabric, eliminate seams wherever possible. For example, if there is a front opening, cut the facing and front center together. Lay pattern pieces on the wrong side of the fabric and have the nap running downward. Cut one layer at a time in deep pile, cutting only the backing to avoid cutting the pile. Mark the fur fabric with chalk or tailor's tacks.

Baste seams of the fake fur garment to prevent shifting, and stitch in the direction of the pile whenever possible. Long pile yarns may get caught in the seams on the pile side of the fabric, so keep the pile flat by stitching through transparent cellophane tape.

Buttonholes are difficult to handle on fake fur garments, so another type of closure is usually preferred.

Check the label on the end of the fake fur fabric bolt for information about ironing. Some fur fabrics cannot be pressed with heat or steam; finger pressing may then be used.

If a velvet ironing board is not available, try a turkish towel or self-fabric placed face up on board with pile side of garment on top. Press lightly with steam iron in direction of the nap. Remaining fur fabric pieces may be used as trim detail on other garments.

Wichita County Home Demonstration Clubs are having method demonstrations this month on Designer Touches in Sewing. Thelma Wirges, County Home Demonstration Agent, is giving the demonstration to home demonstration clubs and other organized groups.

Shopping for upholstery fabric can be as easy and fun as choosing a dress; with a few hints from Thelma Wirges, County Home Demonstration Agent.

Determine relative and absolute fabric prices, comparing them with actual cost. Then list reasons for variations in the estimates to improve ability in judging upholstery prices.

List desirable purchasing considerations and features to diagnose performance requirements.

Analyze the use and wear of the fabric by listing where and how it will be used.

Shop for fabrics with a list of wants, obtaining information from labels or store clerks. Visit several furniture stores, comparing quality against price.

Ask the representative to demonstrate the effectiveness of the fabric by soiling a sample with common householdingredients and then by removing the soil. Color-fastness can be tested with sunlight.

Farm Bureau Runner-Up For Public Relations Award

Wichita County Farm Bureau was recently named runner-up for Public Relations Award in the 500-999 member category. The award was made at the Recognition Program during the Texas Farm Bureau Convention held in Fort Worth, Nov. 8-11. The judging was based on a scrapbook submitted which consisted of three divisions, namely public media, organizational media and agricultural public relation activities. Wichita County was named winner in 1969 and runner-up in 1968. Information Committee consists of Mrs. Ruth Gari, Mrs. Raymond Schroeder and Mrs. Norman Roberts.

Wichita County was named a Blue Ribbon County for having secured 50 new members during Farm Bureau Week held early in February. Total membership for 1970 is 786, a gain of 46 over 1969. Wichita County was represented by 8 voting delegates at the annual state meeting. Among those attending the convention were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schroeder and their daughter Laura, all of Burkburnett.

Dick Aronson Named Pro Rookie Of R.C.A. This Year

DENVER, COLO.—A 26-year-old calf roper and steer wrestler from Tempe, Ariz., has been named 1970's professional Rookie of the Year, the Rodeo Cowboys Association reported this week.

He is Dick Aronson, who ended the year-long season with earnings of $13,489.

A graduate of Colorado State University, Aronson competed primarily in amateur rodeos until this year. He was born in Charter Oak, Ia., and entered the sport in Colorado junior rodeo in 1955.

Aronson is the 15th recipient of the annual rookie award, which goes to the cowboy winning a fair share of the prize money in his first year, and also is a credit to the sport and who exhibits a strong potential in his rodeo events.

National Farm-City Week Set Novembers 20-26

The period from Nov. 20-26 is National Farm-City Week and every citizen has a stake in its observance. Nowhere else in the world, points out Chas. K. Baker, Extension economist, do so many depend on so few for their food and fiber needs.

The 5 per cent of our population engaged in agricultural production gives the other 95 percent benefits unsurpassed anywhere, says Baker. In 1969 we spent only 16.5 per cent of our incomes for food as compared with 24 percent some 20 years ago and this despite the fact the producer is getting about 9 cents less out of every food dollar than he received 20 years ago. Too, notes Baker, production expenses have continued to rise; thus, keeping the cost-price squeeze is a major problem for agricultural producers.

Our producers, says Baker, are continually searching for better and more efficient ways to keep the food and fiber supply lines filled. Today the U.S. farmer produces enough food and fiber for 45 people, about 39 at home and 6 abroad. A decade ago he supplied the agricultural needs of only 24 people.

Other problems of common interest to farm and city residents are also cited by President Nixon in his Farm-City Week proclamation. He said, "With two-thirds of our population crowded onto only two percent of the land, many of our people are denied economic opportunities, adequate living space, health, cultural fulfillment, and those spiritual values without which no nation can achieve greatness."

"The time for action is at hand—for careful plans to be formulated, and for decisions to be made at local governmental levels, to foster the improved distribution of population and accompanying economic activity needed during the decade of the 1970's and beyond. The Government can provide assistance, but the effort will succeed only as Americans take part in developing a policy of sound national growth.

"In this effort, city dwellers and rural people alike have reason to work together toward common goals. The well-being of urban America and the welfare of rural America will increasingly intertwine as our total population expands. Better living in the one depends on better living in the other.

"I request that leaders of business organizations, business groups, labor unions, youth and women's clubs, civic and fraternal associations, schools and others join in noting not only the interdependent roles of the producers and consumers of America's agricultural abundance but also their opportunities for cooperation in building for the future."

Baker notes that Farm-City Week observances in Texas will follow no set pattern but the objective of all will be the same—to help rural and urban residents understand each other's problems and further develop the appreciation each should have for the other. In other words, he says, we just couldn't get along without each other.

Landscaping Is Costly

Building a new home soon? Be sure to allow for the cost of landscape development, advises Everett E. Janne, Extension landscape horticulturist. This includes such items as grading, drive, patio, retaining walls, screen fences and walls, plantings, and professional services. Under average conditions, the landscape budget should be between 10 to 20 percent of the cost of the house and lot. This does not include the cost of such features as a swimming pool or tennis court.

"When a new home has concrete blocks for walks, a loose gravel drive, and a Burford holly on each corner, it doesn't mean that it has been landscaped," said Janne. "In fact, it appears as though the owner ran out of funds before he finished because he didn't plan ahead."

The ideal procedure is to plan the house and ground as a unit before construction begins. In this way, the house can be designed to fit the site with a minimum of grading or cutting and filling of soil. This results in a better use of the site and makes it easier to provide a close relationship between the indoor and outdoor areas.

Other factors to consider in developing the site are the views, topography, seasonal wind directions, sun angles, space usage, both inside and outside the house, and legal building restrictions.

The less the site must be changed, the better use one can make of existing features and still achieve unity in the total landscape design. All too often the house design is chosen with no thought as to the lot on which it is to be located. Consequently, many valuable, and irreplaceable, trees and other landscape features must be removed to make room for the house.

COUNTY AGENT NEWS

B. T. Haws
Wichita County Agricultural

is important that each producer in Wichita County who receives a questionnaire, complete and return it immediately.

You can't look at a soil and tell if it is able to supply the nutrients needed for top crop production.

The selection of the proper fertilizer depends upon knowledge of the nutrient needs of the crop to be grown and the nutrient supplying power of the soil on which it is to be grown.

Determining the nutrient needs of crops is comparable in many ways to diagnosing human ills. A medical doctor observes the patient, obtains all the information possible by questions, and then makes certain tests.

Similarly, alert farmers can test soil to determine its ability to feed plants a balanced diet. A soil test saves farmers money by showing them how to put the "right" amount of the "right" plant nutrients on the "right" field.

Now is a good time to take soil samples from fields where harvesting has been completed. In many sections of the state, and it's true in Wichita County, fall application of fertilizer is recommended. Often in the spring field conditions delay putting down fertilizer; therefore, fall or winter application can eliminate this problem. Early soil testing must be done in order for a successful fall or winter application. It is also often possible to purchase fertilizer during the off-season at a considerable savings.

Cash receipts from farm marketings in 1969 totaled around $47 billion, of which $28 billion came from livestock and livestock products and $19 billion from crops. The total in 1950 was only $28 billion. The increase since 1950 stems almost entirely from a substantially larger volume of farm products marketed, since prices received by farmers in 1969 averaged just slightly higher than 20 years ago. The bill for farm production expenses added up to $38.6 billion in 1969, about double that of 1950. In 1969, production expenses got 71 cents of each gross income dollar.

Senior Citizens Hold Luncheon

The Senior Citizens Club held a luncheon at Town Hall Nov. 12 honoring veterans of World War I and the Gold Star Mothers. The huge crowd of approximately 130 enjoyed the program, the games, the fellowship and the good food. Of those present, 112 were members, while the rest were guests. The program was opened with the Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag and the first stanza of "America." This was followed by a roll call of guest veterans and the Senior Citizens Club members. Officers of the local American Legion Post were introduced. Poor memories did not prove helpful in singing "Tipperary" and "Over There." Mr. J.A. Janek introduced Mr. Clayton Mann and

Mrs. Doty Mann. Mr. Mann, the speaker, is State President of the American Legion and works on the Rehabilitation and Welfare National Committees. Mrs. Mann is a state and national official of the Auxiliary. Mrs. Johnson presented Mrs. Mann with a lovely corsage. Mr. Mann gave a stirring speech on what the Legion has achieved for the veterans and the aims for future achievements. He mentioned that "1970 is the last year Veterans Day will be on Nov. 11. With the change of holidays to Mondays, the observance will be the second Monday in Oct. due to the week end holiday mania." Mrs. Mann made a plea for all to write letters concerning the more than 1500 prisoners of war in North Viet Nam.

Five Cowboys Qualified For Nationals

DENVER, COLO.--Five professional cowboys have qualified for the National Finals Rodeo in two or more events, the Rodeo Cowboys Association said here today.

Just qualifying for the Finals in one event is a challenge, the association said.

The Finals will be held Dec. 5-13 in Oklahoma City, with $101,000 and world championships at stake. Only the first 15 moneywinners in each of six events--based on year-long competition--can enter the Finals.

Heading the list for the fifth consecutive year is Oregon's great Larry Mahan, who will compete in saddle and bareback bronc riding and bull riding. Mahan, Oregon's 1969 professional athlete of the year, as a near cinch to claim his fifth all-around cowboy championship, an award going to the contestant winning the most during the year in two or more events. He has pocketed $38,607 this year, the lowest in his five-year reign. He won $57,726 last year.

Qualifying in two events are: Warren Wuthier, Banner, Wyo., currently fourth in calf roping, seventh in steer wrestling, second in the all-around with $32,814; Bob Berger, formerly of Halstead, Kans., and now of Norman, Okla., second in bull riding, sixth in saddle bronc riding, fourth in the all-around with $31,139;

Ace Berry, Modesto, Calif., fourth in bareback bronc riding, eighth in team roping, sixth in the all-around with $25,810; and Mark Schricker, Sutherlin, Ore., tenth in calf roping, fourth in steer wrestling, eighth in the all-around with $23,601.

Injuries may keep several contestants from Finals competition, including: Jim Dix, N. Collie, W. Australia, bareback bronc riding; Doug Brown, Silverton, Ore., and Roy Rodewald, Craig, Colo., saddlebronc riding; and Dickey Cox, Walnut Springs, Tex., bull riding. George Paul, Del Rio, Tex., 14th ranked bull rider, was killed this summer in an airplane crash. In the event that a Finalist does not compete, the 16th man in that event will take his place.

TO THREAD A NEEDLE

Did you ever thread a needle? ... Most everyone has, it takes a good eye, for the opening is small. Did you ever try to thread one while someone else held the needle? ... This is almost impossible. All this brings us to the point that ... there are some things that we must do ourselves. We can not send someone else to church for us, we can not have someone else worship the Lord for us. These things are strictly on an individual basis.

ATTEND CHURCH

... YOU'LL BE GLAD THAT YOU DID.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny, the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

We Salute SHEPPARD AIR FORCE BASE

"Say I Am Concerned And Wave The Flag-"

By Bob Arnold

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS-- "To be concerned is not enough. If we get together and say 'I am concerned' and wave the flag and then no letters come out of it, we haven't done any good."

That statement by Capt. Roy A. Ryan set the tone of a roundtable discussion by several Sheppard people who are really concerned about the plight of American POW/MIAs.

Also on hand was Mrs. Ryan who has been active in working for POWs through women groups.

Others participating in the discussion were Lt. Col. R.P. Langenbach, Captains Don Thompson, L.C. Rice, Fred Baker, Vernon Saxon, and members of the Information Office.

Most of those present had personal reasons for being concerned about POWs and MIAs. "A good friend's husband is missing or a prisoner--she doesn't know," "I went through helicopter school and was stationed with men who are POWs or MIAs".... "I was third pilot (didn't fly that day) on a helicopter that was shot down in Southeast Asia in 1965. We still don't know the status of those men".... "I have several acquaintances who went down over there".... "Some of my classmates from the Air Force Academy are POWs or MIAs".... and so it went.

When reports of inhumane treatment of POWs filter out of North Vietnam (mostly from the nine prisoners released to date) it is pretty personal to these people who know them and have served with them.

They don't ask much, just that you care enough to write a letter or sign a petition and express your concern for the basic humanitarian treatment called for in the Geneva Conventions which North Vietnam agreed to.

One startling fact revealed during the discussion was a poll taken by United We Stand, the H. Ross Perot organization headquartered in Dallas. It showed that only 69 per cent of Americans knew that there are American POWs in North Vietnam and that just 34 per cent knew they were being treated badly.

Do letters and petitions help? "Yes" was the resounding answer. The North Vietnamese government is sensitive to United States and world opinion. Since letter-writing campaigns have been conducted by organizations in the United States, more names of POWs have been released. There has been an increase in mail from POWs. Not much. Not nearly enough. But it offers an optimistic trend. Public opinion is effective. The Sheppard Officers Wives Club donated money to help finance a tour of five women through Europe and publicize the POW plight. They let people over there know what was going on and asked for their support. As a result, two of the wives received letters from POW husbands. One of these letters was the first contact in three years. One wife heard who had never received a letter previously from her husband.

To date, less than 175 prisoners have been allowed to write to their families.

Another good point was made. Even though a citizen may have some private reservations about our involvement in Southeast Asia, the appeal here is to humanitarian instincts. The problem is Americans who are not being treated even as human beings. The big point is the release of names of POWs and humane treatment. Names wipe out so much uncertainty.

What does a wife go through when her husband is reported MIA in North Vietnam? "She goes through hell," was the prompt answer of one who has first-hand knowledge in seeing a friend go through it.

"She was one of the original four ladies who went to Paris to seek help from the North Vietnamese delegation to the peace talks. A North Vietnamese spokesman promised the wives that they would be told if their husbands were alive. That has been many months now and my friend has had no word."

A helicopter pilot had a story to tell about another wife. He saw her within a week after her husband was reported Missing in Action. "At that time she was convinced that her husband would walk out....that he would be coming out just any day."

"Then a couple of more people read the reports the Government had given her. That information coupled with their own knowledge of conditions prompted them to level with her and told her that her husband was not coming back. He had been lost on a night reconnaissance mission in bad weather. It is possible that he could have survived but the chances are 1,000 to 1 against his being alive."

"After she had accepted the fact that he was either a POW or dead, she settled down and for the next six months or so she just wanted to know. She didn't care about anything except knowing for sure."

"A year passed and he was still listed officially MIA. This status could last for as long as seven years under existing policy. At this point she just resigned herself to accept anything that happened."

"They had a baby that was born three months before he left to go overseas. Now she is at the point that she is settled in her way with her child. She would hate to give up the financial security (she still receives her husband's pay) but life is still difficult.

"She says it is an awkward position to be in. Her girlfriends consist of wives whose husbands are overseas and a widow whose husband was killed in Southeast Asia. But she doesn't really fit into either category. Hers is a unique position."

The panelists discussed what kind of letters are most effective. The consensus was: handwritten letters without indication of grade or military connection. Other ideas were to write to the wives of world dignitaries asking them to intercede with their husbands. Children's letters are thought to be very effective. A drawing from a child is also effective.

One panelist has been asking his friends all over the country to join the letter-writing campaign. He stresses to his friends to compare their life over the past three or four years with what POWs have experienced. Whatever has happened to them can't be as horrible as the plight of a POW, he reasons.

A potent suggestion was to include a request in all the Christmas cards you send this year for the recipient to direct his thoughts to POWs by sending a letter to specified addresses.

UP, UP & AWAY

In each week's writing I make several errors, but the most glaring mistake last week was the way I spelled Aerocoupe, which should have been ER-coupe. I was thinking of the Aerocommander I saw test-hopped in Oklahoma City at Will Rogers airport a number of years ago.

I can just hear some readers (I can call most of them by their first names) who would be first to declare the entire column is a mistake.

Been reading about women making jumps in parachutes (some over 250 jumps) and some pack their own chutes and their husband's chutes.

When a chute is packed properly it is almost impossible for it to fail to open. A chute can be crammed into the pack most any way and if the pilot chute is free to emerge when the rip cord is properly pulled the rest of the fabric must follow.

Most chute failures can be laid to jumper errors the same as most airplane accidents can be laid to pilot and maintenance errors.

What person hasn't heard someone say, "You couldn't get me to jump out of a plane under any circumstance?" Maybe you have been one to say those words, and I'll be the first to admit that if you

BASE EXCHANGE JOINS POLLUTION CONTROL BATTLE

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS-- Sheppard's base exchange is joining others throughout the Continental United States in an effort to curb air pollution. Concentrated efforts are being made to curb the pollution caused by vehicles with faulty positive crankcase ventilation (PCV) valves.

Although a relatively small part of the automobile engine, the PCV valve plays an important part in curbing the exhaust released into the atmosphere. PCV valves prevent blow-by gases from the crankcase from going through the exhaust system and polluting the air. Gases are returned through the PCV valve to the intake system to mix and to burn in the cylinders along with normal air-gas mixture.

Posters at the base service stations advertise free inspection of these valves. In addition to reducing air pollution, this service may also prevent serious damage to an engine.

PCV valves should be inspected and serviced every 4,000 miles to keep them clean and free of gummy deposits, caused by the lead found in many gasolines.

These cause malfunctioning of the valve, increased gasoline consumption and ultimate engine damage.

PAY INCREASE EFFECTIVE NOW

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS-- The pay increase for wage board employees at Sheppard Air Force Base amounts to about $450,000 for the remainder of the fiscal year which ends June 30, 1971, according to Sheppard officials.

This increase affects about 950 persons at Sheppard. The increases range from 13 to 48¢ an hour with the average wage increase of 33¢ an hour.

The raise became effective at Sheppard Nov. 1 and will be in employee pay checks Nov. 20, 1970.

Bill Page Donates Survival Vest To Museum

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS-- Sheppard Air Force Base played a key role in getting a World War II survival vest to the United States Air Force Museum at Wright-Patterson AFB, Ohio, recently.

Bill Page, a Wichita who serves his Air Force Reserve duty at Carswell AFB, Texas, had a survival vest that he wanted to donate to the museum. He had acquired it in the late 1950's from a surplus store.

The vest, in good condition, has many pockets which are filled with a first aid kit, K-rations, two knives, a sharpening stone, fishing gear, hat and gloves with mosquito net attached, a holster for fire arms, boxes of .45 shot shells and three five minute railroad type flares.

He wrote to the museum offering to give the vest for display there. The museum officials replied that they would like to have it. Then came the problem of sending it because of the explosive shells and flares. That's where Sheppard figured in.

Mr. Page brought it to the Sheppard Information Office, where MSgt. Wendell Kerr, non-commissioned officer in charge, brought in MSgt. Garland D. Brinkley, explosive safety officer and acting explosives ordinance disposal technician to help in getting it to Wright-Patterson.

Sergeant Brinkley properly packaged and labeled it to send to the museum. He then took it to base operations where a Sheppard pilot going to Wright-Patterson hand-carried it to the base for delivery to the museum.

Mr. Page was an aircraft controller in Louisiana, Georgia, and Texas during his active service with the U.S. Air Force in 1953 and 1954.

He is now assigned to the 916th Military Airlift Command Group at Carswell. His duties are with intelligence and disaster preparedness.

He resides at 2900 McNeil Street in Wichita Falls.

Trees On Sale

More than 1,000 Christmas trees will be sold this year by the Boy Scout troops at Sheppard AFB. The sale of trees will begin Nov. 28 and will continue until the last tree is sold.

The lot will be adjacent to the base Ice House, near the Officers' Open Mess.

All profits will be used in the scouting program.
