Burglaries And Thefts Reported In Burk Burnett

Chief of Police Buck Abbott reports that the past week has been marked by burglaries and thefts in the Burk Burnett community.

Some time between noon on Sunday, July 4th, and 8:00 a.m. Tuesday, a person or persons unknown, entered the First United Methodist Church at 301 E. 4th St. and broke into a Coca-Cola vending machine, taking the cash from the machine. Entry into the building was reportedly gained through the front door, which had been left unlocked. It was reported to police that there could not have been more than about twenty or thirty cents in the Coke machine at the time of the break-in.

The police department also received a report of theft from the church of God at 121 Ave. E. in Burk Burnett. Some time between 12:30 a.m. and 8:30 a.m. Monday, July 5, a substantial amount of musical equipment was taken out of the building. Reported missing were one Gibson electric guitar valued at $130.00, one amplifier valued at approximately $50 and one electric voice mike, chrome, and boom value, at $35.00. Fingerprint samples taken from the area of the theft.

A report of vandalism and burglary was turned in from a private home at 711 Park Street during the week. The house was entered by means of breaking a window in the back of the building. Trash cans were found turned over in the living room, and paint was spread in the bath tub, and in the bedroom and other rooms. Fingerprints taken from a glass indicated that the deeds were done by a very small child.

An earlier case of theft occurred June 30, when several items were taken from a 1970 Chevrolet Pickup which was parked in front of an apartment in Burk Burnett. The stolen items included one brown stroo tape case, containing fifteen or twenty 4-track stereo tapes, most of them recordings of religious songs; one pair of flight goggles; one pair of leather flight gloves; one under-seat speaker; and one can of weed killer.

A burglary was also reported on July 30. Officers Templeton and Lassiter went to Wacker's 5 & 10 Store to investigate after Sam Siebert called and informed police that the car-ride machine in front of the store had been broken into during the night before. The investigating officers took fingerprints and pictures of the scene to aid in further investigation. Siebert, store manager, stated that approximately $20.00 or $30.00 in dimes was taken from the machine.

Local police officers also were called to the scenes of three automobile accidents during the week. The first of these accidents occurred when Harriette Chambers of 902 Easy Street made a wide righthand turn from a parking place and hit Jimmy McClain of 606 Hazel.

In the second accident, Richard Williamson, Jr., driving a 1961 Ford, crossed the center line on a Burk Burnett street and hit a 1968 Chevrolet parked on the other side of the road. The Chevrolet is the property of George Bailey.

The third incident involved an illegally parked vehicle. A car belonging to Wayne Chowning was parked with the left side of the car toward the curb was struck in the right front section by a 1966 Oldsmobile, which was being backed up by Stencil West at the time of the collision.

City Manager Asks Citizens To Conserve Water

Due to extreme drought conditions in our area, City Manager Gary Bean has asked the citizens of Burk Burnett to conserve on water as much as possible.

The City requests that each citizen wateronly when needed in order to keep grass and shrubbery alive. The conservation of our water supply at this time might possibly prevent compulsory water rationing in Burk Burnett at a later date.

At present, many people on the ends of water lines aren't receiving sufficient water pressure, due to the great demand which is placed upon some of the small water lines during these drought conditions.

The city has completed three new wells in order to correct this condition. In addition, well crews are working seven days a week to complete five more wells which are now under construction.

The City Manager also noted that during such extreme drought conditions as those now existing, the small showers offer very little relief. After such showers, the city is still pumping over two million gallons of water daily.

The city has taken this first step of voluntary water conservation in hopes that citizens of Burk Burnett will understand the extreme conditions in our area and will try to conserve water.

If this first step fails, the city will be forced to regulate water usage in order to meet water supply demands.

Alan Mahaffey, David Sprole, Brickly Sjolin and Ricky Sjolin, members of Boy Scout Troop 155, participate in the flag raising ceremony July 1. The ceremony was held in observance of the special day set aside to mark the inauguration of the new U. S. Postal Service.

Texas Schools Soon To Be Best Immunized

Texas school children will soon be among the best immunized in the country.

The recent session of the Texas Legislature amended the Texas Education Code to require immunizations against certain childhood diseases as a condition for entering school.

"This new state law will have great impact on the immunization level of the school population and, eventually, all the population of Texas," says Dr. J.E. Peavy, State Health Commissioner. "We are delighted with the law."

The Texas State Department of Health now has authority to set the rules and regulations for implementation of the compulsory immunizations. The Board of Health has set January 1, 1972, as the date by which all children's immunization series must have begun. School districts that have required compulsory immunizations in the past will still maintain their usual September deadlines for proving immunizations to enter school.

The immunizations previously required for all school children were set only by the individual school district, but now the state is requiring immunizations for up to six childhood diseases in some cases.

Elementary students will now be required to be immunized against diphtheria, tetanus, polio and smallpox. If there is no history of measles, that shot will also be required. All children under 12 years of age must also be immunized against rubella.

The number of required immunizations if fewer for junior high, high school and college-level students. Junior high and high school requires immunizations against only diphtheria, polio, tetanus and smallpox. College requires full immunization against polio is the student is under 19 years of age, and immunization against diphtheria, tetanus and smallpox within the past ten years.

Nearly every student in the state will be covered by this broad new law. Immunization will be required of students in kindergartens that are associated with elementary schools, all the elementary or secondary public schools, private or parochial schools, academies, colleges, universities, schools for the blind, deaf, mentally ill and mentally retarded. The only children exempted are those with religious conflicts, or medical problems--those that a physician determines would be injurious to health.

Dr. Peavy said he "urged all parents to contact their physician or public health clinic now, and begin their children's immunization program long before they enter school."

The ceremonies included a speech by Postmaster Dub Zimmerman, a flag-raising ceremony, the serving of refreshments and a tour of the

Highlight And Sidelights From Your Capital

AUSTIN, Texas--July 1 turned out to be a costly date for Texans. Not only did the nearly $1 million-a-day ($604 million biennially) tax bill take effect, but property owners got notice of hikes of up to 25% in their insurance rates. And just the day before (see below) the State Insurance Board staff recommended an average 2.8 per cent increase in private auto insurance coverage effective Sept. 1.

Tax bill raises the general sales tax from 3.25% to four per cent statewide (five per cent in many cities which also levy a local sales tax); adds three cents a pack to cigarette taxes; increases liquor tax about seven cents a fifth; raises beer tax a fraction of a cent a bottle; jumps sales tax on new cars to four per cent (ringing in car rentals) and jacks up corporate franchise levy $1.25 per $1,000 of capital.

A 10% tax on mixed drink sales went into effect last month.

A new kind of "surtax" takes effect September 1. It will cost moving traffic law violators $2.50; other misdemeanor violators tried in county court, $5; and those convicted of felony, $10.

Any election which is now in progress "must allow those 18, 19 and 20 years old to vote if they are presently registered," Dies, chief election officer for Texas, advised.

Young voters not now registered must wait until registration period reopens October 1.

COURTS SPEAK--In first case in which the Nixon administration sought to force busing in the desegregation of public schools, a federal judge at Austin gave Austin schools and U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare until July 16 to come up with a compromise plan "minimizing busing." Court found no official segregation against Austin Mexican-American pupils.

Third Court of Civil Appeals here ordered a new trial of the case involving authority of former Sharpstown State Bank president to check out bonds offered as security on a $470,000 loan. Now-defunct bank brought suit to recover its $470,000.

AG OPINIONS--Texas Worker Quality Board may contract with the federal government for increased percentage limitations on federal grants for waste treatment facilities with approval of the governor, Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin has held.

UNEMPLOYMENT UP -- Texas unemployment increased 15,500 from mid-April to mid-May to a total of 196,500 Texas Employment Commission reported.

During last year, unemployment increased 28 per cent, and number of claimants for jobless benefits jumped 42 per cent.

Seventeen of the major areas reported unemployment growth during the past month. Four had a decrease, and one remained unchanged. Unemployment rate (as percentage of work force) was 4.1 per cent compared with 3.3% in May 1970 and 3.8% in April.

LAND SALE SET--Leases on 97,726 acres of state-owned land in West Texas will be offered at public auction September 22 in Austin by Board for Lease of University Lands.

Total of 316 tracts will be sold to the highest bidder in Andrews, Cooke, Crane, Crockett, El Paso, Gaines, Pecos, Reagan, Terrell, Upton, Ward and Winkler counties. Oil and gas leases are being offered for the first time in El Paso County (block of 12,000 acres). More than 44,000 acres in Deep Gas Trend in the Delaware and Val Verde basins also will be up for bids.

SHORT SNORT--Parks and Wildlife Department won three major awards in international competition for best conservation information programs.

Arphaxad Dawson was born about 1805 in Georgia and died in October of 1862 in Gainesville, Cooke Co., Tex. His children were born in Alabama, Illinois, Missouri and Texas.

Arfax Dawson is found in the 1840 and 1850 Franklin Co., Ill., census records, and A. R. Dawson is found in the 1860 Grayson Co., Tex., census.

Arphaxad Dawson purchased land from Jacob M. Huffaker, Grayson Co., April, 1859. His brand and ear marks are registered in Cooke Co. His farm lies near the county line approximately half way between Sherman and Denton.

Three of his sons were in the Civil War. Samuel J. married Nancy J. Skaggs; Ephraim A., Lucinda Parsons; and George W., Cordelia Reeves. All three were married in Cooke Co. Two daughters were married in Grayson Co., namely, Nancy Cathrine, who married A. Dickerson, and Mary Ann, who married Rama Dye. Canzada Dawson married William T. King in Mitchell Co. and lived in Colorado City.

When Arphaxad Dawson moved from Illinois to Texas, five of his married children remained in Franklin Co. Three have never been located on records of that area. These were Arfax, Jr., America Jane (known as Marcia) and Parthena.

Major Hardaway Graduates June 11

Army Major John A. Hardaway, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Hardaway, 206 Laurel Lane, was graduated June 11 from the U. S. Army Command and General Staff College at Ft. Leavenworth, Kansas.

Major Hardaway was one of 1,247 Army, Navy, Air Force and Allied officers who graduated from the college.

The 10-month course prepares officers for duty as Command and General Staff officers in the field in time of war. In addition, officers are instructed in methods of research and formulation of military doctrine.

Speaker at the commencement exercises was Army General Ralph E. Haines, commanding general of the U.S. Continental Army Command.

Major Hardaway, who entered the Army in 1959, was last stationed at Ft. Hood, Texas. He holds the Bronze Star Medal, the Joint Service Commendation Medal, the Air Medal and three awards of the Army Commendation Medal.

The major received his commission through the Reserve Officers' Training Corps program at Texas Tech in Lubbock, where he received his B.A. degree in history in 1959. He is scheduled to attend the University of Kansas, Manhattan, to do graduate work toward his master's degree.

His wife, Virginia, was with him in Leavenworth.

New Law Can Save Millions

"Texans may save $340 million in the next two years because of one new law passed by the legislature and signed by the Governor," according to the president of the Texas Safety Association.

J. U. Parker, a Houston safety consultant, who heads the statewide safety group, made the comment recently in a release from TSA's Austin office.

He explained that Governor Preston Smith had signed into law a measure aimed at controlling the problem of the drunken driver-driver. Recommended as a part of the Governor's traffic safety program, the bill establishes the presence of 0.10 percent blood-alcohol concentration in a driver as a presumption of driving while intoxicated.

"Last year in Texas, abusive drinker-drivers contributed to the deaths of some 1,700 Texans on our highways. The cost to all Texans was an estimated $348.5 million," Parker said.

"If this new law is uniformly, fairly and firmly enforced throughout Texas, it could bring into control our number one highway safety menace and reduce the death toll by as much as 50 percent during the next two years," Parker commented.

Such a reduction could easily save the citizens of this state $340 million in the same period of time," the TSA president stated.

"But I must re-emphasize," Parker continued, "that we will not see a reduction in this abusive drinker-driver death toll unless there are strong efforts from the local law enforcement level and unless there is positive cooperation from the courts."

Parker said that the new drunk-driving law is evidence of the growing concern of the people of Texas with this major highway safety problem.

Lumber Industry Very Important To Construction

Many billions of board feet of lumber are used annually by the nation's home building industry. In fact, nearly all the homes, townhouses and apartments under construction in the United States today will be supported by structural frameworks of lumber.

About 12,000 board feet goes into the average single family home. Even those with masonry facades and no visible wood are held up and held together by subsurface frameworks of lumber.

Why this extensive use? There are various reasons--availability, economy, workability and most importantly, wood's resilient strength and ability to sustain and cushion the shock of heavy loads.

These physical attributes are key factors in resistance to violent storms. Many well-built wood framed homes readily withstand the fierce winds and tides of hurricanes along the Gulf Coast.

Since framing lumber is the heart of the home, its quality is a prime consideration. Some species of wood are much stronger than others--a distinction that should be carefully weighed before a choice is made. Then, too, the builder should specify lumber that has been properly seasoned and pre-shrunk before being surfaced to final size.

Mrs. Raymond Bagwell, Route 2, Claude, Texas, 79019 would appreciate data on the Wortemberger family. Lewis Wortemberger was born in 1830 in Stark Co., Ohio, and moved to Wabash Co., Ind., after the 1850 census was taken. He married Malinda Sunday in 1852. The family then moved to Michigan (place unknown) where most of their children were born. They moved to Texas about 1877, stopping in Kansas for awhile. The lived in the Kaufman, Ellis and Henderson county areas and were enumerated in the Ellis Co. census of 1880.

Their known children were: Cyrus, born 1853; Isabella, born 1855; Aaron Newton, b. 1857, married Ada Prigmore; Mary A., b. 1860, died 1895, Ellis Co.; George, b. 1862, m. Lydia Prigmore, died ca. 1899, buried Henderson Co.; Edmund, b. 1867, died in a railroad accident at Abilene, Texas; Benjamin F., b. 1871, died 1892, Ellis County; and Wilbur, born 1875.

Captain Norville, who is TDY there for almost three months, will serve as assistant administrator of resource management at the center.

The patients for the center will be physically withdrawn from drugs when they arrive at Lackland from Southeast Asia bases. They are to undergo psychiatric evaluation and reorientation there. They may be returned to duty, discharged under honorable conditions or sent to Veterans Administration or National Institute of Mental Health facilities for further care.

Lackland was selected as temporary site for the drug center, with final selection of a location now under study.

Captain Norville has served as advisor to the surgeon of the Vietnamese Air Force, and as associate administrator for the 85th Medical Group at Barksdale AFB, La.

He holds a bachelor of business administration degree from the University of Maryland in College Park, Md., a master of science degree in management from the University of Colorado, Boulder, Colo., and is working on a graduate degree in business administration at Midwestern University in Wichita Falls. He received his high school diploma and all of his college work after entering the Air Force.

Also assigned TDY at Lackland as a member of the team establishing the Special Treatment Center is Sgt. Charles Fenzler, of Sheppard's 3750th Maintenance and Supply Group. Sergeant Fenzler is an inventory management specialist.

Iowa Park, Tex. Dr. Bebb has promised me I may write about some of our experiences if I will let him edit the writings before they are submitted for publication. You could be interested in some of the goings-on that took place, if and when I get around to getting the information in this column.

Former Residents Of Burk Celebrate 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Prinzing, former residents of Burk Burnett, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary June 22 at their home in Kerrville. The couple was married June 22, 1921, in San Angelo, Mrs. Prinzing's home. Prinzing a World War I veteran, was born in Bartlett, Texas, and moved to Burk Burnett in 1919. Mrs. Prinzing grew up in San Angelo. After graduating from San Angelo High School, she attended Howard Payne College and the University of Texas. Before her marriage she taught school in San Angelo and in Miles, Texas. Upon their marriage, the couple made their home in Burk Burnett. While residing here, Mrs. Prinzing continued her teaching career, spending eight years as a grade school teacher in the Burk Burnett School System. Prinzing was employed by the R. H. Henry Co., and later owned a grocery store here. Both the Prinzing's were active members of the Burk Burnett community and the Methodist church before they left the area in the early '50's. She taught the Wesley Bible Class in the church for many years, and was a member of the University Study Club. He was on the Methodist church's Board of Stewards, and also served on both the Burk Burnett School Board and a consolidated county school board. In addition to his other activities in the community, Prinzing was a member of the Burk Burnett Volunteer Fire Department for twenty-two years. He stated, "I can still remember having to get up as many as threetimes a night to answer alarms during the depression days, when it seemed as though the houses just could not take those hard times."

Since his retirement, Prinzing has occupied his days with two hobbies, gardening and "just being lazy," according to his sister, Mrs. Joe Majors of Burk Burnett. Prinzing also has a brother, Monroe Prinzing, living here.

The Prinzing's observed the anniversary by spending a quiet day at home. In commenting on the completion of their fifty years together, Prinzing admitted, "I never thought that I would make this happy occasion. Not that I was concerned that we would not be faithful and true to each other, but because of the fact that I was past thirty years old when I married, and I did not think I would ever make it."

"C'mon—There's a list of your constitutional rights posted above the bath-tub... you can read them while you bathe..."

Neighborhood Meeting To Be Held July 12th

Included in the business of the meeting was the reading of the Educational Programs for the next club year. Helen Eaton, Rush Chairman, also outlined her plans for rush season, which begins August 28.

Plans for next year were also announced by several other chairmen. These included social chairman Nora Lemley, with the schedule of social events, and welfare chairman Romona Vaughn, who reported that her committee had selected several projects for the year. Among these are the Nursing Home, the annual scholarship award, Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets, and other projects which will be worked out with the membership.

Kathleen Brammer, club's president for the coming year, gave a brief talk, and members are looking forward to an eventful year. Refreshments were then served by the hostess to the following members: Mmes. Brammer, Clodella Bridges, Jimmie Briscoe, Lemley, Shirley Spinks and Vaughn.

The Alma Jackson group met for Bible study last week in the home of Mrs. Howard Smith, with Ruth Beldon, circle chairman, presiding.

After the meeting was opened with the singing of a hymn Helen Turner led the members in prayer. The minutes of the last meeting were then read and approved.

Miss Hazel Wagoner conducted the call to prayer, using the text of Amos 5:21-27. She then led the group in prayer for the missionaries whose birthdays were on the day of the meeting.

Mrs. Beldon then read the correspondence received in the period since the group's previous meeting. This included a card from Mrs. Yearly in Wichita Falls thanking the group for the Get Well card they had sent her, and a card from the State Hospital expressing appreciation to the members for remembering the needs of those hospitalized at the Wichita Falls institution. The group donated coffee and cupcake to the hospital for the birthdays of patients in one of the wards.

Helen Hattaway took the floor for a short time to urge more members to attend the House Party planned in Waco in August.

In keeping with their affiliation with the Baptist church, the group voted to make a donation to the R.A.'s to help in buying supplies for the boys' organization.

Lois Reed presented the Bible lesson for the evening, using the Parable of the Talents (contained in Matthew 25:14-30) for her subject. She emphasized the lesson contained in the parable: "It's not what we have, but how we use our talents."

Ruth Beldon dismissed the meeting with a prayer. The hostess then served refreshments to the sixteen members present.

Should Laws On Drug Abuse Be More Strict?

A two-to-one majority of teachers, students, and boys on probation believe laws on drug abuse should be more strict, according to a state-wide survey made by Texas Alcohol Narcotics Education (TANE).

The question: "Do you believe laws on drug abuse should be more strict?" was answered "Yes" by 85% of teachers, 65% of high school students, and 54% of boys on probation. Total response was 67% for more strict laws.

The survey was taken in both rural and metropolitan areas of the state, from Farwell, near the New Mexico line, to Houston. In large city schools, the administration was asked to determine a representative cross section of teachers and students.

"Are you personally acquainted with a drug abuser?" was answered "Yes" by 18% of teachers, 53% of high school students, and 50% of boys on probation.

"Do you know someone who could get illegal drugs for you today if you wished to make a purchase?" was answered "Yes" by 12% of teachers, 52% of students, and 39% of boys on probation.

"Do you know someone who would sell illegal drugs directly to you if you wished to make a purchase?" was answered "Yes" by 10% of the teachers, 40% of students, and 39% of boys on probation.

"In your opinion, what are the two main factors leading to drug abuse in teenagers?" was answered "Peer group pressure," and "Curiosity," in that order, by teachers. Students, however, rated curiosity first. Boys on probation rated "Escape" first, and "Sex substitute" second.

"In your opinion, what are the two most important preventative measures that can be taken to combat drug abuse?" was answered "Education" and "Elimination of Supply of Illegal Drugs," by teachers and students. Boys on probation rated education slightly ahead of law enforcement, stronger laws and legalization of marijuana.

The question: "Is it possible to learn about the effects of a drug without personally experimenting with it?" was answered "Yes" by 98% of teachers, 90% of students, and 84% of boys on probation.

When asked, "Have you come to a decision about whether marijuana should be legalized?" 80% of teachers, 78% of students, and 44% of boys on probation answered that they had. (They were not asked what their decision was.) Areas involved in the survey were Farwell, Cotulla, Sulphur Springs, Richardson, Garland, Childress, Grapevine, McAllen, Fort Worth and Houston. (The survey was also taken in Dallas, but results were not returned in time for tabulation.) TANE is a non-profit, educational organization, dedicated to preventing alcohol and drug problems. Its existence since 1935, it is supported financially by Texas churches, individual contributions, businesses, industry and proceeds of sale of educational aids. Programs include public school assembly programs, in-service teacher training workshops, drug education seminars for schools and churches, publishing books, production of audio visual aids, a 150-man speakers bureau, legislative information service, research, and an annual drug education workshop, co-sponsored with Baylor University. The next workshop is scheduled for August 5-7 at Waco.

Burkburnett Church of the Nazarene has been serving our community for fifty years. This is our Golden Anniversary! This is also our golden opportunity to reach out with the full message of salvation. We believe that the revival spirit which started our church fifty years ago still lives within the hearts of believers. We believe that God is still in the soul-saving business, and He can cleanse us from all sin! Our future is just as bright as the promises of God. God needs the church as never before. In a nation where the taverns outnumber the churches by several hundred thousand, and wrecked homes are becoming a universal tragedy, the gospel of Jesus Christ is needed. Our church inspires, challenges, organizes, and reaches out as an extension of Jesus Christ. We preach and souls find rest; we sing and people get blessed; we pray and find strength to meet the test. The Church of the Nazarene is made up of common folk with an uncommon Savior. We are located at Third and Holly. Our regular services are:

Bentson Criticizes President's Education Budget

Senator Lloyd Bentson said last week in Washington that the Nixon Administration's budget request for education for next year is clearly inadequate to meet the pressing needs of schools, and urged the President to accept the Congressional increases approved by a Senate-House conference.

Congress added $393 million to the Nixon budget request for schools. The appropriation is now before the President for signature.

"Even the President has said that cuts in the budget must not come in the school area, and there is no more critical investment by government," Bentson stated. "It is apparent that support for education at the same level as last year represents a reduction because of inflation."

He said that elementary, secondary and higher educational funding is necessary to maintain adequate facilities and instruction.

The Senator said that the increases approved by Congress for environmental education, drug abuse education and bilingual education were particularly meaningful for Texas.

Wet Weather Driving Need Not Be Dangerous

The current drought conditions in Texas won't last forever, and when the dry spell ends many Texas motorists may find themselves involved in wet-weather driving accidents.

Wet-weather driving is different, an extensive research project conducted by the Texas Highway Department indicates.

But it need not be as dangerous as the rash of accidents that always seem to happen as soon as the rain starts to fall.

The Highway Department study points toward several actions the motorist can take for his own safety when driving in the rain:

- Slow down.
- Avoid sudden stops and driving maneuvers.
- Make sure tires are in good condition.

The tips are just plain common sense, but unfortunately, not everyone uses common sense when it rains.

For example, the Highway Department's researchers found that high speeds loom large among the factors involved in wet weather accidents.

Checks made by the research engineers indicate that the average motorist diminishes his normal dry pavement speed by only a few miles per hour in the rain.

But a slight decrease in speed will not provide a good margin of safety in rainy day driving. For one thing, it can take as much as four times more distance to stop on wet pavement than on dry.

Tires are another factor in wet-weather accidents that the driver can do something about.

The Highway Department studies, based on analysis of 500 wet-weather accidents which occurred in a 10-county area of Central Texas, show that slick tires can be murder.

Researchers say tread depth of all four tires should be at least 2/32 of an inch. Any less, and there is real danger of skidding or hydroplaning.

Hydroplaning occurs when a thin film of water builds up between the pavement and the tire. When the tires do not have good contact with the traveling surface, of course, the driver has no control over his car.

Through research, Highway Department engineers have found ways to improve the roadways for driving in adverse conditions. They have found ways to improve curves; they have found ways to improve the cross-section of the roadway so that water will drain faster; they have found ways to develop new skid-resistant surfacing material and many other improvements.

Still, it is up to the individual driver to do his part--slow down, avoid sudden stops or maneuvers and make sure tires are in good condition.

COUNTY AGENT NEWS

Agricultural Agent

Texas livestock producers recorded nine screwworm cases during the two-week reporting period of May 30 through June 12, 1971. A year ago, six of the livestock pest cases were confirmed in Texas and four in Arizona during the corresponding reporting period.

To date this year, no other states have recorded any screwworm cases. In 1969 livestock pest cases numbered 33 cases for the same reporting period.

Every sector of our economy has a stake in agricultural foreign trade. Farmers benefit substantially from export marketings and in recent years about $6 billion annually from dollars earned in overseas markets have helped our balance of payments.

Texas' share of the fiscal 1970 agricultural exports was $422 million, or about 15% of its cash receipts from marketings. While it ranked 4th among agricultural exporting states, it led in cotton, with 29% of the total, and ranked second in rice with 24%.

Homeowners who have St. Augustine grass or Bermuda grass lawns which are turning yellow instead of growing thick and green should look for nitrogen and iron deficiencies in their soil.

The nitrogen deficiency causes a general yellowing of the lawn while the symptoms of iron deficiencies are yellow, bleached spots in the turf.

Fertilizer containing nitrogen, phosphorus, and potassium should be applied in the early spring and again in the early fall to eliminate deficiencies in nitrogen. In addition to this, applications of nitrogen as ammonium nitrate or ammonium sulfate at four to six week intervals should be applied. The additional applications during the summer months help to maintain vigor, color and uniform growth of the grass.

A soil test is extremely helpful in determining exact fertilization needs.

Loose stacking hay with mechanical stackers continues to gain interest among Texas forage producers. There are several advantages that loose stacking offers the forage producer:

The first of these is that less labor usually is required for stacking the same amount of hay. With limited labor supplies, forage producers consider this factor very important.

Another item to consider is that hay quality can be satisfactorily maintained in loose stacking if stacks are formed to shed rainfall.

Loose stacking hay poses some problems, however, since hay stacked loosely has a reduced marketability compared to baled hay. Stacks may also tend to deteriorate if the equipment operator is inexperienced in forming stacks.

There are two basic designs of hay stacking equipment available. One is the front loader which operates much like the hydraulic scoops often mounted on the fronts of tractors. The other piece of equipment is the pull-type stacker which picks up hay and blows it onto a wagon. The load of hay can be hauled to one side of the field and ejected from the wagon.

In addition, the office secretaries heard lectures and viewed a slide film on the history and purpose of Farm Bureau. Concluding speaker on the program was TFB Executive Director O. R. Long, who reviewed the overall organization structure and outlined "opportunities for office secretaries."

Mrs. Creola Wobbe, Waco, TFB assistant secretary, discussed general office procedures and the processing of membership transmittals.

AAA Reports Garage Rackets Flourishing In U.S.

Reports made to the American Automobile Association from motorists driving through the southwestern states indicate that garage rackets are flourishing. This is not simply the slipshod, inept sort of service that irritates and frustrates car owners. Rather it is the employment of deception by a few garages and service stations to defraud motorists into buying unneeded tires, parts and accessories.

In Arizona, garage rackets are so prevalent that the state's attorney general's office has recently initiated a statewide campaign to combat unscrupulous service station practices. Travelers are warned of fraudulent practices by radio messages prepared by the attorney general's office, and teams of investigators driving pre-tested vehicles are making spot checks on stations along the states' interstate highways.

A variety of methods is being used to defraud the traveler. Slashing tires with a sharp instrument is a method frequently used. Squirtling oil on or under fuel pumps and shock absorbers are common ploys.

Sometimes the deceptive methods are more crude - such as disconnecting a wire to the starter, then removing the starter and allegedly replacing it with a rebuilt one, which turns out to be the same starter that was there before.

Victims all but invariably are in cars with out-of-state license plates. Favorite targets are women motorists and the elderly.

To reduce chances of being cheated, the AAA suggests that motorists patronize stations selling a well-known brand of gas in the larger cities.

Always leave someone with the car while it is being checked over.

Look over the attendant's shoulder while he checks the oil and water levels.

If you buy a replacement part, insist that the supposedly defective tire or accessory be placed in the trunk for later checking.

Suppose it turns out that you have been swindled. The thing to do is to complain: to the oil company, to the AAA, to the Better Business Bureau having jurisdiction over the area where the event occurred, to the tourist promotion agency in the state, or even to the governor of that state.

This may result in an adjustment for you, and will help to assure other motorists who are traveling your path, of honest service.
