Editor's Viewpoint

Raymond Greenwood

The following was clipped from a friend's column in his newspaper, but I thought it worthy of note, and would like to pass it on to our readers.

For those who insist that Communism is not involved in the chaos presently upsetting our nation, we respectfully request that they consider some of the Red Rules for Revolution.

These are not new rules, but a repeat of a document obtained by Allied Forces in Dusseldorf, Germany, in 1919, in which the Communists outlined their plan for bringing about a revolution. Listen to these rules and ask yourself if anything sounds familiar.

Number One: Corrupt the young, get them interested in sex. Make them superficial; destroy their ruggedness.

Two: Get control of all means of publicity, thereby getting people's minds off their government by focusing their attention on athletics, sexy books, plays and other trivialities.

Three: Divide the people into hostile groups by constantly harping on controversial matters of no importance.

Four: Destroy the people's faith in their natural leaders by holding them up to contempt and ridicule.

Five: Always preach true Democracy, but set power as fast and as ruthlessly as possible. Point out government extravagance, destroy its credit, produce fear of inflation with rising prices and general discontent.

Six: Promote unnecessary strikes in vital industries, encourage civil disorder, and foster a lenient and soft attitude on the part of government toward such disorders.

Seven: By specious argument, cause breakdown on moral virtues, honesty, sobriety, continence, faith in the pledged word.

And, finally, cause the registration of firearms on some pretext, with a view of confiscating them and leaving the population helpless.

These are actual quoted statements of a Communist document concerning rules for bringing about a revolution, confiscated by allied forces way back in 1919. . . . . frightening, isn't it?

The local Lions Club will be holding their annual broom sale this Friday and Saturday in downtown Burkburnett. If you need a broom or a mop anytime in the near future, why not make it a point to purchase one from this club. Proceeds from this project will be spent by the club to purchase eyeglasses next year for the needy.

Reports have it that the local Rotary Art and Antique Show was more than a great success. Some 400 people came to view the paintings and antiques during the two-day event. If you were one of those who dropped by to view the exhibits, or possibly to purchase one, I know you will agree that you got your money's worth. They were some of the finest exhibits that I've ever seen. The show was so well received, I understand, that the Rotary Club has decided to make it an annual event.

Take special note of the Hidden Camera Ad in this week's paper. The person pictured therein could very well be you, and if so you have just won $7.50.

Also, if you are 10 years of age or older and would like to make some extra cash, be sure to read about our subscription campaign, now in progress.

Service Council Accepts Old Depot

The Community Service Council, in a called session Monday night, voted to undertake the project of moving the Burkburnett MKT Depot from its present site to a location in the Boomtown Old Park.

The Council was requested to undertake and complete this project by the Burkburnett Study Club, which initiated the project last fall.

The depot, which will become a museum-like historical display, will consist of the original two rooms, plus a portion of the loading platform. It will be placed in the Old Park in accordance with the specifications of the Old Park Committee of the Burkburnett Chamber of Commerce.

These specifications stipulate that there must be $2,500 in the bank for the renovation of the building after it is moved.

The moving and foundation is expected to cost a minimum of $1,500. At present, the Depot Fund has $1,180.75 on deposit, with another $1,200 in pledges, according to Mrs. Fred Hunt, project chairman. The additional $1,700 must be raised by June 10, which is the date set by the MKT railroad for the removal of the building. If the building is not removed by that date, it must be returned to the railroad for disposal.

"The only way that this amount can be raised in such a short time is through donations and pledges from every interested citizen in Burkburnett. Will you help?" asked Mrs. Hunt.

Special committees appointed at the called session included Ways and Means, with Bob Carter and the Rev. Lamoin Champ; Contracts (or removal), Mmes. Frank Miller, Donald Mill, and Rickery and Renovation, Mrs. Lela Mallett, Nelson Boyles and Dick Chambers.

The Museum, or Display, committee will be appointed at the next meeting, which will be Monday night at 7:30 p.m. in the Burk Bank.

Everyone is cordially invited to attend this meeting. Donations and pledges can be given to any of the above listed persons or to Aderan Dunn, Mrs. Fred Hunt or the Burkburnett Chamber of Commerce, but be sure to mark the donation for the Depot Fund.

Pre-Enrollment Dates Set

First Grade pre-enrollment dates for Southside Grade School and for Hardin Primary have been set, according to local school officials.

The pre-enrollment will be held Tuesday at 1:00 p.m. in the cafeteria at Southside.

Hardin Primary will conduct pre-enrollment on Wednesday at 1:00 p.m. in their cafeteria.

Each child enrolling should bring with him to the pre-enrollment an official birth certificate and a record of shots for smallpox, diphtheria, whooping cough, tetanus, polio and red measles (Rubeola or seven-day measles).

Forms for the kindergarten may also be picked up at these times.

Littlejohn Elected Board President; Principal A. E. Brown Retires

The Burkburnett School Board elected officers for the coming year at their regular meeting Monday night following the canvassing of the special election returns and the administering of the Oath of Office to the new board member, Ted B. Harris.

Elected president of the Board was Bobby Littlejohn; vice president, Norman Roberts; secretary, Gene Bankhead; and James Pearson, budget officer. Littlejohn, Roberts and Bankhead each held their same respective posts last year. Pearson replaces I.C. Evans, who held that post last year.

A. E. Brown, principal of the Sheppard-Burkburnett Elementary School for the past 12 years, presented his resignation to the Board at the Monday night meeting. His resignation was accepted by the Board, as were the retirements of Lois Reed, Jewel Reed and Otello Hooker.

Brown, who has spent 43 years in public school work, stated in his resignation: "After 12 years in this position, I can truthfully say that they have been the happiest and most satisfying of my entire professional career as teacher, principal and superintendent. I have especially enjoyed working with my long-time friend, Mr. (J.C.) Evans, who has done an excellent job under very difficult conditions. Also, I have enjoyed my relations with Mr. (James) Pearson and other members of the central office staff during these years. I appreciate the confidence shown in me by the various members of the Board who have served during my tenure."

Speaking of the staffs of teachers and workers, Brown stated, "Never have I had the privilege of working with more dedicated, capable and congenial people in my entire professional career." He went on to say, "I would not fail to express appreciation for the Air Force people which our school has been privileged to serve. They are fine, intelligent parents, who are dedicated not only to the defense of their country, but to the future welfare of their children."

Bobby Littlejohn, right, looks on as Ted B. Harris signs the Oath of Office.

Brown is a graduate of Bethel High School in Gould, Okla., and the University of Oklahoma at Norman. He served in the U.S. Air Force from 1943-1946 as a 1st Lt., Education Officer. He is a member of the Burkburnett Rotary Club, N.E.A., A.A.S.A., T.S.T.A. and T.A.S.A.

Resignations were also accepted by the Board from Glenda Cosper, Katie Burrows, Carolyn Davidson, Pamela Fulkerson, Marsha Hays, Suzanne Humphrey, Gayhart Jeanis, Nets Owen, Linda Reeves and Beth Roth.

The Board approved the employment for 1971-72 of David Burt, Donna Cost, Gwen Dowling and Mary Pittsworth.

Named to the tax equalization board were W. T. Jenne, C. E. Lundberg

Police Investigate Four Violations

Four incidents and three traffic accidents rounded out the Burkburnett Police Department's activities this past week.

Police are currently investigating the burglary of Wolfe Ford Co., which took place early last week. Taken were some tools and the contents of the vending machines. Further details will be made available when the report is finished.

Police received a report of theft over $50 from F. C. Roy of Bell Oil and Gas Co. Monday. Tools valued at approximately $100 were taken from a gager's pickup during the night Sunday.

Jackie Elizabeth McKenzie, 25, of 3019 Iowa Park Rd. in Wichita Falls was charged Monday with swindling, with a worthless check. She had given several such checks at a local Burkburnett business when she was apprehended.

Tuesday officers received a report of speakers being stolen from a 1963 Oldsmobile belonging to Larry Harris of 212 Laurel Lane. The theft reportedly occurred at the west parking lot at the high school.

Police investigated an accident last Tuesday at 415 S. Ave. B, near its intersection with Williams Drive. The accident occurred when the 1966 Chevrolet driven by Edwin A. Schroeder backed into the 1966 Chevrolet driven by Brady L. Rushing of 803 E. College St. The Rushing vehicle was parked in the driveway behind the Schroeder vehicle.

The second accident of the week occurred when a 1965 Rambler driven by Judith Tinsley of 1033 Jewel St. was struck while crossing an intersection by a 1971 Chevrolet pickup driven by Roy Smith of 801 Chestnut. The accident occurred at the intersection of Cypress and Easy streets.

The last accident of the week occurred Saturday at the intersection of US 277-281 and South Berry St. A Volkswagen driven by Paul E. Ludwig of Burk was traveling southeast on US 277-281 when it was struck by a 1953 Ford driven by Barry W. Adams of 613 Sycamore. The Adams vehicle was traveling north on Berry St.

Chamber Finalizes Plans For Annual Rodeo

All rodeo fans had better corral that old nag and try to get a saddle on her once again because the annual Boomtown Rodeo is just a month away. It's time to start planning for that special weekend in June -- June 17, 18 and 19.

Highlight of the three-day event will be the Rodeo Queen contest featuring some of the prettiest young ladies who ever boarded a horse.

Speaking of boarding horses, you'll see many try and probably only a few succeed as the chutes open during the three nights of the rodeo. Roland Reid of Fort Worth will be the rodeo's producer this year, and reports have it that he is bringing some of the top stock to be found anywhere.

The queen contest will be divided into three divisions: Seniors, Juniors and Little Miss. The Senior division will be composed of ladies 16-20 years of age who are single and have never been married; the Junior division of girls 11-15 years of age; and the Little Miss, of girls 6-10 years of age.

Rules and regulations for the Queen contest can be picked up at the Burkburnett Chamber of Commerce office.

All candidates must live in the Burkburnett school district, and all girls entered by June 1 will be honored guests at the monthly Chamber luncheon on June 7, which is also the last day for entering the contest.

It was revealed at the Monday luncheon of the directors of the Burkburnett Chamber of Commerce that a Kick-off Breakfast Tuesday at Ruth's Coffee Shop will officially begin the month-long preparations for the coming event.

Two tours of Texas and Oklahoma towns, under the chairmanship of Dow Estes, will be held June 10 (Texas tour) and June 15 (Oklahoma tour). These tours will consist of an old-time western band and a large group of Chamber of Commerce officials, advertising the upcoming rodeo.

The arena work day has been set for June 11; the Boomtown Parade for Thursday, June 17, at 5:00 p.m.; and the Kiddie Parade for the following Saturday at 10:00 a.m.

Rodeo committee heads announced Monday by Floyd Marten, rodeo chairman, include: Bill Vincent, T. M. Cornelius and J. B. Riley, advance ticket sales; Jim Frye, gate ticket sales; Lester Yates, ticket taker; Vernon Duncan, program sales and work day refreshments; Jake Fite, rodeo grounds; Mrs. Bobby Klinkerman, queen contest; Raymond Greenwood, Jack Aaron, Jack Mathis, advance publicity; Mrs. Glenda Galvez, program advertising sales; Wayne Sykes, parades; and Mrs. Ralph White, heritage week observance and Jaycees, concession.

Informer/Star Begins Campaign

Once again the Burkburnett Informer/Star has begun its annual subscription campaign for the Burkburnett area.

Last year the Informer/Star gave a sparkling bicycle to anyone selling as many as 22 one-year subscriptions to the paper. This year, however, it was decided that in place of giving bicycles, contestants will receive $1.00 for each new or renewal subscription sold.

"We decided to give the money instead of the goods since that is what people have the least of these days -- money," stated Raymond Greenwood, editor. Many of the young people seem to be concerned over raising enough money to be able to attend camp, buy some special sporting equipment, or possibly for a vacation; this could prove

Well, Hirschi felt the might of the Bulldogs for the second time this school year. The game Friday afternoon was something to see.

I thought all Burk's hopes were shattered in the fourth inning when the Huskies scored three runs on errors. The Bulldogs really looked down in the dumps.

Fortunately, they did not remain in that state, and they went on to beat the Hirschi team. Now that's a real sign of a great team.

Of course, with the north zone title to their credit, the Bulldogs will now enter stiff competition for the district title. At the time of this writing, Burk's opposition in the south zone was undecided. Weatherford and Stephenville were in a play-off for the title. The winner of that contest will meet the Bulldogs tomorrow.

Needless to say, the high school team has done a fine job so far this season. All team members have eliminated their respective faults and are playing at their best. This was quite evident Friday. All the coaching of Mr. Phillips and Mr. McCoy, the afternoon practice sessions, and the all-around teamwork really paid off.

The only other thing which remains to be said is: attend the game tomorrow if you can. The Bulldogs need your support.

Miss Roberta Hancock, daughter of Mrs. Robby Hancock of 511 Sycamore, was selected Area IV Future Farmers of America Sweetheart at the area FFA conference in Stephenville last Friday evening.

Berta was elected as chapter sweetheart earlier in the school year, and competed in the district contest in Vernon last December. There she was chosen as district representative, winning over eighteen other contestants. At the area level, Miss Hancock was elected to the honor after defeating four other district representatives. She will now go to the state conference in July. There she will compete with nine other area winners in the conference at Houston. Berta is a senior at Burkburnett High School. She is a member of the student council and local chapter of Future Teachers of America. She also served as a cheerleader during the year. She will be honored, along with other outable to score only one run. Burkburnett tacked two runs onto its lead.

The seventh inning was a battle between batter and pitcher. Hirschi scored two runs before Larry Van Lob, substituting for Moore, struck out the next two Huskie batters. Aaron fired the ball to first for the final out, bringing an end to the Hirschi threat.

The Bulldogs will face the winner of the south zone competition -- either Weatherford or Stephenville -- tomorrow in the first of a three-game series. The district title will go to the first team winning two of those three games.

Bulldogs Win North Zone

The Burkburnett Bulldogs gained the north zone title Friday afternoon by defeating the Hirschi Huskies in a play-off game at Bulldog Field with a score of 12-10.

The contest was opened by Hirschi. They scored three runs during their first session at bat. Mark Coheley and Bobby Ross were brought in by a double by Danny Rogers, who later scored on a single by Gary Anderson.

Burkburnett's first batter was thrown out at first. This was followed by a walk for Randy Aaron, a single by Joe Karstetter and a powerful single off the bat of Rick Reasoner. Monty Patton came to the plate with the bases loaded and was walked by pitcher-coach Bobby Ross of Hirschi. This forced Randy Aaron in for the first Bulldog score. The home teams second run was the result of a footrace between Karstetter and the Hirschi catcher. Joe ran home when Rodney Roberts fouled a ball to first.

After an uneventful second inning, Burkburnett surged ahead in the third, scoring three runs. Rick Reasoner stole home to score, with a triple by Jerry Patton bringing home Monty Patton and Rodney Roberts. Hirschi scored one run in that inning.

In the fourth inning, the breaks were for the Huskies, as they scored three runs on errors. Tom Bloodworth scored for Burk on a sacrifice by Karstetter.

The Bulldogs showed their superior ability in the sixth inning as they made short work of the Hirschi batters. In the last half of the inning, Jerry Patton and Rodney Roberts were hit in on a triple by Mike Tipton. Karstetter then hit another triple to provide clear sailing to home plate for Tipton and Burk pitcher Terri Moore.

Randy Aaron highlighted the sixth inning with some superb catches, and the Huskies were

There is a need to look back occasionally to get our bearings for the future. Past experiences often guide future action. What has proved good and profitable in the past will often prove to be the same in the days ahead. Serving God and our country through our churches and through civil and community service has always elevated us as a people and contributed to our image as a free and just country. We will not go wrong in adhering to these practices.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Federated Missionary Society Meets In Bunstine Home

The Federated Missionary Society met May 7 in the home of Mrs. Bunstine, with Mrs. Cauthorn as co-hostess.

The president opened the meeting by leading the group in singing two hymns. She then gave the opening prayer.

Mrs. Shrum expressed her appreciation to the group for a look they had sent her while she was ill.

Mrs. Ady and Mrs. Begeman reported to the members that they had taken a load of clothing and supplies to the State Hospital and had enjoyed visiting with the patients and seeing the beautiful things made by the patients in occupational therapy.

Mrs. Bekken and Mrs. Miller then reported on a visit they had had in Van Alstyne, Texas, Wednesday with Mrs. Van Deran, a former resident of Burk. Mrs. Van Deran sent her best wishes to her friends in Burk.

Mrs. Ady gave the devotional on "Love" taken from John 14:7. This was followed by the program presented by Mrs. Begeman, which included several poems. The program ended with a prayer.

The meeting was dismissed by the members' joining of hands and singing "Hallelujah to Thee." The twelve members present then enjoyed refreshments served by the hostess.

The club's June meeting will be hosted by Mmes. Ady and Kent.

World's Finest Chocolate, as part of a statewide effort to raise funds for a Texas 4-H educational center.

The sales campaign, which began Friday, will continue through next Friday, May 21. Mrs. Neal Collier, local 4-H leader, who is heading the county sales campaign, says the county sales goal is 3,000 bars. The bars sell for one dollar each.

A State 4-H Center is badly needed since the Texas 4-H program does not own any type of training or camping facility. The proposed center is being developed by the Texas 4-H Foundation at Lake Brownwood and will cost approximately one million dollars. It will accommodate about 175 people. The center will be a focal point for camping-type programs, 4-H leader training, citizenship seminars, leadership training labs, international 4-H activities, project training and other Extension Service activities. When not in use by 4-H, the center will be available to other groups with educational programs.

While the 4-H'ers themselves make their contribution, a statewide development council composed of business leaders will help raise the balance of the funds.

Treat yourself to a bar of the World's Finest Chocolate and you'll help support one of the World's Finest organizations.

by DAMON VEACH

Thomas Tutt was born in 1762 in Culpeper Co., Va., died 1804 in Bardstown, Nelson Co., Kentucky. He married Sarah Parks in Culpeper Co. on Aug. 23, 1787. She was the daughter of Richard and Mary (Graves) Parks. Sarah was born about 1769 in Culpeper Co. and died in 1820 in Kentucky.

Their children were: William, born about 1788, Culpeper Co., Ky., married Katherine Connor; Martha K. (Patsy), born about 1790, married Thomas Hotts; Sarah (Sally), born about 1792, married Charles Hotts; Polly, born about 1794, married Richard Parks; Elizabeth (Betsy), born about 1796, married Samuel Van Cleave; Emily (Milly), born about 1798, married John Mabley; John, born 1803, died Oct. 3, 1867, married Susan (Betsy) Hicks; Richard, born 1803, died Feb. 17, 1870, married Sarah Lee Hicks. John and Richard Tutt were twins, and their wives were probably sisters.

Richard Tutt and Sarah Lee Hicks were married Jan. 20, 1824, Green Co., Ky., and had the following children: Thomas Hicks Tutt, born April 8, 1825, in Allen Co., Ky., died Nov. 1901, married Susan A. Mercer, Jan. 11, 1846; Ludwell McKay Tutt, born June 29, 1827 in Ky., died June 6, 1880, married Louisa Jane Keen, June 13, 1850; Cyrus Parks Tutt, born 1830, died 1857, married Moray A. Sudarth, Oct. 5, 1851; James Richard Tutt, born Feb. 3, 1832, in Ky., died June 3, 1864, married Sarah Blakeman; Robert Price Tutt, born April 16, 1836, Ky., died Sept. 25, 1870, Grayson County, Texas, married Elizabeth Harris, May 14, 1861 in Johnson Co., Missouri; Mary Frances Tutt, born 1839, Ky., died 1970, married William Sims; William Guinn Tutt, born March 9, 1841 (or 1840) in Adair Co., Ky., died March 2, 1923, Runnels Co., Texas, married Mary Edith Harris, December 25, 1864, in Farina, Ill.

Elizabeth Harris, wife of Robert Price Tutt, was born May 27, 1841, in Missouri and was a sister of Mary Edith Harris, wife of William Guinn Tutt. Mary Edith was born April 15, 1844 in Missouri. There were three more Harris sisters: Nancy Jane Harris, born July 24, 1837 in Missouri, married John P. Warmick in Johnson Co., Mo.; Meady Harris, who married a Runnels; Madora (Dodie) Harris, married Henry Forbhan, Aug. 15, 1870, Johnson Co., Mo. The Harris sisters were daughters of John M. Harris, born Jan. 25, 1807, in Tennessee and died Aug. 22, 1888 in Bosque Co., Texas. He is buried at the Kimball Cemetery, Bosque Co. The mother of the Harris sisters was a McSpadden, and she was probably the second wife of John M. Harris.

COUNTY AGENT NEWS

B. T. Haws
Wichita County Agricultural Agent

Tetanus or lockjaw is a threat to any wounded horse. Horses are the most susceptible of domestic animals to the disease. The tetanus organism is especially abundant in areas where horses are kept and they can contract the disease from the slightest puncture wound. In spite of new treatments, tetanus is both difficult and expensive to cure, points out county agent B. T. Haws.

should be done is mesquite foliage be fully developed, dense foliage with a dark green color. Soil moisture within the upper 12 inches should be adequate at least 30 days before spraying. Many areas for spraying are going to be isolated, and an individual check on each ranch will be needed to determine if mesquite is satisfactory for spraying.

Bagworms, damaging pests of evergreens and occasionally of leaf plants, can now be found feeding on these host plants. Evergreen should be examined closely and if small bagworms are found, control measures should be applied. The worms are difficult to see because of the bag which they construct around themselves to which foliage is attached. As the bagworm feeds and grows larger, so does the bag.

Heavy infestations of bagworms can completely strip the plant of foliage. When this happens the plant may be lost. The same plants are infested year after year unless control measures are applied. Control measures are most effective when worms are small and before serious damage is caused to plants. Spray application of malathion, carbaryl, lead arsenate, or toxaphene are effective for control of bagworms. These materials are available under several trade names from nurseries, farm supply stores and supermarkets. Directions given on the label should be followed carefully.

Recent research at Texas A&M University shows that up to 900 tons of cattle feedlot manure per acre can be plowed under with no serious soil or air pollution problem.

One of two horse science schools to be held in the U.S. this year is scheduled for Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, beginning June 1. It is being sponsored by the Agriscience Foundation of Clovis, California.

It will require drought-breaking soaking rains of up to 1.5 inches by May 15 before mesquite could be in condition to spray in June. The best way to judge is spraying

Spring Diseases Prove Dangerous To Horses

By Dennis McIntosh, DVM
Texas Veterinary Medical Association

It's that time of year again! Flowers are blooming, trees are turning green, and mosquitoes are out. Their bite is painful, but even worse, they carry diseases. If you are a horseowner, arthropod-borne diseases should be of special interest to you. Sleeping sickness or Equine Encephalomyelitis, also known as "Encephalo," is almost always fatal when it attacks, but it is so easily preventable. A series of two injections of the vaccine will protect your horse during the mosquito season.

Another disease, though not carried by mosquitoes, is always of special concern. This is Tetanus, or "Lockjaw." This disease, rarely seen in humans because of routine vaccination programs, is much too prevalent in horses. Again an often fatal disease is easily preventable by something so simple as a vaccination. Every horse, whether pastured or stabled, upland or marshland, hot or cold country, should be tetanus-protected. The bacteria that causes tetanus is a spore-former and can live dormant for years in almost any environment.

Vaccination time is also a good time to have routine tube-worming done. Bot flies begin to get active at this time of year and lay their small yellow eggs on the hairs of your horse's legs and underside. When the horse licks himself, the eggs are carried into the stomach where they hatch. The larval hot then attaches to the stomach wall and feeds. Imagine how painful a small army of these monsters (about the size of a marble) can be! They also rob your horse of strength and stamina he needs. Other internal parasites such as blood worms, round worms and pin worms can be treated at the same time.

These are some of the preventive procedures that should be done routinely. They are extremely simple compared to the costly, time-consuming and often unsuccessful treatment of the conditions after they occur.

County H D Agent

Thelma Wirges
County Home
Demo Agent

May is Senior Citizens Month--Could you pass the test on aging? See how many you really do know, says Thelma Wirges, County Home Demonstration Agent. Just answer true or false to the following questions.

In our time it is not extraordinary to live 10, 20, or 30 years past 65 and still have full possession of one's faculties.

It is never too late to plan for retirement; however, the earlier the better.

People who do nothing with their leisure time 'rot' out their 60's and 70's.

The government feels that aging and retirement are a problem in our country.

In 1961 the first White House Conference on Aging was held.

Older people lend more stability to the labor force.

There are many opportunities today for retired people.

Older people can become involved and can undertake projects without leaving their homes.

You county Extension home economist can use volunteer help.

All of the above statements are true. If you didn't get all of them right, don't be discouraged--there are many unfounded myths or assumptions about aging.

One common myth is, "You can't teach an old dog new tricks." But an "old dog" can learn new tricks, if he wants to. Many Senior citizens are involved in all kinds of classes; some are finishing high school and others are in college.

Another myth is that additional years of life naturally mean increased disease. Doctors and investigators report that as a person grows older, he doesn't necessarily withdraw and become senile, and that good health is common to many Senior Citizens.

Retirement from work, then doesn't mean retirement from life. It's best to retire to something instead of from it.

Good health is a common goal for all age groups, but it's more difficult during later years. But additional years don't mean the onset of additional diseases.

Just good luck won't assure the senior citizen of good health. Miss Wirges suggests following a few simple rules; see how many you can check off as usual undertakings!

Develop regular health habits; eat proper foods, get plenty of rest and relaxation, exercise to control weight, practice good grooming and take immunizations on schedule.

Adequate medical care should include twice a year checkups, as well as dental, eye, hearing, and foot care. Avoid self diagnosis and self medication.

Don't forget safety practices. To prevent accidents and injuries, learn to move the body safely and refrain from harmful excesses.

Pursue satisfactory mental health--a "Sound mind in a sound body." Stay busy, maintain good relationships with family and friends, learn to face reality and problems in proper perspective, and indulge in a satisfying spiritual life. Most important, perhaps, is a wholesome attitude toward retirement. Such an attitude enhances both physical and mental health.

The current drought is forcing homeowners throughout Texas to make a difficult decision. How can the limited supply of water available for irrigation be best used in the home landscape?

In some areas, certain plants may have to be sacrificed in order to save others, reminds Everett Janne, Extension landscape horticulturist.

In general, plants used in the home landscape can be grouped as lawn and ground cover, shrub borders, flower beds and trees. And since trees usually serve a multipurpose providing enrichment, backgrounds, screen and shade, they are difficult to replace. Years are required to grow a tree large enough to be effective in the landscape; therefore, suggests Janne, it's wise to keep trees watered even if it means sacrificing other choice plants. For, he adds, a lawn or shrub area can be replaced in a season or two

Three Counties Designated For Emergency Loans

Archer, Clay and Wichita Counties have been designated by the Secretary of Agriculture for the making of Emergency loans, according to Charles McGivray, County Supervisor for these three counties.

The emergency designation is a result of the extended drought that has caused serious economic losses in agricultural production. Emergency Loans may be made to eligible farmers and ranchers who have suffered substantial production losses to assist them to continue their normal farming or livestock operations. Loan funds can be used to purchase feed, seed, fertilizer, insecticides, farm supplies, repair equipment and pay for several other types of essential farm operating expenses.

The current interest rate for loans made during the month of May is 4 7/8 percent. This rate is set each month by the Treasury Department based on current cost of certain government borrowings but will not exceed 6 1/2 percent. Repayment is scheduled over one to seven-year period, based upon the purpose of the advance.

Application forms and full information concerning the Emergency Loans may be obtained at the county office of the Farmers Home Administration, located in Room 309 of the Federal Building, 1009 Lamar St., Wichita Falls.

Reported Hog Cholera Outbreaks Continues

The search for hog cholera outbreaks in Texas continued last week with the disclosure of two more infected herds; one in Tarrant County and the other in Williamson County. This raises the number of cases in the state this month to 15 and the total for the year to 38, reports W. W. Bailey, Extension livestock and meats specialist.

With 81 cases reported throughout the country since Jan. 1, 1971, the 38 Texas cases represent nearly half the nation's total this year, he adds.

The case in Williamson County will mean an extension of the area under federal quarantine for hog cholera. Williamson is between two large quarantined areas comprising all or part of 35 counties. One such area stretches northwest from around Waco and the other stretches northwest of Galveston.

In April, 15 cases reported by counties were as follows: Galveston, 5; Liberty, McLennan and Montgomery, 2 each; and San Jacinto, Tarrant, Williamson and Wise, 1 each.

The 15 infected herds, comprising nearly 700 hogs, were destroyed to prevent infection spread. Another 14 herds comprising about 450 hogs were destroyed because of exposure to hog cholera.

Owners are paid state and federal indemnity to help compensate for losses. Such payments are based on market value of healthy animals and appraised for meat, feeding or breeding purposes.

Indemnity is paid only for animals which are alive on the first visit of a regulatory official, so it is in the best interest of the herd owners to promptly report any signs of sickness among their hogs, reminds Bailey.

Sick animals may be reported to private veterinarians, county agricultural agents, or to state or federal animal health officials. The hog cholera eradication headquarters for Texas is located at Waco, telephone number 817-799-0278.

Hog cholera is an infectious, highly contagious disease that affects swine only and is most often spread by movement of infected or exposed swine. A statewide restriction on swine movement is now in effect. No feeder or breeding swine may be moved except with specific permission of Texas Animal Health officials. In federally quarantined areas, a similar restriction applies.

Shorty Wheat Breaks 100 Bushel Barrier

Sturdy and Caprock, two semi-dwarf or "shorty" hard red winter wheats released by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station in 1967, have already established themselves as leaders in both production and quality.

The team of Experiment Station plant breeders which developed the new varieties was headed by Dr. I. M. Atkins, formerly small grains section leader and now retired as Professor Emeritus. Other members of the team were K. B. Porter, Keith Lehr and O. G. Merkle.

The plant breeders noted that commercial yields of 100 bushels or more per acre were produced in Texas during the 1969 and 1970 seasons. The new type can be heavily fertilized and irrigated to produce high yields without lodging.

The 100-plus bushels per acre came from commercial plantings, grown under irrigation and with heavy fertilization; however, dryland yields in the High and Rolling Plains during 1970 approached the 70 bushel per acre level. And, adds Atkins, a yield of 43 bushels an acre was posted as far south as San Antonio.

Wheat growers have been quick to accept Sturdy. From the 3,000 acres grown in 1967 when it was first released, the acreage in Texas jumped to 651,000 acres in 1970. Growers in Oklahoma planted 220,000 acres of Sturdy in 1970, and an estimated 6,000 acres were planted in Kansas last year.

Sturdy and Caprock grows 6 to 10 inches shorter than the older varieties such as Caddo, Crockett, Scout and others. On fertile soil or where fertilized and irrigated, the new wheats will stand for combining even with their very heavy loads of grain. All commercial agencies have approved Sturdy and Caprock as high quality, strong gluten hard wheats suitable for pan bread production, Atkins said.

Sturdy for the last two years has been grown in the International Winter Wheat Performance Nursery, which is conducted by the U.S. Department of Agriculture in 15 countries around the world. Atkins said it ranked third in yield and above all other varieties in resistance to lodging.

In 1970 Japan purchased $1.1 billion in U.S. agricultural products--the first time that a single nation has accounted for more than $1 billion in U.S. farm exports in one year.

Water Injection At Planting Helps Cotton Stand

The injection of water into the seed furrow at planting is a practice that can help cotton growers in the drier cotton producing areas, according to Fred C. Elliott, Extension cotton specialist.

Water injection isn't a method of irrigating cotton. Elliott said that under dry conditions there is usually subsurface moisture, but young plants can't reach it because there isn't enough water for the seed to germinate.

Swiss Citizen Re-Enlists In US Air Force

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS-- An airman who holds citizenship in both the United States and Switzerland re-enlisted in the United States Air Force last week for another four-year tour of duty.

He is Sgt. Christian D. Mueller, an aircraft maintenance instructor with the Department of Aircraft Maintenance Training of 3750th Technical School. He is assigned to the 3773rd Instructor Squadron of the school.

Col. Thomas B. Miller, commander of 3750th Technical School, administered the oath of enlistment as they stood beneath a C-130 aircraft. This is one of the aircraft that the sergeant gives lessons on.

Sergeant Mueller is the son of Robert Mueller, who now lives on Route One, Deerfield, Wis. The sergeant's hometown is Villanquax Et Friburg, Switzerland.

He became a naturalized United States citizen in April, 1966, and also kept his citizenship of Switzerland, according to a change in the U.S. Constitution in 1948 which gave the Swiss people the right to still retain their native citizenship even after becoming U. S. citizens.

He first entered the United States Air Force in September 1963. He received his early education in Switzerland, at Zorin Zell and at Thosstal Zell, Switzerland. He received his high school general educational development test from Deerfield High School. He also attended the University of Zurich in Zurich, Switzerland, and Midwestern University in Wichita Falls.

He came to Sheppard from Lockbourne AFB, Ohio, in April 1969.

His wife is the former Miss Patricia L. Sensel of Worthington, Ohio. They have one daughter, Amy Michelle.

Powell Assumes Leadership Of SAFB Band

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS-- Chief Warrant Officer Guy C. Powell assumed duties as commander of the 761st Air Force Band at Sheppard Air Force Base last Monday.

He came to Sheppard from Griffiss AFB, N.Y., where he served as executive officer and director of the Air Force Band.

He has had a long career in the music field. He completed high school at Lamar, Colo., and received a bachelor degree in music education at the VanderCook School of Music in Chicago, Ill., in 1938. During his college career as a professional trombonist, he played in concert bands, dance bands, and theater pit orchestras in the Chicago area.

Mr. Powell was a trombonist in the 122nd Field Artillery Band of Chicago when it was called into federal service in 1941. In 1942 he was commissioned a second lieutenant and served as forward observer in artillery in the European Theater of Operations until VE (Victory in Europe) Day.

At the conclusion of World War II, he returned to the civilian teaching profession, leading school bands in St. Charles, Ill., and Fayetteville, Tenn.

After re-enlisting in the Air Force, Mr. Powell was made a warrant officer band leader in 1949 and has served in that capacity to the present time.

He has served at McDill and Eglin AFB's in Florida, Pepperell in Newfoundland; two tours at Lowry AFB, Colo.; and one each at Lackland AFB, Texas, Keflavik, Iceland, and Ramstein, Germany.

He was awarded the Bronze Star Medal and the Purple Heart for combat service in World War II.

UP, UP & AWAY

Right now, I am wondering how many students an instructor must solo before the law of averages bobs up and a student does not make three good landings on his first solo trip.

The ratio that applies to my instructing experience is undetermined. Of all the students I have turned on their own, only two have made bad showings.

Far more have done better than I expected and made me proud to be the first to congratulate them on their accomplishment.

Somewhere in the early 50's I had a very intelligent lady taking flying. By the time she had flown two hours dual I was so impressed with her learning ability and the way she handled the plane on take offs and landings that I felt sure she could solo. At the end of five hours she was executing all the high work (stalls, steep turns and other requirements while using all the safety precautions that had been mentioned to her as visually checking for other planes in the area before practicing maneuvers that require gain or loss of altitude) with such ease and perfection I couldn't see why a flight examiner would not agree she was equal to most students who had received their private tickets.

I had made up my mind to solo her at the end of the sixth hour of dual.

My short north-south runway at Burkburnett, was not in the right direction for the southeast wind that afternoon, and we flew to the Kickapoo airport south of Wichita Falls. After shooting a few landings to get her familiar with the traffic pattern, I crawled out and gave her a few words of encouragement.

The time was not too long before sundown, the gas gauge showed less than half a tank, wind from southeast near 15 mph. Everything was set as far as I was concerned. That didn't last long.

The first take-off was nice. She climbed to 400 feet well, leveled the plane up, then made a good level 90 degree left turn, made her second left-hand 90 degree turn at 500 foot elevation and continued climbing on her down-wind leg of the pattern and leveled off good at 600 feet. She closed the throttle when her plane was even with the place I was standing and started her normal glide. He final approach was very good, and there was only one reason she did not grease her first landing. That was FEAR.

When the wheels of the Piper J3 touched the runway her airspeed was more than it should have been, and she went back up into the air approximately two feet. I was pleased, but she wasn't, and opened the throttle and went around. The second attempt was at least a 20-foot bounce and again she went around, which was fine.

The landings got to the point a good pilot would have had a hard time straightening them out.

Talk about sweating out a landing! I lost several years of my life, added a large number of white hairs to my head and wished I was back in the plane.

All this time, the gas was getting lower, and I could tell there would not be many more trips around the pattern before she would have to land whether she wanted to or not. The sun had already disappeared below the horizon, and that didn't help to ease my anxiety.

I had made up my mind to have the port call an ambulance if she did not bring it down on the next attempt. She had already made up her mind to bring it in as she was well aware she could not force land the plane in the daylight, let alone after sundown.

Her mind was made up: she landed and bounced some 20 feet, and continued to bounce until the plane stopped. That woman was so scared that she said she just turned the stick loose and let the plane do what it wanted to. She was covered with perspiration.

Three dual-hours later, I asked her if she wanted to try it again, and she said she did. The landings were perfect.

Three dual-hours later, I asked her if she wanted to try it again, and she said she did. The landings were perfect.

Hrabovsky To Represent SAFB In AF Program

SHEPPARD AFB, TEXAS-- CMSgt. Robert W. Hrabovsky, chief, fighter aircraft branch, Department of Aircraft Maintenance Training of 3750th Technical School, has been selected to represent Sheppard in the 1971 Outstanding Airmen of the Air Force Program.

Sergeant Hrabovsky, nominated from among four entries by a board of group-level officers, will compete at headquarters Air Training Command for the honor of being one of four ATC Outstanding Airmen of 1971.

As the fighter aircraft branch head, Sergeant Hrabovsky is responsible for the efficient management and effective operation of all its activities. He develops, coordinates, consolidates, and implements procedures and policies affecting the conduct of training, course materials, equipment, requirement, and utilization of personnel, equipment and facilities.

Sergeant Hrabovsky was instrumental in developing sound on slide presentations, which have increased the effectiveness of certain days of instruction.

He has also directed the development of inservice training courses on the F-111A, A-7D and F-4E aircraft.

Born in Reedburg, Wis., Sergeant Hrabovsky enlisted in the Air Force in 1947 and was married in 1955 while stationed at Sheppard.

His wife, Danna, is from Nocona, Texas, and is a graduate of North Texas State University in Denton. They have two daughters, age 10 and 13.

The Hrabovskys reside at 2212 Harrell Street in Wichita Falls, and are active in both church and civic activities. He is a member of the Board of Education of St. Paul Elementary School and the St. Paul Church Council and, along with his wife, works with the local Girl Scout organization.

The Air Force Association will honor the Outstanding Airmen of the Air Force at its annual convention in Washington, D. C., September 20-22, 1971. Twelve outstanding airmen will be selected from the 68 nominated by Air Force commands.
