The talk around the country this week has been the big fight between Cassius Clay (Muhammad Ali) and Joe Frazier, and the outcome will be the topic of conversation for years to come in sporting circles.

I waited with as much anticipation as did anyone (except those who received the $2.5 million) for the final outcome of this battle. Although I'm not an avid boxing fan nor an avid Frazier fan, I only wish he (Frazier) could have won by a knock-out. I guess I'm old-fashioned, but because of Clay's conflict with the military and because of his general attitude I don't believe I could ever pull for him.

There will probably be someone knocking on your door for a donation to the Boy Scouts in the next couple of days, if they haven't already. Give what you can to this worthy organization. Gary Owen tells me they will be closing this sustaining membership campaign tomorrow.

If you are needing some fun and relaxation, you might try the ABWA Carnival this week or the Lions Club Pancake and Sausage Festival, which will be all day Saturday.

Roy Magers tells me that the Pancake Festival runs for 14 hours, from 6 a.m. until 8 p.m., and it's all the pancakes, sausage and bacon you can eat.

With filing deadlines over for the two upcoming elections, we find we have an excellent slate of men to choose from. There are seven good men running for the three places on the school board. I've had the opportunity to visit with all seven of them this past week, and there aren't any culs in the bunch. They are all capable and dedicated men, and any one of them will do what he believes is best for our schools.

The ability to lie varies from person to person. For instance, a short-armed fisherman isn't as big a liar as a long-armed one.

Speaking of fishermen, I wonder - when C. F. Willmon or Fred Hunt buy shirts, what length sleeve they purchase. Knowing these two men, one of them will call me the first thing today and tell me that he wears only short sleeve shirts and the other one, not to be outdone, will call and say that he recently began wearing only sleeveless shirts!

Police Chief Buck Abbott tells me that the latest driving maneuver to be classified by traffic engineers is the O-turn. Abbott reports that it was invented by the lady who made a U-turn and then changed her mind.

From time to time we devote space to applaud and commend good examples set by high school and college students, which we are always happy to do. Youths need to be encouraged, and we need to be encouraged by good examples set by our young people. But it is not very often that we have words of praise for third grade students--maybe we just don't hear about them.

But one account we did hear about, because it was placed in the Congressional Record by Congressman Jack F. Kemp of New York, is an inspiring message that was composed by Grade 3 students at the Cleveland Hill Primary School in Cheektowaga, New York. Written by Marshall Berger and his classmates, it is entitled:

Our Little Miss Pageant Set For April 9, 10

April 9 and 10 are the dates that have been selected for the 3rd annual "Our Little Miss Burk Burnett" Pageant, to be held in the high school cafeteria.

"The Burk Burnett Jaycees are proud to again offer this opportunity to the young ladies of Burk Burnett," stated Wayne Sikes, pageant director.

In discussing the pageant, Sikes declared: "The pageant is a youth development program, designed to give young ladies early goals in good grooming, social graces, talent training and scholarship. It is the only international pageant system for children providing a next level of competition, beginning with the local preliminaries, through the state pageants, and culminating in a fabulous international staging. It has opened the doors to a rightful place in the beauty pageant world for children. Founded in 1962, the pageant has grown to unbelievable size and scope. In 1968, 144 entrants from 36 states, 10 major cities, and 4 foreign countries competed in the international finals. More than 30 young ladies from Burk Burnett were involved in the local contest last year alone."

The pageant is open to all young ladies ages 3 through 12 living within a 35-mile radius of Burk Burnett. Ages 3 through 6 will be in the "LaPetite" division, competing in party dress and sportswear. Ages 7 through 12 will make up the "Our Little Miss" division, competing in party dress, sportswear, and in the talent presentation, which may include singing, dancing, musical instruments, dramatics, etc. There will also be a talent winner selected in addition to the LaPetite and Our Little Miss selections. All three winners will be eligible to compete in the state pageant.

Girls who are interested in the pageant should enter as soon as possible, as the deadline will be the last part of this month, with the Jaycees and Jaycee Wives hosting an orientation for the girls and their parents March 19 at 7:30 p.m. in the National Room of the First National Bank. There will be practice sessions April 1, 6 and 8.

Entry fees may be personal or business. See LITTLE MISS Page Two

Eight Men Announce For Three Places On Burk Burnett School Board

Three men filed for places on the ballot in the upcoming school trustee election between last week's press time and the filing deadline of 4:00 Wednesday, March 3.

T. M. Cornelius filed for a position on Place 1, incumbent Weldon Nix for a position on Place 2, and Alexander J. Kouloavatos for a position on Place 3.

Opposing Cornelius will be incumbent Norman Roberts, and Norman S. Henderson. On the ballot for place two against Nix will be Ted B. Harris. Place three lists three candidates -- Kouloavatos, Paul W. Avrit and incumbent Gene Bankhead.

Cornelius, a resident of Burk Burnett for the past 15 years, owns an insurance business here. He and his wife Helen have three sons, two of whom graduated from Burk Burnett High School. The third will begin first grade her next year.

He has a BS degree in Business Education, and a Masters Degree in School Administration. "Having helped to write the National School Board policies in 1952, I know the duties of a School Board member. They are very simple and can be summed up in a few words: It is the duty of a Board member to formulate the local school board policies, hire a superintendent and give him the money to carry out the policies and let him run the schools," states Cornelius.

Norman Roberts, a life-time resident of Burk Burnett, is a civil service employee who has a record of 22 years of service at Sheppard AFB. Roberts and his wife have five children, two of whom have graduated from Burk Burnett High School. In his terms on the school board, Roberts has served as president, vice president and secretary.

"I have served six years on the school board and I feel this experience is an asset. I have always supported all aspects of our school system," stated Roberts.

Norman S. Henderson of 306 Preston, a resident of Burk Burnett for the past one and one-half years, has also filed for place 1. Henderson is an electronics instructor at Sheppard AFB. He and his wife have two children in the Burk Burnett schools. He attended high school in Aiken, S. C., and later attended Midwestern University.

Filing for Place 2 are Ted B. Harris of 523 W. Third St., and incumbent Weldon Nix. Harris announced his candidacy for the post earlier in February.

Nix, an 18-year resident of Burk Burnett, owns the White Auto Store here. He and his wife Danella have two sons in the Burk Burnett Schools. He attended Petrolia High School and North Texas State University prior to entering the Air Force during World War II. He has been a member of the school board for the past 15 years.

"If elected, I'll try to be as fair and as impartial as I know how, and to work for our school system to the best of my ability," stated Nix.

Alexander Kouloavatos of 202-A Thor at Sheppard AFB is first on the ballot for Place 3. He and his wife Teresa have five children in the Burk Burnett schools. Kouloavatos attended high school in Portland, Me., and has served in the military for 28 years.

"I plan to retire and to make Burk Burnett my home, and I feel that I should become involved in the affairs of our community," stated Kouloavatos.

Also on the ballot for Place 3 is Paul W. Avrit of 606 Oak St. Avrit has lived in Burk Burnett for four years. He was with the local Farmer's Feed and Supply for See SCHOOL ELECTION Page Two

Local FFA Boys To Take Animals To Co. Show

A large number of boys and an even larger number of livestock will be in Wichita Falls Monday and Tuesday for the second annual Wichita County Junior Livestock Show.

James Easter, local vocational agriculture teacher, reported that Burk Burnett boys would be carrying approximately 40 hogs, 10 lambs and three steers, and possible some broilers or fryers to the show.

The show, which will be held in the 4-H Barn, will begin at 9:00 Monday morning. Lambs will be shown that afternoon, and barrows Monday night. The steer showing will begin Tuesday morning, and horse competition will be held Tuesday afternoon. Breeding stock will be shown in between the above events, reported Easter.

The sale of the top animals will begin at 7:30 Tuesday night. Total premium animals will be 10 steers, 25 market lambs, 30 market swine, three pens of broilers and three pens of fryer rabbits.

"We have an exceptional chance of having the winning animal in several of the events," reported Easter. "We would like to see as many Burk Burnett people as possible at the show."

Two Burk Burnett men, J. B. Riley, Jr., and Raymond Brown, are directors of this county show. These two men and Gene Allen, manager of the Burk Burnett Chamber of Commerce, have agreed to make bids on the show animals for those who would like to buy an animal but are unable to attend the show.

School Calendar Approved By Local Board

In their regularly scheduled meeting Monday night, the Burk Burnett School Board approved the proposed school calendar for 1971-72.

The first of the 180 days of class has been set as August 30. Major holidays were set as Thanksgiving, Nov. 24-29; Christmas, Dec. 21-Jan. 3; and Easter, March 29-April 4.

Raymond Smart, tax assessor-collector, reported that total collections had reached 97 percent of the 1970 tax roll. Smart listed total receipts of $226,472, including $6,617 in delinquent taxes.

The board approved the selection of textbooks as recommended by a faculty committee headed by superintendent I. C. Evans.

In other action, the board authorized the taking of bids on demolishing the old bus barn on the Hardin Elementary School campus.

The discussion of the selection of an assistant superintendent and an athletic director was tabled until a special board meeting, scheduled for March 15, when other faculty members will be elected.

The board also approved the employment of Mrs. Mary Deusch as third grade teacher at Sheppard-Burk Elementary School and accepted the resignation of Mrs. Kathryn Legge, primary teacher at Southside Elementary school.

Henderson Files For City Council Election

The filing deadline for the Burk Burnett City Council election arrived Friday afternoon, with all three of the incumbents and one other contestant filing.

Irvy Smith, F. R. McCandless and A. H. Lohoefer were the incumbents filing for re-election.

M. H. Henderson of Floyd St. was the only new contestant in the race. Henderson, who is semi-retired, has lived in Burk Burnett since 1940.

The election date has been set for Tuesday, April 6.

Since this is an odd-numbered year, there will be only three places contested on the council, those vacated by the expiring terms of Smith, McCandless and Lohoefer.

Billy Smith, Albert Dillard, Joe Ray McCluskey and J. L. Caffee, the other councilmen, will serve until next year.

Club Discussed At Directors Luncheon

A "Greeters Club" for the chamber of commerce was the main topic of discussion at the Burk Burnett Chamber of Commerce Directors luncheon Monday in the Town Hall.

Jerry McClure, chamber president, stated that the club should be open to anyone who wants to help promote Burk Burnett. Heading the committee outlining rules and duties of the proposed club is T. M. Cornelius.

The black and gold patch used on the red blazers worn by chamber directors was made available to Burk Burnett clubs and organizations by vote of the directors at the meeting. The black patch has gold lettering and depicts an oil well, therefore identifying Burk Burnett as "Boombtown."

The next luncheon meeting of the chamber will be the first Monday in April, and the directors will meet on the second Monday.

BIG PASTURE FFA TO STAGE SLAVE SALE MON.

The Big Pasture FFA Chapter will stage its annual Slave Sale Monday night, according to Walon Holt, vocational-agriculture teacher for Big Pasture High School.

A fish fry prepared by the FFA officers will kick off the event. Following the feed, some 50 boys will march to the auction block and will be sold to the highest bidder for an eight-hour work day. Then will come the finale, the auctioning of the chapter sweetheart to the highest bidder.

Proceeds from this event go to the chapter for general maintenance, projects and trips, and other expenses.

"We would like to invite everyone who would like a hard-working boy for a day to come over and buy a slave," stated Holt.

Guidelines Of Life

Rev. John Hocker, Pastor First Assembly of God Church

Like an army moves the Church of God, treading where saints have trod, not divided, all one body, we are one in hope...

Would an army accept the excuses some church members give? Imagine:

Reveille, 7:30 A. M. The sergeant barks, "Count fours," "One!" "Two!" "Three!" Number four missing. "Where's Private Smith?" ... "Private Smith was too sleepy to get up," someone volunteers. "He was out late last night and needed the sleep. He said he would be with us in spirit."

"That's OK, I understand," says the Sergeant, "give him my regards when you see him."

"One!" "Two!" ... "Where's Jones?" ... "Sir, Jones has a slight cold, and of course didn't want to give it to the entire army." "There surely are a lot of colds going around. I will try to get by to see him this week," says the sergeant.

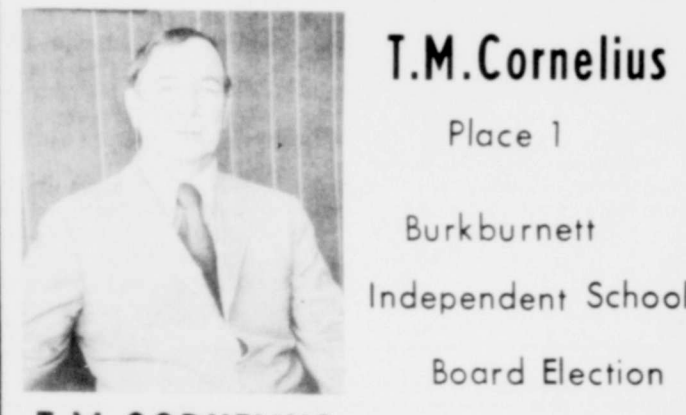

"I don't believe I've seen Private Brown either." "Oh, he is playing golf," puts in another chap; "Only day he has off, and he feels recreation is a must. Besides, he says he can train just as well at the golf course as he can on the drill field."

Second Timothy 3:5 informs us that there will be a time when people will have a form of Godliness but will deny the power thereof.

Solomon 6:4 tells us the real church is "terrible as an army with banners."

TRAGEDY is a man who thinks he has enough religion to get him to heaven, but not enough to get him to church. Don't give God instructions. Just report for duty.

T.M. Cornelius Place 1 Burkburnett Independent School Board Election

The Churches and Schools of America have made this country the best place on the face of the Earth to live. If we become complacent this may not be true for the future. I have always been interested in the youth of our nation. They are the hope of the future. Public schools belong to the taxpayers, and should be operated for the interest of all boys and girls. The best qualified teachers should be employed and given the freedom to teach.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

To The Editor:

The recent request by the city council to have all garbage and trash cans in a rack and the lids secured to the rack and inspected by the city inspector for compliance by a specified date is stating the ordinance very precisely, and the residents of the city are expected to comply.

I have no doubt that they will, and by complying to this ordinance it is hoped to prevent animals, such as dogs, from upsetting the trash cans and thereby aiding in spreading litter on the streets of Burkburnett and it is a known fact that there is already too much litter on the streets and very unsightly to the majority of residents of this fine city.

There is another ordinance in this fair city whereby dogs, meaning all dogs, must be controlled, such as on a leash, in a pen, or in the house, and not running the streets as they are now and have been for some time, creating much of the litter on the streets. It is sometimes unsafe to be on the streets for fear of getting bitten or harassed by some overgrown mongrel, and if anyone decides to try and eliminate some of the pests he is open for a liable suit, so if the ordinance on trash cans must be complied with, why not the ordinance on dogs running loose on the streets? After all, the residents of Burkburnett are responsible for electing the good city councilmen. So why not let the city council solve this problem that is increasing in difficulty and a menace to the public. Let's face it, there are laws to benefit the public, so why not enforce a few?

SPORTS SIDELIGHTS

by Robert Sturges

The Burkburnett High School tennis team is in the spotlight this week. The team has just finished an outstanding series of tournament and dual (practice) matches, and has come home winners.

The success story of the hour is the girls' doubles win at the Electric Invitational Tournament last Friday and Saturday. Carol Henderson and Debbie Anderson blasted the Electric pair of Genevieve Foster and Caylen Grave, 6-2, 6-1 in the finals.

This gave Burk its first 1st place win and trophy in tennis in three years. Carol and Debbie reportedly did exceptionally well during the tourney, even though hampered by gusty Texas winds. They had gained this ability in the constant practice techniques of Coach Horkey.

The entire Burk team did well at the Electric tourney. All but two of the team reached the quarter-finals, and a number went into semifinals.

Thomas Sturges fought in a boy's singles battle against Celeste's top player, James LaFaver, and came up with a third place in the tourney listings. This was the second highest honor won by the Burk team at the tourney.

Tuesday the team traveled to Vernon to play a dual match. They came home with a number of wins to their credit.

A dual match is a small scale tourney set up between two schools after one challenges the other in competition for prestige. Burk will need the practice as they enter another tourney next Friday at Duncan. They will be facing some pretty tough teams of the Texoma area.

Let's hope they bring home some more little trinkets to decorate the high school display case.

"As a citizen of Burkburnett, and as a parent of children in the Burkburnett school system, I feel it is my duty and privilege to serve in the best possible way to further the school system and help it attain its goals," related Avritt.

Opposing Koulovas and Avritt for Place 3 is incumbent Gene Bankhead, Bankhead, a life-time resident of Burkburnett, is an industrial engineer technician at Sheppard AFB. He and his wife Joyce have two children, one a graduate of Burkburnett High School and the other a sophomore at BHS. Bankhead is also a graduate of Burkburnett High School and attended Texas Wesleyan University.

"During the past six years on the school board I've strived to do the right thing in the interest of the schools, and I'm running again on the basis of what I've stood for in the past," stated Bankhead.

With eight men vying for three places on the school board, the upcoming election should be one of much interest.

The election date is Saturday, April 3.

Southwestern Bell Expects Growth In Burkburnett

Southwestern Bell has 20 reasons to expect continued growth in Burkburnett during 1971.

According to C.A. Deuschle, local manager for the telephone company, that's the number of new telephones added during 1970 for a year-end total of 4,141 in service.

"By the end of the current year," he said, "the company expect to add another 80 telephones to those already in service here."

"Use of telephones here also is rising," he noted, "with an annual total of 6,880,041 local and long distance calls placed during 1970, up by about 20,000 calls from 1969."

"The best possible service at the lowest possible price was not Southwestern Bell's only contribution to Burkburnett during 1970," Deuschle added. "The company paid about $4,100 in ad valorem property taxes and some $5,300 in gross receipts taxes during the year to meet its obligations as a good corporate citizen."

"In addition, Southwestern Bell's payroll in Burkburnett was $52,500 in 1970," he said. "Most of that money was spent for local goods and services in a direct contribution to the community's economy."

Deuschle pointed out that Southwestern Bell is meeting Burkburnett's present and future needs with cable projects, which also provide Extended Area Service to Randlett and Devol, Oklahoma.

The company is engaged in a statewide effort involving an estimated $460 million in new construction for service improvements and expansion, he said. "This massive amount of money for Texas represents more than half of Southwestern Bell's planned expenditures in its five-state operating territory during 1971," Deuschle explained.

He noted that more than $180 million will be spent in the community's economy."

THE FAMILY LAWYER

Barbed Humor

"Many a truth," says an old proverb, "is spoken in jest." But what about a lie that is spoken in jest? Is a false statement excusable if the speaker is "only kidding?"

Consider the case of a television personality who, in the course of his patter, referred to one of his guests as "a member of the Mafia."

The remark got a big laugh from the audience, but the guest was not amused. Instead, he filed a defamation suit against his host, accusing him of soiling an innocent person's good name.

Nevertheless, the court turned down the guest's claim. The judge pointed out that the remark not only was intended to be funny but also was taken that way by the audience.

Safety Against Child Poisoning Urged By A&M

Who would want to hurt a child? Certainly not you. But for every child accidentally poisoned, an adult is responsible, says Mrs. Doris Myers, Extension specialist in home management at Texas A&M University.

Each year, close to one million children accidentally ingest medicine and commonly-used household products such as cleaning agents, furniture polish, kerosene, paint thinner and pesticides.

To prevent a tragedy, learn the potential danger spots for your child. For example, Mrs. Myers says that a child under five is constantly exploring his surroundings. When he learns to crawl, he reaches, touches and tastes everything within reach. Products stored on the floor and in floor-level cabinets, then, are potential danger spots for him.

A toddler can reach higher places and is more likely to pull open low drawers or to reach items left on low tables or chairs. As he grows, he learns to climb a chair to reach objects above his arm's length.

A common remedy in protecting a child against household poisons is always keeping them locked up. But other simple rules are vital for your child's safety, says Mrs. Myers.

Never describe medicine as candy; call it by name--medicine.

Read the label in the bottle of medicine each time you use it, even if it means turning the light on at night. This practice prevents giving an overdose or the wrong medicine.

Children are tempted to imitate, so don't take medication in their presence.

When the phone or doorbell rings, take the furniture polish with you. Don't leave it on the coffee table to tempt your child to sample it. Keep all products in their original container. Don't transfer it to a soft drink bottle or cup.

State Farm Insurance Announces Annual Report

Bob Carter, who represents State Farm Insurance in the Burkburnett area, today received an advance copy of the firm's year-end report. In the report from State Farm President Edward B. Rust, Carter was told that the world's largest insurer made $27.1 million on its auto insurance bus-

Carter said the year's results compared favorably with those of 1969, when the company lost $91.6 million on its insurance operations and had investment income of $63.5 million. Sales in 1969 were $1.4 billion.

In commenting to Carter on the year's results, President Rust cited a leveling off in the rate at which the number of claims increased during 1970 and the fact that the company was able to put rate increases into effect in 44 jurisdictions as major reasons for the improvement. The State Farm president said he is not overly optimistic about the company's prospects for 1971.

"It's inflation that's been giving insurers their major headaches the last few years and it appears that we are committed to a return to further inflation," he said. "If this is the case, we'll still be on the treadmill of higher costs and higher prices."

State Farm Mutual spent $1,306,141,168 on claims and the costs of settling them in 1970, an increase of $56.3 million over the 1969 claim bill.

State Farm Mutual's policyholder protection surplus, which decreased $26.7 million during 1969 to $444,129,424, increased in 1970 to $563.7 million. Part of that increase was due to $26.1 millions of gains in the carrying value of the stock of the life and fire affiliates held by the parent company and to a $7,930,360 federal tax refund from unprofitable 1969.

State Farm Life, one of five affiliates in the State Farm group, ended its greatest year of production with total insurance in force of $9,846,687, 642. Of this amount, $8,836, 094,644 was insurance on individuals (non-group). Year-end figures for '69 showed $8,122,110,151 total insurance in force with $7,157,380,500 of it on individuals.

During 1970 State Farm agents wrote a record $2,542, 265,595 in new paid-for life insurance, up from $1,816,148, 100 in 1969. The company reported a net profit from operations, after dividends and taxes of $12,843,956 -- up from the '69 figure of $11,543,382.

State Farm Fire and Casualty, largest writer of Homeowners Insurance, reported written premiums of $258, 825,507 -- up from $216,915, 095 in 1969. Of that total, $194,175,659 was on Homeowners insurance business; the '69 figure for that business was $161,512,619. There were 2,556,973 Homeowners policies in force at the end of the year, up from the '69 year-end total of 2,495,494. The company reported an underwriting profit for the year of $478,590 as compared to the $737,313 profit recorded a year earlier.

State Farm Life and Accident Assurance Company, doing business only in New York and Wisconsin, finished the year with total insurance in force of $501,700,005 -- up from $453,804,772 a year earlier.

There was $109,357,673 of new business written during '70 as compared to $150,165,892 in 1969. The company reported a net gain from operations of $953,634. Profit in 1969 was $550,144.

State Farm General, primarily writing fire and Homeowners insurance on low value homes, increased its policy in force total from 195,789 to 437,622 during the year. The 1970 net written premium income was $4,644,667; in 1969 it was $1,164,184. The company earned an underwriting profit of $142,182 in 1970 as compared to a $93,315 profit in 1969.

BOY SCOUT LEADERS BEGIN S.M.E. PROGRAM

The Annual Sustaining Membership Enrollment of the Northwest Texas Council, Boy Scouts of America, went into full swing throughout the 13-county council this week, according to Tom E. Craddock, council sustaining membership chairman.

"This year's annual enrollment is expected to produce $70,000 in Sustaining Memberships," Craddock said. This year's enrollment will be conducted in four geographic districts which make up the Northwest Texas Council.

The Chisholm Trail district which is composed of Clay and Montague counties, is under the leadership of Carlton J. Chapman of Nocona. Bob White of Bowie is his vice chairman. The combined communities of the two counties will work toward an $8,300 membership goal, which includes United Fund allocations.

The Sustaining Membership Enrollment chairman of the Greenbelt district in James T. Moore of Vernon. The district includes the counties of Childress, Cottle, Hardeman, Foard and Wilbarger. Communities in the Greenbelt district will work toward a membership goal of $23,700, including United Fund allocations.

The Brazos Valley district, under the direction of Robert J. Farr of Seymour, will work toward a goal of $6,800 which includes United Fund allocations. The Brazos Valley district includes the counties of Baylor, King, Knox and Throckmorton.

Max Kruger of Wichita Falls is the Sustaining Membership Enrollment chairman for Wichita district, which includes Wichita and Archer Counties. The Wichita district goal is $11,700 in Sustaining Memberships, excluding United Fund allocations.

The balance of this year's goal will be secured in a special program conducted across the council by members of the Council's Executive Board, and was kicked off under the leadership of Bill Thacker and T.J. Waggoner, Jr., in late January.

"The District Sustaining Membership Enrollment is divided into two phases. The first is to contact persons for membership who have been 'Friends of Scouting' over the years," Craddock related. "The second phase is to contact parents of boys in the program and provide them an opportunity to participate with their sons as Sustaining Members," he said.

Currently the Northwest Texas Council is serving some 4,800 boys between the ages of 8 and 18, and they are members of some 160 Cub Packs, Scout Troops and Explorer Units.

UP, UP & AWAY

The two-day UFO discussions in Oklahoma City last weekend provided a lot of interesting listening. My wife, Pearl, was very glad to hear more about the undersea ruins of a mythical city, Atlantis, as she would go far out of her way to learn more about history.

The speaker on Atlantis had pictures of the ruins which were first written about by Plato. The city was supposed to have been engulfed by waves after an earthquake some 9,000 years before Solon's time. He lived between 638 and 558 B.C. and was known as the Athenian legislator. The speaker had an interesting way of tying the ruins and recent discoveries in with UFOs.

One speaker, who talked as if he were quite familiar with the Bible, attracted my attention. His talk offered much food for thought.

One speaker, a national figure and educator, talked from 2:00 to 3:49 p.m. Sunday. He gave one of the most logical presentations I have had the pleasure of listening to.

I feel, as does Glen Shelton, writer of "Hired Hand" in the Wichita Falls daily paper, that "little green men" and outer-space people from other planets are nonexistent. I believe the reasoning used by the speaker I just mentioned, giving facts he had personally encountered during his 14 years investigating UFO reports, would go a long way toward causing Glen to weaken a little. My convictions on the subject weakened a lot, and doubts have been seeping into my mind since last Sunday's session. I taped his talk and will return it a number of times. There is a chance that I will become able to better understand all the implications.

The main reason I accepted the invitation to appear on the program was to hear Dr. Page describe what she and her family saw as they crossed the Red River on Interstate highway 35 near 2:30 a.m. in March, 1966. She, her son, her mother and another lady sighted the object, which came within 20 to 50 feet of the car. Dr. Page parked and got out of the car to better view the UFO some 20 feet above her. The object exerted so much pressure on her that she had to get back into the car to continue breathing normally.

The family watched the object, described as a huge gyroscope whose outside frame revolved, instead of the inner portion as in a child's toy with which many are familiar. Inside the object were four individuals, described as resembling Orientals. Dr. Page's

Army Privates Volunteer To Paint Church In Burk

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS-- For the past several Saturdays about 30 U. S. Army privates from the Army detachment of the 3750th Student Squadron at Sheppard have been busying themselves with what has become an Army project at the Central Baptist Church in Burkburnett.

Led by Platoon Sergeant Albert W. Barrett, Army non-commissioned officer in charge of the 50th, the privates have volunteered to man paint brushes and scrapers, replace wooden shingles, and to do various other tasks the Rev. Max Dowling, pastor of the Tidal Street church, happens to need to have done.

The men began their work program Feb. 20, when, with the help of MSgt. Urel Rutledge of the Base Motor Pool, Sergeant Barrett "commandeered" a bus and drove the volunteers here for a full day's work which lasted until 4 p.m.

The soldiers plan to continue the Saturday sojourns until all the necessary maintenance work is done.

Rev. Dowling refers to these enthusiastic privates as a "Godsend," and notes that the church has been the happy recipient of help from the Army detachment since the summer of 1969.

The volunteers for this particular project are enrolled in the cable splicing course at 3750th Technical School, and will return to Fort Sill upon graduation for reassignment to various posts throughout the world.

YOUTH ATTITUDE TOWARD MILITARY STUDIED CLOSELY

Who is more receptive to military service--a lower class youth who wants to get somewhere in life, or a youth of higher class status who also wants to get somewhere?

If the question appears too easy, try this one: Who would have a more positive attitude toward the services--a rural Negro youth who lives in the traditional South, or a rural white youth who lives in the same community?

Most readers will probably go along with the first part of each question because they assume that the lower class youth would view the military as a way out of his predicament or as a means to get training for a career.

In either case, the assumption would be wrong, according to a study reported by Dr. William Kuvlesky and Jane Dameron in the January issue of the "Journal of Vocational Behavior."

The research team from Texas A&M's Agricultural Economics and Rural Sociology Department found that Negro and white boys were "more alike than different in their orientations and projections for military service." In their study of 216 high school sophomores in three all-rural, non-metropolitan counties of East Texas, they also could not find support for the assumption that lower class youth are more positively oriented toward military service than youth of higher class status.

Kuvlesky and Dameron evaluated the students' attitudes toward military service by measuring their agreement and disagreements to such statements as: "Every American male should want to serve in expected involvement. The major difference between Negroes and whites is in their expectations of how they're going to be involved. Many more whites think in terms of either no military involvement or part-time commitment in the Reserves than did Negroes. Also, more Negroes than whites expected to either enlist or to enter officer's training in college.

Lower class youth with high aspirations to get somewhere are not necessarily more positively oriented toward military service than others, the A&M team learned. They as well as other respondents, are equally positive in their orientation toward the military, although other studies indicate that very few youth view the military as an occupational goal.

It is possible, Kuvlesky and Dameron conclude in the article, that "projection of particicipation in military service and a positive attitude toward it approximates a cultural universal among boys in their middle teens." The researchers pointed out that more extensive study is needed because of the limitations of their sample before any definite conclusions can be drawn.

The study was a contribution to the Texas Agricultural Experiment Sta. research project.

A total of 23 boys, including four from Walters, Okla., were enrolled in the school. Upon completion of the school each boy will receive a certificate stating that he can legally drive a tractor or operate that piece of equipment. This certificate meets the recent requirements of the Department of Labor.

The certificates will be presented during the annual FFA Slave Sale, which will be held Monday night.

Red River Valley

Citizens Band Club

Holds Meeting

The Red River Valley Citizens Band Radio Club held its regular meeting for last month on Feb. 18 at the ASCS building in Iowa Park.

George Witherspoon introduced L. W. Stankewitz, who showed a film on how tornadoes and other weather turbulances begin. Stankewitz pointed out to the members how they as a group can be of assistance to the authorities and to victims during such weather disturbances.

Fred Huffstutler reported to the members the details of the progress on the printing of club roster cards.

The condition of the first aid truck belonging to the club was discussed, including all repairs that need to be performed to keep the unit in readiness for any emergency.

Discussion was held on a coffee break held at Gainsville and several others to be held in the near future.

J.V. Landers was welcomed as a new member of the group. After the meeting, the members enjoyed a social hour.

DAVID MATHEWS

First Baptist Church To Hold Revival

The First Baptist Church of Burkburnett will begin revival services Sunday, with Sunday services at 10:40 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. and week-night services at 7:30.

"Two Young Men With A Message" will be the theme for the revival, according to the Rev. Lamoin Champ, First Baptist pastor.

David Mathews and Gil Cockreham will be these two young men.

Mathews, the evangelist of the team, is presently pastor of the Seventh and James Baptist Church in Waco.

He was reared in Vernon, and received his Bachelor of Arts degree in 1962 from Baylor University. His post-graduate studies were conducted at Florida State University. He received his Bachelor of Divinity degree in 1966 from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary.

He has been associated with Baptist churches in Tallahassee, Fla., Dallas, and Sanger. He was pastor of the First Baptist Church in Altus before going to his present church.

Cockreham will be the song leader during the revival. He is currently serving at the First Baptist Church in Altus.

These "two young men with a message" are expected to be an explosive revival team, and everyone is urged to attend the meetings.

Now there's a new, small Pontiac with a small-car price for small-car lovers.

Wouldn't you know it would be fun to drive, stingy on gas, quick to service and built to last.

Of course you would. We wouldn't build a small car unless we figured it would give you more of what you want a small car for.

Take that low price. Ventura II is a small car, so it has a low, small-car price. But it's what you get for that small price that makes Ventura II worth a close look.

Ventura II is fun to drive. It should be, it's from the Wide-Track people. Which means you get a smooth, comfortable, Wide-Track ride.

The handling's quick. There's a nifty 111-inch wheelbase for easy parking. And both the 250-cu.-in. six and available 307-cu.-in. V-8 respond beautifully in city traffic or on the expressway.

Ventura II is stingy with your gas money.

Both the standard six-cylinder engine and the V-8 you can order run beautifully on regular gas or the new low-lead and no-lead fuels. The carburetor on the six is an economical one-barrel, and the transmission for both six and V-8 is a practical 3-speed manual.

Ventura II is quick to service. If you're a do-it-yourselfer, you'll like fiddling around with the new, Ventura II.

New twist-lock lamp sockets let you make changes in seconds.

The engine is uncomplicated, and there is plenty of engine-compartment space, especially with the six.

If you ever need to have somebody else work on your car—well, you'll like Ventura II, too. Both the standard six and available V-8 are tough, time-tested designs. Same goes for transmissions. The standard 3-speed manual and the available 2-speed automatic, Turbo Hydra-matic or floor-mounted 3-speed are all rugged, dependable units.

Ventura II is built to last. There's nothing lightweight about this car. It's welded—not bolted—at hundreds of strategic points to help keep it tight and quiet.

The body is heavy-gauge steel. And it has double paneling in the deck lid, hood and doors. You could probably sum it up best with three little words: Body by Fisher.

So, come on if you're a small-car lover, stop by your Pontiac dealer's today. Tell him you want to see the new Ventura II. It's the small car that gives you more of what you want a small car for.

Don't forget to buckle up for safety.

Ventura II—It's Pure Pontiac!
